OBITUARY

JOHN LUCIUS HOLLOWAY, SR.

1892 — JUNE 1, 1966

JOHN LUCIUS HOLLOWAY, SR., son of the late John and Anna Holloway, was born August 14, 1892, and departed this life June 1, 1966 after a brief illness and confinement at Lincoln Hospital. He was one of four children.

A devoted Churchman, industrious businessman, and conscientious civic leader, Mr. Holloway joined the Mount Gilead Baptist Church many years ago, and was named Chairman of the Trustee Board in 1928 and served faithfully in that position for thirty-eight years.

A graduate of North Carolina College at Durham, Mr. Holloway was a retired employee of the North Carolina Mutual Life Insurance Company where for more than 30 years he served as supervisor of the addressograph division of the ordinary department. A licensed barber, Mr. Holloway engaged in this . . . one of many of his advocations . . . occupation on weekends and during holiday periods from his regular employment.

Ever eager for community improvement, Mr. Holloway was very active with The East End Betterment League, and was recently honored by the organization for his untiring efforts for improvement and service rendered as Past President for several years.

Mr. Holloway was a member of the American Association of Retired Persons and served as Treasurer of the Association. Also, he served as Chairman of the Life Membership Committee of the Durham Chapter of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People; Trustee of Bull City Elk's Lodge, No. 317; as a member of the Durham Committee on Negro Affairs; a member of the North Carolina Mutual Retirement Club, the Durham Business and Professional Chain, the North Carolina College Alumni Association, the One O'Clock Luncheon Club, the Durham Barbers Association, and The Durham Council on Human Relations.

Survivors include two daughters, Mrs. Doris Holloway Mack of Poughkeepsie, New York, and Mrs. Johnetta Holloway George of Durham; a son, John L. Holloway, Jr. of Charlotte; one sister, Mrs. Roxie Rowland of Durham; three grandchildren, Regina Johnetta George, Reginald Cornelius George, II of Durham, and Jesselyn Menet Mack of Poughkeepsie, New York. Also, a number of nieces and nephews and a host of other relatives and friends.

HOLLOWAY

11/9/00
RALEIGH-John Mills Holloway, affectionately known to his family and close friend as "Johnny" and by many as "J.

Mills" went on peacefully to be present with the Lord on Monday, November 6, 2000 after an extended illness. J. Mills, the sixth of ten children of the late J. Simeon and Zelma Slade Holloway, was born in Durham County, on November 17, 1924. He received his early education and diploma from Little River High School in Bahama, NC. He served the USA in World War II from 1943 to 1946 and received an Honorable Discharge as Sergeant from the Army. Reflecting upon his life, he recalls that "I've been fortunate in marrying the right person." He and Doris Moore Holloway have shared more than 47 years of a loving and productive life.

J. Mills devoted 42 years of his life to a professional career as a chief fiscal officer in higher education; 36 years of dedicated service were spent at Saint Augustine's College, where he retired in 1992 as Vice President for Financial Affairs. His background and experience earned him the reputation as "The Management Expert-Prudence Personified." He led the St. Augustine's College fiscal affairs team to steady growth, producing a clean audit and balanced budget for more than 22 years in a row. Previously, he was business manager at both Voorhees College in Denmark, SC and Johnson C. Smith University in Charlotte.

He received a Bachelor of Science degree from North Carolina Central University in 1950 and last weekend was inducted into the NCCU Society of Golden Eagles. He completed further study at Harvard University; The Wharton School of Business, Pennsylvania State University; University of Omaha; the University of Kentucky, Southern University; and NCCU School of Law. Holloway was consultant to the U.S. Department of Education and Southern Association of Colleges and Schools; and member of the National Association of Colleges and University Business Officers.

Holloway has been an active civic member of the Raleigh community over the last 43 years. Board memberships included: Southlight Program for First Offenders, Garner Road Family YMCA, Meadowbrook Country Club, Boy Scouts of America, Occaneechee Council Executive Board, Blue Cross/Blue Shield of America Advisory Board, The Raleigh Little Theatre, Wake Credit Union, Saint Augustine's Chapel, and Raleigh Transit Authority. Life memberships included: NCCU Alumni Association, and Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity. He served as Treasurer for the following political campaign committees to elect John Winters State Senate, John H. Baker Sheriff of Wake County, Arthur J. Calloway Raleigh City Council, Harriet B. Webster Wake County Board of Education, Ralph Campbell Raleigh City Council & State Auditor. While in the hospital, he made sure that he exercised his right to vote in the November 2000 General Election by using the "No Excuse One-Stop Absentee Voting" procedures.

