HISTORY OF THE ASSOCIATION OF JUNIOR LEAGUES OF AMERICA

The Junior League represents a serious endeavor on the part of young women to become active and constructive factors in the communities in which they live, to be intelligent citizens, and to assist in promoting human welfare. In addition to providing the member with channels of work and training for volunteer service, the Junior League helps her to realize two vital concepts: (1) that she is not an onlooker, but is herself a part of the community; (2) that the community, in turn, is not an isolated unit but part of the nation and of the world.

It was in 1901, at the beginning of a new era for American women, that the first Junior League was organized in New York. At that time Mary Harriman (Mrs. Chas. Carey Rumsey) and Nathalie Henderson (Mrs. Joseph Swan) realized what might be achieved if a group of young women were encouraged to take a more active part in some form of active service to their own neighborhoods through the settlement houses and other organizations in existence at the time.

Soon similar organizations to that in New York were formed in various other of the large cities—Boston, Brooklyn, Portland, Ore., Baltimore, Philadelphia and Chicago. In the spring of 1912 six of the seven Leagues then in existence held their first national conference in New York City. In 1921 the Association of the Junior Leagues of America, Inc., was founded by the thirty Leagues then in existence. Mrs. Willard Straight (Mrs. Leonard K. Elmhirst) was elected president and a Board of Directors was appointed and instructed to draw up a constitution.

After 1921 the Association grew rapidly until, in 1923, there were sixty-three Leagues. In order to establish a closer contact between the Leagues and the Association, the country was divided into six territories and in each a League member was appointed regional director to act as liaison officer between the Leagues of the region and the Association and to serve on the latter's Board of Directors. Now there are nine regions, in each of which the Leagues elect every second year a member to serve as their regional director.

At the time the Association was first formed most League activity was in the realm of social work but the Board of Directors, realizing the opportunities which would eventually offer themselves to Junior Leagues, set down in the constitution the social, economic, educational, cultural and civic fields as those in which Junior Leagues should interest their members.

Gradually the Leagues realized that a benevolent "doing for others" was not enough, that they must form a partnership with professional community workers to effect the improvement of conditions. To do this required knowledge. As evidence of this the first course for provisional members was established in 1921 and such a course, which includes an examination of the various forces at work in the community, has been a prerequisite for active membership since 1927. Originally League projects were large enterprises—convalescent homes, day nurseries, curative workshops and the like. It was discovered, however, that to support these undertakings a disproportionate amount of time and energy often was going into money-raising to the exclusion of the educational process of volunteer service. Today where Leagues have projects the recommended type is one in which the demonstration element is present, the choice being based on the needs of the individual community in the light of the interest and money-raising capabilities of the League.

The League's realization of the need for expert guidance in their welfare activities soon led to the establishment of a trained social work staff at the Association offices. Members of this staff were available for visits to Leagues to study the local situation and give advice. Similar service was then made available for Children's Theatre, Arts, Ways and Means and Publicity. The Association also publishes the Junior League Magazine, issued monthly to each Junior League member. At the present time the Association has 168 member Leagues, 160 in the United States proper, one in Honolulu, one in Mexico City, and six in Canada, comprising a total of some 46,000 members.

Annual Report of Officers — 1948-1949

PRESIDENT'S REPORT

The achievements of the Winston-Salem Junior League during 1948-1949 are recorded in the reports of the chairmen of the committees. I earnestly urge you to read these reports, for you will be amazed at the large number of changes and accomplishments which have been made during the year. To these chairmen I cannot give too much praise for their enthusiasm, co-operation and untiring efforts. They have set a high record for leadership and a sense of responsibility. To each I give my grateful thanks.

It is the duty of the President at the Annual Meeting to give you an over-all picture of the past year: the major achievements and problems, and to evaluate the League in the community. This report will not attempt to summarize each committee report but will mention only the highlights.

We have had no far-reaching problems this year for they most often come when we initiate or end a project. However, the Junior League has made a real contribution to the community by cementing the ground work which had previously been laid, especially in the fields of Radio and Arts and Crafts, and in co-operation with other community agencies. No one but the president can fully realize the influence and prestige the Junior League holds in this city, for to her are directed the first calls for participation in all group drives and enterprises. We are represented officially on the four divisions of the Community Council, the Advisory Committee of the Arts and Crafts Workshop, the Children's Theatre Board, the Public Solicitations Committee, and the Community Radio Council. However, as individual citizens eight additional members sat on the Community Council, eleven on the Y. W. C. A. Board, eight on church boards, six each on the Library, Concert and School Boards, two on the Traveler's Aid and Museum Boards, and one each on the Community Relations, Community Chest, Camp, Hospital, T. B. Association Boards, and the State Board of Correction. Thus a total of 55 members sat as individuals on one State and thirteen Community Boards. This would indicate a high degree of leadership and responsibility among our members which is extremely praiseworthy. Volunteer service has been given to 33 community agencies and organizations. We were asked to send an official representative to the annual meetings of the Winston-Salem Chapter of the American Red Cross, the Girl Scouts, and the Human Betterment League of North Carolina. The Community Council sought our aid in creating the Social Service Library, and the Federated Woman's Clubs requested us to contribute books to the Children's Room of the Carnegie Library. In the latter instance the Junior League gave a set of thirteen books from which had been taken the adaptations of the radio program "Storytime." Our organization was also asked to be co-sponsors, together with forty civic clubs, of the community-wide meeting to discuss the Governor's Survey on the Educational Facilities of North Carolina. A League member, Mrs. Womble, was chairman of the Steering Committee for the forum.

When we recognize here that through the years the Junior League has built for itself a reputation for earnest, thoughtful, and intelligent service, the sober reflection comes, too, that such a reputation demands a double responsibility.

The Winston-Salem Junior League is continually growing. The members now total 314, of which 139 are active, 111 sustaining, 47 non-resident and 17 provisionals. Thus you can readily understand that the problems within the League are changing. It is no longer a small, close-knit group. Through the primary aim of service to the community, the league must offer a large volunteer program in order to stimulate the interest of all its members.

