Superintendent of Blue Ridge Hospital

"HONORED FOR 20 YEARS OF SERVICE: -- Mrs. Ruby A. F. Woodbury Scarlett Hilton, R. N., Head Nurse of a private long-term unit at the Kingsbrook Jewish Medical Center, Brooklyn, will be feted by her colleagues in the department for 20 years of outstanding service to the department, the hospital and its patients at an anniversary and testimonial dinner in her honor on Sunday evening, March 5th in Kingsbrook's Leviton Auditorium.

The evening is being arranged by a committee of nurses, of which Pearl Robinson, R. N., Supervisor, is chairman.

Mrs. Hilton has a long and distinguished record in the field of nursing care. She was graduated from the McClellans Hospital and Training School, Charleston, S. C. and did post graduate work at Harlem Hospital in Manhattan. She also did graduate work at New York University in methods of teaching in hospital administration and ward management.

She founded and operated the first hospital in her hometown, Georgetown, S. C. Subsequently, she served as Director of Nurses at the Arthur B. Lee Hospital, Summerville, S. C., the Good Samaritan Hospital and Training School, Columbia, S. C., the Blue Ridge Hospital and Training School, Asheville, N.C., the L. Richardson Hospital and Training School, Greensboro, N.C.

The Richardson Hospital received its accreditation during Mrs. Hilton's tenure, where she was instrumental in securing the gift of a nurses home through the Julius Rosenwald Fund. Her late husband, Dr. H. Scarlett, was an attending physician at the hospital.

Following her service at Richardson, Mrs. Hilton served as Director of Nurses at Prairie View College Hospital and Training School, Prairie View, Texas. Subsequently, she was named Dean of Women and School Nurses at Kittrell College, Kittrell, N.C.

During the Roosevelt Administration, she was a State Health Supervisor for the National Youth Administration for Georgia. She also served as President of the North Carolina State Nurses from 1933-37, and from 1929-37 was Supervisor of the District Nurses Association covering Greensboro, High Point and Winston-Salem, N.C.

Mrs. Hilton was invited by the Alumni Association of L. Richardson Hospital to be an honored guest at the dedication of their new hospital. She was also honored at the Bi-Racial State Meeting in Raleigh, N.C., following the merger of the white and black State Nurses organizations.

She is a member of the Bridge Street AME Church, and is presently serving as Second Vice President of the Laymen's Organization. She is also a member of the South Carolina Club and Booster's Club, and the Hildebrand Club.

The Kingsbrook Jewish Medical Center is an 823-bed rehabilitation, teaching and research center devoted to the care and treatment of acute and long-term illnesses."

HILTON — Funeral services for Mrs. Ruby Woodbury Scarlett Hilton who passed in Brooklyn, New York on June 14th were held June 19th at the Bridge Street A.M.E. Church, with the Rev. Carrie Bellamy officiating. Burial was in the Cypress Hill Cemetery. She was a former Director of Nurses at the H. Richardson Hospital in Greensboro.

A Psalm of Life

Wallace Harvey Hinton

May 12, 1919 - July 21, 1998

Son of Charlie and Allie Hinton; Husband of Julia Louise Perry; Father of Deryl, Eleanor and Reginald; and Grandfather of Daphne, Reginald, Dane and D'Ondria was a man of courage and compassion.

His life of 79 years was a simple, quiet one, devoted to his family, church, and community. He sought peace and happiness through giving and serving.

In the world's broadfield of battle, his life of valor and service began early. His five years of service in the U.S. Army earned him 3 Bronze Service Stars; A Good Conduct Medal; the American Defense Service Medal; the Phillipine Liberation Campaign Medal; and the Asiatic Pacific Campaign Medal.

