BENNETT COLLEGE PUBLICITY

Bennett Prof
To Attend A Convention

GREENSBORO—Dr. Chauncey C. [illegible] of the department of [illegible] at Bennett College will represent the college and the Greensboro [illegible] at the 23rd annual convention of the Association of Teachers of Speech. The convention will be held in Dallas, Texas, December 26-28. Dr. [illegible] will also attend the annual Conference of Church-related Colleges in the South which will meet in Dallas on December [illegible]

Sept. 1956 –
May 1959

Students and faculty of the School of Missions and Christian Service, conducted by the Woman's Division of Christian Service of the North Carolina Conference, at Bennett College recently, pose for the photographer. Miss Fannie McCallum, Greensboro, was dean, succeeding Miss Isabel R. Jones.

CENTRAL CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE

Greenville Girl Appointed to Bennett Staff

GREENSBORO, N. C.—Eleven persons have been added to the faculty and staff of Bennett College for the 1957-1958 school year, and four will return from leaves of absence, President Willa B. Player announced this week.

New members of the faculty and their areas of instruction are:

Miss B. LaConyea Butler, of Greenville, S. C., a graduate of Spelman College, Atlanta, Ga. with an M. A. from Boston University, psychology;

Miss Barbara Hunt of Columbus, Miss., a Bennett College graduate, with the M. S. in Library Science from Syracuse University, library science;

Philadelphia, a graduate of Howard University, with an M. A. from Temple University, drama and speech;

Miss Joyce C. Johnson, of Norfolk, Va., a graduate of Virginia State College, with an M. S. from the same institution, physical education (sports);

Miss Georgie Blanche Latimer, of Abbeville, S. C., a graduate of Fisk University with an M. A. from Atlanta University, English;

Mrs. Gertrude K. Pryor, of Kansas City, Mo., a graduate of Lincoln (Mo. University, with a M. Ed. degree from Miami University, Oxford, Ohio, business education;

Mrs. Dolly Jones Turner, of Oklahoma City, Okla., a graduate of West Virginia State College, with a M. Ed degree from the University of Oklahoma, physical education (dance); and Willie Leon Young, of Bogalusa, La., a graduate of St. Augustine's College, with the M. S. degree from Atlanta University, biology.

Returning from a leave of absence during which he pursued work toward his doctorate at New York University, will be Francis L. Grandison, psychology, and chairman of psychological services. Mrs. Anna A. Simkins, of Greensboro, who has taught at Bennett before, will return as a part-time instructor in home economics. Mrs. Simkins holds the M. S. degree from Pennsylvania State University.

New members of the administrative staff will be:

Mrs. Mary Herbin Knox, of Landis, N. C., a 1952 graduate of Bennett; and Miss Margarie B. Mays, of Greensboro, a 1957 graduate. Mrs. Rosa F. Hooker, a 1953 graduate of the college, a former employee, returns to the administrative staff as do Mrs. Ellease Browning and Mrs. Christine Bizzell, both of whom were on leave last year.

New residence director of Merner Hall will be Evelyn Henderson, who served last year as relief director. New relief director will be Miss Madie J. Skeens, who last year managed the college book store, snack bar and post office.

8 Bennett grads off to graduate school

GREENSBORO, N.C. — At least eight members of the 1957 graduating class at Bennett College will be attending graduate school in the fall, according to reports received in the alumni office this summer.

In addition to Miss Carolyn Ingram, of Durham, who will attend the University of North Carolina, the following young women will also pursue graduate degrees:

Misses Marion Moore, of Topeka, Kansas, at the University of Kansas; Miss Vera Kernodle, of Elon College, N.C.; Edythe Fulton, of Morristown, Tenn., at St. Joseph College, West Hartford, Conn.; Precious Aldrich, of McBee, S.C.; Barbara W. Rice, of Baltimore, Md., studying medical technology at Mercy Hospital, Baltimore;

* * *

MISS PHYLLIS HENRY, of Odessa, Del., at the Boston University School of Theology; Miss Julia McClain, of Grady, Ala., at the Hartford (Conn.) Theological Seminary, and Miss Paula M. Edmunds, of Cincinnati, Ohio.

Other members of the class who have reported accepting teaching posts for the fall are:

Misses Pauline Dixon, of Burlington, N.C., in Burlington; Shirley J. Hudson of Greensboro, in Portsmouth, Va.; Jean Lewis and Doris Young, both of Morganton, in Asheville; Jacqueline McAlister, of Kingstree, S.C., in Spartanburg;

* * *

THELMA SIMPSON, of Greensboro, in Laurinburg; Flora Mae Smith, of Clarksburg, W. Va., in Lynchburg, Va.; Peggie Smith, of Greensboro, in Acme, N.C.; Minnie Yarborough, of Kittrell, N.C., in Jacksonville, N.C.; Thelma Culbreth, of New York City, in New York State;

Berneatha Fennell, of Burgaw, in Kenansville, N.C.; Mrs. Dorothy H. Williams, of Greensboro, in Greensboro; Jean Renwick, of Statesville, in Statesville; Alice Badgett of Pelham, N.C., in Portsmouth, Va.; Betty Higgins, of Greensboro, in Covington, Ga., and Carolyn Crawford, of Morristown, Tenn., in Edenton, N.C.

Miss Queen E. Farrish, of Roxboro, will be a home demonstration agent in North Carolina and Miss Helen Green, of New York City, will work in the New York Public Library

Bennett College Adds Eleven To Faculty

Greensboro, N. C. — Eleven persons have been added to the faculty and staff of Bennett College for the 1957-1958 school year, and four will return from leaves of absence, President Willa B. Player announced this week.

New members of the faculty and their areas of instruction are:

Miss B. LaConyea Butler, of Greenville, S. C., a graduate of Spelman College, Atlanta, Ga., with an M.A. from Boston University, psychology;

Miss Barbara Hunt, of Columbus, Miss., a Bennett College graduate, with the M.S. in Library Science from Syracuse University, library science;

Miss Ann Elise Jenkins, of Philadelphia, a graduate of Howard University, with an M. A. from Temple University, drama and speech;

Miss Joyce C. Johnson, of Norfolk, Va., a graduate of Virginia State College, with an M. S. from the same institution, physical education (sports);

Miss Georgie Blanche Latimer, of Abbeville, S. C., a graduate of Fisk University, with a M.A. degree from Atlanta University, English;

Mrs. Gertrude K. Pryor, of Kansas City, Mo., a graduate of Lincoln (Mo.) University, with a M. Ed. degree from Miami University, Oxford, Ohio, business education;

Mrs. Dolly Jones Turner, of Oklahoma City, Okla., a graduate of West Virginia State College, with a M. Ed. degree from the University of Oklahoma, physical education (dance); and Willie Leon Young, of Bogalusa, La., a graduate of St. Augustine's College, with the M.S. degree from Atlanta University, biology.

Returning from a leave of absence during which he pursued work toward his doctorate at New York University, will be Francis L. Grandison, psychology, and chairman of psychological services. Mrs. Anna A. Simkins, of Greensboro, who has taught at Bennett College before, will return as a part-time instructor in home economics. Mrs. Simkins holds the M.S. degree from Pennsylvania State University.

New members of the administrative staff will be:

Mrs. Mary Herbin Knox, of Landis, N. C., a 1952 graduate of Bennett; and Miss Margarie B. Mays, of Greensboro, a 1957 graduate. Mrs. Rosa F. Hooker, a 1953 graduate of the college, a former employee, returns to the administrative staff as do Mrs. Ellease Browning and Mrs. Christine Bizzell, both of whom were on leave last year.

New residence director of Merner Hall will be Miss Evelyn Henderson, who served last year as relief director. New relief director will be Miss Madie J. Skeens, who last year managed the college book store, snack bar and post office.

Faculty Is Complete

Eleven persons have been added to the faculty and staff of Bennett College for the 1957-1958 school year, and four will return from leaves of absence, President Willa B. Player announced this week.

New members of the faculty and their areas of instruction are:

Miss B. LaConyea Butler, of Greenville, S. C., a graduate of Spelman College, Atlanta, Ga., with an M. A. from Boston University, psychology;

Miss Barbara Hunt, of Columbus, Miss., a Bennett College graduate, with the M. S. in Library Science from Syracuse University, library science;

Miss Ann Elise Jenkins, of Philadelphia, a graduate of Howard University, with an M. A. from Temple University, drama and speech;

Miss Joyce C. Johnson, of Norfol, Va., a graduate of Virginia State College with an M. S. from the same institution, physical education (sports);

Miss Georgie Blanche Latimer, of Abbeville, S. C., a graduate of Fisk University with an M. A. from Atlanta University, English;

Mrs. Gertrude K. Pryor, of Kansas City, Mo., a graduate of Lincoln University, with a M. Ed degree from Miami University, Oxford, Ohio, business education;

Mrs. Dolly Jones Turner, of Oklahoma City, Okla., a graduate of West Virginia State College, with a M. Ed degree from the University of Oklahoma, physical education (dance); and Willie Leon Young, of Bogalusa, La., a graduate of St. Augustines College, with the M. S. degree from Atlanta University, biology.

Return From Leave

Returning from a leave of absence during which he pursued work toward his doctorate at New York University, will be Francis L. Grandison, psychology, and chairman of psychological services. Mrs. Anna A. Simkins, of Greensboro, who has taught at Bennett before, will return as a part-time instructor in home economics. Mrs. Simkins holds the M.S. degree from Pennsylvania State University.

RELIGIOUS & REUNION GROUPS MEET AT BENNETT COLLEG

1932 BENNETT GRADUATES---Some of the members of the class of 1932 who returned for their 25th reunion. Left to right: Mrs. Susie M. Taylor, Greensboro, N. C.; Miss Thomasena Miller, Greensboro, N. C.; Miss Ruth James, New York City; Mrs. Anna Moore, Greensboro, N. C.; Mrs. Genevieve K. Greenlee, Greensboro, N. C.; Mrs. Willie M. Grimes, Greensboro, N. C. and Mrs. Reba Davis, Durham, N. C.

METHODIST YOUTH LEADERS---Officers of the Youth Council of the North Carolina Methodist Conference are shown with their sponsors during recent meeting at Bennett College. Left to right, bottom row: the Rev. Douglas E. Moore and Misses Ruth Goolsby, Walnut Cove; Maxine West, Greensboro; Willie Waugh, treasurer, Fayetteville; Hilda Withers, president, Pine Hall; Edith Mayfield, Winston-Salem and Pauline Wright, secretary, High Point; back row: Wilbur Monroe, vice president, Laurinburg; Clyde Stewart, Laurinburg; Derry Galbreath, Fayetteville and the Rev. G. E. Hogue, Laurinburg. Little girl is Gail Knight, daughter of Mrs. Delilah Knight, of Spindale, a member of the faculty.

the approved list, the school aims to help in six general areas in which a minister should be prepared; among them Christian doctrine, pastoral psychology and church history. Courses are held for four weeks each summer, and after having satisfactorily completed this work, the pastors are graduated.

The Rev. Charles L. Carrington of Jamaica, N. Y., who has served as dean of the school for several years, had on his faculty this year the following ministers:

W. S. McLeod, High Point, Old Testament; Edward D. McGowan, Washington, D. C., New Testamen

1937 BENNETT GRADUATES---Some of the members of the class of 1937 who returned for their 20th reunion. Left to right: Mrs. Robert R. Logwood, Mrs. Zepplyn S. Averett, Miss Alsie Trammell, Mrs. Ella R. Smith, Mrs. Geraldine A. Totten, Miss Juanita Wells, all of Greensboro, N. C., Mrs. Corinne H. Harris, Pittsburgh, Pa., Mrs. Fannie S. Leary, Greensboro, N. C., and her sister, Mrs. Dorothy S. Smith, of Bowie Md.

ATTENDED PASTORS' SCHOOL -- Students and faculty of the annual Baltimore Area Pastors' School of the Methodist Church are shown just before concluding their four-week period of study at Bennett College, Greensboro, N. C. Fourteen of this group, who have completed four summers of study, were "graduated" on Friday. At extreme right of third row is the Rev. Charles L. Carrington, of Jamaica, N. Y., dean of the school which aims to help approved "supply" pastors and local preachers in six general areas of study in which a minister should be prepared.

YOUNG METHODIST LEADERS---Some of the 125 boys and girls from all over the state who attended the Youth Institute of the North Carolina Methodist Conference are shown with their counselors at Bennett College just before the close of their one-week sessions. Standing at the extreme right of second row is the Rev. Douglas E. Moore, institute director.

METHODIST WOMEN AT BENNETT---Students and faculty of the School of Missions and Christian Service conducted by the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the North Carolina Methodist Conference at Bennett College last week. In exact center of front row is Miss Fannie McCallum, dean, of Greensboro. Sixth from left on same row is Miss Isabel R. Jones, of Asheville, who last year ended a long tenure as dean of the school.

1952 BENNETT GRADUATES---Some of the members of the class of 1952 who returned for their 5th reunion. Left to right: Miss Alice Rhodes, Winston-Salem, N. C.; Mrs. Pauline S. Singletary, New York City; Mrs. Thelma B. Bryant, Washington, D. C.; Mrs. Rachael P. Young, Stony Creek, Va.; Mrs. Eva B. Dunston, Danville, Va.; Miss Shirley Cundiff, Boonville, N. C.; Miss Fay Foster, Greensboro, and Miss Clara McCain, Flint, Mich.

Co-Curricular Activities Add Interest At Bennett College

RAISED MOST MONEY---Miss Mary Boone (left) of Sanford, N. C., president of the Freshman Class at Bennett College, Greensboro, N. C., receives Endowment Cup from Paula Edmunds, president of the Student Senate, during Honors Day Program. The Freshman raised the largest amount of money in the College's Endowment Drive.

FUTURE TEACHERS.....Officers of the newly formed David D. Jones Chapter of the Future Teachers of America at Bennett College, Greensboro, N.C., go over plans for next years' program. Shown left to right are: Bettye McLean, secretary, of Greensboro, N. C.; Veronica Shipley, vice president, of Baltimore, Md.; Loretta Richmond treasurer, of Greensboro, N. C. and Shirley Waters, president of Dudley, N. C.

WON HONORS AND PRIZES AT BENNETT---Some of the Bennett College students who received top honors or prizes when the annual Honors Day program was held last week. Left to right front row: Misses Carolyn M. Ingram, Durham, N. C., winner of the David D. Jones Leadership Award; Linelle Walker, Nassau, Bahamas, winner of the Irma Graham Prize, for excellence in science; Marlene Beavers, Danville, Va., winner of the Goode Prize in Home Economics; in back row: Agatha Ricks, Elm City, N. C., winner of the Belle Tobias Scholarship; Fredrica Washington, Beaufort, S. C., winner of Faculty Scholarship Award and Edith M. Tucker, Elkin, N. C., winner of the Omicron Eta Chi Award in Home Economics.

LEARNING ABOUT JAPAN---Mrs. Mary N. Morrison (extreme left), who taught a course on "Japan" during recent School of Missions at Bennett College, observes as Mrs. Inez Tate, of Rowland, N. C., points out and explains some of the features on map which she and other members of the class produced as a project. Others looking on, left to right are Mesdames Margaret Minor, Durham; J. E. Brower, Greensboro, and Mary Francis, Lumberton. On tables in foreground are samples of Japanese handiwork.

PARENTS' COUNCIL MEETS---Some of the members of the National Council of Bennett College Parents are shown following their annual meeting on the college campus. On left of front row is Joseph T. Harrington, of New York City, who was nominated to head the organization for next year. Standing next to him is Mrs. Minnie B. Smith, of Greensboro, corresponding secretary, who is also director of co-curricular activities at the college.

NEW MEMBERS OF ALPHA KAPPA MU---Shown here are eight members of the Alpha Kappa Mu Epsilon of the Alpha Kappa Mu Honor Society at Bennett College, Greensboro, N. C. Left to right front row: Misses Delores Casimere, Galveston, Texas; Carolyn Ingram, Durham; Gloria Blatch, Miami, Fla.; Delores Tonkins, Greensboro; Fredrica Washington, Beaufort, S. C.; Veronica Shipley, Baltimore, Md.; Margarie Mays, Greensboro; and Paula Edmunds, Cincinnati, Ohio.

TENSE MOMENTS IN "ELECTRA"---Miss Delores Johnson, of Baltimore, Md. as "electra" (center) after receiving news of the death of her brother, Orestes, announces her plan for revenge as her sister, Chrysothemis, played by Miss Ann Stewart, of Reidsville (right) awaits her decision. In background are two of the Mycenaean women played by (left to right) Misses Sonia Louden and Kay Rita Turner.

attended by faculty, staff and students in the dining room of the David D. Jones Student Union, Dr. Trabue will deliver the principal address on "The College and a Responsible Society."

The conference will end on Thursday after a morning session. The afternoon has been given over to meetings of committees concerned with the opening of the college.

Bennett Faculty Meet Scheduled

The annual faculty-staff fall conference at Bennett College will be held September 5-12, President Willa B. Player announced this week.

Theme of this year's conference will be: "Toward Curriculum improvement and Faculty Concensus," considered particularly appropriate for the college in this period of its history.

Among topics to be considered will be the role of general education in the liberal arts college, contributions which teachers and students can make toward the improvement of the curriculum, and an evaluation of the weight to be given to tradition and current practice in studying the curriculum.

In addition to the conference sessions, a number of informal social gatherings have been planned.

Bennett Faculty-Staff Conference Sept. 5-6

GREENSBORO, N. C.—The annual faculty-staff fall conference at Bennett College will be held Sept. 5-12, President Willa B. Player announced this week.

Theme of this year's conference will be: "Toward Curriculum Improvement and Faculty Consensus," considered particularly appropriate for the college in this period of its history.

• • •

AMONG TOPICS to be considered will be the role of general education in the liberal arts college, contributions which teachers and students can make toward the improvement of the curriculum, and an evaluation of the weight to be given to tradition and current practice in studying the curriculum.

In addition to the conference sessions, a number of informal social gatherings have been planned, a committee composed of Drs. Hobart S. Jarrett, chairman of the humanities division; Chauncey G. Winston, chairman of the social science division, and J. Henry Sayles, chairman of the science division, worked out the plans for this year's conference.

• • •

MEETING FROM Sept. 9-11 will be Bennett's student leaders who will consider the theme: "Developing Values Through Campus Participation".

Misses Jimmie English, of Camden, S. C., president of the Student Senate, and Rosemary Wright, also of Camden, president of the David D. Jones Student Union, will have key roles in the sessions.

ville; Alice Badgett of Pelham, N. C., in Portsmouth, Va.; Betty Higgins, of Greensboro, in Covington, Ga., and Carolyn Crawford, of Morristown, Tenn., in Edenton, N. C.

Miss Queen Esther Farrish, of Roxboro, will be a home demonstration agent in North Carolina and Miss Helen Green, of New York City, will be employed by the New York Public

Conference Is Planned At Bennett

News 9/3/57

Dr. Marion R. Trabue, professor of higher education at the University of Kentucky at Lexington, Ky., is the consultant for the annual faculty-staff fall conference at Bennett College which opens Thursday.

Theme of this year's conference will be: "Toward Curriculum Improvement and Faculty Consensus."

Among topics to be considered will be the role of general education in the liberal arts college, contributions which teachers and students can make toward the improvement of the curriculum, and an evaluation of the weight to be given to tradition and current practice in studying the curriculum.

Dr. Trabue, who has served as consultant for the United Negro College Fund, is a graduate of Northwestern University and holds a Ph.D. degree from Columbia University. He has served on the faculties of the University of North Carolina, Pennsylvania State University and the University of Minnesota.

Other Posts

He has also served as president or chairman of a number of educational organizations, among them the National Vocational Guidance Association and the American Association of Colleges for Teacher Education. Author of many books and a member of Phi Beta Kappa, Dr. Trabue is in great demand as a consultant by state and national government officials.

On Monday, Sept. 9, Dr. Trabue will speak on "The College Curriculum: What It Is and What It Reflects" and on Tuesday he will speak on "Problems Involved in Curriculum Study." After reports of all sessions have been made at the Wednesday morning session, Dr. Trabue will make an evaluative summary.

In addition to the conference sessions, a number of informal social gatherings have been planned.

Meeting from September 9-11 will be Bennett's student leaders who will consider the theme: "Developing Values Through Campus Participation."

One-Third Of Bennett's 1957 Grads To Become Teachers

GREENSBORO — Viewing the classroom from the other side of the teacher's desk -- come September -- will be the experience of at least one-third of the 106 in the history of Bennett College members of the 1957 class, largest Bennett graduates, most of whom traditionally turn to teaching, at least for the first year out of school, will be found, for the most part in schools in North Carolina, South Carolina and Virginia.

High Point YWCA Has New Executive Director

HIGH POINT, N. C. —The new Executive Director at the Branch YWCA is Mrs. Beaulah Clark Bartlett, who was formerly with the Branch YWCA of the Greensboro Association.

The new staffer, a native of Greensboro received her education at Bennett College, West Virginia State and Hunter College, New York City.

* * *

PRIOR TO Mrs. Bartlett's YWCA experience, she held the position of administrative secretary with the Children's Aid Society in New York. She also served as Occupational Interviewer for the Department of Welfare in N.Y.C.

She is active in the Wesleyan Service Guild of her Church. She holds membership in the Warnersville Community Club and the Metropolitan Council of Negro Women.

* * *

MRS. BARTLETT will assume her duties as Executive Director of the Branch on September 1, 1957.

The Program Director, Miss Winifred Carter, was among the 100 staff members and volunteers of the Young Women's Christian Association who attended the 1957 summer session of the YWCA School for Professional Workers at Lake Erie College, Painesville, Ohio.

* * *

THE SUMMER school is designed to cover all subjects of YWCA program including administration, group work practices and committee work particularly as related to the social and economic factors at work in today's world.

There were YWCA workers from Burma, Korea, Canada and Scotland along with those from the U.S.A. who received this special training in order to better serve girls and young women who participate in YWCA activities.

DR. MARON R. TRABUE, CONSULTANT FOR BENNETT CONFERENCE

Future Author 8/31/57

Dr. Marion R. Trabue, professor of higher education at hte University of Kentucky at Lexington, Ky., is the consultant for the annual faculty-staff fall conference at Bennett College which opened on September 5.

Dr. Trabue, who has served as a consultant for the United Negro College Fund, is a graduate of Northwestern University and holds a Ph. D. dgree from Columbia University. He has served on the faculties of the University of North Carolina, Pennsylvania State University and the University of Minnesoto.

He has also served as president or chairman of a number of educational organizations, among them the National Vocational Guidance Association and the American Association of Colleges for Teacher Education. Author of many books and a member of Phi Beta Kappa, Dr. Trabue is in great demand as a consultant by state and national government officials.

On Monday, September 9, Dr. Trabue will speak on "The College Curriculum: What It Is and What It Reflects" and on Tuesday at the same hour he will speak on "Problems Involved in Curriculum Study." After reports of all sessions have been made at the Wednesday morning session, Dr. Trabue will make an evaluative summary.

That night, at the banquet

Dr. Lovejoy to talk at Bennett College

9/7/57

GREENSBORO, N.C. — Dr. Gordon W. Lovejoy, professor of sociology at Guilford College here, will speak at the opening vesper service at Bennett College on Sept. 22, in Pfeiffer Chapel.

No stranger to the Bennett campus, Dr. Lovejoy, two years ago, spoke at the banquet which marked the close

480 Women Enroll At Bennett

9/14/57

GREENSBORO, N. C. — Bennett college anticipates an enrollment of 480 young women, an increase of two over the figures for the 1956-57 academic year.

Enrollment at the college has been purposely kept around this figure because of the desire to retain the advantages of a small liberal arts college.

Freshmen and new students who reported on September 11 for a week of orientation, will register on September 16. Among them are a number of young women who the Vick Elementary School, Wilson, and Grace M. Coleman, of Charlotte, as a librarian, serving three elementary schools in Lynchburg, Va.

Misses Jacqueline Hamlett, of Greensboro, at the Jefferson El- Va.; Sadye Williams, of Fayetteville and Virginia Smith, of Timberlake, at the Patrick Central School Stuart, Va.; and Harriette A. Daniels, of Moultrie, Ga., at Beaufort, S. C.

In non-teaching posts will be Misses Alice R. Hayes, of Whiteville, at the Continental Assurance Company, New York City; Doris Lanier, of Bath, N. C., at the People's Settlement Association, Wilmington, Del.; Ethel R. Maddox of Federalsburg, Md., at the National Institute of Health, Bethesda, Md., Margarie Mays, of Greensboro in the Records Office at Bennett College, and Mrs. Geraldine P. Cheek of Glendale, Ohio, at Hampton, Va.

VSC Guild stages play at Bennett

GREENSBORO, N.C. — The Virginia State College Theatre Guild presented "Anastasia" in the Bennett College Little Theatre Friday night under the direction of Miss Felicia D. Anderson.

The three - act presentation was an Intercollegiate Drama Association production.

Cast in leading roles were Floyd Gravitt, Emily Moore, Clafton Moses, John Chadwick, Ruthard Dixon and Joyce Miller.

VESPER SPEAKER

Dr. Harry V. Richardson, president of Gammon Theological Seminary, Atlanta, Ga., will speak at the 4 p.m. vesper service at Bennett College today. News 11/4/57

Conference Is Planned At Bennett

news 4/3/57

Dr. Marion R. Trabue, professor of higher education at the University of Kentucky at Lexington, Ky., is the consultant for the annual faculty-staff fall conference at Bennett College which opens Thursday.

Theme of this year's conference will be: "Toward Curriculum Improvement and Faculty Consensus."

Among topics to be considered will be the role of general education in the liberal arts college, contributions which teachers and students can make toward the improvement of the curriculum, and an evaluation of the weight to be given to tradition and current practice in studying the curriculum.

Dr. Trabue, who has served as consultant for the United Negro College Fund, is a graduate of Northwestern University and holds a Ph.D. degree from Columbia University. He has served on the faculties of the University of North Carolina, Pennsylvania State University and the University of Minnesota.

Other Posts

He has also served as president or chairman of a number of educational organizations, among them the National Vocational Guidance Association and the American Association of Colleges for Teacher Education. Author of many books and a member of Phi Beta Kappa, Dr. Trabue is in great demand as a consultant by state and national government officials.

On Monday, Sept. 9, Dr. Trabue will speak on "The College Curriculum: What It Is and What It Reflects" and on Tuesday he will speak on "Problems Involved in Curriculum Study." After reports of all sessions have been made at the Wednesday morning session, Dr. Trabue will make an evaluative summary.

In addition to the conference sessions, a number of informal social gatherings have been planned.

Meeting from September 9-11 will be Bennett's student leaders who will consider the theme: "Developing Values Through Campus Participation."

One-Third Of Bennett's 1957 Grads To Become Teachers

GREENSBORO — Viewing the classroom from the other side of the teacher's desk -- come September -- will be the experience of at least one-third of the 106 in the history of Bennett College members of the 1957 class, largest Bennett graduates, most of whom traditionally turn to teaching, at least for the first year out of school, will be found, for the most part in schools in North Carolina, South Carolina and Virginia.

High Point YWCA Has New Executive Director

HIGH POINT, N. C. —The new Executive Director at the Branch YWCA is Mrs. Beaulah Clark Bartlett, who was formerly with the Branch YWCA of the Greensboro Association.

The new staffer, a native of Greensboro received her education at Bennett College, West Virginia State and Hunter College, New York City.

* * *

PRIOR TO Mrs. Bartlett's YWCA experience, she held the position of administrative secretary with the Children's Aid Society in New York. She also served as Occupational Interviewer for the Department of Welfare in N.Y.C.

She is active in the Wesleyan Service Guild of her Church. She holds membership in the Warnersville Community Club and the Metropolitan Council of Negro Women.

* * *

MRS. BARTLETT will assume her duties as Executive Director of the Branch on September 1, 1957.

The Program Director, Miss Winifred Carter, was among the 100 staff members and volunteers of the Young Women's Christian Association who attended the 1957 summer session of the YWCA School for Professional Workers at Lake Erie College, Painesville, Ohio.

* * *

THE SUMMER school is designed to cover all subjects of YWCA program including administration, group work practices and committee work particularly as related to the social and economic factors at work in today's world.

There were YWCA workers from Burma, Korea, Canada and Scotland along with those from the U.S.A. who received this special training in order to better serve girls and young women who participate in YWCA activities.

DR. MARON R. TRABUE, CONSULTANT FOR BENNETT CONFERENCE

future Author 8/31/57

Dr. Marion R. Trabue, professor of higher education at hte University of Kentucky at Lexington, Ky., is the consultant for the annual faculty-staff fall conference at Bennett College which opened on September 5.

Dr. Trabue, who has served as a consultant for the United Negro College Fund, is a graduate of Northwestern University and holds a Ph. D. dgree from Columbia University. He has served on the faculties of the University of North Carolina, Pennsylvania State University and the University of Minnesoto.

He has also served as president or chairman of a number of educational organizations, among them the National Vocational Guidance Association and the American Association of Colleges for Teacher Education. Author of many books and a member of Phi Beta Kappa, Dr. Trabue is in great demand as a consultant by state and national government officials.

On Monday, September 9, Dr. Trabue will speak on "The College Curriculum: What It Is and What It Reflects" and on Tuesday at the same hour he will speak on "Problems Involved in Curriculum Study." After reports of all sessions have been made at the Wednesday morning session, Dr. Trabue will make an evaluative summary.

That night, at the banquet

480 Women Enroll At Bennett

deferred

9/14/57

GREENSBORO, N. C. — Bennett college anticipates an enrollment of 480 young women, an increase of two over the figures for the 1956-57 academic year.

Enrollment at the college has been purposely kept around this figure because of the desire to retain the advantages of a small liberal arts college.

Freshmen and new students who reported on September 11 for a week of orientation, will register on September 16. Among them are a number of young women who the Vick Elementary School, Wilson, and Grace M. Coleman, of Charlotte, as a librarian, serving three elementary schools in Lynchburg, Va.

Misses Jacqueline Hamlett, of Greensboro, at the Jefferson El-Va.; Sadye Williams, of Fayetteville and Virginia Smith, of Timberlake, at the Patrick Central School Stuart, Va.; and Harriette A. Daniels, of Moultrie, Ga., at Beaufort, S. C.

In non-teaching posts will be Misses Alice R. Hayes, of Whiteville, at the Continental Assurance Company, New York City; Doris anier, of Bath, N. C., at the eople's Settlement Association, Wilmington, Del.; Ethel R. Maddox of Federalsburg, Md., at the National Institute of Health, Bethesda, Md., Margarie Mays, of Greensboro in the Records Office at Bennett College, and Mrs. Geraldine P. Cheek of Glendale, Ohio, at Hampton, Va.

VSC Guild stages play at Bennett

GREENSBORO, N.C. — The Virginia State College Theatre Guild presented "Anastasia" in the Bennett College Little Theatre Friday night under the direction of Miss Felicia D. Anderson.

The three - act presentation was an Intercollegiate Drama Association production.

Cast in leading roles were Floyd Gravitt, Emily Moore, Clafton Moses, John Chadwick, Ruthard Dixon and Joyce Miller.

VESPER SPEAKER

Dr. Harry V. Richardson, president of Gammon Theological Seminary, Atlanta, Ga., will speak at the 4 p.m. vesper service at Bennett College today.

news 11/4/57

Dr. Lovejoy to talk at Bennett College

9/19/57

GREENSBORO, N.C. — Dr. Gordon W. Lovejoy, professor of sociology at Guilford College here, will speak at the opening vesper service at Bennett College on Sept. 22, in Pfeiffer Chapel.

No stranger to the Bennett campus, Dr. Lovejoy, two years ago, spoke at the banquet which marked the close

Some of the 125 boys and girls at North Carolina Conference's youth institute gather at Annie Merner Pfeiffer Chapel on the Bennett College campus. Standing at extreme right, second row: the Rev. Douglas E. Moore.

Bennett's Large Class Includes 4th Member Of Alumnae Family

GREENSBORO . One of the largest classes in its history-160-completed registration at Bennett College last week.

In addition to these students, who come from 18 states and four foreign countries, there are a number of students with advanced standing entering the college for the first time.

The class of 1961 includes 11 girls who were valedictorians in high school and seven who were salutatorians. It also includes one set of sisters and 14 freshmen who either have sisters at Bennett or sisters who are Bennett graduates.

Miss Anne Elizabeth Harris, of Greensboro is the fourth in her family to enroll at Bennett. She is the sister of Misses Gwendolyn and Dorothy Harris, twins, who were members of the class of 1957. Another sister, Joyce, is a sophomore majoring in home economics.

Three other freshmen, Misses Linda B. Brown, of Akron, Ohio, Helen W. Brown, Greensboro, and Gwendolyn Mackel, of Chicago, Ill., represent the third member of their respective families to enroll at Bennett. Jacqueline B. and Elizabeth D. Daise of Wilmington, are the two sisters who registered last week.

are sisters of Bennett students or graduates.

In this group are Miss Saundra McBride, of Sumter, S. C., whose sister, Yvonne, is a sophomore; Miss Mary Tonkins, of Greensbor, whose sister, Deloris, is a senior, Miss Lola Campbell, of Greensboro, whose sister, Barbara, is a junior, and Miss Helen Brown, of Greensboro, whose sisters, Bertha and Oshia, preceded her at Bennett.

Also in the class are Miss Linda B. Brown, of Akron, Ohio, whose sister, Barbara, was valedictorian of the 1956 class and studied in France last year on a Fulbright scholarship, and Miss Gwendolyn Mackel, of Natchez, Miss., whose sister, Lyvonne, was graduated from Bennett in 1953.

Tradition—Linda Brown (left) of Akron, Ohio, is greeted by President Willa B. Player at reception for Bennett College freshmen. Person in center was not identified.

VESPER SPEAKER

Dr. Emory Ross, of New York City, will be the vesper speaker at Bennett College on Sunday, October 6, at 11 a. m.

Dr. Ross is consultant for the Board of Fundamental Education.

Dobbs To Sing At Bennett In February

GREENSBORO

Three outstanding entertainment features will be offered in the 1957-58 lyceum series at Bennett College, Dr. Chauncey G. Winston, chairman, announced this week.

First of these attractions will be the Munt-Brooks Dance Company, which will give two performances in the Little Theatre, October 25-the first at 3 p.m. and the second at 8 p.m. This group, composed of a male and two female solo dancers, has been acclaimed for its versatility in modern and classic terpshichore.

The traditional post-Thanksgiving Day concert by the Morehouse College Glee Club of Atlanta, Ga., will be given in Pfeiffer Chapel on Friday, November 29, at 8 p.m. This group, directed by Wendell Whalum, is one of the best balanced male choral groups in college circles and has, for the past several years, been coming to Bennett at the Thanksgiving season.

Miss Mattiwilda Dobbs, coloratura soprano, who has scored smashing successes on three continents, will be heard in Pfeiffer Chapel on February 4, 1958, at 8 p.m. Miss Dobbs last year made history by appearing at the Metropolitan Opera in New York City.

Rev. Bryan Speaks To Freshmen

GREENSBORO, N. C. — "Jesus was not only the Great Teacher but He was also a learner," the Rev. John L. Bryan, director of religious activities, told freshmen attending their first worship service at Bennett College Sunday morning.

Speaking on "Jesus the Learner," the minister declared that Jesus learned obedience through what He endured. He also had an inquisitive mind, he added.

"BECAUSE JESUS was a student," the minister continued, "we who study today are in the procession of a noble tradition. Here at Bennett we have an atmosphere in which we, too, like the Lord Jesus, may increase in wisdom, in stature, and in favor with God and man."

The Rev. Mr. Bryan counseled his listeners as future leaders to acquire a command of the basic facts, plus the essentials of faith, hope and love.

"IT IS WHAT we aim at that makes us what we are," he said. "So we should make our aim high."

Academic Goals Set By Students

GREENSBORO, N. C. —Student leaders at Bennett College, at the conclusion of their annual pre-school fall conference, reached an agreement on a number of goals toward which they will work during the 1957-58 academic school year, Miss Jimmie English, president of the Student Senate, announced this week.

Major emphases at the conference included programming, leadership, financing, and participation for campus organizations and the student leaders agreed to work for improvement in each of these areas.

* * *

AMONG SPECIFIC objectives are a revision of the master schedule of meetings, of clubs and organizations to eliminate conflicts; a renewed emphasis upon high scholarship standards and a continuing effort to promote campus-wide participation in all co-curricular activities. It was also agreed to make the U. S. National Student Association more meaningful on the Bennett campus.

BENNETT COLLEGE

GREENSBORO, N.C.— Mrs. John M Pearson, chairman of the department of work in foreign fields of the Woman's division of Christian Service of the Methodst Church, was guest speaker at Bennett College memorial services for Mrs. Annie Merner Pfeiffer, who with her husband, Henry Pfeifer, was among the school's greatest benefactors.

160 Finish Registration At Bennett

GREENSBORO, N. C. —One of the largest classes in its history -160- completed registration at Bennett College last week.

In addition to these students, who come from 18 states and four foreign countries, there are a number of students with advanced standing entering the college for the first time.

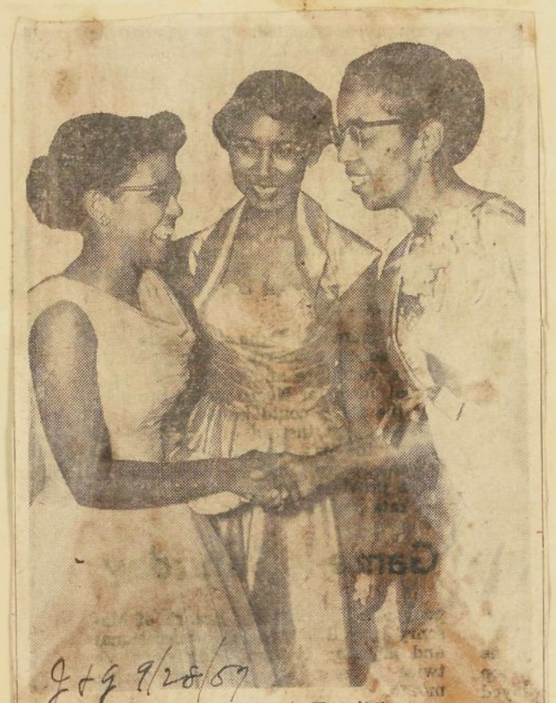

THE CLASS of 1961 includes 11 girls who were valedictorians in high school and seven who were salutatorians. It also includes one set of sisters and 14 freshmen who either have sisters at Bennett or sisters who are Bennett graduates.

Miss Anne Elizabeth Harris, of Greensboro is the fourth in her family to enroll at Bennett. She is the sister of Misses Gwendolyn and Dorothy Harris, twins, who were members of the class of 1957. Another sister, Joyce, is a sophomore majoring in home economics

* * *

THREE OTHER freshmen, Misses Linda B. Brown, of Akron, Ohio, Helen W. Brown, Greensboro, N. C., and Gwendolyn Mackel, of Chicago, Ill., represent the third member of their respective families to enroll at Bennett. Jacqueline B. and Elizabeth D. Daise of Wilmington, N. C., are the two sisters who registered last week.

Other students who have sisters in school or sisters who have graduated are: Misses Saundra L. McBride, Sumter, S. C.; Barbara J. Philson, Charlotte; Iris Jeffries, Burlington; Barbara J. Speas, Winston-Salem; Avis L. McCarther, Mt. Airy; Louise H. Turner, New Orleans; Shirley Thompson, St. Pauls and Mary Tonkins, Kay Frances Henry, and Lola Campbell, all of Greensboro.

Continuing A Tradition

Miss Linda Brown, of Akron, Ohio, is greeted by President Willa B. Player during her reception for Bennett College freshmen, Sunday night. Two sisters, Doloris and Barbara, are graduates of the college.

Lovejoy Urges Way Of Christ

"Modern man, as he seeks to overcome his fears, is overlooking one simple way—the way of Jesus Christ," Dr. Gordon W. Lovejoy told the Bennett College vesper audience yesterday in Pfeiffer Chapel.

Dr. Lovejoy, professor of sociology at Guilford College, traced the fears of man from early history to the present to demonstrate that fear has always been present in man.

"Today," he illustrated, "we live in fear of economic security, of atomic destruction, of new patterns in human relationships and in fear of not being successful—as judged by man-made standards. Because we live in fear, we are a bewildered people.

"There is a way, if we will follow the message of The Man of Galilee. By accepting Christ and by giving ourselves to Him, we will find that peace which passeth all understanding," he said.

Dr. Lovejoy cautioned his listeners, however, that this will be no easy task because ours is a society which sneers at the turned cheek and the concept of the second mile. It asks: "Is it ethically expedient?" and not: "Is it morally right or wrong?"

SERIES OF ADDRESSES COMPLETED BY BENNETT PREXY

The final adress in a series of three to the Bennett College student body was delivered by President Willa B. Player in Pfeiffer Chapel, Monday morning.

Speaking on "Responsibility," Dr. Player explained to the students that their responsibilities at the college lay in three broad areas, namely, responsibility in carrying out routines, responsibility to recognize their assets and limitations and responsibility to make creative contribution to the life of the campus.

"We are living in a time of dangerous irresponsibility," Dr. Player declared. "The tie that binds us to our college is responsibility and, as you become deeply involved in an enterprise, you want to see it through."

At two previous chapel meetings, Dr. Player spoke on "The Challenges Which Face Us" and "Values." In each of the addresses, she urged the students to develop maturity and a broad outlook upon life and its problems.

Freshmen Complete Registration at Bennett

One of the largest classes in its history —160— completed registration at Bennett College last week.

In addition to these students, who come from 18 states and four foreign countries, there are a number of students with advanced standing entering the college for the first time.

The class of 1961 includes 11 girls who were valedictorians in high school and seven who were salutatorians. It also includes one set of sisters and 14 freshmen who either have sisters at Bennett or sisters who are Bennett graduates.

Miss Anne Elizabeth Harris, of Greensboro is the fourth in her family to enroll at Bennett. She is the sister of Misses Gwendolyn and Dorothy Harris, twins, who were members of the class of 1957. Another sister, Joyce, is a sophomore majoring in home economics.

Three other freshmen, Misses Linda B. Brown, of Akron, Ohio, Helen W. Brown, Greensboro N. C., and Gwendolyn Mackel, of Chicago, Ill., represent the third member of their respective families to enroll at Bennett. Jacqueline B. and Elizabeth D. Daise of Wilmington, N. C., are the two sisters who registered last week.

Other students who have sisters in school or sisters who have graduated are: Misses Saundra L. McBride, Sumter, S. C.; Barbara J. Philson, Charlotte; Iris Jeffries, Burlington; Barbara J. Speas, Winston-Salem; Avis L. McCarther, Mt. Airy; Louise H. Turner, New Orleans; Shirley Thompson, St. Pauls and Mary Tonkins, Kay Frances Henry, Lola Campbell, all of Greensboro.

'Sister' pattern followed as Bennett enrolls 160 freshmen

GREENSBORO, N.C. — The tradition of Bennett as a family college continued, this week, as 14 freshmen who either have sisters here or are sisters of graduates, entered the institution.

There is also a set of sisters among the 160 freshmen enrolled.

* * *

MISS ANNE ELIZABETH HARRIS of this city is the fourth in her family to enroll at Bennett. She is the sister of Misses Gwendolyn and Dorothy Harris, twins, who were members of the class of 1957. Another sister, Joyce, is a sophomore majoring in home economics.

Three other freshmen, Misses Linda B. Brown, of Akron, Ohio, Helen W. Brown, Greensboro, N.C., and Gwendolyn Mackel, of Chicago, Ill., represent the third member of their respective families to enroll at Bennett. Jacqueline B. and Elizabeth D. Daise of Wilmington, N.C., are the two sisters who registered last week.

Other students who have sisters in school or sisters who have graduated are:

Misses Saundra L. McBride, Sumter, S.C.; Barbara J. Philson, Charlotte; Iris Jeffries, Burlington; Barbara J. Speas, Winston-Salem; Avis L. McCarther, Mt. Airy; Louise H. Turner, New Orleans; Shirley Thompson, St. Pauls and Mary Tonkins, Kay Frances Henry, and Lola Campbell, all of Greensboro.

ADDRESSES FRESHMEN

"Jesus was not only The Great Teacher but He was also a learner," the Rev. John L. Bryan, director of religious activities, told freshmen attending their first worship service at Bennett College Sunday morning.

Speaking on "Jesus the Learner," the minister declared that Jesus learned obedience through what He endured. He also had an inquisitive mind, he added.

"Because Jesus was a student," the minister continued. "we who study today are in the procession of a noble tradition. Here at Bennett we have an atmosphere in which we, too, like the Lord Jesus, may increase in wisdom, in stature, and in favor with God and man."

The Rev. Mr. Bryan counseled his listeners as future leaders to acquire a command of the basic facts, plus the essentials of faith, hope and love.

"It is what we aim at that makes us what we are," he said. "So we should make our aim high."

BENNETT STUDENT LEADERS AGREE ON GOAL

Student leaders at Bennett College, at the conclusion of their annual pre-school fall conference, reached an agreement on a number of goals toward which they will work during the 1957-58 academic school year, Miss Jimmie English, president of the Student Senate, announced this week.

Major emphases at the conference included programming leadership, financing, and participation for campus organizations and the student leader agreed to work for improvement in each of these areas.

Among specific objectives are a revision of the master schedule of meetings, of clubs and organizations to eliminate conflicts; a renewed emphasis upon high scholarship standards and a continuing effort to promote campus-wide participation in all co-curricular activities. It was also agreed to make the U. S. National Student Association more meaningful on the Bennett campus.

Missions Week End at Bennett College

The school of missions and Wesleyan Service Guild weekend of the North Carolina Conference convened at Bennett College, Greensboro, July 1-5. The theme of the school was "Till Christ Shall Dwell in Every Heart."

Registration and classification began Monday morning, after which an orientation period was held.

Miss Harriet Seibert of the Woman's Division of Christian Service was the special worker in the school.

Monday evening's activity consisted of a fellowship hour directed by the Greensboro District. Games were played, and talent from each of the four districts was presented.

Four approved studies for the year 1957-58 were taught: "The Social Witness of the Local Church in the Ecumenical Movement," Mrs. D. D. Jones; "Christ, the Church and Race," Miss Seibert; "Japan," Mrs. Mary Morrison; "The Gospel According to St. Mark," the Rev. L. Bryan.

Wednesday evening at 8, a panel on missions was presented by Miss Seibert, Mrs. T. Y. Brincefield, Mrs. A. P. McLeod, and Miss Frances Williams of St. Louis, Mo.

There were two workshops: "Parliamentary Procedures and Leadership Responsibilities in the Woman's Society of Christian Service," Mrs. C. M. Mayfield; "Drama and Audio-Visuals in the Church," Mrs. Dorothy Jones. Departmental clinics were offered by conference officers.

The school closed challenging the best that was in every woman for consecrated and spiritual service.

Bennett Girl 6th In Contest

GREENSBORO

Miss Geneva Baldwin, of Pittsboro, N. C., a senior at Bennett College, was notified this week that she won sixth honors in the Roberts Series of Awards for Editorial Writing by College Students conducted by the Intercollegiate Association for the Study of the Alcohol Problem, of Columbus, Ohio.

A total of 160 freshmen have registered at Bennett College. The new students hail from 18 states and four foreign countries . . . Myrtle L. Brown, a member of the class of 1945 at Bennett College, was awarded her Ph.D. degree in nutrition at Penn State University . . . Approximately 600 freshmen have enrolled at Tus-

Ingram Heads List Of Bennett Grads Pursuing Advanced Study

GREENSBORO

At least eight members of the 1957 graduating class at Bennett College will be attending graduate school in the fall, according to reports received in the alumni ofoice this summer.

In addition to Miss Carolyn Ingram, of Durham, who will attend the University of North Carolina, the following young women will also be pursuing graduate degrees:

Misses Marion Moore, of Topeka, Kansas, at the University of Kansas; Miss Vera Kernodle, of Elon College, Edythe Fulton, of Morristown, Tenn., at St. Joseph College, West Hartford, Conn.; Precious Aldrich, of Mc Bee, S. C.; Barbara J. Rice, of Baltimore, Md., studying medical technology at Mercy Hospital, Baltimore; Miss Phyllis Henry, of Odessa, Del., at the Boston University School of Theology; Miss Julia McClian, of Grady, Ala., at the Hartford (Conn.) Theological Seminary, and Miss Paula M. Edmunds, of Cincinnati, Ohio.

Other members of the class who have reported accepting teaching posts for the fal alre

Misses Pauline Dixon, of Burlington, in Burlington; Shirley J. Hudson of Greensboro, in Portsmouth, Va.; Jean Lewis and Doris Young, both of Morganton, in Asheville; Jacqueline McAllister, of Kingstree, S. C., in Spartanburg; Thelma Simpson, of Greensboro, in Laurinburg; Flora Mae Smith, of Clarksburg, W. Va., ni Lynchburg, Va.

Misses Peggie Smith, of Greensboro, in Acme,; Minnie Yarborough, of Kittrell, in Jacksonville,; Thelma Culbreth, of New York City, in New York State; Berneatha Fennell, of Burgaw, in Kenansville,; Mrs. Dorothy Harris Williams, of Greensboro, in Greensboro; Jean Renwick, of Statesville, in Statesville; Alice Badgett of Pelham, in Portsmouth, Va:; Betty Higgins, of Greensboro, in Covington, Ga., and Carolyn Clarksburg, W. Va., in Lynchin Edenton.

Miss Queen Esther Farrish, of Roxboro, will be a home demonstration agent in North Carolina and Miss Helen Green, of New York City, will be employed by the New York Public Library.

GETTING "LINES"?.....These young thespians who attended the annual Festival of the Intercollegiate Drama Association held at A & T College recently, appear to be "brushing up" on their "lines". They are from left to right: Evelyn Greenlea, West Virginia State College; Nancy McNeil, Livingstone College; Carolyn Brown, Bennett College and Cluey Hargrove, A & T College, all members of the drama group of their respective colleges.

Bennett College Anticipates 480 Enrollment

Future outlook 9/7/57

With registration day just a week off, Bennett College anticipates an enrollment of 480 young women, an increase of two over the figures for the 1956-57 academic year.

Enrollment at the college has been purposely kept around this figure because of the desire to retain the advantages of a small liberal arts college.

Freshmen and new students who reported on September 11 for a week of orientation, will register on September 16. Among them are a number of young women who are sisters of Bennett students or graduates.

In this group are Miss Saundra McBride, of Sumter, S. C., whose sister, Yvonne, is a sophomore; Miss Mary Tonkins, of Greensboro, whose sister, Deloris, is a senior; Miss Lola Campbell, of Greensboro, whose sister, Barbara, is a junior, and Miss Helen Brown, of Greensboro, whose sisters, Bertha and Oshia, preceded her at Bennett.

Also in the class are Miss Linda B. Brown, of Akron, Ohio, whose sister, Barbara, was valedictorian of the 1956 class and studied in France last year on a Fulbright scholarship, and Miss Gwendolyn Mackel, of Natchez, Miss., whose sister, Lyvonne, was graduated from Bennett in 1953.

Among foreign students entering the college this year are Miss Williametta Brooks, of Monrovia, Liberia, whose father is chaplain of the Liberian Senate, and Miss Nancy Seunghi Choi, of Seoul, Korea.

Returning Bennett students will register on September 17, with classes beginning at 8 a. m. the following day.

Bennett Will Receive Frosh On Sept 14

Evening Times 9/2/57

GREENSBORO

Bennett College will reopen for the fall semester on Sept. 11, with freshmen and new students reporting by 5 p.m. the following day.

Following a period of orientation, they will register on Sept. 16. Returning students will report and register on September 17. Classes will begin at 8 a.m. on September 18.

RECOGNITION SERVICES SUNDAY AT ST. MATTHEWS CHURCH Future outlook 9/7/57

Recognition services will be held at St. Matthews Methodist Church Sunday, September 8th, at the 11:00 A. M. hour, at which time Dr. Willa B. Player will introduce the teachers and officals of Bennett College, Dr. W. T. Gibbs will present the faculty of A. & T. College, Dr. J. A. Tarpley the city school teacher's and J. E. Whittley the County school teacher's.

A cordial invitation is extended to the public to be present at this service.

Announced by Rev. J. E. Brower, Pastor.

Conference To Open Year At Bennett

Courier Times 9/5/57

GREENSBORO

Dr. Marion R. Trabue, professor of higher education at the University of Kentucky at Lexington, Ky., is the consultant for the annual faculty-staff fall conference at Bennett College lege which opened on September 5.

Dr. Trabue, who has served as a consultant for the United Negro College Fund, is a graduate of Northwestern University and holds a Ph.D. degree from Columbia University. He has served on the faculties of the University of North Carolina, Pennsylvania State University and the University of Minnesota.

He has also served as president or chairman of a number of educational organizations, among them the National Vocational Guidance Association and the American Association of Colleges for Teacher Education Author of many books and a member of Phi Beta Kapp,a Dr. Trabue is in great demand as a consultant by state and national government officials.

On Monday, September 9, Dr. Trabue spoke on "The College Curriculm: What It Is and what It Reflects, and on Tuesday at the same hour he will speak on "Problems Involved in Curriculm Study." After reports of all sessions have been made at the Wednesday morning session, Dr. Trabue will make an evaluative summary.

That night, at the banquet attended by faculty, staff and students in the dining room of the David D. Jones Student Union, Dr. Trabue will deliver the principal address on "The College and a Responsible Society."

The conference will end on Thursday after a morning session. The afternoon has been given over to meetings of committees concerned with the opening of the college.

Bennett College Begins Fall Semester Sept. 11th

Courier 9/11/57

GREENSBORO, N. C. —Bennett College will reopen for the fall semester on September 11, with freshmen and new students reporting by 5 p. m. the following day.

Following a period of orientation, they will register on September 16. Returning students will report and register on September 17. Classes will begin at 8 a. m. on September 18.

DR. MARION R. Trabue, professor of higher education at the University of Kentucky at Lexington, Ky., is the consultant for the annual faculty-staff fall conference at the college scheduled to open Sept. 5.

Dr. Trabue, who has served as a consultant for the United Negro College Fund, is a graduate of Northwestern University and holds a Ph. D. degree from Columbia University. He has served on the faculties of the University of North Carolina, Pennsylvania State University and the University of Minnesota.

HE HAS ALSO served as president or chairman of a number of educational organizations, among them the National Vocational Guidance Association and the American Association of Colleges for Teacher Education Author of many books and a member of Phi Beta Kappa. Dr. Trabue is in great demand as a consultant by state and national government officials.

On Monday, September 9 Dr. Trabue spoke on "The College Curriculum: What It Is and What It Reflects" and on Tuesday at the same hour he will speak on "Problems Involved in Curriculum Study." After reports of all sessions have been made at the Wednesday morning session, Dr. Trabue will make an evaluative summary.

College Role In Society Outlined

News 9/12/57

"There are a great many selfish, immature people in the world, who overlook the necessity of working with others for the common good," Dr. Marion R. Trabue declared last night at Bennett College.

Dr. Trabue addressed the banquet marking the formal close of the faculty, staff and student leadership fall conferences at the college. A professor of higher education at the University of Kentucky, Lexington, he has been serving this week as consultant for these conferences.

Speaking on "The College and a Responsible Society," Dr. Trabue pointed out that it is the job of the teacher to help the student to recognize the things that do not contribute to the common good. Because Americans have almost a blind faith in education, he said, the college has an important obligation to help produce citizens who will make a responsible world.

"Newspapers give evidence daily," he said, "that we have not yet achieved a responsible society in America, but we are striving to do so."

The speaker pointed out that much of the trouble in the world today comes because many people are too lazy or indifferent to make their own decisions, leaving this to other persons who are quick to take advantage of this surrender.

He urged that colleges seek to develop each student in ways to help the individual get the most out of the world and make a maximum contribution to the common welfare.

480 Young Girls Enrolled At Bennett College

GREENSBORO

With registration day just a week off, Bennett College anticipates an enrollment of 480 young women, an increase of two over the figures for the 1956-57 academic year.

Enrollment at the college has been purposely kept around this figure because of the desire to retain the advantages of a small liberal arts college.

Freshmen and new students who reported on September 11 for a week of orientation, will register on September 16. Among them are a number of young women who are sisters of Bennett students or graduates.

Sumter Girl Joins Sister At Bennett

GREENSBORO, N. C. —With registration day just a week off, Bennett College anticipates an enrollment of 480 young women, an increase of two over the figures for the 1956-51 year.

Enrollment at the college has been purposely kept around this figure because of the desire to retain the advantages of a small liberal arts college.

Freshmen and new students who reported on September 11 for a week of orientation, will register on September 16, among them are a number of young women who are sisters of Bennett students or graduates.

In this group are Miss Saundra McBride, of Sumter, S. C., whose sister, Yvonne, is a sophomore; Miss Mary Tonkins, of Greensboro, whose sister, Deloris, is a senior; Miss Lola Campbell, of Greensboro, whose sister, Barbara, is a junior, and Miss Helen Brown, of Greensboro, who sisters, Bertha and Oshia, preseded her at Bennett.

Among foreign students entering the college this year are Miss Williametta Brooks, of Monrovia, Liberia, whose father is chaplain of the Liberian Senate, and Miss Nancy Seunghi Choi, of Seoul, Korea.

Returning Bennett students will register on September 17, with classes beginning at 8 a. m. the following day.

Bennett College is reopening for its fall semester on Sept. 11 . . . Dr. Marion R. Trabue, professor of higher education at the University of Kentucky, Lexington, Ky., is the consultant for the annual faculty-staff fall conference which gets under way at Bennett College this week.

Bennett College announces an enrollment of some 480 young women this year, an increase of two over last year . . . Morris College opened its doors for the fall term on Sept. 12.

At Bennett College

Orientation Program Opens

Orentation Week for freshmen and new students at Bennett College got underway at 3 p.m. today with a "Get Acquainted Hour" for parents in the faculty lounge of the David D. Jones Student Union.

The class of entering freshmen hails from 18 states and four foreign countries and is expected to be one of the largest in the history of the college.

Friday morning the students will get their formal introduction to the college during a program presided over by Mrs. Mary T. Coleman, President Willa B. Player will speak on "The Bennett Philosophy," Mrs. Minnie Smith on the co-curricular program; Dr. Ghaun G. Winston on faculty advisors and the academic program; Miss Amaleta Moore on the residence program and Mrs. Constance Marteena on the library.

The afternoon will be given over to the tests and a tour of the campus and at 7 p.m., a program "So This Is Bennett College," will be conducted in the recreation area of the Student Union, to be followed by a recreation period.

More tests and instruction in registration are scheduled for Saturday, and a special worship service will be held at 11 a.m. on Sunday. Registration will take place all day Monday, with returning students registering the following day. Classes begin Wednesday at 8 a.m.

Dr. Trabue to Address Bennett Conference

The average college curriculum usually represents some kind of adjustment between different points of view, Dr. Marion R. Trabue told the annual fall conference of the faculty and staff at Bennett College here last week.

Dr. Trabue, professor of higher education at the University of Kentucky at Lexington, Ky., served as conference consultant and delevered four addreses in addition to participating in discusion groups.

Pointing out that each institution will have to define for itself what its curriculum will be, Dr. Trabue warned against permitting tradition to restrict the improvement of a college curriculum and urgde that the people "who have to be involved in in administering the curriculum should also be involved n the planning of it."

Success curriculum - making, he declared, must take into consideration the needs of the modern world and the amount of preparation which each high school graduate brings to college. The desire to improve our common lot should be the most important thing, he added.

Among factors which influence curriculum making, Dr. Trabue listed public expectation of the college, purposes for which the college was founded, boards of control, faculty, and students, state, regional and national educational organizations, state departments of education and graduate schools.

"The purpose for making a curriculum study," he declared, "will have a great effect upon the results. If the study is made just to keep up with a trent, or if the president should decide that a study should be made principally to keep the faculty busy, it will be of little consequence. If, on the other hand, the study seeks to develop common points of view and to unify faculty thinking or seeks to determine whether the current curriculum is giving every student the best possible opportunity to develop his or her talents, it should be fruitful."

Keeping the college curriculum up-to-date, is a continuing task, he warned, and everyone concerned with it — on campus and in the community which the college serves — should be brought in to help solve the problems presented.

Dr. Trabue's final address, "The College and a Responsible Society," was delvered Wednesday night at the banquet attended by faculty, staff and student leaders.

Group Hears Dr. Trabue

9/14/57 News

The average college curriculum represents some kind of compromise — some adjustment between different points of view — Dr. Marion R. Trabue told the annual fall conference of the faculty and staff at Bennett College yesterday.

Dr. Trabue, professor of higher education at the University of Kentucky at Lexington, Ky., and former professor at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, delivered the first of four addresses that he will make as consultant for the conference which closes Wednesday night.

Pointing out that each institution will have to define for itself what its curriculum will be, Dr. Trabue warned against permitting tradition to restrict the development of a college curriculum and urged that the people "who have to be involved in administering the curriculum should also be involved in the planning of it."

The conference continues today with a morning session when Dr. Trabue speaks on "Problems Involved in Curriculum Study." Wednesday morning he will give an evaluative summary of the conference and that night, at the banquet of faculty, staff and student leaders, he will speak on "The College and a Responsible Society."

Bennett College To Register 480

GREENSBORO, N. C.—With registration day just a week off, Bennett College anticipates an enrollment of 480 young women, an increase of two over the figures for the 1956-56 academic year.

Enrollment at the college has been purposely kept around this figure because of the desire to retain the advantages of a small liberal arts college.

FRESHMEN AND new students who reported on September 11 for a week of orientation, will register on September 16. Among them are a number of young women who are sisters of Bennett students or graduates.

Among foreign students entering the college this year are Miss Williametta Brooks, of Monrovia, Liberia, whose father is chaplain of the Liberian Senate, and Miss Nancy Seunghi Choi, of Seoul, Korea.

RETURNING Bennett students will register on September 17, with classes beginning at 8 a. m. the following day.

Bennett Lyceum Program Announced

Three outstanding entertainment features will be offered in the 1957-58 lyceum series at Bennett College, Dr. Chauncey G. Winson, chairman, announced this week.

First of these attractions will be the Saint-Brooks Dance Company, which will give two performances in the Little Theatre, October 25 — the first at 3 p. m. and the second at 8 p. m. This group, composed of a male and two female solo dancers, has been acclaimed for its versatility in modern and classic terpsichore.

The traditional post-Thanksgiving Day concert by the Morehouse College Glee Club of Atlanta, Georgia, will be given in Pfeiffer Chapel on Friday, November 29, at 8 p. m. This group, directed by Wendell Whalum, is one of the best balanced male choral groups in college circles and has, for the past several years, been coming to Bennett at the Thanksgivig season.

Miss Mattiwilda Dobbs, colortura soprano, who has scored smashing successes on three continents, will be heard in Pfeiffer Chapel on February 4, 1958, at 8 p. m. Miss Dobbs last year made history by appearing at the Metropolitan Opera in New York City.

Bennett Students Will Hear Bryan

News 9/15/57

The Rev. John L. Bryan, director of religious activities, will conduct workshop services for freshmen at Bennett College at 11 a.m. today in the Science Assembly.

Dr. Willa B. Player, president of the college, will preside.

Speaker for the opening vesper service of the college at 4 p.m. next Sunday will be Dr. Gordon W. Lovejoy, professor of sociology at Guilford College.

Registration Set For Sept. 16 At Bennett

Greensboro Daily News 9/13/57

Greensboro, N. C.—With registration day just a week off, Bennett College anticipates an enrollment of 480 young women, an increase of two over the figures for the 1956-57 academic year.

Enrollment at the college has been purposely kept around this figure because of the desire to retain the advantages of a small liberal arts college.

Freshmen and new students who reported on Sept. 11 for a week of orientation, will register on September 16. Among them are a number of young women who are sisters of Bennett students or graduates.

In this group are Miss Sandra McBride, of sumter, S. C., whose sister, Yvonne, is a sophomore; Miss Mary Tonkins, of Greensboro, whose sister, Deloris, is a senior; Miss Lola Campbell, of Greensboro, whose sister, Barbara, is a junior, and Miss Helen Brown, of Greensboro, whose sisters, Bertha and Oshia, preceded her at Bennett.

Also in the class are Miss Linda B. Brown, of Akron, Ohio, whose sister, Barbara, was valedictorian of the 1956 class and studied in France last year on a Fullbright scholarship, and Miss Gwendolyn Mackel, of Natchez, Miss., whose sister, Lyvonne, was graduated from Bennett in 1953.

Among foreign students entering the college this year are Miss Williametta Brooks, of Monrovia, Liberia, whose father is chaplain of the Liberian Senate, and Miss Nancy Seunghi Choi, of Seoul, Korea.

Returning Bennett students will register on Sept. 17, with classes beginning at 8 a.m. the following day.

2 foreign students enroll at Bennett

Post 9/16/57

GREENSBORO, N.C.—Some 480 young women—an increase of two over last year's figures—are expected to register at Bennett College on Monday and Tuesday. Classes will begin on Wednesday.

Among freshmen reporting this week were two foreign students. They are Miss Williametta Brooks of Monrovia, Liberia, and Miss Nancy Seunghi Choi of Seoul, Korea. Miss Brooks' father is chaplain of the Liberian Senate.

Ky. Educator Speaks At Bennett Staff Meeting

Post 9/14/57

GREENSBORO, N. C. —The average college curriculum usually represents some kind of adjustment between different points of view, Dr. Marion R. Trabue told the annual fall conference of the faculty and staff at Bennett College here last week.

Dr. Trabue, professor of higher education at the University of Kentucky at Lexington, Ky., served as conference consultant and delivered four addresses in addition to groups.

* * *

SUCCESSFUL curriculum making, he declared, must take into consideration the needs of the modern world and the amount of preparation which each high school graduate brings to college. The desire to improve our common lot should be the most important thing, he added.

Dr. Lovejoy To Speak At Bennett

GREENSBORO, N. C. — Dr. Gordon W. Lovejoy, professor of sociology at Guilford College here, will speak at the opening vesper service at Bennett College on Sunday, September 22, at 4 p.m. in Pfeiffer Chapel.

No stranger to the Bennett campus, Dr. Lovejoy, two years ago, spoke at the banquet which marked the close of the annual faculty-staff fall conference.

* * *

THE FOLLOWING Sunday, September 29, is Annie Merner Pfeiffer Memorial Day in memory of the college's most liberal benefactress. Speaker for that occasion will be Mrs. John M. Pearson, chairman of the Department of Work in Foreign Fields of the Woman's Division of Christian Service, of Newburgh, N. Y.

Orientation Week Ends At Bennett With 3 Events

News 9/16/57

Orientation Week for freshmen and new students at Bennett College ended with three events yesterday.

At 11 a.m. in the Science Assembly, they attended a worship service and heard the Rev. John L. Bryan, director of religious activities, speak on "Jesus, The Learner."

The minister pointed out that while Jesus was The Great Teacher, He also was a learner. "He learned obedience through what He endured and He had an inquisitive mind," he said.

Referring to the students as youthful future citizens and urging them to aim high, the Rev. Mr. Bryan said: "Here at Bennett, we have an atmosphere in which we, too, like Jesus, may increase in wisdom, in stature and in favor with God and man."

At 4 p.m. in Pfeiffer Chapel, the students heard members of the music and drama facilities in a program of music and verse. Participants included Clarence E. Whiteman, organist; Mrs. Nina Kudrik, pianist; Mrs. Jane Hierich, pianist; Miss Anne Jenkins, reader, and Mrs. Mary Moore Crawford, soprano.

From 7 to 9 p.m., they attended a reception at the home of President Willa B. Player, where they had an opportunity to meet the members of the faculty and staff.

Monday, September 16, 1957 Record

Colleges Get Into Swing Of Academic Year Here

Greensboro area colleges got into the full swing of the academic year today.

Freshmen at Woman's College resumed tests, tours and tryouts and registration for all students will be held tomorrow and Wednesday with classes beginning Thursday.

A program by the Student Government Assn. is planned for tonight.

With freshmen already installed, Greensboro College upperclassmen returned yesterday. The total enrollment at the college is 475, including 50 men students. Classes will begin tomorrow morning.

The annual faculty reception for new GC students will be held Wednesday and society rushing begins Friday.

Today 196 freshmen and 51 transfer students were expected for the first day of orientation at Guilford College. Upperclassmen return Thursday and classes begin Friday. The first student convocation was scheduled for 2:45 p.m. today. An enrollment of about 700 students is expected this year.

A&T College students began classes today. More than 2,200 students had registered by Saturday and a few more registrations were expected before classes began.

New students at Bennett College registered today with returning students registering tomorrow and classes beginning Wednesday. While total registration figures were not available, this year's freshman class is reported to be one of the largest in the college's history

Dr. Willa B. Player, president of Bennett College, Greensboro, N. C., attended sessions of the National Council on Religion in Higher Education held Aug. 20-26 at Dickinson College, Carlilse, Pa.

Dr. Player, who is a Kent Fellow of the council, is also a member of the North Carolina State Advisory Council on Higher Education and member-at-large of the executive committee of the North Carolina Council of Churches.

MRS. BERNICE H. INGRAM announces the engagement of her daughter, Carolyn Monje to Lt. Theodore B. Thornton, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Thornton of this city. The wedding is scheduled for November 2.

Mrs. Pearson Speaks At Bennett

GREENSBORO, N. C. — If one does not give when he has little, he is not likely to when he has much, Mrs. John M. Pearson, of New York City, said Sunday at Bennett College during memorial services for Mrs. Annie Merner Pfeiffer.

Mrs. Pearson, who is chairman of the Department of Work in Foreign Fields of the Woman's Division of Christian Service of the Methodist Church, spoke on "Build Not for One Brief Day." It was her first visit in 20 years to Bennett College, where five structures bear the Pfeiffer name.

• • •

IN EULOGIZING Mrs. Pfeiffer and her husband, Henry Pfeiffer, the speaker related that, despite their great wealth, they lived frugally and humbly.

She told of their benefactions both here and in foreign lands —to churches, hospitals, schools, YMCA's and children's homes in such far-away places as Brazil, India and Korea. "Mr. and Mrs. Pfeiffer," she said, "believed that their great wealth was a trust from God and their gifts were made without thought of race, color or creed."

• • •

SPEAKING DIRECTLY to students, Mrs. Pearson said: "Most of us will not have millions of dollars, but each of us has something to give—brains, talent, love, faith and goodness. You can begin your truly adult life right here at this college, keeping in mind that it is not what you get, but what you give that counts most."

Bennett College Vesper Speaker:

"Modern Man Overlooks Jesus Christ," Dr. Gordon W. Lovejoy Tells Audience

GREENSBORO — "Modern man as he seeks to overcome his fears, is overlooking one simple way — the way of Jesus Christ," Dr. Gordan W. Lovejoy told the Bennett College vesper audience Sunday in Pfeiffer Chapel.

Dr. Lovejoy, professor of sociology at Guilford College, traced the fears of man from early history to the present to demonstrate that fear has always been present in man.

"Today," he illustrated, "we live in fear of economic security, of atomic destruction of new patterns in human relationships and in fear of not being successful — as judged by man-made standards. Because we live in fear, we are a bewildered people".

Some people seek to allay their fears by plunging into a whirl of social activities, others turn to books which they hope will tell them how to find happiness and success, and still others turn to psychiatry or tranquilizing pills, the speaker declared.

"But these ways," he explained, "are all ways of the flesh, and they will soon perish. But there is a way if we will follow the message of The Man of Galilee. By accepting Christ and by giving ourselves to Him, we will find that peace which passeth all understanding."

Dr. Lovejoy cautioned his listeners, however, that this will be no easy task because ours is a society which sneers at the turned cheek and the concept of the second mile. It asks: "Is it ethically expedient?" and not: "Is it morally right or wrong."

Dr. W. B. Player Addresses Bennett Students, Faculty

GREENSBORO — The final address in a series of three to the Bennett College student body was delivered by President Willa B. Player in Pfeiffer Chapel, Monday morning.

Speaking on "Responsibility," Dr. Player explained to the students that their responsibilities at the college lay in three broad areas, namely, responsibility in carrying out routines, responsibility to recognize their assets and limitations and responsibility to make creative contributions to the life of the campus.

"We are living in a time of dangerous irresponsibility," Dr. Player declared. "The tie that binds us to our college is responsibility and, as you become deeply involved in an enterprise, you want to see it through."

At two previous chapel meetings, Dr. Player spoke on "The Challenges Which Face Us" and "Values." In each of the addresses, she urged the students to develop maturity and a broad outlook upon life and its problems.

VESPER SPEAKER

Dr. E. Clayton Calhoun, president of Paine College, Augusta, Georgia, will speak at the Bennett College vesper service on Sunday, October 20, at 4 p. m. in Pfeiffer Chapel.

A Step Out Of Time ⟶

MISS ELISHMA MADISON, of Miami, Fla., a freshman at Bennett college in Greensboro, N. C., provides relief from Arkansas school crisis. In this picture she howls with pain after clumsy dancing partner at get-acquainted dance stepped on her foot. But to her, it was no laughing matter at the moment this picture was taken.

East Meets West—Mrs. John M. Pearson of New York City, chairman of the Department of Work in Foreign Fields, Women's Division of Christian Service of the Methodist Church, who spoke at the Annie Merner Pfeiffer memorial service at Bennett College, meets two of Bennett's Korean students, Hie Sook Hong (left) and Nancy Seunghi Choi, both of Seoul, Korea.

Gifts Of More Than $170,000 Are Reported At Bennett Trustee Meet

GREENSBORO

Total gifts and grants in excess of $175,000 were reported during the annual meeting of the Bennett College board of rtustees at the college Saturad.y

This sum, representing an increase slightly over $99,000 in these categories over the past year, includes a grant of $67,000 for faculty salaries from the Ford Foundatoin, the second installment of a grant of $127,000 made for this purpose.

An increase of over $11,000 in Race Relations offering for Bennett from supporting conferences of the Methodist Church was noted.

President Willa B. Player, in her annual report, informed the trustees of the highly successful student exchange programs instituted last year between Bennett and Sarah Lawrence College, Bronxville, N. Y., and Ohio Wesleyan University, Delaware, Ohio. The trustees were unanimous in their approval of this program as a means of strengthneing interracial understanding on the part of American youth and recommended that it be strengthened for this school year.

Two trustees—Bishop Edgar A. Love, of Baltimore, Md., and Mrs. Harry E. James, of New York City—were re-elected to terms ending in 1961. Dr. Carl King, of Salisbury, executive secretary of the Board of Education of the Western North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Church, attended his first meeting as a trustee. He was elected last year.

B. C. FRESHMEN PRESENT TALENT SHOW

Representatives from North Carolina, Tennessee, Florida, Ohio, New York and District of Columbia provided the bulk of the talent in the annual Freshman Talent Show at Bennett College, Saturday night in the Little Theatre.

Pianists, sopranos, creative dancers and vocal groups, one billing themselves as the "Dee Cee Trio", performed before a "Standing Room Only" audience.

Miss Robbie Walton of Clarksville, Tenn., showed versatility by singing a soprano solo, singing with a nensemble, and performing an interpretive dance. Miss Gloria McKnight, of Ganiesville, Florida, obliged with a creative dance, while Miss Elishama Madison, of Miami, Florida, scored with h humorous monologue.

Pianists included Misses Marian Simmons, Fayetteville, Sandra Whitfield, New York City, and Lois Johnson, Washington, D. C. Two fellow Washingtonians — Misses Sandra Boozer and Judy Gordon, teamed with Miss Eunice Hawkins of Brandywine, Md., to form the "Dee Cee Trio" which was roundly applauded in two popular numbers.

In addition to Miss Carole Watson, soprano, of Castalia, N. C., vocal music was provided by a sextette composed of Misses Peggy Alexander, Fort Pierce, Fla.; Helen Brown, Greensboro; Linda Brown, Akron, Ohio; Carolyn Davis, Columbus, Ohio; Robbie Walton, Clarksville, Tenn., and Delores Finger, Hickory, N. C.

Speaker

GREENSBORO

Speaker for the vesper service at Bennett College on Sunday, October 13, will be Dr. Frederick D. Patterson of New York City, chairman of the college trustee board.

Dr. Patterson, former president of Tuskegee Institute, is director of the Phelps-Stokes Fund and president of the United College Fund.

FRESHMAN THEATRE GUILD ELECT OFFICERS

Miss Elishma Madison of Miami, Florida, has been elected president of the Freshman Theater Guild of Bennett College.

Other officers elected are: Misses Doris Neely, vice-president, Charlotte; Shirley Dismuke, secretary, Vandergrift, Pennsylvania; Gwendolyn Mackel, treasurer, Chicago, Illinois; and Barbara Philson, parliamentarian, Charlotte.

VESPER SPEAKER

Dr. Franklin H. McNutt, associated dean of the graduate school at Woman's College, here, will speak at the Bennett College Vesper service on Sunday, November 10, at 4 p. m. in Pfeiffer Chapel.

MISS LINDA BROWN of Akron, Ohio, is greeted by President Willa B. Player of Bennett college during the President's reception for freshmen. Two of Linda's sisters, Doloris and Barbara, are graduates of the college.

East Meets West

Mrs. John M. Pearson of New York City, chairman of the Department of Work in Foreign Fields, of the Woman's Division of Christian Service of the Methodist Church, who spoke at the Annie Merner Pfeiffer Memorial Service at Bennett College, meets two of Bennett's Korean students, both of whom attended schools in their native land which have been aided by the Methodist Church. The students are Misses Hie Sook Hong (left) and Nancy Seunghi Choi, both of Seoul, Korea.

HEALTH EXAMINATIONS for the entire student body at Bennett College were given by a team of physicians from Meharry Medical College, Nashville, Tenn., headed by Dr. Dorothy Brown, a Bennett graduate . . .

Dr. Emory Ross Speaks At Bennett

"If all preceding generation had done successfully everything that there was to be done, life for us would be exceedingly dull," Dr. Emory Ross, of New York City, declared at the Bennett College vesper service Sunday morning.

Dr. Ross, who is consultant for the Board of Fundamental Education, and treasurer of the Albert Schweitzer Fellowship, has also served for many years as a missionary in Africa.

"God challenges us in every age," he said, "to make the greatest possible contribution, built upon the foundation that has been left us by the past. What we do may not be measured in our time, but may aid future generations to do their job better."

GAL 9 — Future Outlook

The speaker told of four persons "of character, courage and Christianity" whose lives influenced his own career. One was a Britisher, the first person in world history to do something about leprosy in India and the second was Dr. Schweitzer, the medical missionary in Africa.

The third person was Dr. Larry Mellon, who, with his wife, established a two-million dollar hospital in Haiti, named in honor of Dr. Schweitzer and the fourth, an American Negro — Jacob Kenoly — a former schoolmate, whom he succeeded as head of a school in Monrovia, Liberia, following Kenoly's tragic death by drowning.

"They answered God's challenge to make their highest possible contribution in their generation. They laid a foundation upon which the present generation can continue to build."

EAST MEETS WEST — Mrs. John M. Pearson, N.Y.C., chairman of department of work in foreign fields of Woman's Division of Christian Service, Methodist Church, recent Bennett College speaker, meets two of Bennett's Korean students, Misses Hie Sook Hong, left, and Nancy Seunghi Choi, both of Seoul. Both attended Methodist - aided schools in Korea.

DR. GORDON LOVEJOY BENNETT VESPER SPEAKER

"Modern man, as he seeks to overcome his fears, is overlooking one simple way — the way of Jesus Christ," Dr. Gordan W. Lovejoy told the Bennett College vesper audience Sunday in Pfeiffer Chapel.

Dr. Lovejoy, professor of sociology at Guilford College, traced the fears of man from early history to the present to demonstrate that fear has always been present in man.

"Today," he illustrated, "we live in fear of economic security, of atomic destruction, of new patterns in human relationships and in fear of not being successful — as judged by man-made standards. Because we live in fear, we are a bewildered people."

Some people seek to allay their fears by plunging into a whirl of social activities, others turn to books which they hope will tell them how to find happiness and success, and still others turn to psychiatry or tranquilizing pills, the speaker declared.

"But these ways," he explained, "are all ways of the flesh and they will soon perish. But there is a way if we will follow the message of The Man of Galilee. By accepting Christ and by giving ourselves to Him, we will find that peace which passeth all understanding."

Dr. Lovejoy cautioned his listeners, however, that this will be no easy task because ours is a society which sneers at the turned check and the concept of the second mile. It asks: "Is it ethically expedient?" and not: "Is it morally right or wrong?"

Dr. Ira Reid To Speak At Bennett Founder's Day

GREENSBORO, N. C. —Dr. Ira D. Reid, one of the nation's leading social scientists, will deliver the principal address when Bennett College holds its annual Founder's Day services in Pfeiffer Chapel, Sunday, November 3, at 4 p. m.

Dr. Reid, professor of sociology, at Haverford College, Haverford, Pa., since 1947, has had a distinguished career in education, in social welfare work, and in research.

Bennett College was founded as a co-educational institution in 1873. It became a college for women in 1926, at which time, the late Dr. David D. Jones, became its president, serving until 1955, when he was succeeded by Dr. Willa B. Player.

• • •

SINCE 1926, Bennett has graduated over 1,740 young women, the majority of whom are teachers and homemakers. Many, however, have been attracted to the professions and hold graduate degrees from leading universities and professional schools.

Bennett College students begin practice teaching

GREENSBORO, N.C. — Twenty-two elementary education majors at Bennett College began their nine-week period of practice teaching in the Greensboro public schools last week.

In addition to these, students who have been assigned to five local schools, another member, Miss Edith Kernodle, of Elon College, will teach in Caswell County.