Throughout this past year the Board feared that the League was spreading itself too thin and therefore it wished to concentrate on our present volunteer obligations and not expansion. This, together with the fact that it was not necessary to raise money, was the reason for refusing such requests as the sponsorship of the Horseshow, the Boston Opera Company, and the New York Civic Opera Company. The idea of the small group discussions in February started because many felt that, although League members were giving a tremendous amount of volunteer time to the community, the work was not evenly distributed. To correct this problem the majority have asked for some form of job evaluation. This is not a step backwards as it might appear to be. As always these problems come in cycles, and we again need a more concrete basis for placement. It is to be hoped that a job evaluation plan can be evolved which does not deal strictly with hours, but also takes into consideration the quality and value of the work. One must not lose sight of the fact that we now have minimum standards which state that "all active members shall justify their membership through some form of community service satisfactory to the Placement Committee."

Our only money-raising activity, the Thrift Shop, has caused us some concern. Last May the Board felt that the management of the Thrift Shop could be improved, and for this reason the managerial organization was changed. We will always be indebted to Mrs. Perry for under her management the shop expanded. However, with the change the Committee feels that we are on a more business-like basis. Mrs. J. P. Jarvis has been manager for the last six months, and the Thrift Shop Treasurer, Mrs. Flake Steele, has assumed the responsibility of all bookkeeping and commission records, and writing all checks. A problem still exists, though, that of the volunteers. The answers to the questionnaires, and the small group discussions brought out the fact that the majority favored keeping the Thrift Shop. It appears to be the easiest, most steady source of income. Many seem to believe, however, that they can sit back and let someone else do the necessary volunteer work. This is by no means a new problem, but since the majority wish to keep the shop it would seem that the time has come to institute some form of required service. If it were the duty of every League member to work at the shop it would mean that those who did not wish to make it their permanent placement would only have to give a very short time each year. It is obligatory that some such system satisfactory to the League be instituted. During the year merchandise has been given to the Goodwill Industries, and a donation of clothing made for the Greek Overseas Relief Service. The Shop has fulfilled its quota of $2,500 to the League, and has a balance of $1,422.00 in the bank to cover three months running expenses. The net profit this year was $2,314.00, compared to $3,846 last year. The lower profit this year can be attributed to the change of styles, and the general trend of merchandising. Thrift Shops throughout the country have had the same experience. Because of this the quota to the League for next year has been reduced and it may be necessary, at least temporarily, to find an additional money-raising project. I believe this would be a very healthy action, and would help to provide more unity among the members of the League.

Money to protect our projects for the two coming years is in the bank in our community fund. By each chairman being very careful this year the administration fund has been adequate, but the margin is so close that it may be advisable to raise money among ourselves by a bridge benefit, picnic or some other social event. This would also be in keeping with your suggestion at the coffee parties that the League would be more unified if the members had more fun together in addition to their volunteer work.

All of our money and the largest portion of our volunteer service has gone into promoting the development of the recreational and cultural fields. We have participated in the work at the Carnegie Library, Wachovia Museum, Children's Theatre, and sponsored a Dramatic Workshop. Money has been given to the Arts and Crafts Workshop, the Children's Programming Committee of the Community Radio Council, the Children's Room of the Carnegie Library, and the Piedmont Festival.

It was a red letter day when the Arts and Crafts Workshop, under the able guidance of its own Association and Board, moved into new quarters in the center of Winston-Salem. The progress and expansion this year has been tremendous. The drive showed that the membership has increased from 900 last year to 1,450 persons this year. Reidsville, High Point, Mt. Airy and Greensboro have already started their own workshops modeled after Winston-Salem. There has been a growing interest from the Community as well as the League of the value of such a creative and recreational program in our city. Every League member should feel proud that she had a part in paving the way, and should feel a growing responsibility to do her part to further both with finances and with volunteers a cause that is so obviously proving itself to be a recreational necessity. It is not enough to give the salary of the very able director, Mrs. Chester Marsh, but we must also show an active interest, both for the development of the workshop, and also the future and co-ordination of the cultural field in which we are still pioneering. Let us not withdraw our interest and finances from this field until the arts and recreational facilities of Winston-Salem compare with the fine accomplishments made by the Junior League in the field of social welfare in which we also pioneered.

Forty League girls, under the efficient leadership of Radio Chairman, Mrs. Clifton Pleasants, have worked with the Children's Programming Committee of the Community Radio Council to make this year an important one in the field of educational radio. Four programs were broadcast: "Books Bring Adventure" Series IV, "Storytime," "Book of the Week" Series II, and Musical Notes." Teachers' manuals were prepared for each. All, except "Books Bring Adventure" were created or adapted by volunteers. This was the first of two years that the League has given $500 per year to finance the Children's Programming Division of the Community Radio Council. Hoping that it might become financially independent at the end of this time, the idea was conceived of transcribing and selling the "Storytime" program. In order to finance this the League gave $1,200 from last year's Thrift Shop surplus with the understanding that it be returned when it is realized, and that all profits shall be for the support of the Children's Programming Committee. A community-wide committee set the policies, and the Junior League Committee handled the production, promotion, and sale of the transcriptions. Miss Margaret Vardell and Mrs. David Cayer, together with the technical staff of WSJS, have produced an excellent program, and one of which we can be proud. AJLA has approved the series and thus "Storytime" is placed on the recommended list of transcribed shows. To date eight series have been sold, and the Radio Committee has received many more inquiries. Excellent co-operation has been given by the three radio stations and the city and county school personnel. The accomplishments of the year, plus the increasing interest of the volunteers and the community, seem to indicate that the League's decision to continue financial support of the Children's Programming Committee was a wise one.

Our relationship with the press has also continued to be very good. Both newspapers have been exceedingly co-operative in interpreting to the community all phases of the League's program. Eighty-nine news articles illustrated by twenty pictures, and nine editorials were in The Journal and Sentinel during the year. The full-page article on the "Junior Leagues in North Carolina," written by E. Sue Shore, caused such favorable comment from AJLA and the Regional Director that Mrs. Stanley Forester and her Public Relations Committee were asked to handle all the publicity for the annual conference of Region V. This included advance publicity on the meeting, and publicity during and after the meeting for all nineteen Leagues within the Region. A letter from Mrs. James Frazer, Director of Region V, complimenting the work, said, "You set a good example not only for future regional meetings but for the whole Association for Region V did by far the most impressive job on publicity.

Liz Hill (AJLA consultant) was most complimentary of your ability."

