The Grand Master delivered his Annual Address, and referred the same to a committee composed of Bre. Thomas S. Kenan, L. A. Bikle and John Nichols.

To the M. W. Grand Lodge of North Carolina.

BRETHREN: The wheels of time move on. Slowly indeed they seemed to turn in our boyhood days, but with advancing years they grew apace 'till now, standing (as I do) where the shadows of the past and lights of the future meet in my half century pilgrimage; they revolve so quickly, that scarcely do we enter upon a new year, ere we are called to note its end.

It is not pleasant always to retrospect the past, too many sad and bitter memories crowd into the twelve months as they go so swiftly by. Rather would we with faith hopefully point to the future, resolving that upon its page no record of conscious wrong shall be inscribed, that repeated acts of charity and benevolence shall mark our way, so that our closing hours may be gladdened with thoughts of a well spent life, and the promised glorious immortality.

Around this masonic altar we gladly welcome you. Gladly, because our masonic faith is increased. Gladly, because as mind comes in contact with mind one rough ashler may perchance be polished by another more nearly perfected. Gladly, because the pleasant smile, the cheerful voice, the warm pressure of the fraternal hand, testify that brethren on the level meet; those who are cemented in one common bond of brotherhood, bound firmly together by that mystic tie which more than three thousand years has so greatly strengthened, that, living up to its principles only Deity himself can rend in twain. It is here that we can interchange thought, concoct grand schemes of progress, reform the errors of the past, and mark out a more certain path for the future. It is here that we can inculcate a more exalted patriotism, give tone and elevation to character, weave those bonds which shall knit us together, if possible, a stronger organization, and enact laws which shall make our subordinate lodges great nurseries of public morality, the beauty of whose light shall consist not in occasional flashes, but in one continued mild serenity, like the king of day, brightening with blessed influences all who come within their reach.

We meet in a season of partially recovered prosperity, when the incubus which, resting so long on all industrial pursuits, has, in a measure, been removed; when peace and plenty crown our labors, and the song of a happy people once again fills the land. It is therefore meet that we render to Him whom masons reverence and serve (as we have done) first of all, that thanksgiving which is His due, for these proofs of love and favor.

We now stand upon the threshold of a new masonic year. The past is valuable only for the experience it brings and the lessons it teaches. By it we are warned of the rocks upon which, it may be, our happiness was nearly wrecked, and are taught to avoid those quicksands upon which, it may be, our moral character nearly foundered. Masonry, we are taught, is a progressive science, but our experience teaches that with some its spirit may be too greatly progressive. Too often we meet with those who, conscious of superior knowledge above their fellows, seek offensively to demonstrate their ideas of masonic reform, as they bear about high sounding titles, and adorn their persons with many emblems of masonic greatness. Such persons do harm to masonry, because, being its acknowledged votaries, the world judges by what it sees and hears. When our sensibilities are thus intruded upon, we are reminded of the man who thought

As a step in the way of reform,
(The stupid, stupid ass,)
To take the sun from off his throne,
And light the world with gas!

Our masonry teaches a meek and quiet spirit; charity for all unenlightened brethren; a modest seeking to overcome, it may be, honest error, an exemplification in our own walk and conversation of that friendship, love and truth, so beautifully taught in our rituals; an earnest, hearty, continued effort, without ostentation, to benefit the human race; a looking after and alleviating distress; a thoughtful care of orphan children; a diligence in our respective callings; a liberal benevolence; all these go to make up an unselfish, true and beautiful masonic character. Let us emulate that pattern, so conspicuous in masonry, whose virtuous conduct, unfeigned piety and inflexible fidelity to his trusts made his life work not only a blessing to those by whom he was surrounded, but a guide for us and countless generations yet to come.

I cannot too greatly regret my inability, during the past year, to visit the lodges and become conversant personally with their workings. From what I am able to gather, however, our prosperity is increasing, harmony generally prevails, and the future presents bright and pleasing prospects.

Immediately upon the closing of our last Annual Communication, in obedience to the mandate of the Grand Lodge, I arrested the charter of Rehoboth Lodge, No. 279, ordering the same, with its records, to be sent to the Grand Secretary, and other property belonging thereto, into the custody of Bro. J. J. Ward, where it now is.

In accordance with a resolution of the Grand Lodge, I appointed Bros. W. E. Anderson, J. A. Leach and F. H. Busbee, a committee to present the claims of the Orphan Asylum to the General Assembly; also Bros. S. H. Rountree, Thomas Palmer, W. F. Davis and Bernice Walker, Grand Lecturers, an account of whose labors they will doubtless present to you.

A circular from the M. W. G. Master, of Missouri, informed me officially of the death of that eminent mason, George Frank Gouley, to which your attention will be more fully directed by our Grand Secretary.

DISPENSATIONS.

Dispensations have been granted to a number of lodges to elect and instal officers out of time; other dispensations granted for new lodges and the revival of old charters, will be reported upon by the Grand Secretary.

GRAND LODGE OF MASSACHUSETTS.

On February, 14th, I received an invitation from the M. W. G. M. Percival Lowell Everett, of Massachusetts, to attend the centennial celebration of the pioneer Grand Lodge of America. This celebration took place on the eighth day of March last, and was largely attended. It is a remarkable fact, that during the war of independence, not one session of this Grand Lodge failed of being held, and many of the distinguished men of that age sustained by their presence, advice and encouragement, its dignity and brilliancy. In casually glancing over one hundred and seventy-five printed pages of this centennial mental and physical feast, we find that "Virginia and Massachusetts stood shoulder to shoulder masonically, the latter having organized a Grand Lodge in 1777, the former in 1778; Maryland comes next, in 1783; and thus was perfected a masonic triad of independents who, during the war, did much faithful service, and were deeply imbued with zeal for the revolutionary cause. Their records show a galaxy of names whose fame and glory are part of the proudest possessions of the whole masonic community. One star differeth from another in glory. Massachusetts claims one differential point in the equality of our common glories, which is, that she is the elder of the sisterhood of independent Grand Lodges of the United States, and that in unison with Virginia, she laid the plans, made the models and founded the school of art, upon which every Grand Lodge of America has since been constituted." "Honor to whom honor is due."

The pleasant duty of dedicating a hall to masonry and installing the officers of Mount Mourne Lodge, No. 347, in March last, I delegated to Bro. F. H. Glover, W. M. Phalanx Lodge, No. 31, who reports the service performed amid a large concourse of the brethren.

In August last, the corner stone of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, at Reidsville, was laid by Roman Eagle Lodge, No. 334, Bro. James W. Reid, of Wentworth Lodge, No. 224, acting as Grand Master.

DISTRICT DEPUTY GRAND MASTERS.

Your attention is called to the successful plan adopted in other jurisdictions of appointing District Deputy Grand Masters. Such a system prevailed at one time in our own State, which was broken up by the war, consequent upon the inability of the then Grand Master to procure the services of competent brethren to perform the duties; and although since recommended by (I think) two of my predecessors, for some unknown reason it was passed unnoticed by. It seems to me the necessities of our lodges require some such additional aid, covering, as we do, a large extent of territory, scattered as the lodges are, and inconvenient of access, if our State was districted and a competent brother appointed in each, all could, in the course of the year, be visited, their workings supervised, errors corrected, differences reconciled, abandoned property taken care of, lectures given, and a system of work, uniform in fact, (that which this Grand Lodge has so long and zealously endeavored to adopt, and which has so signally and repeatedly failed) so thoroughly inaugurated that, instead of speaking (as it is said we now do) in unknown tongues, we shall present one harmonious, complete and perfect whole. I trust, at this Grand Communication, this matter will receive your calm and impartial consideration, for I am convinced some such system, well defined and surrounded with the necessary safeguards, would prove of incalculable benefit to those for whom it is our privilege to legislate.

ORPHAN ASYLUM.