Mrs. Mary Coleman, elementary education instructor, made local assignments as follows:

• • •

WASHINGTON STREET School: Misses Eva Evans, Trinity; Martel Smith, Summerfield; Muriel Darrell, Flatts, Bermuda; Helen Beckett, Bowling Green, Ky.; Charlotte Jackson, Lima, Ohio; Lola McAdoo, Greensboro; Juanita Philson, Charlotte; Ann Saunders, Gastonia and Shirley Moore, Camden, N.J.

Bluford School: Misses Beula Demons, Loretta Richmond, Ruby Harris, and Betty McLean, all of Greensboro.

Jonesboro School: Misses Betty Bragg, Greessboro and Patricia Hopkins, Miami, Fla.

J. C. PRICE SCHOOL: Misses Emma Blackstock, Leaksville; Gertrude Smith, Greensboro; Barbara Hammond, Winston-Salem; Sonja Weldon Chicago, and Sonia Louden, Cincinnati.

Charles Moore: Misses Shirley Woods, Graham, and Bertha Smith, Cincinnati.

EAST MEETS WEST — Mrs. John M. Pearson (center) chairman of the department of Work in Foreign Fields, women's division, Methodist church, meets two Korean students of Bennett college, Greensboro, N. C. Mrs. Pearson spoke at Annie Merner Pfeiffer memorial services at Bennett. Students are Misses Hie Sook Hong and Nancy Seunghi Choi, of Seoul, Korea.

Call & Post 9/28/57

CONTINUING A TRADITION: Greensboro, N. C.—Miss Linda Brown of Akron is greeted by Bennett College President, Dr. Willa B. Player, during her recent reception for freshmen. Two sisters, Delores and Barbara, are Bennett graduates.

Courier-10/5/57

DEE CEE TRIO SCORES—These three young women, two of them from Washington, D. C., and one "adopted" from Upper Marlboro, Md., scored a big hit with their rendition of two popular numbers during the freshman talent show at Bennett College Saturday night. Left to right: Judith Gordon, a graduate of Spingarn High School, Washington, D. C.; Sandra Boozer of Douglass High School, Upper Marlboro, Md., and [illegible] Hawkins, another Spingarn graduate.

At Bennett:

Dr. Trabue Gives Four Addresses

GREENSBORO — The average college curriculum usually represents some kind of adjustment between different points of view, Dr. Marion R. Trabue told the annual fall conference of the faculty and staff at Bennett College here last week.

Dr. Trabue, proessor of higher education at the University of Kentucky at Lexington, Ky., served as conference consulatant and delivered four addresses in addition to participating in discussion groups.

Pointing out that each institution will have to define for itself what is curriculum will be, Dr. Trabue warned against permitting tradition to restrict the improvement of a college curriculum and urged that the people "who have to be involved in administering the curriculum should also be involved in the planning of it."

Successful curriculum-making, he declared, must take into consideration the needs of the modern world and the amount of preparation which each high school graduate brings to college. The desire to improve our common lot should be the most important thing, he added.

Among factors which influence curriculum making, Dr. Trabue listed public expectation of the college, purposes for which the college was founded, boards of control, faculty and students, state, regional and national educational organizations, state departments of education and graduate schools.

"The purpose for making a curriculum study," he declared," "will have a great effect upon the results. If the study is made just to keep up with a trentd, or if the president should decide that a study should be made principally to keep the faculty busy, it will be of little consequence. If, on the other hand, the study seeks to develop common points of view

Lyceum Series Features Three Entertainers

GREENSBORO — Three outstanding entertainment features will be offered in the 1957-58 lyceum series at Bennett College, Dr. Chauncey G. Winston, chairman, announced this week.

First of these attractions will be the Munt-Brooks Dance Company, which will give two performances in the Little Theatre, October 25—the first at 3 p.m. and the second at 8 pm. This group, composed of a male and two female solo dancers, has been acclaimed for its versatility in modern and classic terpsichore.

The traditional post-Thanksgiving Day concert by the Morehouse College Glee Club of Atlanta, Georgia, will be given in Pfeiffer Chapel on Friday, November 29, at 8 p.m. This group, directed by Wendell Whalum, is one of the best balanced male choral groups in college circles and has for the past several years been coming to Bennett at the Thanksgiving season.

Miss Mattiwilda Dobbs, coloratura soprano, who has scored smashing successes on three continents, will be heard in Pfeiffer Chapel on February 4, 1958, at 8 p.m. Miss Dobbs last year made history by appearing at the Metropolitan Opera in New York City.

Raleigh Times 9/28/57

INDUCTION CEREMONY---Members of the 1957 graduating class at Bennett College, Greensboro, N. C., are shown as they were inducted into the Graduate Association during an impressive candlelight ceremony in the David D. Jones Student Union. On extreme left of front row is Miss Doris Lanier, of Bath, N. C., permanent president of the class.

Special Services Set At College

Services memorializing Mrs. Annie Merner Pfeiffer, whose benefactions contributed to the physical development of Bennett College will be held at 4 p.m. today in the chapel which bears her name.

The address will be delivered by Mrs. John M. Pearson, of Newburgh, N.Y., chairman of the department of Work in Foreign Fields of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist Church. A tribute to Mrs. Pfeiffer will be given by Miss Peggy Cofield, a senior of Kinston, and a classmate, Miss Barbara J. Hickman of Freeport, Ill., will read the scripture.

Miss Barbara Hunt, a 1952 graduate, now a member of the college faculty, will also deliver a tribute and Mrs. Annabelle K. Gamble of the class of '45, an employe of the State Agriculture Extension Service at A&T College, will read the litnay of gratitude.

Special music by the senior choir, directed by Mrs. Mary Moore Crawford with Clarence Whiteman at the organ, is planned. News 9/29/57

Freshmen in talent show

Afro 10/5/57

GREENSBORO, N.C. — Representatives from North Carolian, Tennessee, Florida, Ohio, New York and the District of Columbia provided the bulk of the talent in the annual Freshman Talent Show at Bennett College last Saturday night in the Little Theatre.

Participants included Miss Robbie Walton of Clarksville, Tenn., soprano solo singing with an ensemble, and performing an interpretive dance; Miss Gloria McKnight of Gainesville, Fla., creative dance; Miss Elishama Madison of Miami, Fla., scored with a humorous monologue.

Pianists included Miss Marian Simmons, Fayetteville; Sandra Whitfield, NYC, and Lois Johnson, Washington and a Miss Carole Watson, Cataba, soprano soloist.

* * *

TWO FELLOW Washingtonians — Misses Sandra Boozer and Judy Gordon — teamed with Miss Eunice Hawkins of Bradywine, Md., to form the "Dee Cee Trio" which was roundly applauded in two popular numbers.

Vocal music also was provided by a sextette composed of Misses Peggy Alexander, Fort Pierce, Fla.; Helen Brown, Greensboro; Linda Brown, Akron, Ohio; Carolyn Davis, Columbus, Ohio; Robbie Walton, Clarksville, Tenn. and Dolores Finger, Hickory, N.C.

GIFT TO COLLEGE---Standing beside electric drinking fountain, gift of the 1957 graduating class to Bennett College, Misses Annette Slaughter, Valedictorian, of Newport, Ky. and Doris Lanier, president of the class, of Bath, N. C. Fountain will be installed in Holgate Library.

Talent Show

Afro 10/5/57

Students from North Carolina, Tennessee, Florida, Ohio, New York and the District of Columbia provided the bulk of the talent in the annual Freshman Talent Show at Bennett College, Saturday night in the Little Theatre.

Pianists, sopranos, creative dancers and vocal groups, one billing themselves as the "Dee Cee Trio", performed before a "Standing Room Only" audience.

Miss Robbie Walton of Clarksville, Tenn., showed versatility by singing a soprano solo, singing with an ensemble, and performing an interpretive dance. Miss Gloria McKnight, of Gainesville, Fla., obliged with a creative dance, while Miss Elishama Madison, of Miami, Florida, scored with a humorous monologue.

Pianists included Misses Marian Simmons, Fayetteville; Sandra Whitfield, New York City, and Lois Johnson, Washington, D. C. Two fellow Washingtonians, Misses Sandra Boozer and Judy Gordon, teamed with Miss Eunice Hawkins of Bradywine, Md., to form the "Dee Cee Trio" which was roundly applauded in two popular numbers.

In addition to Miss Carole Watson, soprano, of Castalia, N. C., vocal music was provided by a sextette composed of Misses Peggy Alexander, Fort Pierce, Fla.; Helen Brown, Greensboro; Linda Brown, Akron, Ohio; Carolyn Davis, Columbus, Ohio; Robbie Walton, Clarksville, Tenn., and Dolores Finger, Hickory, N.

Mrs. Pearson Eulogizes Pfeiffers

News 9/30/57

If one does not give when he has little, he is not likely to when he has much, Mrs. John M. Pearson, of New York City, said yesterday at Bennett College during memorial services for Mrs. Annie Merner Pfeiffer.

Mrs. Pearson, who is chairman of the Department of Work in Foreign Fields of the Woman's [illegible] of Christian Service of [illegible] Methodist Church, spoke on [illegible]t For One Brief D[illegible] first visit in 20[illegible] College, wher[illegible] bar the Pfeiffe[illegible] [illegible]g Mrs. Pfe[illegible] husband Henry Pf[illegible] related that, de[illegible] great wealth, they lived [illegible] and humbly.

She told of their bene[illegible] both here and in foreign [illegible] to churches, hospitals, [illegible] YMCA's and children's ho[illegible] such far-away places as [illegible] India and Korea. "Mr. and [illegible] Pfeiffer," she said, "bel[illegible] that their great wealth was [illegible] trust from God and their g[illegible] were made without thought [illegible] frugally and humbly.

She told of their benefactions both here and in foreign lands—to churches, hospitals, schools, YMCA's and children's homes in such far-away places as Brazil, India and Korea. "Mr. and Mrs. Pfeiffer," she said, "believed that their great wealth was a trust from God and their gifts were made without thought of race, color or creed."

Speaking directly to the students, Mrs. Pearson said:

"Most of us will not have millions of dollars, but each of us has something to give — brains, talent, love, faith and goodness. You can begin your truly adult life right here at this college, keeping in mind that it is not what you get, but what you give that counts most."

New Yorker Speaks At Bennett College

"If all preceding generations had done successfully everything that there was to be done, life for us would be exceedingly dull," Dr. Emory Ross of New York City said at the Bennett College vesper service yesterday morning.

Dr. Ross, who is consultant for the Board of Fundamental Education and treasurer of the Albert Schweitzer Fellowship, has also served for many years as a missionary in Africa.

"God challenges us in every age," he said, "to make the greatest possible contribution, built upon the foundation that has been left us by the past. What we do may not be measured in our time, but may aid future generations to do their job better," he said. News 10/7/57

DR. ROSS TO SPEAK

Dr. Emory Ross of New York, N.Y., consultant for the Board of Fundamental Education, will speak today at the vesper service at Bennett College at 11 a.m. in Pfeiffer Chapel.

Bennett Registers Largest Class In Its History

9-28-57 Charlotte Tribune

Greensboro, N. C.—One of the largest classes in its history—160—completed registration at Bennett College last week.

In addition to these students, who come from 18 states and four foreign countries, there are a number of students with advanced standing entering college for the first time.

The class of 1961 includes 11 girls who were valedictorians in high school and seven who were salutatorians. It also includes one set of sisters and 14 freshmen who either have sisters at Bennett or sisters who are Bennett graduates.

Miss Anne Elizabeth Harris, of Greensboro, is the fourth in her family to enroll at Bennett. She is the sister of Misses Gwendolyn and Dorothy Harris, twins, who were members of the class of 1957. Another sister, Joyce, is a sophomore majoring in home economics.

Three other freshmen, Misses Linda B. Brown, of Akron, Ohio; Helen W. Brown, Greensboro, N. C., and Gwendolyn Mackel, of Chicago, Ill., represent the third member of their respective families to enroll at Bennett. Jacqueline B. and Elizabeth D. Daise of Wilmington, N. C., are the two sisters who registered last week.

Other students who have sisters in school or sisters who have graduated are: Misses Saundra L. McBride, Sumter, S. C.; Barbara J. Philson, Charlotte; Iris Jeffries, Burlington; Barbara J. Speas, Winston-Salem; Avis L. McCarther, Mt. Airy; Louise H. Turner, New Orleans; Shirley Thompson, St. Pauls and Mary Tonkins, Kay Frances Henry, and Lola Campbell, all of Greensboro.

BENNETT SENIOR WINS HONORS 10/5/57

Miss Geneva Baldwin, of Pittsboro, N. C., a senior at Bennett College, was notified this week that she won sixth honors in the Roberts Series of Awards for Editorial Writing by College Students conducted by the Intercollegiate Association for the Study of the Alcohol Problem, of Columbus, Ohio.

VESPER SPEAKER 10/5/57

Speaker for the Vesper service at Bennett College on Sunday, October 13, will be Dr. Frederick D. Patterson, of New York City, chairman of the college trustee board.

Dr. Patterson, former president of Tuskegee Institute, is director of the Phelps-Stokes Fund and president of the United Negro College Fund.

WASHINGTON BUSINESS MAN ADDRESS BENNETT STUDENTS 10/5/57

Education is essentially a process of eliminating the bad and strengthening the good in life, John R. Pinkett, Washington, D. C., business man told Bennett College students here Friday.

Speaking in Pfeiffer Chapel, Mr. Pinkett, an insurance and real estate man, urged the students to cultivate the art of making friends on all levels and to have the "tomorrow" instead of the "yesterday" point of view.

NEW WORKERS AT BENNETT — Eleven additions to the faculty and staff at Bennett College, Greensboro, N.C., are pictured here. Reading left to right from bottom step are: Mrs. Mary H. Knox, secretary, public relations office; Miss Margarie Mays, assistant in records office; Mrs. Dollie Turner, physical education (dance); second row: Miss Barbara Hunt, library science; Mrs. Gertrude Pryor, commercial education; Mrs. Mary C. Hughes, director of Barge Hall; third row: Miss Georgie Latimer, English; Miss Joyce Johnson, physical education (sports); Miss B. LaConyea Butler, psychology; Willie Leon Young, biology; and Miss Anne Jenkins, speech and drama.

Afro 10/5/57

Bennett Talent Show Plays To SRO Audience

Carolina Times 10/5/57

GREENSBORO

Representatives from North Carolina, Tennessee, Florida, Ohio, New York and the District of Columbia provided the bulk of the talent in the annual Freshman Talent Show at Bennett College, Saturday night in the Little Theatre.

Pianists, sopranos, creative dancers and vocal groups, one billing themselves as the "Dee Cee Trio", performed before a "Standing Room Only" audience.

Miss Robbie Walton of Clarksville, Tenn., showed versatility by singing a soprano solo, singing with an ensemble, and performing an interpretive dance. Miss Gloria McKnight, of Gainsville, Florida, obliged with a creative dance.

Bennett Head In Final Talk

10/5/57 Carolina Times

GREENSBORO

The final address in a series of three to the Bennett College student body was delivered by President Willa B. Player in Pfeiffer Chapel, Monday morning.

Speaking on "Responsibility," Dr. Player explained to the students that their responsibilities at the college lay in three broad areas, namely, responsibility in carrying out routines, responsibility to recognize their assets and limitations and responsibility to make creative contribution to the life of the campus.

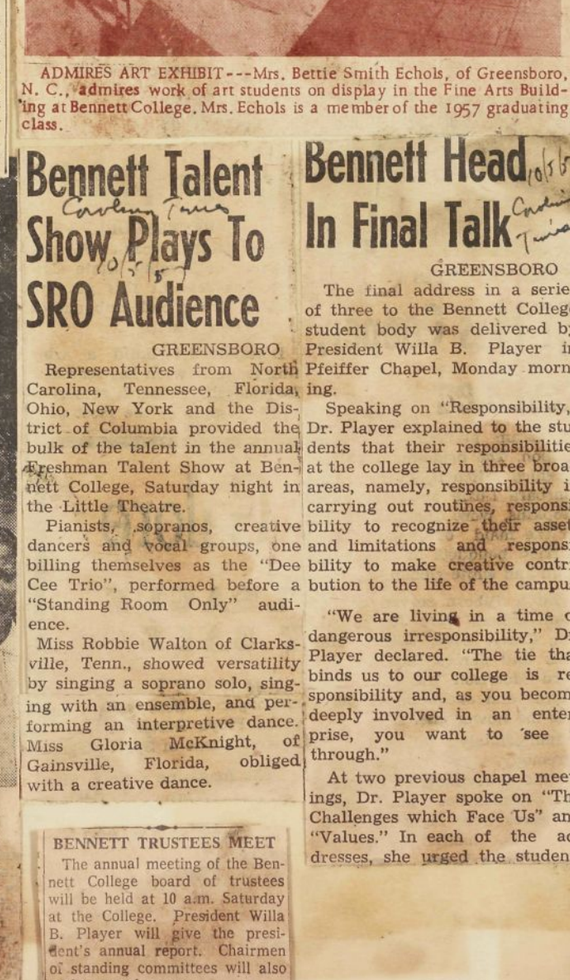

"We are living in a time of dangerous irresponsibility," Dr. Player declared. "The tie that binds us to our college is responsibility and, as you become deeply involved in an enterprise, you want to see it through."

At two previous chapel meetings, Dr. Player spoke on "The Challenges which Face Us" and "Values." In each of the addresses, she urged the students

BENNETT TRUSTEES MEET

The annual meeting of the Bennett College board of trustees will be held at 10 a.m. Saturday at the College. President Willa B. Player will give the president's annual report. Chairmen of standing committees will also make annual reports.

19/11/57 Greensboro Daily News

ADMIRES ART EXHIBIT---Mrs. Bettie Smith Echols, of Greensboro, N. C., admires work of art students on display in the Fine Arts Building at Bennett College. Mrs. Echols is a member of the 1957 graduating class.

Courier-10/5/57

'Ouch! My Foot!'—Elishma Madison of Miami, Fla., tries to smile through the discomfiture of having her foot stepped upon by a clumsy dancing partner during monologue which she delivered as a part of the freshman talent show at Bennett College.

Julius Rosenwald

Memorial Services Held At Bennett For Mrs. Pfeiffer

10/3/57

If one does not give when he has little, he is not likely to when he has much, Mrs. John M. Pearson, of New York City, said Sunday at Bennett College during memorial services for Mrs. Annie Merner Pfeiffer.

Mrs. Pearson, who is chairman of the Department of Work in Foreign Fields of the Woman's Division of Christian Service of the Methodist Church, spoke on "Build Not for One Brief Day." It was her first visit in 20 years to Bennett College, where five structures bear the Pfeiffer name.

In eulogizing Mrs. Pfeiffer and her husband, Henry Pfeiffer, the speaker related that, despite their great wealth, they lived

GOOD WILL CLUB

The regular meeting of the Good Will club met in the home of Mrs. Annie Denny, 417 E. Lee street, Tuesday, September 10th at 8:00 p. m.

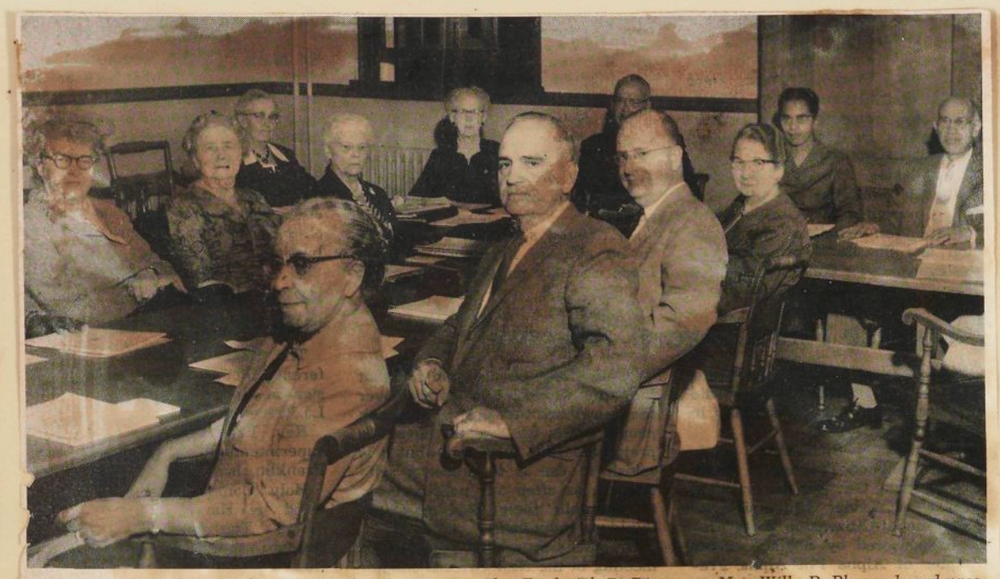

The meeting was open with a song and the Lord's Prayer and plans were made for the club's annual tea. The date, time and place for the tea will be announced at a later date.

The hostess served the ten members present a repast of tuna salad, ritz crackers, Cherry punch and cocanut cake.

The next meeting will be held in the home of Mrs. Virginia

VESPER SPEAKER

GREENSBORO, N. C.—Mrs. M. E. Tilley of Atlanta, Ga., director of women's work for the Southern Regional Council, Inc., will speak at the Bennett College vesper service on Sunday, March 9.

Bennett College board of trustees closed out annual meeting recently at the famed Greensboro, N. C., institution. Among those attending were, from left to right, Margaret Forsyth, Mrs. Millard L. Robinson, Mrs. Harry James, Mrs. J. G. Meidenbauer, Mrs. H. C. Black, Dr. Frederick D. Patterson, Mrs. Willa B. Player, board president; Bishop Edgar A. Love, Mrs. J. M. Rhodeheaver, Dr. Earl V. Tolley, the Rev. Carl King, and Mrs. Robert K. Gordon. Not shown in the above picture are Dr. John A. Tarpley, Mrs. Julus W. Cone, and Muriel Day.

Gift Of $4,454 Made To College By Methodists.

Members of the North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Church reported a gift of $4,454 to Bennett College when they held their annual "Roll Call" meeting at the college yesterday. Bishop Edgar A. Love, of the Baltimore Area, presided and received reports from the four district superintendents.

The Greensboro district, headed by the Rev. W. T. Brown, reported the largest amount—$1,440—for Bennett, with the Winston district, headed by the Rev. L. A. Brown, close behind with $1,354 for the college. The Western district, headed by the Rev. H. W. Phillips, gave Bennett $903 while the Laurinburg district headed by the Rev. R. C. Sharpe, contributed $737.

Last year the conference gift to Bennett was $4,286. The four districts this year raised a total of $32,919.67 for all purposes.

The 100 ministers, laymen and their wives were welcomed to the college by President Willa B. Player and later were guests of the college at a luncheon in the David D. Jones Student Union.

...ring campus of Bennett College, Mrs. J. G. Meidenbauer, treasurer of ...ege's board of trustees, visits sewing class after close of a board session.

R. MORDECAI JOHNSON TO PEAK AT EMEMBRANCE SERVICE

Dr. Mordecai W. Johnson, esident of Howard University, ashington, D. C., will deliver e address when the second an- ial remembrance service for r. David D. Jones will be held Bennett College, Sunday, Jan- ary 12, in Pfefifer Chapel.

Dr. Jones served as president the college from 1926 to 1955 nd as president emeritus from 1955 until his death in 1956.

Speaker at the first service of remembrance was Dr. Henry Hitt Crane, pastor of the Central Methodist Church of Detroit, Michigan, a long-time Bennett trustee and a schoolmate and friend of the late educator.

Dr. Johnson, who holds degrees from Morehouse College, the University of Chicago and Harvard University, has been president of Howard since 1926. He is widely traveled, both in this country and abroad, and is considered one of the nation's most outstanding public speakers.

Bennett Freshmen Get Into The College 'Swing Of Things'

ENJOYING AUTUMN AIR---These two Bennett College freshmen -- Misses Lola Campbell and Kay Frances Henry, of Greensboro, model what the well-dressed college girl is wearing this fall as they enjoy the warm October air while strolling to class.

NOT FAR FROM HOME -- Enjoying the fall sunshine and reliving some of their common experiences are these Bennett College freshmen, all of Greensboro. They are, left to right: Misses Kay Frances Henry, Mary Tonkins, Jo Marie Crump, Lola Campbell, Jo Ann Goins, Joanne Simmons, LyVonne McAdoo, Carolyn Purvis, Anna Harris, Juliette McKoy, Peggy Haith, and Barbara Mebane.

GIVEN HEALTH O.K.---Miss Barbara Ann Mebane, of Greensboro, freshman at Bennett College, breathes more easily after Dr. Dorothy L. Brown left and Nurse Alsie Trammell advise her that she passed her health examination with flying colors. Dr. Brown, professor of surgery at Meharry Medical College in Nashville, Tenn., assisted by four Meharry interns, gave health exams to all Bennett students recently. She is a Bennett graduate.

HERE'S HOW IT'S DONE---Francis L. Grandison, psychology instructor, explains registration procedures to a group of his freshmen advisees during registration at Bennett College recently.

EASY IF YOU KNOW HOW -- Members of the beginning swimming class at Bennett College get expert instruction from Mrs. Necie Boyers in swimming pool at the Hayes-Taylor YMCA.

OFF TO A GOOD START---Miss Elishma Madison of Miami, Florida, (standing) newly elected president of the Freshman Theater Guild of Bennett College, outlines to members of her cabinet some of her plans for the year. Listening (left to right) around the table are Misses: Doris Neely, vice-president, of Charlotte; Gwendolyn Mackel, treasurer, of Chicago, Ill.; Barbara Philson, parliamentarian, of Charlotte; and Shirley Dismuke, secretary, of Vandergrift, Penn.

BENNETT VISITOR BRIEFED — Miss Kay Wallace (center) of Cambridge, Mass., international administrator for the U. S. National Student Association, talks with these two Bennett College seniors on her recent visit to the campus of the Greensboro institution. At left is Miss Yvonne Wynne, of Jamaica, N. Y., president of the Senior Choir, and right, Miss Addie Watson, of Charlotte, vice-president of the Student Senate.

DUNGEE-CALDWELL VOWS SPOKEN

A college romance reached its climax here Saturday at 4 p. m. when Miss Grace Estell Dungee and Gilbert Haven Caldwell, Jr., were married in a double-ring ceremony by Bishop Edgar A. Love, of Baltimore, Md. at Mount Carmel Methodist Church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. Edward J. Dungee and the late Mrs. Dungee and the bridegroom is the son of the Rev. Mr. and Mrs. G. Haven Caldwell, all of this city.

Ferns interspersed with white and blue chrysanthemums provided the background against ceremony was performed and which the brief but impressive cathedral tapers, in an arched candelabra, provided the only lighting.

Walter F. Carlson was at the organ in a program of pre-nuptial music and Miss Phoebe Caldwell, contralto, of Philadelphia, a sister of the bridegroom, sang "Whither Thou Goest" before the ceremony and "The Lord's Prayer" at its conclusion.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a full-length white taffeta gown with an inset of pale blue lace. It had a V-cut back with capped sleeves. Her train was of white taffeta with two panels over pale blue lace.

She wore a seed pearl tiara from which extended a waist-length of net, and arm-length white net mitts. Her only ornaments were the small white pearls that tipped her ears and a single strand of peals around her neck. A single white orchid centered the bouquet of white rosebuds and baby carnations which she carried.

Her maid of honor, Miss Cecile Harrison, of Houston, Texas, wore a blue-green taffeta cocktail-length gown, with a torso waist line, elbow-length sleeves and a breast bow tie, and matching satin slippers.

The bridesmaids—Miss Vera Kernodle, of Elon College, and Miss Josephine Boyd, of Greensboro—wore sky-blue gowns of the same style as that of the maid of honor, with matching satin slippers. All of the attendants wore bandeaux of velveteen, with small bows at the side, and small pearl earrings. They carried bouquets of white and blue chrysanthemums.

Best man was Donald Mays, of Henderson, Ky., a schoolmate of the bridegroom at the Boston University School of Theology. Ushers were Clyde Dungee, of Greensboro, a brother of the bride; Andrew Johnson, of Red Bank, N. J., and John Snead, of San Antonio, Texas.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of Mrs. M. V. Reynolds, the bride's godmother. Among those assisting were Mrs. Cora D. Boyd of Greensboro, and Miss Mary Head of Winston-Salem. The bride's bouquet was caught by Miss Kernodle.

Mrs. Caldwell is a 1957 graduate of Bennett College, where she was active in many organizations, among them Kappa Phi and Alpha Kappa Mu. She is presently employed at the Boston University School of Nursing.

Mr. Caldwell, a 1956 graduate of A & T College, will be graduated from the Boston University School of Theology in June. He is a member of Alpha Phi Alpha fraternity.

The couple left for an undisclosed honeymoon retreat immediately after the reception and will be at home after December 7, at 14 Buswell St. in Boston.

Among the out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Enoch and family and Mrs. Ora Mae Dungee, all of Harrisburg, Pa.; John A. Dungee and Miss Mary Ensley, of New York City; Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Dungee of East Spencer, N. C.; Mrs. O. R. Simpson, of Leaksville, and Mr. and Mrs. C. H. McClendon, of Raleigh.

VISITOR FROM HOME—Danletta Brooks of Monrovia, Liberia, Bennett College freshman, gets news from home from Bishop and Mrs. Prince A. Taylor of the Methodist Church during an informal chat last week. Bishop Taylor returns to Liberia on Jan. 1.

Bennett Dormitory Assistants Meet and Discuss Problems

Five Bennett College juniors who serve as dormitory directors meet with Miss Amaleta Moore, director of residences to discuss common problems. Left to right: Miss Inez Jones, Lenoir, N. C., Pfeiffer Hall; Miss Moore, and Misses Nannie Hughes, Cheraw, S. C., Kent Hall; Margaret Townes, Norlina, N. C., Merner Hall; Ida Bullock, Manson, N. C., Barge Hall, and Ruby Starks, Troutman, N. C., Reynolds Hall. Not present when photograph was taken was Miss Rivers Milliner, Draper, N. C., Jones Hall.

Find Personal Truth, Coeds Told

GREENSBORO

"Remember Who You Are" was the subject of the sermon delivered by Dr. W. F. Quillian, Jr., of Lynchburg, Va., at Bennett College vesper service Sunday.

Dr. Quillian, president of Randolph-Macon Woman's College, cautioned his listeners to remember that, as human beings, they are created in God's image.

"Being created in God's image," he explained, "does not mean that we have God's physical characteristics, but that we have those qualities that express themselves in goodness, truth and beauty—qualities that have their source in God."

Dr. Quillian declared that all humans have "wonderful possibilities" for goodness, truth and beauty, but frequently fail to live up to their potentials. Frequent self-examination, he said, will reveal the extent to which the individual is developing his capacities for good.

Bennett Visitor Briefed—Miss Kay Wallace (center) of Cambridge, Mass., international administrator for the United States National Student Association, talks with two Bennett College seniors on her recent visit to the campus of the Greensboro institution. At left is Miss Yvonne Wynne, of Jamaica, N. Y., president of the Senior Choir, and at right, Miss Addie Watson, of Charlotte, N. C., vice president of the Student Senate.

"XMAS SISTER WEEK" OBSERVED BY B. C. STUDENTS

If a Bennett College student, who rushed out for an 8 o'clock class, leaving her room in disarray, should return to find her room tidied up and some fruit on her dresser, she won't blame it on gremlins — not this week, at least.

She will quickly realize, instead, that this unexpected show of kindness is a result of "Christmas Sister Week" which began on Monday and will be culminated at the college's annual Christmas party Saturday night in the David D. Jones Student Union.

Each year at this time, each member of the Bennett Family —students, faculty and staff— draws the name of a person who will be the recipient of special favors or small gifts throughout the week. Identities are not revealed until the Christmas party at which time each person receives a major gift.

Ten Bennett Seniors Elected To 'Who's Who' In Col. & U's

Greensboro, N. C.—Ten Bennett College Students, all seniors, representing five states and one foreign country, have been elected to Who's Who In American College and Universities.

The list includes the editor of the student newspaper, president of the student senate, president of the senior choir, and student representative to the central administrative committee.

The complete list follows:

Misses Carolyn Brown, Johnson City, Tenn., editor of Bennett Banner; Peggy Coefield, Kinston, N. C., superintendent of Church School and secretary of Senior Choir; Jimmie English, Camden, S. C., president of the Student Senate; Patricia Hopkins, Miami, Fla., vice-president of the Student Union; Deloris Tonkins, Greensboro, N. C., student representative to Central Administrative Committee and vice president of Alpha Kappa Mu; Misses Onuma Uko, Eastern Nigeria, West Africa, member of International Relations Club; Frederica Washington, Beaufort, S. C., corresponding secretary of Alpha Kappa Mu; Mable Waters, Dudley, N. C., chairman of Mid-Week Vespers Committee, president of Student NEA and publicity chairman of the English Club; Rosemary Wright, Camden, S. C., president of Student Union and assistant secretary of the Women's Athletic Association; and Yvonne Wynne, Jamaica, N. Y., co-editor of Bennett Banner and president of the Senior Choir.

Who's Who At Bennett

Nine of the 10 Bennett College students who have been elected to Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities are shown here.

Reading down, left to right, front row: Misses Jimmie English, Camden, S. C.; Patricia Hopkins, Miami, Fla.; Peggy Coefield, Kinston, N. C.; and Mable Waters, Dudley, N. C. Back row: Misses Rosemary Wright, Camden, S. C.; Yvonne Wynne, Jamaica, N. Y.; Onuma Uko, Eastern Nigeria, West-Africa; Carolyn Brown, Johnson City, Tenn.; and Deloris Tonkins, Greensboro, N. C.

Not shown is Miss Fredrica Washington, Beaufort, S. C.

Miss Dungee And Gilbert Caldwell To Wed Saturday

GREENSBORO

Miss Grace E. Dungee, daughter of Edward J. Dungee, of this city, will become the bride of Gilbert H. Caldwell, Jr., son of the Rev. and Mrs. Gilbert H. Caldwell, of South Ashe Street, on November 30.

The ceremony is scheduled for 4 p.m. in the Mount Carmel Methodist Church.

The bride-elect, a 1957 graduate of Bennett College, is employed at the Boston University School of Nursing. Mr. Caldwell, a graduate of A&T College, is enrolled in the Boston University School of Theology.

To Represent Bennett

Greensboro, N.C.—Miss Frances Patterson, a senior of Roanoke, Va., will be the Bennett College representative at the United Nations Seminar sponsored by the National Student YWCA and YMCA's Nov. 29 - Dec. 1 in Washington, D. C.

"WHO'S WHO" AT BENNETT—Bennett College students who have been elected to "Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities are, front row (reading down), left right: Misses Jimmie Coefield, Camden, S. C.; Patricia Hopkins, Miami, Fla.; Peggy Coefield, Kinston, N. C., and Mable Waters, Dudley, N. C. Back row: Misses Rosemary Wright, Camden, S. C.; Yvonne Wynne, Jamaica, N. Y.; Onuma Uko, Eastern Nigeria, West Africa; Carolyn Brown, Johnson City, Tenn, and Deloris Tonkins, Greensboro, N. C. Not shown is Miss Frederica Washington, Beaufort, S. C.

Women's College Dean Tells Co-Eds To Adjust To Unseen Order

GREENSBORO

"Anyone who thinks that majorities necessarily determine what is right and what is wrong, are sadly mistaken," Dr. Franklin H. McNutt, dean of the graduate school at Woman's College, told the Bennett College vesper audience recently.

Dr. McNutt, who spoke on "Adjustment," pointed out that it is impossible to face the problems of life without making some adjustments, and he listed persons making such adjustments as realists, pragmatists or idealists.

"There are those who adjust themselves to things as they are," he declared, "but there is no progress to be made this way. Then there are those who adjust to the crowd, believing that 'when in Rome, one should do as Romans do.'

"But then there are those to whom what the crowd says, doesn't matter. They have learned to adjust to the unseen order. Our troubles would cease if we could make that adjustment more frequently," he said.

He cited Jesus Christ, Gandhi, Dr. George Washington Carver and Dr. Frank Graham as individuals who made such an adjustment in their lives. "Through such adjustment," he concluded, "we may find the serenity, the courage and the steadfastness we need in meeting the serious problems that confront us."

Bennett To Present "Living Madonnas" Sunday, 7 P. M.

"Madonnas of the Italian Renaissance" will be the theme of this Year's presentation of the "Living Madonnas" at Bennet College, Sunday, December 8, at 7 p. m. in Pfeiffer Chapel.

Eight of these masterpieces will be re-created in a series of tableaux in which 27 students will take part. A musical background will be provided by the Freshman Choir, directed by Edward Lowe.

The presentation, which will officially usher in the Christmas season at the college, will include the following paintings:

I. The Annunciation by Master of the Barberini Panels.
II. The Virgin in Adoration by Correggio.
III. The Adoration of the Shepherds by Giorgione.
IV. The Adoration of the Magi by Fra Angelico.
V. Madonna and Child by Crivelli.
VI. The Madonna of the Chair by Raphael.
VII. Flight Into Egypt by Fra Angelico.
VIII. The Madonna and Angels by Fra Angelico.

BENNETT ACCEPTED

Bennett College is one of 18 Negro colleges and universities accepted as a member of the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools it was announced yesterday from association headquarters in Richmond, Va.

Minister Speaks At Bennett Rites

historians of the future, when writing of our present-day generation, will ignore many of the things that we consider important today," the Rev. John L. Bryan told the vesper audience at Bennett College yesterday.

The minister, who is director of religious activities at the college, keyed his message to the coming Christmas season from his text: "For unto us a Child is born . . ." by saying that the newspaper column which contains a listing of births is more important than any other in the paper.

Pointing out that there was no publicity given in the newspapers of that time about the birth of the Christ Child, the Rev. Mr. Bryan reminded the audience that history may be repeating itself as today's newspapers ignore the birth of a child "in Nebraska, in Nigeria, in Nepal or in the slums of New York City" whom future historians may call the most important person of his or her time.

VESPER SPEAKER

"Remember Who You Are" was the subject of the sermon delivered by Dr. W. F. Quillian, Jr., of Lynchburg, Va., at Bennett College vesper service Sunday.

Dr Quillian, president of Randolph-Macon Woman's College, cautioned his listeners to remember that, as human beings, they are created in God's image.

"Being created in God's image," he explained, "does not mean tha twe have God's physical characteristics, but that we have those qualities that express themselves in goodness, truth and beauty — qualities that have their source in God."

Dr. Quillian declared that all humans have "wonderful possibilities" for goodness, truth and beauty, but frequently fail to live up to their potentials. Frequent self-examination he said, will reveal the extent to which th individual is developing his capacities for good.

CHORUS TO APPEAR

The Morehouse College Glee Club of Atlanta, Ga., will make its annual appearance at Bennett College tonight at 8 o'clock in Pfeiffer Chapel. The all-male chorus, under the direction of Wendell Whalum, will present a program of sacred and secular music, work songs and spirituals. This morning the Morehouse group combined with the Bennett College vesper choir, directed by Mrs. Mary J. Crawford, to sing "The Peaceable Kingdom," a sequence of sacred choruses by Randall Thompson.

Ten Bennett Students Elected To Who's Who

GREENSBORO, N. C. — Ten Bennett College students, all seniors representing five states and one foreign country, have been elected to Who's Who In American Colleges and Universities.

The list includes the editor of the student newspaper, president of the student senate, president of the senior choir, and the student representative to the central administrative committee.

THE COMPLETE list follows: Misses Carolyn Brown, Johnson City, Tenn., editor of Bennett Banner; Peggy Coefield, Kinston, N. C. superintendent of Church School and secretary of Senior Choir; Jimmie English, Camden, S.C., president of the Student Senate.

Misses Patricia Hopkins, Miami, Fla., vice-president of the Student Union; Deloris Tonkins, Greensboro, N. C., student representative to Central Administrative Committee and vice-president of Alpha Kappa Mu.

• • •

MISSES ONUMA UKO, Eastern Nigeria, West Africa, member of International Relations Club; Fredrica Washington, Beaufort, S. C., corresponding secretary of Alpha Kappa Mu; Mable Waters, Dudley, N. C., chairman of Mid-Week Vespers Committee, president of Student NEA, and publicity chairman of the English Club.

Also Misses Rosemary Wright, Camden, S. C., president of Student Union and assistant secretary of the Women's Athletic Association; and Yvonne Wynne, Jamaica, N. Y., co-editor of Bennett Banner and president of the Senior Choir.

Tableaux To Be Presented At Bennett College Dec. 8

GREENSBORO, N. C. — "Madonnas of the Italian Renaissance" will be the theme of this Year's presentation of the "Living Madonnas" at Bennett College, Sunday, December 8, at 7 p.m. in Pfeiffer Chapel.

Eight of these masterpieces will be re-created in a series of tableaux in which 27 students will take part. A musical background will be provided by the Freshman Choir, directed by Edward Lowe.

• • •

THE PRESENTATION, which will officially usher in the Christmas season at the college, will include the following paintings:

I. The Annunciation by Master of the Barberini Panels.
II. The Virgin in Adoration by Correggio.
III. The Adoration of the Shepherds by Giorgione.

• • •

IV. THE ADORATION of the Magi by Fra Angelico.
V. Madonna and Child by Crivelli.
VI. The Madonna of the Chair by Raphael.
VII. Flight Into Egypt by Fra Angelico.
VIII. The Madonna and Angels by Fra Angelico.

BENNETT REPRESENTATIVE

Miss Frances Patterson, a senior of Roanoke, Va., will be the Bennett College representative at the United Nations Seminar, sponsored by the National Student YWCA and YMCA's Nov. 29 - Dec. 1. in Washington, D. C.

ENJOYING AUTUMN AIR: These Two Bennett college (Greensboro, N. C.) freshmen, Misses Lola Campbell and Kay Frances Henry of that city, model what the well dressed college girl is wearing this season as they enjoy a stroll to class.

College Fund Cuties

AT THE CHICAGO Inter-Alumni Dance-a-rama benefitting the United Negro College Fund, these cuties represented various member colleges. Crowned Miss UNCF was Judith Ann Davis, Xavier (top row center). She's flanked by Jewel Williams, Houston-Tillotson, 3rd; and Gloria Greene, Tuskegee, 2nd. In front are, Jessie Boone, Wiley; Roosie Ross, Paine; Freddie Jenkins, Tougaloo; Barbara Murray, Bishop; Joan Graham, Bennett; LeVella Williams, Philander Smith; Gwenda Majors, Livingstone; Julia Lamb, Dillard; Phyllis Elaine Stanz, LeMoyne; Barbara Jeffery, Fisk, and Florence Waters, Texas.

...t Seniors ...Practice Teaching Work

Some 39 senior education majors at Bennett College have begun a six-week period of student teaching in 13 North Carolina schools, five of them in Greensboro.

Dr. Chauncey G. Winston, directing the education program, made the following assignments:

William Penn High School in High Point—Dolores Wiggins of Petersburg, Va.; Carver High School, Winston-Salem — Iris ... Winston-Salem, and ... folk; Douglass ... Leaksville—... Beaufort, ... School of ...

Two Korean students at Bennett College, Greensboro, N. C., are greeted by Mrs. John M. Pearson, chairman of the Department of Work in Foreign Fields, Woman's Division of Christian Service, who recently spoke at the Annie Merner Pfeiffer memorial service there. Hie Sook Hong, left, and Nancy Seunghi Choi, both of Seoul, Korea, attended schools in their native land which have been aided by The Methodist Church in the United States.

Central Christian Advocate 11/15/57

20 (524)

Tennis Is Their Racquet

Defender 11/18/57

DESPITE A CHILL in the November air, these physical education students at Bennett College, Greensboro, N. C., find it stimulating to engage in tennis game. Left to right enroute to the cour... are Dolores Snellings, Ral...eigh, N. C.; Lyonne McBride, Sumter, S. C.; Johnsie Adams, Leaksville, N. C., and Frances ...allum, Red Springs, N. C.

39 Bennett Seniors Begin Student Teaching

GREENSBORO — Thirty-nine senior education majors at Bennett College last week began a six-week period of student teaching in 13 North Carolina schools, five of them in Greensboro.

The students, who represent a wide variety of subject matter areas, will work under the direct supervision of critic teachers and principals in the schools to which they have been assigned.

Dr. Chauncey G. Winston, chairman of the division of social sciences, who directs the education program, made the following assignments: William Penn High School, High Point, Miss Dolores Wiggins, Petersburg, Va.; Carver High School, Carver Road, Winston-Salem, Misses Iris Harper, Winston-Salem, and Evelyn Webb, Norfolk, Va.; Douglass High School, Leaksville, Miss Fredrica Washington, Beaufort, S. C.

WASHINGTON High School, Reidsville, Miss A. Ruthello McCoy, Elizabeth City, N. C.; Caswell County Training School, Yanceyville, Miss Eleanor Bell, Wilmington, N. C.

J. C. Price School, Greensboro, Misses Pauline Jessup, Greensboro, N. C.; Frances Patterson, Roanoke, Va., and Mattie Horton, Albany, Ga.; Immanuel Lutheran College, Miss Yvonne Thomas, Greensboro.

RENA BULLOCK School, Outskirts of Greensboro, Misses Cozetta Berger, Reidsville; and Willie Delores Jackson, Red Springs, N. C.; Sedalia High School, Sedalia, Misses Fannie Miles, Drakes Branch, Va., and Cynthia Eaddy, Florence, S. C.

Lincoln Junior High School, Greensboro, Misses Yvonne Wynne, Jamaica, N. Y.; Rosemary Wright, Camden, S. C.; Nancy Hudson, Rossland, Va.; Ruth McAlister, Kingstree, S. C.; Mable Waters, Dudley, N. C.; Peggy White, Memphis, Tenn.; and Anna Ferguson, Savannah, Ga.

DUDLEY HIGH School, Greensboro, Misses Geneva Baldwin, Pittsboro, N. C.; Carole Anderson, Greenville, S. C.; Vinia Spivey, N. Y., N. Y.; Addie Watson, Charlotte, N. C.; Mamie McLurkin, Chester, S. C.; Gladys Fortune, Durham, N. C.; Barbara Hickman, Freeport, Ill.; Jimmie English, Camden, S. C.; Veronica Shipley, Baltimore, Md. Peggy ... Kinston, N. C.; ... Alexander, New York City; Marlene Beavers, Danville, Va.; Joan Cooley, Hendersonville, N. C. and Frances Thurston, Miami, Fla.

Graham High School, Graham, Miss Carole Wade, Graham, N. C.; Second Ward High School, Charlotte, Mrs. Robbie Dolphus, Greensboro, N. C.

S. C.; Mable Waters of Dudley, Peggy White of Memphis, and Anna Ferguson of Savannah; Graham High School — Carole Wade of Graham; Second Ward High School of Charlotte—Mrs. Robbie Delphus of Greensboro; Dudley High School — Geneva Baldwin of Pittsboro, Carole Anderson of Greenville, S. C., Vinia Spivey and Betty Alexander, both of New York City, Addie Watson of Charlotte, Mamie McLurkin of Chester, S. C., Gladys Fortune of Durham, Barbara Hickman of Freeport, Ill., Jimmie English of Camden, Veronica Shipley of Baltimore, Peggy Coefield of Kinston, Carolyn Brown of Johnson City, Tenn., Constance Oden of Greensboro, Marlene Beavers of Danville, Joan Cooley of Hendersonville, and Frances Thurston of Miami.

Racquet—Yvonne McBride, Sumter, S. C. still gets in a few licks at tennis at Bennett College, Greensboro, N. C., where she is a student. She is a sophomore.

Courier 11/23/57

VESPER SPEAKER

The Rev. John L. Bryan, director of religious activities, will speak at the Sunday vesper service at Bennett College on December 1, at 4 p. m. in Pfeiffer Chapel.

MISS MILDRED Taylor, formerly of Greensboro, now living in Washington, D. C., visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Taylor, and uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Wicker recently. She was accompanied by Lewis F. Woodson, a student at Howard University studying for his master's degree in architectural engineering.

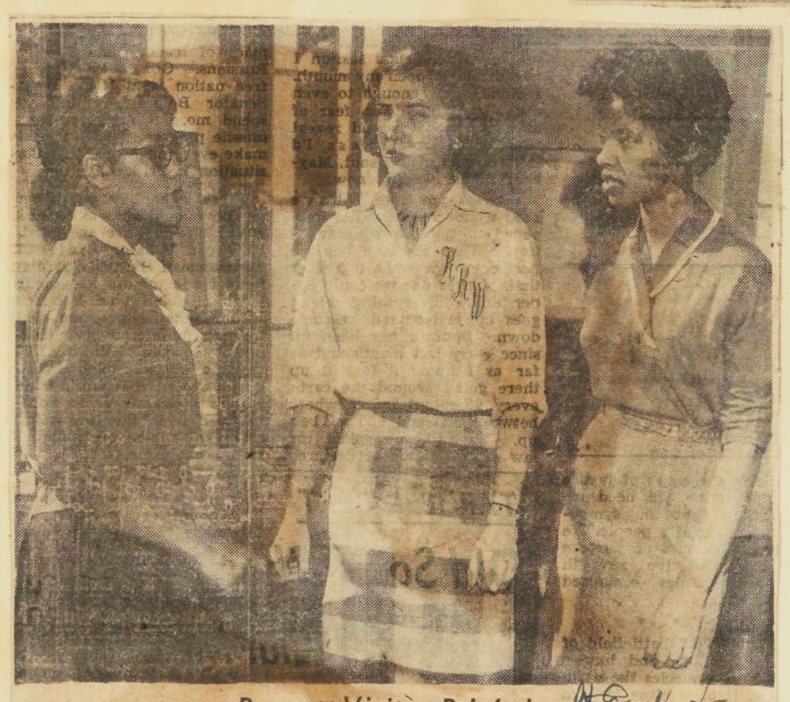

Miss Taylor, former May Queen and 1956 graduate of Bennett College, is now employed at the George Washington University School of Medicine where she plans to further her education in biochemistry next year.

CALDWELL—DUNGEE VOWS TO BE SPOKEN

Miss Grace E. Dungee, daughter of Edward J. Dungee, of this city, will become the birde of Gilbert H. Caldwell, Jr., son of the Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert H. Caldwell, of South Ashe Street, on November 30.

The ceremony is scheduled for 4 p. m. in the Mount Carmel Methodist Church.

The brid-elect, a 1957 graduate of Bennett College, is employed at the Boston University School of Nursing. Mr. Caldwell, a graduate of A and T College, is enrolled in the Boston University School of Theology.

Bennett Visitor Briefed

Miss Kay Wallace (center) of Cambridge, Mass., international administrator for the U. S. National Student Association, talks with these two Bennett College seniors on her recent visit to the campus of the Greensboro institution. At left is Miss Yvonne Wynne, of Jamaica, N. Y., president of the senior choir, and at right, Miss Addie Watson, of Charlotte, N. C., vice-president of the Student Senate.

Campus Corner

BENNETT

GREENSBORO — "Anyone who thinks that majorities necessarily determine what is right and what is wrong, are sadly mistaken," Dr. Franklin H. McNutt, dean of the graduate school at Woman's College, told the Bennett College vesper audience Sunday morning.

Dr. McNutt, who spoke on "Adjustment," pointed out that it is impossible to face the problems of life without making some adjustments, and he listed persons making such adjustments as realists, pragmatists or idealists.

"There are those who adjust themselves to things as they are," he declared, "but there is no progress to be made this way. Then there are those who adjust to the crowd, believing that 'when in Rome, one should do as Romans do.'

"But then there are those to whom what the crowd says, doesn't matter. They have learned to adjust to the unseen order. Our troubles would cease if we could make that adjustment more frequently," he said.

He cited Jesus Christ, Gandhi, Dr. George Washington Carver and Dr. Frank Graham as individuals who made such adjustment in their lives. "Through such adjustment," he concluded, "we may find the serenity, the courage and the steadfastness we need in meeting the serious problems that confront us." 11/23/57

Students Hear College Head

"Remember Who You Are" was the subject of the sermon delivered by Dr. W. F. Quillian Jr. of Lynchburg, Va., at the Bennett College vesper service yesterday.

Dr. Quillian, president of Randolph-Macon Woman's College, cautioned his listeners to remember that, as human beings, they are created in God's image.

"Being created in God's image," he explained, "does not mean that we have God's physical characteristics, but that we have those qualities that express themselves in goodness, truth and beauty—qualities that have their source in God." 11/25/57

CHOIR PROGRAM FRIDAY

"The Peaceable Kingdom," a sequence of sacred choruses by Randall Thompson, with text from the prophecy of Isaiah, will be sung by the combined choirs of Bennett and Morehouse College at 10 a.m. Friday in Pfeiffer Chapel at Bennett.

"THIS IS WHAT I MEAN" — Dr. Ira DeA. Reid, head of the department of sociology, Harverford (Pa.) College, chats over coffee with Miss Juanita Wells, president of the local graduate chapter, (center) and Mrs. Fannie Lea Hinnant, president of the National Graduate Association, at reception following Founders' Day exercises at Bennett College, Sunday.

Candlelight Xmas Service At Ben...

GREENSBORO, N.C. — The annual candlelight Christmas concert by the Bennett College choir will be presented on Sunday, December 15, at 7 p.m. in Pfeiffer Chapel.

The 50-voice group, directed by Mrs. Mary J. Crawford, will be heard in a program of seasonal music from many lands, some of it dating back to the sixteenth century.

• • •

TWO SOPRANO soloists — Misses Bernice Green, of An...derson, S. C. and Diamia Croslin, of Charlotte, and the Bennett Quartette will also be heard.

Among the works to be performed are Bach's "Break Forth, O Beauteous Heavenly Light," from his "Christmas Oratorio"; "Glory to God" and "For Unto Us A Child Is Born" from Handel's "The Messiah."

IN ADDITI... the familiar ... E'er Bloomin... and the Czec... koo Carol" ... toria Glaser ... closing numb... night and C... by Myles Bi...

Clarence ... be at the or...

many marriages will succeed and how many will fail.

"Such predictions cover groups, but not individuals, because the individual is an unpredictable quantity."

Pointing out that everyone has his limitations, Dr. Richardson declared that man is not necessarily bound by them. Inspiration, he said, has often enabled a man to overcome his limitations and he cited the examples of persons who have overcome the handicap of blindness, deformity, or lack of education opportunity to rise to great heights.

"God," he said, "is the only one who knows what each of us really can do and in every effort to overcome our limitations, we have His helping hand. With His help, there is much that I can do about me."

MOREHOUSE GLEE CLUB APPEARS AT BENNETT

The Morehouse College Glee Club of Atlanta, Georgia, presented its traditional post-Thanksgiving concert at Bennett College, here Friday night in Pfeiffer Chapel.

Directed by Wendell P. Whalum, this 40-voice group sang a program which included sacred and secular numbers work songs and spirituals.

The singers were particularly effective in their rendition of Bach's "Cum Sancto Spiritu" ("Mass in B") with organ and piano accompaniment and of the aria and final chorus from "Judas Maccabaeus" by Handel, with Cecil Gray as bass soloist.

John Smith, tenor, was roundly applauded for his singing of "A Pastoral" from the opera "Rosalinda" by Veracini and "When I Have Sung My Song." For an encore, he obliged with "Honor, Honor."

dick, history of the club by Mrs. R. T. Weatherby, remarks by J. W. Sapp and Mrs. N. E. Hargett, introduction of the guests and hostesses, presentation of the charter members and the closing song, Auld Lang Syne.

Members present included Mesdames F. A. Norwood, G. H. Caldwell, G. M. Phelps, N. E. Hargett, E. M. Riddick, J. E. Brower, R. T. Weatherby, W. M. Dusenbury, L. W. Rogers, A. B. Moore, C. S. Hill and Miss M. B. McLaurin. Guests of the evening were Mrs. Alice Jones of Wilmington, Delaware, Miss Minnie Barnes, Mesdames C. H. Kelly, Pearl Morgan Hogan, Geraldine M. Mitchell, George W. Greene, III, Dorothy D. Patterson and Gaither McGeehee; E. M. Riddick Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Sapp, Revs. J. E. Brower, G. H. Caldwell and G. M. Phelps.

Serving as hostesses for the occasion were Mesdames C. S. Hill, N. E. Hargett, C. K. Brown, W. M. Dusenbury, and G. H. Caldwell.

MISSIONARY CIRCLE NO. 2

Missionary Circle No. 2 of Providence Baptist church held their last meeting in the home of Mrs. Ortny Foster, 1203 Suggs

BENNETT HOUSE PRESIDENTS — Shown here, following a recent meeting, are presidents of the six residence halls at Bennett College, Grensboro, North Carolina. Left to right: Misses Addie Watson, senior, of Charlotte, Barge Hall; Sonia Louden, senior, of Cincinnati, Ohio, Pfeiffer Hall; Barbara Partee, junior, of Salisbury, Merner Hall; Louise Pope, junior, South Pittsburg, Tenn., Reynolds Hall; Jacqueline Daise, freshman, of Wilmington, Jones Hall; and Jacqueline Dove, freshman, of Kinston, Kent Hall.

THREE-ACT DRAMA PRESENTED AT B. C.

Thornton Wilder's "Our Town,', a three-act drama of life in a small New England town, proved an excellent vehicle for highlighting the talents of the Bennett College theatre guilds in two performances here, Friday and Saturday in the Little Theatre.

The play, revolving around the lives of members of the Gibbs and Webb families, provided vignettes of poignant sorrow, abundant happiness and the solemnity and impressiveness of people in search of greater understanding.

Miss Agatha Ricks, of Elm City, as Emily Webb; Elishama Madison, of Miami, Florida, as Mrs. Gibbs; Gwendoln Mackel, of Chicago, as Mrs. Webb, and Miss Ruden Abney, of Norristown, Pa., who as stage manager, provided the narration, handled the leading feminine roles admirably. Top male performances were turned in by Frank Graham of A&T College, as George Gibbs; Harold Hairston of A&T College, as Dr. Gibbs and Vernon McRae, of Dudley High School, as Mr. Webb.

'This Is What I Mean'—Dr. Ira DeA. Reid, head of the department of sociology, Haverford (Pa.) College, chats over coffee with Miss Juanita Wells (center), president of the local graduate chapter, and Mrs. Fannie Lee Hinnant, president of the National Graduate Association, at reception following Founders Day exercises at Bennett College. Courier 11/23/57

The Afro-American

BALTIMORE, MD., NOVEMBER 16, 1957 .9

Founder's Day Principals

Dr. Ira DeA. Reid, head of the department of sociology, Haverford (Pa.) College, who delivered the Founders' Day address at Bennett College on Sunday is shown with President Willa B. Player, just before joining the academic procession. The topic of Dr. Reid's address was, "Adventure in Faith or the Philosophy of a Fool." Q & G - 11/16/57

'Rebels, Dreamers Of Future' Wanted

GREENSBORO, N.C. — Speaking on "Adventures in Faith or the Philosophy of a Fool," Dr. Ira DeA. Reid, head of department of sociology at Haverford College, urged Bennett College students last week to be "the rebels and dreamers of the future."

"Institutions such as Bennett," he said, will be needed until there is complete integration in all aspects of American life and the world." He spoke to a Founders Day audience in Pfeiffer Chapel here Sunday.

Paying tribute to the founders of the 84-year-old institution, Dr. Reid referred to them as "radicals, rebels and dreamers who were willing to take a calculated risk because they realized that they, themselves, were expendable."

The speaker called attention to the many new nations that have been born in the past three decades, referring to developments in Africa, India and Japan. All of these changes, he said, have come about because of the burning desire of these peoples to be free.

HE REFERRED to recent developments in Russia and to the U.S. Supreme Court decisions on segregation.

"The Supreme Court decision on school segregation," he declared, "came after a fight of over 30 years but, even then, it found parts of the nation unready to receive it.

"We live in a world that is full of collisions — a world that is torn asunder because of fear and, for the first time in world history, color has moved to the fore as a threat to the status quo."

Dr. Reid stated that the noblest words of Biblical literature are: "And they sat and watched Him there," a description of the public attitude at the time that Christ was crucified.

"With all that is going on in Little Rock, in Greensboro and in Charlotte," he said, "many of us are just sitting and watching, when there is so much to be said and done."

* * *

URGING THE BENNETT students not to sit idly, but to be the rebels and dreamers of the future, Dr. Reid cited seven qualities of a leader, as follows:

1. He recognizes the danger of obedience.

2. He possesses a certain insolence of spirit.

3. He abhors the ruthless use of powers — no matter what the weapon.

4. He recognizes that he is expendable, yet

5. He learns and builds by doing.

6. He lives dangerously and without fear.

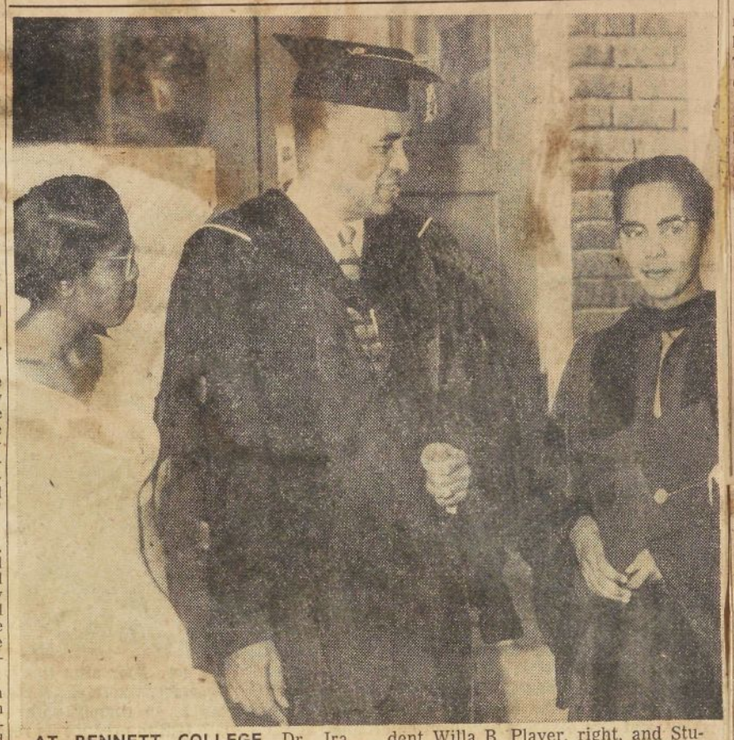

7. He ever takes the calculated risk.

"Until we can remove the quarantine signs of inequality from our social worlds," he concluded, "institutions like Bennett will be needed. They will be needed to provide meaning for the disinherited, certainly for the insecure and participation for the ignored."

* * *

PRESIDENT WILLA B. PLAYER, who presided and introduced Dr. Reid, received from James McMillan, faculty representative of the central administrative committee, the sum of $1,200 raised by the faculty and staff for the scholarship fund.

Expressing appreciation from the graduates was Miss Evelyn Jones of Greensboro, a member of the class of 1953, and from the student body, Miss Jimmie English, senior, of Camden, S.C. president of the student senate.

AT BENNETT COLLEGE—Dr. Ira DeA. Reid of Haverford College, who delivered the Founder's Day address at college Sunday, chats with President Willa B. Player, right, and Student Senate President (Miss) Jimmie English, as they wait to join academic procession. Afro 11/16/57

Bennett Choir Concert Set For Tonight

Wash 12/8/57

The annual candlelight Christmas concert by the Bennett College choir will be presented at 7 o'clock tonight in Pfeiffer Chapel.

The 50-voice group, directed by Mrs. Mary J. Crawford, will be heard in a program of seasonal music from many lands, ome of it dating back to the sixteenth century. Two soprano soloists—Misses Bernice Green of Anderson S. C., and Diamia Croslin of Charlotte—and the Bennett Quartette also will be heard.

Among the works to be performed are Bach's "Break Forth, O Beauteous Heavenly Light," from his "Christmas Oratorio"; "Glory to God" and "For Unto Us a Child Is Born" from Handel's "The Messiah."

The traditional closing number will be "Goodnight and Christmas Prayer" by Myles Burket Foster. Clarence E. Whiteman will be at the organ.

BENNETT COLLEGE

GREENSBORO, N.C. — The Morehouse College Glee Club of Atlanta presented its traditional post - Thanksgiving concert at Bennett College on Friday night in Pfeiffer Chapel.

Cecil Bray, bass, and John Smith, tenor, appeared as soloist for the 40-voice group which was directed by Wendell P. Whalum in a program of sacred and secular numbers, work songs and spirituals.

The Bennett College Choir's annual Christmas candlelight concert will be presented in Pfeiffer Chapel at 7 p.m., Sunday, Dec. 15, under the direction of Mrs. Mary J. Crawford.

Dr. Ira Reid Praises Bennett College Founders

GREENSBORO, N. C.—"Institutions such as Bennett College will be needed until there is complete integration in all aspects of American life and in the world," Dr. Ira De A. Reid told the Founders' Day audience in Pfeiffer Chapel here Sunday.

Dr. Reid, head of the department of sociology at Haverford College, Haverford, Pa., spoke on "Adventures in Faith, or the Philosophy of a Fool."

PAYING tribute to the founders of the 84-year-old institution, Dr. Reid referred to them as "radicals, rebels and dreamers who were willing to take a calculated risk because they realized that they, themselves, were expendable."

The speaker called attention to the many new nations that have been born in the past three decades, referring to developments of Africa, India and Japan. All of these changes, he said, have come about because of the burning desire of these peoples to be free. He referred to recent developments in Russia and to the U.S. Supreme Court decisions on segregation.

"THE SUPREME Court decision on school segregation" he declared, "came after a fight of over 30 years, but even then, it found parts of the nation unready to receive it. We live in a world that is full of collisions—a world that is torn asunder because of fear, and for the first time in world history, color has moved to the fore as a threat to the status quo."

"Until we can remove the quarantine signs of inequality from our social worlds," he concluded, "institutions like Bennett will be needed. They will be needed to provide meaning for the disinherited, certainty for the insecure and participation for the ignored."

President Willa B. Player, who presided and introduced Dr. Reid, received from James McMillan, faculty representative of the Central Administrative Committee, the sum of $1,200 raised by the faculty and staff for the scholarship fund. Expressing appreciation from the graduates was Miss Evelyn Jones, of Greensboro, a member of the class of 1953, and from the student body, Miss Jimmie English, senior, of Camden, S. C., president of the Student Senate.

Durhamite Among 39 Cadet Teachers At Bennett College

11/23/57 GREENSBORO

Thirty-nine senior education majors at Bennett College last week began a six week period of student teaching in 13 North Carolina schools.

Gladys Fortune of Durham, a 1953 graduate of Hillside high school, was among the Bennett cadet teachers. She is in training at Dudley high in Greensboro.

Others are Delores Wiggins, Petersburg, Va.; Iris Harper, Winston-Salem; Evelyn Webb, Norfolk, Va.; Fredrica Washington, Beaufort, S. C.; Ruthello McCoy, Reidsville; Eleanor Bell, Wilmington; Pauline Jessup, Greensboro; Frances Patterson, Roanoke, Va., Yvonne Thomas, Greensboro; Cozetta Berger, Reidsville; Willie Delores Jackson, Red Springs; Fannie Miles, Drakes Branch, Va.; Cynthia Eaddy, Florence, S. C.; Yvonne Wynne, Jamaica, N. Y.

Rosemary Wright, Camden, S. C.; Nancy Hudson, Roseland, Va.; Ruth McAllister, Kingstree, S. C.; Mable Waters, Dudley; Peggy White, Memphis, Tenn.; Anna Ferguson, Savannah, Ga.; Geneva Baldwin, Pittsboro; Carole Anderson, Greenville, S. C.; Vinia Spivey, New York City; Addie Watson, Charlotte; Mamie McLurkin, Chester, S. C.; Barbara Rickman, Freeport, Ill.; Jimmie English, Camden, S. C.; Veronica Shipley, Baltimore, Md.; Peggy Coefield, Kinston; Carolyn Brown, Johnson City, Tenn.; Constance Oden, Greensboro; Jean Cooley, Hendersonville; Frances Thurston, Miami, Fla.; Carole Wade, Graham; and Mrs. Robbie Dolphus, Greensboro. Carolina Times

HERE'S HOW IT'S DONE — Miss Maxine Munt (second from left) and Miss Martha Cutrufell (right) of the Munt-Brooks Dance Company, give a few pointers on relaxation to Miss Rose Davis freshman, left, of Verona, Pa., and Miss Geneva Averett senior, of Buffalo, N. Y., following modern dance recital at Bennett College, Greensboro, Friday. Carolinian 11/9/57

Beat Handicaps, Speaker Urges

News 11/16/57

"Your greatest happiness in this world will be found in overcoming limitations," Dr. Harry V. Richardson, of Atlanta told the Bennett College vesper audience yesterday afternoon.

Dr. Richardson, president of Gammon Theological Seminary, speaking on "What Can I Do About Me?" admitted that so much of man's life is fixed in set patterns, that there seems to be little that he can do about it.

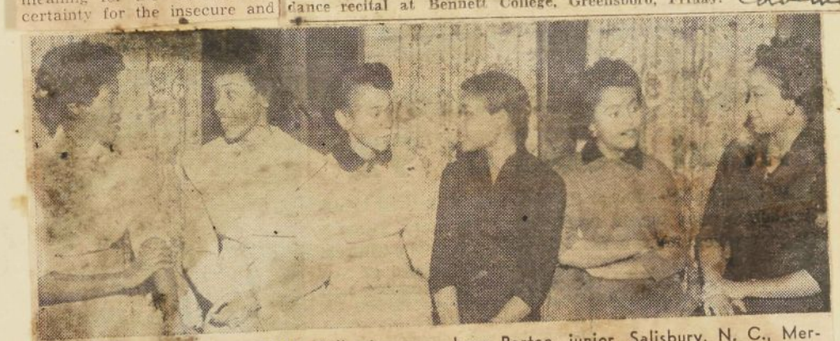

"Insurance companies make money," he stated, "by predicting how long a man is likely to live. We can predict, with amazing accuracy, the number of entering students who will eventually be graduated and how many marriages will succeed and how many will fail.

"Such predictions cover groups, but not individuals, because the individual is an unpredictable quantity."

"God," he said, "is the only one who knows what each of us really can do, and in every effort to overcome our limitations, we have His helping hand. With His help, there is much that I can do about me."

ENJOYING AUTUMN AIR — These two Bennett College freshmen — Misses Lola Campbell and Kay Frances Henry, of Greensboro, model what the well-dressed college girl is wearing this fall as they enjoy the warm October air while strolling to class.

BENNETT HOUSE PRESIDENTS—Following a recent meeting are presidents of the six residence halls at Bennett College, Greensboro, N. C. Left to right: Addie Watson, senior, Charlotte, Barge Hall; Sonia Louden, senior, Cinc[illegible] Ohio, Pfeiffer Hall; Barbara Partee, junior, Salisbury, N. C., Merner Hall; Louise Pope, South Pittsburg, Tenn., Reynolds Hall; Jacqueline Daise, freshman, Wilmington, N. C., Jones Hall, and Jacqueline Dove, freshman, Kinston, N. C., Kent Hall. Courier 11/23/57

Dr. McNutt Addresses Bennett Students On Adjustment

Greensboro, N. C.—"Anyone who thinks that majorities necessarily determine what is right and what is wrong, are sadly mistaken," Dr. Franklin H. McNutt, dean of the graduate school at Woman's College, told the Bennett College vesper audience Sunday morning.

Dr. McNutt, who spoke on "Adjustment," pointed out that it is impossible to face the problems of life without making some adjustments, and he listed persons making such adjustments as realists, pragmatists to idealists.

"There are those who adjust themselves to things as they are," he declared, "but there is no progress to be made this way. Then there are those who adjust to the crowd, believing that 'when in Rome, one should do as Romans do.'

"But then there are those to whom what the crowd says, doesn't matter. They have learned to adjust to the unseen order. Our troubles would cease if we could make that adjustment more frequently," he said.

He cited Jesus Christ, Gandhi, Dr. George Washington Carver and Dr. Frank Graham as individuals who made such an adjustment in their lives. "Through such adjustment," he concluded, "we may find the serenity, the courage and the stead—fastness we need in meeting the serious problems that confront us."

DR. IRA DeA. REID, head of the department of socilogy, Haverford (Pa.) college, chats over coffee with Miss Juanita Wells, president of the local graduate chapter, (center) and Mrs. Fannie Lea Hinnant, president of the National Graduate Association, at reception following Founder's Day exercises at Bennett college, Sunday, in Greensboro, N. C. Defender 11/24/57

BENNETT COLLEGE

GREENSBORO, N.C.—Dr. W. F. Quillian, president of Randolph - Macon College, Lynchburg, Va., will speak at the Sunday vesper service at Bennett College on Nov. 24 at 4 p.m. in Pfeifer Chapel.

Last Sunday's speaker, Dr. Franklin H. McNutt, dean of the graduate school at Women's College, told the vesper audience that "Anyone who thinks that majorities necessarily determine what is right and what is wrong, is sadly mistaken."

PLAY TO BE GIVEN

The second performance of "Our Town" will be given at 8 o'clock tonight at the Bennett College Little Theater by the members of the theater guilds of the college. Heading the cast will be Rudene Abney of Norristown, Pa., Agatha Ricks of Elm City and Frank Graham, A&T College student. Miss Ann Jenkins, dramatics instructor, will direct. News 11/15/57

Prepare for Recital—Six members of the modern dance group at Bennett College, Greensboro, N. C., execute a movement in one of their numbers as they rehearse for their first public appearance in December. Mrs. Dolty Turner is their instructor. Left to right, front row: Misses Geraldine Williams, Fayetteville, N. C.; Winifred Peacock, Wilson, N. C., and Juanita Spear, Bridgeport, Conn. Back row: Misses Winifred Lee, Akron, Ohio; Elizabeth Payne, Boston, Mass., and Robbie Walton, Clarksville, Tenn. Courier 11/16/57

BENNETT HOUSE PRESIDENTS — Shown here following a recent meeting are presidents of the six residence halls at Bennett college, Greensboro, N. C. Let to right: Misses Addie Watson, senior, of Charlotte. Harte Hall; Sonia Louden, senior of Cincinnati, Ohio, Pfeiffer hall; Barbara Partee, junior, of Salisbury, N. C., Merner Hall; Louise Pope, junior, South Pittsburg, Tenn., Reynolds Hall; Jacqueline Daise, freshman, of Wilmington, N. C., Jones Hall; and Jacqueline Dove, freshman, of Kingston, N. C., Kent Hall. Defender 11/24/57

Dr. Richardson Speaks At Bennett College

"Your greatest happiness in this world will be found in overcoming limitations," Dr. Harry V. Richardson, of Atlanta, Ga., told the Bennett College vesper audience Sunday afternoon.

Dr. Richardson, president of Gammon Theological Seminary, speaking on "What Can I Do About Me?" admitted that so much of man's life is fixed in set patterns, that there seems to be little that he can do about it.

"Insurance companies make money," he stated, "by predicting how long a man is likely to live. We can predict, with amazing accuracy, the number of entering students who will eventually be graduated and how

Bennett College Students Present "Living Madonna's" Tableaux

"LIVING MADONNAS AT BENNETT"---"The Annunciation" by the Master of the Barberini Panels is the first of eight tableaux presented at Bennett College recently to open the 1957 Christmas season. All scenes were from the Italian Renaissance. Left to right: Miss Mary Tonkins, of Greensboro, is the angel and Miss Bharaty Christain, of Bombay, India, the Madonna.

"The Madonna Of The Chair" by Raphael, one of the eight "Living Madonnas" tableaux, presented at Bennett College recently. Emma Jean Blackstock, of Leaksville, portrays the angel.

"THE ADORATION OF THE MAGI" by Fra Angelico, one of the eight "Living Madonnas" tableaux, presented at Bennett College recently. Miss Addie Watson, of Charlotte, is the Madonna and Patricia Hargrove, Fayetteville, and Shirley Waters of Dudley, portray the Wise Men.

PRESIDENT MEETS SANTA---Dr. Willa B. Player, President of Bennett College, is greeted by Santa Claus at the annual Christmas party held at the college recently.

"MADONNA AND CHILD" by Crivelli, one of the eight "Living Madonnas" tableaux, presented at Bennett College recently. The Madonna is Miss Margaret Hayes, of Burlington.

BENNETT NATIVITY SCENE--Following a custom established three years ago, Bennett College reproduced The Nativity scene or creche on the lawn in front of the David D. Jones Student Union. The scene, which is illuminated each night, has live sheep in the enclosure and has been viewed by hundreds of persons, many from out of the city.

"The Virgin In Adoration" by Correggio, one of eight tableaux presented at Bennett College. Miss Anne Saunders, of Gastonia, portrays the Madonna.

"The Adoration of the Sheperds" by Giorgione, one of the eight tableaux presented at Bennett College recently. Miss Veronica Dean, of Miami, Fla., portrays the Madonna, and Miss Barbara Banks, of New York City, portrays Joseph. The Sheperds, left to right: Misses Clara Carter of Yadkinville and Constance Colston, of Charlotte.

"THE MADONNA AND ANGELS", by Fra Angelico, one of the eight "Living Madonnas" tableaux, presented at Bennett College recently. Miss Elizabeth Daise, of Wilmington, portrays the Madonna, while the angels are portrayed by Misses Nannie Poole, Baltimore, Md.; Helen Becket, Bowling Green, Ky.; Laura Rowe, Goldsboro, N. C.; Janet Dailey, Houston, Texas; Gertrude Smith, Greensboro, N. C., and Ruby Williams, of Charlotte, N. C.

"The Flight Into Egypt" by Fra Angelico, one of the eight "Living Madonnas" tableaux. Miss Anece Faison, of Dudley, N. C., portrays the Madonna and Miss Anna Bolden, of Reidsville, portrays Joseph.

"The Virgin In Adoration" by Correggio, one of eight tableaux presented at Bennett College Sunday night. Miss Anne Saunders, of Gastonia, portrays the Madonna.

Charlotte Post 12/28/57

Campus Corner

Charlotte Post

BENNETT

GREENSBORO — "Your greatest happiness in this world will be fond in overcoming limitations." Dr. Harry V. Richardson, of Atlanta, Ga., told the Bennett College vesper audience Sunday afternoon.

Dr. Richardson, president of Gammon Theological Seminary, speaking on "What Can I Do About Me?" admitted that so much of man's life is fixed in set patterns, that there seems to be little that he can do about it.

"Insurance companies make money," he stated, "by predicting how long a man is likely to live. We can predict, with amazing accuracy, the number of entering students who will eventually be graduated and how many marriages will succeed and how many will fail.

"Such predictions cover groups, but not individuals, because the individual is an unpredictable quantity."

Pointing out that everyone has his limitations, Dr. Richardson declared that man is not necessarily bound by them. Inspiration, he said, has often enabled a man to overcome his limitations and he cited the examples of persons who have overcome the handicap of blindness, deformity, or lack of educational opportunity to rise to great heights.

"God," he said, "is the only One who knows what each of us really can do and in every effort to overcome our limitations, we have His helping hand. With His help, there is much that I can do about me."

ATLANTA UNIVERSITY

ATLANTA, Ga.— The School of Library Service of Atlanta University presented Dr. Sabinus H. Christensen in a review of Vanguard by Martin Caidin on Wednesday, Nov. 20, in Dean Sage Auditorium.

The book, subtitled "The Story of the First Man-Made Satellite," is written by one of the leading authorities on military, atomic, rocket, guided missile, aviation and science subjects. He has served as Atomic Warfare Specialist for the New York State Civil Defense Commission and is a former Consultant to the Commissioner, Air Force Missile Test Center.

The reviewer of this timely work is professor of physics at Clark College. A discussion period followed the review.

Bennett Coeds Receive Scholarships

GREENSBORO, N. C. (ANP) — Five Bennett College students are recipients of national scholarships awards from the Board of Education of the Methodist Church, it was announced here this week.

The awards cover tuition and fees up to $500 and were granted on the basis of "Superior academic standing, leadership ability, active church membership, character, personality, and need." They are among 500 such awards given annually.

Students receiving awards are the Misses Nannie G. Poole, Mary Jane Williams, Jacequeline Ball, Helen Houston and Beatrice Murray.

VESPER SPEAKER

Dr. Clinton C. Armstrong, who in addition to his duties, as instructor in philosophy and religion at the college, also serves as the pastor of Browning Chapel Methodist Church here, will be the Sunday vesper speaker at Bennett January 26 at 4 p.m.

Howard Prexy To Speak At Bennett Col.

Jt Ex 1/4/58

GREENSBORO, N. C. — Dr. Mordecai W. Johnson, president of Howard University, Washington, D. C. will deliver the address when the second annual remembrance service for Dr. David D. Jones will be held at Bennett College, Sunday, Jan. 12 in Pfeiffer Chapel.

Dr. Jones, served as president of the college from 1926 to 1955 and as president-emeritus from 1955 until his death in 1956.

Speaker at the first service of remembrance was Dr. Henry Hitt Crane, pastor of the Central Methodist Church of Detroit, Mich., a long-time Bennett trustee and a schoolmate and friend of the late educator.

Dr. Johnson, who holds degrees from Morehouse College, the University of Chicago and Harvard University, has been president of Howard since 1926. He is widely traveled, both in this country and abroad, and is considered one of the nation's most outstanding public speakers.

MAN IN THE HOUSE — Lt. Verable McCloud, member of the Air Force ROTC at A&T College, joins these young women in looking at signatures in the guest book held by Miss Anna Camp, house director at Bennett college. Both A&T and Bennett are in Greensboro, N. C.

Bennett Foreign Students Spend Happy Yuletide

Jt Ex 1/4/58

GREENSBORO, N. C. — While none of Bennett College's 14 foreign students went home for the Christmas vacation, each was assured of a happy holiday season with friends or relatives in this country.

Mrs Young Tack Park, of Seoul, Korea, who was married last summer to a childhood sweetheart, spent her first Christmas as a housewife in Greensboro with her husband, who is a student at Gilford College.