Seventy-three Junior League members worked together under Mrs. Frank Hanes to give "Peter Pan" for the Children's Theatre. It was a very ingenious and effective production, enthusiastically received by the 3,000 city school children who attended.

Two series of lectures sponsored by the League were open to the entire community. The Children's Theatre committee brought Mr. and Mrs. Harry Davis and Mr. Lynn Gault of the Carolina Playmakers to Winston-Salem to speak on the problems of play production. An average of fifty people attended each meeting. The "Pattern of Progress" lecture series, designed primarily for the League Provisionals, was a great success as can be seen by the fact that it prompted six favorable editorials in the newspaper. The series was attended by a large and varied community group in addition to League girls.

Mrs. Albert Butler and Mrs. Edward S. Heefner, Jr., represented Winston-Salem at the AJLA Conference in French Lick. At the second annual meeting of Region V, held at Pinehurst, we were officially represented by Miss Diana Dyer and Mrs. Stanley Forester. However, four others were able to attend in an unofficial capacity. All the Legislative Committee Chairmen of the North Carolina Junior Leagues met twice in Raleigh during the year to formulate policies outlining the work and methods of procedure for their committees. Mrs. William Womble, Legislative Chairman, attended both these meetings and was accompanied to one by Mrs. Spencer Hanes, Jr., and to the other by Mrs. Sam Orr.

A well-integrated League and one that functions smoothly depends on the wholehearted co-operation of all the members. My job has been so much lighter because of the excellent co-operation of each of you. It has been an honor and a privilege to serve as your President, and it will always be one of my most valued experiences. You have a wonderful year ahead of you. I now turn the gavel over to Mrs. Albert Butler, Jr., under whose leadership the League can look forward to another year of successful progress.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. ROBERT B. LAWSON

VICE-PRESIDENT

At the request of the President, the Vice-President presided at three Junior League meetings during the year. Following recent custom, representation at any special community meetings or on any Boards where the Junior League itself was asked to be a member became the responsibility of the Vice-President. These included the Arts and Crafts Workshop, the Community Radio Council, and the Solicitations Committee for regular representation; a dinner meeting of Hadassah was attended along with the President, and a party introducing the new Child Psychiatric worker at the Bowman Gray School of Medicine. Several Community Council meetings were attended, including a luncheon address by Lyman Ford, of the Health and Welfare Section of the National Community Chests and Councils.

The Vice-President also met with the professionals who voted to have quarterly rather than monthly meetings. At one of these the professionals met at coffee with other members (who were to meet at night to discuss informally a League problem). Minutes of the League meetings were sent monthly to the professional group and seemed to be appreciated and read. Consideration should be given by the new Board to more formal and educational meetings for this group to maintain interest and "belonging," even though such meetings might still be held only quarterly. The group might also elect its own chairmen, with the Vice-President as advisor, and function as might a Study group.

Respectfully submitted,
DIANA DYER

CORRESPONDING SECRETARY

During the year April 1948 through March 1949 a total of 70 letters were written by the Corresponding Secretary. Of this number 44 concerned changes in membership status and 11 dealt with miscellaneous Junior League business. Letters were written to the 15 Provisionals. Most of the President's correspondence was done by the Office Secretary or volunteer typists.

The correspondence with regard to membership status concerned the granting of: 5 Non-resident memberships; 1 Active membership; 5 Inter-League memberships; 1 resignation, and 13 transfers.

The following members were transferred from Winston-Salem: Mrs. Richard C. Davis to Charleston, S. C.; Mrs. Robert Lee Stone, Jr., to Durham; Mrs. William P. Taylor to Asheville; Mrs. Fred Cowden to Nashville, Tenn.; Miss Courtney Whitaker to Indianapolis, Ind.; Mrs. Philip M. Bolich to Washington, D. C.

The following members were transferred to Winston-Salem: Mrs. Joseph N. Gaffney from Richmond, Va.; Mrs. Eugene Gray Smith, Jr., from Charlotte; Mrs. Watson Scott from Raleigh; Mrs. Spencer C. Waggoner from Durham; Mrs. Henry L. Valk from Atlanta, Ga.; Mrs. John K. Burrough from Jacksonville, Fla.; Mrs. Luther E. Dempsey, Jr., from Greensboro.

The resignation of Mrs. Robert G. Turnbull (Emma Huntley) was accepted.

Year books were sent to the transfers and to the Leagues requesting them.

This past year the Office Chairmanship was combined with the duties of the Corresponding Secretary. With the help of volunteer typists, letters were written to the Board each month, plus many other letters, reports, and miscellanea.

The Corresponding Secretary assisted the Recording Secretary in the publication of the 1949-50 year book.

Respectfully submitted,
DOTTIE SCHRIVER TROTMAN

RECORDING SECRETARY

The Junior League of Winston-Salem, Inc., has a total of 314 members, which are classified as follows: Active, 139; Sustaining, 111; Non-resident, 47; and Provisional, 17.

During the year, there were nine regular and two called meetings of the Board of Directors, three meetings of the Executive Committee and eight regular meetings of the League.

Minutes were recorded of all meetings and typed copies were sent to the President. Copies of the minutes of the Board were sent to those Board members who were absent from the meetings. Typed copies of all reports from delegates to Conferences, all reports of any great length or importance made by officers or committee heads, and copies of the minutes taken at the informal "coffee" in February were filed in the Minute Book, as well as any mimeographed material distributed at the meetings.

The membership list was kept up-to-date, a complete list of members having been sent to Association headquarters in October, as well as all changes of address each month.

The 1949-1950 year book was compiled and edited with the help of the Corresponding Secretary.

Respectfully submitted,

ELIZABETH G. HEEFNER

ASSISTANT TREASURER

The Winston-Salem Junior League held eight meetings in the year 1948-1949. The attendance at these meetings was as follows: April 109; May 82; June 81; October 113; November 117; January 88; February 106; March 102.

The bills for dues and fines were sent out on the first of April. All dues have been paid in full.

ADMISSIONS

The Admissions Committee had three articles in the News-sheet, two concerning By-Laws changes, one reminding members to hand in application blanks for new members prior to the deadline. One question and answer panel about Admission rules and policies was presented at a League meeting.

The Committee held 11 closed meetings, two open meetings and one joint meeting with the By-Laws Committee.