I approach this subject with some trepidation, consequent upon a consciousness of my inability to do justice to such a vast and noble enterprise. But few of us, I imagine, brethren, have a just conception of the magnitude of this work. Situated as the Asylum is, in a spot inaccessible by rail, but few, except those living contiguous thereto, have any idea of the splendid property there belonging to us. In the county of Granville, twelve miles from the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad, upon the suburbs of the village of Oxford, amid a beautiful grove of between three and four hundred oaks, stands the Orphan Asylum. Built of brick, four stories high, of Romanesque style of architecture, the whole, with its spire, domes and finials, presents to the beholder a model of wisdom, strength and beauty. Within its walls are nearly sixty rooms, divided into school, printing, sleeping and office apartments, including a spacious chapel, capable of comfortably seating seven hundred and fifty persons, while a large and substantial building in the rear furnishes rooms for cooking and eating purposes. Upon the premises of one hundred and nine acres are bathing, washing and stabling houses, and seven springs, nearly all in order, whence pure water for man and beast continually flows. A portion of the land is covered with a fine growth of young trees, a part is laid off for garden purposes, while ample pasturage for the blooded stock of cows and hogs gives promise of an abundance of milk, beef and pork in time to come. A matron and corps of teachers, under the control and direction of our worthy superintendent, preside over the moral, physical and intellectual growth of the orphans. From one hundred to one hundred and twenty children are here gathered together, whose happy countenances index the contentment reigning within. A visit made in June last impressed me, as I never was impressed before, with the fact that the establishment of an Orphan Asylum in this beautiful spot was indeed a grand achievement—worthy of the order with whom it originated. Under the guidance of its energetic superintendent, and the blessing of Almighty God, it has gone forward in the line of its duty year after year, 'till now, it is firmly fastened in the affections of our people. Long may it be ere silence reigns in its halls, but with every increase of childish voices may the means for their sustenance correspondingly appear. The great heart of the people of the Old North State, from the mountains to the seaboard, is waking up to the necessity for a continuance of this great work, and if masons do their duty it will not, it cannot fail. Let us see to it, brethren, that we keep alive within our breasts its continual needs; that we manifest our love and affection by a constant, steady stream of benevolence, so that in the years to come, our children's children may point to it as the proudest monument of North Carolina Freemasonry.

JURISPRUDENCE.

Many and continued have been the questions asked of the Grand Master, and voluminous has consequently been the correspondence. If it could be possible for the Grand Lodge to enact some law, by which each subordinate lodge would be furnished with copies of the Masonic Code, gotten up with so much care and labor by our Grand Secretary, and furnished at scarcely the cost of publication, it would go very far to lessen the labor as well as expense of the Grand Master's office; for many of the questions asked find their solution in that work. Each lodge should have at least one copy, and not write the Grand Master until they have exhausted its pages, without getting the desired information. If lodges were provided with this code, they would see that the prevailing rule in this jurisdiction is, that all communications addressed to the Grand Master on masonic law should be through the Secretary, with seal of lodge attached. Not one in twenty, probably, of the communications received by me have come under this rule. I have not felt at liberty, however, to decline answering any of these questions, but have, to the best of my ability with the lights before me, given the required information. I speak of this matter now, so that it may be borne in mind, and my successor thereby relieved of much labor to which I have been subjected.

DEATH.

We fondly hoped our duties as your presiding officer would have ended with no record of fraternal loss, but alas! alas! the death angel has not passed us unheeded by. Our friend and brother P. G. M. WILLIAM GEDDY HILL, is no more. Born in the city of Raleigh, September 11, 1806, educated at the University of North Carolina, adopting the profession of medicine, the study of which he pursued with unabated ardor under the direction of Dr. Philemon Hawkins, of Warren county, he entered the Medical College of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, where he graduated about the year 1829. He received the degree of masonry in Hiram Lodge, No. 40, in February, 1831, withdrew in May following, and affiliated with Columbus Lodge, No. 102, Pittsboro'; renewed his membership in Hiram Lodge No. 40, March, 1842; served as Junior Warden in 1844, and and 1845; as Master in 1846'-47 and 1856; as J. G. W. of this Grand Lodge in 1850, and Grand Master in 1862, declining a re-election for a second term. In all the relations of life he was held in the highest esteem by those fortunate enough to make his acquaintance, but in masonry he was pre-eminently great; endowed with a vigorous intellect, a well balanced mind, and a heart wherein love for his race was thoroughly enshrined, he manifested in his daily walk and conversation the ground work of our order—friendship, love and truth, in all their highest and ennobling qualities. We miss his venerable form, his kindly greeting, his practical advice, his disinterested friendship; and although the sun of his earthly life went out in darkness on May 4, 1877, we trust his spiritual life began in unclouded splendor.

Mournfully, chant mournfully, the requiem for the dead,
Mourn for a brother fallen, a lofty spirit fled;
Strike the harp strings sadly, and hush the voice of mirth,
The form that moved in manhood's pride, lies mould'ring in the earth.

Aye, mournfully, chant mournfully, the requiem for the dead,
While the night winds moan in dirge-like tone around his lowly bed;
Yet let it not be hopelessly, for the pathway that he trod,
While here in life—our faith is strong, hath led him up to God.

DECISIONS.

1. A motion seconded and stated by the presiding officer, is the property of the Lodge, and cannot be withdrawn without their consent.

2. All members, in good standing, are entitled to vote, even if it be on their own petition for dismission.

3. A motion seconded, and stated by the presiding officer, must be put, unless properly withdrawn, the Master cannot ignore it.

4. A member, in good standing, has the right of speaking to any question before the Lodge, unless a point of order be raised, which must be decided by the Master.

5. Members present at a regular communication, decide questions coming before the Lodge; and such decision is legal, notwithstanding the whole membership are not present.

6. All members present are obliged to vote. If they do not so desire, the Master can permit them to retire until after the vote is taken.

7. A brother, in good standing, cannot be restrained from balloting, even if he has declared his intention of blackballing the candidate.

8. Illicit distilling is sufficient ground upon which to base charges against a brother, and no hesitancy should be had in acting accordingly.

9. Financial difficulties between masons should if possible be adjusted amicably, but it is not unmasonic, when other means fail, to bring an action at law.

10. A Master has the power to summon orally, but otherwise the summon should be issued through the Secretary, in writing, with seal of lodge attached.

11. A certificate of dismission is not legal, unless it bears the seal of the lodge by which it is issued.

12. No certificate of dismission should be granted a brother against whom it is proposed to bring charges; if their validity is not sustained, then the certificate may be granted.

13. The law does not specify when summonses shall or may be issued, that power being discretionary with the Master.

14. A notice with seal of lodge and signature of the Secretary, mailed through the post office to a brother's supposed or last known place of residence, is a legal notice.

15. Two persons, one a mason, the other a profane, having differences of a private character antecedent to the initiation of the latter, remain unreconciled, when it comes to the knowledge of the initiate that the brother proposes to use the blackball when he applies for advancement, the initiate being a man of irreproachable character and good citizen, the lodge generally being exceedingly desirous for his advancement, ask what to do. A brother has the right to object without a question, and such objection, till removed, acts as a barrier to such advancement. Though unwise, it is not unmasonic to declare what he will do in certain cases proposed. The criminality lies in declaring the act performed; for instance, you cannot try a mason for saying he will blackball a candidate; but if, after he is blackballed, he makes the declaration that he has done so, he violates an edict of the Grand Lode, and is liable to prosecution.

16. Dispensation asked, to entertain the petition of a profane belonging to the jurisdiction of another lodge, with the assurance that said lodge would sanction such an arrangement. Dispensation refused; let the petitioner apply to the lodge in whose jurisdiction he properly belongs. If elected, and they desire you to confer the degrees, the fees can be arranged between you.

17. A B filed a petition for the degrees, and was elected; but before conferring, heard he had been rejected in another lodge, what is my duty in the case?—obtain permission of the rejecting lodge to entertain the petition; if refused, return the petition, with fees.

18. A B was initiated an entered apprentice, petitioned for the second degree, and was rejected. At a subsequent meeting a reconsideration was had, he was elected, and notified to present himself for advancement. At the next regular meeting, upon a reading of the minutes, a brother objected to the advancement of the candidate, considering the reconsideration illegal, and moved to lay the matter before the Grand Master—objection sustained. No reconsideration of a ballot is legal, the proper mode being a re-petition.

19. A lodge desires a remittal of the dues of a brother who wishes to affiliate with it, giving reasons therefor—said dues owing the lodge to which he formerly belonged, and which has become extinct: Held that the Grand Master had no power to act in the premises, the remedy, if any, to be applied by the Grand Lodge.

20. Has a W. M. the power to place a P. M. in the East to confer degrees, when the Sen. and Jun. Wardens are present, and willing to serve? He has, provided he is present while the chair is so filled, he being the best judge of the qualifications of his Wardens.