He has been the recipient of numerous honors and awards, including: an honorary doctorate from Saint Paul's College; President's Scroll from Saint Augustine's College; Boy Scouts of America - Whitney M. Young Award, Silver Beaver Award, District Award of Merit, Leadership Member, Good Turn Award, Century Member, and Distinguished Leadership Citation; Doris Moore & J. Mills Holloway First Annual Scholarship Banquet, NCCU Raleigh/Wake Chapter, Inc.; and various other recognitions from Wake County Commissioners, Saint Augustine's College, Raleigh Little Theatre, Wake Credit Union, Saint Augustine's Chapel, Blue Cross/Blue Shield of America, Delta Mu Delta, Raleigh Transit Authority, National Association of Black Accountants, Sanderson High School Athletic Club, Who's Who Among Black Americans and Who's Who in Education.

"Johnny is survived by: his wife of more than 47 years, Doris Moore Holloway; sons, J.M. Holloway, Jr. and Ivan Holloway, both of Raleigh; one brother, Quentin Holloway of Durham; four sisters, Anna Morris of Atlanta, Roxie Moore of Charlottesville, VA; Lily Holloway of Philadelphia, and Josephine Brown of Greensboro; four grandchildren, Brittany, Winston, Jessica and Isaiah of Raleigh; and he was blessed with several nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Visitation and tributes will be on Saturday at 11 a.m., followed by funeral services beginning at 12 noon at the Historic Saint Augustine's College Chapel in Raleigh. Arrangements are being handled by Holloway Funeral Home of Durham. In lieu of flowers, the family has requested that contributions be made to the J. Mills Holloway, Sr. Scholarship Fund, P.O. Box 46625. Raleigh, NC 27620.

Obituary

ALTHEA HENRIETTA McADEN HOLMES was born in Reidsville, N.C. on February 21, 1914 to Mr. Charlie McAden and Mrs. Sallie Jefferson McAden. She attended public schools in Reidsville and graduated from Washington High School in 1932 with honors. She attended North Carolina College for Negroes in Durham, N.C. and in 1935 was graduated magna cum laude with a B.A. degree in English and Education. She was a life member of the NCCU Alumni Association, a life member of the Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Alpha Zeta Omega Chapter, and a life member of the NAACP.

After leaving college, Althea taught in the Gibson, North Carolina School System for three years. IN 1937, she married her college schoolmate, Irwin Richard "Bus" Holmes. They had two children, Irwin, Jr. and Carol Brenda. The family lived in Florida while "Bus" was a Recreation Director for Migratory Labor Centers for the War Food Administration.

In 1947, the family returned to Durham, N.C. where Althea taught art in the Durham County Schools. She became one of the first black teachers to teach in a formerly all white Durham County School. She later received her M.A. degree from North Carolina Central University in 1960 and she taught Special Education in Durham County. She retired in 1976.

Althea was beloved by many. In 1972, she was selected as a Mother of the Year by the Durham Morning Herald. And there were many who called her Mother. She volunteered many hours at the W. D. Hill Recreation Center where her husband, "Bus", was the Director. She taught countless children to crochet, to sew, and to do other crafts. Her unique hand made dolls were loved by family and friends across the country. She volunteered at the John Avery Boys Club, the Stanford L. Warren Library, and the White Rock Baptist Church Community Arts Program. Althea was a faithful member of White Rock Baptist Church where she attended the Philathea Sunday School Class and the College View District. She was a regular participant in White Rock's Senior Wellness and Fitness Program.

In 1948, Althea was a Charter Member of the Weaver McLean American Legion Auxiliary Unit 175. She enjoyed participating in the Model Mothers Club, the Silhouettes of Kappa Alpha Psi, and she was a member of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority for over 50 years. She also had a special place in her heart for her garden. She kept a large vegetable garden and she loved flowers.