Committed to serving his community and the good of man, he joined the Dorcas Masonic Lodge, #460PHA in 1951. He also was a former member of the Durham Consistory, #218 and Zafa Temple, #176. As a volunteer in the Durham Community at Large and the West End Community, he was the recipient of two Certificates of Appreciation for Volunteer Services to the People of North Carolina from the State of North Carolina Department of Human Resources, and a Certificate of Appreciation in Recognition of Outstanding Volunteer Service in the Interest of Older Persons from the Durham Coordinating Council for Senior Citizens in 1988, and the Service Award for Distinguished Community Service from the Lyon Park Community Association.

As an humble man who believed in God and who humbled himself before God, he chose First Calvary Baptist Church as his Church. He spent forty-nine years in service, first as a Scout Master of Troop 108, a choir member and soloist, later a Deacon and Trustee and always a faithful member and friend. For his unwavering devotion, he received the Outstanding and Dedicated Service Award in 1983, was honored as the Man of the Year for Forty Years of Outstanding Service and Dedication in 1989, and was awarded the Pastor's Award in 1992.

He was most proud of his role as a family man, and spent his life loving and caring for his wife; loving, giving, and understanding his children; and loving and doting on his grandchildren. He made sacrifices, never complaining and always ready to encourage and help. He also embraced our many friends and considered them his children.

Family members to cherish his memory include two daughters-in-law, Esther Faye Hinton and Regene Berry; a sister, Rose Closs, Raleigh, N.C.; a step-brother, William Haskins; his late brothers' children, Doris Mitchell, Rita Carol Whitfield, Earl, Cleveland, Jr., and Wayne Hinton; a nephew, Carl Gunter of Cleveland OH; and a host of other family members and friends who called him "Dad", Brother and Faithful Friend.

A Psalm of Life

—Henry Wadsworth Longfellow

*Lives of great men all remind us
we can make our lives sublime,
And, departing, leave behind us
Footprints on the sands of time.*

*Footprints, that perhaps another,
Sailing o'er life's solemn main,
A forlorn and shipwrecked brother,
Seeing, shall take heart again.*

*Let us then be up and doing,
With a heart for any fate;
Still achieving, still pursuing,
Learn to labor and to wait.*

"To My Special Friend"

Our special times have been "very special"
Our trying times have been "most trying"

I knew you were tired and needed to rest
So please rest now Snook and don't you fret, for me, Phyllis, Greg and the kids will just do our best

I love you Snook and miss you already,
At first I was angry, hurt and confused,
to have fought so hard and then to lose
You were my best friend, my support,
and my love, and for that,
I take time to thank God up above.

We will miss you deeply as we already do,
this is so hard, but as always I want what's best for you!!!

Loving you always,
Vickie

Acknowledgement

The things you have done during our grief,
have been very helpful,
and brought great relief.
If you sent a flower, or had us on your minds,
we appreciate you, just for taking the time.
May God bless you!

OBITUARY

Henry Walter Holden was born to Josephine and Johnnie Holden on February 14, 1941 in Raleigh, N.C. He departed this life at Duke Hospital on September 12, 1994. He became a member of Ebenezer Baptist Church at a very early age. He attended Hill Side High School and later continued his education at NCSU and Durham Business College.

He leaves to love and cherish his memories, his loving mother, Mrs. Josephine Cannady Holden of the home, a daughter, Mrs. Phyllis A. Jennings of Durham, a son Gregory Holman of Durham, one granddaughter Shakema Jennings of the home, one grandson Keith Jennings of the home, his fiancée and very, very special friend Miss Vickie Chasten of the home, one aunt Miss Inez Pebbles of Raleigh, N.C., two uncles, Mr. Henry Holden Jr. of Raleigh, N.C. and Mr. Marion Holden of Raleigh and many more relatives and friends.

In every family there's one person who cares the most and does the most for everyone else, in this family that person was you.

Somehow you were always there putting aside your own problems, to deal with someone else's. So go on and rest from all your labor and in God's time with much prayer, we will meet again someday.

We love you so much more than words can every day. Thank you with all our hearts.