• • •

MISS NANCY Senghi Choi, also of Seoul, spent the holidays in Winston Salem as the guest of Miss Gloria Brown, while Miss Hie Sook Hong, also of Seoul, spent the holidays in Statesville, N. C. as the guest of Miss Otrilla Summers, a classmate.

Miss Bharaty Christian, of Bombay, India, went to New York City for the Christmas vacation, as did Miss Una Estwick of Kingston, Jamaica and Miss Joan Didier, also of Jamaica.

• • •

MISSES BLANCHE Tbokumetzger, of Monrovia, Liberia, Uka Uko, and Ayo Salako, Onum of Nigeria, and Misses both o Lillian and Linelle Walker, identical twins of Nassau, Bahamas, all spent their Christmas vacation in Washington, D. C.

Miss Muriel Darrell, of Flatts Bermuda, spent the holidays in Greensboro with Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Alexander, and Miss Epifania Deveax of Nassau, Bahamas, spent the holidays in Camden, N. J., as a guest of Miss Shirley Moore, a classmate.

• • •

MISS DANLETTE Brooks, of Monrovia, Liberia spent the holidays in Cincinnati, Ohio, with Miss Rubbie Littlejohn, a sophomore here.

BENNETT COLLEGE

GREENSBORO, N.C. — Six Bennett students and a faculty member and a similar group from Mount Holyoke College will exchange schools for two weeks during the coming semester.

Bennett students were told at the first Sunday vesper service of the new year that "Our world, at times, seems to be a world of shut doors, but in a Christian world, there should be doors open at any time to anyone."

The speaker was the Rev. Dean Richardson, pastor of Asbury - Delaware Methodist Church, Buffalo, N.Y.

Bennett Pageant Planned Tonight

Bennett College's annual presentation of "Living Madonnas" will have a theme of "Madonnas of the Italian Renaissance" for its pageant at Pfeiffer Chapel at 7 o'clock tonight.

A series of tableaux, with 27 students taking part, will recreate eight masterpieces of the period, with a musical background furnished by the school's freshman choir.

Dr. Johnson At Bennett Sunday

Carolina Times 1/11/58

GREENSBORO

Dr. Mordecai W. Johnson, president of Howard University, Washington, D. C., will deliver the address when the second annual remembrance service for Dr. David D. Jones will be held at Bennett College, Sunday, Jan. 12, in Pfeiffer Chapel.

Dr. Jones, served as president of the college from 1926 to 1955 and as president-emeritus from 1955 until his death in 1956.

VESPER MUSICALE TO BE PRESENTED BY COLLEGE ORGANIST

Music will replace the spoken word when Clarence E. Whiteman, college organist, plays a morning vesper musicale in Pfeiffer Chapel at Bennett College, Sunday, January 19, at 11 a. m.

Mr. Whiteman, who will play the entire service from preludes to recessional and benediction, will include a major work, "The Negro in Sacred Idiom," by Fela Sowande, talented Nigerian organist-composer. This work is composed of five parts—"Kyrie," "Obangiji," "Go Down, Moses," "Yoruba Lament" and "Joshua Fit de Battle ob Jericho."

A graduate of London University and a fellow of the Royal College of Organists and of the Trinity College of Music, Mr. Sowande is musical director of the Nigerian Broadcasting System and honorary organist at the Cathedral Church of Christ at Lagos. In 1944, he conducted the B. B. C. Symphony Orchestra in "Africania," a work for orchestra based on an African melody.

Among other numbers which Whiteman will play are "Prelude. Hymn Tune and Variations on "Maryton" by Noel George DaCosta, "Cavatina" by Samuel Coleridge-Taylor and "Meditation" by Ulysses Kay.

2.

Bennett Given $4,454 By Methodist Church

GREENSBORO, N. C. — Members of the North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Church reported a gift of $4,454 to Bennett College when they held their annual "Roll Call" meeting at the college last week. Bishop Edgar A. Love, of the Baltimore Area, presided and received reports from the four district superintendents.

The Greensboro district, headed by the Rev. W. T. Brown reported the largest amount—$1440 for Bennett, with the Winston district, headed by the Rev. L. A. Brown close behind with $1354 for the college. The Western district, headed by the Rev. H. W. Phillips gave Bennett $903, while the Laurinburg district headed by the Rev. R. C. Sharpe, contributed $737.

LAST YEAR the conference gift to Bennett was $4,286. The four districts raised a total of $32,919.67 for all purposes.

The one-hundred min laymen, and their wives welcomed to the colle President Willa B. Play later were guests of the at a luncheon in the Da Jones Student Union.

An Old "Favorite" At Bennett

Mrs. Mamie B. McLaurin, retired dormit ory director at Bennett College, affectionately known to students and alumni as "Ma Mac," as she gave a traditional recitation of "The Night Before Christmas" at the annual Christmas party at Bennett College Saturday night.

AUTUMN LEAVES LEAVING---These four Bennett College students demonstrate a "revived-tradition" raking leaves that fall from the many trees which beautify the campus at the Greensboro Institution. Left to right: Misses Mattie Sellers, junior, of Greensboro; Rubye Williams, senior, Charlotte; Peggie Alexander, freshman, Fort Pierce, Fla., and Yvonne McBride, sophomore, of Sumter, S. C.

5 Bennett Students Get Scholarships

GREENSBORO, N. C. — Five Bennett College students are recipients of national scholarship awards from the Board of Education of the Methodist Church, it was announced here this week.

The awards cover tuition and fees up to $500 and were granted on the basis of "Superior academic standing, leadership ability, active church membership, character, personality, and need." They are among 500 such awards given annually.

• • •

BENNETT STUDENTS receiving awards are:

Miss Mary Jane Williams, junior, daughter of Mrs. Coy N. Williams, of Winston-Salem;

Miss Nannie G. Poole, junior, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Poole, of Baltimore, Maryland;

Miss Jacqueline Ball, sophomore, daughter of Mrs. Mary J. Ball of Philadelphia;

Miss Helen Houston, sophomore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs Henry E. Houston, of Nashville, Tennessee, and

• • •

MISS BEATRICE Murray, freshman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Horatio B. Murray, of Kentucky.

Funds for the support for the National Methodist Scholarships are received from local Mehodist churches on the basis of a church-wide offering on Methodist Student Day, the second Sunday in June.

WHO'S WHO AT BENNETT — Nine of the ten Bennett College students who have been elected to Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities are shown here. Reading down, left to right, front row: Misses Jimmie English, Camden, S.C.; Patricia Hopkins, Miami, Fla.; Peggy Coefield, Kinston, N.C.; and Mable Waters, Dudley, N.C. Back row: Misses Rosemary Wright, Camden, S.C.; Yvonne Wynne, Jamaica, N.Y.; Onuma Uko, Eastern Nigeria, West-Africa; Carolyn Brown, Johnson City, Tenn.; and Deloris Tonkins, Greensboro, N.C. Not shown is Miss Fredrica Washington, Beaufort, S.C.

Bennett Gets $4,400 Gift

GREENSBORO, N. C.—Members of the North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Church reported a gift of $4,454 to Bennett College when they held their annual roll call meeting at the college.

Bishop Edgar A. Love of the Baltimore area, presided and received reports from the four district superintendents.

The Greensboro district, headed by the Rev. W. T. Brown, reported the largest amount—$1,440 for Bennett, with the Winston district, headed by the Rev. L. A. Brown close behind with $1,354 for the college. The Western district, headed by the Rev. H. W. Phillips, gave Bennett $903, while the Laurinburg district, headed by the Rev. R. C. Sharpe, contributed $737.

4 numbers given by Bennett

GREENSBORO, N.C. — Four numbers by the Bennett College Dance Group featured the Wednesday evening vesper program in Pfeiffer Chapel Wednesday night.

The group, directed by Mrs. Dolly Turner, gave their interpretation of "And the Glory of the Lord," "Gloria in Excelsis Deo," "The Holy City," and "The Lords Prayer."

The call to worship was given by Miss Bharaty Christian of Bombay State, India; the scriptures were read by Miss Hie Sook Hong, of Seoul, Korea; and evening prayer was given by Miss Dolores Estwick of Kingston, Jamaica.

Vesper Service Held At Bennett College

The Rev. Dean Richardson of Buffalo, N.Y., delivered the first vesper service of 1958 at Bennett College yesterday. His subject was "Doors that are Open and Shut."

The minister, pastor of the Asbury-Delaware Methodist Church of Buffalo, said that "our world at times seems to be a world of shut doors. But in a Christian world, there should be doors open at any time to anyone."

Bennett Reports Gift Of $4,454,000

GREENSBORO, N.C.—Members of the North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Church reported a gift of $4,454.00 to Bennett College when they held their annual "Roll Call" meeting at the college last week. Bishop Edgar A. Love, of the Baltimore Area, presided and received reports from the four district superintendents.

The Greensboro district, headed by the Rev. W. T. Brown reported the largest amount—$1440.00 for Bennett, with the Winston district headed by the Rev. L. A. Brown close behind with $1354.00 for the college. The Western district, headed by the Rev. H. W. Phillips gave Bennett $903.00, while the Laurinburg district headed by the Rev. R. C. Sharpe, contributed $737.00.

Last year the conference gift to Bennett was $4,286.00. The four districts raised a total of $32,919.67 for all purposes.

The one-hundred ministers, laymen, and their wives were welcomed to the college by President Willa B. Player and later were guests of the college at a luncheon on the David D. Jones Student Union.

Bishop Love in accepting the conference contribution thanked the superintendents but said: "I think that we should set a goal in this conference of $10,000.00 a year for Bennett. What you have done and are doing is good, but we need to do more for an institution which means so much to the denomination and to the nation".

Among the visitors introduced was the Rev. William Well, Director of the North Carolina Methodist Conference Student Movement.

Five Bennett Co-eds Receive Church Grants

GREENSBORO

Five Bennett College students are recipients of national scholarship awards from the Board of Education of the Methodist Church, it was announced here this week.

The awards cover tuition and fees up to $500 and were granted on the basis of "Superior academic standing, leadership ability, active church membership, character, personality, and need." They are among 500 such awards given annually.

Bennett students receiving awards are:

Miss Mary Jane Williams, junior, daughter of Mrs. Coy N. Williams, of Winston-Salem;

Miss Nannie G. Poole, junior daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Poole, of Baltimore, Maryland;

Miss Jacqueline Ball, sophomore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry E. Houston, of Nashville, Tennessee, and Miss Beatrice Murray, freshman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Horatio B. Murray, of Winchester, Kentucky.

Funds for the support for the National Methodist Scholarships are received from local Methodist churches on the basis of a church-wide offering on Methodist Student Day, the second Sunday in June.

TENNIS, ANYONE?---Despite a chill in the November air, these students, members of the physical education class at Bennett College, Greensboro, N. C., find it stimulating to engage in a game of tennis as long as the sun is shining. Left to right on their way to the courts are: Dolores Snellings, Raleigh, N. C.; Yvonne McBride, Sumter, S. C.; Johnsie Adams, Leaksville, N. C.; and Frances McCallum, Red Springs, N. C.; all sophomores.

Problem—Miss Millie Adams, Bennett College junior of Princeton, W. Va., ponders a problem of too little space as she tries to pack her bag for a trip to Lawrence, Kan., where she will attend the sixth quadrennial National Methodist Student Conference.

14 Bennett Foreign Students Spend Holidays in State

While none of Bennett College's 14 foreign students went home for the Christmas vacation, each was assured of a happy holiday season with friends or relatives in this country.

Mrs. Young Tack Park, of Seoul, Korea, who was married last summer to a childhood sweetheart, spent her first Christmas as a housewife in Greensboro with her husband, who is a student at Guilford College.

Miss Nancy Seunghi Choi, also of Seoul, spent the holidays in Winston-Salem as the guest of Miss Gloria Brown, while Miss Hie Sook Hong, also of Seoul, spent the holidays in Statesville, N. C. as the guest of Miss Otrilla Summers, a classmate.

Miss Bharaty Christian, of Bombay, India, went to New York City for the Christmas vacation, as did Miss Una Estwick, of Kingston, Jamaica and Miss Joan Didier, also of Jamaica.

Miss Blanche Tuboku-Metzger, of Monrovia, Liberia, Onuma Uko, and Ayo Salako, both of Nigeria, and Misses Lillian and Linelle Walker, identical twins of Nassau, Bahamas, all spent their Christmas vacation in Washington, D. C.

Miss Muriel Darrell, of Flatts, Bermuda, spent the holidays in Greensboro with Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Alexander, and Miss Epifania Deveaux of Nassau, Bahamas, spent her holidays in Camden, N. J., as a guest of Miss Shirley Moore, a classmate.

Miss Danlette Brooks, of Monrovia, Liberia spent the holidays in Cincinnati, Ohio, with Miss Rubbie Littlejohn, a sophomore here.

VESPER SPEAKER

Speaker for the first Sunday vesper service of the New Year —January 5—at Bennett College will be the Rev. Dean Richardson, pastor of the Asbury Deleware Methodist Church, of Buffalo, New York.

DANCE GROUP FEATURED IN PROGRAM

Four numbers by the Bennett College Dance Group featured the evening Vesper program in Pfeiffer Chapel.

The group, directed by Mrs. Dolly Turner, gave their interpretation of "And the Glory of the Lord," "Gloria in Excelsis Deo," "The Holy City," and "The Lord's Prayer."

The call to worship was given by Miss Bharaty Christian, of Bombay State, India; the scriptures were read by Miss Sook Hong, of Seoul, Korea; and evening prayer was given by Miss Dolores Estwick, of Kingston, Jamaica.

BENNETT'S BELL RINGER

If the Christmas holidays had more than a special significance for any Bennett College student, it was Miss Estelle Davis, a sophomore, from Camden, S. C.

Miss Davis, is the official bell ringer at the college. Upon her rests the responsibility of seeing that her classmates get to classes, meals, and religious services on time.

Miss Davis' day begins with the ringing of the bell at 7:45 a. m. each school day and usually ends with the ringing of the 5:15 p. m. bell. On special occasions, however, she may ring the bell for evening affairs, such as the Mid-Week Vesper service at 7 p. m., or lyceum programs at 8 p. m.

Despite such a rigorous and demanding schedule, the post of bell ringer at Bennett is a highly coveted one; it is one that carries a certain aura of distinction and authority.

"I like my job very much, said Miss Davis. but I'm certainly glad that I am able to have a two-week vacation."

BENNETT STUDENTS RECIPIENTS OF SCHOLARSHIP AWARDS

Five Bennett College students are recients of national scholarship awards from the Board of Education of the Methodist Church, it was announced here this week.

The awards cover tuition and fees up to $500 and were granted on the basis of "Superior academic standing, leadership ability, active church membership, character, personality, and need." They are among 500 such awards given annually.

Bennett students receiving awards are:

Miss Mary Jane Williams, junior, daughter of Mrs. Coy N. Williams, of Winston-Salem;

Miss Nannie G. Poole, Junior, daughter of Mr. and Mrs J. J. Poole, of Baltimore, Maryland;

Miss Jacqueline Ball, sophomore, daughter of Mrs. Mary J. Ball, of Philadelphia;

Miss Helen Houston, sophomore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry E. Houston, of Nashville, Tennessee, and Miss Beatrice Murray, freshman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Horatio B. Murray, of Winchester, Kentucky.

Funds for the support for the National Methodist Scholarships are received from local Methodist churches on the basis of a church-wide offering on Methodist Student Day, the second Sunday in June.

Two Of Our Colleges Moving Ahead

This newspaper is aware it has been in the past critical of college administrators and, at times, may have impressed our readers as leaning a bit too heavily on the educators. But because we feel that the big hope for the eventual freeing of the race from the shackles of second class citizenship to a large measure lies in the hands of those who train our youth, we feel justified in our inclination to point out shortcomings in performance of school administrators. However, we are pleased that on this occasion we are able to speak of college officials in phrases of compliment rather than censure.

The recent action of the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools in accepting two predominantly Negro schools in this state, along with 16 others in the region, to full membership is a tribute, we think, to the quiet, painstaking and undramatic labor of their administrators. The action by the rating and accrediting organization is tantamount to saying that Bennett and N. C. College are not just good colleges for Negroes but that their programs of instructions and their standards are on a par with any college in the region. Their acceptance by the association literally removed, to some degree, the stigma of "Negro education" from these two schools. And, as any Negro can attest, the stigma in itself can prove a sizeable handicap for anyone who tries to make his way in our country.

Though acceptance by the Association may not be an earth-shaking achievement, it certainly speaks well for the men and women to whom direction of the two institutions are entrusted. In the case of North Carolina College, a state-supported school, it may not have been a heroic task for President Elder and his associates to build the type of institution which could gain recognition from the Association, especially in view of the fact that many of the things necessary for qualification as a member of the organization—things like physical equipment—are much more readily obtainable from the state than they were a few years ago. But many schools similarly situated, schools which can draw upon state treasuries, were not able to meet the Association's requirements.

One thing which pleases us most about the Association's action was the spirit in which North Carolina College's President responded to the news of that institution's acceptance. "Now that we have been accepted," President Elder said, "we have the responsibility of maintaining from year to year the standards of excellence required by the Association." He went on to say that the college must not be content to simply meet the requirement of today's world, but must look ahead and plan to cope with the needs of tomorrow.

When more of our school administrators and teachers can begin to feel the mighty responsibility which is theirs to prepare Negro youth for a world which moves at an often bewildering pace, we will have come a long way toward realizing the rich promise of a modern democracy.

INTERMISSION TIME — These three young women, all freshmen at Bennett college, Greensboro, N. C., exchange notes during intermission at annual Thanksgiving ball in the David D. Jones Student Union. Pleased expressions could mean they are enjoying their first formal affair at the college. Left to right are Misses Elizabeth Daise, Wilmington; Josephine Collins of Wilson and Shirley Dismuke of Vandegrift, Pa.

Improvement In Courses Subject Of Bennett Talks

GREENSBORO

The annual faculty-staff fall conference at Bennett College will be held September 5-12, President Willa B. Player announced this week.

Theme of this year's conference will be: "Toward Curriculum Improvement and Faculty Consensus," considered particularly appropriate for the college in this period of its history.

Among topics to be considered will be the role of general education in the liberal arts college, contributions which teachers and students can make toward the improvement of the curriculum, and an evaluation of the weight to be given to trandition and current practice in studying the curriculum.

In addition to the conference sessions, a number of informal social gatherings have been planned. A committee composed of Drs. Hobart S. Jarrett, chairman of the humanities division; Chauncey G. Winston, chairman of the social science division, and J. Henry Sayles, chairman of the science division, worked out the plans for this year's conference.

Meeting from September 9-11 will be Bennett's student leaders who will consider the theme: "Developing Values through Campus Participation."

Misses Jimmie English, of Camden, S. C., president of the Student Senate, and Rosemary Wright, also of Camden, president of the David D. Jones Student Union, will have key roles in the sessions which will include discussions and workshops.

In addition to their own ses-

Fourteen Pastors Given Graduation Papers At Bennett

Fourteen men and women, who have attended the annual Baltimore Area Pastors' School for four summer terms, were honored at a "graduation" banquet at Bennett College last night.

The school, conducted by the Methodist Church for the training of supply pastors and local preachers, attracted 50 persons who have been studying in six general areas since June 24.

Rev. Charles L. Carrington of Jamaica, N. Y., dean of the school, made the principal banquet address and remarks were made by Rev. William Hayden of Roanoke, Va., president of the fourth-year class, Rev. H. Alexander Smith of Winston-Salem, president of the student body, and by five members of the faculty.

Completing their work this year were:

The Revs. Janie Barnes, Baltimore, Md.; Estella Brooks, Baltimore, Md.; Viola Cannon, Baltimore, Md.; Leonard B. Eldridge, Rural Hall; Clarence Govans, Rocks, Md.; Edith Gross, Annapolis, Md.; William J. Hayden, Roanoke, Va.; Walter Hurd, Staunton, Va.; William T. Lyles, Baltimore, Md.; Buford C. Miller, Rural Hall; H. Alexander Smith, Winston-Salem; Bertha S. Thompson, Bluefield, W. Va.; Joseph A. Wilson, Lake City, S. C., and Wilbert C. Young, Reisterstown, Md.

Tableaux Presented At Bennett

GREENSBORO, N. C. — A near-capacity audience greeted the traditional presentation of the "Living Madonnas" at Bennett College, Sunday night Dec. 8, in Pfeiffer Chapel.

Against a background of appropriate Christmas music provided by th efreshman choir, eigh tscenes, representing "Madonnas of the Italian Renaissance," were recreated by a cast of 27 students. Among them were Raphael's "Madonna of the Chair;" Correggio's "The Virgin in Adoration," and Fra Angelico's "The Flight Into Egypt."

• • •

MISS RUDENE Abney was this year's reader. Musical interludes were supplied by Clarence E. Whiteman, college organist. The stage crew handling scenery, lights and properties, working in complete darkness, contributed much to th esmoothness of the production.

COLLEGE ACCEPTED

Bennett College here was one of the 18 Negro colleges and universities accepted into full membership of the Southern Assn. of Colleges and Secondary Schools, it was announced in Richmond, Va. today.

BENNETT GRAD RECEIVES MASTERS DEGREE

ROCHESTER, N. Y. — Mrs. Alice Holloway Young, a native of Warrenton, N. C., and a 1944 graduate of Bennett College, Greensboro, N. C., was awarded the master of education degree at the 107th annual commencement of the University of Rochester.

METHODIST YOUTH LEADERS — Officers of the Youth Council of the North Carolina Methodist conference are shown with their sponsors during recent meeting at Bennett college. Left to right (bottom row:) The Rev. Douglas E. Moore and Misses Ruth Goolsby, Walnut Cove; Maxine West, Greensboro; Willie Waugh, treasurer, Fayetteville; Hilda Withers, president, Pine Hall; Edith Mayfield, Winston - Salem and Pauline Wright, secretary, High Point. Back row: Wilbur Monroe, vice president, Laurinburg; Clyde Stewart, Laurinburg; Derry Galbreath, Fayetteville and the Rev. G. E. Hogue, Laurinburg. Little girl is Gail Knight, daughter of Mrs. Delilah Knight, of Spindale, a member of the faculty.

One-Third 1957 Bennett Graduates Will Teach

GREENSBORO, N. C. — Viewing the classroom from the other side of the teacher's desk — come September — will be the experience of at least one-third of the 106 members of the 1957 class, largest in the history of Bennett College.

Bennett graduates, most of whom traditionally turn to teaching, at least for the first year out of school, will be found, for the most part, in schools in North Carolina, South Carolina and Virginia.

* * *

IN ADDITION, others will be employed in social work, clerical work or in school libraries, and still others plan graduate study.

Three members of the class will be teaching in High Point, namely, Misses Ernestine Foster, of Mocksville; Christine McGimpsey, of Morganton and Joan Speas, of Winston-Salem.

* * *

MISS ANN R. Wofford of Charlotte, will be teaching in her native city, as will Misses Margaret Benton, of Norfolk, Va., Deloris L. Alexander, of Winston-Salem, Mary E. Miller of Lynchburg, Va., Odella Washington, of Beaufort, S. C., and Clòia Ford, of Henderson, N. C.

* * *

OTHERS HAVE been placed as follows:

Misses Joyce Martin, of Hampton, Va., in Portsmouth, Va.; Blondelle Reid, of Greensboro, at Allen High School; Asheville; Phlendia Brooks, of Hillsboro, at the Gunn School, Charlotte; Barbara Carson, of Lexington, at the Carver Ranches Elementary School, Hallandale, Florida; Ann Rhoden, of Charlotte, at the Vick Elementary School, Wilson, and Grace M. Coleman, of Charlotte, as a librarian, serving three elementary schools in Lynchburg, Va.

MISSES Jacqueline Hamlett, of Greensboro, at the Jefferson Elementary School, Charlottesville, Va.; Sadye Williams, of Fayetteville and Virginia Smith, of Timberlake, at the Patrick Central School, Stuart, Va.; and Harriette A. Daniels of Moultrie, Ga., at Beaufort, S. C.

In non-teaching posts will be Misses Alice R. Hayes, of Whiteville, at the Continental Assurance Company, New York City; Doris Lanier, of Bath, N. C., at the People's Settlement Association Wilmington, Del.; Ethel R. Maddox, of Federalsburg, Md., at the National Institute of Health, Bethesda, Md., Margarie Mays, of Greensboro in the Records Office at Bennett College, and Mrs. Geraldine P. Cheek of Glendale, Ohio, at Hampton, Va.

Bennett adds 11 to faculty, staff for coming school year

GREENSBORO, N.C. — Eleven persons have been added to the faculty and staff of Bennett College for the 1957-58 school year and four will return from leaves of absence, President Willie B. Player announced last week.

New members of the faculty and their areas of instruction are:

Miss B. LaConyea Butler, of Greenville, S.C., a graduate of Spelman College with an M.A. from Boston University, psychology;

Miss Barbara Hunt of Columbus, Miss., a Bennett graduate, with the M.S. in library science from Syracuse University, library science;

Miss Ann Elise Jenkins of Philadelphia, Howard University; M.A. from Temple University, drama and speech;

* * *

MISS JOYCE C. JOHNSON of Norfolk, Virginia State College, with an M.S. from the same institution, physical education (sports);

Miss Georgie Blanche Latimer of Abbeville, S.C., Fisk University with M.A. from Atlanta University, English;

Mrs. Gertrude K. Pryor of Kansas City, Mo., Lincoln (Mo.) University, M.Ed. degree from Miami University, Oxford, Ohio business education;

Mrs. Dolly Jones Turner, of Oklahoma City, Okla., West Virginia State College, M. Ed degree from University of Oklahoma, physical education (dance); and Willie Leon Young of Bogalusa, La., St. Augustine's College, M.S. degree from Atlanta University, biology.

* * *

RETURNING FROM a leave of absence during which he pursued work toward his doctorate at New York University will be Francis L. Grandison, psychology, and chairman of psychological services.

Mrs. Anna A. Simkins of Greensboro, who has taught at Bennett before, will return as a part time instructor in home economics. Mrs. Simkins holds the M.S. degree from Pennsylvania State University.

New members of the administrative staff will be:

Mrs. Mary Herbin Knox of Landis, 1952 graduate of Bennett, and Miss Margarie B. Mays of Greensboro, a 1957 graduate.

Mrs. Rosa F. Hooker, a 1953 graduate of the college, a former employee, returns to the administrative staff as do Mrs. Ellease Browning and Mrs. Christine Bizzell, both of whom were on leave last year.

New residence director of Merner Hall will be Miss Evelyn Henderson who served last year as relief director. New relief director will be Miss Madie J. Skeens who last year managed the college book store, snack bar and post office.

Bennet teachers do summer study

GREENSBORO, N. C. — Five members of the Bennett College faculty engaged in graduate study this summer at eastern universities.

Studying at Columbia University were Mrs. Louise G. Streat, instructor in clothing and textiles; Miss Amaleta Moore, director of residences, and Roy Lee, instructor in physics and mathematics.

James J. Scarlette, business manager, studied at Pennsylvania State University and James McMillan, art instructor, at Syracuse University.

Chapel Renovated —

GREENSBORO, N. C. — Complete redecoration of the interior of the Annie Merner Pfeiffer Chapel at Bennett College was begun last week. Work will be completed by Sept. 11.

To Redecorate Bennett Chapel

GREENSBORO, N. C. — Complete redecoration of the interior of the Annie Merner Pfeiffer Chapel at Bennett College was begun last week.

Bennett Faculty Conference To Begin Sept. 5th

The annual faculty-staff fall conference at Bennett College will be held September 5-12, President Willa B. Player announced this week.

Theme of this year's conference will be: "Toward Curriculum Improvement and Faculty Consensus," considered particularly appropriate for the college in this period of its history.

Among topics to be considered will be the role of general education in the liberal arts college, contributions which teachers and students can make toward the improvement of the curriculum, and an evaluation of the weight to be given to tradition and current practice in studying the curriculum.

In addition to the conference sessions, a number of informal social gatherings have been planned. A committee composed of Drs. Hobart S. Jarrett, chairman of the humanities division; Chauncey G. Winston, chairman of the social science division, and J. Henry Sayles, chairman of the science division, worked out the plans for this year's conference.

Meeting from September 9-11 will be Bennett's student leaders who will consider the theme: "Developing Values Through Campus Participation."

Misses Jimmie English, of Camden, S. C., president of the Student Senate, and Rosemary Wright, also of Camden, president of the David D. Jones Student Union, will have key roles in the sessions which will include discussions and workshops.

In addition to their own sessions, the students will attend a joint meeting with faculty and staff members on September 11.

Faculty meet set at Bennett College

GREENSBORO, N.C. — The annual faculty-staff fall conference at Bennett College will be held Sept. 5-12, President Willa B. Player announced this week.

Theme of this year's conference will be: "Toward Curriculum Improvement and Faculty Consensus."

Among topics to be considered will be the role of general education in the liberal arts college, contributions which teachers and students can make toward the improvement of the curriculum, and an evaluation of the weight to be given to tradition and current practice in studying the curriculum.

* * *

IN ADDITION to the conference sessions, a number of informal social gatherings have been planned.

A committee composed of Drs. Hobart S. Jarrett, chairman of the humanities division; Chauncey G. Winston, chairman of the social science division, and J. Henry Sayles, chairman of the science division, worked out the plans for this year's conference.

Meeting from September 9-11 will be Bennett's student leaders who will consider the theme: "Developing Values Through Campus Participation."

* * *

MISSES JIMMIE ENGLISH of Camden, S.C., president of the student senate, and Rosemary Wright, also of Camden, president of the David D. Jones Student Union, will have key roles in the sessions which will include discussions and workshops.

In addition to their own sessions, the students will attend a joint meeting with faculty and staff members on Sept. 11.

Church To Hear Woman Physician

AUG 29 1957

Dr. Dorothy Brown, native of Troy and the first Negro woman to be a chief resident in surgery in the United States, will speak at the Calvary Methodist Church at Latham Sunday. She will speak at the 9:30 a.m. Worship Service to be conducted by the pastor, Rev. Luther A. Patton, who has returned from vacation.

This summer, Dr. Brown was one of the featured speakers at the Troy Conference of Women's Society of Christian Service summer school at Green Mountain College, Poultney, Vt. She spoke on "The Christian and Race Relations," which will be her topic at Latham.

Dr. Brown was one of five orphaned Negro children who were brought up by Mr. and Mrs. W. Redmon of 265 8th St., Troy, along with their own daughter, Mrs. Marie Taylor. All of them received college educations.

Dr. Brown was graduated from Troy High School in 193[illegible] with the encouragement of the late Ernest Robinson, high school principal, secured a Troy Methodist Conference scholarship, was graduated from Bennett College, Greensboro, N.C.

During World War II she was an Army ordnance inspector, later was graduated from Harry Medical College, Nashville, Tenn. She interned at Harlem Hospital, New York, and was chief resident in surgery at Freedmen's Hospital in Washington, D.C., the first Negro woman to hold such a post.

FUTURE TEACHERS — Officers of the newly formed David D. Jones chapter of the Future Teachers of America at Bennett college, Greensboro, N. C., go over plans for their next year's program. Left to right are Bettye McLean, secretary, Greensboro; Veronica Shipley, vice president, of Baltimore, Md.; Loretta Richmond, treasurer, Greensboro and Shirley Waters, president of Dudley, N. C.

B. C. FACULTY ENGAGED IN GRAD STUDY

Five members of the Bennett College Faculty were engaged in graduate study this summer at eastern universities.

Studying at Columbia were Mrs. Louise G. Streat, instructor in clothing and textiles; Miss Amaleta Moore, director of residences, and Roy Lee, instructor in physics and mathematics.

James J. Scarlette, business manager, studied at Pennsylvania State University and James McMillan, art instructor, at Syracuse University.

DR. PLAYER TO ATTEND HIGHER EDUCATION SESSION

Dr. Willa B. Player, president of Bennett College will attend sessions of the National Council on Religion in Higher Education to be held August 20-26 at Dickinson College, Carlisle, Pa.

Dr. Player, who is a Kent Fellow on the council, is also a member of the North Carolina State Advisory Council on Higher Education and member-at-large of the executive committee of the North Carolina Council of Churches.

Bennett College Opens September 11th

Bennett College will reopen for the fall semester on September 11, with freshmen and new students reporting by 5 p. m. the following day.

Following a period of orientation, they will register on September 16. Returning students will report and register on September 17. Classes will begin at 8 a. m. on September 18.

Bennett To Have 11 New Faculty Members

GREENSBORO, N. C. — Eleven persons have been added to the faculty and staff of Bennett College for the 1957-1958 school year, and four will return from leaves of absence, President Willa B. Player announced this week.

New members of the faculty and their areas of instruction are:

Miss B. LaConyea Butler, of Greenville, S. C., a graduate of Spelman College, Atlanta, Ga., with an M.A. from Boston University, psychology; Miss Barbara Hunt, of Columbus, Miss., a Bennett College graduate, with the M.S. in Library Science from Syracuse University, library science.

ALSO MISS ANN Elise Jenkins, of Philadelphia, a graduate of Howard University with an M.A. from Temple University, drama and speech; Miss Joyce C. Johnson, of Norfolk, Va., a graduate of Virginia State College, with an M. S. from the same institution, physical education (sports); Miss Georgie Blanche Latimer, of Abbeville, S. C., a graduate of Fisk University with an M.A. from Atlanta University, English.

And Mrs. Gertrude K. Pryor, of Kansas City, Mo., a graduate of Lincoln (Mo.) University, with A.M. Ed degree from Miami University, Oxford, Ohio, business education; Mrs. Dolly Jones Turner, of Oklahoma City, Okla., a graduate of West Virginia State College, with A.M. from the University of Oklahoma, physical education (dance); and Willie Leon Young, of Bogalusa, La., a graduate of St. Augustine's College, with the M. S. degree from Atlanta University, biology.

* * *

RETURNING from a leave of absence during which he pursued work toward his doctorate at New York University, will be Francis L. Grandison, psychology, and chairman of psychological services. Mrs. Anna A. Simkins, of Greensboro, who has taught at Bennett before, will return as a part-time instructor in home economics. Mrs. Simkins holds the M.S. degree from Pennsylvania State University.

New members of the administrative staff will be:

Mrs. Mary Herbin Knox, of Landis, N. C., a 1952 graduate of Bennett; and Miss Margarie B. Mays, of Greensboro, a 1957 graduate. Mrs. Rosa F. Hooker, a 1953 graduate of the college, a former employee, returns to the administrative staff as do Mrs. Ellease Browning and Mrs. Christine Bizzell, both of whom were on leave last year.

* * *

NEW RESIDENCE director of Merner Hall will be Miss Evelyn Henderson, who served last year as relief director. New relief director will be Miss Madie J. Skeens, who last year managed the college book store, snack bar and post office.

Fourteen Pastors Given Graduation Papers At Bennett

Fourteen men and women, who have attended the annual Baltimore Area Pastors' School for four summer terms, were honored at a "graduation" banquet at Bennett College last night.

The school, conducted by the Methodist Church for the training of supply pastors and local preachers, attracted 50 persons who have been studying in six general areas since June 24.

Rev. Charles L. Carrington of Jamaica, N. Y., dean of the school, made the principal banquet address and remarks were made by Rev. William Hayden of Roanoke, Va., president of the fourth-year class, Rev. H. Alexander Smith of Winston-Salem, president of the student body, and by five members of the faculty.

Completing their work this year were:

The Revs. Janie Barnes, Baltimore, Md.; Estella Brooks, Baltimore, Md.; Viola Cannon, Baltimore, Md.; Leonard B. Eldridge, Rural Hall; Clarence Govans, Rocks, Md.; Edith Gross, Annapolis, Md.; William J. Hayden, Roanoke, Va.; Walter Hurd, Staunton, Va.; William T. Lyles, Baltimore, Md.; Buford C. Miller, Rural Hall; H. Alexander Smith, Winston-Salem; Bertha S. Thompson, Bluefield, W. Va.; Joseph A. Wilson, Lake City, S. C., and Wilbert C. Young, Reisterstown, Md.

ATTEND PASTOR'S SCHOOL —Students and faculty members of the annual Baltimore Area Pastor's School of the Methodist church are shown just before concluding their four-week study period at Bennett college, Greensboro, N. C. Fourteen of this group, who have completed four summers of study, were "graduated" on Friday. At the extreme right third row is Rev. Charles L. Carrington, of Jamaica, N. Y., dean of the school, which aims to help approved "supply" pastors and local ministers in six general areas of study in which a minister should be prepared.

Studied

Five members of the Bennett College Faculty engaged in graduate study this summer at eastern universities.

Studying at Columbia were Mrs. Louise G. Streat, instructor in clothing and textiles; Miss Amaleta Moore, director of residences, and Roy Lee, instructor in physics and mathematics.

James J. Scarlette, business manager, studied at Pennsylvania State University and James McMillan, art instructor, at Syracuse University.

Redecorated

Complete redecoration of the interior of the Annie Merner Pfeiffer Chapel at Bennett College was begun last week.

The charm, dignity and simplicity of the edifice will be perpetuated by the use of the same soft color tones in the walls, ceiling and pews. New red carpeting is also being installed and lighting fixtures furnished.

All work will be completed in time for the opening of the fall semester on September 11.

Bennett College Begins Fall Semester Sept. 11th

GREENSBORO, N. C. —Bennett College will reopen for the fall semester on September 11, with freshmen and new students reporting by 5 p. m. the following day.

Following a period of orientation, they will register on September 16. Returning students will report and register on September 17. Classes will begin at 8 a. m. on September 18.

24

Fourteen Pastors Given Graduation Papers At Bennett

[illegible] ant by state and national government officials.

On Monday, September 9, Dr. Trabue spoke on "The College Curriculum: What It Is and What It Reflects" and on Tuesday at the same hour he will speak on "Problems Involved in Curriculum Study." After reports of all sessions have been made at the Wednesday morning session, Dr. Trabue will make an evaluative summary.

versity and holds a Ph. D. degree from Columbia University. He has served on the faculties of the University of North Carolina, Pennsylvania State University and the University of Minnesota.

HE HAS ALSO served as president or chairman of a number of educational organizations, among them the National Vocational Guidance Association and the American Association of Colleges for Teacher Education. Author of many books and a member of Phi Beta Kappa, Dr. Trabue is in great demand as a consult

Annual Pastor's School Closes At Bennett College

GREENSBORO — The annual Baltimore Area Pastors' School of the Methodist Church ended here Friday when 14 of the 50 persons attending wound up their four-year course of summer study.

Held each year for approved ("supply") pastors and local pastors not on the approved list, the school aims to help in six general areas in which a minister should be prepared, among them Christian doctrine, pastoral psychology and church history. Courses are held for four weeks each summer and after having satisfactorily completed this work, the pastors are "graduated."

The Rev. Charles L. Carrington of Jamaica, N. Y., who has served as dean of the school for several years, had on his faculty this year the following ministers:

W. S. McLeod, High Point, Old Testament; Edward D. McGowan, Washington, D. C., New Testament; Ramsey Bridges, Pitsburgh, Pa., Pastoral Psychology; Joshua E. Licorish, Philadelphia, Pa., Church History; Walter R. Hazzard, Philadelphia, Pa., Christian Doctrine; Howard A. Bailey, Philadelphia, Pa., Christian Education, and Levi B. Miller, Baltimore, Md., Education, Music and Worship.

The Rev. J. E. Brower of Greensboro, was treasurer and business manager. Leading in enrollment was the Washington Conference with 19, followed by the Delaware Conference with 13. There were six from the North Carolina Conference, three from the East Tennessee Conference and one from the South Carolina Conference.

Following is the complete registration list:

Mrs. Janie Barnes, Baltimore; Mrs. Estella Brooks, Baltimore; Mrs. Viola Cannon, Baltimore; The Rev. Harvey G. Chase, Jr., Cordova, Md; Charles W. Creek, Anapolis, Md.; William D. Davis, Anapolis, Md.; Leonard B. Eldridge, Rural Hall, N. C.; Clarence Govans, Rocks, Md.; Mrs. Edith Gross, Annapolis, Md.; James L. Harris, Baltimore; Wiliam J. Hayden, Roanoke, Va.;

Philip A. Henry, Chestertown, Md.; Mrs. Martha Hollis, Chester, Pa.; Mrs. Mary D. Hundley, Mt. Royal, N. J.; Walter Hurd, Staunton, Va.; Nathaniel W. Jackson, New River, Va.; E. J. Jones, Asheboro, N. C.; Clifford E. Landrum, Townsend, Del; Jeremiah R. Lee, Tyaskin, Md.; D. T. Lewis, Seaford, Del.; William T. Lyles, Balcharlotte.

John McEachin, Raeford; Buford timore, Md.; Robert H. McDowell, C. Miller, Rural Hall; Mrs. Hazel Molock, Vienna, Md.; Cawilla Pinder, Hurlock, Md.; Mrs. Creolia Rice, Rocks, Md.; Mrs. Martha C. Robbins, Wilmington, Del.; Theodore Sembly, Hinton, W. Va.; Mrs. Irene Simpson, New Rochelle, N. Y.; H. Alexander Smith, Winston-Salem; Martin C. Stafford, Chester, Md.; George L. Stanley, Hurlock, Md.; Everett W. Stevenson, Washington, D. C.; Mrs. Bertha S. Thompson Bluefield, W. Va.;

Mrs. Julia S. Thompson, Chattanooga, Tenn.; Mrs. Geneva H. Tilghman, Frederick, Md.; Mrs. Grace Watson, Baltimore, Md.; Wiliam H. Watson, Baltimore, Md.; James F. Watters, Joppa, Md.; Joseph A. Wilson Lake City, S. C.; and Wilbet C. Young, Reisterstown, Md.

U. Of N. C. Accepts First Negro Woman For Graduate Work

Greensboro, N.C.—Miss Carolyn Ingram, of Durham, 1957 graduate of Bennett College, will begin the study of psychiatric social work at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill in the fall, leading to the master's degree.

The daughter of Mrs. B. Ingram Williamson, Miss Ingram is a graduate of Durham High School, where she was president of the Student Council. At Bennett, where she consistently made the honor roll, she was secretary of the Student Senate, a member of the Senior Marshal Board and of the Senior Theatre Guild. She was also winner of the David D. Jones Leadership Award for having exhibited the most outstanding qualities of leadership in the activities of the David D. Jone Student Union during the past school year.

It is believed that Miss Ingram will be the first woman of her race to be accepted for graduate work at Chapel Hill in the history of the university.

Tasty—Frances Jean Renwick of Statesville, N. C., was just one of the 1,000 summer school students attending the annual picnic conducted by North Carolina College in Durham.

Bennett Group Makes Plans For Celebration

GREENSBORO, N. C. — Members of the committee on conference statistics and history of the North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Church met at Bennett College last week to draft preliminary plans for the Centennial Celebration of the conference to be held here in 1958.

Bennett representatives meeting with the ministers included President Willa B. Player, Dr. Hobart S. Jarrett, chairman of the division of humanities, and W. I. Gibson, director of public relations.

The Rev. Robert McRae, chairman, of Fayetteville, in calling attention to the fact that the 100th anniversary will be held on the Bennett campus, said that highlights of the observance will be a banquet and an historical pageant portraying the origin and development of the conference. In addition, there will be suitable exhibits of photographs, costumes and mementos and an illustrated brochure.

A committee on history, headed by the Rev. William R. Crawford, Winston-Salem councilman, was appointed, with the following members: Miss Isabel R. Jones, Asheville; the Rev. G. Haven Caldwell, Greensboro; the Rev. C. E. Strickland, Charlotte; and Dr. Jarrett.

The Rev. J. J. Patterson of High Point, was named chairman of the committee on brochure, and named to serve with him were E. L. Raiford, Raleigh; Clarence Gaines, Winston-Salem; Mrs. Mary Morrison, Statesville, and Mr. Gibson.

These committees will make their first reports at a meeting scheduled to be held September 27 at the college.

At NC Summer Picnic

Two of the pretty coeds enjoying the annual Summer School picnic at North Carolina College last week were the Renwick sisters of Statesville, N. C., Amanda, left, and Frances Jean, right. They are the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Chavis Renwick of Statesville, N. C. Amanda has been teaching for the past three years at Double Oaks High School in Charlotte. Frances Jean finished Bennett last June.

AT EDUCATION PARLEY

GREENSBORO, N.C. — Two Bennett College representatives — Dr. Hobart S. Jarrett, chairman of the division of humanities, and W. I. Gibson, director public relations, attended the 13th Institute of Higher Education, July 29-31, in Nashville Tenn.

Third of Bennett's class of 106 get teaching posts

GREENSBORO, N.C. — Viewing the classroom from the other side of the teacher's desk — come September — will be the experience of at least one-third of the 106 members of the 1957 class, largest in the history of Bennett College.

Bennett graduates, most of whom traditionally turn to teaching, at least for the first year out of school, will be found, for the most part, in schools in North Carolina, South Carolina and Virginia.

In addition, others will be employed in social work, clerical work or in school libraries, and still others plan graduate study.

* * *

THREE MEMBERS of the class will be teaching in High Point, namely Misses Ernestine Foster, of Mocksville; Christine McGimpsey, of Morganton and Joan Speas, of Winston-Salem.

Miss Ann R. Wofford of Charlotte, will be teaching in her native city, as will Misses Margaret Benton, of Norfolk, Va., Deloris L. Alexander, of Winston-Salem, Mary E. Miller of Lynchburg, Va., Odella Washington, of Beaufort, S.C., and Cloia Ford, of Henderson, N.C.

* * *

OTHERS HAVE been placed as follows:

Misses Joyce Martin, of Hampton, Va., in Portsmouth, Va.; Blondelle Reid, of Greensboro, at Allen High School, Asheville; Phlendia Brooks, of Hillsboro, at the Gunn School, Charlotte; Barbara Carson, of Lexington, at the Carver Ranches Elementary School, Hallandale, Florida;

Misses Ann Rhoden, of Charlotte, at the Vick Elementary School, Wilson, and Grace M. Coleman, of Charlotte, as a librarian, serving three elementary schools in Lynchburg, Va.;

Misses Jacqueline Hamlett, of Greensboro, at the Jefferson Elementary School, Charlottesville, Va.; Sadye Williams, of Fayetteville and Virginia Smith, of Timberlake, at the Patrick Central School, Stuart, Va.; and Harriett A. Daniels, of Moultrie, Ga., at Beaufort, S.C.

IN NON-TEACHING posts will be Misses Alice R. Hayes, of Whiteville, at the Continental Assurance Company, New York City; Doris Lanier, of Bath, N.C., at the People's Settlement Association, Wilmington, Del.;

Ethel R. Maddox, of Federalsburg, Md., at the National Institute of Health, Bethesda, Md.; Margarie Mays, of Greensboro in the Records Office at Bennett College, and Mrs. Geraldine P. Cheek of Glendale, Ohio, at Hampton, Va.

At Bennett College, Greensboro, N. C., officers of the new David D. Jones Chapter of the Future Teachers of America go over plans for next year: from left, Bettye McLean, secretary; Veronica Shipley, vice-president; Loretta Richmond, treasurer; Shirley Waters, president.

Members of the Bennett College Graduate Association at their meeting during commencement season.

Bennett Colllege Places Practice Teachers

Viewing the classroom from the other side of the teacher's desk — come September — will be the experience of at least one-third of the 106 members of the 1957 class, largest in the history of Bennett College.

Bennett graduates, most of whom traditionally turn to teaching, at least for the first year out of school, will be found, for the most part, in schools in North Carolina, South Carolina and Virginia.

In addition, others will be employed in social work, clerical work or in school libraries, and still others plan graduate study.

Three members of the class will be teaching in High Point, namely Misses Ernestine Foster, of Mocksville; Christine McGimpsey, of Morganton and Joan Speas, of Winston-Salem.

Miss Ann R. Wofford of Charlotte, will be teaching in her native city, as will Misses Margaret Benton, of Norfolk, Va., Deloris L. Alexander, of Winston-Salem, Mary E. Miller of Lynchburg, Va., Odella Washington, of Beaufort, S. C., and Colia Ford, of Henderson, N. C.

Others have been placed as follows:

Misses Joyce Martin, of Hampton, Va., in Portsmouth, Va., Blondelle Reid, of Greensboro, at Allen High School, Asheville; Phlendia Brooks, of Hillsboro, at the Gunn School, Charlotte; Barbara Carson, of Lexington, at the Carver Ranches Elementary School, Hallandale, Florida; Ann Rhoden, of Charlotte, at the Vick Elementary School, Wilson, and Grace M. Coleman, of Charlotte, as a librarian, serving three elementary schools in Lynchburg, Va.;

Misses Jacqueline Hamlett, of Greensboro, at the Jefferson Elementary School, Charlottesville, Va.; Sadye Williams, of Fayetteville and Virginia Smith, of Timberlake, at the Patrick Central School, Stuart, Va.; and Harriette A. Daniels, of Moultrie Ga., at Beaufort, S. C.

In non-teaching posts will be Misses Alice R. Hayes, of Whiteville, at the Continental Assurance Company, New York City; Doris Lanier, of Bath, N. C., at the People,s Settlement Association, Wilmington, Del.; Ethel R. Maddox, of Federalsburg, Md., at the National Institute of Health, Bethesda, Md., Margarie Mays, of Greensboro in the Records Office at Bennett College, and Mrs. Geraldine P. Cheek of Glendale, Ohio, at Hampton, Va.

Plans Drafted For Centennial At Bennett By Conference Body

GREENSBORO

Members of the committee on conference statistics and, history of the North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Church, met at Bennett College last week to draft preliminary plans for the Centennial Celebration of the conference to be held here in 1958.

Bennett representatives meeting with the ministers included President Willa B. Player, Dr. Hobart S. Jarrett, chairman of the division of humanities and W. I. Gibson, director of public relations.

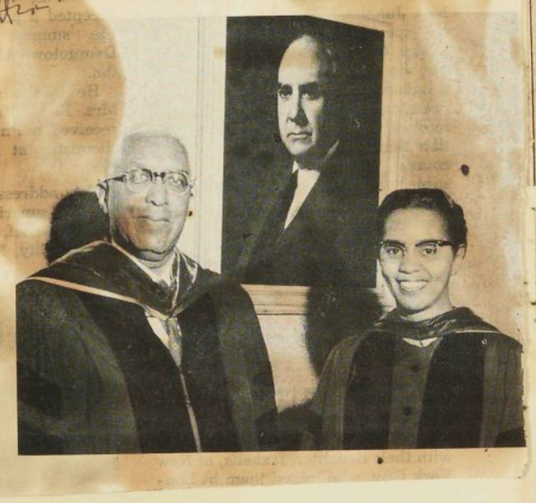

The Rev. Robert McRae, chairman, of Fayetteville, in calling attention to the fact that the 100th anniversary will be held on the Bennett campus, said that highlights of the observance will be a banquet and an historical pageant portraying the origin and development of the conference. In addition, there will be suitable exhibits of photographs, costumes and mementos and an illustrated brochure.

A committee on history, headed by the Rev. William R. Crawford, Winston-Salem councilman, was appointed, with the following members: Miss Isabell R. Jones, Asheville; the Rev. G. Haven Caldwell, Greensboro; the Rev. C. E. Strickland, Charlotte, and Dr. Jarrett.

The Rev. J. J. Patterson of High Point, was named chairman of the committee on brochure, and named to serve with him were E. L. Raiford, Raleigh; Clarence Gaines, Winston-Salem; Mrs. Mary Morrison, Statesville, and Mr. Gibson.

These committees will make their first reports at a meeting scheduled to be held on September 27 at the college.

SUMMER AT COLLEGE . . .

Bishop J. W. E. Bowen of the Atlantic Coast Area and Pres. Willa B. Player stand beneath portrait of the late Dr. David D. Jones in the president's office just before baccalaureate service at Bennett.

N.C. Methodists set '58 centennial celebration

GREENSBORO, N.C. — The committee on conference statistics and history of the North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Church met at Bennett College last week to draft preliminary plans for the centennial celebration of the conference to be held here in 1958.

Bennett representatives meeting with the ministers included President Willa B. Player, Dr. Hobart S. Jarrett, chairman of the division of humanities, and W. I. Gibson, director of public relations.

The Rev. Robert McRae of Fayetteville, chairman, citing the fact that the 100th anniversary will be held on the Bennett campus, said that highlights of the observance will be a banquet and an historical pageant portraying the origin and development of the conference.

A COMMITTEE on history, headed by the Rev. William R. Crawford, Winston - Salem councilman, was appointed with the following members: Miss Isabel R. Jones, Asheville; the Rev. G. Haven Caldwell, Greensboro; the Rev. C. E. Strickland, Charlotte, and Dr. Jarrett.

The Rev. J. J. Patterson of High Point was named chairman of the committee on brochure and named to serve with him were E. L. Raiford, Raleigh; Clarence Gaines, Winston Salem; Mrs. Mary Morrison, Statesville, and Mr. Gibson.

These committees will make their first reports at a meeting scheduled to be held on Sept. 27 at the college.

Conference Committee of N. C. Methodist Church Meets At Bennett College

Members of the committee on conference statistics and history of the North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Church, met at Bennett College last week to draft preliminary plans for the Centennial Celebration of the conference to be held here in 1958.

Bennett representatives meeting with the ministers included President Willa B. Player, Dr. Hobart S. Jarrett, chairman of the division of humanities and W. I. Gibson, director of public relations.

The Rev. Robert McRae, chairman, of Fayetteville, in calling attention to the fact that the 100th anniversary will be held on the Bennett campus, said that high-lights of the observance will be a banquet and an historical pageant portraying the origin and development of the conference. In addition, there will be suitable exhibits of photographs, costumes and mementos and an illustrated brochure.

A committee on history, headed by the Rev. Willam R. Crawford, Winston-Salem councilman, was appointed, with the following members: Miss Isabel R. Jones, Asheville; the Rev. G. Haven Caldwell, Greensboro; the Rev. C. E. Strickland, Charlotte, and Dr. Jarrett.

The Rev. J. J. Patterson of High Point, was named chairman of the committee on brochure, and named to serve with him were E. L. Raford, Raleigh; Clarence Gaines, Winston-Salem; Mrs. Mary Morrison, Statesville, and Mr. Gibson.

These committees will make their first reports at a meeting scheduled to be held on September 27 at the college.

WESLEYAN SERVICE GUILD MEMBERS VISIT BENNETT COLLEGE

Six members of the Wesleyan Service Guild of St. Mark's Methodist Church, New York City, accompanied by three other New Yorkers and a Baltimorean, visited Bennett College Tuesday.

The group was en route by train to Mexico, with other stops scheduled for Tuskegee, Alabama and New Orleans, La.

Head of the group was Mrs. Elizabeth J. Martin, with the following St. Mark's members in the party:

Misses Estella Brooks, Rose Colbert, and Martha Snowden, and Mesdames Dorothy Conners and Mattie Williams.

Other New Yorkers in the group were Miss Dorothe Beach, of St. Philip's Episcopal Church, and Mesdames Una White, Church of the Ascension, and Bertha Hagen of Abyssinian Baptist Church. Joining the group in Baltimore was Mrs. Rebecca Brown of that city.

The tourists are expected to return from Mexico early in August. They breakfasted at Bennett and made a tour of the campus, accompanied by President Willa B. Player.

Dr. Player

Dr. Willa B. Players, president of Bennett College will attend sessions of the National Council on Religion in Higher Education to be held August 20-26 at Dickerson College, Carlisle, Pa.

Dr. Player, who is a Kent Fellow of the council, is also a member of the North Carolina State Advisory Council on Higher Education and member-at-large of the executive committee of the North Carolina Council of Churches.

At Bennett:

Methodists' Centennial Plans Drafted

GREENSBORO — Members of the committee on conference statistics and history of the North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Church, met at Bennett College last week to draft preliminary plans for the Centennial Celebration of the conference to be held here in 1958.

Bennett representatives meeting with the ministers included President Willa B. Player, Dr. Hobart S. Jarrett, chairman of the division of humanities and W. I. Gibson, director of public relations.

The Rev. Robert McRae, chairman, of Fayetteville, in calling attention to the fact that the 100th anniversary will be held on the Bennett campus, said that highlights of the observance will be a banquet and an historical pageant portraying the origin and development of the conference. In addition, there will be suitable exhibits of photographs, costumes and mementos and an illustrated brochure.

A committee on history, headed by the Rev. William R. Crawford, Winston-Salem councilman, was appointed, with the following members: Miss Isabel R. Jones, Asheville; the Rev. G. Haven Caldwell, Greensboro; the Rev. C. E. Strickland, Charlotte, and Dr. Jarrett.

The Rev. J. J. Patterson of High Point, was named chairman of the committee on brochure, and named to serve with him were E. L. Raiford, Raleigh; Clarence Gaines, Winston-Salem; Mrs. Mary Morrison, Statesville, and Mr. Gibson.

These committees will make their first reports at a meeting scheduled to be held on September 27 at the college.

METHODIST YOUTH LEADERS—Officers of the Youth Council of the North Carolina Methodist Conference shown with their sponsors during recent meeting at Bennett College. Left to right, bottom row: the Rev. Douglas E. Moore and Misses Ruth Goolsby, Walnut Cove; Maxine West, Greensboro; Willie Waugh, treasurer, Fayetteville; Hilda Withers, president, Pine Hall; Edith Mayfield, Winston-Salem; and Pauline Wright, secretary, High Point; Back row, Wilbur Monroe, vice president, Laurinburg; Clyde Stewart, Laurinburg; Derry Galbreath, Fayetteville; and the Rev. G. E. Hogue Laurinburg. Little girl is Gail Knight, daughter of Mrs. Delilah Knight of Spindale, a member of the faculty.

BENNETT REPRESENTATIVES ATTEND INSTITUTE

Two Bennett College representatives — Dr. Hobart S Jarrett, chairman of the division of humanities, and W. I. Gibson, director of public relations — are in Nashville, Tenn., where they are attending the 13th Institute of Higher Education, July 29-31.

Young, Lincoln, Del.; Mrs. Thoris Young, Lincoln, Del.; Mrs. Emma Strother, Philadelphia, Pa.; and James Hardcastle, Dover, Del.

WASHINGTON CONFERENCE

Bernard Anderson, Annapolis, Md.; Mrs. Katherine Baker, Keyser, W. Va.; Miss Dorothy Barnette, Washington, D. C.; Mrs. Nora Bennett, Baltimore, Md.; Miss Naomi Boston, Grafton, W. Va.; Mrs. Willa Bouldin, Baltimore, Md.; Mrs. Virgie Broady, Roanoke, Va.; Mrs. Georgianna Brooks, Fairmont, W. Va.; Mrs. M. Loretta Brooks, Annapolis, Md.; Mrs. Marye Cabell, Lewisburg, W. Va.;

Rev. Ernest Clark, Charleston, W. Va.; Mrs. C. Davis, Baltimore, Md.; Mrs. Thelma Ellington, Grafton, W. Va.; Rev. John Evans, Lothian, Md.; Miss Yvonne Fisher, Glen Burnie, Md.; Rev. Kirkland Frazier, Washington, D. C.; Edward Gaddis, Washington, D. C.; Miss Anita Jackson, White Sulphur Springs, W. Va.; Mrs. Ruth Lancaster, Washington, D. C.; Mrs. Sallie Larkins, Baltimore, Md.; Mrs. Julia Lewis, Grafton, W. Va.;

Miss Phyllis Meadows, Roanoke, Va.; Rev. Levi Miller, Baltimore, Md.; Mrs. Nellie Parker, Baltimore, Md.; Mrs. Clytie Perry, Baltimore, Md.; Miss Hilda Perry, Washington, D. C.; Miss Vera Reese, Washington, D. C.; Mrs. Edna Renick, Lewisburg, W. Va.; Mrs. Annie Thompson, Baltimore, Ma.;

Calvin Thompson, Baltimore, Md.; Miss Evelyn Tymous, Washington, D. C.; Miss Florence Wheeler, Baltimore, Md.; Mrs. Edna Williams, Baltimore Md.; Rev. Ezra Williams, Baltimore, Md.; Mrs. Ruth Williams, Baltimore, Md.; and Mrs. Myrtle Wood, Baltimore, Md.

NORTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE

Rev. Glenn Brooks, Lexington; Mrs. Martha Burwick and the Rev. Oscar Burwick, Asheboro; Mrs. Cleo Comer, Salisbury; Miss Pauline Eller, Winston-Salem; Rev. James Gwyn, Oxford; Rev. G. E. Hogue, Laurinburg; Rev. J. T. Jones, Gastonia; Mrs. Delilah Knight, Spindale;

Miss Daisie McCallum, Red Springs; Miss Estelle McCallum, Greensboro, Miss Fannie McCallum, Greensboro; Miss Flossie McNair, Wagram; Rev. Douglas Moore, Greensboro; Rev. R. C. Sharpe, Fayetteville; Mrs. Lubertha Thompson, Maxton; and Mrs. D. A. Wooten, Charlotte.

Carolina C...
Following ... the complete registration ...

Mrs. Janie Barnes, Baltimore; Mrs. Estella Brooks, Baltimore; Mrs. Viola Cannon, Baltimore; The Rev. Harvey G. Chase, Jr., Gordova, Md., Charles W. Creek, Annapolis, Md.; William H. Davis, Annapolis, Md.; Leonard B Eldridge, Rural Hall, N. C.; Clarence Govans, Rocks, Md.; Mrs. Edith Gross, Annapolis, Md; James L. Harris, Baltimore; William J Hayden, Roanoke, Va.;

Phillip A. Henry, Chestertown, Md.; Mrs. Martha Hollis, Chester, Pa.; Mrs. Mary D. Hundley, Mt. Royal, N. J.; Walter Hurd, Staunton, Va.; Nathaniel W. Jackson, New River, Va.; E. J. Jones, Asheboro, N. C.; Clifford E. Landrum, Townsend, Dela.; Jeremiah R. Lee, Tyaskin, Md.; D. T. Lewis, Seaford, Del.; William T. Lyles, Baltimore, Md.; Robert H. McDowell, Charlotte, N. C.;

John McEachin, Raeford, N. C. Bluford C. Miller, Rural Hall, N. C.; Mrs. Hazel Molock, Vienna, Md.; Cawilla Pinder, Hurlock, Md.; Mrs. Creolia Rice, Rocks, Md.; Mrs. Martha C. Robbins, Wilmington, Del.; Theodore Sembly, Hinton, W. Va.; Mrs. Irene Simpson, New Rochelle, N. Y.; H. Alexander Smith, Winston-Salem, N. C.; Martin C. Stafford, Chester, Md.; George L. Stanley, Hurlock, Md.; Everett W. Stevenson, Washington, D. C.; Mrs. Bertha S. Thompson, Bluefield, W. Va.;

Mrs. Julia S. Thompson, Chattanooga, Tenn.; Mrs. Geneva H. Tilgham, Frederick, Md.; Mrs. Grace Watson, Baltimore, Md.; William H. Watson, Baltimore, Md.; James F. Watters, Joppa, Md.; Joseph A. Wilson, Lake City, S. C.; and Wilbert C. Young, Reisterstown, Md.

Five Graduates Of Bennett Were Married During June

GREENSBORO — Dan Cupid fell a bit short of his usual number of Bennett College graduates choosing June as the month in which to be married, according to announcements received in the alumnae office this month.

Wedding announcements from five graduates and one from a former student were received as follows:

Miss Margaret Tatum, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Berkeley Tatum, and a 1957 graduate, was married to James Warren; Miss Dorothy Harris, another 1957 graduate, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Harris, of Greensboro, was married to Shelton Williams, and another classmate, Miss Geraldine Parrish, daughter of Mr and Mrs. William Parrish, to Lt. Flemming A. Cheek.

14 Pastors Graduate At Methodist School

GREENSBORO, N.C.—The annual Baltimore Area Pastors' School of the Methodist Church ended here recently when 14 of the 50 persons attending wound up their four-year course of summer study.

Held each year for approved ("supply") pastors and local pastors not on the approved list, the school aim to help in six general areas in which a minister should be prepared. Courses are held for four weeks each summer and after having satisfactorily completed this work, the pastors are "graduated."

The Rev. Charles L. Carrington of Jamaica, N.Y., who has served as dean of the school for several years, had on his faculty this year the following ministers:

W. S. McLeod, High Point, Old Testament; Edward D. McGowan, Washington, D.C., New Testament; Ramsey Bridges, Pittsburgh, Pa., Pastoral Psychology; Joshua E. Licorish, Philadelphia, Pa., Church History; Walter R. Hazzard, Philadelphia, Pa., Christian Doctrine; Howard A. Bailey, Philadelphia, Pa., Christian Education and Levi B. Miller, Baltimore, Md., Education, Music and Worship.

Bennett graduate weds in York, S.C.

YORK, S.C. — Miss Annie Louise Wright, a 1953 graduate of Bennett College, Greensboro, N.C., became the bride of Larney Alston Jr., in a ceremony performed at the John Wesley Methodist Church, here Saturday, at 5:30 p.m.

Miss Wright, a chemical analyst at Columbia University, New York City, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Wright Sr. of 24 Hill Street.

'Gets masters degree at U. of Rochester

ROCHESTER, N.Y. — Mrs. Alice Holloway Young, a native of Warrenton, N.C., and a 1944 graduate of Bennett College, Greensboro, N.C., was awarded the master of education degree at the 107th annual commencement of the University of Rochester.

Members Wesleyan Service Guild Visit Bennett College

Greensboro, N. C.—Six members of the Wesleyan Service Guild of St. Mark's Methodist Church, New York City, accompanied by three other New Yorkers and a Baltimorean, visited Bennett College Tuesday.

The group was en route by train to Mexico, with other stops scheduled for Tuskegee, Ala., and New Orleans, La.

Head of the group was Mrs. Elizabeth J. Martin, with the following St. Mark's members in the party:

Misses Estella Brooks, Rose Colbert and Martha Snowden and Mesdames Dorothy Conners and Mattie Williams.

Other New Yorkers in the group were Miss Dorothea Beach, of St. Phillip's Episcopal Church, and Mesdames Una White, Church of the Ascension and Bertha Hagen of Abyssinian Baptist Church. Joining the group in Baltimore was Mrs. Rebecca Brown of that city.

The tourists are expected to return from Mexico early in August. They breakfasted at Bennett and made a tour of the campus, accompanied by Pr... dent Willa B. Player.

ATTENDED PASTORS' SCHOOL—Students and faculty of the annual Baltimore Area Pastors' School of the Methodist Church are shown just before concluding their four-week study period at Bennett College, Greensboro, recently. Fourteen of this group, who have completed four summers of study, were "graduated" on Friday.

SOME OF THE 125 BOYS AND GIRLS from all over the state who attended the Youth Institute of the North Carolina Methodist Conference are shown with their counselors at Bennett College just before the close of their one-week session. Standing at extreme right of second row is the Rev. Douglas E. Moore, institute director.

Pastors' school had 50 in attendance

GREENSBORO, N.C. — The annual Baltimore Area Pastors' School of the Methodist Church ended here Friday when 14 of the 50 persons attending wound up their four - year course of summer study.

Held each year for approved (supply) pastors and local pastors not on the approved list, the school aims to help in six general areas in which a minister should be prepared.

Among these are Christian doctrine, pastoral psychology and church history. Courses are held for four weeks each summer and after having satisfactorily completed this work, the pastors are "graduated."

* * *

THE REV. Charles L. Carrington of Jamaica, N.Y., who has served as dean of the school for several years, had on his faculty this year the following ministers:

W. S. McLeod, High Point, Old Testament; Edward D. McGowan, Washington, D.C., New Testament; Ramsey Bridges, Pittsburgh, pastoral psychology; Joshua E. Licorish, Philadelphia, church history;

Walter R. Hazzard, Philadelphia, Christian doctrine; Howard A. Bailey, Philadelphia, Christian education, and Levi B. Miller, Baltimore, education, music and worship.

* * *

THE REV. J. E. Brower of Greensboro, was treasurer and business manager. Leading in enrollment was the Washington Conference with 19, followed by the Delaware Conference with 13.

There were six from the North Carolina Conference, three from the East Tennessee Conference and one from the South Carolina Conference.

Following is the complete registration list:

Mrs. Janie Barnes, Baltimore; Mrs. Estella Brooks, Baltimore; Mrs. Viola Cannon, Baltimore; the Rev. Harvey T. Chase Jr., Cordova, Md.; Charles W. Creek, Annapolis, Md.; William H. Davis, Annapolis, Md.; Leonard B. Eldridge, Rural Hall, N.C.; Clarence Govans, Rocks, Md.; Mrs. Edith Gross, Annapolis, Md.; James L. Harris, Baltimore; William J. Hayden, Roanoke, Va.;

* * *

PHILIP A. HENRY, Chestertown, Md.; Mrs. Martha Hollis, Chester, Pa.; Mrs. Mary D. Hundley, Mt. Royal, N.J.; Walter Hurd, Staunton, Va.; Nathaniel W. Jackson, New River, Va.; E. L. Jones, Asheboro, N.C.; Clifford E. Landrum, Townsend, Del.; Jeremiah R. Lee, Tyaskin, Md.; D. T. Lewis, Seaford, Del.; William T. Lyles, Baltimore, Md.; Robert H. McDowell, Charlotte, N.C.;

John McEachin, Raeford, N.C.; Buford C. Miller, Rural Hall, N.C.; Mrs. Hazel Molock, Vienna, Md.; Cawilla Pinder, Hurlock, Md.; Mrs. Creolia Rice, Rocks, Md.; Mrs. Martha C. Robbins, Wilmington, Del.; Theodore Sembly, Hinton, W. Va.; Mrs. Irene Simpsn, New Rochelle, N.Y.; H. Alexander Smith, Winston - Salem, N.C.; Martin C. Stafford, Chester, Md.; George L. Stanley, Hurlock, Md.; Everett W. Stevenson, Washington, D.C.; Mrs. Bertha S. Thompson, Bluefield, W. Va.;

Mrs. Julia S. Thompson, Chattanooga, Tenn.; Mrs. Geneva H. Tilghman, Frederick, Md.; Mrs. Grace Watson, Baltimore, Md.; William H. Watson, Baltimore, Md.; James F. Watters, Joppa, Md.; Joseph A. Wilson, Lake City, S.C.; and Wilbert C. Young, Reisterstown, Md.

Pittman-Cox wedding held

CHARLOTTE, N.C. — First Baptist Church of this city, was the scene of the wedding of Miss Delores Patella Cox and Samuel Lee Pittman, recently.

Tre bride was given in marriage by her father, Julius Cox. She wore a gown of Chantilly lace over nylon tulle with a chapel-length train. She carried a crescent shaped bouquet of daisies topped by a white orchid.

* * *

MISS ELAINE COX, sister of the bride, was maid-of-honor. She wore a waltz length gown of pink taffeta with a matching headpiece and carried a bouquet of pink dasies.

Bridesmaids wore waltz length gowns of white taffeta with pink cummberbunds that ended in a huge bow in the back. They were Mrs. Dorothy Williams and Miss Gwendolyn Harris of Greensboro, N.C., Miss Lea Dunston of Brooklyn, N.Y. Misses Mildred Dwiggins, Dorothy Carr and Louise Pittman, sister of the bridegroom of Charlotte.

Denise Jones of the Bronx, N.Y. and Joyce Yeldell of Charlotte, cousins of the bride, were flower girls. Their dresses were exactly like those of the bridesmaids.

Miss Delores Dwiggins furnished organ music throughout the ceremony.

* * *

MR. PITTMAN had as his best man his brother, John Pittman. His ushers were Arthur Patrick, Cleveland, Ohio; Ulysses Faulkner, Virginia; John Hairston, Marvin Grigsby, David Hunter and Jerome Williams of Charlotte.

The mother of the bride, Mrs. Lutetia Cox, wore a white lace street-length sheath with taffeta trim, while the bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Louise Pittman, wore lettuce green lace with full skirt.

The reception was held in the dining room of the church.

After the wedding the bridal couple left for New York City.

MISS BARBARA BROWN
Studied In France

BACK home after a year's study in France on a Fulbright Scholarship, Miss Barbara Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond R. Brown, 749 Diagonal road, Akron, Ohio, disembarks from the SS Statendam in New York City. Miss Brown is a graduate of Bennett College, Greensboro, N. C., one of the 31 member colleges of the the United Negro College Fund.

Pine Hall Girl Elected To Head Methodists

GREENSBORO

Miss Hilda Withers, a member of Withers Chapel Church at Pine Hall, was elected president of the Youth Council of the North Carolina Conference Methodist Youth Institute as that organization closed its one-week sessions at Bennett College, here Friday.

Miss Withers, a sophomore, majoring in applied sociology at A. &T. College, will be assisted by the following officers:

Wilbur Monroe, Laurinburg, vice president; Pauline Wright, High Point, secretary, and Willie Waugh, Fayetteville, treasurer.

The following committee chairmen were also elected: Derry Galbreath, Fayetteville, faith; Clyde Stewart, Laurinburg, witness; Ruth Goolsby, Walnut Cove, outreach; Edith Mayfield, Winston-Salem, citizenship, and Maxine Webb, Greensboro, fellowship.

This year's institute, headed by the Rev. Douglas Moore, attracted 125 persons, largest in the history of the conference. In addition to lectures, discussions and workshops, there was a variety of recreational activities.

BACK FROM FRANCE

NEW YORK, July 12 — Back home after a year's study in France on a Fulbright Scholarship, Miss Barbara Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond R. Brown (749 Diagonal Road), Akron, Ohio, disembarks from the SS Statendam. Miss Brown is a graduate of Bennett College, Greensboro, N. C., one of the 31 member coleges of the United Negro College Fund.

Pastors School Closes At Bennett College

The annual Baltimore Area Pastors' school of the Methodist Church ended Friday when 14 of the 50 persons attending wound up their four-year course of summer study.

Held each year for approved ("supply") pastors and local pastors not on the approved list, the school aims to help in six general areas in which a minister should be prepared, among them Christian doctrine, pastoral psychology and church history. Courses are held for four weeks each summer and after having satisfactorily completed this work, the pastors are "graduated."

The Rev. Charles L. Carrington of Jamaica, N. Y., who has served as dean of the school for several years, had on his faculty this year the following ministers:

W. S. McLeod, High Point, Old Testament; Edward D. McGowan, Washington, D. C., New Testament; Ramsey Bridges, Pittsburgh, Pa., Pastoral Psychology; Joshua E. Licorish, Philadelphia, Pa., Church History; Walter R. Hazzard, Philadelphia, Pa., Christian Doctrine; Howard A. Bailey, Philadelphia, Pa., Christian Education, and Levi B. Miller, Baltimore, Md., Education, Music and Worship.

The Rev. J. E. Brower of Greensboro, was treasurer and business manager. Leading in enrollment was the Washington Conference with 19, followed by the Delaware Conference with 13. There were six from the North Carolina Conference three from the East Tennesse Conference and one from the South

1957 Grad Of Bennett:

Miss Carolyn Ingram To Enter Psychiatry Study At U. N. C.

GREENSBORO — Miss Carolyn Ingram, of Durham, 1957 graduate of Bennett College, will begin the study of psychiatric social work at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill in the fall, leading to the master's degree.

The daughter of Mrs. B. Ingram Williamson, Miss Ingram is a graduate of Durham's Hillside High School, where she consistently made the honor roll, she was secretary of the Student Senate, a member of the Senior Marshal Board and the Senior Theatre Guild.

She was also winner of the David D. Jones Leadership Award for having exhibited the most outstanding qualities of leadership in the activities of the David D. Jones Student Union during the past school year.

It is believed that Miss Ingram will be the first woman of her race to be accepted for graduate work at Chapel Hill in the history of the university.

North Carolina Methodist Youth Meet In Greensboro

Officers of the North Carolina Methodist Conference are shown with their sponsors during a recent meeting at Bennett College, Greensboro, N. C.

Left to right, front row, are: the Rev. Douglas E. Moore and Misses Ruth Goolsby, Walnut Cove; Maxine West, Greensboro; Willie Waugh, treasurer, Fayetteville; Hilda Withers, president, Pine Hall; Edith Mayfield, Winston-Salem, and Pauline Wright, secretary, High Point.

Back row: Wilbur Monroe, vice-president, and Clyde Stewart, Laurinburg; Derry Galbreath, Fayetteville, and the Rev. G. E. Hogue, Laurinburg. The little girl is Gail Knight, daughter of Mrs. Delilah Knight, of Spindale, a member of the faculty.

YOUNG METHODIST LEADERS—Some of the 125 boys and girls from all over the state who attended the Youth Institute of the North Carolina Methodist Conference are shown with their counselors at Bennett College, Greensboro, just before the close of their one-week sessions.

Jones Is Given Harvard Post

Frank S. Jones of Greensboro has been appointed to the faculty of the Harvard Business School, it was announced yesterday by Dean Stanley F. Teele. Jones will be an administrative assistant to the dean and work with the director of admissions.

Jones, son of the late David Dallas Jones, president of Bennett College from 1926 until 1956 received his AB in social relations from Harvard College in 1950 and his MBA from the business school in 1957.

Greensboro Couple Wed In Morning

GREENSBORO, N. C. — Miss Dorothy Harris and Shelton Daniel Williams of Greensboro were married on Saturday, June 1st at 11:00 a. m. in Our Lady of the Miraculous Medal Catholic Church by Reverend Father Donavon.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde J. Harris. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Mary G. Williams and the late Booker T. Williams.

* * *

MRS. DORIS B. Rice, Jacqueline Herbin, Walter Guest and the church choir provided the music.

The bride given in marriage by her father wore a floor length white gown of embroidered tulle over taffeta, fashioned with scalloped neckline, long sleeves and fitted bodice, attached to a bouffant skirt and chapel train. Her tiered veil of illusion was crowned with sequins and pearls. She carried a white Bible covered with white baby breath and an orchid.

* * *

MISS GWENDOLYN Harris, bride's twin sister, was maid of honor. The bridesmaids were Misses Joyce Harris, sister of the bride, Greensboro; Yvonne Clawson, Belmont, N. C.; Jamesena Watkins, Greensboro; Dorothy Carr, Charlotte, N. C. The bride's cousins Diane Haith, Greensboro and Blanche Alston, New York were flower girls. Kim Poe, Greensboro was ring bearer.

The maid of honor wore a street length dress of aqua and a flowered headress; the bridesmaids wore yellow. All carried bouquets of carnations and baby breath.. The flower girls wore aqua and yellow dresses and carried baskets of rose petals.

* * *

MR. WILLIAMS had his cousin, Odell Shoffner for best man. Ushers were William Crawford, Richard Wiseman, Marvin Watkins, all of Greensboro and Sammie Pittman, Charlotte.

After the Nuptial Mass a reception was given at the home of the aunt and uncle of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. John Perry, 1009 Benbow Road.

* * *

THE COUPLE will make their home for the summer in Alexandria, Va.

Mrs. Williams is

Bridal Couple Receive Congratulations

Mr. and Mrs. Shelton Daniel Williams of Greensboro, N. C., receive congratulations from the best man, Odell Shoffner; and ushers, William Crawford, Richard Wiseman, Marvin Watkins, and Sammie Pittman after their marriage. The ring bearer is Kim Poe.

Miss Harris takes vows

GREENSBORO, N.C. — Miss Dorothy Harris and Shelton Daniel Williams were married recently in Our Lady of the Miraculous Medal Catholic Church by the Rev. Father Donavon.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde J. Harris. The bridegroom is the son of Mary G. Williams and the late Booker T. Williams.

Mrs. Doris B. Rice, Jacqueline Herbin, Walter Guest and the church choir furnished the music.

* * *

THE BRIDE was given in marriage by her father. Miss Gwendolyn Harris, the bride's twin sister was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were the Misses Joyce Harris, sister of the bride, Yvonne Clawson, Belmont, N.C.; Jamesena Watkins, Dorothy Carr, Charlotte, N.C.

The bride's cousins Diane Haith and Blanche Alston, New York were flower girls. Kim Poe was ring bearer.

Odell Shoffner, cousin of the bridegroom was bestman.

Ushers were William Crawford, Richard Wiseman, Marvin Watkins and Sammie Pittman, Charlotte.

* * *

THE BRIDE wore a floor length white gown of embroidered tulle over taffeta fashioned with scalloped neckline, long sleeves and fitted bodice, attached to a bouffant skirt and chapel train.

Her tierred veil of illusion was crowned with sequins and pearls. She carried a white Bible covered with white baby's breath and an orchid.

The maid of honor wore a street length dress of aqua and a flowered headdress. The bridesmaids wore yellow. All carried bouquets of carnations and baby's breath. The flower girls wore aqua and yellow dresses and carried baskets of rose petals.

After the nuptial mass, a reception was held at the home of the aunt and uncle of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. John Perry.

The couple will make their home in Alexandria, Va.

Mrs. Williams is a graduate of Bennett College. Mr. Williams is a graduate of the Agricultural and Technical College and is now serving with the 356th Army Band, Fort Belvoir, Va.

BENNETT JUNIOR WEDS — Miss Young Tack Lee, of Seoul, Korea, a junior at Bennett College, Greensboro, N.C., was married to Jhin Woo Park, who was her childhood sweetheart back home. Among the bridesmaids was Miss Ruth Anderson of Philadelphia, roommate of the bride. Mr. Park is a diplomatic science major at Brevard College in North Carolina.

Little Girl, Big Trunk—Demetric Carstarphen, a rising Bennett College junior, of Oak Hill, Ala., finds that moving a heavy trunk from the basement storeroom requires more strength than she can muster. Fortunately, help, in the form of a photographer, appeared and she was able to make her train.

BENNETT COLLEGE GRAD TO STUDY SOCIAL WORK AT UNC

Miss Carolyn Ingram of Durham, a 1957 graduate of Bennett College, will begin the study of psychiatric social work at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill in the fall, leading to the masters degree.