21. If a brother presides in the Worshipful Master's presence, who is to wear the jewel of his office. The brother occupying the East must be recognized as the Worshipful Master, and wear the jewel appertaining to the office.

22. It is necessary to re-install re-elected officers, because being elected for one year only, their obligation does not extend beyond that period.

23. Any Past Master, in good standing, is competent to act as installing officer.

24. Any Master Mason, in good standing, can preside in the East, being called thereto by competent authority, such authority remaining present, while the East is so filled.

25. No brother can be admitted to membership while residing in another Grand Jurisdiction, our masonic progress being barred by State lines.

26. Officers elect and absent at the time of installation, cannot be installed by a representative, unless said officer assents thereto, because an obligation taken by one person cannot be binding upon another.

We congratulate the fraternity that through the efforts of P. G. M. Blount, freely given in July last, what promised to become a serious difficulty in Hatcher Lodge, No. 310, was fortunately quieted, so that where discord and confusion reigned supreme, peace and harmony now abound.

MASONIC JOURNALISM.

Among the many masonic journals demised during the last year, none are more sincerely regretted than the one published in Greensborough. It is a somewhat singular fact, that among the thousands of masons in this State, a paper devoted especially to their interests, cannot be maintained. Efforts made before in this direction have signally failed, and by their acts, if not in plainly spoken words, they say, we want no masonic paper in North Carolina. In the face of these repeated failures, the Orphan's Friend makes its weekly appearance in the households of those who fortunately subscribe thereto. With columns filled with rich, rare and racy matter, fitted for the sober, aged or frolicsome youth; edited by a brother of no mean reputation as a journalist in other than masonic fields, it commends itself warmly to our notice and affections, from the fact that it is one means whereby the wants of our Orphan Asylum are being made known to the world at large, and creates an interest in its behalf, which probably would not be obtained through any other source at our command. We cordially commend it to your hearts and patronage.

I regret that I felt it my duty in October, last, to suspend from performing the functions of his office, the W. M. of Jonesville Lodge, No. 227; the papers in the case are in the hands of the Grand Secretary, and will be placed with the proper committee.

I call your attention to the unsolved problem regarding the Asheville Orphan Asylum property; and as the last Grand Lodge failed to arrive at any definite or satisfactory conclusion concerning its disposition, I recommend that the matter be placed in the hands of three brethren of the legal profession, in accordance with whose report the Grand Master shall be fully empowered to act.

I cannot close this, my first, and probably last, address I shall have the honor to make to this grand body without requesting that its seal of absolute condemnation be set upon an innovation sought to be incorporated in the masonic creed, by some of its professed friends. I copy from a paper of the day:

"The French masons have long been divided upon the question, whether a belief in the Grand Architect of the universe, should be a dogma of their order. At the recent masonic convention, in France, the second clause of the constitution which ran thus: Freemasonry holds to the principle of the existence of a God and of the immortality of the soul, was altered by an immense majority to "Freemasonry holds to the principle of an absolute freedom of conscience and the brotherhood of mankind."

Can enlightened masons subscribe to a dogma so utterly subversive of all they hold dear, as this? Can we respond fraternally to brethren, who impliedly say, they want no God in masonry, and have no faith in the immortality of the human soul, who bring discredit upon an order which, from time immemorial, has recognized the Great I Am as a being supreme above all things, who, with mad-dened profanity, write over the doors of their masonic temples: There is no God; Death is an eternal sleep? Of what use, then, would be your temples of worship? How worse than mockery your funeral ceremonies, how delusive all lofty aspirations, how hopeless the expectation of eternal life in that land where we believe perpetual youth and spring abound? With one heart and voice let masonic America respond to this insulting proposition of misguided France, bringing such a pressure to bear as will result in restoring the stricken landmark to her mutilated constitution, or let that fraternal chain be broken, which now symbolizes and links us together a band of brothers. Principles are worth more to us than men, pureness of heart, than bonds of brotherhood.

Remove this foundation stone, upon which our beautiful masonic temple in all the grandeur of sublimity rests, and around which the affections of our hearts fondly cluster, and there will be none so poor as to do it reverence.

There is a Temple, tho' unseen,
Built not by human hands,
Which has not here alone its home,
Nor yet in foreign lands;
A Temple wrought with wondrous skill,
Surpassing matchless art,
Where masonry delights to dwell,
It is the human heart.

Long may it be ere time shall write
Upon its hidden face,
That God, the revered, pure and good,
In Masonry hath no place;
Then brethren, guard this Temple well,
Nor let its truth depart,
Above all others, prize the most,
This Temple of the heart.

The Grand Secretary submitted his Annual Report, which was read and referred to the Committee on his Books and Report:

To the M. W. Grand Lodge of North Carolina:

BRETHREN: I cannot, as far as my information extends, report a general increase of prosperity among our Lodges. While this is true, a comparative exhibit of the condition of the Order in this country, does not place this Grand Jurisdiction below the degree of average progress. The increase of our membership may not equal that of some other Jurisdictions, yet the returns of our Lodges indicate a commendable disposition to maintain the character of the Order by not only admitting the worthy, but rejecting those deemed unworthy, and casting out the offending members.

The death roll reveals the sad fact that many true and zealous brethren have been lost to us.

In submitting this report, I mention such matters as I feel may be of interest and importance to you, and, in connection with some subjects, venture suggestions, which I hope will be beneficial.

Under the direction of the Publishing Committee, I caused to be printed the usual number of copies of the Proceedings of the last Annual Communication, and distributed them as the law requires. In obedience to the resolution of the last Annual Communication, I omitted the publication of the membership of the Lodges, which reduced the expense of printing two hundred and sixty-seven dollars.

The receipts of the year from all sources amount to three thousand seven hundred and eighty-four dollars and ninety cents, and are as follows:

Dues from Lodges for 1876 and previous years, . . . . .	$3,651 65
Charters deducting Grand Secretary's fees, . . . . .	95 00
Dispensations deducting Grand Secretary's fees, . . . . .	27 00
Diplomas and sale of Grand Lodge Proceedings, . . . . .	4 00
Dues from former members of extinct Lodges, under Sec. 2, of Art. VI of the Code, . . . . .	7 25
Total, . . . . .	$3,784 90

This amount I paid to the Grand Treasurer.

I took occasion in my last annual report to refer to the deficiency of receipts from annual dues as to the amount which should be realized from the per capita stipend on the entire membership in the jurisdiction, and suggested as the cause the financial embarrassments of many of the Lodges. I have to refer to the subject again, and report a deficiency in the receipts the present year as arising from the same cause.

When special application was made for the arrears some Lodges asked indulgence which the necessities of the cases compelled me to grant.

Many Lodges find it much more difficult to pay the fifty cents assessment on their membership than fifteen dollars, which they formerly paid, hence, my cash book and ledger show many entries of partial payments. I would that the case were different, but have found it absolutely impossible to make it so. I might suggest as another cause for this deficiency, the action of the Lodges generally in excluding members for non-payment of dues— in some instances more have been thus dealt with, others less—yet the aggregate is considerable, numbering in 1875 and 1876, the two first years after the revenue system was changed, more than one thousand. A disregard of the regulations of the Lodges on the part of the members, as well as their obligations to pay the dues, is the alleged ground of such action, and, under existing law, this is the only redress the Lodges have for this unfaithfulness.

The following Lodges have been established under the Dispensation of the Grand Master:

June 11, 1877—Acacia, at Belle Voir, Chatham county.

“ 26, “ —Mount Vernon, at Stonewall, Pamlico county.

Oct. 27, “ —East La Porte, at East La Porte, Jackson county.

The following Lodges were continued under Dispensation:

Leasburg, at Leasburg, Caswell county.

Bakersville, at Bakersville, Mitchell county.

Mayon, at Clayfork, Cumberland county.

Scotch Ireland Lodge, No. 154, at Rowan Mills, Rowan county, resumed work regularly in May last under the special dispensation of the Grand Master. It has since removed to Mount Vernon, in the same county, with the consent of the Grand Master. The proceedings in the matter of removal, which were regular, were submitted to, and approved by, me, under Article VIII, of the by-laws of the Grand Lodge.