Althea's mission in life was to help others wherever and whenever she could. She fed many, she bought medicine for those who needed it, she helped many to attend college, and she gave herself to her family, her friends, and to all who crossed her path. She did all she could in service to her God. She will be missed by many. Having fallen and fractured her hip, she died on May 29, 1999 while recovering from surgery. She is survived by her sister, Mrs. Virginia McWilliams; her brother-in-law, Alphonso McWilliams; her son, Irwin R. Holmes, Jr.; her daughter, Carol Brenda Holmes; three grandchildren, Kimberlee, Sherri and Irwin Robert Holmes; a daughter-in-law, Mrs. Meredythe Holmes; an aunt, Peachy Johnson; several uncles and many cousins. She will be remembered by her family, friends, and a whole community who knew, loved and respected her.

I Know Something Good About You

*Wouldn't this old world be better
If the folks we meet would say:
"I know something good about you,"
And treat us just that way.*

*Wouldn't it be fine and dandy
If each handclasp warm and true,
Carried with it this assurance . . .
"I know something good about you."*

*Wouldn't life be lots more happy
If we praise the good we see?
For there is such a lot of goodness
In the worst of you and me.*

*Wouldn't it be nice to practice
That fine way of thinking, too . . .
"You know something good about me"
"I know something good about you!"*

Obituary

MRS. MARGARET TUCKER HOLMAN, 92, of 503 Red Oak Ave. and formerly of 408 Fowler Ave., died Sunday evening at Durham County General Hospital after a lengthy illness.

She was born in Durham, North Carolina where she resided for most of her life. She was educated in the Durham public schools, attended Shaw University in Raleigh, N. C. and taught briefly in the Durham County Schools.

She was married to the late Luther Ashley Holman and resided in Rocky Mount, N. C. for twelve years.

She was a life long member of White Rock Baptist Church and was active in the Sarah T. Edwards District, the Philathea Sunday School Class and supportive of the Minerva Womack Missionary Circle.

While residing on Fowler Ave., she was a friend to all. Believing in quality and beauty, she organized the Neighborly Neighbors Club and contributed to many civic organizations and projects.

Survivors are one daughter, Mrs. Madge H. Harry; one grandson, Eric Harry; several nieces, nephews, and cousins.

A Psalm of Life

What the heart of the young man said to the psalmist

Tell me not, in mournful numbers,
Life is but an empty dream!
For the soul is dead that slumbers,
And things are not what they seem.

Life is real! Life is earnest!
And the grave is not its goal;
"Dust thou art, to dust returnest,"
Was not spoken of the soul.

Not enjoyment, and not sorrow,
Is our destined end or way,
But to act, that each to-morrow
Find us farther than to-day.

Art is long, and Time is fleeting;
And our hearts, though stout and brave,
Still, like muffled drums, are beating
Funeral marches to the grave.

In the world's broad field of battle,
In the bivouac of Life,
Be not like dumb, driven cattle;
Be a hero in the strife!

Trust no Future, howe'er pleasant;
Let the dead Past bury its dead;
Act, act in the living Present,
Heart within and God o'erhead!

Lives of great men all remind us
We can make our lives sublime,
And, departing, leave behind us
Footprints on the sands of time;

Footprints that perhaps another,
Sailing o'er life's solemn main,
A forlorn and shipwrecked brother,
Seeing, shall take heart again.

Let us, then, be up and doing,
With a heart for any fate;
Still achieving, still pursuing,
Learn to labor and to wait.

Henry Wadsworth Longfellow

~ The Obituary ~

Mrs. Burnetha Douglas Holmes, daughter of the late Cloie and Tommy Douglas, was born on January 7, 1918 in Darlington, South Carolina. She departed this life on Tuesday, March 5, 2002 at Durham Regional Hospital. She fought a courageous battle for many years, until she succumbed to the health complications that overpowered her tired, frail body.

She was married to the late Clayton Holmes, Sr. also of Darlington, South Carolina. From this union, seven children were born, two of whom preceded Burnetha and Clayton in death. Shortly, after there marriage, Burnetha insisted that the family leave South Carolina; a condition of her marriage acceptance. Clayton fulfilled his promise; the family moved to Durham, North Carolina with the hopes, dreams and aspirations of a better life with more life choices and opportunities for the family, especially the children.