The daughter of Mrs. B. Ingram Williamson, Miss Ingram is a graduate of Durham's Hillside High School, where she was president of the Student Council. At Bennett, where she consistently made the honor roll, she was secretary of the Student Senate, a member of the Senior Marshal Board, and of the Senior Theatre Guild. She was also winner of the David D. Jones Leadership Award for having exhibited the most outstanding qualities of leadership in the activities of the David D. Jones Student Union during the past school year.

It is believed that Miss Ingram will be the first woman of her race to be accepted for graduate work at Chapel Hill in the history of the university.

1927-1952 BENNETT GRADS — Members of '37 class present for 20th reunion (top photo) are, from left, Mesdames Robert R. Logwood, Zepplyn S. Averett, (Miss) Alsie Trammell, Ella R. Smith, Geraldine A. Totten, (Miss) Juanita Wells, all of Greensboro; Corinne H. Harris, Pittsburgh; Fannie S. Leary, Greensboro, and sister, Dorothy S. Smith, Bowie, Md. Members of '52 class (lower photo) are, from left, Mesdames Thelma B. Bryant, Washington (D.C.), Rachael P. Young, Stony Creek, Va., Eva B. Dunston, Danville, Va.; Misses Shirley Cundiff, Boonville, Fay Foster, Greensboro, and Clara McCain, Flint, Mich.

RACE YOU ACROSS!—These four members of the advanced swimming class at Bennett College, Greensboro, N. C., are all set to race each other across the pool at the Hayes-Taylor YMCA. Left to right: Ada Lomax, Tobyhanna, Pa.; Ietta Jones, Hallandale, Fla.; Izetta Hicks, Philadelphia, Pa., and Veronica Dean, Miami, Fla.

MISS ENSLEY AWARDED DEGREE; MISS FREEMAN DOING RESEARCH

Miss Mary E. Ensley, of Birmingham, Alabama, a 1955 graduate of Bennett College, was awarded the degree of M. S. in social administration when Western Reserve University in Cleveland, Ohio, held its commencement exercises last week.

A classmate, Miss Gwendolyn Freeman, of Kansas City, Mo., who spent a year in Germany as a Fulbright Scholar, is now an assistant to Prof. Rolf at the University of Kansas, Lawrence, Kansas, doing polio virus research.

Bennett Junior Of Korea Marries Childhood Beau

MRS. JHIN WOO PARK
Married In New York

United States at the same time.

MR. PARK, a senior in diplomatic science at Brevard (N. C.) College, plans graduate study and Mrs. Park will return in September to Bennett where she is a general home economics major.

She designed and in one weekend, made her own Princess-style wedding gown which contained 11 yards of floral lace over 11 yards of taffeta, and also made her wedding veil of white nylon, trimmed in lace. Mrs. Park is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sun Hi Lee, of Seoul.

Among Miss Lee's bridesmaids was Miss Ruth Anderson, of Philadelphia, her roommate. The newlyweds, who were childhood sweethearts in Korea, came to the United States at the same time.

Bennett signs study program

GREENSBORO, N.C.—Agreement has been reached between Bennett College and the Washington College of Law of American University, Washington, for a collaborative liberal arts program, it was announced here this week.

Under this program, the Bennett College student at the end of the junior year, will be able to enroll in the law school.

If successful in the first year, the student would then be certified to receive a bachelor of arts degree from Bennett. At the end of two more years in the law school, the student would receive a bachelor of laws degree.

The collaborative program permits a student to complete a seven - year program in six years, plus two baccalaureate degrees. American University and Bennett, are Methodist related institution.

Korean Student At Bennett College Weds Countryman

Greensboro, N. C.—Miss Young Tack Lee, of Seoul, Korea, a junior at Bennett College, became the bride of Jhin Woo Park, also of Seoul, in a ceremony performed last Sunday at the Korean Methodist Church on Riverside Drive, New York City.

Among Miss Lee's bridesmaids was Miss Ruth Anderson, of Philadephia, her roommate. The newlyweds, who were childhood sweethearts in Korea, came to the United States at the same time.

Mr. Park, a senior in diplomatic sciences at Brevard College, plans graduate study and Mrs. Park will return in September to Bennett where is a general home economics major.

She designed and, in one week-end, made her own Princess-style wedding gown, which contained 11 yards of white floral lace over 11 yards of white taffeta, and also made her wedding veil of white nylon, trimmed in lace. Mrs. Park is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sun Hi Lee, of Seoul.

DAN CUPID FALLS SHORT OF USUAL JUNE QUOTA

Dan Cupid fell a bit short of his usual quota of Bennett College graduates choosing June as the month in which to be married, according to announcements received in the alumnae office this month.

Wedding announcements from five graduates and one from a former student were received as follows:

Miss Margaret Tatum, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Berkeley Tatum, and a 1957 graduate, was married to James Warren; Miss Dorothy Harris, also a 1957 graduate, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Harris of Greensboro, was married to Shelton Williams, and another classmate, Miss Geraldine Parrish, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Parrish, of Glendale, Ohio, was married to Lt. Flemming A. Cheek.

Miss Jacquelyn Lightsey, of the class of 1955, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert King, of Miami, Flordia, was married to the Rev. Arthur J. Collier, Jr., and Miss Delors Cox, of the class of 1956, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Julius Cox of Charlotte, was married to Sammie Pittman.

A former student, Miss Lillian Henry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Henry of Greensboro, was married to John D. Hopkins, Jr.

The responsibility of our American educational institutions is to give youth a satisfactory spiritual foundation for life.

'If democracy is to live, segregation must die...'

afro 2/22/58

DR. MARTIN L. KING gestures as he tells Bennett large audience at Bennett College last week that "old man Segregation is on death bed."

GREENSBORO, N.C. — "We have come a long, long way, but still have a long, long way to go," Dr. Martin L. King Jr., leader of the bus boycott in Montgomery, Ala., told an interracial audience of over 1,500 at Bennett College here Tuesday. "But if democracy is to live, segregation must die," he declared.

The meeting was sponsored by the Greensboro branch of the NAACP. Dr. King is president of the Montgomery Improvement Association. He spoke to a standing - room only audience in Pfeiffer Chapel, and to an additional 600 persons in the Little Theatre and the Science Assembly Auditorium to which the program had been piped.

He received a standing ovation when he was introduced by the Rev. C. W. Anderson, pastor of United Institutional Baptist Church, and another when he had completed his hour - long address. He then made personal appearances in the other two auditoriums so that his unseen listeners might see him.

In a reference to the Montgomery victory, Dr. King made it clear that the victory was not due to him personally but to 50,800 people who suddenly decided to substitute "tired feet for tired souls."

* * *

"THEY HAD taken all that they could stand," he declared.

In reviewing the history of racial progress from the landing of the first settlers in 1619 to the present, Dr. King reminded his listeners that while much progress has been made, there is still much work to be done on many front.

"Old Man Segregation is on his death bed," he declared "but there are guardians of th law still around with their ox gen tent trying to keep hi alive.

"There are many more wb persons of good will in South than we can see on surface. The Eastlands, Griffins and the Talmadges voice the sentiments of only a small minority," Dr. King declared.

HE CAUTIONED his listeners against either extreme optimism or extreme pessimism in viewing the progress that has been made in race relations, urging that they instead take a realistic view which seeks to combine the truths of the two viewpoints, while avoiding the extremes of each.

Among the encouraging signs to Dr. King is the growing tendency of our people to reevaluate their own intrinsic worth and destiny and he pointed out the following things which we must do in the coming years if we are to survive:

1. Maintain a continuing sense of dignity and self-respect.

2. Gain support of others by improving standards of cleanliness and morality.

* * *

3. GAIN political power by wise use of the ballot.

4. Give more money to the cause of freedom.

5. Continue to develop wise, courageous and sincere leaders who will avoid the extremes of hotheadedness and Uncle Tomism.

6. Continue to struggle with the weapons of love and nonviolence.

As a final admonition to leaders who frequently lose the common touch with the masses, Dr. King said: "We will never get into the promised land unless all of us get in together."

MISS MATTIWILDA DOBBS, left, autographs programs for admiring students following her concert at Bennett College, Greensboro, N. C., Tuesday night. Facing camera are Misses Marian Benton of Greensboro, and Miss Marian Mims of McDade, La.

Afro 2/22/58

Fifteen Bennett College Students Make "A" Honor Roll

Future Author 4/22/58

Fifteen students who made "A" in all courses for the first semester led the list of 126 Bennett College on the honor roll.

They were honored at a chapel program on Student Recognition Day, sponsored by Alpha Kappa Mu, national honor society.

Dr. Hobart S. Jarrett, chairman of the division of humanities, addressed the students, and citations were read by Miss Veronica Shipley, senior of Baltimore, Md., president of the local chapter. Certificates were presented by Misses Dolores Casimere, of Galveston, Texas, and Jimmie English, of Camden, S. C.

The complete honor roll list follows:

— SENIORS —

Misses Bettye Alexander, New York City; Carole Anderson, Greenville, S. C.; Geneva Baldwin, Pittsboro; Marlene Beavers, Danville, Va.; Helen F. Becket, Bowling Green, Ky.; Eleanor Bell, Wilmington; Emma J. Blackstock, Leaksville; Carolyn Brown, Johnson City, Tenn.; Dolores Casimer, Galveston, Texas; Peggy Coefield, Kinston; Joan Cooley, Hendersonville; Muriel Darrell, Flatts, Bermuda; Beulah Demons, Greensboro; Robbie G. Dolphus, Greensboro; Jimmie English, Camden; Nancy Haith, Leaksville; Barbara Hammond, Winston-Salem; Ruby Harris, Greensboro;

Misses Barbara Hickman, Freeport, Ill.; Patricia Hopkins, Miami, Fla.; Charlotte Jackson, Lima, Ohio; Willie Jackson, Red Springs; Annie P. Jessup, Greensboro; Sonia Louden, Cincinnati, Ohio; Lola McAdoo, Greensboro; Ruth McAlister, Kingstree, S. C.; Ann R. McCoy, Greensboro; Betty J. McLean, Greensboro; Mamie McLurkin, Chester, S. C.; Betty Middleton, Burton, S. C.; Fannie L. Miles, Brooklyn, N. Y.; Shirley Moore, Camden, N. J.; Shirley Philson, Charlotte; Loretta Richmond, Greensboro; Oyeyemi Salako, Nigeria, W. Africa; Veronica Shipley, Baltmore, Md.;

Misses Gertrude Smith, Greensboro; Gloria Smith, Miami, Fla.; Vinia Spivey, Bronx, N. Y.; Yvonne Thomas, Greensboro; Frances Thurston, Miami, Fla.; Deloris Tonkins, Greensboro; Onuma Uko, Nigeria, W. Africa; Carole S. Wade, Graham, N. C.; Linelle Walker, Nassau, Bahamas;

Misses Fredrica Washington, Beaufort, S. C.; Shirley Waters, Dudley; Addie Watson, Charlotte; Evelyn Webb, Norfolk, Va.; Sonja Weldon, Chicago, Ill.; Dolores Wiggins, Petersburg, Va.; Shirley Woods, Graham; Rosemary Wright, Camden, S. C.; Yvonne Wynne, Jamaica, N. Y.

— JUNIORS —

Misses Rudene Abney, Norristown, Pa.; Ida R. Bullock, Manson; Jamesena Chalmers, Fayetteville; Veronica L. Lean, Miami, Fla.; Eleanor B. Fields, Richmond, Va.; Rosalind Goodson, Clayton; Marion Grant, Macon, Ga.; Cecile Harrison, Houston, Tex.; Mary B. Knight, Greensboro; Sarah Lawrence, Evanston, Ill.; Carolyn Martin, Durham; Queen Murphy, Fayetteville; Nannie Poole, Baltimore, Md.; Josephine A. Raiford, Greensboro; Mary E. Shoffner, Greensboro; Ruby N. Starks, Troutman; Mary J. Williams, Winston - Salem; Doris Wyche, New Canaan, Conn.

— SOPHOMORES —

Misses Johnsie Adams, Leaksville; Sylvania Black, Marlin, Tex.; Mary E. Boone, Sanford; Gloria E. Brown, Bronx, N. Y.; Nancy Choi, Seoul, Korea; Joan E. Cogdell, Clarksville, Del.; Estelle E. Davis, Camden, S. C.; Marilyn A. Frazier, Smithfield; Bernice I. Green, Anderson, S. C.; Helen R. Houston, Nashville, Tenn.; Edna O. Jones, Lenoir, N. C.; Dorothy Jordan, Goldsboro;

Misses Frances E. Keck, Greensboro; Nancy J. Kirby, Haddonfield, N. J.; Lucy R. Martin, Reidsville; Frances E. McCallum, Red Springs; Ethel J. Riggsbee, Chapel Hill; Laura F. Sawyer, Salisbury; Blanche Tuboku - Metzger, Freetown, Sierra Leone; Edith M. Tucker, Elkin; Betty J. Wright, Shelby; Lillie B. Wright, Hewlett; Edna M. Zachary, Hertford;

— FRESHMEN —

Misses Esther M. Alexander, Warrenton; Millicent Allen, Philadelphia Pa.; Margaret Bailey, Fruitland, Md.; Carolyn Y. Bennett, Miami, Fla.; Geraldine Brown, Greensboro; Linda Brown, Akron, Ohio; Lola Campbell, Greensboro; Jacqueline Daise, Wilmington; Eunice I. Hawkins, Brandywine, Md.; Jean F. Hayes, Winston-Salem; Lucy H. Howell, Concord; Iris Jeffries, Burlington; Doris A. Luck, Asheboro; Gwendolyn Mackel, Chicago, Ill.

Misses Elishama Madison, Miami, Fla., Jo Ann Martin, Leaksville; Saundra McBride, Sumter, S. C.; Gloria McKnight, Gainsville, Fla.; Barbara Melvin, St. Petersburg, Fla.; Freddre Patterson, Lenoir; Charletta Pickering, Sumter, S. C.; Idajeanne Robinson, Oberlin, Ohio; Leacy B. Shipman, Whiteville; Marion Simmons, Fayetteville; Minnie L. Sims, Greensboro; Merry J. Sparrow, Covington, Va.; Shirley Thompson, St. Pauls; Audrey Williams, Harrisburg, Pa.; Johnnie Williams, Leaksville; and Valaida Wynne, Wilkes-Barre, Pa.

126 make honor roll at Bennett College

GREENSBORO, N.C. — Fifteen students who made "A" in all courses for the first semester and led the list of 126 at Bennett College on the honor roll were honored at a chapel program on Student Recognition Day, sponsored by Alpha Kappa Mu, national honor society.

Dr. Hobart S. Jarrett, chairman of the division of humanities, addressed the students and citations were read by Miss Veronica Shipley, senior of Baltimore, president of the local chapter.

Certificates were presented by Misses Dolores Casimere of Galveston, Texas, and Jimmie English of Camden, S.C.

The complete honor roll list follows:

SENIORS

MISSES BETTYE ALEXANDER, NYC; Carole Anderson, Greenville, S.C.; Geneva Baldwin, Pittsboro; Marlene Beavers, Danville, Va.; Helen F. Becket, Bowling Green, Ky.; Eleanor Bell, Wilmington; Emma J. Blackstock, Leaksville; Carolyn Brown, Johnson City, Tenn.;

Misses Dolores Casimere, Galveston, Texas; Peggy Coefield, Kinston; Joan Cooley, Hendersonville; Muriel Darrell, Flatts, Bermuda; Beulah Demons, Greensboro; Robbie G. Dolphus, Greensboro; Jimmie English, Camden; Nancy Haith, Leaksville; Barbara Hammond, Winston - Salem; Ruby Harris, Greensboro;

Misses Barbara Hickman, Freeport, Ill.; Patricia Hopkins, Miami, Fla.; Charlotte Jackson, Lima, Ohio; Willie Jackson, Red Springs; Annie P. Jessup, Greensboro; Sonia Louden, Cincinnati, Ohio; Lola McAdoo, Greensboro; Ruth McAlister, Kingstree, S.C.; Ann R. McCoy and Betty J. McLean, Greensboro;

* * *

MISSES MAMIE McLURKIN, Chester, S.C.; Betty Middleton, Burton, S.C.; Fannie L. Miles, Brooklyn, NY; Shirley Moore, Camden, N.J.; Shirley Philson, Charlotte; Loretta Richmond, Greensboro; Oyeyemi Salako, Nigeria, W. Africa; Veronica Shipley, Baltimore.

Miss Gertrude Smith, Greensboro; Gloria Smith, Miami, Fla.; Vinia Spivey, Bronx, N.Y.; Yvonne Thomas, Greensboro; Frances Thurston, Miami, Fla.; Deloris Tonkins, Greensboro; Onuma Uko, Nigeria, W. Africa; Carole S. Wade, Graham, N.C.; Linelle Walker, Nassau, Bahamas;

Misses Fredrica Washington, Beaufort, S.C.; Shirley Waters, Dudley; Addie Watson, Charlotte; Evelyn Webb, Norfolk, Va.; Sonja Weldon, Chicago, Ill.; Dolores Wiggins, Petersburg, Va.; Shirley Woods, Graham; Rosemary Wright, Camden, S.C.; Yvonne Wynne, Jamaica, N.Y.

JUNIORS

Misses Rudene Abney, Norristown, Pa.; Ida R. Bullock, Manson; Jamesena Chalmers, Fayetteville; Veronica L. Dean, Miami, Fla.; Eleanor B. Fields, Richmond, Va.; Rosalind Goodson, Clayton; Marion Grant, Macon, Ga.; Cecile Harrison, Houston, Tex.;

* * *

MISSES MARY B. KNIGHT, Greensboro; Sarah Lawrence, Evanston, Ill.; Carolyn Martin, Durham; Queen Murphy, Fayetteville, Nannie Poole, Baltimore, Md.; Josephine A. Raiford, Greensboro; Mary E. Shoffner, Greensboro; Ruby N. Starks, Troutman; Mary J. Williams, Winston - Salem; Doris Wyche, New Canaan, Conn.

SOPHOMORES

Misses Johnsie Adams, Leaksville; Sylvania Black, Marlin, Tex.; Mary E. Boone, Sanford; Gloria E. Brown, Bronx, N.Y.; Nancy Choi, Seoul, Korea; Joan E. Cogdell, Clarksville, Del.; Estelle E. Davis, Camden, S.C.; Marilyn A. Frazier, Smithfield; Bernice I. Green, Anderson, S.C.; Helen R. Houston, Nashville, Tenn.; Edna O. Jones, Lenoir, N.C.; Dorothy Jordan, Goldsboro;

Misses Frances E. Keck, Greensboro; Nancy J. Kirby, Haddonfield, N.J.; Lucy R. Martin, Reidsville; Frances E. McCallum, Red Springs; Ethel J Riggsbee, Chapel Hill; Laura F. Sawyer, Salisbury; Blanche Tuboku - Metzger, Freetown, Sierra Leone; Edith M. Tucker, Elkin; Betty J. Wright, Shelby; Lillie B. Wright, Hewlett; Edna M. Zachary, Hertford;

FRESHMEN

Misses Esther M. Alexander, Warrenton; Millicent Allen, Philadelphia, Pa.; Margaret Bailey, Fruitland, Md.; Carolyn Y. Bennett, Miami, Fla.; Geraldine Brown, Pleasant Hill; Helen Brown, Greensboro; Linda Brown, Akron, Ohio; Lola Campbell, Greensboro;

* * *

MISSES JACQUELINE DAISE, Wilmington; Eunice I. Hawkins, Brandywine, Md.; Jean F. Hayes, Winston - Salem; Lucy H. Howell, Concord; Iris Jeffries, Burlington; Doris A. Luck, Asheboro; Gwendolyn Mackel, Chicago, Ill.

Misses Elishama Madison, Miami, Fla; Jo Ann Martin, Leaksville; Saundra McBride, Sumter, S.C.; Gloria McKnight, Gainsville, Fla.; Barbara Melvin, St. Petersburg, Fla.; Freddre Patterson, Lenoir; Charletta Pickering, Sumter, S.C.;

Misses Idajeanne Robinson, Oberlin, Ohio; Leacy B. Shipman, Whiteville; Marion Simmons, Fayetteville; Minnie L. Sims, Greensboro; Merry J. Sparrow, Covington, Va.; Shirley Thompson, St. Pauls; Audrey Williams, Harrisburg, Pa.; Johnnie Williams, Leaksville; and Valaida Wynne, Wilkes-Barre, Pa.

Bus Boycott Leader In Spotlight

Daily Defender 2/25/58

AT PRESS CONFERENCE on campus of Bennett college, Greensboro, N. C., Rev. Martin Luther King (left) leader of the successful Montgomery bus boycott, is questioned by four members of the staff of the Bennett College Banner, student newspaper. Greensboro NAACP sponsored Rev. King's Bennett appearance. Students are Carolyn Brown, editor, Johnson City, Tenn.; Yvonne Wynn, co-editor, Jamaica, N. Y.; Barbara Cambell, news editor, Greensboro; and Veronica Shipley, special writer, Baltimore.

FASHION SHOW

A fashion show marking the opening of the annual mid-winter exhibit was stagd Friday by students of clothing at Bennett College, in the lobby of the David D. Jones Student Union.

The show, directed by Mrs. Louise G. Streat, with Miss Marlene Beavers of Danville, Va., as guest model and assistant commentator, featured college styles, vacation clothes and creative designs.

An added feature of this year's show was the introduction of tinytot models from the college's Children's House, who modled the latest fashions in clothing for small children.

Taking part in the show were:

Misses Dolores Snellings of Raleigh; Minnie Stone, of Spring Hope; Millie Adams, of Princeton, W. Va.; Doris Best, of Goldsboro; Jaie Graves, of Greensboro; Nannie Hughes, of Cheraw, S. C.; Dorothy Groves, of Gastonia; Barbara Freeman, of Lawrenceville, Va.; Theresa Kearney, of Greensboro; Arneese Woods, of Darlington, S. C.; Mrs. Jeanette Harris, of Greensboro;

Mrs. Young Tack Park, of Greensboro; Misses Betty Jemison, of Milledgeville, Ga.; Louise Pittman, of Charlotte; Richetta Bell, of Reidsville; Margirie Wilson, of Clinton, N. C.; Hie Sook Hong, of Seoul, Korea; LaVerne Hubbard, of Chatham, Va.; Edith Tucker, of Elkin, N. C.; Arnetta Fagan, of Plymouth, N. C.;

Misses LaRita Waters, of Jacksonville, Florida; Gladys Hemingway, Georgetown, S. C.; Ruby Starks, of Troutman, N. C.; Elizabeth and Jacqueline Daise, of Wilmington, N. C., and Anece Faison of Dudley, N. C.

Child models were Millard Williams, Christine Crawford, Linda Gray, Everett Echols, Edith Bell, Donald Bailey, Vanessa Snipes, Debra Browning, Van Allen and Jean Simkins.

Among the articles on display on the mezzanine floor—in addition to the clothes worn by the models—were men's robes, sports attire, aprons, scarves, napkin sets, lounging apparel, baby clothes and women's hats.

BACK FROM EXCHANGE—Six Bennett College (Greensboro) students and an instructor, who spent two weeks at Mount Holyoke College, South Hadley, Mass., as a part of the exchange study program between the two institutions, are shown as they arrived back in Greensboro, last week. Left to right are Misses Patricia Hopkins, Miami, Fla.; Eleanor Fields, Richmond, Va.; Jamesena Chalmers, Fayetteville, N.C.; Dolores Wiggins, Petersburg, Va.; Mary Shoffner, Greensboro; and Peggy Coefield, Kinston, N.C.; and James C. McMillan, art instructor, who taught courses at Mount Holyoke.

Clothing Students Stage Fashion Show At Bennett

GREENSBORO, N. C. — A fashion show marking the opening of the annual mid - winter exhibit was staged Friday by students of clothing at Bennett College, in the lobby of the David D. Jones Student Union.

The show, directed by Mrs. Louise G. Streat, with Miss Marlene Beavers of Danville, Va., as guest model and assistant commentator, featured college styles, vacation clothes and creative designs.

* * *

AN ADDED feature of this year's show was the introduction of tiny - tot models from the college's Children's House, who modeled the latest fashions in clothing for small children.

Taking part in the show were:

Misses Dolores Snellings of Raleigh; Minnie Stone, of Spring Hope; Millie Adams, of Princeton, W. Va.; Doris Best of Goldsboro; Janie Graves, of Greensboro; Nannie Hughes, of Cheraw, S. C.; Dorothy Groves of Gastonia; Barbara Freeman of Darlington, S. C.; Mrs. Jeanette Harris, of Greensboro.

* * *

ALSO MRS. Young Tack Park, of Greensboro; Misses Betty Jemison, of Milledgeville, Ga.; Louise Pittman, of Charlotte; Richetta Bell, of Reidsville; Margirie Wilson, of Clinton, N. C.; Hie Sook Hong, of Seoul, Korea; Laverne Hubbard, of Chatham, Va.; Edith Tucker, of Elkin, N. C.; Arnetta Fagan, of Plymouth, N. C.

Misses LaRita Waters, of Jacksonville, Florida; Gladys Hemingway, Georgetown, S. C.; Ruby Starks, of Troutman, N. C.; Elizabeth and Jacqueline Daise, of Wilmington, N. C. and Anece Faison of Dudley, N. C.

* * *

CHILD MODELS Mildred Williams, Christine Crawford, Linda Gray, Everett Echols, Edith Bell, Donald Bailey, Vanessa Snipes, Debra Browning, Van Allen and Jean Simkins.

Among the articles on display on the mezzanine floor — in addition to the clothes worn by the models — were men's robes, sports attire, aprons, scarves, napkin sets, lounging apparel, baby clothes and women's hats.

Students Are Urged To Grow In Grace

"Are You Growing?" was the subject of the sermon delivered by the Rev. W. S. McLeod of High Point, at Bennett College vesper services yesterday in Pfeiffer Chapel.

The Rev. Mr. McLeod, who is the pastor of Brooks Memorial Methodist Church, urged the students to grow in grace as well as in wisdom and gave as the best example—Jesus Christ.

"We Christians," he said, "must see Christ as the reason for hope in our despair as we seek to make a free and enduring world."

Mem 3/3/58

McLEOD TO SPEAK

The Rev. W. S. McLeod, pastor of Brooks Memorial Methodist Church in High Point, will speak at the 4 p.m. vesper services at Bennett College today.

In Bennett Fashion Show

Students in clothing classes at Bennett College, Greensboro, N. C., under the direction of Mrs. Louise G. Streat, held a fashion show to open their annual mid-winter clothing exhibit.

Playing a twin act in chemise style wool outfits are Elizabeth and Jacqueline Daise, of Wilmington, N. C. Slim navy skirts are topped with the loose-fitting overblouse in a matching glen plaid. They wore navy, velveteen hats.

BENNETT REPRESENTED IN 3 STATES

(Continued from Page 1)

Geneva Baldwin, Pittsboro, N. C.; Janet Dailey, Houston, Tex.; Addie Watson, Charlotte; Nannie Poole Baltimore, Md.; Veronica Dean, Miami, Fla.; Ethel Riggsbee, Chapel Hill, N. C.; Frances Keck, Greensboro; Elizabeth Miller, Camden, S. C.; Joan Pritchard, Jefferson City, Tenn.; LaVerne Gee, Norfolk, Va.; Sonja Weldon, Chicago, Ill.; and Hazeline Taylor, Charlotte.

Six sociology majors, accompanied by Dr. Eldwin R. Edmonds, went to Maryville College, Maryville, Tenn., where they participated in an interracial workshop sponsored by the YWCA, February 21-24.

In this group were: Misses Geraldine Williams, Fayetteville, N. C.; Laura Sawyer, Salisbury, N. C.; LaVonne Barbour, Annapolis, Md.; Gloria E. Brown, Bronx, N. Y.; Cecile Harrison, Houston, Tex.; and Ada Lomax, Tobyhanna, Pa.

Attending a conference on student government held at North Carolina College in Durham were: Misses Barbara Campbell, Greensboro; Jimmie English and Rosemary Wrightt, both of Camden, S. C.

18

'If democracy is to live, segregation must die...'

DR. MARTIN L. KING gestures as he tells Bennett large audience at Bennett College last week that "old man Segregation is on death bed."

GREENSBORO, N.C. — "We have come a long, long way, but still have a long, long way to go," Dr. Martin L. King Jr., leader of the bus boycott in Montgomery, Ala., told an interracial audience of over 1,500 at Bennett College here Tuesday. "But if democracy is to live, segregation must die," he declared.

The meeting was sponsored by the Greensboro branch of the NAACP. Dr. King is president of the Montgomery Improvement Association. He spoke to a standing room only audience in Pfeiffer Chapel, and to an additional 600 persons in the Little Theatre and the Science Assembly Auditorium to which the program had been piped.

He received a standing ovation when he was introduced by the Rev. C. W. Anderson, pastor of United Institutional Baptist Church, and another when he had completed his hour - long address. He then made personal appearances in the other two auditoriums so that his unseen listeners might see him.

In a reference to the Montgomery victory, Dr. King made it clear that the victory was not due to him personally but to 50,800 people who suddenly decided to substitute "tired feet for tired souls."

* * *

"THEY HAD taken all that they could stand," he declared.

In reviewing the history of racial progress from the landing of the first settlers in 1619 to the present, Dr. King reminded his listeners that while much progress has been made, there is still much work to be done on many front.

"Old Man Segregation is on his death bed," he declared, "but there are guardians of the law still around with their oxygen tent trying to keep him alive.

"There are many more white persons of good will in the South than we can see on the surface. The Eastlands, the Griffins and the Talmadges voice the sentiments of only a small minority," Dr. King declared.

HE CAUTIONED his listeners against either extreme optimism or extreme pessimism in viewing the progress that has been made in race relations, urging that they instead take a realistic view which seeks to combine the truths of the two viewpoints, while avoiding the extremes of each.

Among the encouraging signs to Dr. King is the growing tendency of our people to reevaluate their own intrinsic worth and destiny and he pointed out the following things which we must do in the coming years if we are to survive:

1. Maintain a continuing sense of dignity and self-respect.

2. Gain support of others by improving standards of cleanliness and morality.

* * *

3. GAIN political power by wise use of the ballot.

4. Give more money to the cause of freedom.

5. Continue to develop wise, courageous and sincere leaders who will avoid the extremes of hotheadedness and Uncle Tomism.

6. Continue to struggle with the weapons of love and nonviolence.

As a final admonition to leaders who frequently lose the common touch with the masses, Dr. King said: "We will never get into the promised land unless all of us get in together."

MISS MATTIWILDA DOBBS, left, autographs programs for admiring students following her concert at Bennett College, Greensboro, N. C., Tuesday night. Facing camera are Misses Marian Benton of Greensboro, and Miss Marian Mims of McDade, La.

Fifteen Bennett College Students Make "A" Honor Roll

Fifteen students who made "A" in all courses for the first semester led the list of 126 Bennett College on the honor roll.

They were honored at a chapel program on Student Recognition Day, sponsored by Alpha Kappa Mu, national honor society.

Dr. Hobart S. Jarrett, chairman of the division of humanities, addressed the students, and citations were read by Miss Veronica Shipley, senior of Baltimore, Md., president of the local chapter. Certificates were presented by Misses Dolores Casimere, of Galveston, Texas, and Jimmie English, of Camden, S. C.

The complete honor roll list follows:

— SENIORS —

Misses Bettye Alexander, New York City; Carole Anderson, Greenville, S. C.; Geneva Baldwin, Pittsboro; Marlene Beavers, Danville, Va.; Helen F. Becket, Bowling Green, Ky.; Eleanor Bell, Wilmington; Emma J. Blackstock, Leaksville; Carolyn Brown, Johnson City, Tenn.; Dolores Casimer, Galveston, Texas; Peggy Coefield, Kinston; Joan Cooley, Hendersonville; Muriel Darrell, Flatts, Bermuda; Beulah Demons, Greensboro; Robbie G. Dolphus, Greensboro; Jimmie English, Camden; Nancy Haith, Leaksville; Barbara Hammond, Winston-Salem; Ruby Harris, Greensboro;

Misses Barbara Hickman, Freeport, Ill.; Patricia Hopkins, Miami, Fla.; Charlotte Jackson, Lima, Ohio; Willie Jackson, Red Springs; Annie P. Jessup, Greensboro; Sonia Louden, Cincinnati, Ohio; Lola McAdoo, Greensboro; Ruth McAlister, Kingstree, S. C.; Ann R. McCoy, Greensboro; Betty J. McLean, Greensboro; Mamie McLurkin, Chester, S. C.; Betty Middleton, Burton, S. C.; Fannie L. Miles, Brooklyn, N. Y.; Shirley Moore, Camden, N. J.; Shirley Philson, Charlotte; Loretta Richmond, Greensboro; Oyeyemi Salako, Nigeria, W. Africa; Veronica Shipley, Baltimore, Md.;

Misses Gertrude Smith, Greensboro; Gloria Smith, Miami, Fla.; Vinia Spivey, Bronx, N. Y.; Yvonne Thomas, Greensboro; Frances Thurston, Miami, Fla.; Deloris Tonkins, Greensboro; Onuma Uko, Nigeria, W. Africa; Carole S. Wade, Graham, N. C.; Linelle Walker, Bahamas; Fredrica Washington, Beaufort, S. C.; Shirley Waters, Dudley; Addie Watson, Charlotte; Evelyn Webb, Norfolk, Va.; Sonja Weldon, Chicago, Ill.; Dolores Wiggins, Petersburg, Va.; Shirley Woods, Graham; Rosemary Wright, Camden, S. C.; Yvonne Wynne, Jamaica, N. Y.

— JUNIORS —

Misses Rudene Abney, Norristown, Pa.; Ida R. Bullock, Manson, Jamesena Chalmers, Fayetteville; Veronica L. Lean, Miami, Fla.; Eleanor B. Fields, Richmond, Va.; Rosalind Goodson, Clayton; Marion Grant, Macon, Ga.; Cecile Harrison, Houston, Tex.; Mary B. Knight, Greensboro; Sarah Lawrence, Evanston, Ill.; Carolyn Martin, Durham; Queen Murphy, Fayetteville; Nannie Poole, Baltimore, Md.; Josephine A. Raiford, Greensboro; Mary E. Shoffner, Greensboro; Ruby N. Starks, Troutman; Mary J. Williams, Winston - Salem; Doris Wyche, New Canaan, Conn.

— SOPHOMORES —

Misses Johnsie Adams, Leaksville; Sylvania Black, Marlin, Tex.; Mary E. Boone, Sanford; Gloria E. Brown, Bronx, N. Y.; Nancy Choi, Seoul, Korea; Joan E. Cogdell, Clarksville, Del.; Estelle E. Davis, Camden, S. C.; Marilyn A. Frazier, Smithfield; Bernice I. Green, Anderson, S. C.; Helen R. Houston, Nashville, Tenn.; Edna O. Jones, Lenoir, N. C.; Dorothy Jordan, Goldsboro;

Misses Frances E. Keck, Greensboro; Nancy J. Kirby, Haddonfield, N. J.; Lucy R. Martin, Reidsville; Frances E. McCallum, Red Springs; Ethel J. Riggsbee, Chapel Hill; Laura F. Sawyer, Salisbury; Blanche Tuboku - Metzger, Freetown, Sierra Leone; Edith M. Tucker, Elkin; Betty J. Wright, Shelby; Lillie B. Wright, Hewlett; Edna M. Zachary, Hertford;

— FRESHMEN —

Misses Esther M. Alexander, Warrenton; Millicent Allen, Philadelphia Pa.; Margaret Bailey, Fruitland, Md.; Carolyn Y. Bennett, Miami, Fla.; Geraldine Brown, Greensboro; Linda Brown, Akron, Ohio; Lola Campbell, Greensboro; Jacqueline Daise, Wilmington; Eunice I. Hawkins, Brandywine, Md.; Jean F. Hayes, Winston-Salem; Lucy H. Howell, Concord; Iris Jeffries, Burlington; Doris A. Luck, Asheboro; Gwendolyn Mackel, Chicago, Ill.

Misses Elishama Madison, Miami, Fla., Jo Ann Martin, Leaksville; Saundra McBride, Sumter, S. C.; Gloria McKnight, Gainsville, Fla.; Barbara Melvin, St. Petersburg, Fla.; Freddre Patterson, Lenoir; Charletta Pickering, Sumter, S. C.; Idajeanne Robinson, Oberlin, Ohio; Leacy B. Shipman, Whiteville; Marion Simmons, Fayetteville; Minnie L. Sims, Greensboro; Merry J. Sparrow, Covington, Va.; Shirley Thompson, St. Pauls; Audrey Williams, Harrisburg, Pa.; Johnnie Williams, Leaksville; and Valaida Wynne, Wilkes-Barre, Pa.

FASHION SHOW

A fashion show marking the opening of the annual mid-winter exhibit was stagd Friday by students of clothing at Bennett College, in the lobby of the David D. Jones Student Union.

The show, directed by Mrs. Louise G. Streat, with Miss Marlene Beavers of Danville, Va., as guest model and assistant commentator, featured college styles, vacation clothes and creative designs.

An added feature of this year's show was the introduction of tinytot models from the college's Children's House, who modled the latest fashions in clothing for small children.

Taking part in the show were:

Misses Dolores Snellings of Raleigh; Minnie Stone, of Spring Hope; Millie Adams, of Princeton, W. Va.; Doris Best, of Goldsboro; Jaie Graves, of Greensboro; Nannie Hughes, of Cheraw, S. C.; Dorothy Groves, of Gastonia; Barbara Freeman, of Lawrenceville, Va.; Theresa Kearney, of Greensboro; Arneese Woods, of Darlington, S. C.; Mrs. Jeanette Harris, of Greensboro;

Mrs. Young Tack Park, of Greensboro; Misses Betty Jemison, of Milledgeville, Ga.; Louise Pittman, of Charlotte; Richetta Bell, of Reidsville; Margirie Wilson, of Clinton, N. C.; Hie Sook Hong, of Seoul, Korea; LaVerne Hubbard, of Chatham, Va.; Edith Tucker, of Elkin, N. C.; Arnetta Fagan, of Plymouth, N. C.;

Misses LaRita Waters, of Jacksonville, Florida; Gladys Hemingway, Georgetown, S. C.; Ruby Starks, of Troutman, N. C.; Elizabeth and Jacqueline Daise, of Wilmington, N. C., and Anece Faison of Dudley, N. C.

Child models were Millard Williams, Christine Crawford, Linda Gray, Everett Echols, Edith Bell, Donald Bailey, Vanessa Snipes, Debra Browning, Van Allen and Jean Simkins.

Among the articles on display on the mezzanine floor—in addition to the clothes worn by the models—were men's robes, sports attire, aprons, scarves, napkin sets, lounging apparel, baby clothes and women's hats.

126 make honor roll at Bennett College

GREENSBORO, N.C. — Fifteen students who made "A" in all courses for the first semester and led the list of 126 at Bennett College on the honor roll were honored at a chapel program on Student Recognition Day, sponsored by Alpha Kappa Mu, national honor society.

Dr. Hobart S. Jarrett, chairman of the division of humanities, addressed the students and citations were read by Miss Veronica Shipley, senior of Baltimore, president of the local chapter.

Certificates were presented by Misses Dolores Casimere of Galveston, Texas, and Jimmie English of Camden, S.C.

The complete honor roll list follows:

SENIORS

MISSES BETTYE ALEXANDER, NYC; Carole Anderson, Greenville, S.C.; Geneva Baldwin, Pittsboro; Marlene Beavers, Danville, Va.; Helen F. Becket, Bowling Green, Ky.; Eleanor Bell, Wilmington; Emma J. Blackstock, Leaksville; Carolyn Brown, Johnson City, Tenn.;

Misses Dolores Casimere, Galveston, Texas; Peggy Coefield, Kinston; Joan Cooley, Hendersonville; Muriel Darrell, Flatts, Bermuda; Beulah Demons, Greensboro; Robbie G. Dolphus, Greensboro; Jimmie English, Camden; Nancy Haith, Leaksville; Barbara Hammond, Winston - Salem; Ruby Harris, Greensboro;

Misses Barbara Hickman, Freeport, Ill.; Patricia Hopkins, Miami, Fla.; Charlotte Jackson, Lima, Ohio; Willie Jackson, Red Springs; Annie P. Jessup, Greensboro; Sonia Louden, Cincinnati, Ohio; Lola McAdoo, Greensboro; Ruth McAlister, Kingstree, S.C.; Ann R. McCoy and Betty J. McLean, Greensboro;

MISSES MAMIE McLURKIN, Chester, S.C.; Betty Middleton, Burton, S.C.; Fannie L. Miles, Brooklyn, NY; Shirley Moore, Camden, N.J.; Shirley Philson, Charlotte; Loretta Richmond, Greensboro; Oyeyemi Salako, Nigeria, W. Africa; Veronica Shipley, Baltimore.

Miss Gertrude Smith, Greensboro; Gloria Smith, Miami, Fla.; Vinia Spivey, Bronx, N.Y.; Yvonne Thomas, Greensboro; Frances Thurston, Miami, Fla.; Deloris Tonkins, Greensboro; Onuma Uko, Nigeria, W. Africa; Carole S. Wade, Graham, N.C.; Linelle Walker, Nassau, Bahamas;

Misses Fredrica Washington, Beaufort, S.C.; Shirley Waters, Dudley; Addie Watson, Charlotte; Evelyn Webb, Norfolk, Va.; Sonja Weldon, Chicago, Ill.; Dolores Wiggins, Petersburg, Va.; Shirley Woods, Graham; Rosemary Wright, Camden, S.C.; Yvonne Wynne, Jamaica, N.Y.

JUNIORS

Misses Rudene Abney, Norristown, Pa.; Ida R. Bullock, Manson, Jamesena Chalmers, Fayetteville; Veronica L. Dean, Miami, Fla.; Eleanor B. Fields, Richmond, Va.; Rosalind Goodson, Clayton; Marion Grant, Macon, Ga.; Cecile Harrison, Houston, Tex.;

MISSES MARY B. KNIGHT, Greensboro; Sarah Lawrence, Evanston, Ill.; Carolyn Martin, Durham; Queen Murphy, Fayetteville; Nannie Poole, Baltimore, Md.; Josephine A. Raiford, Greensboro; Mary E. Shoffner, Greensboro; Ruby N. Starks, Troutman; Mary J. Williams, Winston - Salem; Doris Wyche, New Canaan, Conn.

SOPHOMORES

Misses Johnsie Adams, Leaksville; Sylvania Black, Marlin, Tex.; Mary E. Boone, Sanford; Gloria E. Brown, Bronx, N.Y.; Nancy Choi, Seoul, Korea; Joan E. Cogdell, Clarksville, Del.; Estelle E. Davis, Camden, S.C.; Marilyn A. Frazier, Smithfield; Bernice I. Green, Anderson, S.C.; Helen R. Houston, Nashville, Tenn.; Edna O. Jones, Lenoir, N.C.; Dorothy Jordan, Goldsboro;

Misses Frances E. Keck, Greensboro; Nancy J. Kirby, Haddonfield, N.J.; Lucy R. Martin, Reidsville; Frances E. McCallum, Red Springs; Ethel J. Riggsbee, Chapel Hill; Laura F. Sawyer, Salisbury; Blanche Tuboku - Metzger, Freetown, Sierra Leone; Edith M. Tucker, Elkin; Betty J. Wright, Shelby; Lillie B. Wright, Hewlett; Edna M. Zachary, Hertford;

FRESHMEN

Misses Esther M. Alexander, Warrenton; Millicent Allen, Philadelphia, Pa.; Margaret Bailey, Fruitland, Md.; Carolyn Y. Bennett, Miami, Fla.; Geraldine Brown, Pleasant Hill; Helen Brown, Greensboro; Linda Brown, Akron, Ohio; Lola Campbell, Greensboro;

MISSES JACQUELINE DAISE, Wilmington; Eunice I. Hawkins, Brandywine, Md.; Jean F. Hayes, Winston - Salem; Lucy H. Howell, Concord; Iris Jeffries, Burlington; Doris A. Luck, Asheboro; Gwendolyn Mackel, Chicago, Ill.

Misses Elishama Madison, Miami, Fla; Jo Ann Martin, Leaksville; Saundra McBride, Sumter, S.C.; Gloria McKnight, Gainsville, Fla.; Barbara Melvin, St. Petersburg, Fla.; Freddre Patterson, Lenoir; Charletta Pickering, Sumter, S.C.;

Misses Idajeanne Robinson, Oberlin, Ohio; Leacy B. Shipman, Whiteville; Marion Simmons, Fayetteville; Minnie L. Sims, Greensboro; Merry J. Sparrow, Covington, Va.; Shirley Thompson, St. Pauls; Audrey Williams, Harrisburg, Pa.; Johnsie Williams, Leaksville; and Valaida Wynne, Wilkes-Barre, Pa.

Bus Boycott Leader In Spotlight

AT PRESS CONFERENCE on campus of Bennett college, Greensboro, N. C., Rev. Martin Luther King (left) leader of the successful Montgomery bus boycott, is questioned by four members of the staff of the Bennett College Banner, student newspaper. Greensboro NAACP sponsored Rev. King's Bennett appearance. Students are Carolyn Brown, editor, Johnson City, Tenn.; Yvonne Wynn, co-editor, Jamaica, N. Y.; Barbara Cambell, news editor, Greensboro; and Veronica Shipley, special writer, Baltimore.

BACK FROM EXCHANGE—Six Bennett College (Greensboro) students and an instructor, who spent two weeks at Mount Holyoke College, South Hadley, Mass., as a part of the exchange study program between the two institutions, are shown as they arrived back in Greensboro, last week. Left to right are Misses Patricia Hopkins, Miami, Fla.; Eleanor Fields, Richmond, Va.; Jamesena Chalmers, Fayetteville, N.C.; Dolores Wiggins, Petersburg, Va.; Mary Shoffner, Greensboro; and Peggy Coefield, Kinston, N.C.; and James C. McMillan, art instructor, who taught courses at Mount Holyoke.

Clothing Students Stage Fashion Show At Bennett

GREENSBORO, N. C. — A fashion show marking the opening of the annual mid-winter exhibit was staged Friday by students of clothing at Bennett College, in the lobby of the David D. Jones Student Union.

The show, directed by Mrs. Louise G. Streat, with Miss Marlene Beavers of Danville, Va., as guest model and assistant commentator, featured college styles, vacation clothes and creative designs.

* * *

AN ADDED feature of this year's show was the introduction of tiny - tot models from the college's Children's House, who modeled the latest fashions in clothing for small children.

Taking part in the show were:

Misses Dolores Snellings of Raleigh; Minnie Stone, of Spring Hope; Millie Adams, of Princeton, W. Va.; Doris Best of Goldsboro; Janie Graves, of Greensboro; Nannie Hughes, of Cheraw, S. C.; Dorothy Groves of Gastonia; Barbara Freeman of Darlington, S. C.; Mrs. Jeanette Harris, of Greensboro.

* * *

ALSO MRS. Young Tack Park, of Greensboro; Misses Betty Jemison, of Milledgeville, Ga.; Louise Pittman, of Charlotte; Richetta Bell, of Reidsville; Margirie Wilson, of Clinton, N. C.; Hie Sook Hong, of Seoul, Korea; Laverne Hubbard, of Chatham, Va.; Edith Tucker, of Elkin, N. C.; Arnetta Fagan, of Plymouth, N. C.

Misses LaRita Waters, of Jacksonville, Florida; Gladys Hemingway, Georgetown, S. C.; Ruby Starks, of Troutman, N. C.; Elizabeth and Jacqueline Daise, of Wilmington, N. C. and Anece Faison of Dudley, N. C.

* * *

CHILD MODELS Mildred Williams, Christine Crawford, Linda Gray, Everett Echols, Edith Bell, Donald Bailey, Vanessa Snipes, Debra Browning, Van Allen and Jean Simkins.

Among the articles on display on the mezzanine floor — in addition to the clothes worn by the models — were men's robes, sports attire, aprons, scarves, napkin sets, lounging apparel, baby clothes and women's hats.

Students Are Urged To Grow In Grace

"Are You Growing?" was the subject of the sermon delivered by the Rev. W. S. McLeod of High Point, at Bennett College vesper services yesterday in Pfeiffer Chapel.

The Rev. Mr. McLeod, who is the pastor of Brooks Memorial Methodist Church, urged the students to grow in grace as well as in wisdom and gave as the best example—Jesus Christ.

"We Christians," he said, "must see Christ as the reason for hope in our despair as we seek to make a free and enduring world."

McLEOD TO SPEAK

The Rev. W. S. McLeod, pastor of Brooks Memorial Methodist Church in High Point, will speak at the 4 p.m. vesper services at Bennett College today.

In Bennett Fashion Show

Students in clothing classes at Bennett College, Greensboro, N. C., under the direction of Mrs. Louise G. Streat, held a fashion show to open their annual mid-winter clothing exhibit.

Playing a twin act in chemise style wool outfits are Elizabeth and Jacqueline Daise, of Wilmington, N. C. Slim navy skirts are topped with the loose-fitting overblouse in a matching glen plaid. They wore navy, velveteen hats.

BENNETT REPRESENTED IN 3 STATES

(Continued from Page 1)

Geneva Baldwin, Pittsboro, N. C.; Janet Dailey, Houston, Tex.; Addie Watson, Charlotte; Nannie Poole Baltimore, Md.; Veronica Dean, Miami, Fla.; Ethel Riggsbee, Chapel Hill, N. C.; Frances Keck, Greensboro; Elizabeth Miller, Camden, S. C.; Joan Pritchard, Jefferson City, Tenn.; LaVerne Gee, Norfolk, Va.; Sonja Weldon, Chicago, Ill.; and Hazeline Taylor, Charlotte.

Six sociology majors, accompanied by Dr. Eldwin R. Edmonds, went to Maryville College, Maryville, Tenn., where they participated in an interracial workshop sponsored by the YWCA, February 21-24.

In this group were: Misses Geraldine Williams, Fayetteville, N. C.; Laura Sawyer, Salisbury, N. C.; LaVonne Barbour, Annapolis, Md.; Gloria E. Brown, Bronx, N. Y.; Cecile Harrison, Houston, Tex.; and Ada Lomax, Tobyhanna, Pa.

Attending a conference on student government held at North Carolina College in Durham were: Misses Barbara Campbell, Greensboro; Jimmie English and Rosemary Wrightt, both of Camden, S. C.

The Greensboro Record

Page 1—Section B Tuesday, February 11, 1958

'Live As Brothers Or Die As Fools,' Negroes Told

1,800 Heard Dr. Martin Luther King At Bennett Sponsored By NAACP

Taking the view that the Negro has "come a long, long way, but still has a long, long way to go," Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., leader of the history-making bus boycott in Montgomery, Ala., told an interracial audience of over 1,500 at Bennett College here, Tuesday night that "if democracy is to live, segregation must die."

The meeting was sponsored by the Greensboro branch of the NAACP.

Dr. King, who is president of the Montgomery Improvement Association, spoke to a standing-room only audience in Annie Merner Pfeiffer Chapel and to an additional 600 persons who filled every available seat and stood around the walls of the Little Theatre and the Science Assembly auditorium to which the program had been piped.

He received a standing ovation when he was introduced by the Rev. C. W. Anderson, pastor of United Institutional Baptist Church and another when he had completed his hour-long address. He then made personal appearances in the the other two auditoriums so that his unseen listeners might see him.

In a brief reference to the Montgomery victor. Dr. King made it clear that the victory was not due to him personally but to 50,000 people who suddenly decided to substitute "tired feet for tired souls."

"They had taken all that they could stand," he declared, as he likened them to the ground crew that makes it possible for the airline pilot to take his giant plane above the clouds. "Let us never forget the ground crew," he cautioned.

In reviewing the history of racial progress from the landing of the first slaves in 1619 to the present, Dr. King reminded his listeners that while much progress has been made, there is still much work to be done on many fronts.

"Old Man Segregation is on his death bed," he declared, "but there are guardians of the law still around with their oxygen tent trying to keep him alive."

Dr. Martin Luther King

But he was quick to add that "there are many more white persons of good will in the South than we can see on the surface. The Eastlands, the Griffins and the Talmadges voice of the sentiment of only a small minority."

He cautioned his listeners against either extreme optimism or extreme pessimism in viewing the progress that has been made in race relations, urging that they instead take a realistic view which seeks to combine the truths of the two viewpoints, while avoiding the extremes of each.

Among the encouraging signs to Dr. King is the growing tendency of the Negro to re-evaluate his own intrinsic worth and destiny and he pointed out the following things which Negroes must do in the coming years if they are to survive:

1. Maintain a continuing sense of dignity and self-respect.

2. Gain support of others by improving standards of cleanliness and morality.

3. Gain political power by wise use of the ballot.

4. Give more money to the cause of freedom.

5. Continue to develop wise, courageous and sincere leaders who will avoid the extremes of hot-headedness and Uncle Tomism.

6. Continue to struggle with the weapons of love and non-violence.

As a final adomintion to leaders who frequently lose the common touch with the masses, Dr. King said: "We will never get into the promised land unless all of us get in together.

Frequent applaus and laughter punctuated the address as Dr. King reached high levels of oratory or illustrated a point with homely humorous reference. "We don't want to be the white man's brother-in-law," he stated, "just his brother."

Dr. Edwin Edmonds, president of the local branch, presided and the Greensboro Men's Glee Club, directed by Mrs. E. Logan Penn, sang two selections. Prayer and scripture was read by Rev. Julius T. Douglas, pastor of St. James Presbyterian Church and benediction by Rev. G. M. Phelps, pastor of Union Memorial Methodist church.

N. L. Gregg, treasure of the North Carolina State conference branch of the NAACP was given a liberal offering by the audience.

Segregation System Is Dying Noisily, Rev. Martin Luther King Says Here

BY DOROTHY ANN BENJAMIN
Record Staff Writer

"All the loud noises we hear—interposition, nullification, outlawing of the NAACP—are but the death groans of a dying system," Rev. Martin Luther King, leader of the Montgomery, Ala., bus boycott, said here today.

Along with the death groans are the birth cries of a "new order when freedom, justice and equality will come into being."

"We are breaking loose from the Egypt of segregation and moving into the promised land of integration — and I think we're going to make it. There are giants in the way but it can be done," he said.

Speaking to Bennett College students, he stressed the importance of the new challenges and responsibilities of the new age.

"You must rise above the narrow confines of individual concerns to the broader concerns of all humanity. We must learn to live together as brothers or we will certainly die together as fools.

"I challenge you to achieve excellency. Get ready to compete with people—don't get ready to compete with colored people but with all people. Don't be interested in being a good Negro teacher, doctor, lawyer, laborer. Go out to do a good job and do it well. We must be ready for integration through preparation. Do your job so well nobody could do it better," he stated.

Rev. Mr. King challenged the students to enter the new age with "understanding and good will in your hearts. After the midnight of injustice as victims of brutal lynchings and oppression there is danger of entering the new age with hatred in our hearts. If we do the new age will be same as the old. The only way to make the new world last is to have understanding good will in our hearts."

"We must love men," he said, "not because we like them but because God loves them. We will come to see that Christ died even for the segregationist and we must love them, too. I find it hard to like Gov. Griffin (Georgia) and people like him but God says to love not to like. Through this approach we will achieve not only desegregation but integration.

"The busses in Montgomery are desegregated but I'm not sure they are integrated. They will only be integrated when people sit side by side because they want to, not because it is the law.

"We can't win with bitterness—fighting hate with hate, violence with violence. It can only be done with love. We must say to our white brothers I will meet your capacity to inflict pain with love and win you over in the process," he told the students.

He urged his audience to be maladjusted to the old order—"I never intend to adjust myself to mob rule, segregation, discrimination and the self-defeating effects of physical violence. It may be that the salvation of the world lies in the hands of the maladjusted."

He cited Lincoln, Jefferson and Jesus Christ as "maladjusted" persons of previous ages who fought for things they believed to be right whether or not it was "adjusted" to do so.

"Those of us who live in the 20th century are privileged to live in one of the most momentous periods of human history. Some of you may differ with me here and say we live in the most ghastly period of human history—deep rumbling discontent in Africa, uprisings in Asia, troops in Little Rock, interposition in the South—the deep desperate midnight encompassing our civilization.

"But this does not represent retrogression. It represents the usual pains that accompany the birth of anything new. The tensions in the South indicate a new world coming into being and the death of the old order, one we experienced in all its tragic dimensions," he said.

He discussed the beginning of the old order with the bringing of the first slave to America in 1619; the Dred Scott decision and the doctrine of separate but equal "Which was always strict on the separate but with not the slightest attempt at equal."

"Many Negroes lost faith in themselves and began to think they were inferior. That is the tragedy of segregation—it gives the segregator a false sense of superiority by giving the segregated a false sense of inferiority."

The Negro leader closed his speech by reminding the predominately Negro audience that "this is a great hour for the Negro in America and for all people all over the world. There will be problems. Some may have to face losing their jobs. Some may face bombings and some even physical death—but it will be worth it."

He was introduced by Dr. Hobart Jarrett and Dr. Willa B. Player, president, conducted the chapel program in the packed auditorium.

Negro Leader Cites Gains, Shortcomings

Negroes were praised for their progress and chastised for their backwardness in a speech here last night by one of their recognized leaders, Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.

Dr. King, a 28-year-old Baptist minister of Montgomery, Ala., who led 50,000 other Negroes in a boycott to break segregation on buses in that city several years ago, was guest speaker at Bennett College.

The Greensboro branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People sponsored the program.

Urges Realism

"A new Negro has come into being," he said, "with a determination to struggle, to sacrifice yes, even to die if necessary, until the walls of segregation are totally crushed."

He urged Negroes to adopt an attitude that would be realistic, an attitude that would seek to combine the truths of optimism and pessimism while avoiding the extremes of both.

"It's true that we have come a long way, but we still have a long, long way to go," he said. "There are those Negroes who think integration is inevitable while there are others who say it is impossible. Consequent we must take a realistic attitu toward progress in the area race relations," he continued.

Must Earn Respect

"The Negro must gain the spect of the white man by i proving our own standards wh lag because of segregation. We just have to face it; we kill too many of ourselves, our crime rate is too high.

"There are white men who say we want integration so that we can marry their sisters; we don't want to be the white man's brother-in-law; we just want to be his brother," he said.

"We don't have to let the white man think we walk the streets thinking of sex. We don't have to have the highest illegitimate children rate in every city.

"We must maintain cleanliness; we can't afford to fly to Paris for perfume but a bar of soap costs only five cents.

Must Use Ballot

"We must gain the ballot box and use it wisely. One of the biggest steps the Negro can make is that short walk to the ballot box. Many Negroes in Greensboro are not registered because they are too lazy to go down to register.

"Many of us ride around in the biggest and most expensive cars ever let loose in history when we should be using money to fight for integration," he said.

Dr. King mentioned a joint Negro fraternity party several years ago when it was reported $500,000 was spent on whisky in one week. "That was more than was given to the NAACP and the United Negro College Fund in the same year," he said.

Then, in an aside to the audience of about 1,500 which filled Pfeiffer Chapel, the Little Theater and several classrooms, an hour before his appearance: "You don't like what I'm saying now; I don't hear any 'Amens.'"

Calling for non-violent resistance, Dr. King said the Negro will continue to say to the white man: "Do to us what you will and we'll still love you. Burn our home, take us out at midnight to torture us, take our children and spit in their faces and we will still love you.

"We will wear you down by our capacity to suffer; and by our compassion and willingness to suffer we will win you in the process."

Dr. King was presented by Dr. Edwin R. Edmonds, president of the Greensboro branch of the NAACP.

Bennett Music-Makers—Members of the Bennett College instrumental ensemble, directed by Mrs. Jane Heirick, are shown as they presented their first concert of the year, in the lounge of Reynolds Hall. Sharing the program with the instrumentalists — many of whom received their first intsruction in October — were members of the freshman vocal ensemble, directed by Edward Lowe. Guest artists were two musig majors from Woman's College.

Courier 2/22/58

Avoid The Extremes, Says Dr. King In Greensboro

Jt G 2/22/58

GREENSBORO, N. C. — Taking the view that the Negro has "come a long, long way, but still has a long, long way to go," Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., leader of the history-making bus boycott in Montgomery, Ala., told an interracial audience of over 1,500 at Bennett College here last Tuesday that "if democracy is to live segregation must die." The meeting was sponsored by the Greensboro branch of the NAACP.

In a brief reference to the Montgomery victory, Dr. King made it clear that the victory was not due to him personally but to 50,000 people who suddenly decided to substitute "tired feet for tired souls."

• • •

"THEY HAD TAKEN all that they could stand," he declared, as he likened them to the ground crew that makes it possible for the airline pilot to take his giant plane above the clouds. "Let us never forget the ground crew," he cautioned.

In reviewing the history of racial progress from the landing of the first slaves in 1619 to the present, Dr. King reminded his listeners that while much progress has been made, there is still much work to be done on many fronts.

• • •

"OLD MAN Segregation is on his death bed," he declared, "but there are guardians of the law still around with their oxygen tent trying to keep him alive."

But he was quick to add that "there are many more white persons of good will in the South than we can see on the surface. The Eastlands, the Griffins and the Talmadges voice of the sentiment of only a small minority."

He cautioned his listeners against either extreme optimism or extreme pessimism in viewing the progress that has been made in race relations, urging that they instead take a realistic view which seeks to combine the truths of the two viewpoints, while avoiding the extremes of each.

Among the encouraging signs to Dr. King is the growing tendency of the Negro to re-evaluate his own intrinsic worth and destiny.

Margaret Bailey of Fruitland, Md., has been elected president of the freshman class at Bennett College . . . Mary J. Williams, a junior, has been named Bennett College delegate to the Christian Citizenship Seminar, Feb. 16-22, of the Methodist Student Movement in New York City.

Dr. Stanley H. Martin, president of West Virginia Wesleyan University, will speak at Sunday vesper services of Bennett College on Feb. 16 . .

Negro Leader Talks Here Tonight

An overflow audience is anticipated when Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. of Montgomery, Ala., addresses the Greensboro NAACP branch mass meeting to be held at 8 o'clock at Bennett College tonight.

Winner of the NAACP's Spingarn Medal for 1957, the 28-year-old minister, who heads the Montgomery Improvement Association which conducted the boycott resulting in the end of bus segregation in that Alabama city, will be making his only Greensboro appearance of the year.

Dr. Edwin R. Edmonds, president of the local NAACP branch, will preside and the Rev. Charles W. Anderson, pastor of the United Institutional Baptist Church, will introduce the speaker. There will be musical selections by the Greensboro Men's Glee Club.

Dr. King, who is expected in the city early today, is scheduled to address students at Bennett College at 10 a.m. and wi visit the A&T College campus be fore attending a luncheon in his honor at 12:30 p.m. at the Hayes-Taylor YMCA. A number of local clergymen will attend this affair.

From 2:30 to 3 p.m., Dr. King will hold a press conference at the "Y" to which newspapers, r dio and TV have been invited send rep.esentatives. Followi his night address, Dr. King w be guest of the NAACP executi committee at a coffee hour to held at the home of Dr. and Mr W. L. T. Miller, at 1412 Benbo Road. News 2/11/58

For Visit Tomorrow King Itinerary Is Given

Record 2/10/58

A full schedule of activities has been planned for Dr. Martin Luther King, leader of the Montgomery, Ala., bus boycott, during his visit to Greensboro tomorrow.

He is expected to arrive here in time to address Bennett College students at 10 a.m. in Pfeiffer Chapel. Following his address, he will tour the Bennett campus and then visit A&T College between 11:30 a.m. and noon.

At 12:30 p.m. he will be guest at a luncheon at Hayes-Taylor YMCA to which a number of local ministers have been invited. A conference for press, radio and television will be held at the Y from 2:30 to 3 p.m.

He will then rest until his speech at Bennett College at 8 p.m. under the auspices of the Greensboro Chapter of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People. He will be the guest of the NAACP executive committee at a coffee hour to be held at the home of Dr. and Mrs. W. L. T. Miller, 1412 Benbow Rd., immediately after the meeting.

Dr. King, winner of the NAACP's Spingarn Medal for 1957, is president of the Southern Leadership Conference and the Montgomery Improvement Assn. He is scheduled to be in Atlanta, Ga., Wednesday for one of several meetings in the South on that date to urge increase registration and voting by Negroes.

Toki Types

Courier 2/22/58

By TONI SCHALK JOHNSON

"Tomorrow is in God's hands. I have no fear."

WE LIKE TO MENTION women who are doing things here and there . . . and this week we pin-point for your observation Dr. Willa B. Player, president of Bennett College, Greensboro, N. C., first woman president of that top flight girls' school. Brilliant, modest, and charming, Dr. Player stands high on the list of national educators. Here in Pittsburgh, we tip our hat to Alberta (Mrs. Robert) Williams, who retired from the active work-a-day world a

Dr. Player

BENNETT MUSIC MAKERS — Members of the Bennett College instrumental ensemble, directed by Mrs. Jane Heirich, are shown as they presented their first concert of the year, in the lounge of Reynolds Hall, Sunday night. Sharing the program with the instrumentalists — many of whom received their first instruction in October — were members of the freshman vocal ensemble, directed by Edward Lowe. Guest artists were two music majors from Woman's College.

Bennett's Year Ends

two men 5/30/57

Life's greatest satisfactions come from helping others realize their highest possibilities, Dr. Arthur S. Flemming told 106 seniors as Bennett College held its 84th commencement exercises here Monday.

The class—largest in the history of the college—was made up of representatives of 18 states, and included one member of the 1955 class who returned to receive he rdegree at this time.

Dr. Fleming, president of Ohio Wesleyan University, Delaware, Ohio, who just a few months ago returned to his post there, after serving as director of the Office of Defense Mobilization, spoke to an audience that jammed all available space in Annie Merner Pfeiffer Chapel and overflowed into the adjoining Little Theatre auditorium where amplifiers had been set up to carry the program.

Taking as his subject, "Our Common Responsibility," Dr. Flemming, a schoolmate of Bennett's president, pointed to the Commandment: "Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself" as being at the heart of the Judao-Christian tradition.

"This Commandment," he said, "places upon each of us a common responsibility—a responsibility which, if assumed, provides our lives with both a center and direction."

Common Responsibility

The speaker declared that the Commandment places upon all who assume it, a common responsibility in the field of government; a responsibility to help the various welfare agencies in the com-

Guide - 2/25/58

Freshman Officers

Miss Margaret Bailey of Fruitland, Maryland, was elected president of the freshman class at Bennett College in balloting completed last week.

Miss Bailey had served as temporary chairman of the class during the first semester, pending the second-semester elections. Chosen to serve with her were the following:

Misses Gwendolyn Mackel, vice president, Chicago, Ill.; Yvonne Bedcross, secretary, Hampton, Va.; Jean Gerst, assistant secretary, Williamsburg, Va.; Iris Jeffries, treasurer, Burlington, N. C.; and Jean Sparrow, chaplain, Covington, Va.

BENNETT COLLEGE

GREENSBORO, N.C. — The National Council of the United College Fund Alumni voted at its 12th annual session in Chicago to hold its next conference at Bennett College on Feb. 7-8, 1959.

The Rev. John L. Bryant told the Bennett Vesper service audience Sunday that there is need for "The Galilean" accent in life today.

17

Bennett To Study Schweitzer's Life

A week-long celebration honoring Dr. Albert Schweitzer, physician, musician and humanitarian, has been planned by the humanities division of Bennett College beginning Monday. Mrs. Blanche Ralford is program chairman.

A program at 10 a.m. Monday will study "Albert Schweitzer: The Man." At 10 a.m. Wednesday, Harold Andrews, assistant professor of music at Greensboro College, will discuss "Albert Schweitzer: The Musician." At 8 p.m. Thursday a program entitled, "Albert Schweitzer Speaks" will be held, and at 8 p.m. Friday the Little Theater Group will present a dramatization of highlights from Schweitzer's life.

SCOTT TO SPEAK

The Rev. Warren Scott of St. Philip's Parish House, New York City, will speak at the vesper services at Bennett College this afternoon.

King Tells Two N. C. Audiences Non-Violence Best In Struggle

Courier Pitts 2/22/58

Dr. Martin Luther King told two audiences in North Carolina this week that the way toward solution of the race problem lay in passive resistance.

The young Baptist minister who catapulted into the national limelight with his leadership of the Mantgomery, Alabama boycott, spoke at Raleigh and Greensboro early this week.

"Neither violence nor acquiescense are the way. Passive resistance is the way," King said in solving the problems of segregation.

He called upon the white people of goodwill in the South, of which he declared there is a majority, to take a stand against racial segregation and discrimination.

"We must continue to depend upon persons of good will in the South to take over the leadership in this period of transition and implementation of the law of the land," he said.

Negroes also have a role to play in the struggle for complete citizenship. He warned that Negroes must begin to do something about the undesirable things in their culture even though many of them are the result of segregation.

"First class citizenship cannot be gained through second-class methods," he asserted.

Dr. King's speech in Raleigh was at Broughton High school, sponsored by the Institute of Religion. He spoke to an evenly mixed audience of whites and Negroes.

In Greensboro, his address was delivered at Bennett College.

Guide - 2/15/58

6 Bennett Students At Mt. Holyoke

GREENSBORO, N. C. — Six Bennett College students and an instructor left here Saturday for Mt. Holyoke College, South Hadley, Mass., where on Monday, they begin a two-week exchange study program.

At the same time, six Mt. Holyoke students left for Bennett College, where they will spend the next two weeks. They were accompanied by Miss Marorie Kaufman, assistant professor of English, who will serve as visiting lectuer in 17th century and American Literature for the next two weeks. The students will attend the same or similar classes to those which they normally attend at Mt. Holyoke.

* * *

MAKING THE trip to Mt. Holyoke were Misses Peggy Coefield, Kinston, N. C.; Patricia Hopkins, Miami, Fla.; and Dolores Wiggins, Petersburg, Va., all seniors; and the following juniors: Misses Jamesena Chalmers, Fayetteville, N. C.; Eleanor Fields, Richmond, Va.; and Mary Shoffner, Greensboro, N. C. Accompanying them was James C. McMillan, art instructor, who will serve as visiting lecturer in several art courses at Mt. Holyoke, for the next two weeks.

The Mt. Holyoke-Bennett exchange is being conducted for the first time. Last year, Bennett engaged in an exchange with Sarah Lawrence College, of Bronxville, N. Y., and Ohio Wesleyan University of Delaware, Ohio.

Fashion Show Opens Exhibit At Bennett

GREENSBORO

A fashion show marking the opening of the annual mid-winter exhibit was staged Friday by students of clothing at Bennett College, in the lobby of the David D. Jones Student Union.

The show, directed by Mrs. Louise G. Streat, with Miss Marlene Beavers of Danville, Va., as guest model and assistant commentator, featured college styles, vacation clothes and creative designs.

graduate of Bennett College, Greensboro, N. C. Mr. Williams is a 1955 graduate of the Agricultural and Technical College of Greensboro and is now serving with the 356th Army Band, Fort Belvoir, Virginia.

DR. CRANE, HERE

Dr. Henry Hitt Crane, long-time trustee of Bennett College and pastor of Central Methodist Church, Detroit, Mich., will speak at the 10 a.m. chapel service at the college today.

Martin L. King In Greensboro

Leader To Talk At Bennett

GREENSBORO

Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., dynamic leader of the historical bus boycott in Montgomery, Alabama, will speak at Bennett College, February 11, at 8 p.m., under the auspices of the local NAACP branch.

Dr. King, who heads the Montgomery Improvement Association and more recently the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, is also pastor of the Dexter Avenue Baptist Church in Montgomery.

Winner of the NAACP's Spingarn Medal for 1957, the 28-year-old minister, whose speaking engagements have him constantly on the move from coast to coast, will be making his only Greensboro appearance of the year.

The meeting, which is expected to draw a statewide audience to the Annie Merner Pfeiffer Chapel, will be presided over by Dr. Edwin R. Edmonds, president of the local branch. Dr. King will be introduced by the Rev. Charles W. Anderson, pastor of the United Institutional Baptist Church of this city. Special music will be provided by the Greensboro Men's Glee Club.

Dr. King, a graduate of Morehouse College, Atlanta, Georgia, is also a graduate of the Crozer Theological Seminary, Chester, Pa., where he was graduated first in his class and was president of the student body. He received his Ph. D. degree from Boston University.

The minister, who described himself as an ambivert, "half introvert and half extrovert," was catapulted into the national spotlight through his leadership of the boycott which brought about an end to bus segregation in Montgomery.

DR. M. L. KING

BENNETT SENIORS BEGAN TEACHING PERIOD

Six Bennett College seniors on Monday began a six-week period of teaching in two Greensboro public schools.

Placements were made by Mrs. Mary T. Coleman, education instructor, as follows:

DAVID D. JONES SCHOOL—Misses Anna Bolden, Reidsville; Margaret Hayes, Burlington; Betty Long, Taylorsville, N. C.; and Flora Wilkins, Winston-Salem.

WASHINGTON STREET SCHOOL—Misses Kathryn Foster, Jacksonville, Florida; and Nancy Haith, Leaksville.

A total of 61 seniors completed their teaching assignments during the first semester. This marks the first time that such assignments have been made during the second semester.

MISS M. J. WILLIAMS. DELEGATE TO SEMINAR

Miss Mary J. Williams, junior, of Winston-Salem, has been named the Bennett College delegate to the Christian Citizenship Seminar to be held February 16-22, sponsored by the Methodist Student Movement.

The seminar will open in New York City on Sunday, February 16 and the students will spend Monday and Tuesday there, visiting, among other places, the United Nations headquarters.

Wednesday, Thursday and Friday will be spent in Washington where the students will see Congress in session, visit their representatives and the U. S. Supreme Court. The closing session will be held at the Lincoln Memorial.

BENNETT PREXY DELIVER'S KEYNOTE ADDRESS

Dr. Willa B. Player, president of Bennett College, gave the keynote address the opening session of the 12th annual conference of the National Council of United Negro College Fund Alumni at the Sheraton Hotel in Chicago on February 8.

Miss Rudene Abney, junior of Norristown, Pa., was the college's student representative to the conference and participated in the council's workshops which had as their theme: "The Role and Responsibility of UNCF Alumni in Today's Educational Crisis."

VESPER SPEAKER

Speaker for the Sunday vesper service at Bennett College on February 16 will be Dr. Stanley H. Martin, president of West Virginia Wesleyan College at Buckhannon, West Virginia.

B. C. FRESHMAN ELECT CLASS PRESIDENT

Miss Margaret Bailey of Fruitland, Maryland, was elected president of the freshman class at Bennett College in balloting completed last week.

Miss Bailey had served as temporary chairman of the class during the first semester, pending the second semester election. Chosen to serve with her were the following:

Misses Gwendolyn Mackel, vice president, Chicago, Ill.; Yvonne Redcross, secretary, Hampton, Va.; Jean Gerst, assistant secretary, Williambsurg, Va.; Iris Jeffries, treasurer, Burlington, N. C.; and Jean Sparrow, Chaplain, Covington, Va.

Dr. Martin L. King To Speak at Bennett February 11th

Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., dynamic leader of the historical bus boycott in Montgomery, Alabama, will speak at Bennett College, February 11, at 8 p. m., under the auspices of the local NAACP branch.

Dr. King, who heads the Montgomery Improvement Association and more recently the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, is also pastor of the Dexter Avenue Baptist Church in Montgomery.

Winner of the NAACP's Spingarn Medal for 1957, the 28-year-old minister, whose speaking engagements have him constantly on the move from coast to coast, will be making his only Greensboro appearance of the year.

The meeting, which is expected to draw a statewide audience to the Annie Merner Pfeiffer Chapel, will be presided over by Dr. Edwin R. Edmonds, president of the local branch. Dr. King will be introduced by the Rev. Charles W. Anderson, pastor of the United Institutional Baptist Church of this city. Special music will be provided by the Greensboro Men's Glee Club.

Dr. King, a graduate of Morehouse College, Atlanta, Georgia, is also a graduate of the Crozer Theological Seminary, Chester, Pa., where he was graduated first in his class and was president of the student body. He received his Ph. D. degree from Boston University.

The minister, who describes himself as an ambivert, "half introvert and half extrovert," was catapulted into the national spotlight through his leadership of the boycott which brought about an end to bus segregation in Montgomery.

A believer in the doctrine that Christian love can bring brotherhood on earth, Dr. King says:

"There is an element of God in every man . . . No matter how low one sinks into racial bigotry, he can be redeemed . . . The strong man is the man who can stand up for his rights and not hit back.

"The spirit of passive resistance came to me from the Bible and the teachings of Jesus. The techniques of execution came from Gandhi."

At present, he is heading a crusade sponsored by the Southern Leadership Conference to stimulate registration and voting in the South.

"Our major objective," he explained, "is to see that the Negro masses give meaning to the recently enacted civil rights bill by using it to the fullest possible extent. We will cooperate with any and all bona fide efforts to accomplish this end."

It is expected that Dr. King will devote a portion of his address to this general topic and relate some of his experiences — north and south — in the interest of human rights and the dignity of the individual citizen.

FACULTY MEMBER AND STUDENTS ON EXCHANGE PROGRAM

Six Bennett College students and an instructor left here Saturday for Mt. Holyoke College, South Hadley, Mass., where on Monday, they begin a two-week exchange study program.

At the same time, six Mt. Holyoke students left for Bennett College, where they will spend the next two weeks. They were accompanied by Miss Marjorie Kaufman, assistant professor of English, who will serve as visiting lecturer in 17th century and American Literature for the next two weeks. The students will attend the same or similar classes to those which they normally attend at Mt. Holyoke.

Making the trip to Mt. Holyoke were Misses: Peggy Coefield, Kinston, N. C.; Patricia Hopkins, Miami, Fla.; and Dolores Wiggins, Petersburg, Va., all seniors; and the following juniors: Misses Jamesena Chalmers, Fayesville, N. C.; Eleanor Fields, Richmond, Va; and Mary Shoffner, Greensboro, N. C. Accompanying them was James C. McMillan, art instructor, who will serve as visiting lecturer in several art courses at Mt. Holyoke, for the next two weeks.

The Mt. Holyoke-Bennett exchange is being conducted for the first time. Last year, Bennett engaged in an exchange with Sarah Lawrence College, of Bronxville, N. Y., and Ohio Wesleyan University, of Delaware, Ohio.

It's Party Time

STRIKING COUPLE — Their hearts still beating in waltz time, lovely Patricia Hargrove of Fayetteville, N. C., Bennett college freshman and her handsome escort, Jerry Watkins of Greensboro leave dance area during intermission at the All-College party which marked the end of the first semester at Bennett.

Four Bennett Faculty Members To Participate In Colo. College Workshop

GREENSBORO, N.C.— Four members of the Bennett College faculty have been selected to participate in the second Campus Community Workshop sponsored by the Danforth Foundation at Colorado College, Colorado Springs, Colorado, this summer.

Some 30 church-related liberal arts colleges are sending teams to the workshop which will be directed by Dr. Kenneth I. Brown.

Representing Bennett will be Dr. Chauncey G. Winston, chairman of the division of social sciences; Mrs. Louise G. Streat, instructor in clothing and family life; Van S. Allen, instructor in biology and health education, and Francis Grandison, instructor in psychology and director of psychological services.

Their project will be: "Greater Synthesis in Our Program of General Education, with Reference to Subject Matter, Guidance Service and Application Beyond the Classroom." The workshop will extend from June 23 to July 12.

Negro College Fund Aids Bennett

GREENSBORO, N.C. — An allocation of $16,066.48 has been given to Bennett College from the United Negro College Fund, President Willa B. Player announced this week.

"This is the third and final allocation to Bennett from proceeds of the 1957 UNCF nationwide campaign," President Player said. "This brings the total received from the 1957 national appeal to $40,352.39."

Bennett College is one of the 33 private, accredited member institutions of the United Negro College Fund.

The financial aid received each year from the UNCF by Bennett represents approximately 10 per cent of its budget, or that amount not met by income from endowment, tuition and recurring grants," President Player said.

During the current year, UNCF allocations have been used principally to provide scholarship and work aid for exceptional students who otherwise would not be able to continue their education; to purchase laboratory and classroom equipment and to aid in the development of new instructional programs.

GREENSBORO, N.C. — Enrollment at Bennett College went to 457 this week with the registration of nine freshmen, three returning students and one transfer student for the second semester which began on Monday.

Four of the freshmen come from foreign countries. They are: Misses Merrilyn Blatch, Nassau, Bahamas; Johanna Polanen, Surinam, South America; and Suon Ja Kim and Bong Soon Yun, both of Taegu, Korea.

Other first-year students are: Misses Dorothy Linney, Hiddenite, N. C.; Juanita Wheeler, Thomasville, Ga., and Geneva McLendon, Mary Reese and Carolyn Russell, all of Greensboro. Miss Beatrice Gregory, of Princeton, N.J., has enrolled as a transfer student from Morristown College with sophomore standing.

Returning to the campus after an absence of several years is Mr. Rhinelander W. Blackburn, a senior, of Greenwood, Miss., who attended Bennett from 1947-51. Another returning senior is Mrs. Betty Robinson, of Greensboro. Miss Beulah Brodie, also of Greensboro, rejoins the sophomore class.

GREENSBORO, N.C. — Dr. Willa B. Player, president of Bennett College, has just received notice of her election to membership on the Board of Education of the Methodist Church, a post formerly held by the late President David D. Jones.

Dr. John O. Gross, general secretary of the board, advised Dr. Player that she has been assigned to the Division of Educational Institutions.

Boycott Leader To Speak Here Tuesday Night

Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., leader of the history-making bus boycott in Montgomery, Ala., will speak at 8 p.m. Tuesday at Pfeiffer Chapel of Bennett College.