The following By-Laws changes were voted on in June and November after being presented to the League. These changes are duly recorded under Admissions Committee By-Laws. They include change of dates for election of Admissions Committee, appointment of Chairman, and a new deadline for Admissions blanks to be in. They also include a change of time for the election of new members. A new method of election of the Admissions Committee has been voted in order to make the committee a more balanced group.

Sixteen names were presented by the Admissions Committee to the Board of Directors, and all were elected. The 1948-49 Provisional members are as follows: Mrs. Stokes Burtis, Jr. (Jane Reninger), Mary Ann Cromer, Christine Gray, Martha Hanes, Mrs. William Hobbs (Jane Farr), Mrs. James K. McLean. (Sara Elliott), Jessie Moir McNair, Sue Moore, June Montague, Betty Myers, Mrs. J. Hewes Parrish (Emmy Lou Hart), Martha Ann Pool, Mrs. Robert Sartin, Jr. (Deborah Darr), Mrs. Louis Shaffner (Jane Ayars), Lula Hall Vance, Mrs. Charles B. Wade (Margaret Patterson).

BY-LAWS

Several changes were made in the By-Laws during the past year.

At the suggestion of the Admissions Committee, with whom joint meetings and lengthy discussions were held, it was decided to change the time of admitting Provisional members from October to February. The composition and election of the Admissions Committee was more clearly defined in order to assure representation of the whole League on this important committee.

At the request of the Treasurer, the payment of fines was changed from a yearly to a monthly basis.

An interpretation was secured from AJLA on the exact time when members become sustaining. The most common practice among Leagues seems to be that if a member reaches forty during the first half of the fiscal year, she is considered sustaining the whole year. If her birthday falls during the latter part of the fiscal year, she is considered active during the entire year.

Respectfully submitted,
ELIZABETH N. WHITAKER

CHILDREN'S THEATRE

"Peter Pan," a major production in five acts, was given by the Children's Theatre Group as one of the Children's Theatre Board series. There were two performances, one on February 10th, the other February 11th, at Reynolds Auditorium. These were attended by Elementary City School Children and pre-school children with a parent or adult. There were 3,035 tickets sold.

There were $7\frac{2}{3}$ Junior League members engaged in this undertaking, and the entire production was handled by these volunteers, except for some carpentry work and some technical help backstage during two rehearsals and the actual performances.

The Children's Theatre group also sponsored a Drama Workshop in January for the purpose of stimulating fresh interest in the League and community in Theatre Art. Mr. Harry Davis, Mrs. Lynn Gault and Mrs. Harry Davis led discussions for a four-night series. All three speakers are members of the staff of the University of North Carolina Playmakers, and the Workshop was well received by the audience. There were an average of 50 people at each meeting.

CULTURAL ARTS

Of greatest immediate interest to the committee this year and to the entire League was the moving of the Arts and Crafts Workshop to its new quarters at 707 Main Street. At this time many League volunteers were used doing odd jobs in painting woodwork, sanding floors, and general and necessary "dirty" work. Mrs. Marsh was delighted with the new facilities which were leased for one year with the understanding that the lease would be renewed yearly. The Association board has met monthly in the new headquarters and has carried out all business very thoroughly and capably.

The second yearly drive for membership was held in February and was considered very successful. The Association now has over 1,400 members. Mrs. Archibald Craige was Drive Chairman for the League and about 90% of League membership contributed to Arts and Crafts. It is of great interest that towns from all over the state are coming to our workshop for advice and instruction in classes, to enable them to open up workshops modeled after the one here. Reidsville, High Point, Mt. Airy and Greensboro have all started their own and our director was invited to spend one week this spring in Mt. Airy to help with the opening of theirs.

At the Workshop there are monthly exhibits by creative artists. It was the hope of the Cultural Arts Committee to bring an outstanding exhibit here last fall. Mrs. Fred Sturmer who was chairman of the committee from October through December investigated several possibilities. It is hoped that during the coming year we may be able to find and afford such, as the committee feels that seeing outstanding exhibits by good modern painters is a privilege not often enough experienced here.

It is the feeling of the committee that many fine things have been accomplished this past year, many of them intangible things. There seems to be a growing interest from League members and a good number have found a place for themselves teaching a craft or helping with one or at least taking advantage of the instruction there for their own benefit, which of course is a step in the right direction.

From the community at large there were 2,000 people to use the Workshop during the one month of February. Every League member should feel very proud that she had a part in paving the way and should feel a growing responsibility to do her part to further a cause that is so obviously proving itself in our community.

KATHERINE BAHNSON

EDUCATION

The Education Committee again planned the League programs around the theme "Facing Our Current Responsibilities" and tried to keep in mind the varied interests and activities of the League members.

The endeavor of the committee was to stimulate interest in phases of League and community work in order to give additional meaning to volunteer service.

During the year, the following programs were presented:

May—Mrs. Stuart Bondurant, Miss Lois Johnson.....Education

June—Mrs. Albert Butler, Jr., Mrs. E. S. Heefner, Jr.

Conference Reports

October—Placement Committee....."Alice in Leagueland"

November—Miss Lillian Hamilton.....Contemporary Painting

January—Mrs. C. O. DeLaney.....What Happens to T.B. Seal
Sale Dollars?

February—Legislative Committee.....The Governors Commission Reports on Education in North Carolina

March—Miss Diana Dyer.....The League Looks At Itself

April.....Forsyth County Celebrates Its 100th Birthday

Several of the programs were presented by League Committees and the Education Committee wishes to thank them for their very able presentations.

In addition to planning the regular monthly programs, the Education Committee undertook the investigation of a request that the League send representatives to two boards. It undertook the investigation at the request of the Junior League Board. The Committee on Solicitations and the Forsyth County Chapter of the National Infantile Paralysis Foundation each asked that the League send a representative to their boards. The two organizations were investigated and the committee recommended that a representative be sent to the Committee on Solicitations but that none be sent to the Forsyth County Chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis.

FASHION SHOW

The Junior League was asked to furnish models for one fashion show during the past year. This was quite different from the previous year, when numerous shows were held by the leading stores.

Due to the small amount of activity of the Committee, the Board decided to dispense with the Fashion Show Committee.

Respectfully submitted,

LOUISE B. BAHNSON

HOSPITALITY

Despite rising costs and rising attendance, the Hospitality Committee managed to scrape by with no increase in the budget. Our expenses were approximately $200.00.

