"BLEST BE THE TIE THAT BINDS"

Blest be the tie that binds Our hearts in christian love;
The fellowship of kindred minds
Is like to that above.

Before our Father's throne We pour our ardent prayers;
Our fears, our hopes, our aims are one,
Our comforts and our cares.

We share our mutual woes, Our mutual burdens bear;
And often for each other flows The sympathizing tear.

When we asunder part, It gives us inward pain;
But we shall still be joined in heart,
And hope to meet again. Amen.

The Lord is my shepard, I shall not want;
he makes me lie down in green pastures.

He leads me beside still waters;

he restores my soul.

He leads me in paths of righteousness
for his name's sake.

Even though I walk through the valley
of the shadow of death,

I fear no evil; for thou art with me;

thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of my enemies;

thou annointest my head with oil;

my cup overflows.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me

all the days of my life; And I shall dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

Obituary

Jochebed Christmas Locust was born in Suffolk, Virginia July 16, 1913 to the late Susie and Marcus Christmas. She entered eternal rest June 16, 1997 at Duke University Medical Center.

Her early education was received in the public schools of Warren County and after her family moved to Durham, she graduated from Hillside High School. She graduated with honors from North Carolina College for Negroes, now North Carolina Central University. She received both the Bachelor of Arts and Master of Arts Degrees. She did special work in French and Drama at Duke University. She also studied at Tuskegee University on a special fellowship.

She enjoyed a long and fruitful career teaching English and foreign language at Little River, Northern and Merrick-Moore High Schools. She also taught at North Carolina Central University.

She was a member of White Rock Baptist Church where she was a member of the Deacon Board, the Susie V. Norfleet Bible Class, the Shepard-Williams-Womack Missionary Circle, and the College View District. She was also a member of Rosewood Street Neighborhood Club.

She was a dynamic and dedicated member of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc. She served as the second president of the Durham Alumnae Chapter.

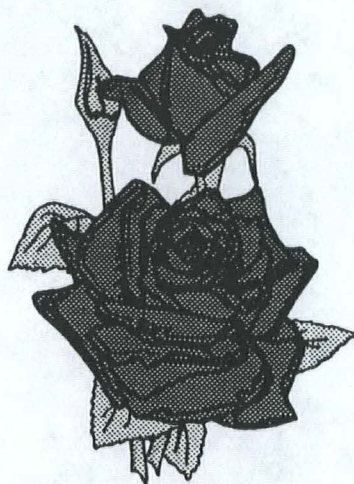

She willingly volunteered her services with Call for Action and Contact Services of Durham.

Her educational accomplishments were exceeded only by her zest for life and love and respect for all people. Her life was a life of service--service to others--in high places and low. Her selfless service was rooted in and undergirded by a strong faith in God.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Richard Locust in 1994.

She leaves to cherish her memory a son, Lewis C. Locust; a granddaughter, Christina Locust; two sisters, Henrietta Christmas Pazmineo of New Orleans, Louisiana and Rebecca Christmas Weatherford of Raleigh, N.C.; one brother, Joseph Christmas of Saint Thomas, Virginia Islands; several nieces and nephews; and a host of friends who will miss her presence and love.

*Don't think of her as gone away
her journey's just begun;
life hold so many facets
this earth is only one.
Just think of her as resting from the sorrows and the tears in a place of warmth and comfort where there are no days and years.
Think how she must be wishing that we could know, today, how nothing but our sadness
can really pass away.
And think of her as living in the hearts of those she touched, for nothing loved is ever lost and she was loved so much.*

Obituary

But they that wait upon the Lord Shall renew their strength, they Shall mount up with wings as Eagles; they shall run, and not be weary, and they shall walk, and not faint. Isaiah 40:31

Christianity does not exempt one from death; it only insures triumph over death. Moses died, Paul died, Jesus died, and all must die. There is no other way of entry into our heavenly Father's house. Soon all will be over - with all that are here. Consider your state before God. There is, not far from all of us, that hidden certainty of death. There are some of us within a hand's breath of the grave, and yet the uncertainty and mystery of death does not reveal to us who it is. Thus all of us were shocked when we heard that Louise had passed away. Although we knew she was not well, her zest for life kept her real condition hidden from us, but our Lord knew and in His own time He relieved her of all her earthly woes. The untimely death of those who are prepared to go may be regarded as a relief and a blessing to them.

She never refused to help any worthy cause, but would never forget her church. She would say, "I am willing to divide, but I must help to do what they are trying to do at my church, too." It seems that her church and its welfare was always on her mind, and like David, she was always glad when they said "Let us go into the house of the Lord."

On Monday afternoon, February 5, 1990 death came quietly home and took away our mother, Mrs. Agnes Louise Loftin.

She was born in Orange County to the late Mr. Hurley Greene and Mrs. Agnes Morrow Greene on December 14, 1921.

She was united in Matrimony to Mr. Junious B. Loftin, and to this union were born two daughters.

She attended school in Orange County and completed her Cosmetology training at Maco Beauty College, Greensboro, N.C. She retired from the Orange County School System in late 1989.

She was an active member of Gaines Chapel A.M.E. Church as long as her health permitted. She was a member of the Steward Board, Assistant Secretary of Finance, member of the Stewardess Board #1, member of Ora Franklin Missionary Society, member of the Usher Board, Treasurer of the Floral Club, and a Class Leader.

Other auxiliaries she was a member of were: the Ladies Social Club, N.A.A.P., and North Carolina Retired Employees Association.

Surviving a legacy of devotion and love shall always be a comfort to her: two daughters, Mrs. Pathenia Hawthorne, Durham, N.C. and Mrs. Arnetta Turrentine, Esland, N.C.; two sons-in-law, Rev. E. R. Hawthorne, Durham, N.C. and Mr. Michael Turrentine, Esland, N.C.; three grandsons, Antoine Lamal Loftin, Esland, N.C., Khalid Rashad Hawthorne, Durham, N.C. and Dondie Asyio McAdoo, Esland, N.C.; her mother, Mrs. Agnes Greene; a sister, Mrs. Minnie Packenham, Durham, N.C.; a brother-in-law, Mr. J. H. Packenham, Durham, N.C.; several nieces, nephews, cousins, and many, many friends.

We feel strongly that Jesus was with her in her last hour, and He put His everloving arms beneath her head and held her closely to His breast. Her beautiful life will be forever cherished in the hearts of those who knew and loved her.

*"Why do we mourn departed friends Or shake at death's alarm?
'Tis but the voice that Jesus sends
To call them to His arms.
This is just another soldier gone
To get the great reward,
She fought the fight, she kept the faith,
And now she has gone to God."*