Dr. King, who heads the Montgomery Improvement Assn. and more recently the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, is also pastor of Dexter Avenue Baptist Church in Montgomery.

The 28-year-old minister won the NAACP's Spingarn Medal for 1957. This is his only appearance in Greensboro this year.

A statewide audience is expected for the meeting at which Dr. Edwin R. Edmonds, president of the local branch, will preside. Dr. King will be introduced by Rev. Charles W. Anderson, pastor of United Institutional Baptist Church.

Dr. King, a graduate of Morehouse College, Atlanta, Ga., is also a graduate of Crozer Theological Seminary, Chester, Pa., where he was graduated first in his class and was president of the student body. He received his Ph.D. from Boston University.

He was catapulted into the national spotlight through his leadership of the boycott which brought about an end to bus segregation in Montgomery.

At present he is heading a crusade sporsored by the Southern Leadership Conference to stimulate registration and voting in the south.

"Our major objective is to see that the Negro masses give meaning to the recently enacted civil rights bill by using it to the fullest possible extent. We will cooperate with any and all bona fide efforts to accomplish this end," he said.

Dr. King is expected to devote a portion of his address to this topic and relate some of his experiences, North and South, in the interests of human rights and the dignity of the individual.

DR. M. L. KING JR.

Bennett Students Hear Bryan Talk

"As we strive to be Christians, we are called upon to be peculiar people for the Christian is known by the side he takes," said the Rev. John L. Bryan at the Bennett College Vesper Service yesterday.

Showing the relation between a person's beliefs and his actions, the Rev. Mr. Bryan, director of religious activities at the college, compared the distinguished characteristics of the Christian—his manner of speech, his teachings, his conviction—to those of the Galilean, Peter.

"We need the Galilean accent for providing food for the peoples of the world. "We need the Galilean accent in the area of human relations," the speaker stated.

'Better men a'fro 2/15/58 world need'

GREENSBORO, N.C. — Our security as a nation does not rest in better munitions but in better men, the Rev. Noah W. Moore Jr. of Philadelphia told the afternoon vesper audience at Bennet College Sunday.

Speaking on "Scholarship, Workmanship, Discipleship," the minister, pastor of Tindley Temple Methodist Church — one of the largest in the denomination — declared that much of America's future rests with its Christian and church-related educational institutions.

"Men will never love like God until they learn to think like God," he said, "because you can't separate thoughts from deeds."

* * *

THE REV. MR. MOORE said that the present emphasis upon turning out more scientists in America was good, but added that the need is for "Christian engineers, Christian scientists and Christian electronics and nuclear specialists."

He called attention to the fact that nations are destroyed by forces within rather than by forces without. "The hope of the world is to be found in truth," he stated.

In urging the students to high scholarship, he cautioned that "if you don't push, you will be pushed aside." The minister further suggested that in addition to scholarship awards that there should be awards for Christian discipleship.

Player Placed On Church Body

NASHVILLE, TENN.

Dr. Wilia B. Player, president of Bennett College, Greensboro, was elected a member of the Methodist Board of Education at its recent annual meeting here. She succeeds the late Dr. H. L. Dickason, president of Morristown College, Morristown, Tenn., who died last April.

Dr. Player became president of Bennett College on October 22, 1955, succeeding President David D. Jones, who had resigned because of illness. She had been a member of the Bennett staff since 1930.

ONE HEART FOR TWO---Literally breaking their heart are these two Bennett College freshmen--Misses Charletta Pickering (left) of Sumter, S. C., and Gloria McKnight, of Gainesville, Florida. It's their way of reminding you that February 14 is Valentine's Day.

Photo News 2/15/58

Singer Signs Autograph—Mattiwilda Dobbs, Metropolitan Opera singer, signs autographs for admiring students following her concert at Bennett College, Greensboro, N. C., recently. To her left (facing camera) are Marian Benton, Greensboro, and Marian Mims, McDade, La.

BENNETT FROSH LEADERS — Recently elected officers of college's freshman class discussing second semester activities are, from left, Misses Jean Gerst, Williamsburg, Va., assistant secretary; Yvonne Redcross, Hampton, Va., secretary; Gwendolyn Mackel, Chicago, vice president; Margaret Bailey, Fruitland, Md.; Jean Sparrow, Covington, Va., chaplain, and Iris Jeffries, Burlington, N.C., treasurer.

Afro - 2/15/58

DOBBS CONCERT USHERS — These eight students served as ushers at the concert given by Mattiwilda Dobbs at Bennett College Tuesday night. Left to right: Ruth McAlister, Kingstree, S. C.; LaVonne Barbour, Annapolis, Md.; Elishma Madison, Miami, Fla.; Ann Saunders, Gastonia, N. C.; Gloria Smith, Miami, Fla.; Theoria Houston, Miami, Fla.; Jane Williams, Winston-Salem, N. C., and Demetric Carstarphen, Oak Hill, Ala.

19

Freshmen Elect Prexy

GREENSBORO, N. C. — Miss Margaret Bailey of Fruitland, Md., was elected president of the freshman class at Bennett college in balloting completed last week.

Miss Bailey had served as temporary chairman of the class during the first semester, pending the second-semester election. Chosen to serve with her were the following:

Misses Gwendolyn Mackel, vice president, Chicago, Ill.; Yvonne Redcross, secretary, Hampton, Va.; Jean Gerst, assistant secretary, Williamsburg, Va.; Iris Jeffries, treasurer, Burlington, N. C.; and Jean Sparrow, chaplain, Covington, Va.

DR. GRAY AT BENNETT

GREENSBORO, N.C. — The tendency of Western man to want nothing that is not utilitarian was deplored by Dr. Arthur D. Gray, of Talladega, Ala., in his vesper message at Bennett College Sunday.

Dr. Gray, who before assuming the presidency of Talladega College some six years ago had served pastorates in two of the nation's largest Congregational churches, said that "practicality has become the measuring rod of the real," but saw some good in this inasmuch as this stimulates a constant search for the real.

'THE HEIRESS' SLATED

GREENSBORO, N.C. — Casting for "The Heiress," by Ruth and Augustus Goetz, to be given by the Bennett College Theatre Guilds on March 14, 15, was completed this week, Miss Ann Jenkins, director, announced.

DR. SCOTT TO SPEAK

GREENSBORO, N.C. — The Rev. Warren Scott, of Saint Philips Parish House, New York City, will speak at the Sunday vesper service at Bennett College, on Feb. 23.

Defender - 2/15/58

Here's A Double Valentine For You

ONE HEART FOR TWO is the message these two lovely Bennett college (Greensboro, N. C.) coeds are trying to get across for Friday which is St. Valentine's Day. Of course, it's their hope your heart won't be broken as this one is, but how else could you see Charietta Pickering, left of Sumter, S.C., and Gloria McKnight, of Gainesville, Fla. The photographer who dreamed up this gimmick for St. Valentine's Day made a side note expressing his regrets that he wasn't twins so as to doubly enjoy February 14 with both girls.

JOURNAL A

JOURNAL ... ils, Redlegs Challenge ... ue Rea ... t M...

Singer Signs Autographs

Miss Mattiwilda Dobbs is shown as she autographs programs for admiring studes following her recent concert at Bennett College. To her immediate left (facing cam are Misses Marian Benton, Greensboro, N. C., and Marian Mims, of McDade, La.

Central News

Central Christian Advocate 2/4/58

Wesley Foundation Director Loses Post

An ordained Methodist minister, who is president of the Greensboro Chapter of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, was dismissed as director of the Wesley Foundation at Agricultural and Technical College, Greensboro, N. C.

Dr. Edwin R. Edmunds, who also heads the department of sociology at Bennett College, a Methodist school in Greensboro, accused Dr. Warmoth Gibbs, president of A & T, of requesting his dismissal because of his affiliation with the NAACP.

Dr. Gibbs denied the accusation and declared that he asked for the minister's dismissal because the Wesley Foundation failed to carry out "certain procedures" at the time of his appointment. For example, he said he did not receive Dr. Edmunds' credentials and references.

Bishop Edgar A. Love of Baltimore, head of the Methodist Central Jurisdiction, said he dismissed Dr. Edmunds "at the request of the district superintendent," and had received "no particulars."

The bishop added that the superintendent, the Rev. W. T. Brown of High Street Church, "did say to me that there had been some suspicion of Edmunds' work with the NAACP."

"I take the position that if a man is not acceptable to his superiors in his community, then I must go along with their requests," Bishop Love said.

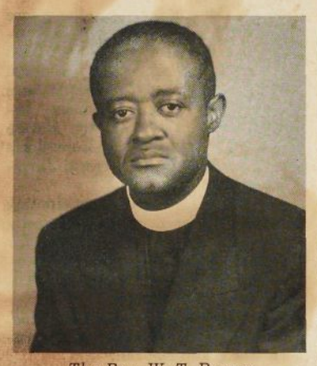

Dr. Edmunds said Dr. Gibbs told him he was being dismissed because of his NAACP affiliation. He said the college president told him his NAACP activities "were too controversial."

Dr. Gibbs replied that the minister's activities in the NAACP played no part in his request for dismissal and that he was not even aware Dr. Edmunds was an ordained Methodist clergyman.

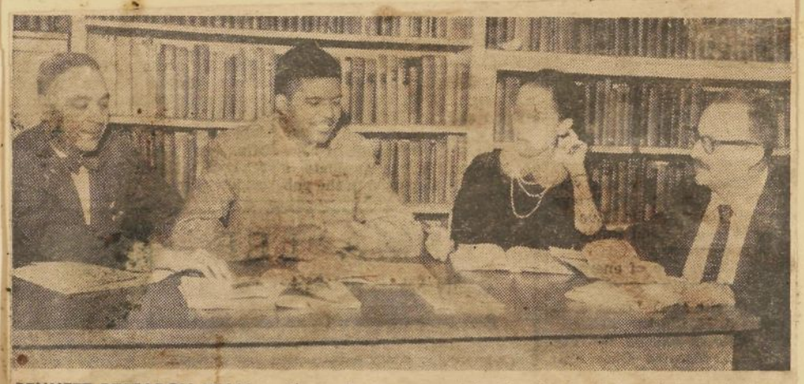

District Superintendent Brown declined to make any statement on why the pastor was discharged.

Dr. Warmoth Gibbs

The Rev. W. T. Brown

BENNETT RESEARCH TEAM — Shown here are the four members of the Bennett College research team who will spend three weeks this summer at Colorado College, Colorado Springs, Colo., working on a project sponsored by the Danforth Foundation. Left to right: Dr. Chauncey G. Winston, Van S. Allen, Mrs. Louise V. Streat and Francis Grandison. Courier 2/22/58

THE CAROLINA TIMES • SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 1

Bennett Coeds To Mt. Holyoke In Exchange Plan

GREENSBORO

Six Bennett College students and an instructor left here Saturday for Mt. Holyoke College, South Hadley, Mass., where on Monday, they begin a two-week exchange study program.

At the same time, six Mt. Holyoke students left for Bennett College, where they will spend the next two weeks. They were accompanied by Miss Marjorie Kaufman, assistant professor of English, who will serve as visiting lecturer in 17th century and American Literature for the next two weeks. The students will attend the same or similar classes to those which they normally attend at Mt. Holyoke.

Making the trip to Mt. Holyoke were Misses: Peggy Coefield, Kinston; Patricia Hopkins, Miami, Fla.; and Delores Wiggins, Petersburg, Va., all seniors; and the following juniors: Misses Jamesena Chalmers, Fayetteville; Eleanor Fields, Richmond, Va.; and Mary Shoffner, Greensboro. Accompanying them was James C. McMillan, art instructor, who will serve as visiting lecturer in several art courses at Mt. Holyoke, for the next two weeks.

VESPER SPEAKER

The Rev. Warren Scott, of Saint Philips Parish House, New York City, will speak at the Sunday vesper service at Bennett College, on February 23.

SEATED AROUND TABLE discussing plans for second semester activities are these recently-elected freshman class officers at Bennett college, Greensboro, N. C. From left: Jean Gerst, Williamburg, Va.; Yvonne Redcross, Hampton, Va.; Gwendolyn Mackel, Chicago; Margaret Bailey, president, Fruitland, M... Jean Sparrow, Covington, V... and Iris Jeffries, Burling... N. C.

ONE HEART FOR TWO was what these two lovely Bennett college freshmen were saying as they literally broke their heart in anticipation of Valentine's Day, Feb. 14. But come that day, Charietta Pickering (left), of Sumter, S. C., and Gloria McKnight, of Gainesville, Fla., sang a song called 'One Heart for One' as both discovered love and Valentine's Day was sweeter when shared by only one.

Singer Hits High Note At Bennett

SCORING A BIG HIT at Bennett College, Greensboro, N. C., was Mattiwilda Dobbs, coloratura soprano. Miss Dobbs is shown signing autographs. Flashing broad smiles in photo are Marian Benton of Greensboro and Marian Mims of McDade, La. A member of the Metropolitan and San Francisco opera companies, Miss Dobbs gave three encores at Bennett.

JOURNAL AND GUIDE

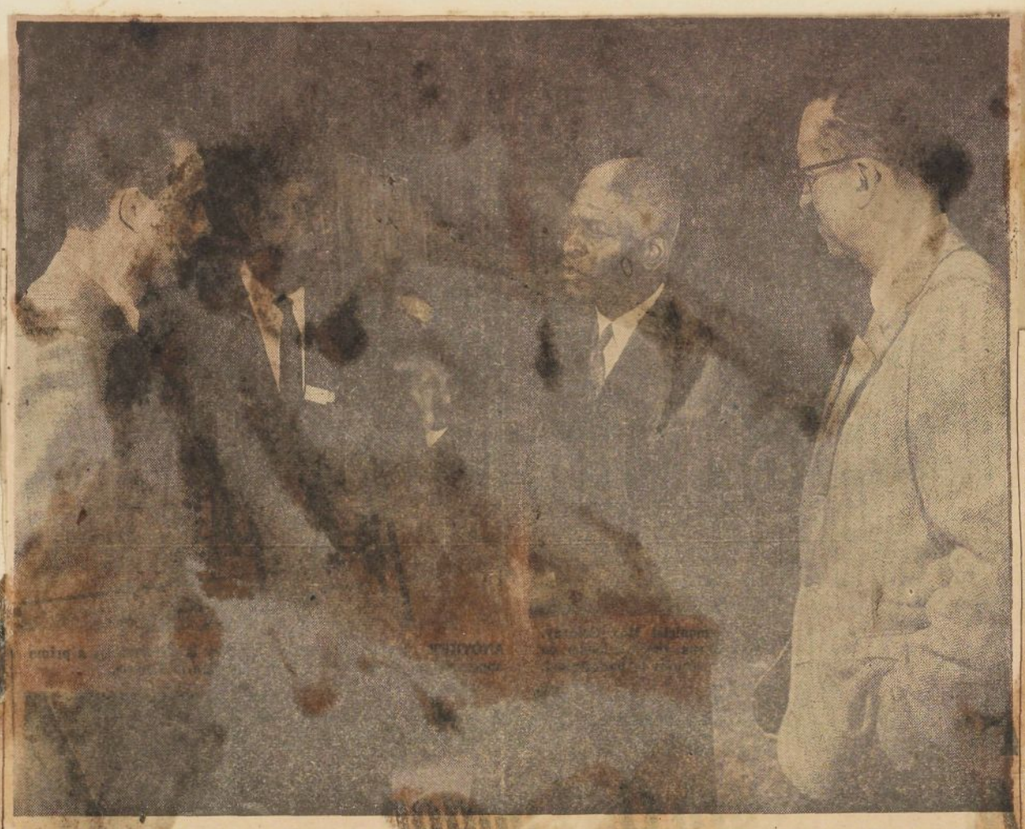

Bennett Research Team To Spend 3 Weeks On Project

Shown here are the four members of the Bennett College Research team of Greensboro, N. C., who will spend three weeks this summer at Colorado College Springs, Colo., working on a project, sponsored by the Danforth Foundation. Left to right, are: Dr. Chauncey G. Winston, chairman of the social science division; Van S. Allen, instructor in biology; Mrs. Louise V. Streat, instructor in clothing and family life, and Francis Grandison, instructor in psychology and director of the college's psychological services.

Defender 2/17/58

STUDY IN CONCENTRATION — Whatever Furnen Wooley was saying, he captured the undivided attention of these two young women at the College Party held at Bennett College, Friday night. Smiling at left is Miss Eunice Alston, of Burlington, Tenn., while Miss Elishama Madison soberly ponders the significance of her escort's remark. Wooley is a senior at neighboring A. and T. College.

SEE WHAT I MEAN? — Dr. Benjamin E. Mays, president of the UNCF, drives home a point with his finger as top officials of the UNCF listen intently during 13th annual meeting at Bennett College. Left to right: Gustav Heningburg; alumni field representative of UNCF, New York; Walter Washington, president of the National Alumni Council, Utica, Miss. and William J. Trent, jr., UNCF executive director of New York.

250 Attend 13th Session Of UNCF Alumni Council

GREENSBORO, N. C. — With more than 250 delegates in attendance, the National Alumni Council of the United Negro College Fund closed its thirteenth annual session here at Bennett College Sunday with the selection of Detroit, Mich., as the site of the 1960 meeting.

Registration was swelled by the attendance of some 150 students (pre-alumni) largest such representation ever to attend a national meeting.

In addition to three workshops — one for alumni presidents and secretaries, one for alumni groups in campaign cities and another for the students — the delegates were challenged by addresses by Dr. Benjamin E. Mays, president of the UNCF; Harry Golden, of Charlotte, N. C., author of the best-selling "Only in America," and Dr. William J. Trent, jr., executive director of UNCF.

An added feature this year was the crowning of "Miss UNCF" in the person of Miss Ida Bell Robinson of Wiley college, Marshall, Texas, an honor accorded the Texas institution for the highest per capita giving of any UNCF student body. Wiley students, 486 strong, gave a total of $2,136.37 or a per capita ratio of $4.39 per student.

Second place went to Barber Scotia College at Concord, N. C., with a per capita ratio of $3.64. Miss Lorena Bruner was the institution's representative. Third place went to Tougaloo Southern Christian College, of Tougaloo, Miss., represented by Miss Ruth Thompson, with a per capita ratio of $3.12.

Walter Washington, council president and Gustav Heningburg, field representative, made their annual reports and achievement trophies were presented to the Inter-Alumni Council of Chicago, headed by George Moore, attorney, for its outstanding work through the years, and to the Bennett college Pre-Alumni Association for having the largest representation at the Conference. The group was organized by Mrs. Jean P. Haith, alumnae secretary.

At the opening session on Saturday, the delegates were welcomed by President Willa B. Player of Bennett who cautioned them never to take their colleges for granted or to forget the importance of united effort.

James E. Stamps, of Chicago, founding president of the council, who made the response, was later unanimously voted to be made president-emeritus. Mrs. Erma Dozier of Benedict College, Columbia, S. C., presented the council its first banner which she designed and helped to produce.

Dr. Mays, who addressed the delegates at the afternoon session, urged the student delegates to support their institutions after graduation, saying that "if the graduates did as much as they could, with just a little personal sacrifice, our colleges would not be in such need."

He branded as "stupid" the idea that support of UNCF colleges means perpetuation of segregation. "If our product is good," he stated, "and our doors open, there is no way in the world to keep segregation. Prospective students will be seeking the best education possible and we must be able to supply it."

Speaker at the Saturday night banquet, attended by some 400 persons of both races, was Mr. Golden who urged the Negro to take his cue from the Jew and turn more and more to education to prepare himself for living today and tomorrow.

"Education," he said, "proved to be the salvation of the Jews. The Negro mother for the next 30 years must say what Jewish mothers 'said' to their children, 'Get an education, be a doctor, be a scientist.'

"Yours is a tremendous responsibility and your work as educators is more important than ever before. I hope to see your work prosper, not only for you, but for the South, for humanity and the world."

Dr. Trent in the closing address made at the Sunday afternoon vesper service in Pfeiffer Chapel, deplored the indiscriminate practice of labeling and name-calling.

"In this country," he said, "it is so easy to refer to a liberal person whose views differ from our own as 'a communist,' or to refer to a conservative person as an uncle Tom. This indiscriminate labeling of persons with whom we disagree, indicates that we have stopped thinking and are actually acting from sheer ignorance."

Dr. Trent revealed that there are now some 24,000 students attending the 33 member colleges of the UNCF and that the organization, since its inception 15 years ago, has raised more than 38 million dollars.

Dates for the 1960 meeting, with the Inter-Alumni Council of Detroit as hosts, will be February 13-14. A partial list of delegates and the institutions they represented follows:

ATLANTA UNIVERSITY — Mrs. J. D. Thompson
BARBER SCOTIA COLLEGE — Dr. L. Z. Cozart, Mrs. Bessie Burton, Miss Lorene Bruner, Dr. Sara B. Cordery, Miss Barbara Davis
BENEDICT COLLEGE — Mrs. Erma Dozier, Miss Carolyn Bethea, Miss L. J. Gambrell, Henrietta Smith
BENNETT COLLEGE — Misses LaRita Waters, Sarah Sanders, Joyce Pullum, Gwendolyn Pyatt, Joan Didier, Gwendolyn Mackel, Catherine Dawson, Rubbie Littlejohn, Gloria Keene, Nancy Kirby, Millie Adams, Jacqueline Boseman, Jonell Brown, Edwina Bratcher, Barbara Campbell, Jamesena Chalmers, Betty Crockett, Mrs. Minnie Smith, Mrs. Jean Haith, Dr. Hobart Jarrett, W. I. Gibson.
BETHUNE-COOKMAN COLLEGE — Benjamin Mathis, Sonja Pinkney, Elliott Scarela
CLARK COLLEGE — Rev. M. J. Wynn, Miss Elisha Norwood, Mrs. Ethel M. Johnson, Samuel Nee Smith, Dr. W. H. Hale
DILLARD UNIVERSITY — Mrs. Ruth A. Steele, Miss Gloria Humphrey, George W. Parker, Mrs. Leona J. Williams
FISK UNIVERSITY — Dickerson Donnelly, James E. Stamps, T. C. Rozell, L. P. Clarke
GAMMON THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY — Rev. Master J. Wynn
HAMPTON INSTITUTE — Miss Gloria Haithman
HUSTON-TILLOTSON COLLEGE — Mrs. Olive Brown, Faye Jennings
JOHNSON C. SMITH UNIVERSITY — Moses S. Belton, Dr. R. P. Perry, E. W. Bluford
KNOXVILLE COLLEGE — Robert J. Booker, Frederic Wells
LANE COLLEGE — Miss Freddie Clarke, Lowell Lewis, Essie M. Perry
LEMOYNE COLLEGE — T. R. McLemore
LIVINGSTONE COLLEGE — O. K. Beatty, Dr. S. E. Duncan
MOREHOUSE COLLEGE — Dr. Benjamin E. Mays, Charles W. Green, Robert Powell
MORRIS BROWN COLLEGE — Samuel S. Whaley, Thomas McPherson, Dr. R. A. Billings
PAINE COLLEGE — Miss Verda Sparks, Robert Sanders, Miss Joyce Lundy, Dr. W. L. Graham, Will Chambers, Mrs. Cordelia Blount
PHILANDER SMITH COLLEGE — Mrs. Naomi Best, Mrs. Claire McIntyre, Willie Clayton, D. C. Gillispie, Mae McAllister, Charles Napper, Rosezeal Woods
ST. AUGUSTINE'S COLLEGE — Purdie Anders, Miss Shirley Baldwin, Miss Barbara Brown, Clinton Dugger, Betty Jeffries, Carol Liscombe
ST. PAUL'S COLLEGE — Miss Mildred Daise, Walter Graves, James G. Patterson, William H. Whitehurst, James Saunders
SHAW UNIVERSITY — George Goode, Glenford Mitchell
SPELMAN COLLEGE — Mrs. Rose Givhan, Mrs. Ernestine Brazeal, Carolyn Crawford
TALLADEGA COLLEGE — Miss Pauline Dunkins, Milton S. Hurst, Miss Naomi Manigault
TEXAS COLLEGE — Mrs. Dannie Pogue, Mrs. Melva Randolph, Miss Gloria Todd, Mitchell Patton, James Crow, Clarence Holliman
TOUGALOO SOUTHERN CHRISTIAN COLLEGE — Walter Washington, Joseph Hawthorne, Miss Ruth Thompson, Henry Briggs
TUSKEGEE INSTITUTE — Marvin Cannon, Amos Johnson, Patsie Morrison, Gloria Peterson
VIRGINIA UNION UNIVERSITY — T. N. Braxton, Miss Ruth Clarke, George Coleman, Anna C. Lytle
WILEY COLLEGE — Dr. Thomas Cole, jr., Rev. James McCallum, Mrs. Ruby Kelly, Jesse Mayes, E. T. Peppers, Mrs. Ida B. Robinson
XAVIER UNIVERSITY — Asa Atkins, Alden Reine
NEW YORK OFFICE — Dr. W. J. Trent, jr., Barton Beatty, Gustav Heningburg

Bennett Hosts UNCF Nat'l Alumni Council

GREENSBORO—With more than 250 delegates in attendance, the National Alumni Council of the United Negro College Fund closed its thirteenth annual session here at Bennett College Sunday with the selection of Detroit, Mich., as the site of the 1960 meeting.

Registration was swelled by the attendance of some 150 students (pre-alumni) largest such representation ever to attend a national meeting.

In addition to three workshops — one for alumni presidents and secretaries, one for alumni groups in campaign cities and another for the students—the delegates were challenged by addresses by Dr. Benjamin E. Mays, president of the UNCF; Harry Golden, of Charlotte, author of the best-selling "Only in America;" and Dr. William J. Trent, Jr., executive director of UNCF.

An added feature this year was the crowning of "Miss UNCF" in the person of Miss Ida Bell Robinson of Wiley College, Marshall, Texas, an honor accorded the Texas institution for the highest per capita giving of any UNCF student body. Wilby students, 486 strong, gave a total of $2,136.37 or a per capita ratio of $4.39 per student.

Second place went to Barber Scotia College at Concord, N. C., with a per capita ratio of $3.64. Miss Lorena Bruner was the institution's representative. Third went to Tougaloo Southern Christian College, of Tougaloo, represented by Miss Ruth Thompson, with a per capita ratio of $3.12.

Walter Washington, council president and Gustav Heningburg, field representative, made their annual reports and achievement trophies were presented to the Inter-Alumni Council of Chicago, headed by George Moore, attorney, for its outstanding work through the years, and to the Bennett college Pre-Alumni Association for having the largest representation at the Conference. The group was organized by Mrs. Jean P. Haith, alumnae secretary.

At the opening session on Saturday, the delegates were welcomed by President Willa B. Player of Bennett who cautioned them never to take their colleges for granted or to forget the importance of united effort.

James E. Stamps, of Chicago, founding president of the council, who made the response, was later unanimously voted to be made president-emeritus. Mrs. Erma Dozier of Benedict College, Columbia, S. C., presented the council its first banner which she designed and helped to produce.

Dr. Mays, who addressed the delegates at the afternoon session, urged the student delegates to support their institutions after graduation, saying that "if the graduates did as much as they could, with just a little personal sacrifice, our colleges would not be in such need."

He branded as "stupid" the idea that support of UNCF colleges means perpetuation of segregation. "If our product is good," he stated, "and our doors open, there is no way in the world to keep segregation. Prospective students will be seeking the best education possible and we must be able to supply

Saturday night
90 per-
Golden
ke his a more prepare tomorroved to ews. The 30 years mothers et an edu-scientist."

"Miss UNCF" Is Crowned

Miss Ida Bell Robinson, of Wiley College, Marshall, Texas, is crowned Miss UNCF by Dr. William J. Trent, Jr., executive director, during banquet which was highlight of the 13th annual meeting of the National Alumni Council at Bennett College last week. Wiley College, with a per capita ratio of $4.39 per student, led all UNCF colleges with students contributing $2,136.37.

ONLY ONE COULD WIN — Miss Ida Bell Robinson, of Wiley College, Marshall, Texas, who was crowned Miss UNCF UNCF in the 13th annual conference of the National Alumni Council held at Bennett College last week, is flanked by some of the contestants from other UNCF schools following her coronation. To the left of "Miss UNCF" is Miss Lorene Bruner, of Barber-Scotia College, Concord, N. C., who was runner-up and to her right is Miss Ruth Thompson, of Tougaloo Southern Christian College, Tougaloo, Miss., whose institution was third. Wiley College students contributed $2,136.37 to the UNCF, a per capita ratio of $4.39 per student.

Choir Presents Annual Concert

Greensboro, N. C. — The annual spring concert by the freshman choir at Bennett College will be presented on April 24 at 8:00 p.m. in Pfeiffer Chapel.

The 44-voice group, directed by Edward Lowe, will sing numbers dating from the 16th century to the present. Included will be "Crucifixus" from Bach's "Mass in B Minor;" Menrelssohn's "Hear My Prayer;" "Requiescat" by William Schuman and "Hallelujah, Amen" from "Judas Maccabaeus" by Handel. The choir will also sing a group of spirituals, among them "Listen to the Lambs" by Nathaniel Dett and "My Way's Cloudy," arranged by Harry T. Burleigh.

Soloists will be Misses Ruth Dobson, Sandra Downing, Janet Edwards, Shirley Hawkins and Zelma Wright. An added feature will be the performance of the Madrigal Singers, a group of 12, which will sing five numbers, among them "Sing We and Chant It" by Thomas Norley and "How Merrily We Live" by Michael Este, both 16th century composers.

"MISS UNCF" CROWNED — Miss Ida Bell Robinson, of Wiley college, Marshall, Texas, is crowned Miss UNCF by Dr. William J. Trent, jr., executive director, during banquet which was a highlight of the 13th annual meeting of the National Alumni Council at Bennett college last week. Wiley college, with a per capita ratio of $4.39 per student, led all UNCF colleges with student givings of $2,136.37.

ROSS TO SPEAK

Dr. Emory Ross, consultant of the Board of Fundamental Education, New York City, will speak at the 4 p.m. vesper service at Bennett College today.

Dr. Emory Ross Talks At Bennett College

"There is no power anywhere that exceeds that of the Christian religion," said Dr. Emory Ross of New York City in his vesper address at Bennett College yesterday.

Dr. Ross, who is consultant for the Board of Fundamental Education, spoke of the impact that religion has had and is having on the African continent, adding that "nowhere have so many people moved so rapidly out of an animistic-communal society than has been the case with Africa."

RELIGIOUS VOLUMES GIVEN

Greensboro, N. C. — A gift of some 75 religious volumes from the library of the late J. Ernest Wilkins made by his wife to Holgate Libarary at Bennett College was announced last week by Mrs. Constance Marteena, librarian.

Wilkins, who was at one time U. S. Assistant Secretary of Labor and president of the Judicial Council of the Methodist Church, died early this year.

He was appointed to a 3-year term on the District of Columbia Commissioners' Council on Human Relations in 1958.

Jesus' Teachings Still Applicable, Bryan Declares

Jesus is the greatest teacher that the world has ever known and the truths that He taught to the people of His day are just as applicable to the present generation.

The Rev. John L. Bryan, director of religious activities at Bennett College, ushering in the Lenten season at the college, gave this appraisal at yesterday afternoon's vesper service in Pfeiffer Chapel.

"Jesus has left us a climate of moral judgment for this age and all to come," the minister said. "True, He had nothing to say about slavery or about labor unions, as such, but He gave up His whole life defending the principle that all men are brothers.

"He declined the challenge to transform stones into bread because He came instead to transform men. It is not necessary, therefore, for us to seek the laws of Jesus if we have the spirit of Jesus."

Bennett To Adm... School ...

...ool
...re
...s, senior class
...elors from high
...Southern states
...llege yesterday
...cooperation in
...elopment, testing
...h members of the
...and state educa-
...tion officials.

Bennett Col... cooperative ... for high s... seniors in 1... ruary and N... The exam... again this yea... pices of the United Ne... dge Fund in 265 centers throughout the country and more than 5,000 candidates are expected to take the tests.

The tests, which are available to those students seeking scholarships and admissions to any of the fund's colleges, will be scored and interpreted by the Educational Testing Service of Princeton University.

The following are the dates and places and times for the examinations which Bennett will administer:

Feb. 23—Hillside High School, Durham, 9:30 a.m.
Feb. 24—William Penn High School, High Point, 9 a.m.
Feb. 25—Atkins High School, Winston-Salem, 9 a.m.
Feb. 26—Carver High School, Winston-Salem, 9 a.m.
Feb. 27—Dudley High School, Greensboro, 9 a.m.
Feb. 27—Howard High School, Georgetown, 1 p.m.
March 2 — Langston High School Danville, Va., 9 a.m.
March 3—Dunbar High School, Lynchburg, Va., 10 a.m.
March 4—Addison High School, Roanoke, Va., 10 a.m.

Representatives of Bennett will also supervise the examinations to be given in Los Angeles

Mrs. Perne W. Horne of Philadelphia, Pa., and William A. Stuart of Princeton, N.J., spoke at a morning conference.

Mrs. Horne said, "We are suffering from an overlapping of subject matter." She said a lack of communication between high school and college teachers may be partly to blame.

Stuart talked mainly about testing and guidance needs. "Neither our schools nor the nation can afford to delay much longer in taking positive action toward improving guidance," he said.

Panelists included educators from Miami, Fla., Raleigh and Greensboro.

Findings and recommendations of the conference will be announced during this morning's chapel service on the campus.

Bennett Increasing Faculty Salaries

Dr. Willa B. Player, president of Bennett College, said Saturday recently-voted increases in the Negro college's budget of $66,310 will be used for increasing faculty salaries and improving the college library.

An operating budget of $733,725 was approved by the trustees meeting this week. Dr. J. G. Meidenbauer of Buffalo, N.Y., treasurer, reported gifts and grants to Bennett of the first nine months of the fiscal year amounted to $102,000.

Dr. J. S. Thomas Talks At Bennett

Dr. James S. Thomas, associate secretary of the Board of Education of the Methodist Church, spoke on "Faith in Life's Impossibilities" yesterday at Bennett College.

The occasion was the final session of a conference of high school principals and advisors at the college.

"One of the most remarkable facts of life," he said, "is mankind's persistent belief in human possibilities."

"It is no oversimplification of religion and education to say that at their best they are supremely concerned with eradicating the impossibilities from human development," he said.

The two-day conference sought ways of improving curriculum, testing and guidance, and communication between high school and college personnel.

What Are You Willing To Die For?

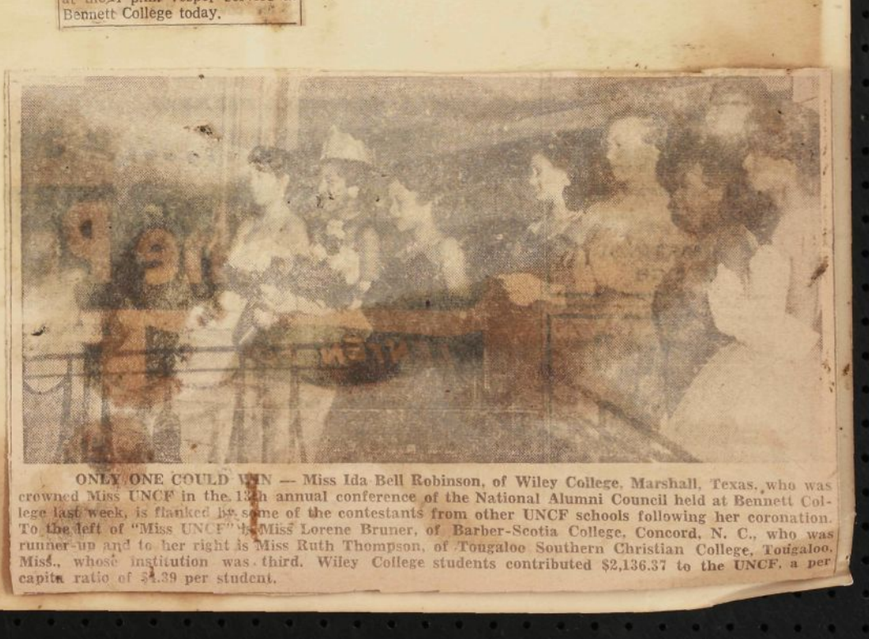

Greensboro, N. C. — What one is willing to die for will usually represent what one is willing to live for, Dr. Pressley McCoy, associate director of the Danforth Foundation of St. Louis, Mo., told Bennett College students here Monday.

Dr. McCoy, who spoke in Pfeiffer Chapel, used "Dead-End Living" as his topic. He pointed out to the students that many persons, with a false sense of values, travel along life's highway completely oblivious of the warning signs along the way and eventually wind up on a dead-end street.

"Knowledge, of itself," he declared, "does not necessarily determine one's philosophy nor does the fact that we know good mean that we will do good."

While on campus, Dr. McCoy had breakfast with members of the college's four-man team which last summer attended the Danforth Workshop at Colorado College. Several other faculty-staff members joined this group for lunch. Dr. McCoy also met informally with student leaders.

Bennett College was recently the recipient of a grant of $25,000 from the Danforth Foundation to be used in strengthening its academic program.

ONLY ONE COULD WIN — Miss Ida Bell Robinson, of Wiley College, Marshall, Texas, who was crowned Miss UNCF in the 13th annual conference of the National Alumni Council held at Bennett College last week, is flanked by some of the contestants from other UNCF schools following her coronation. To the left of "Miss UNCF" is Miss Lorene Bruner, of Barber-Scotia College, Concord, N. C., who was runner-up and to her right is Miss Ruth Thompson, of Tougaloo Southern Christian College, Tougaloo, Miss., whose institution was third. Wiley College students contributed $2,136.37 to the UNCF, a per capita ratio of $4.39 per student.

STUDY IN CONCENTRATION — Whatever Furnell Wooley was saying, he captured the undivided attention of these two young women at the College Party held at Bennett College, Friday night. Smiling at left is Miss Eunice Alston, of Burlington, Tenn., while Miss Elishama Madison soberly ponders the significance of her escort's remark. Wooley is a senior at neighboring A. and T. College.

SEE WHAT I MEAN? — Dr. Benjamin E. Mays, president of the UNCF, drives home a point with his finger as top officials of the UNCF listen intently during 13th annual meeting at Bennett College. Left to right: Gustav Heningburg; alumni field representative of UNCF, New York; Walter Washington, president of the National Alumni Council, Utica, Miss. and William J. Trent, jr., UNCF executive director of New York.

250 Attend 13th Session Of UNCF Alumni Council

GREENSBORO, N. C. — With more than 250 delegates in attendance, the National Alumni Council of the United Negro College Fund closed its thirteenth annual session here at Bennett College Sunday with the selection of Detroit, Mich., as the site of the 1960 meeting.

Registration was swelled by the attendance of some 150 students (pre-alumni) largest such representation ever to attend a national meeting.

In addition to three workshops — one for alumni presidents and secretaries, one for alumni groups in campaign cities and another for the students — the delegates were challenged by addresses by Dr. Benjamin E. Mays, president of the UNCF; Harry Golden, of Charlotte, N. C., author of the best-selling "Only in America," and Dr. William J. Trent, jr., executive director of UNCF.

An added feature this year was the crowning of "Miss UNCF" in the person of Miss Ida Bell Robinson of Wiley college, Marshall, Texas, an honor accorded the Texas institution for the highest per capita giving of any UNCF student body. Wiley students, 486 strong, gave a total of $2,136.37 or a per capita ratio of $4.39 per student.

Second place went to Barber Scotia College at Concord, N. C., with a per capita ratio of $3.64. Miss Lorena Bruner was the institution's representative. Third place went to Tougaloo Southern Christian College, of Tougaloo, Miss., represented by Miss Ruth Thompson, with a per capita ratio of $3.12.

Walter Washington, council president and Gustav Heningburg, field representative, made their annual reports and achievement trophies were presented to the Inter-Alumni Council of Chicago, headed by George Moore, attorney, for its outstanding work through the years, and to the Bennett College Pre-Alumni Association for having the largest representation at the Conference. The group was organized by Mrs. Jean P. Haith, alumnae secretary.

At the opening session on Saturday, the delegates were welcomed by President Willa B. Player of Bennett who cautioned them never to take their colleges for granted or to forget the importance of united effort.

James E. Stamps, of Chicago, founding president of the council, who made the response, was later unanimously voted to be made president-emeritus. Mrs. Erma Dozier of Benedict College, Columbia, S. C., presented the council its first banner which she designed and helped to produce.

Dr. Mays, who addressed the delegates at the afternoon session, urged the student delegates to support their institutions after graduation, saying that "if the graduates did as much as they could, with just a little personal sacrifice, our colleges would not be in such need."

He branded as "stupid" the idea that support of UNCF colleges means perpetuation of segregation. "If our product is good," he stated, "and our doors open, there is no way in the world to keep segregation. Prospective students will be seeking the best education possible and we must be able to supply it."

Speaker at the Saturday night banquet, attended by some 400 persons of both races, was Mr. Golden who urged the Negro to take his cue from the Jew and turn more and more to education to prepare himself for living today and tomorrow.

"Education," he said, "proved to be the salvation of the Jews. The Negro mother for the next 30 years must say what Jewish mothers said to their children, 'Get an education, be a doctor, be a scientist.'

"Yours is a tremendous responsibility and your work as educators is more important than ever before. I hope to see your work prosper, not only for you, but for the South, for humanity and the world."

Dr. Trent in the closing address made at the Sunday afternoon vesper service in Pfeiffer Chapel, deplored the indiscriminate practice of labeling and name-calling.

"In this country," he said, "it is so easy to refer to a liberal person whose views differ from our own as a communist, or to refer to a conservative person as an uncle Tom. This indiscriminate labeling of persons with whom we disagree, indicates that we have stopped thinking and are actually acting from sheer ignorance."

Dr. Trent revealed that there are now some 24,000 students attending the 33 member colleges of the UNCF and that the organization, since its inception 15 years ago, has raised more than 38 million dollars.

Dates for the 1960 meeting, with the Inter-Alumni Council of Detroit as hosts, will be February 13-14. A partial list of delegates and the institutions they represented follows:

ATLANTA UNIVERSITY — Mrs. J. D. Thompson
BARBER SCOTIA COLLEGE — Dr. L. Z. Cozart, Mrs. Bessie Burton, Miss Lorene Bruner, Dr. Sara B. Cordery, Miss Barbara Davis
BENEDICT COLLEGE — Mrs. Erma Dozier, Miss Carolyn Bethea, Miss L. J. Gambrell, Henrietta Smith
BENNETT COLLEGE — Misses LaRita Waters, Sarah Sanders, Joyce Pullum, Gwendolyn Pyatt, Joan Didier, Gwendolyn Mackel, Catherine Dawson, Rubbie Littlejohn, Gloria Keene, Nancy Kirby, Millie Adams, Jacqueline Boseman, Jonell Brown, Edwina Bratcher, Barbara Campbell, Jamesena Chalmers, Betty Crockett, Mrs. Minnie Smith, Mrs. Jean Haith, Dr. Hobart Jarrett, W. I. Gibson.
BETHUNE-COOKMAN COLLEGE — Benjamin Mathis, Sonja Pinkney, Elliott Scarela
CLARK COLLEGE — Rev. M. J. Wynn, Miss Elisha Norwood, Mrs. Ethel M. Johnson, Samuel Nee Smith, Dr. W. H. Hale
DILLARD UNIVERSITY — Mrs. Ruth A. Steele, Miss Gloria Humphrey, George W. Parker, Mrs. Leona J. Williams
FISK UNIVERSITY — Dickerson Donnelly, James E. Stamps, T. C. Rozell, L. P. Clarke
GAMMON THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY — Rev. Master J. Wynn
HAMPTON INSTITUTE — Miss Gloria Haithman
HUSTON-TILLOTSON COLLEGE — Mrs. Olive Brown, Faye Jennings
JOHNSON C. SMITH UNIVERSITY — Moses S. Belton, Dr. R. P. Perry, E. W. Bluford
KNOXVILLE COLLEGE — Robert J. Booker, Frederic Wells
LANE COLLEGE — Miss Freddie Clarke, Lowell Lewis, Essie M. Perry
LEMOYNE COLLEGE — T. R. McLemore
LIVINGSTONE COLLEGE — O. K. Beatty, Dr. S. E. Duncan
MOREHOUSE COLLEGE — Dr. Benjamin E. Mays, Charles W. Green, Robert Powell
MORRIS BROWN COLLEGE — Samuel S. Whaley, Thomas McPherson, Dr. R. A. Billings
PAINE COLLEGE — Miss Verda Sparks, Robert Sanders, Miss Joyce Lundy, Dr. W. L. Graham, Will Chambers, Mrs. Cordelia Blount
PHILANDER SMITH COLLEGE — Mrs. Naomi Best, Mrs. Claire McIntyre, Willie Clayton, D. C. Gillispie, Mae McAllister, Charles Napper, Rosezeal Woods
ST. AUGUSTINE'S COLLEGE — Purdie Anders, Miss Shirley Baldwin, Miss Barbara Brown, Clinton Dugger, Betty Jeffries, Carol Liscombe
ST. PAUL'S COLLEGE — Miss Mildred Daise, Walter Graves, James G. Patterson, William H. Whitehurst, James Saunders
SHAW UNIVERSITY — George Goode, Glenford Mitchell
SPELMAN COLLEGE — Mrs. Rose Givhan, Mrs. Ernestine Brazeal, Carolyn Crawford
TALLADEGA COLLEGE — Miss Pauline Dunkins, Milton S. Hurst, Miss Naomi Manigault
TEXAS COLLEGE — Mrs. Dannie Pogue, Mrs. Melva Randolph, Miss Gloria Todd, Mitchell Patton, James Crow, Clarence Holliman
TOUGALOO SOUTHERN CHRISTIAN COLLEGE — Walter Washington, Joseph Hawthorne, Miss Ruth Thompson, Henry Briggs
TUSKEGEE INSTITUTE — Marvin Cannon, Amos Johnson, Patsie Morrison, Gloria Peterson
VIRGINIA UNION UNIVERSITY — T. N. Braxton, Miss Ruth Clarke, George Coleman, Anna C. Lytle
WILEY COLLEGE — Dr. Thomas Cole, jr., Rev. James McCallum, Mrs. Ruby Kelly, Jesse Mayes, E. T. Peppers, Mrs. Ida B. Robinson
XAVIER UNIVERSITY — Asa Atkins, Alden Reine
NEW YORK OFFICE — Dr. W. J. Trent, jr., Barton Beatty, Gustav Heningburg

Bennett Hosts UNCF Nat'l Alumni Council

GREENSBORO—With more than 250 delegates in attendance, the National Alumni Council of the United Negro College Fund closed its thirteenth annual session here at Bennett College Sunday with the selection of Detroit, Mich., as the site of the 1960 meeting.

Registration was swelled by the attendance of some 150 students (pre-alumni) largest such representation ever to attend a national meeting.

In addition to three workshops — one for alumni presidents and secretaries, one for alumni groups in campaign cities and another for the students—the delegates were challenged by addresses by Dr. Benjamin E. Mays, president of the UNCF; Harry Golden, of Charlotte, author of the best-selling "Only in America;" and Dr. William J. Trent, Jr., executive director of UNCF.

An added feature this year was the crowning of "Miss UNCF" in the person of Miss Ida Bell Robinson of Wiley College, Marshall, Texas, an honor accorded the Texas institution for the highest per capita giving of any UNCF student body. Wilby students, 486 strong, gave a total of $2,136.37 or a per capita ratio of $4.39 per student.

Second place went to Barber Scotia College at Concord, N. C., with a per capita ratio of $3.64. Miss Lorena Bruner was the institution's representative. Third place went to Tougaloo Southern Christian College, of Tougaloo, Miss., represented by Miss Ruth Thompson, with a per capita ratio of $3.12.

Walter Washington, council president and Gustav Heningburg, field representative, made their annual reports and achivement trophies were presented to the Inter-Alumni Council of Chicago, headed by George Moore, attorney, for its outstanding work through the years, and to the Bennett College Pre-Alumni Association for having the largest representation at the Conference. The group was organized by Mrs. Jean P. Haith, alumnae secretary.

At the opening session on Saturday, the delegates were welcomed by President Willa B. Player of Bennett who cautioned them never to take their colleges for granted or to forget the importance of united effort.

James E. Stamps, of Chicago, founding president of the council, who made the response, was later unanimously voted to be made president-emeritus. Mrs. Erma Dozier of Benedict College, Columbia, S. C., presented the council its first banner which she designed and helped to produce.

Dr. Mays, who addressed the delegates at the afternoon session, urged the student delegates to support their institutions after graduation, saying that "if the graduates did as much as they could, with just a little personal sacrifice, our colleges would not be in such need."

He branded as "stupid" the idea that support of UNCF colleges means perpetuation of segregation. "If our product is good," he stated, "and our doors open, there is no way in the world to keep segregation. Prospective students will be seeking the best education possible and we must be able to supply it."

Speaker at the Saturday night banquet, attended by some 400 persons of both races, was Mr. Golden who urged the Negro to take his cue from the Jew and turn more and more to education to prepare himself for living today and tomorrow.

"Education," he said, "proved to be the salvation of the Jews. The Negro mother for the next 30 years must say what Jewish mothers said to their children, 'Get an education, be a doctor, be a scientist.'

"Yours is a tremendous responsibility and your work as educators is more important than ever before. I hope to see your work prosper, not only for you, but for the South, for humanity and the world."

Dr. Trent in the closing address made at the Sunday afternoon vesper service in Pfeiffer Chapel, deplored the indiscriminate practice of labeling and name-calling.

"In this country," he said, "it is so easy to refer to a liberal person whose views differ from our own as a communist, or to refer to a conservative person as an uncle Tom. This indiscriminate labeling of persons with whom we disagree, indicates that we have stopped thinking and are actually acting from sheer ignorance."

Dr. Trent revealed that there are now some 24,000 students attending the 33 member colleges of the UNCF and that the organization, since its inception 15 years ago, has raised more than 38 million dollars.

Dates for the 1960 meeting, with the Inter-Alumni Council of Detroit as hosts, will be February 13-14. A partial list of delegates and the institutions they represented follows:

ATLANTA UNIVERSITY — Mrs. J. D. Thompson
BARBER SCOTIA COLLEGE — Dr. L. Z. Cozart, Mrs. Bessie Burton, Miss Lorene Bruner, Dr. Sara B. Cordery, Miss Barbara Davis
BENEDICT COLLEGE — Mrs. Erma Dozier, Miss Carolyn Bethea, Miss L. J. Gambrell, Henrietta Smith
BENNETT COLLEGE — Misses LaRita Waters, Sarah Sanders, Joyce Pullum, Gwendolyn Pyatt, Joan Didier, Gwendolyn Mackel, Catherine Dawson, Rubbie Littlejohn, Gloria Keene, Nancy Kirby, Millie Adams, Jacqueline Boseman, Jonell Brown, Edwina Bratcher, Barbara Campbell, Jamesena Chalmers, Betty Crockett, Mrs. Minnie Smith, Mrs. Jean Haith, Dr. Hobart Jarrett, W. I. Gibson.
BETHUNE-COOKMAN COLLEGE — Benjamin Mathis, Sonja Pinkney, Elliott Scarela
CLARK COLLEGE — Rev. M. J. Wynn, Miss Elisha Norwood, Mrs. Ethel M. Johnson, Samuel Nee Smith, Dr. W. H. Hale
DILLARD UNIVERSITY — Mrs. Ruth A. Steele, Miss Gloria Humphrey, George W. Parker, Mrs. Leona J. Williams
FISK UNIVERSITY — Dickerson Donnelly, James E. Stamps, T. C. Rozell, L. P. Clarke
GAMMON THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY — Rev. Master J. Wynn
HAMPTON INSTITUTE — Miss Gloria Haithman
HUSTON-TILLOTSON COLLEGE — Mrs. Olive Brown, Faye Jennings
JOHNSON C. SMITH UNIVERSITY — Moses S. Belton, Dr. R. P. Perry, E. W. Bluford
KNOXVILLE COLLEGE — Robert J. Booker, Frederic Wells
LANE COLLEGE — Miss Freddie Clarke, Lowell Lewis, Essie M. Perry
LEMOYNE COLLEGE — T. R. McLemore
LIVINGSTONE COLLEGE — O. K. Beatty, Dr. S. E. Duncan
MOREHOUSE COLLEGE — Dr. Benjamin E. Mays, Charles W. Green, Robert Powell
MORRIS BROWN COLLEGE — Samuel S. Whaley, Thomas McPherson, Dr. R. A. Billings
PAINE COLLEGE — Miss Verda Sparks, Robert Sanders, Miss Joyce Lundy, Dr. W. L. Graham, Will Chambers, Mrs. Cordelia Blount
PHILANDER SMITH COLLEGE — Mrs. Naomi Best, Mrs. Claire McIntyre, Willie Clayton, D. C. Gillispie, Mae McAllister, Charles Napper, Rosezeal Woods
ST. AUGUSTINE'S COLLEGE — Purdie Anders, Miss Shirley Baldwin, Miss Barbara Brown, Clinton Dugger, Betty Jeffries, Carol Liscombe
ST. PAUL'S COLLEGE — Miss Mildred Daise, Walter Graves, James G. Patterson, William H. Whitehurst, James Saunders
SHAW UNIVERSITY — George Goode, Glenford Mitchell
SPELMAN COLLEGE — Mrs. Rose Givhan, Mrs. Ernestine Brazeal, Carolyn Crawford
TALLADEGA COLLEGE — Miss Pauline Dunkins, Milton S. Hurst, Miss Naomi Manigault
TEXAS COLLEGE — Mrs. Dannie Pogue, Mrs. Melva Randolph, Miss Gloria Todd, Mitchell Patton, James Crow, Clarence Holliman
TOUGALOO SOUTHERN CHRISTIAN COLLEGE — Walter Washington, Joseph Hawthorne, Miss Ruth Thompson, Henry Briggs
TUSKEGEE INSTITUTE — Marvin Cannon, Amos Johnson, Patsie Morrison, Gloria Peterson
VIRGINIA UNION UNIVERSITY — T. N. Braxton, Miss Ruth Clarke, George Coleman, Anna C. Lytle
WILEY COLLEGE — Dr. Thomas Cole, jr., Rev. James McCallum, Mrs. Ruby Kelly, Jesse Mayes, E. T. Peppers, Mrs. Ida B. Robinson
XAVIER UNIVERSITY — Asa Atkins, Alden Reine
NEW YORK OFFICE — Dr. W. J. Trent, jr., Barton Beatty, Gustav Heningburg

ONLY ONE COULD WIN — Miss Ida Bell Robinson, of Wiley College, Marshall, Texas, who was crowned Miss UNCF UNCF in the 13th annual conference of the National Alumni Council held at Bennett College last week, is flanked by some of the contestants from other UNCF schools following her coronation. To the left of "Miss UNCF" is Miss Lorene Bruner, of Barber-Scotia College, Concord, N. C., who was runner-up and to her right is Miss Ruth Thompson, of Tougaloo Southern Christian College, Tougaloo, Miss., who institution was third. Wiley College students contributed $2,136.37 to the UNCF, a per capita ratio of $4.39 per student.

"Miss UNCF" Is Crowned

Miss Ida Bell Robinson, of Wiley College, Marshall, Texas, is crowned Miss UNCF by Dr. William J. Trent, Jr., executive director, during banquet which was highlight of the 13th annual meeting of the National Alumni Council at Bennett College last week. Wiley College, with a per capita ratio of $4.39 per student, led all UNCF colleges with students contributing $2,136.37.

Dr. Emory Ross Talks At Bennett College

"There is no power anywhere that exceeds that of the Christian religion," said Dr. Emory Ross of New York City in his vesper address at Bennett College yesterday.

Dr. Ross, who is consultant for the Board of Fundamental Education, spoke of the impact that religion has had and is having on the African continent, adding that "nowhere have so many people moved so rapidly out of an animistic-communal society than has been the case with Africa."

RELIGIOUS VOLUMES GIVEN

Greensboro, N. C. — A gift of some 75 religious volumes from the library of the late J. Ernest Wilkins made by his wife to Holgate Libarary at Bennett College was announced last week by Mrs. Constance Marteena, librarian.

Wilkins, who was at one time U. S. Assistant Secretary of Labor and president of the Judicial Council of the Methodist Church, died early this year.

He was appointed to a 3-year term on the District of Columbia Commissioners' Council on Human Relations in 1958.

Choir Presents Annual Concert

Greensboro, N. C. — The annual spring concert by the freshman choir at Bennett College will be presented on April 24 at 8:00 p.m. in Pfeiffer Chapel.

The 44-voice group, directed by Edward Lowe, will sing numbers dating from the 16th century to the present. Included will be "Crucifixus" from Bach's "Mass in B Minor;" Menrelssohn's "Hear My Prayer;" "Requiescat" by William Schuman and "Hallelujah, Amen" from "Judas Maccabaeus" by Handel. The choir will also sing a group of spirituals, among them "Listen to the Lambs" by Nathaniel Dett and "My Way's Cloudy," arranged by Harry T. Burleigh.

Soloists will be Misses Ruth Dobson, Sandra Downing, Janet Edwards, Shirley Hawkins and Zelma Wright. An added feature will be the performance of the Madrigal Singers, a group of 12, which will sing five numbers, among them "Sing We and Chant It" by Thomas Norley and "How Merrily We Live" by Michael Este, both 16th century composers.

"MISS UNCF" CROWNED — Miss Ida Bell Robinson, of Wiley college, Marshall, Texas, is crowned Miss UNCF by Dr. William J. Trent, jr., executive director, during banquet which was a highlight of the 13th annual meeting of the National Alumni Council at Bennett college last week. Wiley college, with a per capita ratio of $4.39 per student, led all UNCF colleges with student givings of $2,136.37.

ROSS TO SPEAK

Dr. Emory Ross, consultant of the Board of Fundamental Education, New York City, will speak at the 4 p.m. vesper service at Bennett College today.

Bennett College To Administer School Tests

Bennett College will administer cooperative group examinations for high school juniors and seniors in 11 centers during February and March.

The examinations will be given again this year under the auspices of the United Negro College Fund in 265 centers throughout the country and more than 5,000 candidates are expected to take the tests.

The tests, which are available to those students seeking scholarships and admissions to any of the fund's colleges, will be scored and interpreted by the Educational Testing Service of Princeton University.

The following are the dates and places and times for the examinations which Bennett will administer:

Feb. 23—Hillside High School, Durham, 9:30 a.m.
Feb. 24—William Penn High School, High Point, 9 a.m.
Feb. 25—Atkins High School, Winston-Salem, 9 a.m.
Feb. 26—Carver High School, Winston-Salem, 9 a.m.
Feb. 27—Dudley High School, Greensboro, 9 a.m.
Feb. 27—Howard High School, Georgetown, 1 p.m.
March 2 — Langston High School Danville, Va., 9 a.m.
March 3—Dunbar High School, Lynchburg, Va., 10 a.m.
March 4—Addison High School, Roanoke, Va., 10 a.m.

Representatives of Bennett will also supervise the examinations to be given in Los Angeles

Bennett Increasing Faculty Salaries

Dr. Willa B. Player, president of Bennett College, said Saturday recently-voted increases in the Negro college's budget of $66,310 will be used for increasing faculty salaries and improving the college library.

An operating budget of $733,725 was approved by the trustees meeting this week. Dr. J. G. Meidenbauer of Buffalo, N.Y., treasurer, reported gifts and grants to Bennett of the first nine months of the fiscal year amounted to $102,000.

Dr. J. S. Thomas Talks At Bennett

Dr. James S. Thomas, associate secretary of the Board of Education of the Methodist Church, spoke on "Faith in Life's Impossibilities" yesterday at Bennett College.

The occasion was the final session of a conference of high school principals and advisors at the college.

"One of the most remarkable facts of life," he said, "is mankind's persistent belief in human possibilities."

"It is no oversimplification of religion and education to say that at their best they are supremely concerned with eradicating the impossibilities from human development," he said.

The two-day conference sought ways of improving curriculum, testing and guidance, and communication between high school and college personnel.

What Are You Willing To Die For?

Greensboro, N. C. — What one is willing to die for will usually represent what one is willing to live for, Dr. Pressley McCoy, associate director of the Danforth Foundation of St. Louis, Mo., told Bennett College students here Monday.

Dr. McCoy, who spoke in Pfeiffer Chapel, used "Dead-End Living" as his topic. He pointed out to the students that many persons, with a false sense of values, travel along life's highway completely oblivious of the warning signs along the way and eventually wind up on a dead-end street.

"Knowledge, of itself," he declared, "does not necessarily determine one's philosophy nor does the fact that we know good mean that we will do good."

While on campus, Dr. McCoy had breakfast with members of the college's four-man team which last summer attended the Danforth Workshop at Colorado College. Several other faculty-staff members joined this group for lunch. Dr. McCoy also met informally with student leaders.

Bennett College was recently the recipient of a grant of $25,000 from the Danforth Foundation to be used in strengthening its academic program.

56

ONLY ONE COULD WIN — Miss Ida Bell Robinson, of Wiley College, Marshall, Texas, who was crowned Miss UNCF in the 13th annual conference of the National Alumni Council held at Bennett College last week, is flanked by some of the contestants from other UNCF schools following her coronation. To the left of "Miss UNCF" is Miss Lorene Bruner, of Barber-Scotia College, Concord, N. C., who was runner-up and to her right is Miss Ruth Thompson, of Tougaloo Southern Christian College, Tougaloo, Miss., whose institution was third. Wiley College students contributed $2,136.37 to the UNCF, a per capita ratio of $4.39 per student.

New Orleans Minister Speaks At Services

The kingdom of God is not something to be attained after death, nor is it an earthly institution, the Rev. L. Scott Allen, of New Orleans, La., said in his vesper message at Bennett College yesterday.

The minister, who is editor of the Central Christian Advocate, a semi-monthly Methodist publication, explained that the true kingdom of God is the divine rule of God in the hearts of men.

"God does not ask us to help Him build this kingdom but to share in a kingdom that He has already built," the Rev. Mr. Allen continued. "Many of us are rejecting this gift of God, such as the atheists, the supporters of white supremacy and even those members of the church who are insincere."

The speaker also chided the church for its frequent failure to speak out when God would have it do so, citing this silence as indicative of acceptance or approval of those things which God does not approve.

Mays Declares at 13th Alumni Counccil Meet

UNCF Doesn't Foster Segregation

GREENSBORO, N. C.—With more than 250 delegates in attendance, the National Alumni Council of the United Negro College Fund closed its 13th annual session here at Bennett College with the selection of Detroit, Mich., as the site of the 1960 meeting.

Registration was swelled by the attendance of some 150 students (pre-alumni), largest such representation ever to attend a national meeting.

■

IN ADDITION to three workshops—one for alumni presidents and secretaries, one for alumni groups in campaign cities and another for the students—the delegates were challenged by addresses by Dr. Benjamin E. Mays, president of the UNCF; Harry Golden of Charlotte, N.C., author of the best-selling "Only in America," and Dr. William J. Trent Jr., executive director of UNCF.

An added feature this year was the crowning of Miss UNCF" in the person of Ida Bell Robinson of Wiley College, Marshall, Tex., an honor accorded the Texas institution for the highest per capita giving of any UNCF student body. Wiley students, 486 strong, gave a total of $2,136.37 or a per capita ratio of $4.39 per student.

Second place went to Barber Scotia College in Concord, N.C., with a per capita ratio of $3.64. Lorena Bruner was the institution's representative. Third place went to Tougaloo Southern Christian College of Tougaloo, Miss., represented by Ruth Thompson, with a per capita ratio of $3.12.

■

WALTER WASHINGTON, council president, and Gustav Heningburg, field representative, made their annual reports and achievement trophies were presented to the Inter-Alumni Council of Chicago, headed by George Moore, attorney for its outstanding work throughout the years, and to the Bennett College Pre-Alumni Association for having the largest representation at the conference. The group was organized by Mrs. Jean P. Haith, alumnae secretary.

James E. Stamps of Chicago, founding president of the council, who made the response, was later unanimously voted to be made president-emeritus. Mrs. Erma Dozier of Benedict College, Columbia, S.C., presented the council its first banner, which she designed and helped to produce.

Dr. Mays, who addressed the delegates at the afternoon session, urged the student delegates to support their institutions after graduation, saying that "if the graduates did as much as they could, with just a little personal sacrifice, our colleges would not be in such need."

■

HE BRANDED as stupid the idea that support of UNCF colleges means perpetuation of segregation. "If our product is good," he stated, "and our doors open, there is no way in the world to keep segregation. Prospective students will be seeking the best education possible and we must be able to supply it."

Speaker at the banquet, attended by some 400 persons of both races was Mr. Golden, who urged the Negro to take his cue from the Jew and turn more and more to education to prepare himself for living today and tomorrow.

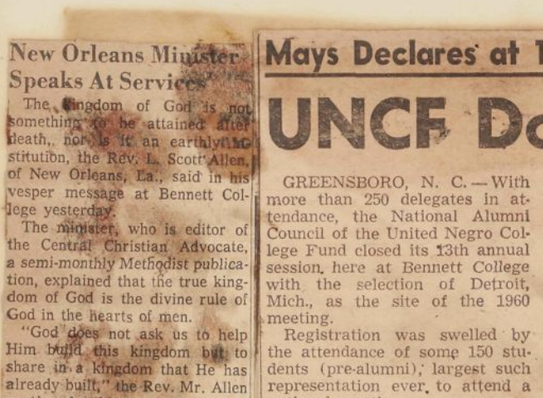

"Education," he said, "proved to be the salvation of the Jews. The Negro mother for the next 30 years must say what Jewish mothers said to their children: 'Get an education, be a doctor, be a scientist.'"

See What I Mean?—Dr. Benjamin E. Mays, president of the UNCF, drives home a point with his finger as top officials of the UNCF listened intently during the 13th annual meeting at Bennett College. Left to right: Gustav Heningburg, alumni field representative of UNCF, New York; Walter Washington, president of the National Alumni Council, Utica, Miss., and William J. Trent Jr., UNCF executive director, of New York.

VESPER SPEAKER

Speaker for the 4 p.m. vesper service to be held today at Bennett College will be Dr. Marguerite Cartwright, educator and newspaper columnist of New York City.

Congratulated—Harry Golden editor of the best-selling "Only in America," is congratulated by President Willa B. Player of Bennett College following the former's address at the banquet of the National Alumni Council of the UNCF on Saturday night. Mr. Golden, who is also editor of the Carolina Israelite, said that the Negro must take his cue from the Jew and turn more and more to education to prepare himself for his place in the sun.

GAIETY UNLIMITED---From the expressions on the faces of these young women, a "good time was had by all" at the annual College Party which marked the break between semesters at Bennett College. Left to right: Misses Ann Smith, senior, of Greensboro; Elishama Madison, sophomore, of Miami, Florida and Miss Eunice Alston, sophomore, of Burlison, Tenn.

Bennett College To Hold 33rd Annual Homemaking Institute

Dates for the 33rd annual Homemaking Institute at Bennett College will be March 8-15, President Willa B. Player announced this week.

This year's institute, which will be conducted around the thematic idea of "Women in Careers and in Community Service," will begin with a special vesper program on Sunday, March 8 at 4:00 p.m.

Four more programs, each to be held in Pfeiffer Chapel are scheduled. On Monday, at 10:00 a.m., there will be a panel discussion of "Women in Careers" at which time Mrs. Alice Dunnigan, of Washington, correspondent for the Associated Negro Press; Mrs. Sarah Herbin, of High Point, N. C. associate director of merit employment with the Southern region of the American Friends Service Committee, and Mrs. Clifton T. Snipes, local business woman, will participate.

The Wednesday morning program will feature an address by Mrs. William T. Mason of Norfolk, Va. Mrs. Mason is a public relations consultant. The Friday morning program participants will be students who will describe classroom experiences which they have had relating to community sesvice.

Closing program, at which an institute summary will be given, will be held at 4:00 p. m. on Sunday, March 15 at which time Dr. Allan Knight Chalmers of Boston, Mass. will speak. Dr. Chalmers is professor of preaching and applied Chritianity in the Boston University School of Theology.

A challenge to Bennett College students to prepare themselves fully for the responsibilities of leadership tomorrow was given by Dr. Marguerite Cartwright, of New York City, in her vesper address Sunday in Pfeiffer Chapel.

Dr. Cartwright, world traveler and newspaper columnist, is also a member of the faculty at Hunter College. Her travels have taken her to Africa and the Middle East and she spoke of the emergence of women in roles of leadership which she noted in foreign lands.

"Women have a tremendous responsibility everywhere," she declared. "Woman's place may well be in the home but the walls of the home have expanded into the community. The home has become an instrument of moral re-armament."

The speaker emphasized to the students that they are really a "priviledged" class and urged them not to take for granted the things which are so remote from the experiences of many young women in distant lands.

"Yoo should ask yourselves whether you are growing in human understanting," Dr. Cartwright concluded," whether you are preparing to live socially useful lives and whether you are doing all that you can to promote needed changes in the world."

14 enrolled at Bennett

GREENSBORO, N.C. —Admission of eight new students and the return of six former students was noted by the registrar's office as Bennett College began second-semester classes last week.

Registered as freshman are Misses Dorothy Gaither, Lenoir; Evelyn Hall, Philadelphia, Pa.; Jacqueline Joyner, Camden, N.J.; Vivian McCain, Roseboro, N.C.; and Dinnah Morrison, Greensboro.

MRS. CLARA HAWKINS of Louisburg, and Miss Anne Watson of Columbus, Ohio, are registered as sophomores and Mrs. Shirley T. Lesueur, of Burlington, N.C., is registered as a special student.

The following former students have returned: Miss Betty Hill, freshman, of Asheboro; Miss Emma Burns, junior, of Eagle Rock, N.C. and Miss Sue McKoy, junior, of Lillington.

Seniors returning are Mrs. Iris H. DeBerry, of Winston-Salem; Miss Clementine DeVeaux, of Nassau, Bahamas, and Mrs Young Tack Park, of Greensboro.

Presented Dance Program

Members of the modern dance group at Bennett College presented a program at the James B. Dudley High School here last week.

Six numbers, all choreographed by Mrs. Dolly Turner, were presented by the group, of 18. They were: "Noah," "I Got Shoes," "The Lord's Prayer," "Polynesian Reverie," "Sacrifice" and "Themes from 'Gone With The Wind'."

The dancers were: Misses Robbie Walton, Clarksville, Tenn.; Gloria McKnight, Gainesville, Fla.; Elizabeth Payne, Boston, Mass.; Janet Arthur, New York, N. Y.; Ethel Riggsbee, Chapel Hill, N. C.; Joan Didier, Jamaica, B. W. I.; Winifred Peacock, Wilson, N. C.; Nancy Kirby, Haddonfield, N. J.; Juanita Spear, Bridgeport, Conn.; Misses Judith Thompson, Greensboro; Edwina Price, Fort Campbell, Ky.; Marva Lucas, Charleston, S. C.; Ellen Moore, Southern Pines, N. C.; Ellen Alexander, Hartford, Conn.; Barbara Dula, Lenoir, N. C.; Geraldine Williams, Fayetteville; Venita Jenkins, San Diego, Calif., and Veronic Dean, Miami, Fla.

Miss Diamia Croslin, soprano, of Charlotte, was guest soloist for the production of "The Lord's Prayer" and "I Got Shoes."

GAIETY UNLIMITED—From the expressions on the faces of these young women, a "good time was had by all" at the annual college party which marked the recent college break between semesters at Bennett college. From left: Misses Ann Smith, senior, of Greensboro; Elishama Madison, sophomore, of Miami, Fla., and Miss Eunice Alston, sophomore, of Burlison Tenn.

STUDY IN CONCENTRATION — Whatever Purnell Wooley was saying, he captured the undivided attention of these two young women at the recent college party held at Bennett college. Smiling at left is Miss Eunice Alston, of Burlison, Tenn., while Miss Elishama Madison soberly ponders the significance of her escort's remark. Wooley is a senior at neighboring North Carolina A and T college.

GETTING THE POINT across to Miss Leola Burton, Bennett college sophomore of Brooklyn, N. Y., is George Boykin, senior at North Carolina A&T college. The serious moment between the two took place during the college party held recently at Bennett.

Dates Set For Bennett's Homemaking Institute

GREENSBORO, N. C. — Dates for the 33rd annual Homemaking Institute at Bennett College will be March 8-15, President Willa B. Player announced last week.

This year's institute, which will be conducted around the thematic idea of "Women in Careers and in Community Service," will begin with a special vesper program on Sunday, March 8 at 4 p. m.

Four more programs, each to be held in Pfeiffer Chapel are scheduled. On Monday, at 10 a. m., there will be a panel discussion of "Women in Careers" at which time Mrs. Alice Dunnigan, of Washington, correspondent for the Associated Negro Press; Mrs. Sarah Herbin, of High Point, N. C., associate director of merit employment with the Southeastern region of the American Friends Service Committee, and Mrs. Clifton T. Snipes, local business woman, will participate.

THE WEDNESDAY morning program will feature an address by Mrs. William T. Mason of Norfolk, Va. Mrs. Mason is a public relations consultant The Friday morning program participants will be students who will describe classroom experiences which they have had relating to community service.

Closing program, at which an institute summary will be given, will be held at 4 p. m. on Sunday, March 15 at which time Dr. Allan Knight Chalmers of Boston, Mass. will speak. Dr. Chalmers is professor of preaching and applied Christianity in the Boston university School of Theology.

$25,000 GRANT GIVEN FOR BUILDING AT BENNETT

A grant of $25,000 to be used toward the erection of a health and physical education building at Bennett College, has been made by the Woman's Division of Christion Service of the Methodist Church.

In making the announcement President Willa B. Player revealed that the grant is contingent upon the college's raising from other sources the balance of funds needed for the building by January, 1962.

ADMISSION OF EIGHT STUDENTS AT BENNETT

Admission of eight new students and the return of six former students was noted by the registrar's office as Bennett College began second-semester classes last week.

Registered as freshmen are Misses Dorothy Gaither, Lenoir; Evelyn Hall, Philadelphia, Pa.; Jacqueline Joyner, Camden, N. J.; Vivian McCain, Roseboro, N. C., and Dinnah Morrison, Greensboro. Mrs. Clara Hawkins of Louisburg, and Miss Anne Watson of Columbus, Ohio, are registered as sophomores and Mrs. Shirley T. Lesueur, of Burlington, N. C., is registered as a special student.

The following former students have returned: Miss Betty Hill, freshman, of Asheboro; Miss Emma Burns, junior, of Eagle Rock, N. C. and Miss Sue McKoy, junior, of Lillington. H. DeBerry, of Winston-Salem; Seniors returning are Mrs. Iris Miss Clementine DeVeaux, of Nassau, Bahamas and Mrs. Young Tack Park, of Greensboro.

Dr. Mays Points To Put Over His Point

Dr. Benjamin E. Mays, president of the United Negro College Fund drives home a point with his finger as top officials of the UNCF listen intently during the 13th annual meeting at Bennett College, Greensboro, N. C., from left to right are: Gustav Heningburg, alumni field representative of UNCF, New York; Walter Washington, president of the National Alumni council, Utica, Miss.; and Dr. Mays, and William J. Trent Jr., UNCF executive director, of New York.

UNCF HUDDLE—Dr. Benjamin Mays (second from right) president of the UNCF listens to Dr. William J. Trent, executive director, extreme right, during break between sessions of 13th annual National Alumni Council meeting at Bennett College last week. Also left to right are: Gustav Heningburg, alumni field representative of UNCF, New York and Walter Washington, president of the National Alumni Council, Utica, Miss.

REPORT—AREA COLLEGES

(Continued from Page 4)

Director of Religious Activities
Director of Admissions
Director of Health Service
Chairman of Residence
Student Organization
Dining Room
Snack Bar
Book Store
Post Office
Director of Co-Curricular Manager of Union
Director of Union

II. Interviews of Committee

1. The President, Dr. Willa B. Player
2. The Division Chairmen
3. The Central Committee (Administrative)
4. Students planning to enter part-time or full-time Christian Service
5. Classes

III. Church Affiliation

Of the seventy faculty and staff members, one third are Methodist. Of the four hundred and sixty students enrolled, two hundred are Methodists, including A. M. E., C. M. E., etc. One hundred and sixty-eight are of The Methodist Church.

IV. Condition of Buildings

The buildings are in excellent condition and are kept spotlessly clean.

V. Finances

Bennett has an endowment of one million, three hundred thousand dollars. The budget is five hundred thousand. The cost of operating, per student, is one thousand dollars. The maximum cost a resident student pays is seven hundred dollars—non resident, three hundred and forty dollars. Ninety percent of the student body is resident.

The Baltimore Area contributed to Bennett fifteen hundred dollars, and, during the past quadrennium, the highest amount contributed was sixteen hundred dollars. The students raised, for the Endowment Fund during 1955, fourteen hundred dollars.

VI. The Religious

Chapel services are compulsory. The Midweek Vesper, while not compulsory, is attended in large numbers by the student body. Copies of the Vesper Service are attached.

Several courses are offered in religion. Included are:

1. Exploratory Religion
2. Religion and Modern Living
3. Great Religious Personalities, East and West
4. Principles of Religious Education, etc.

Bennett has an excellent staff. We were convinced that our students are exposed to the best. Three students have won Fulbright Scholarships: one in Bio-Chemistry,' one in Endocrinology, one in French.

Bennett students hear government job expert

GREENSBORO, N.C. — Dr. Ross Clinchy, executive director of President Eisenhower's Committee on Government Employment Policy, spoke to Bennett College students here Monday.

Dr. Clinchy outlined and explained the work of the committee and answered questions regarding Federal employment and procedures for registering complaints about discrimination in employment, upgrading and dismissal.

VESPER SERVICE

Greensboro, N. C. — Dr. Emory Ross, consultant of the Board of Fundamental Education, New York City, will speak at the 4:00 p.m. vesper service at Bennett College on Sunday, April 26.

U.N. Urged To Take Jesus Seriously

If the United Nations would take the teachings of Jesus seriously for just one day the results would be remarkable, the Rev. John L. Bryan, director of religious activities, said in his vesper sermon at Bennett College yesterday.

Speaking on "The Galilean School by the Sea," the minister pointed out that God's teachings were aimed at the summits of man's life, not at some half-way point. He further observed that when man sins, he brings pain, rather than anger, to the heart of God. Wins 2/27/57

DR. VICTOR PASCHKIS ADDRESSES BENNETT STUDENTS

An address by Dr. Victor Paschkis, past president of the Society for Social Responsibility in Science, featured the Monday morning chapel period at Bennett College.

Dr. Paschkis, who is associate professor in mechanical engineering and technical director of the Heat and Mass Flow Analyzer Labratory at Columbia University, stressed the peaceful use of man's scientific knowledge instead of its use for destructive purposes.

the Merner-Pfeiffer Heating p... Other gifts included $100,000 f... endowment; $100,000 for the erection of Merner residence hall; $20,000 for landscaping; and $150,000 for the erection of Annie Merner Pfeiffer chapel and Little Theatre which was dedicated in 1941.

Since that date another $100,000 has been given for endowment. Her most recent gift of $112,000 was announced last November during the college's Founder's Day pro-

...OCRAT AND CHRONICLE, SUND...

PIANISTS AT BENNETT—The duo-piano team of NELSON and NEAL who will be heard in recital at Bennett College, Friday, April 3, at 8 p. m. in Pfeiffer Chapel. In the past decade they have traveled over 400,000 miles and have given more than 1,000 concerts.

Dr. Willa B. Player Speaks at Bennett

GREENSBORO, N. C. — Bennett College seniors Friday were urged by President Willa B. Player to take a stand against the wave of anti-intellectualism which America has been experiencing.

The challenge was a part of her Senior Day address to the class of 1959 after they had received their academic caps and gowns from their sophomore "sisters" in a traditional ceremony in Pfeiffer Chapel.

Pointing to the advance of science which has revolutionized the art of war and to the era of prosperity which this nation has enjoyed as two main reasons for the presence of anti-intellectualism in our society, Dr. Player said:

"Just when we are getting ready to settle down for a happy existence, Russia looms on the horizon bringing new threats and fears to all of us. So we must relinquish our dreams of a future of easy happiness and buckle down to the hard task of stretching our minds to the hilt to keep pace with a country even though it maintains an ideology to which we do not subscribe."

Dr. Player urged the seniors to become responsible citizens, eager to become involved in seeking solutions to community and world problems and committed to their convictions.

Announcement of the 10 ranking seniors, made by Dr. C. G. Winston revealed that Miss Josephine Raiford, of Greensboro, is presently leading her class, with a 2.82 average out of a possible 3.00, followed closely by Misses Jamesena Chalmers, 2.76, Queen Esther Murphy, 2.69, both of Fayetteville.

The remaining seven, in descending order are: Misses Jane Williams, 2.59, Winston-Salem; Inez Jones, 2.58, Lenior; Nannie Poole, 2.56, Balt., Md.; Eleanor Fields, 2.54, Richmond, Va.; Barbara Campbell, 2.48, Greensboro; Carolyn Martin, 2.46, Durham, and Veronica Dean, 2.43, Miami, Fla.

Following the chapel program, the seniors planted a magnolia tree in honor of C. Everett Bacon, a member of the college trustee board. The dedicatory statement was made by Miss Dequincey Johnson, Lenoir.

Later the seniors were guests at a banquet which was followed by a dance.

TOP SENIOR — Josephine Raiford of Greensboro, N.C., a senior chemistry major who currently is leading her class at Bennett college, Greensboro, with a 2.82 average, is robed by her "sophomore sister," Maryland Baker of Lexington, Va., during senior observance day.

At Bennett College:

Miss Gloria Brown Heads Student Senate Next Yr.