Mount Bethel Lodge, No. 254, removed from Lomaxville, Rockingham county, to Aspen Grove, same county. The proceedings were approved, and removal consented to by the Grand Master.

Mount Moriah Lodge, No. 82, at Statesville, whose charter was restored at the last Annual Communication, declined to resume work under that action, the brethren preferring, as I learn, to establish a new Lodge, owing to some embarrassments which might affect the prosperity of the Lodge, if working under the old charter.

Five new Lodges were chartered at the last Annual Communication, numbering 352 to 356, both inclusive.

Prospect Lodge, No. 311, located in Rowan county, ceased work in October last. I have since received official notice of this action, and its charter and seal. The property has been secured and is held by an agent appointed by the Grand Master.

I have received definite information that Unaka Lodge, No. 268, at Webster, Jackson county, and Pamlico Lodge, No. 300, at Aurora, Beaufort county, have also ceased work. Steps have been taken by the Grand Master to secure their property.

I may be permitted to reiterate here, in substance, remarks which I made in my annual report of 1874, as applicable at the present.

Inactivity on the part of members of some Lodges is the cause of the loss of the charters. In other instances the brethren preferred to surrender their charters with a view to the establishment of new Lodges, and thus get rid of unfaithful members, instead of resorting to the means provided by law, to accomplish this end.

While in some cases a recourse to such means has been productive of some benefit to the fraternity in a moral point of view, and preserved the organization of the more faithful element of the membership, still a failure of complete success is the experience of others who sought relief in the exclusive precincts of new Lodges. While the noble efforts in this direction of brethren, prompted, no doubt, by a genuine devotion to the Order and a desire to preserve its purity, should be appreciated, nevertheless, it is cause for regret that the Lodges should have to go down under the unfaithfulness of their own members.

To enforce the idea suggested by these remarks I state that, from and including the year 1865, (when masonry received a fresh impulse in North Carolina) to the present time, one hundred and twenty-nine Lodges have been chartered by this Grand Body, of which number at least one-third are successors to Lodges formerly existing, or were made up of their better material. Thus, while our registry of numbers has been constantly added to, intervening numbers are deducted. Our highest number now is three hundred and fifty-six, and the number working is two hundred and thirty-four.

RETURNS OF LODGES.

There is still a considerable delinquency on the part of Secretaries of Lodges in complying with the law requiring the annual returns to be made to the Grand Secretary by the 25th of November. An observance of this law is very important. It is necessary that the returns be accurate, so that a correct charge of dues can be made. The disappearance of names from the membership without explanation under the proper headings of the returns, calls for enquiry, and an examination in advance of the meeting of the Grand Lodge, leads to a correction of errors and the collection of a proper amount of dues.

In cases where the returns and dues are brought by the representatives it is impossible, in the midst of the pressing demands upon the time of the Grand Secretary and his assistant, on the assembling and during the session of the Grand Lodge, to examine the returns and ascertain the proper amount of dues.

Again, as it is necessary to obtain reliable statistics for publication in the Proceedings, all gains and losses in membership should be accounted for, and in view of this an extensive correspondence, after an inspection of the returns, has been required, so as to have errors corrected and omissions supplied.

These suggestions are made in view of their importance, hoping they may attract the attention of the Secretaries, and secure accuracy and promptness in preparing and transmitting their returns.

Having a due appreciation of the manifest desire on the part of this laborious class of the fraternity to perform their duty, I do not, by referring again to this subject, design to reflect upon them, but with the view to urge the importance of the law and the necessity conforming to it.

GRAND LODGE LIBRARY AND ARCHIVES.

The library contains four hundred valuable masonic works. The arrangements of the room assigned to the Grand Secretary as a depository for the library and the archives, are not ample for the proper care of both. An extension of the shelving is necessary to a methodical re-filing of the papers, the larger number of which yet remains in the boxes in which they were removed from the old hall. I respectfully ask for the small appropriation of thirty-five dollars for this purpose, this being the estimate of the cost of the work as made by an experienced carpenter.

DEATHS.

I am performing a painful duty in announcing the death of George Frank Gouley, Grand Secretary of the Grand Bodies of Missouri.

The poignancy of the grief which this event produced, is increased by the sad circumstances which attended it. On the 11th of April last, while yet in the vigor of manhood, his life was tragically terminated with the destruction by fire of the Southern Hotel, in the city of Saint Louis. After every avenue of escape had been closed by the flames, he fell from the burning wall to the pavement below and was killed.

The numerous eulogiums pronounced upon the life and character of Bro. Gouley, are testimonials of his moral worth and general esteem in which he was held as a citizen and mason.

While Missouri mourns him as her adopted son, and because of the loss of his immediate social influence and valuable counsels, the fraternity condole with her, and, recognizing him as a true exponent of their cherished principles, preserve his name and record of his deeds as valued mementoes.

New Hampshire also, has lost a beloved and faithful servant by the death of her Grand Secretary, Bro. John A. Harris, which occurred at his home, in the city of Concord, on the third of September last. The prominence and usefulness of this distinguished brother extended with his advancing years. A personal acquaintance with him, though formed by a brief association, added to what is written of him, enables me to place on record this testimonial of the individual and masonic virtues, which were conspicuously exhibited in his life, and to offer this feeble tribute to his memory.

This report is respectfully submitted with expressions of gratitude to Him, who has favored us with another season of fraternal association, and with the hope that the deliberations of this Annual Communication may be directed by His wisdom and concluded with His benediction.

Dec. 4, Balance carried to new Masonic year, ..$397 00

I desire again to call the attention of the Grand Lodge to the fact that the dilatory manner in which the subordinate Lodges pay their dues to the Grand Lodge, leaves the Grand Treasurer sometimes without money to pay the appropriation for the Orphan Asylum, when called for by its Superintendent, and might thus bring that institution into serious trouble. During the past Masonic year the Superintendent called for the last quarter due him, (five hundred dollars) when there was not one cent in the treasury to meet his draft, and I was obliged to borrow the amount to supply his wants, while at the same time there was due the Grand Lodge from the subordinate Lodges more than one thousand dollars. If at any time the Grand Treasurer should be unable to borrow money to meet the necessities of the Orphan Asylum, it will readily be seen that the result might be disastrous to that noble institution; in my judgment some more speedy and reliable means of furnishing the Asylum with money, should be devised, and I have no doubt the proper committee will present you a scheme for this purpose in detail.

The Orphan Asylum Endowment Fund has not been increased one cent in the past masonic year, and still remains fixed at the pitiful sum stated in my last annual report; a scheme for endowing this grand work has been devised by friends of our Order, based upon the principle of life insurance, and will be introduced to your notice by a distinguished mason, to whose advice this Grand Lodge has always given ready attention, and it is to be hoped so important a matter will have your most earnest consideration.

The insurance against loss by fire on the Orphan Asylum buildings has been kept up to the original amount ordered by the Grand Lodge, ten thousand dollars, and the proper vouchers will be found filed for this expenditure.

The Grand Lodge property in the old Masonic building and land, in the city of Raleigh, on the corner of Morgan and Dawson streets, is in a very dilapidated condition, and is almost entirely unproductive. I have tried to rent parts of the building but without success until very recently, and it will probably not at any time rent for enough to pay the taxes. I suggest that a new committee be appointed to take steps for selling the entire property and realizing its money value, which, if feasible, ought to produce quite a handsome sum for the Grand Lodge treasury.

For the rent of the rooms, now occupied by the Grand Lodge, I have agreed, on its behalf with the subordinate Lodges of this city, to pay the sum of one hundred dollars per annum, this being the sum originally ordered to be paid by the Grand Lodge.

At the last Annual Communication of the Grand Lodge, it was, on motion,

Resolved, That the Grand Treasurer is hereby instructed to purchase new jewels and regalia for the officers of the Grand Lodge, provided the cost shall not exceed one hundred dollars.

In obedience to this resolution, I entered into correspondence with a first-class house in New York, whose business is to make jewels and regalia for masonic bodies, and from them I received samples of different designs and prices. The very lowest sum at which it was found that a set of jewels and regalia, which would be at all useful or ornamental, could be furnished, was one hundred and fifty dollars, and acting with the advice of the Grand Master and many prominent masons of this city, to whom the samples were submitted, I abandoned the attempt, feeling satisfied that the Grand Lodge would not desire to purchase a set of jewels and regalia such as could be procured for the sum of one hundred dollars.