Mrs. Holmes was an ardent believer and fighter for equality and social justice. She instilled in her children to always fight for equality and never to accept second class treatment. She placed a high premium on education and hardwork, the keys to achieving first class citizenship.

She leaves to cherish her loving memories, one brother, Wally Marks, of Florence, South Carolina; two sons, William Holmes and Dr. John Holmes, III of Durham, North Carolina; two adopted sons, Kenneth Bailey (Kimberly) of Durham, North Carolina and Dr. Deryl Bailey (Mary) of Atlanta, Georgia; four daughters, Juanita Bailey, Earlene Hale (Anthony), Margaret Scott and Janice Carrington (Percy); and a host of grandchildren, great- grandchildren, relatives and friends.

~ In Memoriam ~

*God saw the road was getting rough,
The hill was hard to climb;
He gently closed those loving eyes,
And whispered, "Peace be thine."
The weary hours, the days of pain,
The sleepless nights are passed;
The ever patient worn out frame,
Has found sweet rest at last.*

~ The Obituary ~

Mr. Willie Calvin Hooker, son of the late James and Bertha Hooker was born January 2, 1928 in Carthage, North Carolina. He was promoted to glory on Saturday, August 21, 1999, at the Veterans Administration Medical Center, Durham, North Carolina.

He was educated in the Wake County School System. After graduation, he volunteered for the United States Army. He completed basic training at Fort Bragg, North Carolina, Fort Benning, Georgia and Fort McClellan, Alabama. He served in the Phillipine Islands at Manila and Okinawa, Japan for two years, after which he received an honorable discharge.

Mr. Hooker later moved to Asheville, North Carolina and attended the Fred H. Moore Tailoring School. He joined the First Nazarene Baptist Church in Asheville, North Carolina. He relocated to Durham, North Carolina in 1955 and united with Union Baptist Church where he served faithfully as long as his health permitted.

He served on the Usher Boards where he served in many capacities, the latest being president. He was a member of the Deacon and Deaconess Boards, the Essex Fields Bible Class, the Pastor's Aide Society, the Helping Hand Missionary Circle and the Winnie Neal Senior Citizens. Mr Hooker served as chairman of the Wednesday Night Prayer Services, custodian and van driver for many years.

He was a member of the Interdenominational Ushers Union where he served as chairman of the Finance Committee, treasurer of the Men's Department and Chairman of the First Aide Department. He also served as head usher of the East Cedar Grove Missionary Baptist Association, as Sergeant-at-Arms and chairman of all ushers of the State Ushers Convention.

He was united in Holy matrimony to Mrs. Essie General Hooker. His stepdaughter, Beauty Mae General, preceded him in death.

Surviving to celebrate his life and cherish his memory are his wife, Essie General Hooker; one son, Jackie Lee Hooker of the home; one stepson, James General; three grandchildren, Katrina Carr, Angela General and Malcolm General; his daughters-in-law, Beverley General and Vickie Hooker and a host of nieces, nephews and other loving relatives and dear friends.

~ God's Doorkeeper ~

*Across from the friendly church on the hill
Is a man who lives what God has taught,
A man who knows what's good and what's bad
And never forgets what the good life has brought.*

*His house for years has been a home
Where the doors of love are always open
For people to enter as they wish
And where harsh words are never spoken.*

*He knows what it is to have God in his life
As his dedication to this church has shown
And no matter what he's asked to do,
He does it willingly and never groans.*

*So the man who lives across the street,
Willie C. Hooker is his name,
Is a man who gives a lot from his heart,
A sincere giving that stays the same*

*I know God's blessings will continue to flow
To the man who is loved by all,
For he shines his light for others to see,
A light which has been God's call.*

Mr. Willie Calvin Hooker

~ In Memoriam ~

*Do not stand at my grave and weep,
I am not there, I do not sleep;
You wonder why I went away,
And did not say goodbye;
I couldn't bear to tell you
For it hurts me when you cry.*

*My ship came in at morning time,
And it was beautiful to see;
For my Captain was King Jesus
And He softly welcomed me.*

*I ran across the lee-way,
And fell down at His feet;
He gently took me in His arms,
My rest is now complete.*