First off, in October the Board entertained the Sustaining members and the Provisionals for coffee at the Forsyth Country Club. There were 123 reservations made, and the same number served.

In December, the annual Christmas party, by way of variety, moved on to the Old Town Club with 175 present. Each member brought a Teen-Age present for the Christmas Toy Shop. No one went hungry, to the committee's knowledge, at either party and quite a few volunteered to make complimentary remarks and the committee felt it had done not too bad a job.

In March, a Thank You party was given to show proper gratitude to the press, photographers, et cetera. The results were excellent.

Calls were made on Transfers during the year.

The chairman wishes to express her appreciation of the help and co-operation given by the members of the committee, without which the program would have been impossible.

Respectfully submitted,

MAE O. MANN

LEGISLATIVE

The six N. C. Junior Leagues' Legislative Committee Chairmen and a member of each of their committees met in Raleigh twice this year to draw up policies outlining the work and methods of procedure for these committees. These policies make it possible for a League to back State legislation either with the help of other N. C. Leagues or singly unless action is deemed detrimental to the Junior League, in which case a League may veto which precludes any action by any State League on the issue in question.

The main field of interest and study this year has been in educational measures on a local level with our Forsyth County School Supplement Tax, bringing the League attention to it through an article in the Newssheet and announcement at the general meeting; and on a State level with the N. C. Education Commission Report and its subsequent legislation. There were several articles in the Newssheet concerning this and the Legislative Committee joined the 40 civic clubs in Winston-Salem in sponsoring an Open Forum led by four members of the Commission. The committee also presented a panel discussion to the League on the report with Mr. Ralph Brimley, Superintendent of Forsyth County Public Schools, summarizing it and answering pertinent questions.

We have found that it is possible and, on questions in which the League is interested, advisable to back State legislation as a League and certainly as an individual. In the coming year the Legislative Committee should make us all more conscious of our local Health, Welfare and Education Departments and of their needs so that we will have a thorough background on which to rely when legislative proposals are made in those fields in the future.

MAGAZINE

The National Magazine is published monthly with the exception of the three Summer months, July, August and September. Mrs. James Dawson continues as its editor.

To the Tidings Division of the Magazine, announcements of births, engagements, marriages and deaths have been sent monthly. All material has been acknowledged.

Three items have appeared during the year about Winston-Salem. In the October issue a picture taken from the production, "The Magic Horn," was published. An article entitled, "Story-time Takes a Curtain Call," appeared in the March issue. Also in March a recipe from a local member was printed.

Other material has been submitted during the year. In the fall a picture of the 25th anniversary meeting of the Winston-Salem League was sent. In December six menus were mailed to the Menage Department. A picture of Margaret Vardell and Mildred Cayer doing a broadcast was sent in January. In March an article on the Drama Workshop was submitted.

A complete file of all correspondence and magazines for the year has been kept.

NEWSHEET

Nine issues of The Newssheet were prepared and printed in the year 1948-49. Eight were published by the regular staff, and one—the April issue—was published by the year's Provisionals as a part of their training course.

Regular monthly meetings of the staff were held, at which time policies and stories for the following Newssheet were discussed and staff members received their assignments.

With the October issue, The Newssheet changed its "face" to keep in line with the "new look." A new feature was introduced with that issue also—"Party Line"—which has been most successful in telescoping topics of conversation among League members. It has also been used to highlight various happenings within the League, as well as in the community, and bring them to the special attention of the membership.

The Newssheet has continued throughout the year to cover League committee activity, League programs, and community programs and problems of interest to the members. Publicity has been given to various drives of community-wide interest.

Each issue has carried an editorial dealing with League problems as they came up, and one editorial, originating with The Newssheet committee led to a general discussion in the League. In the March issue, "Letters to the Editor" appeared for the first time.

An exchange of newssheets was continued with the other North Carolina Leagues and with approximately ten other Leagues throughout the Association.

NOMINATING

The Nominating Committee began its concentrated work in January of 1949. The Committee presented the slate of officers at the February League meeting, the slate for conference delegates at the March meeting, and the slate for the Admissions Committee at the April meeting. Those eligible for the Nominating Committee were also voted on at the April meeting.

The Committee feels that the Straw Ballot was most helpful this year in the selection of the top officers of the League. However, this was not the only benefit of the Straw Ballot, as it served to point up the names of members whom the membership at large feels are worthy of positions of leadership.

I would like to express my thanks to a splendid and most co-operative committee.

Respectfully submitted,

PLACEMENT

In March 1948 the Placement Chairman and the sustaining member of the committee, Mrs. Lois de Hart of the Volunteer Service Bureau, visited all of the community agencies who use volunteers. After listing available job opportunities in the community and in the League, the Placement Chairman interviewed all active members in March and all Provisionals and Transfers in October. Since the main function of the Placement Committee is to offer members a free choice of available placements in the community service program, each member was urged to distribute her volunteer time to include some type of community work. Also, during interviews the chairman followed the plan of the Executive Officers whereby every member was placed on a League committee in order to directly acquaint everybody with at least one League activity.

Based upon suggestions made at the AJLA conference in May, the Placement Committee was reorganized in September to include an assistant chairman (Mrs. Bahnson Gray) and ten other members, some of whom directly represented groups of volunteers working in different fields such as Thrift Shop (Mrs. John Ogburn), Arts and Crafts Workshop (Mrs. Reid Holmes), Radio (Mrs. Clifton Pleasants), Community Service (Mrs. Sam Orr), etc. This committee worked very well together for the remainder of the year.

At the October meeting the Placement Committee presented a skit called "Alice in Leagueland," which illustrated different types of volunteer opportunities. Placement policies and objectives for the coming year were explained by the chairman.

In order to be sure that members were satisfied with their placements and to keep the card files up to date, the committee made a complete placement survey in October and November. Many members had done volunteer work that they had not reported, and the survey showed great variation in the distribution of volunteer work among the members as a whole.

Throughout the year the Placement Committee was aware of the increasing problems connected with "free placement," advocated by AJLA for the past few years. The committee felt that standards for volunteer service should be more definite so that every member will know how much community and League work she is expected to do within a year.