Respectfully submitted,

W. E. ANDERSON,
Grand Treasurer.

The following brethren were present as the accredited representatives of Grand Bodies, near this Grand Lodge, and were received as such :

M. W. George W. Blount, P. G. M., Grand Lodge of Canada.

Some of those discharged have returned to their nearest relatives; some have gone to honorable employment in families highly recommended; one was transferred to another school, and several were adopted by childless couples. Many children, whom we took from circumstances extremely distressing, have found new fathers and mothers able and willing to give them advantages which they would never have known, if their real fathers and mothers had lived. Of the six who ran away, two left to avoid punishment. Children untaught, untrained and unrestrained, submit with great reluctance to rules of propriety and decorum; and it is sad, as well as true, that some voluntarily abandon their only hope of ever learning to read, rather than remain where decent deportment is required. Two were gluttons, by nature, and could not be contented with ordinary meals.

Hence on the road-side they made heavy complaints against our bill of fare. Two were natural runaways. Most children love their homes, because their parents and friends, their playthings and property are there; but many orphans have no homes to love, and some have nothing lovely at the places called their homes. Having no personal affection and no local attachment, they are constantly miserable and restless. The remedy is to hold them until they learn to love somebody or something. But these two left before any such impression could be made upon them.

Number of lodges contributing, 87.

Amount contributed by them, ..... $1,480 79

Some lodges not mentioned in this list, as for example, Adoniram, No. 149, have made liberal contributions in kind. Some of those contributing cash, as for example, Berea, No. 204, and St. John's, No. 1, have also contributed freely in kind. The members of some lodges have also contributed nobly as individuals, especially at our orphan entertainments. But these are the exceptions and the general fact remains that more than half the lodges and more than half the masons have entirely disregarded the claims of the orphans. Many lodges have never appointed a committee on the Orphan Asylum. Some have never given a cent, and some officers of lodges, when present at our orphan entertainments, have declined to receive and hand over the money which the people had brought and expected to give. Many individuals and several lodges have done their whole duty, and some have been liberal beyond their means; but the burden of supporting the orphan work has not been fairly distributed. Neither has the amount of cash received been sufficient to justify the purchase of some things really needed; but, by using fruits and vegetables very largely, by raising pork, by fattening bees, by selling blooded pigs, by requiring the girls to do all the cooking, by discharging the hands usually hired for heavy work, by doing without a steward, and by rigid economy, in every department, we have been able to keep the premises in good repair, to enclose a large pasture for the stock, to erect a two-story building for the use of the boys, and to feed, clothe and teach an average of one hundred and twenty orphans.

After an experience of five years, we find that the food, clothing and instruction of each orphan will cost about five dollars a month, and the repairs and incidental expenses will add another dollar, making a total expense of six dollars a month for each orphan in the institution. The work need not cost any more; but, to be well done, it ought not to cost any less.

HEALTH.

We have reason to be profoundly grateful to the Giver of "every good and perfect gift" for the unusual health enjoyed during the past year. There has been no death nor lingering sickness among the orphans. During six consecutive months no one was sick enough to go to bed, and there have been but few days in the year when any one was too unwell to eat the usual meals.

RECOMMENDATIONS.

I respectfully recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

1. Resolved, "That it shall be the duty of every lodge to pay to the orphan asylum five dollars for every person initiated, and not less than five cents a month for every member on its roll, and to state in its annual returns to what extent this duty has been performed."

Less than this ought not to be expected of those who became masons in order that they might contribute to the relief of the orphans in distress.

2. Resolved, "That any dimitted or non-affiliated mason may send five dollars a year to the Orphan Asylum, by the committee in whose jurisdiction he resides, and be thereby entitled to all the rites and benefits of masonry, except membership in a subordinate lodge."

Other Grand Lodges are receiving a revenue from their non-affiliated masons for this purpose, and their example may be imitated with advantage by us. Besides it often happens that a good man and a bright mason is, by some trivial circumstance, denied membership to the lodge in whose jurisdiction he resides. He still wishes to enjoy the rites and benefits of masonry, and under this resolution he can do so with injury to no one, and with advantage to the orphans.

3. Resolved, "That hereafter orphans shall be received between the ages of eight and twelve years and be discharged at sixteen."

We have found, by experience, that a thorough English education cannot be imparted to children under fourteen years of age, and that in both mind and body the boys are too immature for most of the trades which they ought to learn. Neither can the girls, at an age so tender, be prepared for the duties expected of them. According to the rule now in force, boys and girls are discharged at the very age at which temptations assail them most fiercely, and before they are prepared to fortify themselves against them.

4. Resolved, "That an agent shall be appointed to canvass the State and secure subscriptions to the Orphans' Friend, contributions for immediate use, and funds for a permanent endowment."

The Orphans' Friend is a very important auxiliary to our work. Its subscriptions more than meet expenses, and its influence augments the income, both in cash and kind. But its subscriptions and its influence ought to be largely increased.

In some counties there are no lodges, and consequently no committees on the Orphan Asylum. An agent could give these his special attention, and also visit those localities in which the committees are indifferent or inefficient. Our people are now unusually prosperous, and some of them desire to contribute to the endowment of the Orphan Asylum. A desire so laudable ought to be gratified.

In conclusion, I wish to be grateful to all the lodges, churches, benevolent societies and liberal individuals, who have been kind to me and to the orphans. It is pleasant to know and to serve so many good people, and to feel that while "In faith and hope the world will disagree,

Yet all mankind's concern is charity."

Bro. F. H. Busbee, for the Committee appointed at the special communication of the Grand Lodge on the 6th of May last, on the occasion of the funeral of Bro. W. G. Hill, P. G. M., to prepare a memorial of this deceased distinguished brother, submitted the following :

IN MEMORIAM.

WILLIAM GEDDY HILL, Past Grand Master of Masons in North Carolina, was born on the 11th day of September, 1806. He was the only son of William and Sarah Hill, his father having been for forty-six years the Secretary of the State of North Carolina through many and diverse administrations. No public servant of the State has ever equaled Secretary Hill for faithful and long continued service, and his memory is yet cherished by relatives and friends.

Well did his son sustain the reputation of his sire. He was educated at Raleigh Academy and the University of North Carolina, and afterwards obtained the degree of Doctor of Medicine at the University of Pennsylvania, in Philadelphia. He at once entered upon the practice of his profession, and for more than forty five years was daily engaged in its arduous labors. As a physician he was skillful, faithful, untiring and as gentle as a woman. His fellows of the Raleigh Academy of Medicine truly say:

“ Thus passed from life to eternity one of the best members of our profession. He was kind-hearted and charitable beyond his means. No worthy object of charity ever left his door empty handed, and the multitude from all classes of society that wept at his funeral attested the high esteem in which he was held in this community.”

Yet it is his life and record as a Mason that should be chiefly noted here. From early manhood until the hour of his death he was ever a loyal, zealous, working Mason. Initiated in Hiram Lodge, No. 40, in February, 1831, he was shortly thereafter passed and raised ; in May of the same year he removed his membership to Columbus Lodge, No. 102. Pittsboro, N. C., but upon his return to Raleigh in 1842, he resumed his affiliation with Hiram Lodge, which continued until his death. Passing through various subordinate offices he was elected Master in 1845 and 1846, and afterwards in 1855. In 1846 he was appointed Senior Grand Deacon of the Grand Lodge, and in 1850 was elected Senior Grand Warden. In 1862 he was elected to the high position of Grand Master, and after a year of acceptable service declined a re-election. Of his work and his honors in the Chapter and Grand Chapter it is fitting that the record shall be preserved elsewhere, and it is enough to say that he right worthily filed the highest stations in subordinate and Grand Chapters.

Perhaps no man in North Carolina was so well known as a Mason, and so thoroughly identified with its interests as Bro. Hill. He was no holiday Mason. Its tenets and its labors he did not regard as performed by an occasional visit to the Lodge room, a pass-word, an apron, a regalia. Masonry entered into his every day life, and he found it a mentor, a guide, a friend ever faithful to uphold. Through a long life of usefulness and honor he most beautifully exemplified its virtues and kept its lofty purposes ever in his view. Above all, the greatest of these, charity, was his guiding star.

