Crossing the Bar

Sunset and evening star,
and one clear call for me:
And may there be no moaning of the bar
when I put out to sea.
But such a tide as moving seems asleep,
Too full for sound and foam;
When that which drew from out the boundless deep turns again home.
Twilight and evening bell,
and after that the dark;
And may there be no sadness of farewell when I embark.
For though from out our bourne of time and place the flood may bear me far;
I hope to see my Pilot face to face

Arthur Thomas Lamb was born November 9, 1933 to the late Robert and Julia Wiggins Lamb. After a long illness, he departed this life Thursday, April 15, 1993 at Norfolk General Hospital in Norfolk, Virginia.

He attended Corapeake and Union Branch Elementary Schools, and T. S. Cooper High School. After high school, he was called upon to serve his country. Thus from 1953 until 1955, he was a faithful soldier in the United States Army.

When I Must Leave You

for a little while,
Please do not grieve
and shed wild tears
And hug your sorrow
to you through the years,
But start out bravely with a gallant smile;*

*And for my sake
and in my name
Live on and do
All things the same,
Feed not your loneliness
On empty days,
But fill each waking hour
In useful ways,*

*Reach out your hand in comfort and in cheer
And I in turn will comfort you and hold you near;
And never, never be afraid to die,
For I am waiting for you in the sky!