In February at small coffees, members of the League discussed placement problems in detail. Three main suggestions were forthcoming—that every member not be required to serve on a League committee; that the Placement Committee set up some form of job evaluation system; that throughout the year every member take the initiative and make it her responsibility to inform the Placement Committee of any and all facts that would effect the status of her volunteer work. The first suggestion has been carried out in forming League committees for the coming year. As soon as possible the Placement Committee plans to act in accordance with the second suggestion. The success of the third suggestion depends upon the co-operation of the entire membership.

From March 1948 to March 1949 League members worked on boards, on committees, or in regular placement jobs with approximately 33 community agencies and organizations such as Y. W. C. A., Girl Scouts, T. B. Hospital, Red Cross, Family and Child Service Agency, Divisions of the Community Council, Radio Council, Little Theatre, Children's Theatre, Operetta Association, Civic Music Association, Piedmont Festival, Arts and Crafts Association, Hospital Commission, Baptist Hospital (O. B. Clinic and Bookmobile), Cancer Clinic, P.-T. A.'s, etc. In addition, many members were active in various kinds of church work and a large number assisted in community drives.

In League activities and projects the largest number of volunteers, 73, worked on the Children's Theatre play; at some time during the year 63 worked at the Thrift Shop; 39 Active and several Sustaining members worked at Arts and Crafts Workshop; 38 worked in the field of Radio.

This year the majority of League members have contributed freely of their time and talents to League projects and activities. And they have made great contributions to the community through their volunteer service in numerous fields.

With new placement standards in view for the coming year and with better education in regard to the purpose and functions of the placement system, the entire membership will perhaps develop the serious and enthusiastic attitude which many members have shown toward their volunteer work during the past year.

BETTY B. BUTLER

PUBLIC RELATIONS

There were 89 news articles about the Junior League and its activities carried in The Journal and Sentinel during the past year. Of these two were on the front page, 20 were illustrated with pictures and there were nine editorials, six of them on the Provisional lectures.

There were two full-page feature articles in the Sunday paper, one on the Arts and Crafts Workshop and the other on the work of all the Junior Leagues in North Carolina.

Other articles on Children's Theatre, Radio, Provisional, League meetings and conferences are all filed in the Publicity Year Scrapbook for a permanent record.

All year the staffs of both newspapers have been co-operative, helpful and pleasant to work with in interpreting to the community all phases of the League's program. Several have taken considerable time and effort in writing articles and better community understanding and interest has been the result. At intervals throughout the year those who were responsible for an exceptionally good reporting job or a fine article were called and thanked.

This year the Public Relations Committee of this League was requested to handle the publicity for the Regional meeting held in Pinehurst. This included advance publicity on the meeting, publicity during and after the meeting not only for our own League but for all 19 Leagues in the Region. All the members of the committee as well as other members of the League helped with this big job.

In March of this year a small "thank you" party was given for the people in the community who have contributed considerable time, effort or talent in carrying out the activities of the Junior League. Chairmen of the various committees using outside help made up the list of persons invited.

RADIO

April 1948 found the League's Radio Project with no professional help except a share in Mrs. Shonts; a bank balance of $500, and numerous requests for children's radio programs from the three local radio stations. Radio adaptations of children's classics were already under way to make up "Book of the Week" Series II and transcriptions of "Books Bring Adventure" Series IV were on hand to be auditioned for the preparation of teachers' manuals. Mildred Cayer's "Storytime" had been on the air for two months weekly as in-school broadcasts to primary grade children and was receiving such wide acclaim from the listening audience that the possibility of transcribing a series to be offered for sale to other cities was being discussed.

After a thorough investigation of legal, technical and financial details, the Radio Chairman presented the facts and figures to the Ways and Means Committee, the Board, and the League, with the result that $1,200 was made available to the Children's Programming Committee of the Radio Council for the production and sale of 50 sets of 13 transcriptions of "Storytime." The contract states that the $1,200 will be returned to the League when it is realized and that all profits shall be used for the support of the Children's Programming Committee of the Radio Council. Final arrangements for production were made by a committee composed of Miss Grace Brunson, Mrs. Lacy Butler, Mrs. Bruce Williams, Mrs. Ben Trotter, and the Radio Chairman. The Junior League Radio Committee agreed to handle the sale of the transcriptions through League channels.

Margaret Vardell wrote original music and played the musical accompaniment for the series. Both Mildred and Margaret gave unstintingly of their time and talents and heaped glory on themselves and us when AJLA approval finally came on November 9th. The December 1st Bulletin from AJLA sent to all chairmen in the field of cultural arts announced that "Storytime" had been placed on the Association's list of recommended transcribed shows.

Meanwhile, due to the excellent promotion job done by our delegates at the French Lick Conference, inquiries were received from 28 Leagues and eight other organizations. Eight sets have been sold and delivered and there are indications that others will be placed in the near future.

"Book of the Week" Series II was presented as a leisure time broadcast over WAIR Monday through Friday for 13 weeks during the summer. Adaptations were by League and Radio Council volunteers, narration was by a Radio Council volunteer and the program was sponsored by the Library and Radio Council.

Also during the summer, plans were made for a new series of "Musical Notes" by Mrs. Ben Trotter and Mrs. Winfield Blackwell. At the suggestion of the city school music supervisor, the subject of the 13 programs was to be American Folk Music. League and Radio Council volunteers, working in groups of two, wrote both scripts and correlation, thus creating the first original series of programs done by a group of girls since the League began Radio work. Recorded music for "Musical Notes" was provided through the courtesy of Bocock-Stroud.

This year, for the first time, "Books Bring Adventure" correlations were completed far enough in advance of the first broadcast so that they were delivered in booklet form to teachers of Elementary grades in the city and county schools. Again League and Council volunteers worked together to complete this large order. "Books Bring Adventure" for grades four, five, six and seven was heard over WSJS weekly from October 9th through January 20th, with the exception of Christmas week.

January 27th was a red letter day in radio for children, for on that date "Storytime" for pre-school and primary grades returned to the air over WSJS by means of the famous transcriptions; and "Musical Notes" Series II for grades four, five, six and seven was inaugurated on WTOB with Dr. Charles Vardell as narrator. Correlations for both of these programs were also delivered in booklet form to the teachers. On March 10th, Mildred Cayer, in person, accompanied by Isabel Shaffer of the WSJS staff, replaced the transcribed "Storytime" as the remaining eight stories in the series had been aired last year. With this set-up, the new "Storytime" series is scheduled to continue through May.

