The Obituary

"The life given us by nature is short; but the memory of a well spent life is eternal."

Mr. Nathaniel Flintall, the son of the late Mr. William P. Flintall, Sr. and the late Mrs. Annie Tapp, was born on December 17, 1917 in Durham, North Carolina. He departed this walk of life on Monday, September 20, 1993 in Durham, North Carolina, after a prolonged illness.

He received his education in the Durham City Public School System and was graduated from Hillside High School, Durham, North Carolina in the class of 1937. He was veteran of the United States Army, where he served for three years and was honorably discharged in 1945. For over thirty years he was employed with the City of Durham as Supervisor of the Resource Plant and retired from that position in 1983.

Nathaniel became affiliated with the White Rock Baptist Church at an early age, and like many other members of the immediate family, joined the Senior Choir. He sang in the tenor section of the choir for many years until illness curtailed his participation.

Additionally, "Shank," as he was affectionately called by his family and many friends, was active in fraternal and community organizations. He served as Chief Instructor of Doric Masonic Lodge No. 28, PHA and was a member of Durham Consistory No. 218 and Zafa Temple No. 176.

He leaves to cherish his memory and mourn his loss, one son, Mr. Zack Booth, Jr. of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania; one brother, the Reverend Joseph C. Flintall of Greensboro, North Carolina; four sisters, Mrs. Willie A. Smith of Greensboro, North Carolina, Mrs. Lyda F. Betts, Mrs. Piccala F. Jones and Mrs. Emma F. *"Fading away, like the stars of the morning —
Loosing their light in the glorious sun —
This world we pass from the earth and its toiling—
Only remembered by what we have done."*

WILLIAM PROCTOR "DOCK" FLINTALL, SR., for the past sixty years a faithful, devoted, and active member of White Rock Baptist Church, was born in Caswell County, son of the late Issac and Willie Flintall.

He attended the public schools in Orange County, and moved to Durham in 1905 where he began employment in one of the early tobacco factories. Shortly after coming to Durham, Flintall joined White Rock Baptist Church in 1906, and maintained a continuance and commendable record of active participation in the Church's program. He became a member of the Deacon Board in 1922, and served as Chairman of the Board for the past eight and a-half years. Also, he served as a Trustee of White Rock for twenty-five years, and as a member of the Choir for the past forty years. In addition, he was never too busy to repair, replace or restore any Church property or equipment from the simplest light bulb, to the more complicated electronic sound system or pipe organ.

In his vocational exploits, excellency was his aim. On February 1, 1925 he employed by North Carolina Mutual Life Insurance Company as a custodian, and later served as a clerk in the mail and supply department; a typesetter in the printing department; chief clerk in the mail and supply department, and finally as maintenance engineer of the home office, from which he retired on July 1, 1957.

In 1909, Mr. Flintall married Miss Annie Tapp of Durham, and from this union 10 children were born. Mrs. Flintall died in 1926, and in 1929, Mr. Flintall married Mrs. Pearl Sears of Virgilina, who passed in 1959.

Deacon Flintall was a former member and Secretary of the Royal Knights of King David Lodge, the Knights of Pythias, and at the time of his death was Chaplain of the Retired Employees Club of North Carolina Mutual Life Insurance Company, and a member of Doric Lodge No. 28 of the Free and Accepted Masons.

He is survived by eight children, William Proctor Flintall, Jr., Mrs. Lyda Ruth Betts, Mrs. Pecolia M. Jones, Nathaniel Flintall and Mrs. Gwendolyn Bittle of Durham; Mrs. Emma Louis Jennings of New York City, Joseph Clinton Flintall of Albany, New York, and Mrs. Willie A. Smith of Greensboro.

Also surviving are five sisters, Mrs. Eliza Sanford, Mrs. Rebecca Johnson, Miss Beatrice Flintall and Miss Myrtle Flintall, all of Durham, and Mrs. Effie Cauthins of Wheeling, West Virginia; and two brothers, Issac and John Flintall of Durham. And hug your sorrow to you through the years,
But start out bravely with a gallant smile.
And for my sake and in my name,
Live on and do all things the same;
Feed not your loneliness on empty days,
But fill each waking hour in useful ways.
Reach out your hand in comfort and in cheer,
And I in turn will comfort you and hold you near;
And never, never be afraid to die,
For I am waiting for you in the sky.*

The Obituary

MRS. EDDYE BELLE HICKS FOGLE, daughter of the late Mr. Eddie Hicks and the late Mrs. Rosa Hawks Hicks, was born in Durham County, North Carolina. She departed this life on Friday, March 18, 1994 at Duke University Medical Center, Durham, North Carolina.

Through the death of Mrs. Fogle, the entire Durham community has suffered a great loss. For many years, prior to her retirement, she served the children of Durham and the Durham City Schools with great love and dedication. Her contributions and service to Mount Vernon Baptist Church have had great impact on each of us. If the hymn "May The Work I've Done Speak For Me," has any significance for us, her "works" most certainly do. These include her leadership in the role of teacher for the Kingdom Seekers Bible Class, her involvement with the Missionary Department, her directorship of the Male Chorus in past years, her influence as a mentor for many children of the church and her more recent service in her music ministry as director of the Senior Choir II.

The entire Durham community is better for her having come this way.

Someone Cares by Helen Steiner Rice

Someone cares and always will,
The world forgets but God loves you still,
You cannot go beyond His Love
No matter what you're guilty of-
For God forgives until the end,
He is your faithful, loyal friend,
And though you try to hide your face
There is no shelter any place
That can escape His watchful eye,
For on the earth and in the sky
HE'S EVER PRESENT and ALWAYS THERE
To take you in His tender care
And bind the wounds and mend the breaks
When all the world around forsakes...
SOMEONE CARES and LOVES YOU STILL
And GOD is THE SOMEONE who always will.
(To my sister Betty (Baby), with love

In My Memory
by John Carter Washington
March 19, 1994

*In my memory is a person I'll never forget.
Each hour with each minute in it
Has been no time for regret that we met.*

*In my memory she is gentle, kind and noble.
The person of whom I speak is the Mrs. E. H. Fogle.*

*In my memory there is a loving heart
who taught the choir to sing,
"How Great Thou Art."*

*In my memory there is a melody
"Where Could I Go But To The Lord,"
It made the housetop ring! and as the group did sing,
God's praises rocked the church in great accord!*

*In my memory there was jubilee.
Sister Fogle used to make that organ ROLL!
The music in her heart, the music in her head,
The music in her fingers touched the soul.*

*In my memory, what a joy that,
Could be shared nationwide and globally.
Although the world did miss,
Mount Vernon joyed in this,
And we thank God for Sister E. H. Fogle.*

*In my memory, there's one who inspired me
To look on life with courage that is bright,
And she influenced others, friends, sisters and brothers
As she pointed out God's teachings, truth and light.*

*May God bless Sister Fogle
And let us meet again
In the world of peace and rest
Free from turmoil, strife and pain.*

*May we forever linger
In God's eternity
And shake hands with the sister
That's in my memory.*

When I Must Leave You

*When I must leave you for a while,
Please do not grieve and shed wild tears
And hug your sorrow to you through the years,
But start out bravely with a gallant smile;
And for my sake and in my name
Live on and do all things the same,
Feed not your loneliness on empty days,
But fill each waking hour in useful ways,
Reach out your hand in comfort and in cheer
And I in turn will comfort you and hold you near;
And never, never be afraid to die,
For I am waiting for you in the sky!*