By Masonry he was tutored and fitted triumphantly to subdue the temptations which beset him in early life, and temperance and fortitude were thereafter his hand-maidens. In later years he crowned his life of Masonic morality by a profession of his faith in the Lion of the Tribe of Judah, and as a Christian Mason his pure life is the highest vindication of the natural result of Masonic faith.

With his mark ever kept in view, he was always ready for the Master's Eye, and though the gavel's sudden summons called him unexpectedly before the Throne, serenely he passed into the new life, and stood "in the temple not made with hands, eternal in the heavens."

In acknowledgment of the loss sustained by the Masons of North Carolina, and in respect to the memory of our deceased brother,

Resolved, That this inadequate memorial be spread upon the minutes of the Grand Lodge.

Bro. Busbee accompanied the report with remarks of eulogy on the life and character of the deceased.

The report was unanimously adopted by a rising vote.

Reports from Standing Committees were received as follows, and concurred in :

Committee on Grand Secretary's Books and Report :

To the M. W. Grand Lodge of North Carolina :

The Committee to whom were referred the Report and Books of the Grand Secretary, beg leave to report that we have duly examined the books and find that they are kept in the most systematic and accurate manner, and that they correspond in every particular with his report submitted to this Grand Body. We respectfully recommend that the appropriation be made which he asks, for the purpose of providing proper shelf room for the books, &c., in the library of the Grand Lodge.

Committee on Accounts and Claims:

To the M. W. Grand Lodge of North Carolina:

Your Committee on Accounts and Claims beg leave to report that the Grand Treasurer's books and vouchers have been properly examined for the past masonic year, and we find the books kept in a manner to reflect great credit on that officer. Vouchers were examined for all moneys paid out, and found correct. We, therefore, most respectfully recommend the acceptance of the Grand Treasurer's Report.

Respectfully submitted,

T. C. WORTH, for Committee.

Committee on Propositions and Grievances:

To the M. W. Grand Lodge of North Carolina:

Your Committee on Propositions and Grievances have had certain cases referred to us, and after duly considering the same, submit the following report:

1. In regard to Alamance Lodge, No. 133, we find there has been no election of Master and other officers since 1875, and no meeting of the lodge for nearly two years. The last Worshipful Master wants the charter renewed, and, it seems, he desires to have the stipend of the lodge due the Grand Lodge remitted, so that he and a dozen of the fifty-eight members, who have made no payment of dues for the last two years, may get together and exclude the balance of the members who have not paid. There seems to be no reason for allowing this lodge to go down, and we cannot, therefore, recommend the remission of dues and renewal of charter, which has been forfeited, unless they comply with the legal requirements in such cases provided.

2. A petition comes from Blackmer Lodge, No. 170, Weaverville, Buncombe county, through the Secretary, asking a remission of dues to the Grand Lodge, on the ground that the old members will not attend the meetings nor pay their lodge dues, and the young members lack the nerve to cut them off, in accordance with the law of the Grand Lodge on the subject. We cannot, in justice to other lodges, who bear the expenses of the Grand Lodge, recommend that the request be granted, and, therefore, disapprove the same.

3. A petition comes up from a number of members of former Prospect Lodge, No. 311, Iredell county, for the restoration of Smiley J.

Brown to the rights of masonry, who, it seems, was suspended over two years ago. The petition takes no official form; does not state that the petitioners constitute a legal majority of the lodge; does not mention the offence for which he was suspended, nor whether there has been reparation or reformation, nor application on the part of the suspended member for restoration. We, therefore, recommend that the petition be returned for amendment, and to be sent up in a more regular form, if desired by the lodge.

4. Hunting Creek Lodge, No. 299, asks a remission of dues on account of the lodge having erected a new hall. We believe it has been customary in such cases for the Grand Lodge to remit a year's dues, and we therefore recommend it in this case.

5. Waynesville Lodge, No. 259, having contracted a debt for a new hall, in the lower portion of which they are conducting a masonic school, the only one, except Oxford, of the kind in the State, and being burdened with an unexpected debt, ask to have their dues for 1876-'77 remitted, and your committee recommend that their petition be granted. We, therefore, offer the following resolution:

Resolved, That the annual dues of Waynesville Lodge, No. 259, for the years 1876-'77, and the dues of Hunting Creek Lodge, No. 299, for the present year be remitted.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

W. R. COX;
J. H. MOORE, } Com.

Committee No 3, on Suspensions and Expulsions:

To the M. W. Grand Lodge of North Carolina:

We, the Committee No 3, on Suspensions and Expulsions, beg leave to report that we have examined the transcripts of the cases below enumerated, and say:

1. That the action of Joseph Warren Lodge, No. 92, in the indefinite suspension of W. L. Grimmer and the expulsion of Jesse M. Jones, be confirmed.

2. That the action of Eureka Lodge, No. 317, in the expulsion of Moses D. Lane, be confirmed.

3. That the action of Lee Lodge, No. 253, in the expulsion of E. W. Teague, be confirmed.

4. That the action of William G. Hill Lodge, No. 218, in the indefinite suspension of G. D. Cully and T. R. Adams, be confirmed.

5. That the action of the Most Worshipful Grand Master in suspending from the functions of his office J. S. Claywell, Worshipful Master of Jonesville Lodge, No. 227, be and the same is hereby confirmed. Upon the investigation of the matters pertaining thereto, we find that the lodge is in a state of great disorder and distraction, and much bad feeling entertained among those who should be brethren. We find further that, since the action of the Grand Master, on the third Friday night of October, 1877, the said lodge held an election of officers, re-electing J. S. Claywell W. M.

We recommend that said election be set aside and vacated as being irregular and contrary to the uniform code, and that the functions of the lodge be suspended until the matters of controversy can be adjusted and settled. That the Worshipful Masters of Dellaplane Lodge, No. 355, Yadkin Lodge, No. 162, and Trap Hill Lodge, No. 346, be appointed a committee to investigate the matters of difficulty in said Jonesville Lodge, who shall give notice to said lodge of the time when they will have the investigation, and report their action to the Grand Master, upon which report he may restore said lodge, or take such other action as may be warranted by the report.

Bro. F. H. Busbee, from Committee No. 2, on Suspensions and Expulsions, submitted the following report, which was read and concurred in except as to the cases of L. R. Rose and A. R. Young, which were re-committed to the committee for further consideration of certain points suggested in the remarks on the motion to refer.

To the M. W. Grand Lodge of North Carolina :

Your Committee No. 2, on Suspensions and Expulsions, desire to report that they have examined the following cases submitted to them, and recommend in each case the disposition respectively hereinafter set forth, to-wit :

1. Blackmer Lodge, No. 170. W. B. Smith. A very singular case. There appears to be no charge against Mr. Smith's moral character, but in open lodge he stated that he had conscientious scruples against being a mason; that he had derived no benefit from it; that he would never sit in another lodge or obey another summons; and that he believed its teachings were contrary to the Bible. Upon the trial he reiterated these opinions, and said he desired to be cut off from the lodge, and much of the same import.

From the whole case, it strikes the committee that a disinclination to pay dues had much to do with Mr. Smith's scruples.

Sentence: Expulsion. We recommend that it be affirmed.

2. Mt. Pleasant Lodge, No. 157, v. Fendal Beavers. Charge: Habitual drunkenness. Sentence: Suspension for twelve months. The charges and specifications were fully sustained, and our only wonder is that the sentence was not more severe. We recommend that the sentence be affirmed.

3. Carolina Lodge, No. 141, v. F. Lee. Charge: Gross unmasonic conduct. Specification: Failure to obey a legal summons.

Mr. Lee not only failed to obey the summons, but said that the lodge might do what they pleased, he would pay no attention to it. Sentence: Expulsion. We recommend that it be affirmed.

4. Mt. Pleasant Lodge, No. 157, v. J. P. Chandler. Charge: Failure to obey summons. The charge and specifications were sustained, and the accused was expelled. While we think indefinite suspension would, perhaps, have been a better punishment, the lodge is the better judge of that, and we recommend that the sentence be affirmed.

5. Patterson Lodge, No. 307, v. L. R. Rose. Charge: Habitual drunkenness and gambling with negroes.

The evidence warrants the verdict of guilty, and the sentence of of indefinite suspension is very light. We recommend that it be affirmed.

6. Patterson Lodge, No. 307, v. D. C. Faggart. Charge: Unmasonic conduct. Specification: A single act of drunkenness.

The accused plead guilty, and was sentenced to suspension for six months.