Promotion for all in-school programs was carried on by means of weekly newspaper articles, library posters, announcements to P.-T. A. groups and meetings of student promotion managers, many of whom have organized radio clubs in their individual schools.

A radio course for Junior League Provisionals, planned to give a complete picture of the League's participation in the field of radio was given in January. The four classes were limited to two hours each and radio acting, spot writing, voice criticism and script and correlation writing were dealt with.

Forty League girls have worked with the Children's Programming Committee to make this year an important one in the field of educational radio in our city and county. Excellent co-operation has been given by the three radio stations, the Radio Council, city and county school personnel, newspapers, library and interested citizens. Thus the accomplishments of the year, plus the increasing interest of the volunteers and the community, seem to indicate that the League's decision to continue financial support of the Children's Programming Committee was a wise one.

Respectfully submitted,

RUTH M. PLEASANTS

PROVISIONAL

A complete outline and schedule of the year's Provisional Course was planned by the committee in July and August. Beginning October 19 and continuing through November 11, the lecture series "Winston-Salem's Pattern of Progress" was given to the Provisionals, the members of the sociology class at Salem College, students from Reynolds, Gray and Hanes High Schools and representatives from approximately 50 civic groups in Winston-Salem. Mr. George Chandler served as moderator for the eight lectures and the speakers consisted of business and professional men and women who were outstanding in their fields.

The Provisionals were given a review of the history of AJLA and the Winston-Salem League by Mrs. Linville Martin and Mrs. Irving Carlyle.

In addition the Provisionals made nine field trips in connection with the lecture series; worked at the Christmas Toy Bureau for one day; were given an eight-hour radio course in January; attended a technical institute on theatre production and worked with the Junior League production of Peter Pan in January and February; edited the April issue of The Newssheet; participated in community drives; and for the remaining six months of their provisional year will become qualified instructors at the Arts and Crafts Workshop and will work for two months at the Thrift Shop.

THRIFT SHOP

The Thrift Shop was confronted with several problems this year. In May 1948, the question of a change in the management of the Shop was brought to the Thrift Shop Committee, and after much discussion by the Committee and the Board, it was decided that a complete change was needed. Effective June 1st, Mrs. A. C. Perry and Mrs. C. H. Bernard resigned, terminating their relationship with the Thrift Shop. The suggestion was received that we have a League member as manager of the Shop, and Mrs. J. P. Jarvis was hired on a temporary basis until we could find a member who wanted the job. After a period of time with no response to this request, it was voted unanimously to hire Mrs. Jarvis on a permanent basis as manager, and the Treasurer of the Thrift Shop Committee took over the responsibility of all bookkeeping records and Commission records. Mrs. Claude Brown was employed for work on Saturdays, since there were no volunteers available for that day. This set-up has proven very satisfactory during the year. Mrs. Jarvis was given a two-months leave of absence due to illness, and Mrs. Brown was employed full-time during this period.

From the group discussions held in February, the Thrift Shop's other problem—volunteers—was presented and discussed, with the majority in favor of keeping the Thrift Shop as the money-making project, but on a compulsory volunteer basis. I strongly feel that to keep the Thrift Shop open as an efficient business, some system must be worked out to the satisfaction of the League, so that each member contribute some volunteer time as well as quota merchandise to the only money-making project.

The Thrift Shop's dependency on volunteers was presented in the skit, "Alice in Leagueland," given by the Placement Committee at the October meeting. Through reports at the monthly meetings and through Newssheet articles, the activities of the Thrift Shop have been presented to the League.

During the year, merchandise has been given to the Goodwill Industries and a donation of clothing made for the Greek Overseas Relief Service.

Sales have been held at the end of each season in order to dispose of all merchandise remaining, since storage space at the Shop is limited. The change of styles affected the sales of the Shop to a very large extent, which was also found to be the case in other Thrift Shops throughout the country.

The sales for 1948-1949 amounted to $10,511.39. The operating expenses totaled $8,196.44, showing a net profit of $2,314.95, with no outstanding debts. We have fulfilled our quota to the League of $2,500, and in accordance with AJLA have a balance of $1,426.37 to cover three months running expenses. In addition to our quota to the League, we gave a surplus of $1,200 for the field of Radio.

Not knowing what conditions might be during the coming year, the Thrift Shop quota to the League was reduced to $1,500 in the new budget set up for 1949-1950. I believe the Thrift Shop has survived through a definite crisis this year, and may the year ahead be one of success for the Thrift Shop.

I would like to thank each member of my committee, Mrs. Jarvis, Mrs. Brown, and the volunteers for their loyalty and co-operation throughout the year.

Respectfully submitted,
ALICE GOODSON

WAYS AND MEANS

The duties of the Ways and Means Committee are to supervise and plan for the financing of the League's administrative and community programs and to make recommendations to the Board in that regard.

In May, 1948, the Children's Programming Committee of the Radio Council made a request for financial aid in order that the program, Storytime, might be transcribed and sold. After serious consideration the Committee recommended to the Board that $1,200.00 be given to the Children's Programming Committee for this purpose. The money was taken from a surplus in the Thrift Shop account and Mr. Luther Ferrell drew up an agreement whereby the money would be returned to the Junior League treasury if the project proved a success.

The sum of $500.00 which the League had budgeted for the Radio Council was turned over at this same time, to Mrs. Clivie Donovan, the Council's new treasurer, to be administered by her. Therefore, the League no longer handles the finances of the Children's Programming Committee of the Radio Council.

The request of the Provisional Chairman, Mrs. Tom Follin, that a gift be given to the Moderator of the Provisional Course was granted; and in December a gift was purchased for Mr.

George Chandler. It is strongly recommended by the Ways and Means Committee that a sum of $50.00 be set up in the 1950-51 budget to be used expressly for this purpose.

In the past year, $50.00 was realized from furnishing models for one fashion show and $100.00 was paid to Mr. Harry Davis of Chapel Hill for conducting the Theatre Workshop.

All dues and fines were collected except in one instance and the Board voted to make an exception in this case.

The Junior League Thrift Shop paid to the League its budgeted sum of $2,500.00 and the new budget for 1949-50 was drawn up and approved.