GREENSBORO — Miss Gloria E. Brown, a rising senior, of the Bronx, New York, will be president of the Student Senate at Bennett College for 1959-60 and Miss Ruth Hawkins, of Louisburg, will be this year's May Queen as the result of student elections held last week.

Both candidates won by overwhelming margins. Student representative to the Central Administrative Committee will be Miss Laura (Frankie) Sawyer, of Salisbury. She outdistanced her opponent by nearly 150 votes.

Other Student Senate officers chosen were:

Misses Gwendolyn Mackel, Chicago, Ill., vice president; Mary Boone, Sanford, secretary; Iris Jeffries, Burlington, treasurer, and Linda Brown, Akron, Ohio, parliamentarian.

Miss Nancy Kirby, Haddonfield, N. J., was elected president of the David D. Jones Student Union and serving with her will be Misses Peggy Alexander, Fort Pierce, Fla., secretary and Constance Colston, Charlotte, student representative to the union board of management. Miss Marian Simmons of Fayetteville, was chosen Union pianist.

Other campus offices were filled as follows:

Misses Charletta Pickering, Sumter, S. C., chairman of the midweek vesper committee; and Gladys Hemmingway, Georgetown, S. C., secretary; Hiawatha Foster, Charlote, Sunday School superintendent; Priscilla Rogers, assistant superintendent; Carolyn Cotton, Tarboro, secretary and Frances McCallum, Red Springs, pianist.

Officers of the Pre-Alumnae Association are as follows: Misses Betty Crockett, Charlotte, president; Lula Goolsby, Mocksville, vice president; Celestine Miller, Horatio, S. C., secretary and Elois J. Harper, Tarboro, treasurer.

Seniors Receive Caps, Gowns In Traditional Bennett Rites

Bennett College seniors Friday were urged by President Willa B. Player to take a stand against the wave of anti-intellectualism which America has been experiencing.

The challenge was a part of her Senior Day address to the class of 1959 after they had received their academic caps and gowns from their sophomore "sisters" in a traditional ceremony in Pfeiffer Chapel.

Pointing to the advance of science which has revolutionized the art of war and to the era of prosperity which this nation has enjoyed as two main reasons for the presence of anti-intellectualism in our society, Dr. Player said:

"Just when we are getting ready to settle down for happy existence, Russia looms on the horizon bringing new threats and fears to all of us. So we must relinquish our dreams of a future of easy happiness and buckle down to the hard task of stretching our minds to the hilt to keep pace with a country even though it maintains an ideology to which we do not subscribe."

Dr. Player urged the seniors to become responsible citizens, eager to become involved in seeking solutions to community and world problems and committed to their convictions.

Announcement of the 10 ranking seniors, made by Dr. C. G. Winston revealed that Miss Josephine Raiford, of Greensboro, is presently leading her class, with a 2.82 average out of a possible 3.00, followed closely by Misses Jamesena Chalmers, 2.76, Queen Esther Murphy, 2.69, both of Fayetteville.

HAIL TO THE "CHIEF"—Lawrence W. (Chief) Rogers, superintendent of buildings and grounds at Bennett College, receives from Mrs. Blanche Raiford a citation from the faculty-staff club noting his completion of 28 consecutive years of service, while his wife, Mrs. Clara Rogers, and daughter, Miss Mary Ann Rogers, smile approvingly.

HAIL TO THE CHIEF — Lawrence W. Rogers, superintendent of buildings and grounds at Bennett College, receives from Mrs. Blanche Raiford a citation from the faculty-staff club noting his completion of 28 consecutive years of service while his wife, Mrs. Clara Rogers and daughter, Miss Mary Ann Rogers smile approvingly. More familiarly known as 'Chief'", Mr. Rogers is known as an institution to hundreds of Bennett graduates and to the Greensboro community.

Wilson Fellowship

Miss Jamesena Chalmers, Bennett College senior of Fayetteville, N. C., last week became the first of her school to receive a fellowship from the Woodrow Wilson Foundation. An English major, she will pursue graduate work next fall at Syracuse University.

Poet To Talk At Bennett. Observance

"The Negro in the Fine Arts" is the theme of the annual Humanities Week observance at Bennett College which begins Tuesday and ends Friday.

Guest speaker is Dr. Sterling A. Brown, associate professor of English at Howard University. He is scheduled to lecture and read from his poetry Thursday night in the David D. Jones Student Union. Also on the program will be selections by the freshman choir, directed by Edward Lowe, and several numbers by a modern dance group under the direction of Mrs. Dolly Turner.

Dr. Brown, who has contributed poetry, reviews and essays to numerous publications, is the author of a number of books, among them "Southern Road" and "Negro Poetry and Drama." A native of Washington, he has also taught at Fisk, Atlanta and New York universitise.

N. Y. Girl Heads Student Senate At Bennett College

GREENSBORO, N. C. — Miss Gloria E. Brown, a rising senior, of the Bronx, New York, will be president of the Student Senate at Bennett College for 1959-60 and Miss Ruth Hawkins, of Louisburg, N. C., will be this year's May Queen as the result of student elections last week.

Both candidates won by overwhelming margins. Student representatives to the Central Administrative Committee will be Miss Laura (Frankie) Sawyer, of Salisbury. She outdistanced her opponent by nearly 150 votes.

Other Student Senate officers chosen were:

Misses Gwendolyn Mackel, Chicago, Ill., vice president; Mary Boone, Sanford, secretary; Iris Jeffries, Burlington, treasurer, and Linda Brown, Akron, Ohio, parliamentarian.

Miss Nancy Kirby, Haddonfield, N. J., was elected president of the David D. Jones Student Union and serving with her will be Misses Peggy Alexander, Fort Pierce, Fla., secretary and Constance Colston, Charlotte, student representative to the union board of management. Miss Marian Simmons of Fayetteville, was chosen Union pianist.

Other campus offices were filled as follows:

Misses Charletta Pickering, Sumter, S. C., chairman of the midweek vesper committee; and Gladys Hemmingway, Georgetown, S. C., secretary; Hiawatha Foster, Charlotte, Sunday School superintendent; Priscilla Rogers, assistant superintendent; Carolyn Cotton, Tarboro, secretary and Frances McCallum, Red Springs, pianist.

Bennett Gets Grant to Boost Academic Work

GREENSBORO—A grant of $25,000 from the Danforth Foundation of St. Louis, Mo., to Bennett College to be used for strengthening certain strategic areas of its program was announced by President Willa B. Player this week.

Funds will be used to strengthen the library, to strengthen faculty preparation by implementing the work in personal growth service, to provide consultant services in the core program in general education and to provide a limited number of grants-in-aid for summer study and travel.

In announcing the grant, President Player said:

"This grant will be of significant help to the college in enriching and implementing the educational experiences in the liberal arts for the young women whom we serve. In a time of spiralling costs, it is encouraging to have this type of foundation assistance with the educational programs in our colleges. In the future, we hope for increased interest and support from such sources."

Bennett College is one of six liberal arts colleges to receive such grants, according to Dr. Kenneth I. Brown, executive director.

Brown Choice For Senate

GREENSBORO — Miss Gloria E. Brown, a rising senior, of the Bronx, New York, will be president of the Student Senate at Bennett College for 1959-60 and Miss Ruth Hawkins, of Louisburg, N.C., will be this year's May Queen as the result of student elections held last week.

Both candidates won by overwhelming margins. Student representative to the Central Administrative Committee will be Miss Laura (Frankie) Sawyer, of Salisbury. She outdistanced her opponent by nearly 150 votes.

Other Student Senate officers chosen were:

Misses Gwendolyn Mackel, Chicago, Ill., vice president; Mary Boone, Sanford, secretary; Iris Jeffries, Burlington, treasurer and Linda Brown, Akron, Ohio, parliamentarian.

Miss Nancy Kirby, Haddonfield, N. J., was elected president of the David D. Jones Student Union and serving with her will be Miss Peggy Alexander, Fort Pierce, Fla., secretary and Constance Colston, Charlotte, student representative to the union board of management. Miss Marian Simmons of Fayetteville, was chosen Union pianist.

Other campus offices were filled as follows:

Misses Charletta Pickering, Sumter, S. C., chairman of the midweek vesper committee; and Gladys Hemmingway, Georgetown, S. C., secretary; Hiawatha Foster, Charlotte, Sunday School superintendent; Priscilla Rogers assistant superintendent; Carolyn Cotton, Tarboro, secretary and Frances McCallum, Red Springs, pianist.

Officers of the Pre-Alumnae Association are as follows: Misses Betty Crockett, Charlotte, president; Lula Goolsby, Mocksville, vice president; Celestine Miller, Horatio, S. C., secretary and Elois J. Harker, Lenoir, treasurer.

Violin Recital Replaces Vesper

GREENSBORO—A violin recital by Kemper Harreld, of Detroit, Michigan, formerly head of the music department at Morehouse College, Atlanta, Ga. will take the place of the regular Bennett College vesper service on Sunday April 12, at 4 p.m.

THE TROJAN WOMEN

Casting for "The Trojan Women" which will be presented as the commencement play by the Bennett College Theatre Guilds on the night of May 29 has been almost completed, Fred Eady, director, announced this week.

The Euripides drama, translated by Richmond Lattimore, will find Miss Nannie Poole, a senior, of Baltimore, Md., in the role of Hecuba. The roles of Andromache and Kassandra will be played by Misses Emma Lee Martin, of Mount Olive and Jacquelyn Jeffers of Greensboro, respectively.

Bennett Receives $25,000 Grant

GREENSBORO, N. C. — A grant of $25,000 from the Danforth Foundation of St. Louis, Mo., to Bennett College to be used for strengthening certain strategic areas of its program was announced by President Willa B. Player last week.

Funds will be used to strengthen the library, to strengthen faculty preparation by implementing the work in personal growth services, to provide consultant services in the core program in general education and to provide a limited number of grants-in-aid for summer study and travel.

In announcing the grant, President Player said:

"This grant will be of significant help to the college in enriching and implementing the educational experiences in the liberal arts for the young women whom we serve. In a time of spiralling costs, it is encouraging to have this type of foundation assistance with the educational programs in our colleges. In the future we hope for increased interest and support from such sources."

A closer working with high school principals and teachers by means of visitations and workshops looking toward unifying the educational growth of students by bridging some of the gaps between high school and college has already been embarked upon. In addition, core programs for freshman students in the areas of communication, social science and general education and for sophomores in human development, religion and philosophy and the humanities are being offered.

Bennett College is one of six liberal arts colleges to receive such grants, according to Dr. Kenneth I. Brown, executive director.

'Trojan Women,' A Drama, Seen For 'Finals'

GREENSBORO — Casting for "The Trojan Women" which will be presented as the commencement play by the Bennett College Theatre Guilds on the night of May 29 has been almost completed, Fred Eady, director, announced this week.

The Euripides drama, translated by Richmond Lattimore, will find Miss Nannie Poole, a senior, of Baltimore, Md, in the role of Hecuba. The roles of Andromache and Kassandra will be played by Misses Emma Lee Martin, of Mount Olive and Jacquelyn Jeffers of Greensboro, respectively.

RELIGIOUS VOLUMES GIFT TO BENNETT

A gift of some 75 religious volumes from the library of the late J. Ernest Wilkins made by his wife to Holgate Library at Bennett College was announced this week by Mrs. Constance Carteena, librarian.

Mr. Wilkins, who was at one time U. S. Assistant Secretary of Labor and president of the Judicial Council of the Methodist Church, died early this year.

VIOLIN RECITAL

A violin recital by Kemper Harreld of Detroit, Mich., formerly head of the music department at Morehouse College, Atlanta, Ga., will take the place of the regular Bennett College vesper service today at 4 p.m.

Play Cast Ready

Casting for "The Trojan Women" which will be presented as the commencement play by the Bennett College Theatre Guilds on the night of May 29 has been almost completed, Fred Eady, director, announced this week.

The Euripides drama, translated by Richmond Lattimore, will find Miss Nannie Poole, a senior, of Baltimore, Md., in the role of Hecuba. The roles of Andromache and Cassandra will be played by Misses Emma Lee Martin, of Mt Olive and Jacquelyn Jeffers of Greensboro, respectively.

FRESHMAN COLLEGE TO GIVE CONCERT

The annual spring concert by the freshman choir at Bennett College will be presented on April 24 at 8:00 P. M. in Pfeiffer Chapel.

The 44-voice group, directed by Edward Lowe, will sing numbers dating from the 16th century to the present. Included will be "Crucifixus" from Bach's "Mass in B Minor;" Mendelssohn's "Hear My Prayer;" "Requiescat" by William Schuman and "Hallelujah, Amen" from "Judas Maccabaeus" by Handel. The choir will also sing a group of spirituals, among them "Listen to the Lambs" by Nathaniel Dett and "My Way's Cloudy," arranged by Harry T. Burleigh.

Soloists will be Misses Ruth Dodson, Sandra Downing, Janet Edwards, Shirley Hawkins and Zelma Wright. An added feature will be the performanec of the Madrigal Singers, a group of 12, which will sing five numbers, among them "Sing We and Chant It" by Thomas Norley and "How Merrily We Live" by Michael Este, both 16th century composers.

VIOLONIST HEARD

Kemper Harreld, Detroit, Mich., violinist, presented a program at Bennett College yesterday.

GREENSBORO ARTISTS' LEAGUE SPONSORS ART DISPLAY

A touring exhibit of 24 paintings and one sculpture sponsored by the Greensboro Artists' League went on display last week in Steele Hall at Bennett College.

The exhibit included still life, landscapes and figure studies. Most of the paintings were in oil and there were several water colors, ink and oil, pastel and ink and casein and ink combinations.

Painting Display

Greensboro, N. C. — A touring exhibit of 24 paintings and one sculpture sponsored by the Greensboro Artists' League went on display last week in Steele Hall at Bennett College.

The exhibit included still life, landscapes and figure studies. Most of the paintings were in oil, and there were several water colors ink and oil, pastel and ink and casein and ink combinations.

Dr. Mays Speaks At Bennett College

Greensboro, N. C. — Dr. Benjamin Mays, president of Morehouse College, Atlanta, Georgia, will speak at the Sunday, April 19, vesper service which will mark the closing of Youth Days at Bennett College.

HAIL TO THE "CHIEF" Lawrence W. Rogers, superintendent of buildings and grounds at Bennett College, receives from Mrs. Blanche Raiford a citation from the faculty-staff club noting his completion of 28 consecutive years of service while his wife, Mrs. Clara Rogers and daughter, Miss Mary Ann Rogers smile approvingly. More familiarly known as "Chief," Mr. Rogers is known as an institution to hundreds of Bennett graduates and to the Greensboro community.

BENNETT TO MOUNT HOLYOKE — These six Bennett College students accompanied by Mrs. Louise G. Streat, faculty member, are shown as they left Saturday for South Hadley, Mass. where they will spend two weeks at Mount Holyoke College. Mrs. Streat shown at left of back row will lecture in the area of family life in the general education program. Left to right, front row: Misses Jacqueline Herbin, Greensboro; Laura Sawyer, Salisbury, and LaVonne Barbour, Annapolis, Md. Back row: Mrs. Streat, Gloria E. Brown, Bronx, N. Y.; Anita Duckett, Roanoke, Va. and Demetric Carstarphen, Oak Hill, Ala.

Concert Pianists Put Piano, Pets And Family In Trailer

BY MARTHA MADER
Record Staff Writer

When concert pianists Nelson and Neal go on tour, they take with them their children, their pianos, their home and assorted livestock.

Billed as Nelson and Neal, they are actually Harry Lee Neal and his wife, the former Alison Nelson. The couple gave a concert last night in Pfeiffer Chapel at Bennett College.

They play only "serious" concert music, they say, but that seems to be about the only serious note of this family on wheels.

Their home for the seven month concert tour season is a large bus outfitted like an overcized trailer. In it live the five Neals—including the two pianists and their children John, 5, Cathy, 3, and Alison Elise, 16 months—their Canadian tour manager Robert Bridge, a chameleon named Dorsey, and, until a few days ago, an alligator.

The young pianists, who met and married while both were students at Curtis Institute in Philadelphia, are gay and flip.

Do they ever tire of life in a bus?

"Well, we've been traveling for seven years, and have been tired of it for about six and a half," says Mrs. Neal.

When the pianists have widely separated engagements, they send the children and Bridge on ahead in the bus. This they did yesterday while they played concerts in Tennessee and New York.

A cheerful soul himself, Bridge answered with a diplomatic "not at alll when asked if he minds serving as tour manager, bus driver and baby sitter.

The Neal philosophy on gypsy living with three small children is that too many artists travel alone, see their children once a year and don't even recognize them then. "The kids are often little snakes," Neal commented.

Life in the compact home progresses much as it would in an anchored abode, and housekeeping and child-minding, Mrs. Neal claims, is even easier than in wider territory. There is the usual accumulation of children's paraphenalia —a much-mauled stuffed dog named Skip, Dorsey the chameleon who causes trouble only twice a week when he needs a meal of flies, and there was an alligator.

That animal was dispossessed several days ago after snapping at everything which came near the bathtub. When i came to a choice between alligator and bath, he lost.

The two grand pianos are carried in narrow slots at the back of the bus. Local moving companies at each stop unload and assemble them at the concert hall, and Mrs. Neal does the tuning.

During the summer, the Neals live in Paris, Tenn., Neal's home, and there they practice constantly and prepare programs for the winter season. Mrs. Neal is a native of Australia, who played with Eugene Ormandy and the Philadelphia Symphony Orchestra in 1944 during a tour there. Ormandy landed her a scholarship with Curtis Institute.

The couple designed the bus-home after professionals told them it could not be done according to their specifications. They say they have less time to worry since their entire family with its assorted problems is together, and they say they play the better because of it.

They left Bennett today for engagements in Charlotte, Raleigh, Augusta, Ga., Pinehurst, Tryon and Detroit.

ALL ABOARD!: The family of concert pianists Nelson and Neal stand at the front door of their home—an oversized, special-construction trailer—at Bennett College. The traveling family was here for a concert last night at the college. From top to bottom they are Alison Nelson Neal, half of the piano team, Alison Elise, 16 months; Cathy, 3, John, 5, and Harry Lee Neal, the other half of the duo. The Neals tour the country during the concert season in their mobile home. (Record staff photo.)

Youth Days At Bennett 17-18

High school girl seniors and their advisors from North Carolina, South Carolina and Virginia have been invited to the annual Youth Days at Bennett College, April 17 to 19, it was announced this week.

In addition to visiting classes and laboratories, the students will attend vocational interest meetings and their advisors will attend workshops which will explore ways and means of unifying the education of each student as she moves from high school to college.

The students will also make a tour of points of interest in Greensboro and will be guests at a dinner and dance in their honor. Members of the freshman class at Bennett will serve as hostesses.

The closing session to be held Sunday, April 19, at 4 p.m. will feature an address by Dr. Benjamin E. Mays, president of Morehouse College, Atlanta, Ga.

JOSEPHINE RAIFORD, Greensboro, S.C., a senior at Bennett College, leads her class now with a 2.82 academic average out of a 3.00 . . . Harold and Billie Butler, Pittsburghers, headed for California comes better weather . . . to visit daughter Anne, her hubby Sherman and their two fine grandsons.

Josephine Raiford.

PITTSBURGH'S Dr. and Mrs. Garfield Nickens and Dr. and Mrs. Chester E. Harris off for San Francisco, Los Angeles and Hawaii! The boys will attend the convention of the American Academy of General Practitioners in S.F. In Los Angeles, Bess Gant is plotting things for them . . . and then they will make it by boat to the enchanting islands.

Senior Day At Bennett

MEMBERS of the senior class at Bennett college, Greensboro, N. C., accompanied by their "sophomore sisters," (carrying robes) march to Pfeiffer chapel for a traditional robing ceremony which highlights senior day exercises. The seniors will wear this academic attire for all Sunday vesper services from now until commencement.

Sr. Girls Invited To Bennett's Youth Days

GREENSBORO, N. C. — High school girl seniors and their advisors from North Carolina, South Carolina and Virginia have been invited to the annual Youth Days at Bennett College, April 17 to 19, it was announced last week.

In addition to visiting classes and laboratories, the students will attend vocational interest meetings and their advisors will attend workshops which will explore ways and means of unifying the education of each student as she moves from high school to college.

The students will also make a tour of points of interest in Greensboro and will be guests at a dinner and dance in their honor. Members of the freshman class at Bennett will serve as hostesses.

The closing session to be held Sunday, April 19, at 4 p.m. will feature an address by Dr. Benjamin E. Mays, president of Morehouse College, Atlanta, Ga.

REV. WELLS DELIVERS VESPER SERMON

"We silly people today are as one with those who stood by the road and waved palm branches as Jesus passed," the Rev. William M. Wells, Jr., declared in his Palm Sunday vesper sermon at Bennett College Sunday.

The minister, who is director of the Methodist Student Movement in North Carolina, speaking from the subject, "Behold, Thy Salvation Cometh," said that the people who cheered Jesus did not know what they were doing for they did not know that He was on His way to die.

Lawrence W. Rogers Receives Service Citation For 28 Years at Bennett College

HAIL TO THE "CHIEF—Lawrence W. Royers, superintendent of buildings and grounds at Bennett College, seceives from Mrs. Blanche Raford a citation from the faculty-staff club noting his completion of 28 consecutive years of service while his wife, Mrs. Clara Rogers and daughter, Miss Mary Ann Rogers smile approvingly More familiarly known as "chief," Mr. Rogers is known as an institution to hundreds of Bennett graduates and to the Greensboro community.

When "Chief" Rogers began work at Bennett in 1913, there were only two dormitories—Kent and Jones Hall. Religious services were held in Carrie Barge Chapel, since torn down, and classes were held in Steele Hall and Johnson Hall, the latter called "The Gingerbread House," which also has been demolished.

Dr. David D. Jones, then president, and his family lived in a home which occuped the site now occupied by Meaner Hall, a dormitory, in the right foreground of the John H. Race Administration Building which is still in use for offices and classes.

Looking backward for a moment, Mr. Rogers said. "We moved the President's Home across the campus to Gorrell Street which was quite a feat in those days. All of the present cottages were constructed since I began work here. Three of these are on Macon Street - Tobias Cottage, Trigg Cottage and Smith Cottage, in which the Rogers family now lives. The house in which we once lived was destroped by a tornado."

Mr. Rogers and his men helped in the construction of the following buildings: Thirkield Gymnasium, Pfeiffer Hall (residence), Pfeiffer Scence Hall, Merner Hall, Holgate Library, Pfeiffer Chapel, Barge Hall, Reynolds Hall, Pfeiffer Heating Plant and the David D. Jones Student Union.

He supervised the planting of all of the magnolia trees on the campus, in plottng the position of other trees and shrubs and in building the brick wall that surrounds the campus. His daughter is a bennett graduate and his wife was formerly employed at the college.

"I've seen a lot of people come and go," Mr. Rogers said, "and most of them know more about me than I do about them. People have been very good to me and to my family. We have had our good days and our bad days, but I suppose that if I had a choice in the matter, I'd do it all over again."

In 28 years the staff supervised by Mr. Rogers has grown from three or four persons to some 30-odd workers. They, too, along with the faculty, staff and administration, have expressed to Mr. Rogers the hope that he will have many more years of service—service which has made his name almost synonymous with that of the college.

Someone once laughingly said, in referring to the speed with which "Chief" Rogers moves about the campus: "One of these days he is going to meet himself coming back.

Choirs from Three Colleges in N. C. on Annual Spring Tour

The 40 voice woman's choir of Bennett College will make a tour of Eastern cities late in April, Mrs. Mary J. Crawford, director announced this week.

The tour will begin on April 24 when the group will sing at the Metropolitan Methodist Church in Baltimore. The following night, the choir will appear at Annapolis, Maryland in a concert to be held in the auditorium of the Bates High School.

Groundskeeper At Bennett Is Cited by Staff

A citation for his 26 years of continuous service was presented to Lawrence W. Rogers, superintendent of buildings and grounds, by the Bennett College faculty-staff club in the David D. Jones Student Union Tuesday night.

Mrs. Blanche Raiford, another long-time employee of the college, presented a certificate to Mr. Rogers expressing appreciation for his long and faithful service." Reminiscences of the honoree were given by Mrs. Susie W. Jones and expressions of appreciation from the three divisions of instruction were made by Mrs. Minnie B. Smith, Dr. Hobart S. Jarrett and Miss Anna Camp.

President Willa B. Player made the closing remarks. Present for the occasion were Mrs. Clara Rogers, wife of the honoree and Miss Mary A. Rogers, his daughter. A buffet service followed the presentation. Mr. J. J. Scarlette was master of ceremonies.

Bennett Choir To Tour Eastern U. S.

GREENSBORO, N. C.—The 40-voice woman's choir of Bennett College will make a tour of Eastern cities late in April, Mrs. Mary J. Crawford, director announced this week.

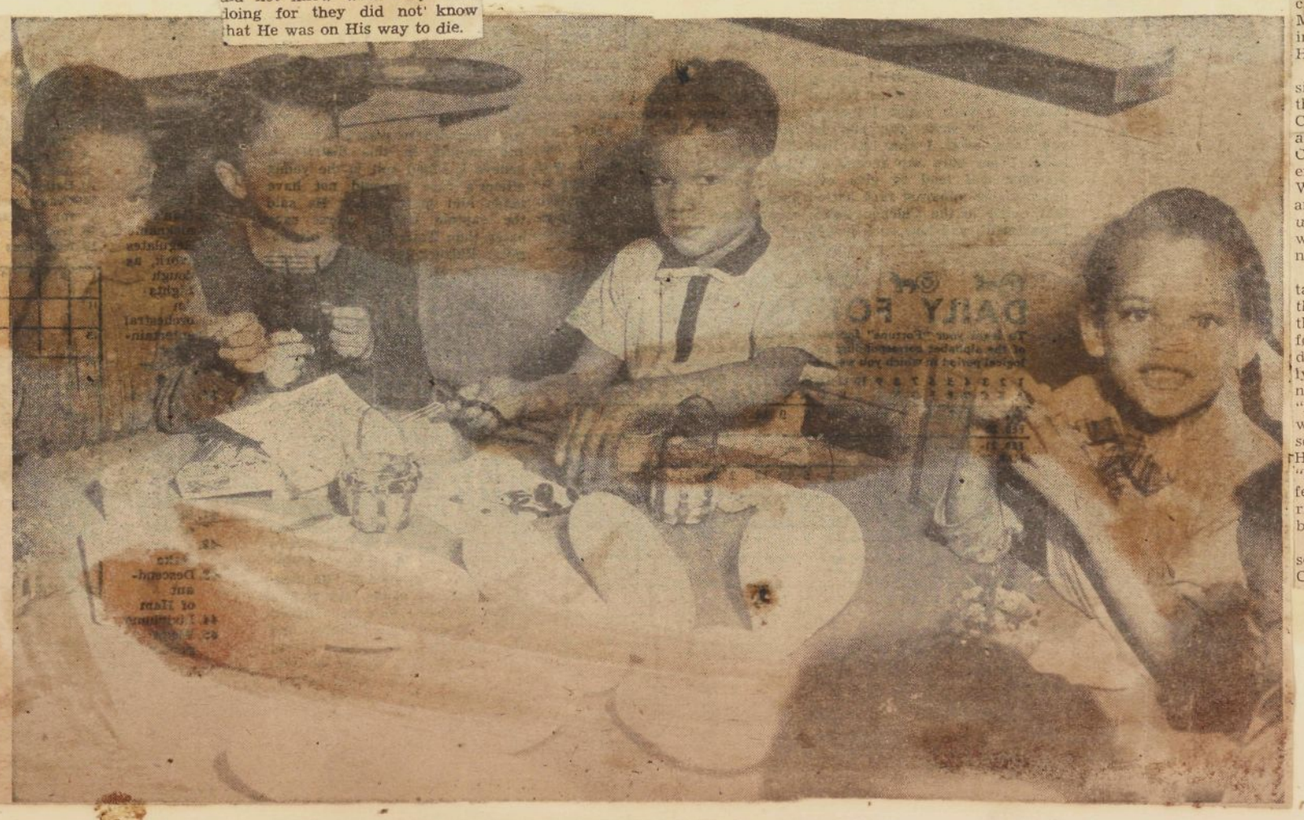

The tour will begin on April 24 when the group will sing at the Metropolitan Methodist Church in Baltimore. The following night, the choir will appear at Annapolis, Maryland in a concert to be held in the auditorium of the Bates High School.

Sunday at 5 p.m., the choir will sing in Jamaica, Long Island, at the Brooks Memorial Methodist Church and on the following day at 8:30 p.m. at Salem Methodist Church in Harlem. The tour will end Tuesday night, April 28, at Wilmington, Del., with an appearance at the Ezion Methodist Church under the sponsorship of the Delaware Valley Chapter of the Bennett College Graduate Association.

The Bennett Choir, which attained national prominence under the direction of the late Dr. R. Nathaniel Dett, has long been known for its ability to obtain a tonal depth and range usually heard only in male choral groups. Among numbers on the program will be "A Hymn to Music" by Roy Ringwald; "Sea Moods" by Mildred Tyson; "Miserere in C Minor" by Hasse and two works from Brahms' "Requiem." The group will also feature a number of traditional spirituals and there wil be selections by the college quartette.

Last Sunday, the choir was presented in concert at Morehouse College, Atlanta, Ga.

Some Birthday Fun In North Carolina

HAPPY KIDDIES in Greensboro, N. C., get together at the Children's House of a local university for a gala birthday party. They're guests of little Donald Bailey (2nd from left). From left: Van Allen, Michael Lee and Christine Crawford.

Confabs & Exchange Students Highlight Activities At Bennett

TO OHIO WESLEYAN---Miss Sylvania Black of Marlin, Texas, who is a junior Commercial Education major at Bennett College, is spending the second semester of the 1958-59 school year as an exchange student at Ohio Wesleyan University, Delaware, Ohio. Her counterpart from Ohio Wesleyan is Miss Mary Ellen Bender of Leonia, N. J.

IN REMEMBRANCE SERVICE--Principals in the third Service of Remembrance held for Dr. David D. Jones are shown at Bennett College looking over the program. Left to right: Miss Mary J. Williams of Winston-Salem, a senior, who read the old testament lesson; Dr. Atkins, president of Winston-Salem Teachers College, who delivered the address, President Player of Bennett, who presided and Mrs. Barbara Wells, a member of the class of '31 representing the graduates, who paid a tribute to the late educator.

UNCF HUDDLE--Dr. Benjamin Mays (second from right) president of the UNCF listens to Dr. William J. Trent, executive director, extreme right, during break between sessions of 13th annual National Alumni Council meeting at Bennett College. Also left to right are: Gustav Heningburg, alumni field representative of UNCF, New York and Walter Washington, president of the National Alumni Council, Utica, Miss.

EXCHANGE STUDENT'S REPORT--Miss Catherine Frum, one of six exchange students from Mount Holyoke College who spent two weeks at Bennett College, is shown making a report to the Sociology class taught by Dr. Shang Ling Fu. Miss Frum, a history major, is a native of Cleveland, Ohio.

ONLY ONE COULD WIN---Miss Ida Bell Robinson, of Wiley College, Marshall, Texas, who was crowned Miss UNCF in the 13th annual conference of the National Alumni Council held at Bennett College, is flanked by some of the contestants from other UNCF schools following her coronation. To the left of "Miss UNCF" is Miss Lorene Bruner, of Barber-Scotia College, Concord, N.C., who was runner-up and to her right is Miss Ruth Thompson, of Tougaloo Southern Christian College, Tougaloo, Miss., whose institution was third. Wiley College students contributed $2,136.37 to the UNCF, a per capita ratio of $4.39 per student.

BENNETT TO MOUNT HOLYOKE---These six Bennett College students accompanied by Mrs. Louise G. Streat, faculty member, are shown as they left for South Hadley, Mass. where they will spend two weeks at Mount Holyoke College. Mrs. Streat shown at left of back row will lecture in the area of family life in the general education program. Left to right, front row: Misses Jacqueline Herbin, Greensboro, N. C.; Laura Sawyer, Salisbury, N. C. and LaVonne Barbour, Annapolis, Md. Back row: Mrs. Streat, Gloria E. Brown, Bronx, N.Y.; Anita Duckett, Roanoke, Va. and Demetric Carstarphen, Oak Hill, Ala.

BENNETT CONFERENCE--Some of the persons who attended a conference for high school principals and advisors at Bennett College are shown here in front of Pfeiffer Chapel. The group which came from five states met to discuss the possibilities of greater cooperation in curriculum development, testing and guidance. Center, front row, is President Willa B. Player and to her right is Mrs. Ferne Horne, of Mt. Lebanon, Penn., who was one of the consultants; extreme right is Dr. James S. Thomas, associate secretary of the Board of Education of the Methodist Church, Nashville, Tenn. and to his right is William A. Stuart, of the Educational Testing Service at Princeton, N. J., who also served as consultants. To rear of Mr. Stuart is Dr. Frank A. Toliver, state supervisor of high schools, Raleigh, N. C., who was a panelist.

A CUP FOR BRAINS.....Miss Vinia Spivey, of Bronx, N. Y., president of the senior class, receives from Dr. C. G. Winston, the Jane Miller Jones Scholarship Cup, awarded annually to the class attaining the highest scholastic average for the first semester. The senior class had an average of 4.88. Presentation was made during annual Honors Day program at Bennett College.

National Science Foundation Makes $40,570 Grant to Bennett College

DR. J. HENRY SAYLES

GREENSBORO, N. C. — Announcement of a $40,570 grant to Bennett College by the National Scence Foundation for a summer science training program for secondary school students was made this week by President Willa B. Player.

Under the grant, Dr. J. Henry Sayles, head of the science division at the college, will direct a six-week program from June 22 to July for 1959 high school graduates and 11th and 12th grade students of high ability and special talent in the sciences and mathematics.

Because enrollment must necessarily be limited, interested students should make early application by writing to "Dr. J. Henry Sayles, Director Summer Science Training Program, Bennett College, Greensboro, N. C."

The general objective of the programs is to provide high quality instruction in the biological and physical sciences and in mathematics through a program of basic courses in biology, chemistry, physics and mathematics, tutorial conferences, informal discussion and seminars.

Classroom teaching will be supplemented by field trips, visits to the Morehead Planetarium in Chapel Hill, the nuclear reactor at N. C. State College in Raleigh, the area weather bureau and observation of the work in nearby industrial research laboratories.

Each student accepted will be granted travel expenses, room, board, tuition, fees, books and necsary materials and supplies.

Miss Gilbert Speaks At Bennett College

GREENSBORO, N. C. — The business of being a scholar is not only a matter of individual choice but it is a habit of thinking and acting, Miss Wilhemina Gilbert declared in her address here Monday when the Bennett College chapter of Alpha Kappa Mu, national honor society, held its annual Student Recognition Day exercises.

Miss Gilbert, instructor in business education at the college, spoke at an all-college assembly in Pfeiffer Chapel at which time the 123 students who earned places on the first semester honor roll were cited for scholarship and presented certificates of achievement.

After pointing out that scholarship is a continuous process of hard and time-consuming work, the speaker said: "Scholarship requires enthusiasm. Learning does not necessarily begin or end with the class bell. The teacher can do nothing about learning except guide it and provide for its facilitation.

"Further, the teacher can do very little about developing the power of reason. He can show how it is done. He can demand certain methods of attack on problems presented for solution, but whether or not the student will arrive at the stage where he is capable of and willing to exercise reason is the student's problem."

Reminding the students that the scholar's greatest reward, is in a job well done, Miss Gilbert said: "One of the strangest paradoxes of our time is the favor accorded mediocrity on the one hand and, on the other, the desire of many to identify themselves with superior achievement. Our times call for excellence.

WOODROW WILSON FELLOW—Miss Jamesena Chalmers, Bennett College senior of Fayetteville, N. C., who last week became the first of her school to receive a fellowship from the Woodrow Wilson Foundation. An English major, she will pursue graduate work next fall at Syracuse University.

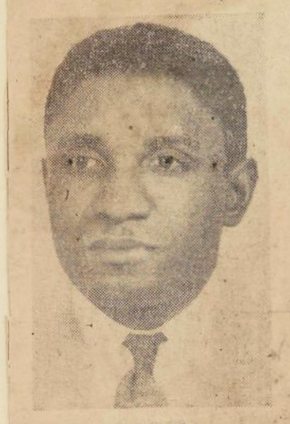

Bennett College Obtains Danforth Grant Of $25,000

Danforth Foundation of St. Louis, Mo., has given Bennett College a grant of $25,000 which will be used to strengthen certain strategic areas of the college's program according to Bennett President Willa B. Player.

Dr. Player said the money will be spent on consultant services in the core program of general education, and to provide a limited number of grants-in-aid for summer study and travel. Faculty preparation will be strengthened, as well as the library.

Dr. Player said that as result of the grant, a closer working with high school principals and teachers by means of visitations and workshops can be continued. In addition, core programs for freshman students in the areas of communication, social science and general education and for sophomores in human development, religion and philosophies, and the humanities are being offered. Board 4/15/59

Dr. Sayles Will Direct $40,000 Science Program At Bennett

SAYLES

GREENSBORO—Announcement of a $40,570 grant to Bennett College by the National Science Foundation for a summer science training program for secondary school students was made this week by President Willa B. Player.

Under the grant, Dr. J. Henry Sayles, head of the science division at the college, will direct a six-week program from June 22 to July 31 for 1959 high school graduates and 11th and 12th grade students of high ability and special talent in the sciences and mathematics.

Because enrollment must necessarily be limited, interested students should make early application by writing to "Dr. J. Henry Sayles, Director Summer Science Training Program, Bennett College, Greensboro, N. C.

The general objective of the program is to provide high quality instruction in the biological and physical sciences and in mathematics through a program of basic courses in biology, chemistry, physics and mathematics, tutorial conferences, informal discussion and seminars.

Classroom teaching will be supplemented by field trips, visits to the Morehead Planetarium in Chapel Hill, the nuclear reactor at N. C. State College in Raleigh, the area weather bureau and observation of work in nearby industrial research laboratories.

Each student accepted will be granted travel expenses, room, board, tuition, fees, books and necessary materials and supplies.

Youth Days At Bennett

High school seniors and their advisors from North Carolina, South Carolina, and Virginia have been invited to the annual Youth Days at Bennett College, April 17 to 19, it was announced this week.

In addition to visiting classes and labratories, the students will attend vocational interest meetings and their advisers will attend workshops which will explore ways and means of unifying the education of each student as she moves from high school to college.

The students will also make a tour of points of interest in Greensboro and will be guests at a dinner and dance in their honor. Members of the freshman class at Bennett will serve as hostesses.

The closing session to be held Sunday, April 19, at 4:00 p. m. will feature an address by Dr. Benjamin E. Mays, president of Morehouse College, Atlanta, Ga.

BENNETT ALUMNAE

The Greensboro chapter of the Bennett College Alumnae Association will hold its annual coffee hour Sunday from 5 to 7 p.m. at the home of the chapter president, Zerelyn S. Averett, on campus. Guests will be chapter members from Burlington, Durham, High Point and Winston-Salem.

Desegregation Problem Licked, Chalmers Tells Bennett Event

GREENSBORO—"A person's religion consists of the few things that he is assured of and has no need of effort for belief," Dr. Allan Knight Chalmers declared in his address which marked the closing of the 33rd annual Homemaking Institute at Bennett College Sunday.

Dr. Chalmers, a member of the faculty of the Boston University School of Theology and for many years a champion of civil rights, has only recently completed a 6,000-mile tour of some 11 southern states in the interest of desergegation.

Referring to this problem, he said: "We've got it licked. The victory is in our hands and there isn't any question in our minds regarding what is going to happen."

Dr. Chalmers addressed himself to the question: "What do you know for sure?" and treated it on two planes--the visceral and the cerebral.

"To simplify the former," he explained, "I mean 'guts' or the physical body and by the second, of course, I mean the mind."

He then proceeded by example to show how men of 'guts' in the South have faced certain death in their effort to obtain civil rights, and how in other instances men have used their minds to insure human progress as in the case of the French Revolution and in the long campaign to eliminate slavery from the British Empire.

Scholarship Is Way of Thinking

GREENSBORO—The business of being a scholar is not only a matter of indivdual choice but it is a habit of thinking and acting, Miss Wilhelmina Gilbert declared in her address here Monday when the Bennett College chapter of Alpha Kappa Mu, national honor society, held its annual Student Recognition Day exercises.

Miss Gilbert, instructor in business education at the college, spoke at an all-college assembly in Pfeiffer Chapel at which time the 123 students who earned places on the first semester honor roll were cited for scholarship and presented certifcates of achievement.

Officers of Alpha Kappa Mu are Misses Eleanor Fields, Richmond, Va., president; Inez Jones, Lenoir, vice president; Josephine Raiford, Greensboro, secrtary-treasurer, and Barbara Campnell, Greensboro corresponding secretary.

RABBI JOSEPH ASHER SPEAKS TO BENNETT STUDENTS

"Anything that we don't understand or can't categorize, we usually suspect," Rabbi Joseph Asher told the Bennett College student body here last week.

Rabbi Asher, a representative of the Jewish Chautauqua Society, spoke on "Identification of the Jews."

THE REV. JOHN L. BRYAN

THE REV. J. L. BRYAN NAMED TO BOARD OF TEMPERANCE STAFF

(Methodist Information)

Washington, D. C.—The Rev. John Bryan of Bennett College, Greensboro, N. C., has been named director of student work for the Methodist Board of Temperance, which has its national headquarters here.

He will assume his new duties July 1, it was announced by the Rev. Dr. Caradine R. Hooton, general secretary of the board.

The Rev. Mr. Bryan was born in Jamaica and is a naturalized citizen of the United States, and an ordained Methodist minister of the New Hampshire Annual Conference. He is a graduate of New York University and the Boston University School of Theology.

For the last five years he has been director of religious activities at Bennett College, a Methodist institution. Previously, he was associate pastor of the Morgan Memorial Church of All Nations, Boston, Mass., and a staff member of the American Bible Society, New York.

Meanwhile, the Rev. Robert Regan, Jr., formerly director of student work, has been appointed director of the board's organizational activities. He is in charge of legislation, and "liaison man" with district and annual conference temperance groups.

(Editor's Note: The Rev. Mr. Bryan was formerly a member of the Delaware Conference.)

Bennett Seniors Receive Academic Caps, Gowns

GREENSBORO, N. C. — Bennett College seniors Friday were urged by President Willa B. Player to take a stand against the wave of anti-intellectualism which America has been experiencing.

The challenge was a part of her Senior Day address to the class of 1959 after they had received their academic caps and gowns from their sophomore "sisters" in a traditional ceremony in Pfeiffer Chapel.

DR. PLAYER SAID: "Just when we are getting ready to settle down for a happy existence, Russia looms on the horizon bringing new threats and fears to all of us. So we must relinquish our dreams of a future of easy happiness and buckle down to the hard task of stretching our minds to the hilt to keep pace with a country even though it maintains an ideology to which we do not subscribe."

Dr. Player urged the seniors to become responsible citizens, eager to become involved in seeking solutions to community and world problems and committed to their convictions.

ANNOUNCEMENT of the 10 ranking seniors, made by Dr. C. G. Winston revealed that Miss Josephine Raiford, of Greensboro, is presently leading her class, with a 2.82 average out of a possible 3.00, followed closely by Misses Jamesena Chalmers, 2.76, Queen Esther Murphy, 2.69, both of Fayetteville.

The remaining seven, in descending order are: Misses Jane Williams, 2.59, Winston-Salem; Inez Jones, 2.58, Lenoir; Nannie Poole, 2.56, Baltimore, Md.; Eleanor Fields, 2.54, Richmond, Va.; Barbara Campbell, 2.48, Greensboro; Carolyn Martin, 2.46, Durham, and Veronica Dean, 2.43, Miami, Fla.

FOLLOWING the chapel program, the seniors planted a magnolia tree in honor of C. Everett Bacon, a member of the college trustee board. The dedicatory statement was made by Miss Dequincey Johnson, Lenoir.

Later the seniors were guests at a banquet which was followed by a dance.

College Publicity People At Convention 4/4/59

Howard S. Curtis (left) secretary of Brown University and president of the American College Public Relations Association, chats with college publicity people while attending the annual meeting of the association's Mason-Dixon district held recently at fashionable Hotel Greenbriar at White Sulphur Springs, W. Va.

The others are Dr. Charles Ray, director of the news bureau at North Carolina College at Durham; Mrs. Revella Clay Briscoe, director of publicity at Morgan State College, Baltimore; W. I. Gibson, director of public relations, Bennett College, Greensboro, N. C.; and Moses Belton, director of public relations, Johnson C. Smith University, Charlotte, N. C. Seven colleges of predominant Negro enrollments were represented at the meet.

A Grant of $25,000 Is Given To Bennett College

A grant of $25,000 from the Danforth Foundation of St. Louis, Mo., to Bennett College to be used for strengthening certain strategic areas of its program was announced by President Willa B. Player this week.

Funds will be used to strengthen the library, to strengthen faculty preparation by implementing the work in personal growth services, to provide consultant services in the core program in general education, and to provide a limited number of grants-in-aid for summer study and travel.

In announcing the grant, President Player said:

"This grant will be of significant help to the college in enriching and implementing the educational experiences in the liberal arts for the young women whom we serve. In a time of spiralling costs, it is encouraging to have this type of foundation assistance with the educational programs in our colleges. In the future, we hope for increased interest and support from such sources."

closer working with high school principals and teachers by means of visitations and workshops looking toward unifying the educatonal growth of students by bridging some of the gaps between high school and college has already been embarked upon. In addition, core programs for freshman students in the areas of communication, social science and general edution and for sophomores in human development, religion and philosophy and the humanities are being offered.

Bennett College is on of six liberal arts colleges to receive such grants, according to Dr Kenneth I. Brown, executive HANDY WITH A NEEDLE — Miss Dolores Snellings, Bennett College junior of Raleigh, displays cabana set and bathrobe which she made for the recent clothing exhibit which was a highlight of the 33rd annual Homemaking Institute at the Greensboro, N. C. institution.

Top Bennett Senior

Miss Josephine Raiford, of Greensboro, N. C., a senior chemistry major who presently is leading her class with a 2.82 academic average out of a 3.00, is shown as she was robed by her "sophomore sister," Miss Maryland Baker, of Lexington, Va. during senior day exercises at Bennett College last week.

Friends Meet

HOME TOWN TALK — Mrs. William T. Mason (second from left) public relations consultant of Norfolk, Va., chats with two Norfolk students following her recent address at the Homemaking Institute at Bennett college. (From left) Misses Von Moore, sophomore; Gloria McCabe, freshman and Mrs. Louise G. Streat, chairman of this year's institute.

Rogers Receives Citation

GREENSBORO, N. C. — A citation for his 28 years of continuous service was presented to Lawrence W. Rogers, superintendent of buildings and grounds, by the Bennett College faculty-staff club in the David D. Jones Student Union Tuesday night.

Mrs. Blanche Raiford, another long-time employee of the college, presented a certificate to Mr. Rogers expressing appreciation for his "long and faithful service." Reminicences of the honoree were given by Mrs. Susie W. Jones and expressions of appreciation from the three divisions of instruction were made by Mrs. Minnie B. Smith, Dr. Hobert S. Jarrett and Miss Anna Camp.

President Willa B. Player made the closing remarks. Present for the occasion were Mrs. Clara Rogers, wife of the honoree and Miss Mary A. Rogers, his daughter. A buffet service followed the presentation. J. J. Scarlette was master of ceremonies.

Miss Gloria E. Brown, Student Senate President For 1959-60

Miss Gloria E. Brown, a rising senior of the Bronx, New York, will be president of the Student senate at Bennett College for 1959-60 and Miss Ruth Hawkins, of Louisburg, N. C., will be this year's May Queen as the result of student elections held last week.

Both candidates won by overwhelming margins. Student representatives to the Central Administrative Committee will be Miss Laura (Frankie) Sawyer, of Salisbury. She outdistanced her opponent by nearly 150 votes.

Other Student Senate officers chosen were:

Misses Gwendolyn Mackel, Chicago, Ill., vice president; Mary Boone, Sanford, secretary; Iris Jeffries, Burlington, treasurer, and Linda Brown, Akron, Ohio, parliamentarian.

Miss Nancy Kirby, Haddonfiled, N. J., was elected president of the David D. Jones Student Union and serving with her wll be Misses Peggy Alexander, Fort Pierce, Fla., secretary and Constance Colston, Charlotte, student representative to the union board of management. Miss Marian Simmons of Feyetteville, was chosen Union pianist.

Other campus offices, were filled as follows:

Misses Charletta Pickering, Sumter, S. C., chairman of the mid-week vesper committee; and Gladys Hemmingway, Georgetown, S. C., secretary; Hiawatha Foster, Charlotte, Sunday School superintendent; Priscilla Rogers, assistant superintendent; Carolyn Cotton, Tarboro, secretary and Frances McCallum, Red Springs, pianist.

Officers of the Pre-Alumnae Association are as follows: Misses Betty Crockett, Charlotte president; Lula Goolsby, Mocksville, N. C., vice president; Celestine Miller, Hiratio, S. C., secretary and Elois J. Harper, Lenoir, treasurer.

40-Voice Choir Of Bennett Leaves On An Eastern Tour

GREENSBORO — The 40-voice woman's choir of Bennett College will make a tour of Eastern cities late in April, Mrs. Mary J. Crawford, director announced this week.

The tour will begin on April 24 when the group will sing at the Metropolitan Methodist Church in Baltimore The following night, the choir will appear at Annapolis, Maryland in a concert to be held in the auditorium of the Bates High School.

Sunday at 5 p. m., the choir will sing in Jamaica, Long Island at the Brooks Memorial Methodist Church and on the following day at 8:30 p. m. at Salem Methodist Church in Harlem. The tour will end Tuesday night, April 28, at Wilmington, Del. with an appearance at the Ezion Methodist Church under the sponsorship of he Delaware Valley Chapter of the Bennett College Graduate Association.

The Bennett Choir, which attained national prominence under the direction of the late Dr. R. Nathaniel Dett, has long been known for its ability to obtain a tonal depth and range usually heard only in male choral groups. Among numbers on the program will be "A Hymn to Music" by Roy Ringwald; "Sea Moods" by Mildred Tyson; "Miserere in C Minor" by Hasse and two works from Brahms' "Requiem". The group will also feature a number of traditional spirituals and there will be selections by the college quartette.

Bennett Vespers To Stage Violin Recital

GREENSBORO, N. C. — A violin recital by Kemper Harreld, of Detroit, Mich., formerly head of the music department at Morehouse college, Atlanta, Ga., will take the place of the regular Bennett college vesper service on Sunday, April 12 at 4 p. m.

TOP BENNETT SENIOR—Miss Josephine Raiford, of Greensboro, N. C., a senior chemistry major who presently is leading her class with a 2.82 academic average out of a 3.00, is shown as she was robed by her "sophomore sister," Miss Maryland Baker, of Lexington, Va., during senior day exercises at Bennett College last week.

AT COLLEGE PUBLIC RELATIONS MEET—Howard S. Curtis, left, secretary of Brown University and president of the American College Public Relations Association chats with college publicity people while attending the annual meeting of the Mason-Dixon District held recently at the fashionable Hotel Greenbriar at White Sulphur Springs, W. Virginia. The others are: Dr. Charles Ray, director of the News Bureau, North Carolina College at Durham; Mrs. Revella Clay Briscoe, director of publicity, Morgan College, Baltimore; W. I. Gibson, director of public relations, Bennett College, Greensboro, and Moses Belton, director of public relations, Johnson C Smith University, Charlotte. Seven colleges of predominant Negro enrollments were represented at the meet.

NAACP AT BENNETT—Officers of the Bennett College student chapter of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People beam happily as Kelly Alexander, of Charlotte, NAACP state president, presents charter to Miss Ann Hanks, of Westminister, S. C., president of the group. Looking on, left to right, are Misses Dolores Finger, Hickory, N. C.; Roslyn Smith, Princeton, W. Va.; Von Moore, Norfolk, Va.; Priscilla Rogers, Philadelphia, Penna., and Gwendolyn Mackel, Chicago, Ill.

Touring Art Exhibit Displayed At Bennett

A touring exhibit of 24 paintings and one sculpture sponsored by the Greensboro Artists' League went on display today in Steele Hall at Bennett College.

The exhibit which includes still life, landscapes and figure studies will remain on display through April 13. Most of the paintings are done in oil, but there are several water colors, ink and oil, pastel and ink and casein and ink combinations.

The exhibit which is open to the public is on display from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m.

We See What We Want to, Rather Than Truth, Minister Declares

"We silly people today are as one with those who stood by the road and waved palm branches as Jesus passed," the Rev. William M. Wells, Jr., declared in his Palm Sunday vesper sermon at Bennett College Sunday.

The minister, who is director of the Methodist Student Movement in North Carolina, speaking from the subject, "Behold, Thy Salvation Cometh," said that the people who cheered Jesus did not realize what they were doing for they did not know that He was on His way to die.

"If that cheering throng on Palm Sunday had had a better perpective, they might not have cheered at all, or they might have cheered for a different rason," the Rev. Mr. Wells declared. "We so often see what we want to see rather than what is really there."

Honoree And Birthday Party Guests

Some of the youngsters at the Children's House at Bennett College who were guests at a birthday party for Donald Bailey (second from left) held last week. Others, left to right, are: Van Allen, Michael Lee and Christine Crawford.

BENNETT COLLEGE

A SUMMARY OF URGENT NEEDS

(As listed by the President, Dr. Willa B. Player)

1. $1,750,000 for Endowed Scholarships
2. $1,150,000 for the Faculty Salaries Endowment Fund
3. $ 350,000 toward the erection of a Health and Physical Education Building
4. $ 35,000 for Teaching Aids and Equipment with immediate needs as follows:
   - $ 3,000 for Equipment in Science, including the purchase of a Spectronic "20" for clinical work, five triple beam balances, one Rayoscope and one Balance
   - $ 2,100 for Six Miscroscopes at $350 each for use in Pre-Medical Education
   - $ 1,800 for Three Practice Pianos at $600 each for use in Music Education
   - $ 684 for Four Typewriters at about $171 each
   - $ 410 for an Opaque Projector in Audio-Visual Education
   - $ 326 for Maps for studies in the Social Sciences
   - $ 315 for Equipment in Art, including a small kiln for metal work in Fine Arts
   - $ 250 for Equipment in the Home Management House
5. $31,520 for a Maintenance Fund to meet the following needs:
   - $10,000 for redecorating the Annie Merner Pfeiffer Chapel
   - $ 8,500 for replacement of Office Machines in the Bookkeeping Office
   - $ 7,500 for the construction of a Maintenance Building for storing buildings and grounds equipment
   - $ 2,500 for renovation and remodeling the College Health Center
   - $ 1,500 for Equipment Replacements in the College Laundry
   - $ 800 for Hymnals for the Chapel
   - $ 720 for replacement of Equipment in the Stenographic Pool
6. $10,000 for Books and Periodicals for the Library
7. $ 7,500 for completing the upper floor of the stacks of Holgate Library

DANCE GROUPS FROM THREE COLLEGES TO BE IN RECITAL

DURHAM, N. C.—North Carolina College's dance group, in cooperation with dancers from Bennett and A. and T. Colleges, will present a joint concert in NCC's B. N. Duke auditorium at 8 p. m. on Friday, April 17.

Mrs. Barbara Johnson is in charge of the NCC dancers. Bennett's dancers are under the direction of Mrs. Dolly Turner and the A. and T. group has been trained by Miss Grace Collier.

African and spiritual selection will feature the Bennett repertoire. A. and T.'s terpsichoreans will portray Gypsy and classical themes. Modern, Latin American, ballet and tap will be offered by NCC.

H G - 4/4/54

Miss Chalmers Among Woodrow Wilson Fellows at Bennett College

Cumberland Times 3/28/59

GREENSBORO, N. C. — Miss Jamesena Chalmers, of Fayetteville, a senior English major at Bennett College, was notified last week that she is among 1,200 superior American and Canadian students who have been named Woodrow Wilson Fellows for the academic year 1959-60.

Miss Chalmers, who will enroll in the graduate division of Syracuse University in the fall, is the first Bennett College representative to be so honored.

The Woodrow Wilson National Fellowship Foundation of Princeton, N. J., each year conducts a nation-wide talent hunt for future college teachers and supports promising scholars for their first year of graduate work. The project is backed by a $25 million grant from the Ford Foundation.

This year's fellows were chosen from 7,900 candidates, all nominated and all rigorously screened by committees of faculty members. These candidates came from over 70 undergraduate colleges. Each fellow receives a living allowance of $1,500, plus the full cost of tuition and fees.

Miss Chalmers, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Chalmers of 1419 Murchison Road, Fayetteville, was salutatorian at the E. E. Smith High School. At Bennett she has been consistently on the honor roll and for the second semester of last year and the first semester of this year established a straight "A" scholastic average.

In addition to being president of the Student Senate, Miss Chalmers is a member of the choir and of Alpha Kappa Mu, national honor society and was selected for Who's Who Among American Universities and Colleges.

JAMESENA CHALMERS

Campus NAACP Unit Installed AT Bennett

GREENSBORO—Bennett College students were urged to prepare themselves "to be the equal of any person in the world" by Kelly Alexander, of Charlotte, member of the national board of the NAACP, in an address here Wednesday morning.

The occasion was the formal presentation of a charter to the campus NAACP branch organized last fall. Alexander, who is also president of the N. C. conference of NAACP branches, gave the charter to President Willa B. Player who in turn, presented it to Miss Anne Hanks, of Westminster, S. C., chapter president. Miss Von Moore of Norfolk, Va. presided.

"MISS UNCF" CROWNED---Miss Ida Bell Robinson, of Wiley College, Marshall, Texas, is crowned Miss UNCF by Dr. William J. Trent, Jr., executive director, during banquet which was a highlight of the 13th annual meeting of the National Alumni Council at Bennett College. Wiley College, with a per capita ratio of $4.39 per student, le all UNCF colleges in student givings with $2,136.37.

Nat'l Science Foundation Grant To Bennett College

Jt&g 3/28/59

GREENSBORO, N. C. —Announcement of a $40,570 grant to Bennett College by the National Science Foundation for a summer science training program for secondary school students was made this week by President Willa B. Player.

Under the grant, Dr. J. Henry Sayles, head of the science division at the college, will direct a six-week program, from June 22 to July 31 for 1959 high school graduates and 11th and 12th grade students of high ability and special talent in the sciences and mathematics.

BECAUSE enrollment must necessarily be limited, interested students should make early application by writing to "Dr. J. Henry Sayles, Director Summer Science Training Program Bennett College, Greensboro, N. C."

The general objective of the program is to provide high quality instruction in the biological and physical sciences and in mathematics through a program of basic courses in biology, chemistry, physics and mathematics, tutorial conferences, informal discussion and seminars.

Rev. Wells Speaks On Palm Sunday

GREENSBORO, N. C.—"We silly people today are as one with those who stood by the road and waved palm branches as Jesus passed," the Rev. William M. Wells, Jr., declared in his Palm Sunday vesper sermon at Bennett College Palm Sunday.

The minister, who is director of the Methodist Student Movement in North Carolina, speaking from the subject, 'Behold, Thy Salvation Cometh," said that the people who cheered Jesus did not realize what they were doing for they did not know that He was on His way to die.

Exhibitions Of Photos At A&T College

3/28/59

GREENSBORO — An exhibition of photographs by the late Swiss photographer Werner Bischof went on display in the Fine Arts Building at Bennett College on March 16 and will remain on view through April 15.

Exhibit hours are 9 a. m. to 8 p. m. daily. Loaned by Magnum Photos Inc., of New York, an international cooperative picture agency of which Mr. Bischof was a leading member, the exhibit was first seen at the Art Institute of Chicago, and is now being circulated throughout the United States by the Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition Service.

Included are 50 photogrpahs in black-and-white and color, taken by Mr. Bischof while on two-year assignment in Japan for a Swiss picture magazine. The exhibition is divided into three sections, "Ancient Japan," "Modern Japan" and "The Traditional Japanese Theatre".

Mr. Bischof, a gifted technician and visual reporter, met a tragic death in 1947 when his jeep fell from a mountain in Peru.

Dr. Chalmers Cites Role Of Belief In Progress

Jt&g 3/28/59

GREENSBORO, N. C. —"A person's religion consists of the few things that he is assured of and has no need of effort for belief," Dr. Allan Knight Chalmers declared in his address which marked the closing of the 33rd annual Homemaking Institute at Bennett College Sunday.

Dr. Chalmers, a member of the faculty of the Boston University school of theology and for many years a champion of civil rights, has only recently completed a 6,000 tour of some 11 southern states in the interest of desegregation.

REFERRING to this problem, he said: "We've got it licked. Victory is in our hands and there isn't any question in our minds regarding what is going to happen."

Dr. Chalmers addressed himself to the question: "What do you know for sure?" and treated it on two planes —the visceral and the cerebral.

"TO SIMPLIFY the former," he explained. "I mean 'guts' or the physical body and by the second, of course, I mean the mind."

He then proceeded by example to show how men of 'guts' in the South have faced certain death in their effort to obtain civil rights, and how in other instances men have used their minds to insure human progress as in the case of the French Revolution and in the long campaign to eliminate slavery from the British Empire.

"WHEN someone ask you 'what do you know?' it is usually just another way of saying 'hello'," Dr. Chalmers declared, "but when you are asked: "What do you know for sure? you want to be able to give an answer based upon a conviction or a sincere belief in something which has become as natural as breathing to you.

Dr. Willa B. Player, presided and Mrs. Louise G. Streat, chairman of this year's institute, gave a summary report.

HOME TOWN TALK — Mrs. William T. Mason (second from left) public relations consultant of Norfolk, Va. chats with two Norfolk students following her address at the Homemaking Institute at Bennett College last week. Left to right: Misses Von Moore, sophomore; Gloria McCabe, freshman and Mrs. Louise G. Street, chairman of this year's institute. Courier 3/28/59

Norfolkians Chat At Bennett

Jtg 3/28/59

Mrs. William T. Mason (second from left) public relations consultant of Norfolk, Va., chats with two Norfolk students following her address at the Homemaking Institute at Bennett College recently. Left to right are: Misses Von Moore, sophomore; Gloria McCabe, freshman, and Mrs. Louise G. Street, chairman of this year's institute.

B12—The Greensboro Record 3/27/59

Bennett College Campus Offices Filled For Year

Gloria E. Brown, a rising senior, of the Bronx, New York, will be president of the Student Senate at Bennett College for 1959-60 and Ruth Hawkins, senior, of Louisburg, will be this year's May Queen as the result of student elections held yesterday.

Both candidates won by overwhelming margins. Student representative to the Central Administrative Committee will be Laura Sawyer, of Salisbury.

Other Student Senate officers chosen were:

Gwendolyn Mackel, Chicago, Ill., vice president; Mary Boone, Sanford, secretary; Iris Jeffries, Burlington, treasurer; and Linda Brown, Akron, Ohio, Parliamentarian.

Nancy [illegible], Hackensack, N.J., was elected president of the David D. Jones Student Union and serving with her will be Peggy Alexander, Fort Pierce, Fla., secretary, and Constance Colston, Charlotte, student representative to the union board of management. Marian Simmons of Fayetteville, was chosen Union pianist.

Other campus offices were filled as follows.

Charletta Pickering, Sumter, S.C., chairman of the mid-week vesper committee; and Gladys Hemmingway, Georgetown, S.C., secretary; Hiawatha Foster, Charlotte, Sunday School superintendent; Priscilla Rogers, Philadelphia, Pa.; assistant superintendent; Carolyn Cotton, Tarboro, secretary and Frances McCallum, Red Springs, pianist.

Officers of the Pre-Alumnae Assn. are as follows: Betty Crockett, Charlotte, president; Lula Goolsby, Mocksville, vice president; Celestine Miller, Horatio, S.C., secretary and Eloise J. Harper, Lenoir, treasurer.

Says being scholar results from habit of thinking, acting

ajro 3/28/59

GREENSBORO, N.C. — The business of being a scholar is not only a matter of individual choice but it is a habit of thinking and acting, Miss Wilhelmina Gilbert declared in her address here Monday when the Bennett College chapter of Alpha Kappa Mu, national honor society, held its annual Student Recognition Day exercises.

Miss Gilbert, instructor in business education at the college, spoke at an all - college assembly in Pfeiffer Chapel at which time the 123 students who earned places on the first semester honor roll were cited for scholarship and presented certificates of achievement.

* * *

AFTER POINTING out that scholarship is a continuous process of hard and time-consuming work, the speaker said: "Scholarship requires enthusiasm. Learning does not necessarily begin or end with the class bell. The teacher can do very little about developing the power of reason. He can show how it is done. He can demand certain methods of attack on problems presented for solution, but whether or not the student will arrive at the stage where he is capable of and willing to exercise reason is the student's problem."

* * *

REMINDING THE students that the scholar's greatest reward is a job well done, Miss Gilbert said: "One of the strangest paradoxes of our time is the favor accorded mediocrity on the one hand and, on the other, the desire of many to identify themselves with superior achievement.

"Our times call for excellence. The school that does not challenge — yes, even demand — that its student body strive toward excellence is not fulfilling its responsibilities, for the true business of education is excellence."

Officers of Alpha Kappa Mu are Misses Eleanor Fields, Richmond, Va., president; Inez Jones, Lenoir, vice president; Josephine Raiford, Greensboro, secretary - treasurer, and Barbara Campbell, Greensboro, corresponding secretary.

BENNETT COLLEGE received a $40,570 grant from the National Science Foundation for a summer science training program for secondary school students . . .

Exhibit 24 Paintings At Greensboro

Courier 4/11/59

GREENSBORO—A touring exhibit of 24 paintings and one sculpture sponsored by the Greensboro Artists' League went on display last week in Steele Hall at Bennett College.

The exhibit included still life, landscapes and figure studies. Most of the paintings were in oil, and there were several water colors, ink and oil, pastel and ink and wash in and ink combinations.

Ben L. Smith Speaks At Bennett College

"We can best show that we love God by loving those around us," Ben L. Smith, former superintendent of city schools, said in his vesper message at Bennett College yesterday.

Taking as his subject, "The Greatest Things in the World," Smith said that love is the highest attribute of God and the chief evidence of Christianity.

"Those who hatefully persecute cannot have the love of God in them and the man who hates is a potential murderer," the speaker continued. "The consecration of our lives to God is more desired by Him than our singing and praying," he said.

wns 4/4/59

SCIENCE LEADERS — These students are among leaders attending annual meeting of Southeastern region of Beta Kappa Chi Scientific Honor Society at A&T college, Greensboro, N. C. From left: Joanne Raiford, president, Bennett College chapter; Andrew Rodrigues, president, South Carolina chapter, and Fred Whitlock, president, A&T chapter.

BENNETT ART EXHIBIT — Miss Mary Ellen Bender, exchange student from Ohio Wesleyan University (left) and Miss Flora Mebane, Bennett College freshman of Greensboro, admire painting by Mrs. Edith Brown, Akron, Ohio artist, one of 12 which she exhibited last week at Greensboro, N.C. campus.

defender 3/28/59

NAACP at Bennett Receives Charter

GREENSBORO, N. C. — Bennett College students were urged to prepare themselves "to be the equal of any person in the world" by Kelly Alexander, of Charlotte, member of the national board of the NAACP, in an address here last Wednesday morning.

The occasion was the formal presentation of a charter to the campus NAACP branch organized last fall.

3/24/59 Courier defender

Straight 'A' Averages

THESE FOUR STUDENTS at Bennett College, Greensboro, N. C., have straight "A" records for the first semester, Left to right (rear) Misses Queen Murphy, Fayetteville; Jamesena Chalmers, Fayetteville; and Nannie Poole, Baltimore, all seniors. In front is Miss Linda Brown, sophomore, of Akron, Ohio.

Courier 3/28/59

HAD PERFECT RECORDS — These four Bennett College students had straight "A" records for the first semester. Left to right (back): Misses Queen Murphy, Fayetteville; Jamesena Chalmers, Fayetteville, and Nannie Poole, Baltimore, Md., all seniors. In front is Miss Linda Brown, sophomore, of Akron, Ohio.

Here This Week

OTHER ATTRACTIONS

TENOR CONCERT—Nicolai Gedda, Metropolitan Opera tenor, will appear in final concert of season for Civic Music Association, Wednesday at 8 p.m. at Aycock Auditorium.

PIANO CONCERT—Nelson and Neal, duo pianists, will present a concert Friday at 8 p.m. in Pfeiffer Chapel, Bennett College.

49

North Carolina Visitors at Mount Holyoke

Visitors at Mount Holyoke from Bennett College in Greensboro, N. C., join philosophy students at Mount Holyoke for tea. Attending regular college events such as this weekly philosophy club tea was a major activity for the six students, who spent the last two weeks in February in South Hadley on an exchange from the small residence college for Negro women. Left to right around the circle are Miss Lavonne Barbour, Miss Laura Sawyer, professor of philosophy Roger Holmes, Miss Judith Gurowitz '59 of Trenton, N. J., Miss Mary Havens, graduate student and head of house, and Miss Betsey Rose '60 of Detroit, Mich.

Bennett Seniors Hear Address

Bennett College seniors yesterday were urged by President Willa B. Player to take a stand against the wave of anti-intellectualism which America has been experiencing.

The challenge was a part of her Senior Day address to the class of 1959 after they had received their academic caps and gowns from their sophomore "sisters" in a traditional ceremony in Pfeiffer Chapel.

Announcement of the 10 ranking seniors, made by Dr. C. G. Winston, revealed that Josephine Raiford, of Greensboro, is leading her class, followed closely by Queen Esther Murphy and Jamesena Chalmers, both of Fayetteville.

The remaining seven are Jane Williams, Winston-Salem; Inez Jones, Lenoir; Nannie Poole, Baltimore, Md.; Eleanor Fields, Richmond, Va.; Barbara Campbell, Greensboro; Carolyn Martin, Durham, and Veronica Dean, Miami, Fla.

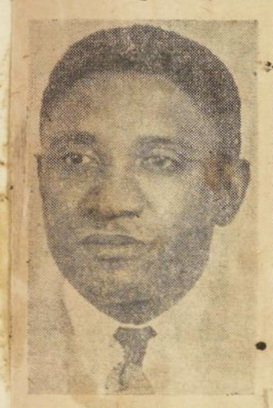

Following the chapel program, the seniors planted a magnolia tree in honor of C. Everett Bacon, a member of the college trustee board.

Bennett President And Keynote Speaker

Dr. Willa Player, president of Bennett College, is shown talking to Mrs. Julia E. Mesnah of Ibadan, Nigeria, who opened Bennett's 33rd annual Homemaking Institute with an address.

Bennett College Given $40,570 Grant By Science Foundation

DR. J. HENRY SAYLES

Announcement of a $40,570 grant to Bennett College by the National Science Foundation for a summer science training program for secondary school students was made this week by President Willa B. Player.

Under the grant, Dr. J. Henry Sayles, head of the science division at the college, will direct a six-week program from June 22 to July 31 for 1959 high school graduates and 11th and 12 grade students of high ability and special talent in the sciences and mathematics.

Because enrollment must necessarily be limited, interested students should make early application by writing to "Dr. J. Henry Sayles, Director Summer Science Training Program, Bennett College, Greensboro, N. C.

The general objective of the program is to provide high quality instruction in the biological and physical sciences and in mathematics through a program of basic courses in biology, chemistry, physics and mathematics, tutorial conferences, informal discussion and seminars.

Classroom teaching will be supplemented by field trips, visits to the Morehead Planetarium in Chapel Hill, the nuclear reactor at N. C. State College in Raleigh, the area weather bureau and observation of the work in nearby industrial research laboratories.

Each student accepted will be granted travel expenses, room, board, tuition, fees, books and necessary materials and supplies.

NIGERIAN NURSE AT BENNETT — Mrs. Julia E. Mensah, of Ibadan, Nigeria, chats with Dr. Willa B. Player, president of Bennett College, before opening session of the 33rd annual Homemaking Institute, Sunday. Mrs. Mensah told of the important leadership roles which African women are playing today. She is head nurse at the University Teaching Hospital in Ibadan.

Nigerian Woman Addresses Homemaking Institute

GREENSBORO, N. C.—Bennett College students were urged to prepare to live "dangerous and full lives" rather than "placid and safe lives" by Mrs. William T. Mason, of Norfolk, Va., in her address before the third session of the 33rd annual Homemaking Institute, here Wednesday.

Mrs. Mason, a public relations consultant, and former president of the National Council of Negro Women, in listing the types of persons to be found in a community, also referred to the "charming wastrels" and the "just plain wastrels."

THE INSTITUTE opened on Sunday with an address by Mrs. Julia E. Mensah, of Ibadan, Nigeria, who told of the increasing leadership roles being played by African women generally and by Nigerian women in particular.

A panel discussion of "Women in Careers and in the Home" featured the Monday session and a point of agreement was that careers and marriage can be mixed successfully.

PANELISTS included Mrs. Lillian Snipes, local beauty shop owner; Mrs. Sarah Herbin, associate director of merit employment of the Southeastern region of the American Friends Service Committee; Dr. Lyvonne M. Washington, dentist of Winston - Salem; Mrs. Alice Dunnigan, chief of the Washington bureau of the Associated Negro Press, and F. L. Grandison, chief of counseling services at Bennett.

A student panel on Friday discussed "Academic Learning and Community Participation." Members of the panel were Misses Mary J. Williams, Winston - Salem; Barbara Campbell, Greensboro; Ethel Graves, Yanceyville; Lila Blanding, Sumter, S. C.; Yvonne Redcross, Hampton, Va.; Linda Brown, Akron, Ohio, and Gloria Keene, Hampton, Va.

Woodrow Wilson fellow

Miss Jamesena Chalmers, of Fayetteville, a senior English major at Bennett College, was notified this week that she is among 1,200 superior American and Canadian students who have been named Woodrow Wilson Fellows for the academic year 1959-60.

Miss Chalmers, who will enroll in the graduate division of Syracuse University in the fall, is the first Bennett College representative to be so honored.

The Woodrow Wilson National Fellowship Foundation of Princeton, N. J., each year conducts a nationwide talent hunt for future college teachers and supports promising scholars for their first year of graduate work. The project is backed by a $25 million grant from the Ford Foundation.

This year's fellows were chosen from 7,000 candidates, all nominated and all rigorously screened by committees of faculty members. These candidates came from over 7700 undergraduate colleges. Each fellow receives a living allowance of $1,500, plus the full cost of tuition and fees.

Miss Chalmers, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Chalmers of 1419 Murchison road, Fayetteville, was salutatorian at the E. E. Smith High School. At Bennett she has been consistently on the honor roll and for the second semester of last year and the first semester of this year established a straight "A" scholastic average.

In addition to being president of the Student Senate, Miss Chalmers is a member of the choir and of Alpha Kappa Mu, national honor society and was selected for Who's Who Among American Universities and Colleges.

Bryan Named Director of Methodist Work

WASHINGTON, D. C.—The Rev. John Bryan of Bennett College, Greensboro, N. C. has been named director of student work for the Methodist Board of Temperance, which has its national headquarters here.

He will assume his new duties July 1, it was announced by the Rev. Dr. Caradine R. Hooton, general secretary of the board.

The Rev. Mr. Bryan was born in Jamaica and is a naturalized citizen of the United States, and an ordained Methodist minister of the New Hampshire Annual Conference. He is a graduate of New York University and the Boston University School of Theology.

For the last five years he has been director of religious activities at Bennett College, a Methodist institution. Previously, he was associate pastor of the Morgan Memorial Church of All Nations, Boston, Mass., and a staff member of the American Bible Society.

Meanwhile, the Rev. Robert Regan, Jr., formerly director of student work, has been appointed director of the board's organizational activities. He is in charge of legislation, and "liaison man" with district and annual conference temperance group.

Rev. Bryan Will Direct Methodist Student Work

WASHINGTON, D. C. — The Rev. John Bryan of Bennett College, Greensboro, N. C., has been named director of student work for the Methodist Board of Temperance, which has its national headquarters here.

He will assume his new duties July 1, it was announced by the Rev. Dr. Caradine R. Hooton, general secretary of the board.

College Employe Given Citation

A citation for his 28 years of continuous service was presented to Lawrence W. Rogers, superintendent of buildings and grounds, by the Bennett College faculty-staff club in the David D. Jones Student Union last night.

Mrs. Blanche Raiford, another long-time employe of the college, presented a certificate to Rogers expressing appreciation for his "long and faithful service." Reminiscences of the honoree were given by Mrs. Susie W. Jones and expressions of appreciation from the three divisions of instruction were made by Mrs. Minnie B. Smith, Dr. Hobart S. Jarrett and Miss Anna Camp.

President Willa B. Player made the closing remarks. Also present for the occasion were Mrs. Clara Rogers, wife of the honoree; Miss Mary A. Rogers, his daughter, and Mrs. Emma Mary Rogers, his mother. A buffet service followed the presentation.

BENNETT MEMBERS CAPTURE SCHOLARSHIP CUP

GREENSBORO, N. C. — Members of the senior class at Bennett College, with an average of 4.81 out of a possible 6.00, captured the Jane Miller Jones Scholarship Cup.

Second place went to the sophomores with a 4.45 average, followed by the juniors with 4.36 and the freshmen with 4.32. Miss Nannie Poole, president, accepted the clup on behalf of the class.

Bennett Senior Day Set Today

President Willa B. Player will deliver the address when members of the Bennett College graduating class hold their annual Senior Day program at 4 p.m. today in Pfeiffer Chapel.

An additional feature will be the traditional robing of the seniors by their sophomore "sisters." Dr. C. G. Winston, chairman of the Social Science Division, will present the seniors and announce senior honors.

Following the chapel program the seniors will proceed to a spot on the campus where they will plant a magnolia tree—a tradition which had its inception with the first graduating class after Bennett became a woman's college. A banquet at 6:30 p.m. and a dance which follows will conclude the day's activities.

Bennett Students Hear Alexander

"Democracy offers no free rides," Kelly W. Alexander of Charlotte, a member of the national board of directors of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, told Bennett College students yesterday.

Alexander, who is also president of the state conference of NAACP branches, spoke prior to presenting a charter to the Bennett student NAACP chapter which was organized on the campus last fall.

Miss Anne Hanks, of Westminster, S.C., a sophomore, is president of the chapter and accepted the charter from President Willa B. Player, to whom Alexander had presented it.

Methodist Appoint Bennett Professor

WASHINGTON, D.C. — The Rev. John Bryan of Bennett college, Greensboro, N.C., has been named director of student work for the Methodist Board of Temperance, which has its national headquarters here.

He will assume his new duties July 1, it was announced by the Rev. Dr. Caradine R. Hooton, general secretary of the board.

Fine Arts Exhibit At Bennett

GREENSBORO, N. C. — An exhibition of photographs by the late Swiss photographer Werner Bischof went on display in the Fine Arts Building at Bennett College on March 16 and will remain on view through April 1.

Exhibit hours are 8 a.m. to 8 p.m. daily. Loaned by Magnum Photos, Inc., of New York, an international cooperative picture agency of which Mr. Bischof was a leading member, the exhibit was first seen at the Art Institute of Chicago, and is now being circulated throughout the United States by the Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition Service.

Included are 50 photographs, in black-and-white and color, taken by Mr. Bischof while on two-year assignment in Japan for a Swiss picture magazine. The exhibition is divided into three sections, "Ancient Japan," "Modern Japan" and "The Traditional Japanese Theatre."

Mr. Bischof, a gifted technician and visual reporter, met a tragic death in 1947 when his jeep fell from a mountain in Peru.

Norfolk's Mrs. William T. Mason Urges Bennett College Students Not to Become Delightful "Wastrels," to Lose Fear of Living

GREENSBORO — Bennett College students were urged to prepare to live "dangerous and full lives" rather than "placid and safe lives" by Mrs. William T. Mason, of Norfolk, Va., in her address before the third session of the 33rd annual Homemaking Institute, here Wednesday.

Mrs. Mason, a public relations consultant, and former president of the National Council of Negro Women, in listing the types of persons to be found in a community, also referred to the "charming wastrels" and the "just plain wastrels."

"The charming wastrels," she said, "are those egocentrics wrapped up in their bridge and poker games and their fine homes and cars who can shed tears about the orphans thousands of miles away but who do not lift a finger to help the unfortunate and underprivileged in their own communities.

"The plain wastrels are not concerned about anything. Their contribution is that they serve as horrible examples of what one must not allow himself to become."

Mrs. Mason reminded the students that they are merely serving an apprenticeship in preparation for "a great performance in your local communities." She urged them to develop a sound philosophy which will give meaning to their lives.

The institute opened on Sunday with an address by Mrs. Julia E. Mensah, of Ibadan, Nigeria, who told of the increasing leadership roles being played by African women generally and by Nigerian women in particular.

A panel discussion of "Women in Careers and in the Home" featured the Monday session and a point of agreement was that careers and marriage can be mixed successfully. Panelists included Mrs. Lillian Snipes, local beauty shop owner; Mrs. Sarah Herbin, associate director of merit employment of the Southeastern region of the American Friends Service Committee; Dr. Lyvonne M. Washington, dentist of Winston-Salem; Mrs. Alice Dunnigan, chief of the Washington bureau of the Associated Negro Press, and F. L. Grandison, chief of counseling

Jamesena Chalmers, Bennett Senior From Fayetteville, Gets Woodrow Wilson Fellowship

GREENSBORO — Miss Jamesena Chalmers, of Fayetteville, a senior English major at Bennett College, was notified this week that she is among 1,200 superior American and Canadian students who have been named Woodrow Wilson Fellows for the academic year 1959-60.

Miss Chalmers, who will enroll in the graduate division of Syracuse University in the fall, is the first Bennett College representative to be so honored.