Mr. Faggart has expressed contrition for his offence, and it appears to have been a single instance. The Master sends up an appeal for mercy, which the committee approve, and recommend that the sentence be changed into a private reprimand by the Master.

7. Sandy Creek Lodge, No. 185, v. James Brewer. Charge: Unmasonic conduct. Specification: We will not mention.

The accused admitted the offence, and we think that the sentence of expulsion should be affirmed.

8. Anchor Lodge, No. 234, v. James K. Pool. Charge: Unmasonic conduct. Specification: We will not mention.

Sentence: Expulsion, which we recommend should be affirmed.

9. Rolesville Lodge, No. 156, v. A. R. Young. The accused was tried upon the charge of gross unmasonic conduct, with three specifications. The first specification is enough to warrant the sentence, and the evidence raises a strong suspicion of guilt, but, unfortunately, it is purely hearsay testimony, and the lodge cannot properly act upon it. The same thing is true of the third specification. As to the second specification, which is for failing to pay a draft, though able, the committee are of opinion that the assistance of masonry to collect debts should be rarely invoked, if ever, and we should hesitate to have the sentence of indefinite suspension affirmed upon the least important of the specifications. If the accused had collected money for a distressed Master Mason's widow and failed to pay it over, let him be tried for that; let the witnesses be examined by the lodge, which can be temporarily called off if the witness is a woman or a profane; and if he is found guilty, let him be suspended or expelled.

We, therefore, recommend that this case be returned to Rolesville Lodge for a new trial

10. Mocksville Lodge, No. 134, v. Haman Fritz. The charge and specifications are not set forth, though the sentence is said to be for habitual drunkenness. The first vote for expulsion failed, and since the charge and specifications are not set forth, since the brother threw himself upon the mercy of the lodge, and since there appeared to be some doubt in the lodge itself, we recommend that the case be returned to the lodge for a new and fuller record and a new trial, or at least, a new sentence. If Mr. Fritz has reformed, the lodge can take that into consideration; if not, they can reaffirm their sentence of expulsion.

Our recommendation is for a new trial, if the lodge order it; if they do not, then for a new sentence, and a fuller record to this Grand Lodge.

Respectfully submitted,

Bro. W. E. Anderson, Grand Treasurer, from the committee appointed at the last Annual Communication, to present the claims of the Orphan Work to the General Assembly, submitted the following report, which was read and adopted, and the committee continued with same powers heretofore given :

To the M. W. Grand Lodge of North Carolina :

The Committee appointed by the Grand Master at last Annual Communication, provided for in the third paragraph of the report of the Committee on the Orphan Asylum, respectfully report :

That to the best of their ability they presented the claims of the Orphan Work to the last General Assembly, and urged an annual appropriation to aid in the support of the Orphan Asylum, both by using their personal influence with the individual members of the General Assembly and with the committees, and by soliciting the personal influence of the prominent masons resident in this city, and the members of the order visiting us during the session of the General Assembly, but the committee regret to say that their efforts were in vain, and that the General Assembly refused to make an appropriation as urged. Your committee respectfully recommend that the intention of urging the General Assembly to make an appropriation be by no means abandoned by the Grand Lodge, but that a new committee, to be composed of new members, be appointed to bring the matter before the next General Assembly, your committee being satisfied that well directed and continuous effort in this direction must eventually be crowned with success.

The Grand Lodge was called from labor to refreshment until this evening at 7 o'clock.

WEDNESDAY EVENING, 7 o'CLOCK,
December 5th, A. L., 5877, A. D. 1877.

HE Grand Lodge was called from refreshment to labor.

M. W., Edwin G. Reade, P. G. M., appeared and occupied a seat in the Grand Lodge.

Reports of Standing Committees were submitted as follows, and adopted:

Committee No. 1, on Suspensions and Expulsions:

To the M. W. Grand Lodge of North Carolina:

Committee No. 1, on Suspensions and Expulsions, have examined the following cases, and recommend:

1. That the action of Eagle Lodge, No. 71, in expelling Charles S. Cooley for violating his obligation in that he used low and abusive language concerning a Master Mason, and that he struck a Master Mason, the said blow not being in self-defence, be affirmed.

2. That the action of Forestville Lodge, No. 282, in expelling C. C. Newton and Levi Bryan, for disobeying a summons of the lodge, be affirmed.

The summons in these two cases were sent through the mail, and it is presumed were received by Newton and Bryan; there is no other evidence showing this fact, there being no evidence other than the failure to obey, if the summons were received, showing any disposition on the part of the expelled parties to violate their obligation in this respect, it would have been much more satisfactory if it had been shown affirmatively, other than by the mere fact of mailing a summons, that the process of the lodge had been served, and especially, as the highest punishment known to masonry, was inflicted in these two cases.

The certificate of the Secretary, as required by the masonic code, page 129, attesting the "full, true and perfect transcript of the proceedings of the lodge in every trial," is not written out in full.

The seal of the lodge is attached and the name of the Secretary. We do not think this omission necessitates the return of the two transcripts in these cases to the lodge for the addition of the certificate in the form required. We direct attention to this failure to comply with the prescribed forms, in order that it may not occur again.

3. That the action of Phalanx Lodge, No. 31, in expelling B. M. Presson for receiving ten dollars from a profane, to be paid to the lodge as a part of the fee for the three degrees, and converting the same to his own use and not paying the same to lodge, be affirmed.

The certificate of the Secretary in this case is the same as that in the two cases of Forestville Lodge, No. 282; what is said with reference to those two cases, we repeat as to this case.

4. That the action of Berea Lodge, No. 204, indefinitely suspending Young M. Montague for slandering, and accusing a Master Mason of wilful lying, be affirmed.

The letter of Mr. Montague, addressed to the Grand Lodge, asking to be restored to all the rights and privileges of masonry, and giving as a reason therefor, that he failed to attend the communication at which he was indefinitely suspended under a misapprehension of the day appointed for trial, we deem insufficient, although the facts set forth in said letter are vouched for as being correct by Bro. T. D. Clement, Senior Warden of the Lodge. The evidence fully justified the lodge in its action.

5. The transcript sent up by Franklinton Lodge, No. 123, in the case of Henry Winston, does not contain the seal of the lodge, and it is recommended that the transcript be returned to the lodge for this correction.

6. Waynesville Lodge, No. 259, sends up a transcript in the case of G. M. Smathers, which is fatally defective in the following particulars:

1. It does not appear that the charges and specifications were ever properly made.

2. It does not appear that the accused was served with a copy of the charges and specifications ten days before the day appointed for the trial.

3. A deposition taken before the coroner's jury was the only evidence before the lodge, and this is not set out. The charge was murder.

The certificate of the Secretary in this case is the same as that in the two cases from Forestville Lodge, No. 282; what is said as to Forestville Lodge, No. 282, is repeated as to the Secretary's certificate in this case from Waynesville Lodge, No. 259. It is recommended that the transcript be returned to the lodge, and that a new trial be ordered.

Committee on Foreign Correspondence:

To the M. W. Grand Lodge of North Carolina:

The undersigned, Committee on Correspondence, respectfully reports: That the Committee on Foreign Correspondence at the last Grand Communication, made an elaborate and interesting report; and finding that the subject of "colored masonry" was being a good deal discussed, and supposing that this Grand Lodge would desire to know what was said elsewhere, and take part in the discussion, reported very elaborately on that subject, and came to very satisfactory conclusions, in which there was, so far as your committee are informed, a unanimous concurrence of opinion in the Grand Lodge. But the tendency of the report was to involve this Grand Lodge farther in the discussion than it felt inclined to go; and therefore the Grand Lodge re-referred the subject with the understanding that the report should do little more than to declare our position upon the subject.

In this action no reflection whatever was intended upon the committee. And, indeed, no doubt that this course would have been agreeable to the committee in the first instance, if they had not supposed that the Grand Lodge would expect a more elaborate treatment.

There are, as we learn, a number of associations of the colored people in our State, some of which are called "Masonic," some "Odd Fellows," others "Sons of Temperance," and the like. How far they conform to the legitimate rituals of those Orders, we do not know. They never ask us for recognition or admission, and we never ask them. If they or we were to do so, each would be refused. If either were admitted it would work nothing but mischief. There is, so far as we know, no prejudice on either side. We sincerely wish them well in all their benevolent enterprises with whatever name they assume. But there is an impassable barrier against social and fraternal masonic intercourse, which we understand and approve, and which they understand and approve. And until some one among ourselves shall be mischievous enough to attempt to break down the barrier, we think it enough for us to stand upon our former deliverance upon the subject.