Respectfully submitted,
MARGUERITE W. GORRELL.

(9) A requirement that the Board of each League shall present to the membership all proposed major program activities for ratification.

POLICY B

(1) The course for provisional members of all Leagues shall include all topics covered in the Association's basic provisional course. Each League shall send to the Association annually, for evaluation and criticism, an outline of its Provisional course as soon as reasonably possible after the completion thereof.

(2) The Placement Committee of each League shall keep as nearly as possible uniform records concerning the activities of the members under its supervision.

(3) No individual League shall associate itself with or endorse any welfare or other similar project, program or activity which does not meet accepted standards in its field.

(4) All money-raising, on the part of individual Leagues, shall be consistent with standards of dignity and good taste and in keeping with the laws and customs of the community.

(5) Each League shall send to the Association annually a copy of its audited annual statement.

D. Leagues shall not allow their members to use the Junior League name commercially for personal benefit.

E. League members delinquent in paying indebtedness to the A.J.L.A. shall be considered under the rules governing members in arrears in their local dues.

A Junior League may only take the same action on a national issue as (a) action taken by the Association pursuant to Association Policy II; and (b) action taken by a national organization of which a League's project is a member, with respect to such a project. H. Junior League members shall refrain from the practice of using their membership in the League in endorsements for charitable purposes.

I. No Junior League nor Junior League member shall give out Association publicity over the radio or in print without consulting the Association. Because of the effect on Junior League publicity in general, no Junior League nor member representing the Junior League shall broadcast mentioning the Junior League, on a national or area hook-up or a program to be recorded for transmission beyond the community area, without consulting the Association.

J. Any use of the Junior League name in connection with publicity shall include the complete name of the League, and not merely the words "Junior League."

K. Junior Leagues shall not endorse commercial products or concerns.

L. Leagues shall encourage their members to educate themselves in all legislative, political, governmental, and controversial movements which affect the life of their communities and their countries and they should endeavor to stimulate their members to exercise their citizenship intelligently.

M. Because it is important that interpretation of Association program and policy be accurate, persons speaking on those subjects at League meetings, Provisional meetings, or to other groups, should use current material made available by the A.J.L.A. The regional directors and the members of the staff have access to factual data on all Leagues. Therefore, clearance with them is always advisable when Leagues exchange information on major questions of Association policy and League program.

A member desiring to transfer notifies the Recording Secretary of her League who ascertains from the A.J.L.A. Dues for Transferring Members Association Dues—A transferring member is liable for Association dues only once during the Association's fiscal year, April 1st to April 1st.

League Dues—After her transfer has been accepted, a transferring member is liable for dues to the League to which she transfers when they next become payable, but the amount of Association dues should be deducted if the member has paid dues to the League from which she has transferred within the Association's fiscal year. Those whose transfers have not been accepted by October 1st are liable for dues in their home Leagues.

*Good standing means that the member must have successfully met the work requirements of the League and must have paid all installments of her dues in full for the fiscal year in which her application transfer is made.

Procedure for Leagues from which Transfer is Made

The Corresponding Secretary and Treasurer are responsible for filling in the information regarding the member's record called for by the transfer card supplied by the Association. Complete information is urgently requested.

This statement is submitted to the Board of the League which passes a resolution by a two-thirds vote that the transferring member is in good standing. The transfer card in toto is then forwarded to the secretary of the new League. Until the record of acceptance is received from the new League the member's name is retained on the membership list.

When a member has paid her dues since April 1st and her transfer is accepted by the League before October 1st, the treasurer of her first League forwards the amount of the Association dues to the new League.

Procedure for League to which Transfer is Made

The Board of Directors or executive committee of any League shall accept a transfer unless the member has no right to transfer under the provision of the Association By-Laws, Article XI, Section 3, a and b.

Transfers are accepted in order of application except that applications of members under forty may have precedence over sustaining members.

Transfers are effective upon acceptance by the Board of Directors or executive committee of the League to which transfer is being made. Within fifteen days of the date of acceptance, the secretary of the League shall notify (1) the members, (2) the treasurer's office at Association headquarters and (3) the member's former League, using the transfer cards supplied by the Association.

Transferring Members

A member awaiting acceptance of her transfer remains a member of the League from which she is transferring.

A transferred member must conform to the regulations of the League in which she is enrolled.

All members who have transferred to a League from which membership in the Association is subsequently withdrawn shall have the privilege of returning to non-resident membership in their former Leagues.

guests are entitled to the special rate of $3 daily, extended by the hotel. They should register at the Junior League office. Nurses for children may be secured through the hotel. The usual charge is $1.00 an hour. Guests are requested to state the time they would like the nurse to arrive and about how long she will be required.

Cars may be stored at a nearby garage for $2.00 per night.

Reservations

In writing for information or to make a reservation, always address Guest Room Hostess, Association of the Junior Leagues of America, The Waldorf-Astoria, New York 22, N. Y.

Reservations should be made as far in advance as possible and cancellations should be wired immediately. This not only protects the Association against financial loss, but prevents turning away other members. Reservations received by wire are answered by Western Union collect. Requests should include name of League to which member belongs.

It is possible to assign the best accommodations only if the exact date of arrival and the maximum length of stay are known in advance. It is often impossible to retain rooms longer than the time specified in the reservation because they are usually reserved for the very day they are to be vacated.

Registration

8:00 A.M. to 10:00 P.M.: Take the West elevators direct to the Junior League office on the 19th floor to register.

10:00 P.M. to 8:00 A.M.: Register at the front desk of the hotel.

Length of Stay

Because of the great demand for accommodations, it has become necessary to limit the length of stay to one month for members, and two weeks for guests, who are put up by members.

Eligible Guests

Friends and relatives of members may be put up for a period not exceeding two weeks and may stay for a month if accompanied by members. Written authorization from a League member is required for putting up guests. Members may put up members of their immediate family without restriction as to numbers (husbands, children, parents, brothers and sisters). They may have five additional guest cards per year. Members should write to headquarters for the necessary form to be filled out for non-members who cannot be accepted until this form is received. (No form is necessary for members or non-members who accompany members.) When bringing guests, it is well to send their names in advance to insure the holding of messages and communications received at the hotel previous to arrival. Members are responsible for all unpaid bills of guests introduced by them.

Meals