The Woodrow Wilson National Fellowship Foundation of Princeton, N. J., each year conducts a nation-wide talent hunt for future college teachers and supports promising scholars for their first year of graduate work. The project is backed by a $25 million grant from the Ford Foundation.

This year's fellows were chosen from 7,000 candidates, all nominated and all rigorously screened by committees of faculty members. These candidates came from over 700 undergraduate colleges. Each fellow receives a living allowance of $1,500, plus the full cost of tuition and fees.

Miss Chalmers, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Chalmers, of 1419 Murchison Road, Fayetteville, was salutatorian at the E. E. Smith High School. At Bennett she has been consistently on the honor roll and for the second semester of last year and the first semester of this year established a straight "A" scholastic average.

In addition to being president of the Student Senate, Miss Chalmers is a member of the choir and of Alpha Kappa Mu, national honor society and was selected for Who's Who Among American Universities and Colleges.

50

Washington INSIDE OUT

★ By Alice A. Dunnigan

MAY SHE REST IN PEACE . . .

While crossing the beautiful campus at Bennett College to visit the historic buildings which have served as cultural centers for so many young women, my attention was focused upon a tiny grave nestling beneath a magnificent magnolia.

"Who's buried in that little grave?" I asked my escort, Bill Gibson, public relations director at the college.

"Oh, hadn't you heard?" he asked. "There lies buried 'Miss Idle Gossip'." Then he proceeded to tell me how the girls decided that "Miss Idle Gossip" should not be allowed to live on that campus. So in a pompous ceremony they buried her beneath the magnolias—and there "may she rest in peace."

Dunnigan

THE UNIQUE idea of doing away with "Miss Idle Gossip" was revealed to this columnist last week when she visited the college to participate in the "Homemaking Institute."

My story on women in journalism appeared to be rather amusing to these young women, especially the anecdotes I related regarding some of my almost unbelievable experiences on this Washington beat.

I was one of the five panelists who discussed "Women in Careers and in the Home." It was almost like old home week to three of the participants, who were Bennett graduates. They included Mrs. Lillian Snipes, owner of the Beautyrama Shop in Greensboro, who gave a very thorough analysis of women in business.

MRS. SARAH HERBIN, who had a most unusual story to tell about the employment of Negroes in industry in the South. Mrs. Herbin is serving as associate director of merit employment in the Southeastern region, working under the auspices of the American Friends Service Committee.

The third Bennett graduate was Dr. Lyvonne M. Washington, fresh out of dental school at Meharry. She told some cute human interest stories regarding her first year's experience as a practicing dentist in Chicago.

She was very inspiring to the young people for several reasons. She was nearer their own age. She was just out of Bennett six years. She had succeeded in a profitable profession. She had found a handsome husband. She has had, and is now caring for an adorable baby. And she outlined methods on how a young woman can be a good mother, an ideal wife, and at the same time a successful careerist.

"Gee, he must have courage," said someone of the fifth panelist, who was the only male participant, Francis L. Grandison, a member of the Bennett faculty, went into some detail on the founding, purpose and function of "Family Life."

THIS PROGRAM, which was presided over by Mrs. Louise G. Streat, went off like clock-work and all was sweet. But this writer was really put through the third degree by the young people attending the smaller discussion groups.

It was amazing and indeed stimulating to hear the questions posed by these young people. The alertness of their thinking, their knowledge of current issues, their interest in national and international affairs, and their lack of shyness in asking anything on their mind was indeed gratifying.

The over-all theme for this 33rd Homemaking Institute, which really serves as a career conference, was "Women in a Changing Culture." It was opened on Sunday with an address by Mr. Julia Mensah of Ibandan, Nigeria, who is in this country on the Foreign Specialist Program sponsored by the U. S. Department of State.

ON WEDNESDAY, Mrs. William Thomas Mason addressed the students on "Women in Community Service." On Friday a panel of students discussed "Academic Learning and Community Participation." Films were shown on Tuesday and Thursday. And the week-long celebration was climaxed the following Sunday with an address by Dr. Allen Knight Chambers of the Boston University School of Theology.

In commenting on the institute, Dr. Willa B. Player, president of the college, said: "The young women of today needs and wants a family, a job, and some ways to help her to learn the skills and attitudes that will provide the best possible experiences in all of these."

Dr. Player pointed out that "different patterns of living and learning are emerging in the world today as a result of the accelerated rate of advance knowledge and technology."

"In view of this circumstance," she said, "the education in our colleges must be carried on in a continuing and parallel relationship with adult responsibilities."

THE INSTITUTE was initiated, continued the college president, to give the young college women a clearer insight into the total problems they are facing in the world today. This knowledge can only be gained through study, discussions and actual experiences related by those who are carrying out their responsibilities in employment, community service and home and family life.

NIGERIAN NURSE AT BENNETT—Mrs. Julia E. Mensah, of Ibadan, Nigeria, chats with Dr. Willa B. Player, president of Bennett College, before opening session of the 33rd annual Homemaking Institute, Sunday. Mrs. Mensah told of the important leadership roles which African women are playing today. She is head nurse at the University Teaching Hospital in Ibadan.

Bennett Slates 86th Graduation Rites

GREENSBORO, N. C. —Dr. Buell Gallagher, president of City College of New York, will deliver the address when Bennett college holds its 86th commencement exercises here Monday, June 1 at 10:30 a.m. in Pfeiffr chapel.

Baccalaureate speaker on Sunday, May 31 at 4 p. m. will be Dr. R. O'Hara Lanier, of the Phelps-Stokes Fund of New York City.

Dr. Gallagher, who holds the Ph.D. degree from Columbia university, is also the recipient of many other honorary doctorates, among them doctor of divinity, doctor of laws and doctor of humane letters. He is a member of Phi Beta Kappa.

Bennett Speaker

The baccalaureate speaker at Bennett College, Sunday, May 31, will be Dr. R. O'Hara Lanier, of the Phelps-Stokes Fund, New York City, N. Y. Services will begin at 4 p. m. in Pfeiffer Chapel.

ON TOP COMMITTEE—Miss Laura (Frankie) Sawyer, a rising senior sociology major, of Salisbury, N. C., was recently elected student representative to the central administrative committee at Bennett College.

Bennett College

There will be 84 graduates at Bennett College this year. Members of the 1959 class who expect to receive their degrees on June 1 include 56 candidates for the bachelor of arts degree and 28 for the bachelor of science. They hail from 17 states and the District of Columbia and two foreign countries.

PHYSICS STUDENTS at Bennett College, Greensboro, N.C., record the progress of an interesting experiment.

The famous school which was established for young women is headed by Dr. Willa B. Player as president.

Bennett to conduct science institute

GREENSBORO, N.C. — Indicative of its continuing emphasis on the physical sciences and mathematics is the recent grant to Bennett College of $40,570 by the National Science Foundation.

As a result of this grant, the college will be able to conduct a six - week training program for high school graduates and upper - class high school students from June 22 to July 31.

Dr. J. Henry Sayles, chairman of the science division and director of the program, pointed out that 11th and 12th grade students of high ability and special talent in the sciences and mathematics would be eligible, along with 1959 high school graduates, to participate in the program.

Because enrollment must necessarily be limited, interested students should make early application by writing to "Dr. J. Henry Sayles, Director Summer Science Training Program, Bennett College, Greensboro, N.C."

* * *

THE GENERAL objective of the program is to provide high quality instruction in the biological and physical sciences and in mathematics through a program of basic courses in biology, chemistry, physics and mathematics, tutorial conferences, informal discussion and seminars.

Classroom teaching will be supplemented by field trips, visits to the Morehead Planetarium in Chapel Hill, the nuclear reactor at N.C. State College in Raleigh, the area weather bureau and observation of the work in nearby industrial research laboratories.

Each student accepted will be granted travel expenses, room, board, tuition, fees, books and necessary materials and supplies.

* * *

DURING THE past ten years there has been a marked increase in the number of percentage of Bennett students choosing the physical sciences and mathematics as their major study.

Some of these persons have expressed the desire to teach in these fields either on the secondary, or college level. A considerable number, however, plan careers in medicine, dentistry, nursing and medical technology.

It is to be noted that of the Fulbright fellowships which have been awarded to Bennett graduates, the majority have been in the physical sciences. At least two of these graduates are presently engaged in research while pursuing work leading to advanced degrees.

The basic courses in physical sciences — biology, chemistry and physics — have served well to prepare Bennett graduates who have entered professional schools. The student - teacher ratio is sufficiently low to permit much individual instruction, counseling and supervision.

Day Festivities

Queen (center) and Miss Elizabeth McMickle, attendant, reigned over the May Day exercises there. At the right: Miss Ruth Hawkins of Louisburg, N. C. is shown just after being crowned May Queen by Bennett president, Willia B. Player.

ON BENNETT PROGRAM

The fathers of two members of the graduating class at Bennett College will participate in the commencement program at 10:30 a.m., Monday, June 1, in Pfeiffer Chapel. They are the Rev. Oscar Wyche, pastor of the Community Baptist Church in New Canaan, Conn., and the father of Miss Doris Wyche; and the Rev. Edwin Harrison, pastor of the Winfield Methodist Church in League City, Tex., the father of Miss Cecile Harrison. The Rev. Mr. Wyche will make the opening prayer and the Rev. Mr. Harrison will deliver the benediction.

...a distinctive college for women

Bennett College

GREENSBORO, NORTH CAROLINA

Curriculum

★ THE HUMANITIES
★ THE SOCIAL SCIENCES
★ THE SCIENCES: Biology, Chemistry, Mathematics

Outstanding offerings include studies in the theatre arts, library science, secretarial science, medical secretarial and laboratory technology, teacher education, physical education, psychology, nursery school education, art, clothing and sociology.

Unique programs in pre-medical education and home economics

A FOUR-YEAR ACCREDITED CLASS "A" LIBERAL ARTS COLLEGE

Holding full membership in the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools

Exceptionally well qualified to prepare serious-minded students for intelligent living and useful careers.

Bennett College stresses high standards of character, morality, scholarship. Individualized instruction enables each student to make maximum use of her abilities and special talents.

FOR ADDITIONAL INFORMATION, WRITE:

OPENING DATE FOR FALL SEMESTER: SEPT. 9, 1959

DIRECTOR OF ADMISSIONS BENNETT COLLEGE Greensboro, North Carolina

ALLEN SPEAKS AT VESPER SERVICE

The Kingdom of God is not something to be attained after death, nor is it an earthly institution, the Rev. L. Scott Allen of New Orleans, La., declared in his vesper message at Bennett Colleg Sunday.

The minister, who is editor of the Central Christian Advocate, a semi-monthly Methodist publication, explained that the true Kingdom of God is the divine rule of God in the hearts of men.

"God does not ask us to help Him build this kingdom but to share in a kingdom that He has already built," the Rev. Mr. Allen continued. "Many of us are rejecting this gift of God, such as the atheists, the supporters of white supremacy and even those members of the church who are insincere."

The speaker also chided the church for its frequent failure to speak out when God would have it do so, citing this silence as indicative of acceptance or approval of those things which God does not approve.

Philippa Schuyler To Appear At Bennett

Philippa Schuyler, pianist, who gained fame as a child prodigy and who has developed into one of the world's outstanding artists, will be heard in recital at Bennett College Friday night at 8:00 p. m. in Pfeiffer Chape

TARPLEY ADDRESS STUDENT BODY AT BENNETT

"Christianity ought to be taught just as other things are taught in our schools," Dr. J. A. Tarpley, principal of Dudley High School here, told Bennett College students on Monday.

Dr. Tarpley, who is also a Bennett trustee, spoke on "Some Fundamental Concepts in Christian Education." He indicated certain "growth levels" beginning with the elementary schools and going up to the doctorate showing familiar Biblical passages that should be familiar to persons on each level.

Regarding social and moral propriety, the speaker said that parents, instead of asking their children where they are going should ask: "Who is going to be there?"

An article, "Mental Health and Alcohol Education," by Van S. Allen, biology instructor at Bennett College, appeared in the April issue of the International Student, published by the International Association for the Study of the Alchol Problem.

TWO QUEENS—Miss Ruth Hawkins, of Louisburg, N. C., is shown just after being crowned "May Queen" by President Willa B. Player of Bennett College, Saturday afternoon.

MAY DAY DANCERS---Five members of the modern dance group at Bennett College rehearsed number which was performed as a part of the annual May Day celebration on Saturday, May 2. Left to right: Misses Peggie Alexander, Fort Pierce, Fla.; Charletta Pickering, Sumter, S. C.; Helena Howell, Concord, N. C.; Elishama Madison, Miami, Fla. and Raemi Lancaster, Salisbury, N. C.

GRADUATES GATHER

Fathers of two members of the graduating class of Bennett College will participate in the commencement program on Monday, June 1, at 10:30 a. m. in Pfeiffer Chapel.

The Reverend Oscar Wyche pastor of Community Baptist Church, New Canaan, Conn. father of Miss Doris Wyche, will deliver the prayer and the Rev Edwin Harrison, pastor of Winfield Methodist Church, League City, Texas, father of Miss Cecile Harrison, will deliver the benediction.

BENNETT COLLEGE ANNOUNCES COMMENCMENT SPEAKER

Dr. Buell Gallagher, president of City College of New York, will deliver the address when Bennett College holds its 86th commencment exercises here, Monday June 1 at 10:30 a. m. in Pfeiffer Chapel.

Baccalaureate speaker on Sunday, May 31 at 4 p. m. will be Dr. R. O'Hara Lanier, of the Phelps-Stokes Fund of New York City.

VOLUME I, NO. 30 FAYETTEVILLE, N. C., SATURDAY, M

DANFORTH AIDE AT BENNETT

Dr. Pressley McCoy, associate director of the Danforth Foundation, of St. Louis, Mo., has tea with student leaders at Bennett College during his recent visit to the campus. Left to right: Misses Patricia Hargrove, Fayetteville, N. C.; Gloria Brown, student senate president-elect, of Bronx, N. Y.; Dr. McCoy; Misses Jamesena Chalmers, student senate president, of Fayetteville, N. C.; Gloria McCabe, Norfolk, Va., and Catherine Lawson, Lexington, Va.

39

BENNETT BRIDAL SHOWER—Members of Omicron Eta Chi, home economics organization, gave a surprise shower Wednesday night for Misses Anece Faison, standing left center, of Dudley, N. C., and Ruby Starks, of Troutman, N. C., both graduating seniors, who have wedding dates this summer.

Autograph Seekers—The famed Buddy Johnson, center, who with his orchestra gave out the music for the annual ROTC Ball held at A. and T. College recently, also passed out autographs. The attractive autograph seekers are, from left to right: Ruby Coston, Warsaw, N. C.; Yvonne Melton, Ahoskie, N. C.; Marjorie Graham, Raeford, N. C., and Fannie Currie, Greensboro, all of A. and T. College, and Lila Blanding, Sumter, S. C., of Bennett College.

Gloria Brown new president of Bennett Senate

GREENSBORO, N.C. —Miss Gloria E. Brown, senior, of the Bronx, N.Y., will be president of the Student Senate at Bennett College for 1959 - 60, and Miss Ruth Hawkins, of Louisburg, N.C., will be this year's May Queen as the result of student elections held last week.

Both candidates won by overwhelming margins. Student representative to the Central Administrative Committee will be Miss Laura (Frankie) Sawyer, of Salisbury. She outdistanced her opponent by nearly 150 votes.

OTHER STUDENT SENATE officers chosen were:

Misses Gwendolyn Mackel, Chicago, Ill., vice president; Mary Boone, Sanford, secretary; Iris Jeffries, Burlington, treasurer, and Linda Brown, Akron, Ohio, parliamentarian.

Miss Nancy Kirby, Haddonfield, N.J., was elected president of the David D. Jones Student Union and serving with her will be Misses Peggy Alexander, Fort Pierce, Fla., secretary and Constance Colston, Charlotte, student representative to the union board of management. Miss Marian Simmons of Fayetteville was chosen union pianist.

* * *

CAMPUS OFFICES were filled as follows:

Misses Charletta Pickering, Sumter, S.C., chairman of the mid - week vesper committee; and Gladys Hemmingway, Georgetown, S.C., secretary; Hiawatha Foster, Charlotte, Sunday School superintendent; Priscilla Rogers, assistant superintendent; Carolyn Cotton, Tarboro, secretary and Frances McCallum, Red Springs, pianist.

Officers of the Pre-Alumnae Association are Misses Betty Crockett, Charlotte, president; Lula Goolsby, Mocksville, N.C., vice president; Celestine Miller, Horatio, S.C., secretary and Elois J. Harper, Lenoir, treasurer.

Mrs. Moore heads seniors at Bennett

GREENSBORO, N.C. — Mrs. Marie Moore, of Winston-Salem, an English major, was elected president of the 1960 senior class at Bennett College last week.

Serving with her will be the following: vice president, Miss Juanita Owens, Petersburg, Va.; secretary, Gwendolyn Bell, Cincinnati, O.; assistant secretary, Lucy Martin, Reidsville, N.C.; treasurer, Mary Bender, Leonia, N.J.; parliamentarian, Willie Mae Pullins, Charlotte, N.C.; reporter, Betty Crockett, Charlotte, N.C. and chairman program committee, Ethel Riggsbee, Chapel Hill, N.C.

Other class election results were as follows:

JUNIORS — president, Jacqueline Boseman, Baltimore; vice president, Peggie Alexander, Fort Pierce, Fla.; secretary, Sandra McBride Sumter, S.C.; assistant, Linda Hill, Winston - Salem; treasurer, Iris Jeffries, Burlington, N.C., and parliamentarian, Gloria McKnight, Gainsville, Fla.

SOPHOMORES — president, Roslyn Cheagle, Lynchburg, Va.; vice president, Dorothy Bacon, West Palm Beach, Fla.; secretary, Brenda Richey, Columbus, Ohio; assistant Freddie Stukes, Thomasville, Ga.; treasurer, Flora Ann Hall, Prentiss, Miss.; parliamentarian, Jo Jean Lourance, Winston-Salem; and chaplain, Rosetta Wilson, Riviera Beach, Fla.

MISS CAROLYN JAMES, a rising junior, of St. Augustine, Florida, has been named editor of the Bennett Banner, student newspaper, for the 1959-60 academic year.

Named associate editors are Misses Sandra McBride, of Sumter, S.C., and Von Moore, of Norfolk, Va. Continuing for another term as news editor will be Miss Merry Jean Sparrow, of Covington, Va. They are also rising juniors.

The new editor is a history major and a member of TOMU and the NEA. Miss McBride is a commercial education major and Miss Moore, a history major, is vice president of the college NAACP chapter.

BENNETT COLLEGE

GREENSBORO, N.C. —Misses Doris Wyche of New Canaan, Conn., soprano, and Helen McEachern of Rowland, pianist, will be presented in senior music recital at Bennett College on Sunday. The recital date was announced by Mrs. Nina Kudrik of the faculty.

'Twas the maculine sex that held sway on the campus of Bennett College for Women, Sunday. All freshly arrived gentlemen, whose mothers brought them to the formers' alma mater for christenings on Mother's Day.

They include Wilbert Washington 2nd, whose mother is Dr. Lyvonne Maekel Washington; Fred Alan, son of Mrs. Fred Whitfield of Greensboro; Michael Terhan, son of Mrs. Richard H. Noble of Burlington; James Colon, 2nd, whose mother is Mrs. James C. McLean.

And just to keep the record straight . . . a couple of former Bennett students, who brought daughters to the ceremony, which was performed by the Rev. John Bryan, director of religious activities. These include Mrs. Francis H. Meban of Greenville, and daughter, Grace Mebane; and Mrs. Jerry Woods, and baby, Dionna Marie.

The Rev. William R. Crawford, of Mt. Pleasant Methodist Church, delivered the sermon on the occasion, in Pfeiffer Chapel.

100 Hi School Senior Girls, Advisors Attend Youth Days

GREENSBORO — Nearly 100 high school senior girls and their advisors from some 40 communities in North Carolina, South Carolina and Virginia spent the weekend attending the annual Youth Days program at Bennett College.

In addition to classroom and laboratory visitations, the students attended vocational interest group sessions and a number of social and recreational activities planned for them, including a tour of Greensboro.

They also heard an address by Dr. Benjamin E. Mays, president of Morehouse College, Atlanta, Ga., before leaving for their homes.

The Tar Heel registration list follows:

North Carolina

ASHEVILLE—Allen High: Bonita Davis; Advisor, Mrs. L. D. Burton.

BROWN SUMMIT — Brown Summit High: Mary Vanstory and Martha Tatum.

BURLINGTON—Jordan Sellars High: Essie Griffis and Margaret Enoch.

CHARLOTTE—West Charlotte High: Odetta Thompson, Dorothy Worthy. Advisor, Miss Marian Williams.

CONCORD—Logan High: Delores Parks, Blanche Thompson; Advisor, Mrs. E. M. Polk.

GOLDSBORO — Central High: Argie Atkinson; Advisor, Mrs. Theresa Ware.

GOLDSTON — J. S. Waters High: Ann Goldston, Gerlean Brower; Advisor, Mrs. T. G. Turner.

GRAHAM—Graham High: Elsie White, Betsy Foust, Sandra Fuller; Advisor, Mrs. Margie Cowan.

GREENSBORO—Dudley High—Jeanne Wade Speas, Mary Margaret, Phyllis Brown, Thelma Burton and Ann Bruton; Advisor, Mrs. Marguimans Co.

HIGH POINT—Union Hall Rebecca Chesson.

HIGH POINT—William Penn High: Barbara Ivy and Gloria Leachman; Advisor, Mrs. Lois Partee.

KINSTON—Lincoln High— Bertha Kornegay and Marva Boone.

LAGRANGE—Central High — Margie Bowden.

LANDIS—Aggrey Memorial — Mildred Truesdale, Cathy Rivers; Advisor, Mrs. Lois Partee.

LIBERTY—Randolph High: Roxie Brady and Jewell Letterbough.

MOORESVILLE—Dunbar High: Shirley White and Nancy Miller.

MONROE —Winchester High: Lossie Alsbrooks and Carolyn Evans.

MORGANTON — Olive Hill High: Betty Thomas and Vera McKesson.

SANFORD — W. S. Wicker School: Alma McDonald, Constance McCants; Advisor: Miss Virginia Rush.

SILER CITY—Chatham High: Sandra Kelly.

STATESVILLE— Unity High: Cecelia Dalton, Dorothy Johnson, and Catherine Bailey.

SUMMERFIELD — Laughlin High: Barbara Scales, Betty Morehead, Louise Ogburn, Barbara Ogburn and Eleanor Smith.

TROY—Peabody High: Blanche Bruton, Ann Cagle; Advisor: Mrs. Mamie Anderson.

WILKESBORO—Lincoln Hgts. High: Patricia Campbell, Flossie Foxx and Patricia Harris.

WILSON— Darden High: LaVerne Williams, Germain Wright. Booker T. High: Sylvia Walker and Dorothy Sharp.

WINSTON-SALEM — Atkins High: Rosetta Jackson, Phyllis Goodson; Advisor, Mrs. Birdsie Vaughn. Carver High: Lillie Brown, Betty Anderson; Advisor, Mrs. V. J. McNeal.

WISE — Warren Co. Training School: Jean Walker, Doris Perry; Advisor, Mrs. Rachel Taylor.

YANCEYVILLE—Caswell County Training School: Gladys Graves, Ardeva Poole; Advisor: Mrs. V. A. Dix.

BENNETT RECITAL—Philippa Schuyler, pianist, who gained fame as a child prodigy and who has developed into one of the world's outstanding artists, will be heard in recital at Bennett College Friday night at 8 p.m. in Pfeiffer Chapel.

BENNETT COLLEGE

GREENSBORO, N.C. — manities week was held at the college and featured Howard University's Dr. Sterking A. Brown. The freshman choir was directed by Edward Lowe; Mrs. Dolly Turner directed the modern dance group.

Dr. Hobart S. Jarrett is chairman of the humanities division, sponsoring the observance; Mrs. Blanche Raiford was chairman of arrangements.

The college choir presents its spring concert April 24. The college Theatre Guild presented the "Trojan Women" by Euripides. The cast included Misses Nannie Poole, Baltimore; Emma L. Martin, Mt. Olive, and Jacquelyn Jeffers, Greensboro.

Bennett's 1959-'60 Budget Approved By Trustee Board

GREENSBORO—Approval of an operating budget of $732,725 for 1959-60 was voted by members of the executive committee of the Bennett College board of trustees meeting in New York City Wednesday.

The meeting was held in the headquarters of the Phelps-Stokes Fund and was presided over by Dr. Frederick D. Patterson, who, in addition to being executive director of the fund, is also chairman of the Bennett board.

The new budget represents an increase of $66,310 over the one adopted for the current year and much of the increase will go into strengthening the faculty and the college library, President Willa B. Player pointed out.

Mrs. J. G. Meidenbauer, of Buffalo, N. Y., treasurer, reported that as of March 31 gifts and grants to Bennett totaled $162,000. C. Everett Bacon, of New York City, reported for the investment committee, Mrs. Julius W. Cone, of Greensboro, reported for the building and grounds committee, and Dr. J. A. Tarpley, of Greensboro, reported on instruction.

Dr. Player, who made an interim report, was authorized to revise the college's statement on tenure, including a revised faculty salary scale to be presented to the full board at its October meeting.

PATRONIZE OUR ADVERTISERS

THE AFRO-AMERICAN, APRIL 4, 1959

Young Pianist Talks Of State Department Tours

BY DOROTHY ANN BENJAMIN
Record Staff Writer

Princess Michiko of Japan is very beautiful and very gracious; Malaya has beautiful buildings and delightful movies; Dr. Albert Schweitzer is inspiring; the Dominican Republic is quite a contrast to Haiti and raising cats in a ninth floor New York apartment has its problems.

These are but a few observations of attractive and intense Philippa Schuyler, concert pianist and former child prodigy.

Miss Schuyler, who has made three overseas tours sponsored by the State Department and another tour sponsored by the 33 countries she visited, will make her Carnegie Hall debut May 17 and would like to take off again on her world travels in June.

"I have been invited to go back to Europe for television appearances and engagements on the continent. My mother would like me to rest but I want to go, I like to be in motion."

This is an understatement since Miss Schuyler is in motion even while describing her periods "in motion."

The 25-year-old pianist, who could pass for 16, spent three days with Dr. Schweitzer at his hospital in Lambarene, French Equatorial Africa, and played three performances for him as the first concert artist to visit and play for the famed humanitarian.

"I liked him in every way. At each meal he gave me his own food. They raise some foods there especially for him but it is not enough for everyone and he gave it to me. He works from 6 a.m. to 7 p.m. every day and whenever he is needed at other times. He kissed me on both cheeks when I left," she said.

Her visit with Dr. Schweitzer led Philippa into another interesting adventure. The doctor wrote to Queen Elizabeth of Belgium and told her she must hear the American artist play.

"I did not know he had written her. For 10 days the queen looked for me. Finally, she got in touch with a Belgian newspaperman who knows me well. He wired Amsterdam where I was playing and said I must come to Brussels at once. I went the next day.

"When I arrived at the airport it was 12:30 and I was told I would play for the queen at 3:30. I had only a leather coat that was worn from all its traveling and no pressed clothes. They took me to the home of a writer's wife who ironed my dress, loaned me a bag, gloves and her sable coat. I played three hours for the queen. Each time I finished one composition she asked for another."

Later the queen poured tea for her guest and asked her to pose with her majesty for a picture in the garden. However, Philippa does not think the picture turned out since it was almost dark by that time.

Miss Schuyler's mother is a painter and her father is a distinguished editor but neither are musical. She composed her first outstanding piece of music at the age of four. Before she was nine she played at the New York World Fair and gave two concerts. Her first major appearance was with the Philharmonic Symphony Orchestra in Lewisohn Stadium a month before her 14th birthday.

Her travels have taken her through most of the world—Ghana, Uganda, Ethiopia, Malaya, Japan, England, Holland, Belgium and many, many others.

She feels that the Dominican Republic has been "maligned a lot. It is wonderful for tourists and they don't get gyped. Once while playing a concert there I left my bag with $600 in it in the ladies' room. After my concert I went back and there it was, untouched. It is a well-organized, clean country. It is such a contrast to Haiti, but the Dominican Republic has had peace for quite a long time which Haiti has not. Peace makes a difference."

Miss Schuyler played in Greensboro when she was a very young girl and "many people remembered me." She will play here again Friday night at Bennett College. The program will include the works of Soler, Chopin, Griffes, Mousorgsky.

Since March 21 she has played 10 other American cities and is getting a brief breathing spell at Bennett where she will speak to the students at assembly tomorrow.

She has been doing quite a lot of lectures lately. Last Saturday she appeared on the Monitor radio program, talking about her travels. She has also made a tape recording about her trip which will be broadcast by Boston University over its radio station.

Oriental music interests her and she plans to learn as much more of it as she can since her audiences seem to enjoy it so much.

TO HONOR MRS. SMITH

Mrs. Minnie B. Smith, director of co-curricula activities at Bennett College, will be honored at 9:30 a.m. Sunday as "Mother of the Year" chosen by the student body. The honoring service will be held in David B. Jones Student Union Building.

Christening Rites Slated At Bennett

This Mother's Day will be very special for nine Bennett College graduates. They will witness the christening of their children in Pfeiffer Chapel at the college today.

The Rev. John L. Bryan, director of religious activities, will perform the ceremonies and the Rev. William R. Crawford, pastor of Mount Pleasant Methodist Church, will deliver the address.

ABNEY TO SPEAK

Miss Rudene Abney, of Norristown, Pa., will be the speaker when members of the senior class conduct their annual vesper service at Bennett College on Sunday, May 17.

Miss Abney, after completing her junior year here, enrolled last fall in the law school at American University, Washington, D. C. with which Bennett has a collaborative liberal arts-law program.

Quiet Needed, Says Pastor

"We live in an age of noise and when things become too quiet, we get frightened," the Rev. William R. Crawford of Winston-Salem said at Bennett College yesterday.

The minister, pastor of Mount Pleasant Methodist Church, who last week was re-elected to the city council, spoke after the children of some Bennett graduates and former students were baptized by the Rev. John L. Bryan, director of religious activities, an annual Mother's Day custom at the college.

"Noise is an accepted sign of our generation," the Rev. Mr. Crawford stated, "and we sometimes use it to cover up the realities of life. When things become still, unless we have established a sense of values, we are often lost. Quietness can lead to mass hysteria."

The minister suggested the need for moments of quiet when man can commune with God. Acceptance of the Christian way of life, he said, gives "an inner spirit" which will give direction and meaning to life.

COLLEGE PUBLIC RELATIONS MEET—Howard S. Curtis, left, secretary of Brown University and president of the American College Public Relations Association, chats with college publicity people while attending the annual meeting of the Mason-Dixon District held recently at the fashionable Hotel Greenbriar at White Sulphur Springs, W. Va. Others are Dr. Charles Ray, director of news bureau, North Carolina College, Durham; Mrs. Revella Clay Briscoe, director of publicity, Morgan State College, Baltimore; W. I. Gibson, director of public relations, Bennett College, Greensboro, N.C. and Moses Belton, director of public relations, Johnson C. Smith University, Charlotte, N.C.

THESE FOREIGN STUDENTS from Bennett and A. & T. Colleges will participate in the annual May Day festivities at Bennett College on Saturday, May 2.

$40,570 to Bennett

Announcement of a $40,570 grant to Bennett College by the National Science Foundation for a summer science training program for secondary school students was made recently by President Willa B. Player.

Under the grant, Dr. J. Henry Sayles, head of the science division at the college, will direct a six-week program from June 22 to July 31 for 1959 high-school graduates and 11th and 12th grade students of high ability and special talent in the sciences and mathematics.

Because enrollment must necessarily be limited, interested students should make early application by writing to "Dr. J. Henry Sayles, Director Summer Science Training Program, Bennett College, Greensboro, N. C."

The general objective of the program is to provide high quality instruction in the biological and physical sciences and in mathematics through a program of basic courses in biology, chemistry, physics and mathematics, tutorial conferences, informal discussion and seminars.

Each student accepted will be granted travel expenses, room, board, tuition, fees, books and necessary materials and supplies.

Baltimore appearance to open Bennett Women's choir tour

GREENSBORO, N.C. — The 40-voice woman's choir of Bennett College will make a tour of Eastern cities late in April, Mrs. Mary J. Crawford, director, announced this week.

The tour will begin on April 24 when the group will sing at at the Metropolitan Methodist Church in Baltimore. The following night, the choir will appear at Annapolis, Maryland in a concert to be held in the auditorium of the Bates High School.

• • •

SUNDAY AT 5 p.m., the choir will sing in Jamaica, Memorial Methodist Church and on the following day at 8:30 p.m. at Salem Methodist Church in Harlem.

The tour will end Tuesday night, April 28, at Wilmington, Del. with an appearance at the Ezion Methodist Church under the sponsorship of the Delaware Valley Chapter of the Bennett College Graduate Association.

• • •

THE BENNETT CHOIR, which attained national prominence under the direction of the late Dr. R. Nathaniel Dett, has long been known for its ability to obtain a tonal depth and range usually heard only in male choral groups.

Among numbers on the program will be "A Hymn to Music" by Roy Ringwald; "Sea Moods" by Mildred Tyson; "Miserere in C Minor" by Hasse and two works from Brahams' "Requiem." The group will also feature a number of traditional spirituals and there will be selections by the college quartette.

Last Sunday, the choir was presented in concert at Morehouse College, Atlanta, Ga.

FINAL STUDENT RECITAL HELD

The final student recital in the bi-weekly music appreciation series at Bennett College was given Wednesday in Pfeiffer Chapel.

The college orchestra, directed by Mrs. Jane Heirich, played three selections and the Madrigal Singers, a group of freshmen directed by Edward Lowe, contributed two numbers. Piano soloists were Misses Lola Campbell, of Greensboro, who played "Clare de Lune" and Jamesena Chalmers, of Fayetteville, who played "Deep Purple."

To Christen Bennett Kids

GREENSBORO, — Children of six Bennett College graduates will be christened in Pfeiffer Chapel here on Mother's Day Sunday May 10.

The ceremony will be performed by the Rev. John L. Bryan, director of religious activities, and the Rev. William H. Crawford, pastor of Mt. Pleasant Methodist Church, Winston-Salem, will deliver the address.

Graduates and the children they will present for Christian baptism are:

Mrs. Francis H. Mebane; the former Miss Beulah Whitfield, '45, of Greenville, N. C., a daughter, Grace Mebane; Dr. Lyvonne Washington, the former Miss Lyvonne Mackel, '53, of Winston-Salem, a son, Wilbert, 2d; Mrs. Jerry Woods, the former Miss Juanita Martin, '56, of Winston-Salem, a daughter, Dionna Marie; Mrs. Fred Whitfield, Carolina Peace 5/9/59

SPRING DAZE—Two Bennett College freshmen take advantage of the recent balmy weather to enjoy the beauty of the outdoors on the Greensboro campus. Left to right: Misses Elise Porter, of Spartanburg, S. C. and Myrna Lee, of Liberia, West Africa. Miss Lee is a daughter of American parents who are stationed in the West African Republic and was valedictorian of her class at Prairie View High School in Texas.

Courier 4/25/59

"What One Is Willing To Die For Usually Represents What He Lives For:" Dr. McCoy

GREENSBORO — "What one is willing to die for, will usually represent what one is willing to live," Dr. Pressley McCoy, associate director of the Danforth Foundation of St. Louis, Mo., told Bennett College students here Monday.

Dr. McCoy, who spoke in Pfeiffer Chapel, used "Dead-End Living" as his topic. He pointed out to the students that many persons, with a false sense of values, travel along life's highway completely oblivious of the warning signs along the way and eventually wind up on a dead-end street.

"Knowledge, of itself," he declared, "does not necessarily determine one's philosophy nor does the fact that we know good mean that we will do good."

While on campus, Dr. McCoy had breakfast with members of the college's four-man team which last summer attended the Danforth Workshop at Colorado College. Several other faculty-staff members joined this group for lunch. Dr. McCoy also met informally with student leaders.

Bennett College was recently the recipient of a grant of $25,000 from the Danforth Foundation to be used in strengthening its academic program.

POET AT BENNETT — Sterling A. Brown, right, poet-author, professor of English at Howard University, chats with Miss Anne Hanks, a sophomore, of Westminister, S. C. and Dr. Hobart S. Jarrett, chairman of the Humanities Division during hs visit to Bennett College last week. Mr. Brown was guest lecturer during Humanities Week and spoke on "The Negro in Fine Arts." He also read several of his own poems.

HUMANITIES WEEK OBSEVED AT BENNETT

Two addresses by Dr. Sterling A. Brown, professor of English at Howard University, Washington, D. C., featured the annual Humanities Week observance at Bennett College last week.

Dr. Brokn illustrated his Thursday night address with reading from some of the poems from his book, "Southern Road," among them "Old Lem," "Strong Man" and "Long Gone." On Friday morning he spoke on "The Negro in Fine Arts" theme of this year's observance. Later, he talked informally with student groups and visited a number o fclasses.

On Tuesday night, Bennett College students who won prizes in a poetry contest, read their poems, and other students read from the works of Lagston Hughes, Paul Laurence Dunbar, Margaret Wilker and James Weldon Johnson.

Winner of the poetry contest was Miss Nancy Choi, a senior, of Seul, Korea, with her poem "Faust at Twelve O' Clock." Miss Linda Brown of Akron, Ohio, a sophomore, was second with "Precocious Curiosity." Tied for third place were Misses Louise Pope, senior, of South Pittsburg, Tenn., Shirley Thompson, sophomore, of St. Pauls, N. C., and Theresa Keyes, freshman, of Randallstown, Maryland.

Spring Daze—Two Bennett College freshmen take advantage of the balmy weather to enjoy the beauty of the outdoors on the Greensboro (N. C.) campus. Left to right: Elsie Porter, of Spartanburg, S. C., and Myrna Lee, of Liberia, West Africa. Miss Lee is a daughter of American parents who are stationed in the West African Republic, and was valedictorian of her class at Prairie View High School in Texas. Courier – 5/2/59

DR. BENJAMIN MAYS DELIVERS CLOSING ADDRESS

FO-4/25/59

"One will never find happiness by looking for it; it is a by-product of a useful life," Dr. Benjamin E. Mays said Sunday in his address which marked the close of the annual Youth Days weekend at Bennett College.

Dr. Mays, who is president of Morehouse College, Atlanta, Ga. and president of the United Negro College Fund, addressed his remarks to the Bennett Student body and some 100 higs school seniors who had been guests of the college for the past two days.

Happiness, according to Dr. Mays, comes from toil, struggle and firmly accomplishment. "I doubt that Moses was a happy man," he declared, "but that ant thing is that he led the was not important. The importchildren of Israel out of bondage. I doubt that Jesus was happy, but He brought salvation to all mankind."

Dr. Mays gave a recipe for happiness, namely a job well done, a life nobly lived and the identity of self with all mankind. The happy man, he believes, is the one who can say: "I fought a good fight, I kept the faith.'

He urged th eyouth to make good use of their time because "some things have to be done at a certain tim eor they'll never be done." He urged them to build strong foundations to aspire to lofty things.

PHILIPPA SCHUYLER
Outstanding Young Pianist
In Recital
at
BENNETT COLLEGE
Friday, May 8
8 P.M.
Admission: $1.50 Student Tickets 75c

Bennett Executive Committee Approves of $733,725 For 1959-60 Budget

Approval of an operating budget of $733,725 for 1959-60 was voted by members of the executive committee of the Bennett College board of trustees meeting in New York City Wednesday.

Th meeting was held in the headquarters of the Phelps-Stokes Fund and was presided over by Dr. Frederick D. Patterson, who in addition to being executive director of the fund, is also chairman of the Bennett board.

The new budget represents an increase of $68,000 over the one adopted for the current year and much of the increase will go into strengthening the faculty and the college library, President Willa B. Player pointed out.

Mrs. J. G. Meidenbauer, of Buffalo, N. Y., treasurer, reported that as of March 31 gifts and grants to Bennett totaled $102,000. C. Everett Bacon, of New York City, reported for the investment committee, Mrs. Julius W. Cone, of Greensboro, reported for the building and grounds committee, and Dr. J. A. Tarpley, of Greensboro, reported on instruction.

Dr. Player, who made an interim report, was authorized to revise the college's statement on tenure, including a revised faculty salary scale to be presented to the full board at its October meeting.

MAY DAY THEME (AROUND THE WORLD IN 80 MINUTES AT BENNETT)

"Around the World in 80 Minutes" was the theme of the annual May Day program given by the physical education department at Bennett College here Saturday, May 2 at 2 p. m.

Following the coronation of Miss Ruth Hawkins of Louisburg as May Queen by President Willa B. Player, there was a 17-number program featuring the dances of many lands, stunts, games and tumbling.

Miss Helen McEachern, of Rowland, N. C., was maid of honor. Other members of the queen's court were: Misses LaVonne Barbour and Edna Jackson, seniors; Hattie Green and Mary Musgrave, juniors; LaRita Waters and Joyce Jordan, sophomores, and Sandra Scott and Katie Neeley, freshmen.

Following the "Parade of Countries" in which 12 male Liberian students at A&T College took part, there was the traditional wrapping of the May Pole. Program numbers were representative of India, Egypt, England, Germany, Russa, Argentina, Ireland, Japan, Cuba and France.

DR. EMORY ROSS SPEAKS AT BENNETT

"There is no power anywhere that exceeds that of the Christian religion," declared Dr. Emory Ross of New York City in his vesper address at Bennett College Sunday.

Dr. Ross, who is consultant for the Board of Fundamental Education, spoke of the impact that religion has had and is having on the African continent, adding that "nowhere have so many

BENNETT MAY QUEEN---Miss Ruth Hawkins, a senior of Louisburg, N. C., who will reign as queen over the annual May Day festivities at Bennett College on Saturday, May 2.

President Willa Player Speaks At Bennett

Bennett College seniors Friday were urged by President Willa B. Player to take a stand against the wave of anti-intellectualism which America has been experiencing.

The challenge was a part of her Senior Day adress to the clas of 1959 after they had received their academic caps and gown from their sophomore "sitsers" in a traditional ceremony in Pfeiffer Chapel.

Pointing to the advance of science which has revolutionized the art of war and to the era of prosperity which this nation has enjoyed as two main reasons for the presence of anti intellectualism in our society, Dr. Player said:

"Just when we are getting ready to settle down for a happy existence, Russia looms on the horizon bringing new threats and fears to all of us. So we must relinquish our dreams of a future of easy happiness and buckle down to the hard task of stretching our minds to the hilt to keep pace with a country even though it maintains an ideology to which we do not subscribe."

Dr. Player urged the seniors to become responsible citizens, eager to become involved in seeking solutions to community and world problems and committed to their convictions.

Announcement of the 10 ranking seniors, made by Dr. C. G. Winston revealed that Miss Josephine Raiford, of Greensboro, is presently leading her class, with a 2.82 average out of a possible 3.00, followed closely by Misses Jamesena Chambers, 2.76, Queen Esther Murphy, 2.69, both of Fayetteville.

The remaining seven, in decending order are: Misses Jane Williams, 2.59, Winston-Salem; Inez Jones, 2.58, Lenoir; Nannie Pool, 2.56, Baltimore, Md.; Eleanor Fields, 2.54, Richmond, Va.; Barbara Campbell, 2.48, Breensboro; Carolyn Martin, 2.6, Durham; and Veronica Dean, 2.43, Miami, Fla.

Following the chapel program, the seniors planted a magnolia tree in honor of C. Everett Bacon, a members of the college trustee board. The dedication statement was made by Miss Dequincey Johnson, Lenoir

Later the seniors were guests at a banquet which was followed by a dance.

SPRING DAZE---Two Bennett College freshmen take advantage of the recent balmy weather to enjoy the beauty of the outdoors on the Greensboro, N. C. campus. Left to right: Misses Elsie Porter, of Spartanburg, S. C. and Myrna Lee, of Liberia, West Africa. Miss Lee is a daughter of American parents who are stationed in the West African Republic and was valedictorian of her class at Prairie View High School in Texas.

Girls Visit Bennett For Weekend

Ftg 5/9/59

GREENSBORO, N. C. Nearly 100 high school senior girls and their advisors from some 40 communities in North Carolina, South Carolina and Virginia spent the weekend attending the annual Youth Days program at Bennett College.

In addition to classroom and laboratory visitations, the students attended vocational interest group sessions and a number of social and recreational activities planned for them, including a tour of Greensboro.

THEY ALSO heard an address by Dr. Benjamin E. Mays, president of Morehouse College, Atlanta, Ga., before leaving for their homes.

"One will never find happiness by looking for it; it is a by-product of a useful life," Dr. Mays said in his address which marked the close of the annual Youth Days weekend.

Dr. Mays, who is also president of the United Negro College Fund, addressed his remarks to the Bennett Student body and the high school seniors.

HAPPINESS, according to Dr. Mays, comes from toil, struggle and finally accomplishment. "I doubt that Moses was a happy man," he declared, "but that was not important. The important thing is that he led the children of Israel out of bondage. I doubt that Jesus was happy, but He brought salvation to all mankind."

Dr. Mays gave a recipe for happiness, namely a job well done, a life nobly lived and the identity of self with all mankind. The happy man, he believes, is the one who can say: "I fought a good fight, I kept the faith."

HE URGED the youth to make good use of their time because "some things have to be done at a certain time or they'll never be done." He urged them to build strong foundations to aspire to lofty things.

Receives Grant

Miss Serena Staggers, a social science instructor in the high school department of Voorhees School and Junior College, Denmark College, S. C., received a grant from the American Missions Association of the Congregational Christian Church, to attend the Race Relations Institute at Fisk University from June 29 to July 11.

Miss Staggers, a graduate of Bennett College, Greensboro and Atlanta University, Ga., taught at Mather Academy, Camden, S. C., and Bennett College. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Staggers of Kingstree, S. C.

BENNETT COLLEGE

GREENSBORO, N.C. — An exhibition of photographs by the late Swiss photographer, Werner Bischof went on display at Beanett College in the Fine Arts Building Monday and will remain on view through April 1. The exhibit is on loan from Magnum Photos, Inc., of NYC.

Miss Elizabeth Shoffner
(Plans summer wedding)

And then there's charming Mary Elizabeth Shoffner of Greensboro, N.C. (she's the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lacy Shoffner) and Frederick Tanner Anderson have planned a summer wedding.

The bride-elect is a senior elementary education major at Bennett College, Greensboro, where she is a member of Alpha Kappa Mu Honor Society. Mr. Anderson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Tanner of Greensboro and Baltimore, is a senior English and speech major at Morgan State College, Baltimore.

He has been selected to represent Morgan in "Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges" for the past two years, is editor-in-chief of the 1959 Promethean (college yearbook) and an active member of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity.

Mr. Anderson is to be commissioned an Army officer in July.

Their wedding will take place in the Bennett College Chapel in Greensboro on August 30, climaxing an eight-year courtship.

BENNETT COLLEGE

GREENSBORO, N.C. — Dr. Allan Knight Chalmers of Boston will give the closing address when Bennett College ends its 33rd annual Homemaking Institute Sunday at 4 p.m. Dr. Chalmers is professor of preaching and applied Christianity at Boston University.

HERE'S HOW IT IS DONE — Miss Geraldine McDade, a commercial education senior, of Efland, demonstrates use of the electric typewriter as five high school seniors, who attended the Bennett College Youth Day's program last week, look on. Left to right: Misses Ozzietta Thompson, of West Charlotte High School, Charlotte; Dorothy Worthy, also of West Charlotte High and Nancy Helms, of Carver High School, Fieldale, Va.

CHILDREN TO BE CHRISTENED AT BENNETT MOTHERS DAY

Children of six Bennett College graduates will be christened in Pfeiffer Chapel here on Mother's Day, Sunday, May 10.

The ceremony will be performed by the Rev. John L. Bryan, director of religious activities, and the Rev. William R. Crawford, pastor of Mt. Pleasant Methodist Church, Winston-Salem, will deliver the address.

Graduates and the children they will present for Christian baptism are:

Mrs. Francis H. Mebane, the former Miss Beulah Whitfield, '45, of Greenville, N.C., a daughter, Grace Mebane; Dr. Lyvonne Washington, the former Miss Lyvonne Mackel, '53, of Winston-Salem, a son, Wilbert, 2d; Mrs. Jerry Woods, the former Miss Juanita Martin, '56, of Winston-Salem, a daughter, Dionna Marie; Mrs. Fred Whitfield, the former Miss Janol L. Corry, '53, of Greensboro, a son, Fred Alan; Mrs. Richard H. Noble, the former Miss Barbara Smith, '53, of Burlington, N. C., a son, Michael Terhan, and Mrs. James C. McLear, the former Miss Hazel L. Frances, '54, of Laurinburg, N. C., a son, James Colon, 2d.

Children To Be Christened

Ftg 5/9/59

Children of six Bennett College graduates will be christened in Pfeiffer Chapel here on Mother's Day, Sunday, May 10.

The ceremony will be performed by the Rev. John L. Bryan, director of religious activities, and the Rev. William R. Crawford, pastor of Mt. Pleasant Methodist Church, Winston-Salem, will deliver the address.

Graduates and the children they will present for baptism are:

Mrs. Francis H. Mebane, the former Miss Beulah Whitfield, '45, of Greenville, N. C., a daughter, Grace Mebane; Dr. Lyvonne Washington, the former Miss Lyvonne Mackel, '53, of Winston-Salem, a son, Wilbert, 2d; Mrs. Jerry Woods, the former Miss Juanita Martin, '56, of Winston-Salem, a daughter, Dionna Marie; Mrs. Fred Whitfield, the former Miss Janol L. Corry, '53, of Greensboro, a son, Fred Alan; Mrs. Richard H. Noble, the former Miss Barbara Smith, '53, of Burlington, N. C., a son, Michael Terhan, and Mrs. James C. McLean, the former Miss Hazel L. Frances, '54, of Laurinburg, N. C., a son, James Colon, 2d.

Bennett Brides-To-Be Showered Ftg 5/9/59

Members of Omicron Eta Chi, home economics organization, gave a surprise shower recently for Misses Anece Faison (standing left center) of Dudley, N. C. and Ruby Starks, of Troutman, N. C., both graduating seniors who have wedding dates this summer.

Ready To Trip The Light Fantastic

FIVE MEMBERS of the modern dance group at Bennett College, Greensboro, N. C., rehearse number which they'll perform as part of annual May Day celebration May 2. From left are Peggie Alexander, Fort Pierce, Fla.; Charletta Pickering, Sumter, S. C.; Helena Howell, Concord N. C.; Elishama Madison, Miami, Fla.; and Raemi Lancaster, Salisbury, N. C.

NAACP AT BENNETT---Officers of the Bennett College student chapter of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People beam happily as Kelly Alexander, of Charlotte, NAACP state president, presents charter to Miss Ann Hanks, of Westminster, S.C., president of the group. Looking on, left to right are Misses Dolores Finger, Hickory, N. C.; Roslyn Smith, Princeton, W. Va.; Von Moore, Norfolk, Va.; Priscilla Rogers, Philadelphia, Penn., and Gwendolyn Mackel, Chicago, Ill.

Bennett College Highlights Home Values

IT'S SEW SIMPLE---Miss Doris Best, Bennett College sophomore, of Goldsboro, N. C., displays child's jumper and overblouse which she made for the recent clothing exhibit which was a highlight of the 33rd annual Homemaking Institute at the Greensboro, N. C. institution.

High School Senior Youth Day Held At Bennett College

Nearly 100 high school senior girls and their advisors from some 40 communities in North Carolina, South Carolina and Virginia spent the weekend attending the annual Youth Days program at Bennett College.

In addition to classroom and labratory visitations, the students attended vocational interest group sessions and a number of social and recreational activities planned for them, including a tour of Greensboro.

They also heard an address by Dr. Benjamin E. Mays, president of Morehouse College, Atlanta, Ga., before leaving for their homes.

The complete registration list follows:

North Carolina

Asheville, Allen High: Bonita Davis; Advisor, Mrs. L. D. Burton.

Brown Summit - Brown Summit High: Mary Vanstory and Martha Tatum.

Burlington - Jordan Sellars High: Elaine Griffis and Margaret Enoch.

Charlotte - West Charlotte Hgh: Ozzietta Thompson, Dorothy Worthy, Advisor: Miss Marian Williams.

Concord - Logan High: Delores Parks, Blanche Thompson; Advisor, Mrs. E. M. Polk.

Goldsboro - Central High: Argie Atkinson; Advisor, Mrs. Theresa Ware.

Goldston - J. S. Waters High: Ann Goldston, Gerlene Brower; Advisor, Mrs. T. G. Turner.

Graham - Graham High: Elsie White, Shirley Foust, Sandra Fuller: Advisor; Mrs. Margie Cowan and Mrs. Madeline Best.

Greensboro - Dudley High: Elizabeth Napper, Mary Manigault, Phyllis Brown, Thelma Spruill, Mary Herbin and Ann Florence.

Hertford - Perquimans Co. Union High: Barbara Chesson.

High Point - William Penn High: Sarah Beatty and Gloria Leach.

Kinston - Adkin High: Bertha Kornegay and Marva Boone.

Lagrange - Central High: Margie Bowen.

Landis - Aggrey Memorial: Mildred Truesdale, Cathy Rivers; Advisor, Mrs. Lois Partee.

Liberty - Randolph High: Roxie Brady and Jewel Letterbough.

Mooresville - Dunbar High: Shirley White and Nancy Miller.

Monroe - Winchester High: Lossie Alsbrooks and Carolyn Evans.

Morganton - Olive Hill High: Betty Thomas and Vera McKesson.

Sanford - W. B. Wicker School: Alma McDonald, Constance McCants; Advisor, Miss Virginia Rush.

Siler City - Chatham High: Sandra Kelly.

Statesville - Unity High: Cecelia Dalton, Dorothy Johnson, and Catherine Bailey.

Summerfield - Laughlin High: Barbara Scales, Betty Morehead, Louise Ogburn, Barbara Ogburn and Eleanor Smith.

Troy - Peabody High: Blanche Bruton, Ann Cagle; Advisor, Mrs. Mamie Anderson.

Wilkesboro - Lincoln Heights High: Patricia Campbell, Flossie Foxx and Patricia Harris.

Wilson - Darden High: LaForest Williams, Germain Wright, Speight High: Sylvia Walker and Dorothy Sharp.

Winston-Salem - Atkins High: Rosetta Jackson, Phyllis Goodson; Advisor, Mrs. Birdie Vaughn. Carver High: Lillie Brown, Betty Anderson; Advisor, Mrs. V. J. Mc...eal.

Wise - Warren Co. Training School: Jean Walker, Doris Perry; Advisor, Mrs. Rachel Taylor.

Yanceyville - Caswell Co. Training School: Gladys Graves, Ardeva Poole; Advisor Mrs. V. A. Dix.

South Carolina

Camden - Mather Academy: Gaynell Cooper, Connie Jamison; Advisor, Miss P. L. Ewings.

Easley - Clear View High: Sara Cannon, Gay Greene; Advisor, Miss R. B. Goodwin.

Florence - Wilson High: Carol Felton, Eula Robinson; Advisor, Mrs. Eloise Hopson.

Greenville - Sterling High: Mae Burke.

Sumter - Lincoln High: Peggie Swinton, Gloria Montgomery, Velda Pleasant; Advisor, Mrs. Fannie Ivy.

Virginia

Amonate - Excelsior High: Lorraine Ramsey and Bobbie Brown.

Fieldale - Carver High: Shirley Copening, Nancy Helms, Cleatrice Washington; Advisor, Miss Ada Via.

Hampton - Phenix High: Roberta Jones.

Lynchburg - Dunbar High: Ann Jordan, Lucille Withers, Margurite Anderson, Joyce Johnson; Advisor, J. S. Ferguson.

FOREIGN HOME ECONOMISTS VISIT BENNETT---Six home economic and vocational teachers from five foreign countries are shown with three of the Bennett College students who served as their guides during their visit to the campus in Greensboro, N. C. Left to right, front row: Misses Eeva Crano, Finland; Wan Nor Shaikh Daud, Singapore; Hal Uzsoy, Turkey; back row: Misses Liisa Wartiovaara, Finland; Halldora A. Eggertsdottir, Iceland and Lilliane E. Abeloos, Belgian. Student guide at extreme left is Miss Barbara Freeman, of Lawrenceville, Va. and at right are Misses Rubbie Starks, of Troutman, N. C. and LaRita Waters, of Jacksonville, Fla.

BENNETT PANEL---Members of panel which discussed "Women in Careers and in the Home" during session of 33rd annual Homemaking Institute at Bennett College, Greensboro, N. C. Left to right: Mrs. Lillian Snipes, local beauty shop owner, who discussed opportunities for women in business; Mrs. Saran Herbin, of the American Friends Service Committee who discussed opportunities in community service; Dr. Lyvonne M. Washington, of Winston-Salem, who spoke on opportunities in dentistry and medicine; Mrs. Alice Dunnigan, of Washington, bureau chief of the Associated Negro Press, who told of opportunities in journalism and government service and F. L. Grandison, chief of counseling services at Bennett, who discussed family life.

OMICRON ETA CHI MEMBERS HOLD MASQUERADE PARTY

Members of Omicron Eta Chi, home economics club at Bennett College, will be hostess for their first annual Masquerade Party to be held Saturday night, April 25, in the dance area of the David Jones Student Union.

Bennett Home Economics Club Acts As Host

GREENSBORO — Members of Omicron Eta Chi, home economics club at Bennett College, will be hostesses for their first annual Masquerade Party to be held Saturday night, April 25, in the dance area of the David D. Jones Student Union.

HOME TOWN TALK---Mrs. William T. Mason (second from left) public relations consultant of Norfolk, Va. chats with two Norfolk students following her address at the Homemaking Institute at Bennett College. Left to right: Misses Von Moore, sophomore; Floria McCabe, freshman and Mrs. Louise C. Streat, chairman of this year's institute.

HANDY WITH A NEEDLE---Miss Dolores Snellings, Bennett College junior, of Raleigh, N. C., displays cabana set and bathrobe which she made for the recent clothing exhibit which was a highlight of the 33rd annual Homemaking Institute at the Greensboro, N. C. institution.

FUTURE HOME ECONOMISTS---A panel discussion of "Current Trends in Home Economics and Home Economics Research" was featured in a meeting sponsored by Omicron Eta Chi of Bennett College to which representatives from A & T College and Woman's College, both in Greensboro, were invited. Left to right: Misses Ruby Starks, Bennett College; Yvonne Lake, A & T College; Pat Martin, Woman's College; Theresa Kearney, Bennett College; Mary Adams, A & T College and Martha Freeman, Woman's College.

Senior Music Recital Set At Bennett

GREENSBORO—Dates for recitals by senior music students at Bennett College were announced this week by Mrs. Nina Kudrik, of the college's music faculty.

A joint recital will be presented on Sunday, May 3 by Misses Doris Wyche, soprano, of New Canaan, Conn., and Helen McEachern, pianist, of Rowland, N. C. On Sunday, May 10, Misses Jamesena Chalmers of Fayetteville and Robina Whitted of Hillsboro, will be presented in a joint piano recital.

Miss Diamia Croslin, soprano, of Charlotte, will be heard on Sunday, May 17 and the final program in the series will be given by Miss Gladys Ann Shivers, mezzo-soprano, of Aberdeen, Miss., on Sunday, May 24.

EXHIBIT SET

An exhibit of paintings, sculpture, works in ceramics, wood and copper by Bennett College students will be on display at the fine arts building of the school through June 1.

Trustee Board Of College In Annual Confab

GREENSBORO — Members of the executive committee of the Bennett College board of trustees will hold their annual meeting in New York City on April 22, President Willa B. Player announced this week.

Top items on the agenda include action upon the college's operating budget for the 1959-60 school year and the interim report to be made by President Player. Dr. Frederick D. Patterson, board chairman, will preside.

DR. SHANG-LING FU SPEAKS AT BENNETT

The contributions which China has made to world civilization were recounted for Bennett College students here Monday by Dr. Shang-Ling Fu, sociology instructor.

Dr. Fu, who joined the faculty at the beginning of the second semester last February, said that if America followed the Chinese system of family life it might help greatly with the problem of juvenile delinquency in this country.

He traced contributions which China has made to the world in economics, politics, religion, ethics, education and philosophy.

BENNETT BASSINET---Miss Margirie S. Wilson, Bennett College junior, of Clinton, N. C., stands beside bassinet which she designed and constructed for the recent home economics exhibit which was a part of the 33rd annual Homemaking Institute in Greensboro, N. C.

It's Around The World In 80 Minutes

FOREIGN STUDENTS from Bennett college, Greensboro, N. C., (an all-girls school) are joined by foreign male students from neighboring A & T college who will take part in the annual May Day festivities at Bennett Saturday, May 2. The theme of this year's observance is "Around the World In 80 Minutes."

To Reign As Bennett May Queen

BENNETT MAY QUEEN—Miss Ruth Hawkins, a senior of Louisburg, N.C., who will reign as queen over the annual May Day festivities at Bennett College on Saturday, May 2.

At Bennett College
Spring Concert Is Friday

The annual spring concert by the freshman choir at Bennett College will be presented on Friday at 8 p.m. in Pfeiffer Chapel.

The 44-voice group, directed by Edward Lowe, will sing numbers dating from the 16th century to the present. Included will be "Crucifixus" from Bach's "Mass in B Minor"; Mendelssohn's "Hear My Prayer;" "Requiescat" by William Schuman and "Hallelujah, Amen" from "Judas Maccabaeus" by Handel. The choir will also sing a group of spirituals, among them "Listen to the Lambs" by Nathaniel Dett and "My Way's Cloudy," arranged by Harry T. Burleigh.

Soloists will be Ruth Dobson, Sandra Downing, Janet Edwards, Shirley Hawkins and Zelma Wright. An added feature will be the performance of the Madrigal Singers, a group of 12, which will sing five numbers, among them "Sing We and Chant It" by Thomas Norley and "How Merrily We Live" by Michael Este, both 16th century composers.

Bennett Trustees Approve Budget

Bennett College trustees approved an operating budget of $733,725 for 1959-60 at a meeting in New York City yesterday. This is an increase of $66,310 over the budget for the current year.

Dr. Willa B. Player, Bennett president, said most of the increase will be used for faculty salaries and to improve the college library.

Mrs. J. G. Meidenbauer of Buffalo, N.Y., treasurer, reported that gifts and grants to Bennett during the first nine months of the current fiscal year amounted to $102,000.

100 coeds visit Bennett campus

GREENSBORO, N.C. — Some 100 high school senior girls and their advisors from some 40 communities in North Carolina, South Carolina and Virginia spent the weekend attending the annual Youth Days program at Bennett College.

In addition to classroom and laboratory visitations, the pupils attended vocational interest group sessions and a number of social and recreational activities planned for them, including a tour of Greensboro.

They also heard an address by Dr. Benjamin E. Mays, president of Morehouse College, Atlanta, leaving [illegible]

13Th [illegible]
C[illegible]
NORTH CAROLINA
MADEVILLE
3201 [illegible]
CAMP[illegible]
[illegible] Elaine Griffis and [illegible] advisor, Miss
Dorothy Wo[illegible] advisor, Miss Marian Williams;
CONCORD — Logan High:
Delores Parks, Blanche
Thompson; advisor, Mrs. E. M.
Polk;
GOLDSBORO—Central High:
Argie Atkinson; advisor, Mrs.
Thelma Ware;
GOLDSTON — J. S. Waters
High: [illegible] Goldston, Gerlean
Brame; advisor, Mrs. T. G.
Turner;
GRAHAM — Graham High:
Elsie Young, Shirley Foust,
Sandra Pollard; advisor, Mrs.
Margie Cowan and Mrs. Madeline Best;

GREENSBORO — Dudley
High: Elizabeth Napper, Mary
Thelma Sorrell, Mary Herbin and Annie Florance;
HERTFORD — Perquimans
Co. Union High: Barbara Chesson;
HIGH POINT—William Penn
High: Sarah Beatty and Gloria Leach;
KINSTON — Adkins High:
Bertha Kornegay and Marva
Boone;
Barbara Ogburn and Eelanor
Margie Bowden;
LANDIS—Aggrey Memorial:
Mildred Tatesdale, Cathy Rivers; advisor, Mrs. Lois Partee;
LIBERTY — Randolph High:
Roxie Brady and Jewell Letterbough;
MOORESVILLE — Dunbar High: Shirley White and Nancy
Miller;
MONROE—Winchester High:
Lossie Alsbrooks and Carolyn
Evans;
MORGANTON — Olive Hill
High: Betty Thomas and Vera
McKesson;
SANFORD — W. B. Wicker
School: Alma McDonald, Constance McCants; advisor, Miss Virginia Rush;
SILER CITY — Chatham
High: Sandra Kelly;
STATESVILLE—Unity High:
Cecelia Dalton, Dorothy Johnson, and Catherine Bailey;

SUMMERFIELD — Laughlin High: Barbara Scales, Betty Morehead, Louis Ogburn, Barbara Ogburn and Eleanor Smith;
TROY — Peabody High:
Blanche Bruton, Ann Cagle;
[illegible] advisor, Mrs. Mamie Anderson;
WILKESBORO—Lincoln Heights High: Patricia Campbell, Flossie Foxx and Patricia Harris;
WILSON—Darden High: LaForest Williams, Germain Wright; Speight High: Sylvia Walker and Dorothy Sharp;
WINSTON-SALEM — Atkins High: Rosetta Jackson, Phyllis Goodson; advisor, Mrs. Birdie Vaughn; Carver High: Lillie Brown, Betty Anderson; advisor, Mrs. V. J. McNeal;
WISE—Warren County Training School: Jean Walker, Doris Perry; advisor, Mrs. Rachel Taylor;
YANCEYVILLE — Caswell County Training School: Gladys Graves, Ardeva Poole; advisor, Mrs. V. A. Dix;

SOUTH CAROLINA
CAMDEN — Mather Academy: Gaynell Cooper, Connie Cooper, Connie Jamison; advisor, Miss P. L. Ewings;
EASLEY—Clear View High: Sara Cannon, Gay Greene; advisor, Miss R. B. Goodwin;
FLORENCE — Wilson High: Carol Felton, Eula Robinson; advisor, Mrs. Elise Hopson;
GREENVILLE — Sterling High: Mae Burke;
SUMTER — Lincoln High: Peggie Swinton, Gloria Montgomery, Velda Pleasant; advisor, Mrs. Fannie Ivey

VIRGINIA
AMONATE—Excelsior High: Lorraine Ramsey and Bobbie Brown;
FIELDALE — Carver High: Shirley Copening, Nancy Helms, Cleatrice Washington; advisor, Miss Ada Via;
HAMPTON — Phenix High: Roberta Jones;
LYNCHBURG — Dunbar High: Ann Jordan, Lucille Withers, Marguerite Anderson, Joyce Johnson; advisor, J. S. Ferguson.

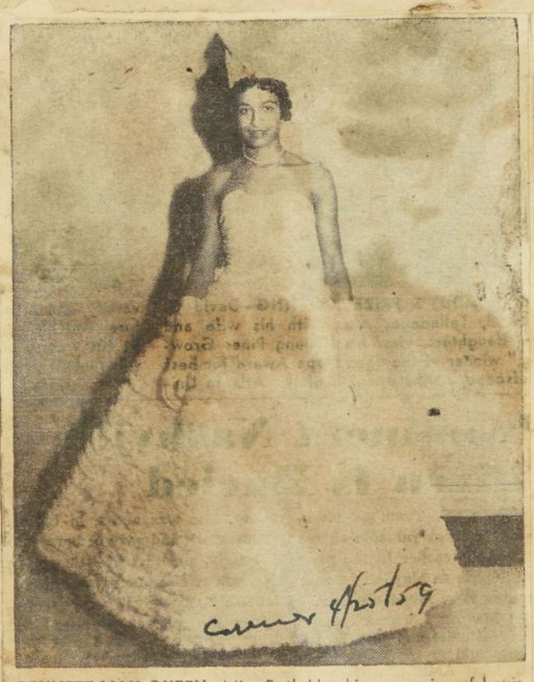

International May Day Set At Bennett

"Around the World In 80 Minutes," is theme of the annual May Day program to be given by the physical education department at Bennett College here tomorrow at 2 p.m.

Following the coronation of Ruth Hawkins of Louisburg as May Queen by President Willa B. Player, there will be a 17-number program featuring the dances of many lands, stunts, games and tumbling.

Helen McEachern of Rowland will be maid of honor. Other members of the queen's court will be: LaVonne Barbour and Edna Jackson, seniors; Hattie Green and Mary Musgrave, juniors; LaRita Waters and Joyce Jordan, sophomores, and Sandra Scott and Katie Neeley, freshmen.

Following the "Parade of Countries" in which 12 male Liberian students at A&T College will take part, there will be the traditional wrapping of the May Pole. Program numbers will be representative of India, Egypt, England, Germany, Russia, Argentina, Ireland, Japan, Cuba and France.

BENNETT MAY QUEEN—Miss Ruth Hawkins, a senior of Louisburg, N. C., will reign as queen over the annual May Day festivities at Bennett College on Saturday, May 2.

Recitals Held At Bennett College

Greensboro, N. C. — Dates for recitals by senior music students at Bennett College were announced this week by Mrs. Nina Kudrik, of the college's music faculty.

A joint recital will be presented on Sunday, May 3, by Misses Doris Wyche, soprano, of New Canaan, Conn., and Helen McEachern, pianist, of Rowland, N. C. On Sunday, May 10, Misses Jamesena Chalmers of Fayetteville and Robina Whitted of Hillsboro, will be presented in a joint piano recital.

Miss Diana Croslin, soprano, of Charlotte, will be heard on Sunday, May 17, and the final program in the series will be given by Miss Lady Ann Shivers, mezzo-soprano, of Aberdeen, Miss., on Sunday, May 24.

Violinist In Recital At Bennett

GREENSBORO — Kemper Harreld, violinist, of Detroit, Michigan, played an eight-number program at Bennett College Sunday afternoon. Bennett College Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Harreld, who recently retired as a member of the faculty of Morehouse College, Atlanta, Georgia, included works from Handel, Schumann, Schubert, Mendelssohn and Heifetz. He was particularly effective in Mendelssohn's "Concerto in E. Minor" and Schubert's familiar "Ave Maria."

Mrs. Nina Kudrik, of the Bennett faculty, gave the artist unobtrusive but effective support at the piano.

BENNETT COLLEGE BOARD OF TRUSTEES TO MEET

Members of the executive committee of the Bennett College board of trustees will hold their annual meeting in New York City on April 22, President Willa B. Player announced this week.

Top items on the agenda include action upon the College's operating budget for the 1959-60 school year and the interim report to be made by President Player. Dr. Frederick D. Patterson, board chairman, will preside.

"Negro In Fine Arts" Humanities Wk. Theme

GREENSBORO — "The Negro in the Fine Arts" is the theme of the annual Humanities Week observance at Bennett College which began on Tuesday and will end on Friday.

Guest artist is Dr. Sterling A. Brown, associate professor of English at Howard University, who is scheduled to lecture and read from his poetry on Thursday night in the David D. Jones Student Union. Aalso on the program will be selections by the freshman choir, directed by Edward Lowe and several numbers by a modern dance group under the direction of Mrs. Dolly Turner.

Dr. Brown, who has contributed poetry, reviews and essays to numerous publications, is the author of a number of books, among them "Southern Road" and "Negro Poetry and Drama." A native of Washington, he has also taught at Fisk, Atlanta and New York Universities.

Emphasis upon the music of Negro composers was scheduled to feature the mid-week vesper program Wednesday night, with the choral ensemble of A & T College as guests. A poetry reading session was held on Tuesday night, highlighting original compositions by members of the Bennett student body and faculty.

On Friday, Dr. Brown will meet with several groups of students to discuss with them various problems of writing. Dr. Hobart S. Jarrett is chairman of the humanities division and Mrs. Blanche Raiford is chairman of this year's observance.

Spring Concert Nex. Week At Bennett College

GREENSBORO — The annual spring concert by the freshman choir at Bennett College will be presented on April 24 at 8 p. m. in Pfeiffer Chapel.

The 44-voice group, directed by Edward Lowe, will sing numbers dating from the 16th century to the present. Included will be B Minor;" Mendelssohn's "Hear My Prayer;" "Requiescat" by William Schuman and "Hallelujah, Amen" from "Judas Maccabaeus" by Handel. The choir will also sing a group of spirituals, among them "Listen to the Lambs" by Nathaniel Dett and "My Way's Cloudy," arranged by Harry T. Burleigh.

Soloists will be Misses Ruth Dobson, Sandra Downing, Janet Edwards, Shirley Hawkins and Zelma Wright. An added feature will be the performance of the Madrigal Singers, a group of 12.

REV. L. SCOTT ALLEN BENNETT VESPER SPEAKER

The Rev. L. Scott Allen, of New Orleans, La., editor of the Central Christian Advocate (Methodist), will be the vesper speaker at Bennett College on Sunday, May 3.

Player to Open Area UNCF Drive

Dr. Willa B. Player, president of Bennett College in Greensboro, will be the featured speaker when the Inter-Fraternal Council's kick-off dinner for the Durham chapter of the United Negro College Fund is held at the Algonquin Club on Thursday, April 30, inaugurating the Fund's 1959 drive in the Durham area.

Dr. Player's appearance in Durham will come during the nation-wide campaign of UNCF chapters to raise funds for the 32 UNCF colleges, all of which are privately managed institutions. Five UNCF colleges—Livingstone of Salisbury, Shaw University and Saint Augustine's College of Raleigh, Johnson C. Smith University of Charlotte, and Bennett—are North Carolina colleges.

Chairman of the drive for the Durham chapter this year is D. G. Sampson, professor of law and member of the faculty of the Law School at North Carolina College at Durham.

DR. EMORY ROSS TO SPEAK

Dr. Emory Ross, consultant of the Board of Fundamental Education, New York City, will speak at the 4:00 p. m. vesper service at Bennett College on Sunday, April 26.

Danforth Exec Explores Moral Values in Talk

GREENSBORO — What one is willing to die for will usually represent what one is willing to live for, Dr. Pressley McCoy, associate director of the Danforth Foundation of St. Louis, Mo., told Bennett College students here Monday.

Dr. McCoy, who spoke in Pfeiffer Chapel, used "Dead-End Living" as his topic. He pointed out to the students that many persons, with a false sense of values, travel along life's highway completely oblivious of the warning signs along the way and eventually wind up on a dead-end street.

"Knowledge, of itself," he declarded, "does not necessarily determine one's philosophy nor does the fact that we know good mean that we will do good."

While on campus, Dr. McCoy had breakfast with members of the college's four-man team which last summer attended the Danforth Workshop at Colorado College. Several other faculty-staff members joined this group for the Dr. McCoy also met informally with student leaders.

Bennett College was recently a recipient of a grant of $25,000 from the Danforth Foundation to be used in strengthening its academic program.

BENNETT COLLEGE

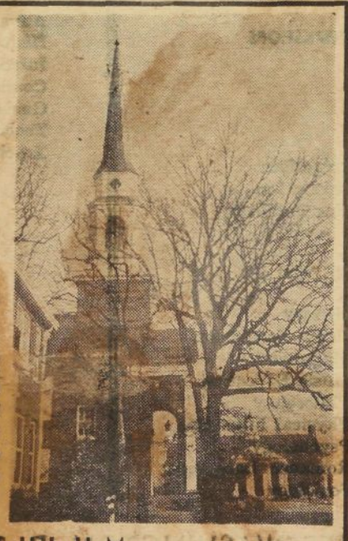

A distinctive college for women

Greensboro, N. C.

A four-year accredited Class "A" Liberal Arts College

Holding full membership in the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools.

Exceptionally well qualified to prepare serious-minded students for intelligent living and useful careers.

CURRICULUM

The Humanities . . . The Sciences (Biology, Chemistry, Mathematics) . . . The Social Sciences

Outstanding offerings include studies in the theatre arts, library science, secretarial science, medical secretarial and laboratory technology, teacher education, physical education, psychology, nursery school education, art, clothing and sociology.

Unique programs in pre-medical education, home economics

Bennett College stresses high standards of character, morality, scholarship and individualized instruction enables each student to make maximum use of her abilities and special talents.

For additional information, write:

DIRECTOR OF ADMISSIONS, BENNETT COLLEGE, GREENSBORO, N. C.

Opening Date for Fall Semester, Sept. 9, 1959

Physics Class At Bennett

Members of a Bennett College physics class conduct experiment in calibration of a voltmeter with a potentiometer. Instructor is Roy Lee. Miss Gretchen Hall, exchange student from Mount Holyoke (Mass.) College, is shown in left foreground.

Sciences And Spiritual Values Stressed At Bennett

GREENSBORO, N. C. — Although Bennett College continues to emphasize education in the sciences, as a Christian college, it is also constantly seeking to emphasize the acquisition of spiritual values and to satisfy the need for inner spiritual release.

Three principal areas of campus life, namely: curricular or instructional, co-curricular, and residential, are brought to focus in a single effort to unify the educational experience of the student. The theory behind this attempt is that unity in organization when experienced by the student leads to a fuller understanding of the necessity to strive for completeness in personal growth and development.

THERE IS a deliberate attempt to provide varied learning experiences in each of the three central areas so that every student in planning her program may be selective without running the risk of discovering serious gaps in her education along the way.

The intention is essentially to have the student's plan of work represent an organic whole to which she, in turn, strives to dedicate her total self.

Annually, an average of 475 young women are attracted to Bennett College because of its vibrant and creative approach to women's education. The student body comes from a broad geographical area, representing 32 states, the District of Columbia, Bermuda, Puerto Rico, Africa, the Virgin Islands, the British West Indies, Korea, India, and South America.

SINCE 1926, Bennett College has graduated over 1,800 young women. The majority of them are teachers and homakers. Many have been attracted to other professions and activities, such as medicine, psychiatry, biological and chemical research, pediatrics, social work, secretarial work, Air Force, government service, library work, stage and screen careers, church and community service, missions, nursing, law, dietetics, home demonstration service, and laboratory technology.

A large number of Bennett alumnae hold graduate degrees from leading universities and professional schools. To date, there have been six Fulbright scholars among the Bennett graduates over a period of five years. The graduates are making important contributions to the life of their communities and the nation.

These Girls Are On The Beam

BEAMING HAPPILY as Kelly Alexander, president of the North Carolina NAACP, presents NAACP charter, are officers of the student chapter NAACP at Bennett College, Greensboro, N. C. On the receiving end is Miss Ann Hanks, of Westminister, S. C., president of the student group. Looking on are (from left) Dolores Finger, Hickory, N. C.; Roslyn Smith, Princeton, W. Va.; Von Moore, Norfolk, Va.; Priscilla Rogers, Philadelphia, Pa.; and Gwendolyn Mackel, Chicago.

Miss Ruth Hawkins Reigns As May Queen At Bennett

Miss Ruth Hawkins, a senior of Louisburg, N. C., who will reign as queen over the annual May Day festivities at Bennett College on Saturday, May 2.

BENNETT MAY QUEEN— Miss Ruth Hawkins, a senior of Louisburg, N.C., who will reign as queen over the annual May Day festivities at Bennett College on Saturday, May 2.

Youth Days Event Ends At Bennett

"One will never find happiness by looking for it; it is a by-product of a useful life," Dr. Benjamin E. Mays said yesterday in his address which marked the close of the annual Youth Days weekend at Bennett College.

Dr. Mays, who is president of Morehouse College, Atlanta, and president of the United Negro College Fund, addressed his remarks to the Bennett student body and some 100 high school seniors who had been guests of the college for the past two days.

Way To Happiness

Happiness, according to Dr. Mays, comes from toil, struggle and, finally, accomplishment.

"I doubt that Moses was a happy man," he declared, "but that was not important. The important thing is that he led the children of Israel out of bondage. I doubt that Jesus was happy, but he brought salvation to all mankind. That was important."

Dr. Mays gave a recipe for happiness, namely a job well done, a life nobly lived and the identity of self with all mankind. The happy man, he said, is the one who can say: I fought a good fight, I kept the faith.

He urged the youths to make good use of their time because "some things have to be done at a certain time or they'll never be done." He urged them to build strong foundations and aspire to lofty things.

Engagement Announced

Mr. and Mrs. Lacy Shoffner of Greensboro, N. C. have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Mary Elizabeth Shoffner to Frederick Tanner Anderson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Tanner of Greensboro and Baltimore, Md.

Miss Shoffner is a senior at Bennett College and a member of Alpha Kappa Mu Honor Society. Mr. Anderson, a senior at Morgan State College, Baltimore, is editor-in-chief of the 1959 Promethean and a member of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity. He will be commissioned an Army officer in July.

The wedding will take place on Sunday, Aug. 30 at the Bennett College chapel.

Bennett Choir To Make Tour

GREENSBORO, N. C. —The 40-voice woman's choir of Bennett College will make a tour of Eastern cities late in April, Mrs. Mary J. Crawford, director announced last week.

The tour will begin on April 24 when the group will sing at the Metropolitan Methodist Church in Baltimore. The following night, the choir will appear at Annapolis, Maryland in a concert to be held in the auditorium of the Bates High School.

SUNDAY AT 5 p. m., the choir will sing in Jamaica, Long Island at the Brooks Memorial Methodist Church and on the following day at 8:30 p. m. at Salem Methodist Church in Harlem.

The tour will end Tuesday night, April 28, at Wilmington, Del. with an appearance at the Ezion Methodist Church under the sponsorship of the Delaware Valley Chapter of the Bennett College Graduate Association.

THE BENNETT Choir, which attained national prominence under the direction of the late Dr. R. Nathaniel Dett, has long been known for its ability to obtain a tonal depth and range usually heard only in male choral groups.