We have received and have examined the reports of the proceedings of most of the Grand Lodges which are recognized by this Grand Lodge; and we are sorry to say that they are so voluminous that we were obliged to slight much that is in them. This, however, is the less regretted, inasmuch as all contain much of the same thing. For instance: each one tells what the Grand Lodge of New York did. And so there is no necessity to read that forty times over.

The reports of Committees on Foreign Correspondence are very elaborate, from a dozen to fifty pages, and each one repeating, substantially, what another has said. Much of the remainder consists of questions of discipline and work and local matters, which, as they affect not the landmarks, are not of general interest. But still, we do find much to praise and to be proud of. In the addresses of Grand Masters, in the reports of committees and in resolutions, there is much of literary merit, the noblest sentiments, and the purest morals. One cannot search these treasures without finding that ours is a noble Order. Every virtue is maintained and elevated, and every vice is denounced and degraded. Every good man must feel that the lodge is his home, and every bad man must feel that he is a stranger there. The virtues which we find most enjoined are, education of the young, care of widows and orphans, help for the poor, and charity for all. The vices most denounced are, idleness, the man who, instead of being a help, is a burden to his brethren; drunkenness, which destroys usefulness and decency, and entails wretchedness and shame; and profanity, which dishonors God.

These everlasting teachings commend our Order to earth and to Heaven.

Fraternally submitted,

E. G. READE.

Bro. Harris moved that the vote by which this report was adopted, be reconsidered, and that said motion be laid on the table. Adopted.

On motion of Bro. B. F. Rogers, the speeches on all subjects during the remainder of this Annual Communication, were limited to five minutes.

Bro. H. A. Gudger, from the Committee to procure the services of a Past Grand Master to install the Grand Officers, announced that Past Grand Master Edwin G. Reade would perform that service at the hour previously designated.

To the M. W. Grand Lodge of North Carolina:

The Committee on Foreign Correspondence presents the following additional report:

Proceedings have been received from recently organized Grand Lodges, viz:

Dakota—organized July 25, 1875.

Province of Manitoba—organized May 12, 1875.

Prince Edward Island—organized June 24, 1875.

Territory of Wyoming—organized December 15, 1874.

The proceedings of their organization, as well as of the Annual Communications since held, are regular and legal, as they appear from the examination given them by your committee. They apply to us for recognition. It seems to have been delayed in consequence of the failures of previous committees to make reports to this Body.

We recommend that it be extended, with a view to official correspondence and exchange of representatives with them.

Bro. John Nichols, P. G. M., presented the following report of a Special Committee appointed at the last Annual Communication, which was read and adopted. [Bro. Kenan was added to the committee in place of Bro. W. G. Hill, P. G. M., deceased.]

To the 'M. W. Grand Lodge of North Carolina :

The Committee to whom was referred the following query, to wit:

“Is it unmasonic to dispense with reading the passages from the Scriptures, as printed in the Masonic charts, in the introductory ceremonies of the several degrees—”

Have had the same under consideration, and submit the following:

In our ritualistic ceremonies we are taught that “music is one of the liberal arts and sciences, “and,” says a learned masonic author, “is recommended to the attention of masons, because as the ‘concord of sweet sounds’ elevates the generous sentiments of the soul, so should the concord of good feeling reign among the brethren, that by the union of friendship and brotherly love, the boisterous passions may be lulled, and harmony exist throughout the craft.” In many jurisdictions, especially in the larger cities, music has been introduced to a considerable extent during the past few years, and we can see no objection to it; nor do we consider it objectionable, certainly not unmasonic, to dispense with the reading of the passages from the Scriptures, and substituting music, either vocal or instrumental, especially when the Scriptures are paraphrased so as to be chanted or sung, as is almost the invariable rule in masonic music. Indeed, where good music can be substituted for bad reading, it is decidedly preferable.

The passages from the Bible, published in our masonic charts and read during the introductory ceremonies of conferring the degrees, are intended, and when impressively read, well calculated to convey lasting impressions on the minds of candidates, and as a rule, should not be omitted, but the substituting of either for the other, is a matter for the discretion and good judgment of intelligent Masters of Lodges, where we think it may be safely entrusted.

EDWIN G. READE, }
THOS. S KENAN, } Com.
JOHN NICHOLS, }

The Grand Lodge having concluded the business submitted for its action, the proceedings of this day's session were read and approved.

Prayer was offered by Bro. L. A. Bikle, Grand Chaplain, and the Grand Lodge was closed in ample form.

HORACE H. MUNSON,
Grand Master.

Upon a call of the roll, representatives from the following lodges responded ; Johnston Caswell, No. 10 ; Phalanx, No. 31 ; Hiram, No. 40 ; Fulton, No. 99 ; Columbus, No. 102 ; Holly Spring, No. 115 ; Tuscarora, No. 122 ; Franklinton, No. 123 ; Chalmers, No. 151 ; Sandy Creek, No. 185 ; Industrial, No. 212 ; New Light, No. 215 ; Wm. G. Hill, No. 218 ; Wm. T. Bain, No. 231 ; Sapona, No. 280 ; Forestville, No. 282; French Broad, No. 292: Eureka, No. 317; also, the following Past Grand Officers: M. W., R. W. Best and John Nichols, P. G. Ms. and R. W., Jos. B. Batchelor, P. D. G. M., and a large number of visiting brethren.

The acting Grand Master made the following announcement:

Brethren of the Grand Lodge:

We have assembled to day upon an occasion of as much solemnity as any in the past history of the Grand Lodge of North Carolina.

The Most Worshipful Grand Master, who could not be present in person, has granted his dispensation for a Special Communication of the Grand Lodge to solemnize, in ample form, the funeral rites of our honored and beloved Past Grand Master, WILLIAM G. HILL.

This unexpected bereavement clothes our hearts in sadness, and teaches us the most impressive of human lessons, that "in the midst of life we are in death!"

That Omnipotent Providence who, while overruling the destiny of nations, "numbers the very hairs of our heads," and without whom "not a sparrow falleth to the ground," has suddenly removed from this to a better and higher sphere of existence, a good man, a kind father, a loving husband, a pure patriot, and excellent physician, an upright mason, an humble christian.

In his death we lose a friend, his family a protector, the poor a sympathizer, the profession a votary, the fraternity an ornament, Christianity an exemplar.

He was called suddenly, but not unexpectedly. He kept his lamp trimmed and the oil burning ready for the feast. He cherished the constant remembrance of another life than this, another judge than man, another ordeal than human opinion. He did his duty at all times, in all places, to all men. My brethren, we have to-day mingled emotions of sorrow and gladness. We mourn that Dr. Hill is dead! we rejoice that Dr. Hill shall never die! So dear to him did the path of duty become from faithful habit, that, as old age gently withered his strength, he tottered on towards honor and immortality.

He went down to the grave calmly, without a struggle, and without a fear. His example will teach on earth, while his spirit rejoices with God. His loved ones commit his ashes to our care; we commit them to the tomb! Peace to those ashes.

The following brethren were appointed pall bearers :

Z. B. Vance, W. E. Anderson, L. E. Heartt, John G. Williams, W. J. W. Crowder, J. B. Dunn, V. E. Turner, and Joseph B. Batchelor.

The procession was formed by the acting Grand Marshal, and proceeded to the late residence of the deceased, and thence with the remains to Edenton Street Methodist Episcopal Church, South, of this City, where the funeral ceremonies were conducted by the Rev. Jos. H. Wheeler.

The remains were then escorted to the cemetery on East street, and interred with the appropriate ceremonies of our Order.

The procession returned to the Hall.

Bro. John Nichols, P. G. M., moved that a committee of three be appointed to prepare a memorial on the life and character of the deceased, with resolutions expressive of the sense of the Grand Lodge on its bereavement, and report the same to the next Annual Communication of the Grand Lodge.

The motion prevailed, and the acting Grand Master appointed Bre. John Nichols, F. H. Busbee, and James H. Moore, to constitute said committee.

The Grand Lodge was closed in due form.