Among numbers on the program will be "A Hymn to Music" by Roy Ringwald; "Sea Moods" by Mildred Tyson "Miserere in C Minor" by Hasse and two works from Brahma' "Requiem'. The group will also feature a number of traditional spirituals and there will be selections by the college quartette.

Last Sunday, the choir was presented in concert at Morehouse College, Atlanta, Ga.

Student Work Director

The Rev. John Bryan of Bennett College, Greensboro, North Carolina, has been named director of student work for the Methodist Board of Temperance, which has its national headquarters in Washington, D. C.

He will assume his new duties July 1, it was announced by the Rev. Dr. Caradine R. Hooton, general secretary of the board.

The Rev. Mr. Bryan was born in Jamaica and is a naturalized citizen of the United States. He is an ordained Methodist minister of the New Hampshire Annual Conference, and a graduate of New York University and the Boston University School of Theology.

For the last five years he has been director of religious activities at Bennett College, a Methodist institution. Previously, he was associate pastor of the Morgan Memorial Church of All Nations, Boston, Massachusetts.

Meanwhile, the Rev. Robert Regan, Jr., formerly director of student work, has been appointed director of the board's organizational activities.

The Rev. John Bryan
. . . to the Board of Temperance

April 15, 1959

Honor Bennett Student

Miss Jamesena Chalmers of Fayetteville, N. C., a senior English major at Bennett College, has been notified that she is among 1,200 superior American and Canadian students who have been named Woodrow Wilson Fellows for the academic year 1959-60.

Miss Chalmers, who will enroll in the graduate division of Syracuse University in the fall, is the first Bennett College representative to be so honored.

The Woodrow Wilson National Fellowship Foundation of Princeton, N. J., each year conducts a nation-wide talent hunt for future college teachers and supports promising scholars for their first year of graduate work.

This year's fellows were chosen from 7,000 candidates, all nominated and all rigorously screened by committees of faculty members. These candidates came from over 700 undergraduate colleges. Each fellow receives a living allowance of $1,500, plus the full cost of tuition and fees.

In addition to being president of the Student Senate, Miss Chalmers is a member of the choir and of Alpha Kappa Mu, national honor society, and was selected for Who's Who Among American Universities and Colleges.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Chalmers.

Sterling Brown to Read Poems At Bennett Fine Arts Series

"The Negro in the Fine Arts" is the theme of the annual Humanities Week observance at Bennett College which began on Tuesday and ended on Friday.

Guest artist is Dr. Sterling A. Brown, associate professor of English at Howard University, who is scheduled to lecture and read from his poetry on Thursday night in the David D. Jones Student Union. Also on the program will be selections by the freshman choir, directed by Edward Lowe and several numbers by a modern dance group under the direction of Mrs. Dolly Turner.

Dr. Brown, who has contributed poetry, reviews and essays to numerous publications, is the author of a number of books, among them "Southern Road" and "Negro Poetry and Drama." A native of Washington, he has also taught at Fisk, Atlanta and New York universities.

Emphasis upon the music of Negro composers was scheduled to feature the mid-week vesper program Wednesday night, with the choral ensemble of A & T College as guests. A poetry reading session was held on Tuesday night, highlighting original compositions by members of the Bennett student body and faculty.

On Friday, Dr. Brown will meet with several groups of students to discuss with them various problems of writing. Dr. Hobart S. Jarrett is chairman of the humanities division and Mrs. Blanche Raiford is chairman of this year's observance.

6 Bennett grads' children christened

GREENSBORO, N.C. — Children of six Bennett College graduates will be christened in Pfeiffer Chapel here on Mother's Day.

The ceremony will be performed by the Rev. John L. Bryan, director of religious activities, and the Rev. William R. Crawford, pastor of Mt. Pleasant Methodist Church, Winston Salem will deliver the address.

Graduates and the children they will present for Christian baptism are:

Mrs. Francis H. Mebane, the former Miss Beulah Whitfield, '45, of Greenville, N.C., a daughter, Grace Mebane; Dr. Lyvonne Washington, the former Miss Lyvonne Mackel, '53, of Winston-Salem, a son, Wilbert, 2nd; Mrs. Jerry Woods, the former Miss Juanita Martin, '56, of Winston-Salem, a daughter, Dionna Marie;

Mrs. Fred Whitfield, the former Miss Janol L. Corry, '53, of Greensboro, a son, Fred Alan; Mrs. Richard H. Noble, the former Miss Barbara Smith, '13, of Burlington, a son, Michael Terhan, and Mrs. James C. McLean, the former Miss Hazel L. Frances, '54 of Laurinburg, a son, James Colon, 2nd.

Negro Colleges To Seek Funds

A campaign for $60,000 in North Carolina, part of a national drive for 2¼ million dollars for 33 privately supported Negro colleges, is under way.

Representatives of the six Negro colleges (privately supported) in North Carolina met at Bennett College here to plan the campaign.

The United Negro College Fund is directing the national campaign.

Brown To Speak Again Today

Sterling A. Brown, author-poet, and associate professor of English at Howard University, Washington, will speak in Pfeiffer Chapel at Bennett College today at 10 a.m. to close the Humanities Week observance at the college.

Last night, in the David D. Jones Student Union, Brown read several poems from his book, "Southern Road," and gave some of the history surrounding them. Among the works read were "Old Lem," an experimental form; "Long Gone" and "Strong Man."

Also on the program were numbers by the freshman choir, directed by Edward Lowe, and by the modern dance group under the supervision of Mrs. Dolly Turner, all tied in with the theme, "The Negro in the Fine Arts."

Frosh Choir To Give Concert

The annual spring concert by the freshman choir at Bennett College will be presented on April 24 at 8 p.m. in Pfeiffer Chapel.

The 44-voice group, directed by Edward Lowe, will sing numbers dating from the 16th century to the present. Included will be "Crucifixus" from Bach's "Mass in B Minor," Mendelssohn's "Hear My Prayer," "Requiescat" by William Schuman and "Hallelujah, Amen" from "Judas Maccabaeus," by Handel.

The choir will also sing a group of spirituals, among them "Listen to the Lambs" by Nathaniel Dett and "My Way's Cloudy," arranged by Harry T. Burleigh.

Soloists will be Missess Ruth Dobson, Sandra Downing, Janet Edwards, Shirley Hawkins and Zelma Wright. An added feature will be the performance of the Madrigal Singers, a group of 12, which will sing five numbers, among them We and Chant It" by Thomas Norley and "How Merrily We Live" by Michael Este, both 16th century composers.

Annual 'Humanities Week' Observed

Greensboro, N. C. — "The Negro in the Fine Arts" is the theme of the annual Humanities Week observance at Bennett College here Tuesday through Friday.

Guests artists were Dr. Sterling A. Brown, associate professor of English at Howard University, who was scheduled to lecture and read from his poetry on Thursday night in the David D. Jones Student Union. Also on the program were selections by the freshman choir, directed by Edward Lowe and several numbers by a modern dance group under the direction of Mrs. Dolly Turner.

Dr. Brown, who has contributed poetry, reviews and essays to numerous publications, is the author of a number of books, among them "Southern Road" a nd "Negro Poetry and Drama." A native of Washington, he has also taught at Fisk, Atlanta and New York universities.

Emphasis upon the music of Negro composers was scheduled to feature t he mid-week vesper program Wednesday night, with the choral ensemble of A&T College as guests. A poetry reading session was held on Tuesday night, highlighting original compositions by members of the Bennett student body and faculty.

On Friday, Dr. Brown met with several groups of students to discuss with them various problems of writing. Dr. Hobart S. Jarrett is chairman of the humanities division and Mrs. Blanche Raiford is chairman of this year's observance.

DR. PRESSLEY MCCOY SPEAKS TO BENNETT STUDENTS

What one is willing to die for will usually represent what one is willing to live. Dr. Pressley McCoy, associate director of the Danforth Foundation of St. Louis, Mo., told Bennett College students here Monday.

Dr. McCoy, who spoke in Pfeiffer Chapel, used "Dead-End Living" as his topic. He pointed out to the students that many persons, with false sense of values, travel along life's highway completely oblivious of the warning signs along the way and eventually wind up on a dead-end street.

"Knowledge, of itself," he declared, "does not necessarily determine one's philosophy nor does the fact that we know good mean that we will do good."

While on campus, Dr. McCoy had breakfast with members of the college's four-man team which last summer attended the Danforth Workshop at Colorado College. Several other faculty staff members joined this group for lunch. Dr. McCoy also met informally with student leaders.

Bennett College was recently the recipient of a grant of $25,000 from the Danforth Foundation to be used in strengthening its academic program.

Girls End Stay At College Here

Nearly 100 senior high school girls from 40 communities in three states will close their Youth Days activities at Bennett College today.

For two days, the students and the 15 advisors who accompanied them from North Carolina, South Carolina and Virginia have been attending classes and workshops on the campus and touring the Greensboro community. They were also guests at a talent show and a dance.

Today at 4 p.m. in Pfeiffer Chapel, they will hear an address by Dr. Benjamin E. Mays, president of Morehouse College, Atlanta, Ga., after which they will leave for their homes.

CONCERT TODAY

The annual spring concert of the Bennett College Orchestra will be given at 7 o'clock tonight in Pfeiffer Hall at the College. Mrs. Jane Heirich will direct.

Student Secretary Clinic at Bennett

GREENSBORO, N. C. — Some 30 persons, representing the 19 conferences of the Central Jurisdiction of the Methodist Church, attended a one-day Student Secretary Clinic at Bennett College here Saturday.

The secretaries who came from 10 states and the District of Columbia, were welcomed by Dr. Willia B. Player, president of the college, and by Mrs. Alice P. McLeod, of High Point, president of the North Carolina Conference Woman's Society of Christian Service.

In addition to workshops, films, and discussions, they heard addresses by Dr. E. L. Walker, of Nashville, Tenn., representing the Board of Education of the Methodist Church, by Miss Dorothy Neyland, of New York City, secretary of student work for the Methodist Church, and by Mrs. Hilda B. Thomas, of Washington, D. C.

VIOLINIST FEATURED AT BENNETT

Kemper Harreld, violinist, of Detroit, Michigan, played an eight-number program at Bennett College Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Harreld, who recently retired as a member of the faculty of Morehouse College, Atlanta, Georgia, included works from Handel, Schumann, Schubert, Mendelssohn and Heifetz. He was particularly effective in Mendelssohn's "Concerto in E Minor" and Schubert's familiar "Ave Maria."

Mrs. Nina Kudrik, of the Bennet faculty, gave the artist unobtrusive but effective support at the piano.

MUSIC RECITALS TO BE GIVEN AT BENNETT

Dates for recitals by senior music students at Bennett College were announced this week by Mrs. Nina Kudrik, of the college's music faculty.

A joint recital will be presented on Sunday, May 3 by Misses Doris Wyche, soprano, of New Canaan, Conn., and Helen McEachern, pianist, of Rowland, N. C. On Sunday, May 10, Misses Jamesena Chalmers of Fayetteville and Robina Whitted of Hillsboro, will be presented in joint piano recital.

Miss Diamia Croslin, soprano, of Charlotte, will be heard on Sunday, May 17 and the final program in the series will be given by Miss Lady Ann Shivers, mezzo-soprano, of Aberdeen, Miss., on Sunday, May 24.

5 College Presidents At Home Demonstration Session

At the recent meeting in Raleigh of the North Carolina Council of Home Demonstration Clubs five college presidents were on hand to add to the occasion—along with some 2,500 rural North Carolina women. Shown here (left to right) are: Dr. James A. Boyer, president, St. Augustine's College, Raleigh; Mrs. Minnie Miller Brown, assistant state home economics agent for the N. C. Agricultural Extension service; Dr. William Strassner, president, Shaw University, Raleigh; Dr. Willa B. Players, president, Bennett College, Greensboro; Dr. Benjamin Mays, president, Morehouse College, Atlanta; Mrs. Lilly Perry, president of the State HD council; and Dr. W. T. Gibbs, president A. and T. College, Greensboro. Dr. Mays delivered the principal address.

BENNETT FASHIONS--Models who participated in the annual outdoor fashion show sponsored by the clothing department at Bennett College, Greensboro, N. C. The male models, introduced this year for the first time, are tailoring students at A & T College, who wore clothing that they had designed and produced. Left to right: Arthur Rankin, Jr.; Nannie Hughes, Cheraw, S. C.; Yvonne Brown, Elon College; Peter H. Davis; Joan Cooley, Hendersonville; Richetta B lle, Reidsville; Kay Rita Turner, guest model, of Columbus, Ohio; Ann Cooper, Glendale, Ohio; Rosemary Wright, Camden, S. C.; Cornelius Royster; Pauline Jessup, Greensboro; Herbert Whiteside; Harriett Butler, Cincinnati, Ohio; Marlene Beavers, Danville, Va., and Anece Faison, Dudley. The show was produced and narrated by Mrs. Louise G. Streat, instructor in clothing and textiles.

Miss Yvonne Brown, of Elon College, models silk street outfit, with scarf and hat of same material.

Miss Anece Faison, of Dudley, N. C., models pink cotton sheer, with shantung sash and matching beret.

Miss Kay Rita Turner, of Columbus, Ohio, guest model, wears an after-five nylon sheer print dress with matching stole. Dress, which has two complete circles at bottom, requires six yards of material.

Miss Joan Cooley, of Hendersonville, N. C., models black wool coat, with red hat of wool-suede.

A & T student elected prexy at church group conference

GREENSBORO, N.C. — Miss Hilda Withers, was elected president of the Youth Council of the North Carolina Conference Methodist Youth Institute as the organization closed its week session at Bennett College here recently.

Miss Withers, a sophomore majoring in applied sociology at A. and T. College, will be assisted by the following officers:

Wilbur Monroe, Laurinburg, vice president; Pauline Wright, High Point, secretary; and Willie Waugh, Fayetteville, treasurer.

* * *

THE FOLLOWING committee-chairmen were also elected: Derry Galbreath, Fayetteville, faith; Clyde Stewart, Laurinburg, witness; Ruth Goolsby, Walnut Cove, outreach; Edith Mayfield, Winston-Salem, citizenship; and Maxine Webb, Greensboro, fellowship.

This year's' institute, headed by the Rev. Douglas Moore, attracted 125 persons, largest in the history of the conference. Lectures, discussions, workshops and recreational activities composed the conference.

The registration list follows:

Commella Horton, Lenoir; Sarah Ann Williams, Marion; Carolyn Newton, Winston-Salem; Mary Elliott, High Point; Lawrence Oates, Fayetteville; Velma Jones, Winston-Salem; Betty Adams, Kings Mountain; Donna Miller, Rural Hall; Perry Hill, Greensboro; Warren Bethea, Maxton; Gladys Williams, Statesville; John Hill, Asheboro; Mary Patterson, Granite Falls;

GWENDOLYN FOYLE, Guilford; Mary Reese, Maxton; Portia Brooks, High Point; Pauline Wright, High Point; Clyde Stewart, Laurinburg; Patricia Gabriel, Statesville; Loretta Glenn, Rural Hall; Nancy Horton, Lenoir; Brenda McCullough, Mount Holly; Mozelle Long, Newton; Johnnie Patterson, High Point; Della Johnson, Buena Moore, Marion; Velma Barbee, Durham; Shirley Jeffers, Guilford College; Norma Smith, High Point; Glenord Schenck, Lawndale; Mary Pemberton, Laurinburg;

Jessie Wilson, Statesville; Marilyn Leach, Laurinburg; James Campbell, Laurinburg; Willie Pope, Hickory; Edith Mayfield, Winston-Salem; Barbara Byrd, Katherine Torain, Greensboro; Carol Lucas, Laurinburg; Carolyn Hood, Lenoir; Shirley Wright, Lumberton; Mattie Harden, Laurinburg; Gloria Graves, Reidsville; Artie Allen, Winston Salem; Annie Griffin, Thomasville, Randolph Lockett, Oxford; Howard Pickard, Reidsville; Edward Galbreath, Fayetteville; Louise Leach, Laurinburg; Doris Mitchell, Greensboro;

Saundra Jones, Charlotte; Elnora McCorkle, Newton; Herbert Gidney Jr., Shelby; Thomas Taylor, Lenoir; Bettie Hill, Asheboro; Sylvia Thompson, Pilot Mountain; Phyllis Hawkins, Maxton; Ethel Brower, Maxine West, Greensboro; Ruth Goolsby, Walnut Cove; Marva Townsend, Laurinburg; Arneitha McCall, Laurinburg; Juanita Caldwell, Clyce Spinks, Wilhelmina Brown, Greensboro; Delores Horton, Gail Gaskar, Winston-Salem; Marion Bryson, Asheboro;

John Moss, Thomasville; Charles McCallum, Maxton; Nora Caldwell, Mary Herndon, Greensboro; Nancy Johnson, Leaksville; Diane Feimster, Statesville; Kenard Crockett, Winston-Salem; Yvonne Kelly, Winston-Salem; Sarah Beatty, High Point; Donnie Foster, High Point; Marva Stephens, Lumberton; Lorene Shuh, Denver; James Melvin, Fayetteville; Frank Parker, Gastonia; Pauline Wright, High Point; Wilbur Monroe, Laurinburg.

MARY WITHER, Pine Hall; Clyde Stewart, Laurinburg; Derry Galbreath, Fayetteville; Johnnie Patterson, High Point; Phyllis Brown, Greensboro; Janet Mill, Durham; Sylvia Thomas, Lenoir; Shirley Goolsby, Greensboro; Carrie Harris, Jonesville; Bobbie Covington, Laurinburg; Ethel Brown, Laurinburg; Mildred Pemberton, Laurinburg; Jean McRae, Reidsville; May France, Trinity; Janet Harper, Lenoir.

The faculty was:

Rev. G. E. Hogue, Laurinburg; Rev. Douglas E. Moore, Greensboro; Miss Hazel Bankhead, Gastonia; Rev. J. W. Ferree, Lumberton; Rev. Joseph Bethea, Maxton; Miss M. C. Bell, Leaksville; Rev. O. W. Burwick, Asheboro; Rev. O. W. Burwick, Asheboro; Rev. John Corry, Leaksville; Mrs. Rev. Harold Ewing, Nashville; Rev. James McCullum, Lumberton; Mrs. Deliah Knight, Spindale;

Rev. W. T. Brown, Greensboro; Rev. James W. Gwyn, Oxford Rev. Levi Miller, Baltimore; Miss Evelyn D. Tymous, Washington; Miss Daisie McCallum, Red Springs; Miss Wilhelmina Webb, Fayetteville; Mrs. Lubertha Thompson, Maxton; Miss Louise Yourse, Greensburg; Miss Emma R. McLean, Laurinburg; Rev. J. T. Jones, Gastonia, and Mrs. Ruth Greeson, Thomasville.

106 attend WSCS school at Bennett

GREENSBORO, N.C. —One hundred and six women, 91 registered for audit courses, attend the School of Missions and Christian Service conducted by the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the North Carolina Conference at Bennett College here last week.

Miss Fannie McCallum, dean of this year's school, said that this was the largest number ever to attend. Chairman was Mrs. Mary N. Morrison of Statesville.

Four courses were offered this year. "The Gospel According to Mark," taught by the Rev. John L. Bryan; "Christ, the Church and Race," instructor was Miss Harriet Seibert; "Japan," Mrs. Morrison teaching; and "The Social Witness of the Local Church in the Ecumenical Movement," Mrs. David D. Jones, instructor.

ALSO THERE were workshops in "Drama and Audio-Visuals in the Church," conducted by Mrs. Dorothy Jones and "Parliamentary Procedures and Responsibilities in the Woman's Society of Christian Service," with Mrs. L. M. Mayfield teaching.

The following persons were registered:

Mesdames F. C. Adams, Gastonia; Ethel Ballenger, High Point; Florence Bynum, Charlotte; R. L. Edwards, Guilford; Janie Fitzgerald, Greensboro; Mattie B. Gidney, Shelby; C. C. Hickerson, Winston-Salem; Ruth Jolly, Lenoir; L. B. McMillan, Clarice Robinson, Madeline Turner, Greensboro; D. A. Wooten, Charlotte; Carrie Mayfield, Winston-Salem;

Misses Gladys Williams, Marion; Estelle McCallum, Greensboro; Is[illegible] Jones, Asheville; Matt[illegible] Gidney, Shelby; Fannie McCallum, Guilford; M. Thompson, S. E. Jurisdiction;

Mesdames T. G. Brincefield, High Point; B. L. Burge, Newton; Nora Bynum, High Point; Thelma Caldwell, Winston-Salem; Ollie Camp, Jonesville; Helen Chapman, Nancy Cheek, Greensboro; Pauline Clark, Shelby; Sophia East, Pilot Mountain; Marie Fuller, Hickory; W. M. Gannoway, Fayetteville; C. L. Gidney, Raleigh; Martha Gray, Trinity; W. E. Hairston, Greensboro; Louise Hardy, Asheboro; Catherine Hargrove, Maxton;

MESDAMES SAM HOUSIE, Higginsville, Mo.; J. W. Jones, Greensboro; L. W. King, Winston - Salem; E. M. Laughlin, Clemmons; Martha London, Shelby; Ethel Murphy, Smithfield; W. P. McCallum, Lumberton; Alice McLeod, High Point; Lena Phillips, Ramseur; M. M. Pritchard, Newton; J. C. Rush, Winston-Salem; Ann Sanders, Smithfield; Beatrice Smith, Hickory; Mary Smith, Greensboro; Aurelia Stewart, Mooresville; Olivia Womack, Greensboro;

Mesdames C. M. Abernathy, Statesville; C. Barrett, Asheboro; Susie Brown, J. E. Brower, Greensboro; Mary Carroll, Rowland; Mary Francis, Lumberton; T. D. Horne, Statesville; Inez Page, Rowland; J. W. Patterson, High Point; W. P. Cole, High Point; Minnie B. Smith, Greensboro;

Katie Webb, Fayetteville; Margaret Minor, Durham; Lovie McCoy, Trinity; H. T. Tucker, Statesville; O. R. Simpson, Leaksville; Viola Hughes, Greensboro; W. E. Harriston, D. P. Jones, Reidsville; Mrs. M. Ramsey, S. E. Jurisdiction;

Mesdames Emily Benton, Rowland; L. A. Brown, Greensboro; Lula Mae Brown, Charlotte; Lillie H. Cox, Winston-Salem; Maxine Carter, Fayetteville; W. J. Cochran, Rowland; Claire Lennon, Ashville; Geneva B. McRae, Reidsville; Della McManus, Charlotte; Ludella Royster, Oxford

MARY R. SILER, Thomasville; Eula M. Steele, Trinity; Agnes Tillman, Pilot Mountain; Estelle Tatum, Greensboro; Ada Tonkins, Greensboro; Zula Lovell, Pilot Mountain; Mattie Fennell, Laurinburg; Thelma Barnett, [illegible]ston-Salem; and Julia Britt, Greensboro.

Missions School Attracts 106

GREENSBORO

Some 106 women, 91 of them registered for audit courses, attended the School of Missions and Christian Service conducted by the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the North Carolina Conference at Bennett College last week.

Miss Fannie McCallum, of Greensboro, dean of this year's school, said that this was the largest number ever to attend. Mrs. Mary N. Morrison of Statesville, was chairman.

91 Attend Bennett Church Institute

GREENSBORO, N. C. — Some 106 women, 91 of them registered for audit courses, attended the School of Missions and Christian Service conducted by the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Nortn Carolina Conference at Bennett College last week.

Miss Fannie McCallum, of Greensboro, dean of this year's school, said that this was the largest number ever to attend. Mrs. Mary N. Morrison of Statesville, was chairman.

* * *

FOUR COURSES were offered this year, namely, "The Gospel According to Mark," taught by the Rev. John L. Bryan; "Christ, the Church and Race," taught by Miss Harriet Seibert; "Japan," taught by Mrs. Morrison, and "The Social Witness of the Local Church in the Ecumenical Movement," taught by Mrs. David D. Jones.

In addition, there were workshops in "Drama and Audio-Visuals in the Church," conducted by Mrs. Dorothy Jones of Reidsville and "Parliamentary Procedures and Responsibilities in teh Woman's Society of Christian Service," conducted by Mrs. L. M. Mayfield of High Point, and a number of departmental clinic.

Miss Withers Heads Carolina Youth Council

GREENSBORO, N. C. — Miss Hilda Withers a member of Withers Chapel Church at Pine Hall, was elected president of the Youth Council of the North Carolina Conference Methodist Youth Institute as that organization closed its one-week sessions at Bennett College, here Friday.

Miss Withers, a sophomore, majoring in applied sociology at A. and T. College, will be assisted by the following officers:

WILBUR MONROE, Laurinburg vice president; Pauline Wright, High Point, secretary, and Willie Waugh, Fayetteville, treasurer.

The following committee chairmen were also elected: Derry Galbreath Fayetteville, faith; Clyde Stewart, Laurinburg, witness; Ruth Goolsby, Walnut Cove, outreach; Edith Mayfield, Winston-Salem, citizenship, and Maxine Webb, Greensboro, fellowship.

This year's institute, headed by the Rev. Douglas Moore, attracted 125 persons, largest in the history of the conference In addition to lectures, discussions and workshops, there was a variety of receational activities.

Youth Group Ends Gathering

Miss Hilda Withers, a member of Withers Chapel Church at Pine Hall, was elected president of the Youth Council of the North Carolina Conference Methodist Youth Institute as that organization closed its one-week sessions at Bennett College, here Friday.

Miss Withers, a sophomore, majoring in applied sociology at A. and T. College, will be assisted by the following officers:

Wilbur Monroe, Laurinburg, vice president; Pauline Wright, High Point, secretary; and Willie Waugh, Fayetteville, treasurer.

The following committee chairmen were also elected: Derry Galbreath, Fayetteville, faith; Clyde Stewart, Laurinburg, witness; Ruth Goolsby, Walnut Cove, out-reach; Edith Mayfield, Winston-Salem, citizenship; and Maxine Webb, Greensboro, fellowship.

This year's institute, headed by the Rev. Douglas Moore, attracted 125 persons, largest in the history of the conference. In addition to lectures, discussions and workshops, there was a variety of recreational activities.

METHODIST WOMEN AT BENNETT — Students and faculty of the School of Missions and Christian Service conducted by the Women's Society of Christian Service of the North Carolina Methodist conference at Bennett college. In center of front row is Miss Fannie McCallum, dean, of Greensboro, Sixth from left (front row) is Miss Isabel R. Jones, of Asheville, who last year completed a long tenure as dean of the school.

CHOOL OF MISSIONS TO EET AT BENNETT

The annual School of Missions, sponsored by the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the North Carolina Methodist Conference, will be held at Bennett College, July 1-5.

Miss Fannie McCallum is dean, succeeding Miss Isabell R. Jones, of Asheville. In addition to credit courses, there will be workshops and departmental clinics.

Faculty members include Mrs. David D. Jones and the Rev. John L. Bryan of Bennett; Miss Harriet Seibert, of New York, field cultivation secretary of the Woman's Division; Mrs. Mary N. Morrison, of Statesville, who is also chairman of the school; Mrs. Dorothy Jones of Reidsville, and Mrs. L. M. Mayfield, of High Point.

Also meeting here at the same time will be the Youth Assembly of the North Carolina Conference, headed by the Rev. Douglas E. Moore, of Durham, executive secretary of the conference.

BENNETT JUNIOR BECOMES BRIDE OF CHILDHOOD SWEETHEART

Miss Young Tack Lee, of Seoul, Korea, a junior at Bennett College, became the bride of Jhin Woo Park, also of Seoul, in a ceremony performed last Sunday at the Korean Methodist Church on Riverside Drive, New York City.

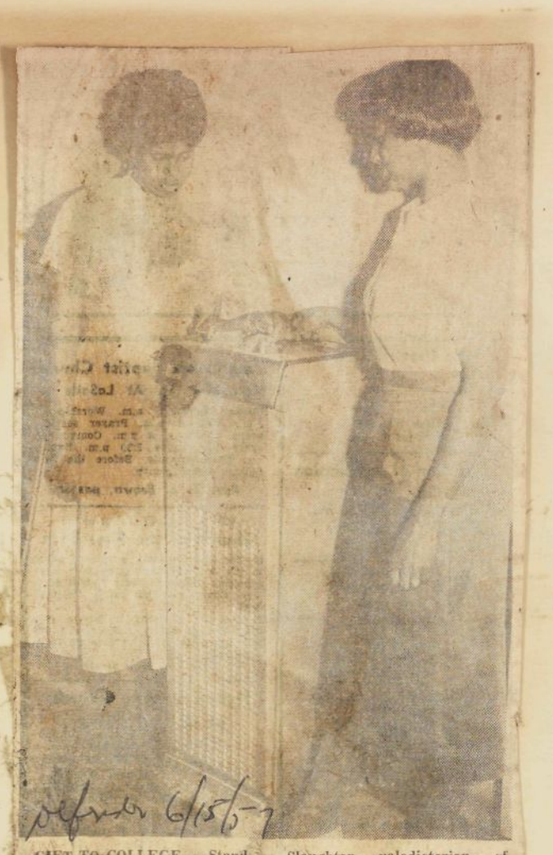

Among Miss Lee's bridesmaids was Miss Ruth Anderson, of Philadelphia, her roommate. The newlyweds, who were childhood sweethearts in Korea, come to the United State at the same time.

Mr. Park, a senior in diplomatic science at Brevard (N. C.) College, plans graduate study and Mrs. Park will return in September to Bennett where she is a general home economics major.

She designed and, in one weekend, made her own Princess-style wedding gown, which contained 11 yards of white floral lace over 11 yards of white taffeta, and also made her wedding veil of white nylon, trimmed in lace. Mrs. Park is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sun Hi Lee, of Seoul.

BENNETT VALEDICTORIAN —Miss Annette Slaughter, of Newport, Ky., valedictorian of 1957 graduating class of Bennett College, receives warm handshake from President Willa B. Player on Commencement morning at Bennett College.

GIFT TO COLLEGE — Standing beside electric drinking fountain, gift of the 1957 graduating class to Bennett college are Misses Annette Slaughter, valedictorian, of Newport, Ky., and Doris Lanier, president of the class, of Bath, N. C. Fountain will be installed in Holgate library.

Law Degree Available Now At Bennett

GREENSBORO

Agreement has been reached between Bennett College and the Washington College of Law of American University, Washington, D. C., for a collaborative Liberal-Arts program, it was announced here this week.

Under this program, the Bennett College student, at the end of the junior year, will be able to enroll in the law school. If successful in his first year there, she would then be certified to receive her Bachelor of Arts degree from Bennett. At the end of two more years in the law school, she would receive her Bachelor of Laws degree.

The collaborative program thus permits a student to complete what has been a seven-year program in six years, and receive two baccalaureate degrees. American University, headed by Dr. Hurst R. Anderson, like Bennett, is a Methodist-related institution.

Arrangements are also being completed with Teachers College of Columbia University whereby graduates of Bennett who have excellent general records and who have taken courses in special education will receive special consideration for admission to graduate work in Teachers College Department of Special Education for study toward the degree of Master of Arts.

Bennett Plans Collaborative Law Program

GREENSBORO, N. C. — Agreement has been reached between Bennett College and the Washington College of Law, of American University, Washington, D. C., for a collaborative liberal — arts program.

Under this program the Bennett College student, at the end of her junior year, will be able to enroll in the law school. If successful in her first year there, she would then bet certified to receive her bachelor of arts degree from Bennett. At the end of two more years in the law school, she would receive her bachelor of laws degree.

• • •

THE COLLABORATIVE program thus permits a student to complete what has been a seven-year program in six years, and receive two baccalaureate degrees.

American University, headed by Dr. Hurst R. Anderson, like Bennett, is a Methodist-related institution.

Agreements are also being completed with Teachers College of Columbia University whereby graduates of Bennett who have excellent general records and who have taken courses in special education will receive special consideration for admission to graduate work in Teachers College department of special education for study toward the degree of master of arts.

Mission School Set For July

GREENSBORO

The annual School of Missions, sponsored by the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the North Carolina Methodist Conference, will be held at Bennett College, July 1-5.

Miss Fannie McCallum is dean, succeeding Miss Isabelle R. Jones, of Asheville. In addition to credit courses, there will be workshops and departmental clinics.

LITTLE GIRL, BIG TRUNK— Miss Demetric Carstarphen, a rising Bennett College junior, of Oak Hill, Ala., finds that moving a heavy trunk from the basement storeroom requires more strength than she can muster. Fortunately help, in the form of a photographer, appeared and she was able to make her train.

MARIE SLAUGHTER

RECEIVES DEGREE: Newport, Ky.—Miss Marie Annette Slaughter daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Slaughter, Sr., 624 Roberts street, graduated with a B. A. degree from Bennett College, Greensboro, N. C. She was the valedictorian of her 1957 class of 105. She majored in English, with French as her minor. Miss Slaughter was also valedictorian in her 1953 class when she graduated from Grant high school.

Valedictorians in High School and College

GREENSBORO, N. C. — Although lightning is said not to strike twice in the same place, three of the last four valedirtorians at Bennett College were also valedictorians in high school — and the fourth was a high school salutatorian.

No. 1 senior in the 1954 class was Miss Dorothy Dixon, who was also valedictorian of the Pleasant Grove High School in Burlington. She is now Mrs. Dorothy Morrow, a teacher at Efland, N. C.

Miss Thelma Owens, 1955 valeductorian, was also valedictorian at the Langston High School in her native Johnson City, Tenn. She was also chosen to reign as "Miss Bennett College" for the 1954-55 school year, and is now Mrs. Thelma Fleming, a Detroit housewife.

Valedictorian of the 1956 class was Miss Barbara Brown, who was salutatorian at West High School in Akron, Ohio. Miss Brown, who has spent the past school year as a Fulbright Scholar in Bordeaux, France, is scheduled to return to the United States this week.

Miss Marie Slaughter, valedictorian of the 1957 graduating class, was also valedictorian at Grant High School in Covington, Kentucky. A native of Newport, Kentucky, she plans a teaching career.

In the 1957 class, there were also four others who were valedictorians in high school. They include Misses Mayme Ellerbe, of Cheraw, S. C.; Doris Lanier, of Bath, N. C.; Alice Hayes, of Whiteville, N. C.; and Marion Moore, of Topeka, Kansas.

Former high school salutatorians in the class include: Misses Pauline Dixon, of Burlington, sister of Mrs. Dorothy Gilead; Flora Mae Smith, of Morrow; Phebie Ewings, of Mt. Clarksburg, W. Va., and Ann Stewart, of Reidsville.

Bennett signs study program

GREENSBORO, N.C.— Agreement has been reached between Bennett College and the Washington College of Law of American University, Washington, for a collaborative liberal arts program, it was announced here this week.

Under this program, the Bennett College student at the end of the junior year, will be able to enroll in the law school.

If successful in the first year, the student would then be certified to receive a bachelor of arts degree from Bennett. At the end of two more years in the law school, the student would receive a bachelor of laws degree.

The collaborative program permits a student to complete a seven - year program in six years, plus two baccalaureate degrees. American University and Bennett, are Methodist - related institution.

Missions School Set For June 1-5

GREENSBORO, N. C. —The annual School of Missions, sponsored by the Woman's Society of Christian Service, of the North Carolina Methodist Conference, will be held at Bennett College, July 1-5.

Miss Fannie McCallum is dean, succeeding Miss Isabelle R. Jones, of Asheville. In addition to credit courses, there will be workshops and departmental clinics.

• • •

FACULTY MEMBERS include Mrs. David D. Jones and the Rev. John L. Bryan, of Bennett; Miss Harriet Seibert, of New York, field cultivation secretary of the Woman's Division; Mrs. Mary N. Morrison, of Statesville, who is also chairman of the school; Mrs. Dorothy Jones, of Reidsville; and Mrs. L. M. Mayfield, of High Point.

Also meeting here at the same time will be the Youth Assembly of the North Carolina conference, headed by the Rev. Douglas E. Moore, of Durham, executive secretary of the conference.

Mission school set at Bennett College

GREENBORO, N.C. — The annual School of Missions, sponsored by the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the North Carolina Methodist Conference, will be held at Bennett College, July 1-5.

Miss Fannie CcCallum is dean, succeeding Miss Isabelle R. Jones of Asheville.

Faculty members include Mrs. David D. Jones and the Rev. John L. Bryan of Bennett; Miss Harriet Seibert, New York; Mrs. Mary N. Morrison, Statesville; Mrs. Dorothy Jones, Reidsville; and Mrs. L. M. Mayfield of High Point.

Also meeting here at the same time will be the Youth Assembly of the North Carolina Conference, headed by the Rev. Douglas E. Moore of Durham, executive secretary of the conference.

Pastors' School Will Open Monday At Bennett College

The annual Baltimore Area Pastors' School for the in-service training of Methodist ministers, will be held at Bennett College, June 24 through July 19, Bishop Edgar A. Love announced this week.

The Rev. Charles L. Carrington, of Jamaica, New York, is dean of the school which is primarily designed for approved supply pastors and local preachers not serving in that capacity.

Other members of the faculty will include: Dr. Walter R. Hazzard, Christian Doctrine; and the Revs. Levi B. Miller, education, music and worship; Howard A. Bailey, Christian education; Joshua E. Licorish, church history; W. S. McLeod, Old Testament; Edward D. McGowan, New Testament, and Ramsey Bridges, pastoral psychology.

1932 BENNETT GRADUATES —Some of the members of the class of 1932 who returned to Bennett college in Greensboro, N. C. for their 25th reunion. Left to right: Mrs. Susie M. Taylor, Greensboro, N. C.; Miss Thomasena Miller, Greensboro, N. C. Miss Ruth James, New York City; Mrs. Anna Moore, Greensboro, N. C.; Mrs. Genevieve K. Greenlee, Greensboro, N. C.; Mrs. Willie M. Grimes, Greensboro, N. C. and Mrs. Reba Davis, Durham, N. C.

Return To Alma Mater

EIGHT MEMBERS OF the class of 1952 return to Bennett College, Greensboro, N. C., for their 5th reunion. Left to right on campus are Miss Alice Rhodes, Winston Salem; Mrs. Paulina S. Singletary, New York; Mrs. Thelma B. Bryant, Washington; Mrs. Rachel P. Young, Stony Creek, Va.; Mrs. Eva B. Dunston, Danville, Va.; Miss Shirley Cundiff, Boonville, N. C.; Miss Fay Foster, Greensboro; and Miss Clara McCain, Flint, Mich.

BENNETT CHAPEL TO BE REDECORATED

Complete redecoration of the interior of the Annie Merner Pfeiffer Chapel at Bennett College was begun last week.

The charm, dignity and simplicity of the edifice will be perpetuated the use of the same soft color tones in the walls, ceiling and pews. New red carpeting is also being installed and lighting fixtures burnished.

All work will be completed in time for the opening of the fall semester on September 11.

College Roundup

Young Tack Lee of Seoul, Korea, a Bennett College junior, became the bride of Jhin Woo Park, also of Seoul, in a ceremony at the Korean Methodist Church in New York City . . . Three of the last four valedictorians at Bennett College were also valedictorians in high school . . . Charlotte Mary Miller, Wiley College junior . . .

Agreement has been reached between Bennett College and the Washington College of Law of American University, Washington, D. C., for a collaborative liberal arts program. Under this program, the Bennett College student, at the end of her junior year, will be able to enroll in the law school . . . The annual School of Missions, sponsored by the Women's Society of Christian Service of the North Carolina Methodist Conference, July 1-5 . . . Missis-

36

When Things Become Too Quiet, We Get Frightened, Rev. William Crawford Says

GREENSBORO — "We live in an age of noise and when things become too quiet we get frightened," the Rev. William R. Crawford, Pleasant Methodist Church and

PRELUDE TO SUMMER — Misses Margaret Reed, rising junior, of Starr, S. C., and Lillie Perkins, rising senior, of Cheraw, S. C., are radiant with smiles as they "look southward" from their perch atop the Bennett College wall to the route that they will soon be taking for their summer vacation.

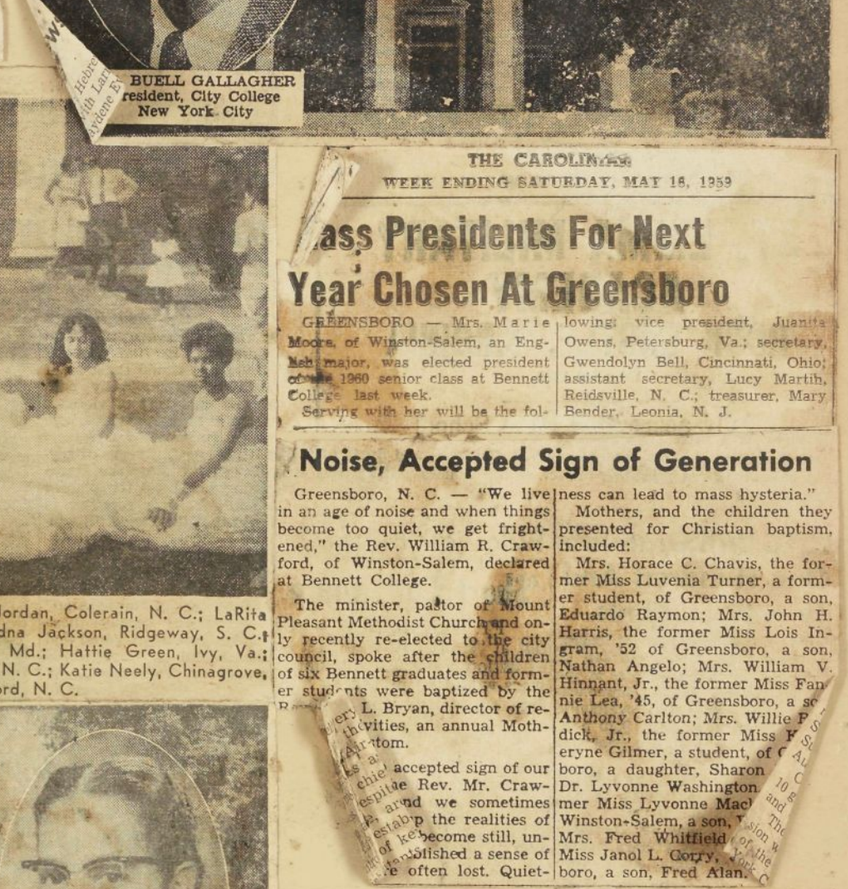

MISS RUTH HAWKINS, of Louisburg, shown just after being crowned May Queen by President Wlia B. Player of Bennett College, Greensboro, recently.

GH COURIER May 23, 1959

A QUEEN AND HER COURT—Miss Ruth Hawkins (center, left) of Louisburg, N. C., May Queen at Bennett College, and her maid of honor, Miss Helen McEachern, of Rowland, S. C., are surrounded by members of the queen's court following May Day festivities at the Greensboro (N. C.) institution. Left to right: Misses Joyce Jordan, Colerain, N. C.; LaRita Waters, Jacksonville, Fla.; Edna Jackson, Ridgeway, S. C.; LaVonne Barbour, Annapolis, Md.; Hattie Green, Ivy, Va.; Mary Musgrave, Mount Olive, N. C.; Katie Neely, Chinagrove, N. C., and Sandra Scott, Oxford, N. C.

JOB WELL DONE—Miss Edith Tucker, junior, home economics major, of Elkin, N. C. (third from right) is congratulated by Miss Barbara Freeman, sophomore, of Lawrenceville, Va., following the former's report to members of Omicron Eta Chi at Bennett College on her attendance at the North Carolina Dietetics Association meeting. Miss Tucker is president of the Bennett group. Others in photo left to right are: Misses Alma Pinnix, freshman, of Yanceville, N. C. who gave a report on the meeting of the North Carolina Association of Home Economists to which she was a delegate; Carolyn Cotten, sophomore, of Tarboro, N. C.; La Rita Waters, sophomore of Jacksonville, Fla. and Millie Adams, senior, of Princeton, W. Va.

THE CAROLINIAN
WEEK ENDING SATURDAY, MAY 16, 1959

ass Presidents For Next Year Chosen At Greensboro

GREENSBORO — Mrs. Marie Moore, of Winston-Salem, an Eng-lish major, was elected president of the 1960 senior class at Bennett College last week.

Serving with her will be the following: vice president, Juanita Owens, Petersburg, Va.; secretary, Gwendolyn Bell, Cincinnati, Ohio; assistant secretary, Lucy Martin, Reidsville, N. C.; treasurer, Mary Bender, Leonia, N. J.

Noise, Accepted Sign of Generation

Greensboro, N. C. — "We live in an age of noise and when things become too quiet, we get frightened," the Rev. William R. Crawford, of Winston-Salem, declared at Bennett College.

The minister, pastor of Mount Pleasant Methodist Church and only recently re-elected to the city council, spoke after the children of six Bennett graduates and former students were baptized by the Rev. L. Bryan, director of religious activities, an annual Mother's Day custom.

...chief accepted sign of our ...despite the Rev. Mr. Craw-...and we sometimes ...establish the realities of ...of keep become still, un-...olished a sense of ...e often lost. Quiet-ness can lead to mass hysteria."

Mothers, and the children they presented for Christian baptism, included:

Mrs. Horace C. Chavis, the former Miss Luvenia Turner, a former student, of Greensboro, a son, Eduardo Raymon; Mrs. John H. Harris, the former Miss Lois Ingram, '52 of Greensboro, a son, Nathan Angelo; Mrs. William V. Hinnant, Jr., the former Miss Fannie Lea, '45, of Greensboro, a son, Anthony Carlton; Mrs. Willie Ridrick, Jr., the former Miss Katheryne Gilmer, a student, of Greensboro, a daughter, Sharon Denise; Dr. Lyvonne Washington, the former Miss Lyvonne Mackel, '53, of Winston-Salem, a son, Wilbert, 2nd; Mrs. Fred Whitfield, the former Miss Janol L. Corry, '53, of Greensboro, a son, Fred Alan.

BENNETT COMMENCEMENT —Scene of and principals in the 86th commencement exercises at Bennett College, Greensboro, May 31 and June 1. Dr. Lanier will preach the baccalaureate sermon at 4 p.m. on May 31 and on June 1 at 10:30 a.m. Dr. Gallagher will deliver the commencement address. Dr. Player will preside at both exercises in Pfeiffer Chapel and confer degrees.

BEN N E T T COMMENCEMENT — Scene of and principals in the 86th commencement exercises at Bennett College, Greensboro, N. C. May 31 and June 1. Dr. Lanier will preach the baccalaureate sermon at 4 p. m. on May 31 and on June 1 at 10:30 a. m. Dr. Gallagher will deliver the commencement address. Dr. Player will preside at both exerises in Pfeiffer Chapel and confer degrees.

...udent Art Exhibit ...n Display At ...ennett College

...GREENSBORO, N. C. — An ...hibit by students at Bennett Col-...nt on display in the Fine ...lding on Monday and will ...hroughout the commence-...son.

...f the students, under the ...of James C. McMillan, in-...paintings, ceramic sculp-...r portraits, constructions ...and copper and hooked ...original design.

...g seniors whos... work is on ...re Misses N... ...nit Hughes, ... McEachern, ... S. C.; He... ...th Hawkins, ...arion Grah... ...n Pritchar... ...Honora Gl... LaVerr...

...inclu... ...on-Sa... ...of th... ...n ex-... ...ee, ...Ta... ...a ... ...na Le...

Tennis Matches

Greensboro, N. C. — Four representatives of the Woman's Athletic Association at Bennett College journeyed to North Carolina State College at Durham to take part in doubles tennis matches with the host school, Saturday.

The students, who were accompanied by Miss Joyce C. Johnson, physical education instructor, were Misses Carolyn Davis, of Columbus, Ohio; Wilhelmina Bundy, of Johnson City, Tenn.; Joanne Simmons, of Greensboro, and Evelyn Hall, of Philadelphia, Pa.

BENNETT COLLEGE GRADUATES EIGHTY-FOUR

GREENSBORO, N. C. — A list of 84 prospective graduates at Bennett College was released this week by Miss Mary L. Mayfield, registrar.

Members of the 1959 class who expect to receive their degrees on June 1 include 56 candidates for the bachelor of arts degree and 28 ...the bachelor of science. The... ...om 17 states and the Di... ...Columbia and two fore...

FLOWERS FOR THE FAIR---Drinking in the beauty and fragrance of the profusion of blossoms on the Bennett College campus at this time of the year are Misses LaRita Waters, (left) of Jacksonville, Fla. and Joyce Pullum, of Baltimore, both sophomores.

Bennett College Names 58 Prospective Graduates; Candidates from North Carolina Are Listed Here

GREENSBORO — A list of 84 prospective graduates at Bennett College was released this week by Miss Mary L. Mayfield, registrar.

Members of the 1959 class who expect to receive their degrees on June 1 include 56 candidates for the bachelor of arts degree and 28 for the bachelor of science. They hail from 17 states and the District of Columbia and two foreign countries.

The list of prospective graduates from North Carolina follows:

BACHELOR OF SCIENCE

Richetta L. Bell, Reidsville; Terrance A. Gagan, Plymouth; Aneee D. Faison, Dudley; Honora L. Glover, Greensboro; Inez C. Jones, Lenoir; Rivers E. Millner, Draper; Barbara C. Partee, Sailsbury; Josephine A. Raiford, Greensboro; Rosenell Spears, Winston-Salem; Ruby N. Starks, Troutman; and Mary J. Williams, Winston-Salem.

BACHELOR OF ARTS

Janet Allen, Spring Hope; Ida Bullock, Manson; Barbara B. Campbell, Greensboro; Clara Carter, Yadkinville; Jamesena Chalmers, Fayetteville; Barbara Chavis, Greensboro; Diamia Croslin, Charlotte; Mrs. Iris Harper DeBerry, Winston-Salem; Rosalind Goodson, Clayton; Janie Graves, Greensboro; Shirleyl P. Haith, Greensboro; Mildred Hamlett, Semora;

Emily Harris, Warrenton; Ruth Hawkins, Louisburg; Joyce Holmes, Goldsboro; Doris Jeffers, Greensboro; Gladys Jeffries, Guilford College; DeQuincy Johnson, Lenoir; Mary Knight, Greensboro; Carolyn Lowry, Greensboro; Carolyn Martin, Durham; Emma Lee Martin, Mount Olive; Geraldine McDade, Efland; Helen McEachern, Rowland; Gwendolyn McKee, Greensboro;

Queen Murphy, Fayetteville; Mildred Ployden, Greensboro; Laura Rowe, Goldsboro; Mattie Sellers, Greensboro; Mary Shoffner, Greensboro; Ann F. Smith, Greensbero; Essie Smith, Timberlake; Mary L. Spivey, Windsor; Hazelin Taylor, Charlotte; Margare Townes, Norlina; Robina Whitted Hillsboro; Nancy Williams, Mo... ...gamton.

Jean Noble At Bennett Sunday

GREENSBORO,—Speaker for the closing Bennett College vesper service for the 1958-59 academic year on Sunday, May 24, will be Dr. Jeanne Noble, of New York City.

Dr. Noble, a graduate of Howard University, who holds the M. A. and Ph. D. degrees from Teachers College, Columbia University, is a guidance and school counsellor at the City College of New York. In addition to being national president of Delta Sigma Theta sorority, she holds a high post with the Girl Scouts national organization and the national board of the YWCA.

She is author of "The Negro Woman's College Education" and a number of articles dealing with education.

Bennett Leaders Hear Address

College is not a place where for four years, students prepare for life, but a place for living a full life every day, Dr. Jeanne Noble of New York City told student leaders at Bennett College yesterday following their service of installation.

Dr. Noble, who in addition to being a guidance counsellor at the City College of New York is also national president of Delta Sigma Theta sorority, spoke on "For A Journey Into the Unknown."

She pointed out to the students who will head campus organizations for the 1959-60 academic year that one of the major complaints on many campuses is that of apathy but that she does not believe this to be the case at Bennett as her conversations with student leaders are indicative.

Dr. Noble said: "I would like to leave with you four platitudes for a journey into the unknown, namely, live life today; act, rather than think your way to significance; remember that spiritual things are worthwhile and finally, that the law of life is love."

Bennett Vesper Speaker Named

Speaker for the closing Bennett College vesper service for the 1958-59 academic year today will be Dr. Jeanne Noble of New York City.

Dr. Noble, a graduate of Howard University who holds the M.A. and Ph.D. degrees from Teachers College, Columbia University, is a guidance and school counsellor at the City College of ...York. In addition to being ...president of Delta Sigma Theta sorority, she holds a high post with the Girl Scouts national organization and the national board of the YWCA.

She is author of "The Negro Woman's College Education" and a number of articles dealing with education.

When Things Become Too Quiet, We Get Frightened, Rev. William Crawford Says

GREENSBORO — "We live in an age of noise and when things become too quiet we get frightened," the Rev. William R. Crawford, of Winston-Salem declared at Bennett College Sunday.

The minister, pastor of Mount Pleasant Methodist Church and only recently re-elected to the city council, spoke after the children of six Bennett graduates and former students were baptized by the Rev. John L. Bryant, director of religious activities, an annual Mother's Day custom.

"Noise is an accepted sign of our generation," the Rev. Mr. Crawford stated, "and we sometimes use it to cover up the realities of life. When things become still, unless we have established a sense of value, we are often lost. Quietness can lead to mass hysteria."

Mothers, and the children they presented for Christian baptism included:

Mrs. Horace C. Chavis, the former Miss Luvenia Turner, a former student, of Greensboro, a son, Eduardo Raymon; Mrs. John H. Harris, the former Miss Lois Ingram, '52 of Greensboro, a son, Nathan Angelo; Mrs. William V. Hinnant, Jr., the former Miss Fannie Lea, '45, of Greensboro, a son, Anthony Carlton; Mrs. Willie Riddick, Jr., the former Miss Katheryne Gilmer, a student, of Greensboro, a daughter, Sharon Denise; Dr. Lyvonne Washington, the former Miss Lyvonne Mackel, '53, of Winston-Salem, a son, Wilbart, 2nd; Mrs. Fred Whitfield, the former Miss Janol L. Corry, '53, of Greensboro, a son, Fred Alan.

PRELUDE TO SUMMER — Misses Margaret Reed, rising junior, of Starr, S. C., and Lillie Perkins, rising senior, of Cheraw, S. C., are radiant with smiles as they "look southward" from their perch atop the Bennett College wall to the route that they will soon be taking for their summer vacation.

MISS RUTH HAWKINS, of Louisburg, shown just after being crowned May Queen by President Wlia B. Player of Bennett College, Greensboro, recently.

JOB WELL DONE—Miss Edith Tucker, junior, home economics major, of Elkin, N. C. (third from right) is congratulated by Miss Barbara Freeman, sophomore, of Lawrenceville, Va., following the former's report to members of Omicron Eta Chi at Bennett College on her attendance at the North Carolina Dietetics Association meeting. Miss Tucker is president of the Bennett group. Others in photo left to right are: Misses Alma Pinnix, freshman, of Yanceville, N. C. who gave a report on the meeting of the North Carolina Association of Home Economists to which she was a delegate; Carolyn Cotten, sophomore, of Tarboro, N. C.; La Rita Waters, sophomore of Jacksonville, Fla. and Millie Adams, senior, of Princeton, W. Va.

A QUEEN AND HER COURT—Miss Ruth Hawkins (center, left) of Louisburg, N. C., May Queen at Bennett College, and her maid of honor, Miss Helen McEachern, of Rowland, S. C., are surrounded by members of the queen's court following May Day festivities at the Greensboro (N. C.) institution. Left to right: Misses Joyce Jordan, Colerain, N. C.; LaRita Waters, Jacksonville, Fla.; Edna Jackson, Ridgeway, S. C.; LaVonne Barbour, Annapolis, Md.; Hattie Green, Ivy, Va.; Mary Musgrave, Mount Olive, N. C.; Katie Neely, Chinagrove, N. C., and Sandra Scott, Oxford, N. C.

BENNETT COMMENCEMENT —Scene of and principals in the 86th commencement exercises at Bennett College, Greensboro, May 31 and June 1. Dr. Lanier will preach the baccalaureate sermon at 4 p.m. on May 31 and on June 1 at 10:30 a.m. Dr. Gallagher will deliver the commencement address. Dr. Player will preside at both exercises in Pfeiffer Chapel and confer degrees.

BEN N E T T COMMENCEMENT — Scene of and principals in the 86th commencement exercises at Bennett College, Greensboro, N. C. May 31 and June 1. Dr. Lanier will preach the baccalaureate sermon at 4 p. m. on May 31 and on June 1 at 10:30 a. m. Dr. Gallagher will deliver the commencement address. Dr. Player will preside at both exerises in Pfeiffer Chapel and confer degrees.

Class Presidents For Next Year Chosen At Greensboro

GREENSBORO — Mrs. Marie Moore, of Winston-Salem, an English major, was elected president of the 1960 senior class at Bennett College last week.

Serving with her will be the following: vice president, Juanita Owens, Petersburg, Va.; secretary, Gwendolyn Bell, Cincinnati, Ohio; assistant secretary, Lucy Martin, Reidsville, N. C.; treasurer, Mary Bender, Leonia, N. J.

Noise, Accepted Sign of Generation

Greensboro, N. C. — "We live in an age of noise and when things become too quiet, we get frightened," the Rev. William R. Crawford, of Winston-Salem, declared at Bennett College.

The minister, pastor of Mount Pleasant Methodist Church and only recently re-elected to the city council, spoke after the children of six Bennett graduates and former students were baptized by the Rev. John L. Bryan, director of religious activities, an annual Mother's Day custom.

"Noise is an accepted sign of our generation," the Rev. Mr. Crawford stated, "and we sometimes use it to cover up the realities of life. When things become still, unless we have established a sense of values, we are often lost. Quietness can lead to mass hysteria."

Mothers, and the children they presented for Christian baptism, included:

Mrs. Horace C. Chavis, the former Miss Luvenia Turner, a former student, of Greensboro, a son, Eduardo Raymon; Mrs. John H. Harris, the former Miss Lois Ingram, '52 of Greensboro, a son, Nathan Angelo; Mrs. William V. Hinnant, Jr., the former Miss Fannie Lea, '45, of Greensboro, a son, Anthony Carlton; Mrs. Willie Riddick, Jr., the former Miss Katheryne Gilmer, a student, of Greensboro, a daughter, Sharon Denise; Dr. Lyvonne Washington, the former Miss Lyvonne Mackel, '53, of Winston-Salem, a son, Wilbert, 2nd Mrs. Fred Whitfield, the former Miss Janol L. Corry, '53, of Greensboro, a son, Fred Alan.

Student Art Exhibit On Display At Bennett College

GREENSBORO, N. C. — An art exhibit by students at Bennett College went on display in the Fine Arts Building on Monday and will remain throughout the commencement season.

Work of the students, under the direction of James C. McMillan, includes oil paintings, ceramic sculpture, paster portraits, constructions in wood and copper and hooked rugs of original design.

Among seniors whose work is on display are Misses Nannit Hughes, Cheraw, S. C.; Helen McEachern, Rowland, N. C.; Ruth Hawkins, Louisburg, N. C.; Marion Grant, Macon, Georgia; Joan Pritchard, Jefferson City, Tenn.; Honora Glover, Greensboro and LaVern Green, Chatham, Va.

Sophomore exhibitors include Misses Linda Hill, of Winston-Salem and Gloria Adams, of the Bronx, New York. Freshmen exhibiting are Misses Gloria Lee, Tallahassee, Florida; Adele Taylor, of Charlotte; Margaret Strain of Rock Hill, S. C.; Pathia Stewart of Benson, N. C. and Myrna Lee of Prairie View, Texas.

Tennis Matches

Greensboro, N. C. — Four representatives of the Woman's Athletic Association at Bennett College journeyed to North Carolina State College at Durham to take part in doubles tennis matches with the host school, Saturday.

The students, who were accompanied by Miss Joyce C. Johnson, physical education instructor, were Misses Carolyn Davis, of Columbus, Ohio; Wilhelmina Bundy, of Johnson City, Tenn.; Joanne Simmons, of Greensboro, and Evelyn Hall, of Philadelphia, Pa.

BENNETT COLLEGE GRADUATES EIGHTY-FOUR

GREENSBORO, N. C. — A list of 84 prospective graduates at Bennett College was released this week by Miss Mary L. Mayfield, registrar.

Members of the 1959 class who expect to receive their degrees on June 1 include 56 candidates for the bachelor of arts degree and 28 for the bachelor of science. They hail from 17 states and the District of Columbia and two foreign countries.

FLOWERS FOR THE FAIR---Drinking in the beauty and fragrance of the profusion of blossoms on the Bennett College campus at this time of the year are Misses LaRita Waters, (left) of Jacksonville, Fla. and Joyce Pullum, of Baltimore, both sophomores.

Bennett College Names 58 Prospective Graduates; Candidates from North Carolina Are Listed Here

GREENSBORO — A list of 84 prospective graduates at Bennett College was released this week by Miss Mary L. Mayfield, registrar.

Members of the 1959 class who expect to receive their degrees on June 1 include 56 candidates for the bachelor of arts degree and 28 for the bachelor of science. They hail from 17 states and the District of Columbia and two foreign countries.

The list of prospective graduates from North Carolina follows:

BACHELOR OF SCIENCE

Richetta L. Bell, Reidsville; Terrance A. Gagan, Plymouth; Aneee D. Faison, Dudley; Honora L. Glover, Greensboro; Inez C. Jones, Lenoir; Rivers E. Millner, Draper; Barbara C. Partee, Sailsbury; Josephine A. Raiford, Greensboro; Rosenell Spears, Winston-Salem; Ruby N. Starks, Troutman; and Mary J. Williams, Winston-Salem.

BACHELOR OF ARTS

Janet Allen, Spring Hope; Ida Bullock, Manson; Barbara B. Campbell, Greensboro; Clara Carter, Yadkinville; Jamesena Chalmers, Fayetteville; Barbara Chavis, Greensboro; Diamia Croslin, Charlotte; Mrs. Iris Harper DeBerry, Winston-Salem; Rosalind Goodson, Clayton; Janie Graves, Greensboro; Shirleyl P. Haith, Greensboro; Mildred Hamlett, Semora;

Emily Harris, Warrenton; Ruth Hawkins, Louisburg; Joyce Holmes, Goldsboro; Doris Jeffers, Greensboro; Gladys Jeffries, Guilford College; DeQuincy Johnson, Lenoir; Mary Knight, Greensboro; Carolyn Lowry, Greensboro; Carolyn Martin, Durham; Emma Lee Martin, Mount Olive; Geraldine McDade, Efland; Helen McEachern, Rowland; Gwendolyn McKee, Greensboro;

Queen Murphy, Fayetteville; Mildred Ployden, Greensboro; Laura Rowe, Goldsboro; Mattie Sellers, Greensboro; Mary Shoffner, Greensboro; Ann F. Smith, Greensboro; Essie Smith, Timberlake; Mary L. Spivey, Windsor; Hazelin Taylor, Charlotte; Margaret Townes, Norlina; Robina Whitted, Hillsboro; Nancy Williams, Morganton.

Jean Noble At Bennett Sunday

GREENSBORO,—Speaker for the closing Bennett College vesper service for the 1958-59 academic year on Sunday, May 24, will be Dr. Jeanne Noble, of New York City.

Dr. Noble, a graduate of Howard University, who holds the M. A. and Ph. D. degrees from Teachers College, Columbia University, is a guidance and school counsellor at the City College of New York. In addition to being national president of Delta Sigma Theta sorority, she holds a high post with the Girl Scouts national organization and the national board of the YWCA.

She is author of "The Negro Woman's College Education" and a number of articles dealing with education.

Bennett Leaders Hear Address

College is not a place where for four years, students prepare for life, but a place for living a full life every day, Dr. Jeanne Noble of New York City told student leaders at Bennett College yesterday following their service of installation.

Dr. Noble, who in addition to being a guidance counsellor at the City College of New York is also national president of Delta Sigma Theta sorority, spoke on "For A Journey Into the Unknown."

She pointed out to the students who will head campus organizations for the 1959-60 academic year that one of the major complaints on many campuses is that of apathy but that she does not believe this to be the case, as Bennett and her conversations with student leaders are indicative.

Dr. Noble said: "I would like to leave with you four platitudes for a journey into the unknown, namely, live life today; act, rather than think your way to significance; remember that spiritual things are worthwhile and finally, that the law of life is love."

Bennett Vesper Speaker Named

Speaker for the closing Bennett College vesper service for the 1958-59 academic year today will be Dr. Jeanne Noble of New York City.

Dr. Noble, a graduate of Howard University who holds the M.A. and Ph.D. degrees from Teachers College, Columbia University, is a guidance and school counsellor at the City College of New York. In addition to being president of Delta Sigma Theta sorority, she holds a high post with the Girl Scouts national organization and the national board of the YWCA.

She is author of "The Negro Woman's College Education" and a number of articles dealing with education.

37

a knitted jacket and dress and a cocoa suit which she designed and executed.

BENNETT SENIORS ACCEPTED FOR GRADUATE STUDY

Miss Cecile Harrison, of Houston, Texas a member of this year's graduating class at Bennett College, was notified this week that she has been accepted for graduate work at the Smith College for Social Work at Northampton, Mass.

Miss Harrison, who will begin her work on June 24, was also advised that the committee on scholarships has awarded her a stipend to cover maintenance and tuition expenses for the second session.

Howard J. Parad, director, in a letter to Miss Harrison, said: "You will have an opportunity to reapply for additional scholarship assistance for your second year of graduate work."

Miss Harrison, a graduate of the Jack Yates High School is the daughter of the Rev. M. Mrs. Edwin Harrison. At Bennett, she was a member of Kappa Phi, the sociology club NAACP and the Union Board of Managers. She is also a member of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority

MISS ABNEY SPEAKS AT SENIORVESPER SERVICE

"The atmosphere of segregation is just as stifling in a classroom in Milford, Del., as it is in the cotton fields of Georgia or the cane-brakes of Mississippi," Miss Rudene Abney declared in her senior vesper address at Bennett College Sunday.

Miss Abney, a native of Norristown, Pa., is presently enrolled in the Washington School of Law at American University in Washington, D. C., under a collaborative program between that university and Bennett. She spent her first three years at Bennett where she was prominent in dramatics.

Taking as her subject, "Let's Work at Integration," Miss Abney advanced the premise that all Americans should work for the common good for the greatest number and referred to the familiar quotation of Abraham Lincoln that "this nation can not exist half free and half slave."

"There are those who seek to prevent the orderly evolution of society by denying certain rights to the American Negro and to other minorities, but they shall not prevail." she declared.

"It is incumbent upon us all to work toward establishing our fundamental rights and to informing ourselves and others what these rights are, so that

Story of Christmas Told by Bennett Students

Courier 12/21/57

"THE ADORATION OF THE SHEPHERDS" by Giorgione, one of eight tabeaux presented at Bennett College. Miss Veronica Dean, of Miami, Fla., portrays the Madonna, and Miss Barbara Banks, of New York City, portrays Joseph. The Shepherds, left to right: Misses Clara Carter of Yadkinville and Constance Colston, of Charlotte, N. C.

"THE ANNUNCIATION" by the Master of the Barberini Panels was the first of eight tableaux presented at Bennett College to open the 1957 Christmas season. All scenes were from the Italian Renaissance. Left to right: Miss Mary Tonkins of Greensboro, the angel, and Miss Bharaty Christian of Bombay, India, the Madonna.

"THE VIRGIN IN ADORATION" by Correggio, one of eight tableaux presented at Bennett College. Miss Anne Saunders of Gastonia portrays the Madonna.

Living Madonnas At Bennett College

Guide 12/21/57

"The Annunciation" by the Master of the Barberini Panels is the first of eight tableaux presented at Bennett College Sunday night to open the 1957 Christmas season. All scenes were from the Italian Renaissance. Left to right: Miss Mary Tonkins of Greensboro, is the angel and Miss Bharaty Christian of Bombay, India, the Madonna.

BENNETT CHOIR ON RADIO DECEMBER 29

GREENSBORO

The Bennett College Choir, directed by Mrs. Mary J. Crawford, will be heard over the American Broadcasting Company radio network at 10:35 (EST) Sunday, December 29.

This is the final program of the year sponsored by the United Negro College Fund in cooperation with the ABC network.

DAILY DEFENDER WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 18, 1957

Yule Dance Recital At Bennett

Four Moods From 'Holy City'

MEMBERS of the modern dance group at Bennett college, Greensboro, N. C., portray four different moods in "The Holy City" which they performed during their Yuletide dance recital in Pfeiffer chapel. From left: Marian Benton, Greensboro; Rudene Abney, Norristown, Pa.; Judith Thompson, Greensboro, and Gloria McKnight, of Gainesville, Fla.

CHRISTMAS CONCERT

Christmas music of many nations was sung by the Bennett College choir in its annual candlelight Christmas concert Sunday night, in Pfeiffer Chapel.

Works of Bach, Brahms and Handel and carols from the Swiss, German, Czechoslovakian, Catalonian, and Laplandian treasuries of Christmas music were sung.

Soloists were: Misses Bernice Green and Diamia Croslin, sopranos; Misses Grace Atkinson and Lady Ann Shivers, contraltos. There were also numbers by the college quartette in which Miss Croslin and Shivers were joined by Misses Eva Evans and Louise Pope.

The group was directed by Mrs. Mary J. Crawford, with Clarence E. Whiteman at the organ.

BROADCAST 12/11/57

The Eennett College Choir, directed by Mrs. Mary J. Crawford, will be heard over the American Broadcasting Company radio network at 10:35 (EST) Sunday, December 29. This is the final program of the year sponsored by the United Negro College Fund in cooperation with the ABC network.

5 Bennett College students awarded

GREENSBORO, N.C. — Five Bennett College students are recipients of national scholarship awards from the Board of Education of the Methodist Church, it was announced this week.

Bennett students receiving awards are:

Miss Mary Jane Williams, junior, daughter of Mrs. Coy N. Williams, of Winston-Salem;

Miss Nannie G. Poole, junior, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Poole, of Baltimore, Maryland;

Miss Jacqueline Ball, sophomore, daughter of Mrs. Mary J. Ball, of Philadelphia;

Miss Helen Houston, sophomore, daughter of Mr and Mrs. Henry E. Houston, of Winchester, Kentucky.

Bennett Choir Sings Sunday

The Bennett College Choir, directed by Mrs. Mary J. Crawford, will be heard over the American Broadcasting Company radio network at 10:35 (EST) Sunday, December 29. This is the final progra of the year sponsored by the United Negro College Fund in cooperation with the ABC network.

BENNETT RECEIVES GIFT OF $4,454.00 FROM CHURCH CONFERENCE 12/4/57

Members of the North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Church reported a gift of $4,454.00 to Bennett College when they held their annual "Roll Call" meeting at the college last week. Bishop Edgar A. Love, of the Baltimore Area, presided and received reports from the four district superintendents.

The Greensboro district, headed by the Rev. W. T. Brown reported the largest amount — $1440.00 for Bennett, with the Winston district, headed by the Rev. L. A. Brown close behind with $1354.00 for the college. The Western district, headed by the Rev. H. W. Philips gave Bennett $903.00, while the Laurinburg district headed by the Rev. R. C. Sharpe, contributed $737.00.

Last year the conference gift to Bennett was $4,286.00. The four districts raised a total of $32,919.67 for all purposes.

The one-hundred ministers, laymen, and their wives were welcomed to the college by President Willa B. Player and later were guests of the college at a luncheon in the David D. Jones Student Union.

Bishop Love in accepting the conference contributions thanked the superintendents but said: "I think that we should set a goal in this conference of $10,000.00 a year for Bennett. What you have done and have been doing is good, but we need to do more for an institution which means so much to the denomination and and to the nation".

Among the visitors introduced was the Rev. William Wells, Director of the North Carolina Methodist Conference Student Movement.

Rev. Richardson speaks at Bennett

GREENSBORO, N.C.—Speaker for the first Sunday vesper service of the New Year—Jan. 5—at Bennett College will be the Rev. Dean Richardson, pastor of the Asbury Delaware Methodist Church, of Buffalo, New York.

PACKING PROBLEM—Miss Millie Adams, Bennett College junior of Princeton, W.Va., ponders a problem of too little space as she tries to pack her bag for trip to Lawrence, Kan., where she will attend the sixth quadrennial National Methodist Student Conference Dec. 27-Jan. 1 at Kansas University.

Bennett Choir Sings Music, Many Lands

GREENSBORO, N. C. — Christmas music of many nations was sung by the Bennett College choir in its annual candlelight Christmas concert Sunday night, in Pfeiffer Chapel.

Works of Bach, Brahms and Handel and carols from the Swiss, German, Czechoslovakian, Catalonian, and Laplandian treasuries of Christmas music were sung.

• • •

SOLOISTS WERE: Misses Bernice Green and Diamia Croslin, sopranos; Misses Grace Atkinson and Lady Ann Shivers, contraltos. There were also numbers by the college quartette in which Misses Croslin and Shivers were joined by Misses Eva Evans and Lousie Pope.

The group was directed by Mrs. Mary L. Crawford, with Clarence E. Whiteman at the organ.

INSTRUMENTAL EMSEMBLE MAKES FIRST APPEARANCE

The first appearance by the advanced instrumental ensemble at Bennett College was made during a program of Christmas music sponsored by the music faculty of the college.

The group, directed by Mrs. Jane Heirich, and organizd just two months ago, played Bach's "Jesu, Joy of Man's Desiring." It is composed of wood winds, strings and brasses.

Vocal soloists on the program included Misses Linda Brown, soprano, of Akron, Ohio; Celena Williams, contralto, of Hagerstown, Md.; and Avis McCarther, soprano, of Mount Airy, N. C. The freshman choir, directed by Edward Lowe, sang three numbers. Clarence E. Whiteman, organist, and the ensemble provided the accompaniment for two Christmas hymns sung by the audience.

MARRIED DURING CHRISTMAS SEASON

Following a tradition of long standing, three Bennett College graduates chose the Christmas season at the time for their marriages.

Miss Deloris L. Alexander, of Winston-Salem, a 1957 graduate, was married to William C. Brown, on December 21, in the Cleveland Avenue Christian Church in her native city.

Miss Doris J. Humphrey, a 1956 graduate, became the bride of Aaron W. Davenport in rites performed on December 31 in Saint Paul Baptist Church, Gastonia, N. C.

Miss Gloria Blatch, a 1957 graduate of Miami, Fla., was married to George V. McPhee on December 29, at Saint Agnes Episcopal Church in that city.

Afro - 12/21/57

← Madonna At Bennett

"THE ANNUNCIATION" by the Master of the Baberini Panels is first of eight tableaux presented to open the 1957 Christmas season at Bennett college, Greensboro, N. C. All scenes were from the Italian Renaissance. From left: Mary Tonkins, Greensboro, an angel; and Bharaty Christian of Bombay, India, the Madonna.

LIVING MADONNAS — "The Annunciation" by the master of the Baberini Panels was the first of eight tableaux presented at Bennett College recently which opened the 1957 Christmas season. All scenes were from the Italian Renaissance. From left are Misses Mary Tonkins, Greensboro, the angel, and Bharaty Christian of Bombay, India, the Madonna.

Bennett's Yule Concert To Be Heard Sunday

GREENSBORO

"It is not inconceivable that historians of the future, when writing of our present-day generation, will ignore many of the things that we consider important today," the Rev. John L. Bryan told the vesper audience at Bennett College Sunday.

The minister, who is director of religious activities at the college, keyed his message to the coming Christmas season from his text: "For unto us a Child is born..."by saying that the newspaper acolumn which contains a listing of births is more important than any other in the paper.

Pointing out that there was no publicity given in the newspapers of that time about the birth of the Christ Child, the Rev. Mr. Bryan reminded the audience that history may be repeating itself as today's newspapers ignore the birth of a child "in Nebraska, in Nigeria, in Nepal or on the slums of New York City" whom future historians may call the most important person of his or her time.

In explaining the simplicity of the Christ Child story, the Rev. Mr. Bryan said that Jesus is the Gift of God and that God still comes to us in Him. "If we believe that love is the strongest resource available to man, then Christmas is a time for us to rejoice—but hardly otherwise."

VISITOR FROM HOME—Miss Danletta Brooks, Monrovia, Liberia, Bennett College freshman, gets news from home from Bishop and Mrs. Prince A. Taylor of the Methodist Church during informal chat. Miss Brooks, a commercial education major, who will not be returning to her homeland until after her graduation from Bennett, gave Bishop Taylor messages to take back on his return to Liberia Jan. 1.

"I NOW PRONOUNCE YOU . . ."—Bishop Edgar A. Love, Baltimore Methodist prelate, officiates at the recent marriage of Gilbert H. Caldwell Jr. and Mrs. Grace E. Dungee in Mt. Carmel Church, Greensboro, N.C. In bridal party, from left, are Andrew Johnson, usher; Miss Josephine Boyd, bridesmaid; Donald Mays, best man, and Miss Cecile Harrison, maid of honor.

Meaning Of Christ's Birth Told Students

GREENSBORO

The annual candlelight Christmas concert by the Bennett College choir will be presented on Sunday, December 15, at 7 p.m. in Pfeiffer Chapel.

The 50-voice group, directed by Mrs. Mary J. Crawford, will be heard in a program of seasonal music from many lands, some of it dating back to the sixteenth century. The soprano soloists—Misses Bernice Green, of Anderson, S. S., and Diamia Croslin, of Charlotte, and the Bennett Quarteate will also be heard.

Dr. Player Addresses Bennett Student Body

"I think that this is a time for great humility," declared President Willa B. Player, at the Monday morning chapel hour, as she commented upon the fact that Bennett College has been admitted to full membership in the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools.

Bennett College, organized as a woman's college only 31 years ago, was the youngest of 18 Negro institutions which, for the first time in history, were granted full membership in the association at its annual meeting in Richmond, Va., last week.

"The burden rests with us to take the torch from this point on," Dr. Player continued, "for we will be meeting in the future many more challenges which will demand our very best though. No real victory will be achieved until every one of the 63 of our colleges has attained full membership in the association."

Dr. Player pointed out that Bennett College has, at three previous times in its history, faced and met successfully the challenge of rising standards of accreditation. The first time was in 1928 when a committee was making a federal survey of Negro colleges and the second in 1930, when the college, under the leadership of the late Dr. David D. Jones, was given an "A" rating by the state of North Carolina.

The third time was in 1935 when Bennett was awarded an "A" rating and "accredited status" by the Southern Association. In 1953, after an evaluation by an inter-racial team, Bennett, along with several other colleges, was asked to make a progress report within three years.

When these 1956 reports were scrutinized by the association, it was decided to invite a few colleges to membership culminating in the action of two weeks ago.

As to the implications of this new status, Dr. Player said:

"We must continue our striving for excellence and continue our study and evaluation of the college program. Our faculty ant students must continue their studies in the nation's graduate schools and we must preserve the day-by-day routines of our campus life."

Miss Dungee wed Saturday

GREENSBORO, N.C.—A college romance reached its climax here Saturday at 4 p.m. when Miss Grace Estelle Dungee and Gilbert Haven Caldwell Jr., were married in a double-ring ceremony by Bishop Edgar A. Love of Baltimore at Mount Carmel Methodist Church.

The bride is the daughter of Edward J. Dungee and the late Mrs. Dungee and the bridegroom is the son of the Rev. Mr. and Mrs. G. Haven Caldwell, all of this city.

THE BRIDE, given in marriage by her father, wore a full length white taffeta gown with an inset of pale blue lace. It had a V-cut back with cappe sleeves. Her train was of white taffeta with two panels ove pale blue lace.

Her maid of honor — Miss Cecile Harrison, of Houston, Texas, wore a blue-green taffe a cocktail-length gown, with a torso waist line, elbow-length sleeves and a breast bow tie, and matching satin slippers.

The bridesmaids—Miss Vera Kernodle, of Elon College, and Miss Josephine Boyd, of Greensboro — wore sky-blue gowns of the same style as that of the maid of honor, with matching satin slippers.

BEST MAN was Donald Mays, of Henderson, Ky., a schoolmate of the bridegroom at the Boston University School of Theology. Ushers were Clyde Dungee, of Greensboro, a brother of the bride; Andrew Johnson, of Red Bank, N.J., and John Snead, of San Antonio, Texas.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of Mrs. M. V. Reynolds, the bride's godmother. Among those assisting were Mrs. Cora D. Boyd of Greensboro, and Miss Mary Head of Winston-Salem. The bride's bouquet was caught by Miss Kernodle.

Mrs. Caldwell is a 1957 graduate of Bennett College, and is presently employed at the Boston University School of Theology. Mr. Caldwell, a 1956 graduate of A. and T. College, will be graduated from the Boston University School of Theology in June.

OTHER ATTRACTIONS

CHRISTMAS CANTATA with the Dudley High School mixed chorus offering "A Mystery for Christmas," by Howard D. McKinney, at 3:15 p.m. Sunday in the high school auditorium.

THE MESSIAH, at 4 p.m. Sunday in the New Garden Meeting House at Guilford College, with Carl S. Baumbach directing the Guilford College A Cappella Choir and the Community Chorus.

CHRISTMAS CONCERT at 5 p.m. by the Woman's College choir and chorus in Aycock Auditorium on the college campus. A new cantata by Carl Alexius of the School of Music will be sung.

HYMNS, SPIRITUALS, to be sung at 5:15 p.m. Sunday by the A&T College choir in its annual Christmas presentation.

CANDLELIGHT CONCERT, by the 50-voice choir of Bennett College in Pfeiffer Chapel at 7 p.m. Sunday.

NEWLYWEDS SMILE. Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert H. Caldwell, jr., are radiant with smiles as they leave for reception following their wedding recently at Mount Carmel Methodist church in Greensboro, N. C. The bride is the former Miss Grace Estell Dungee, daughter of Edward J. Dungee and the late Mrs. Dungee. The bridegroom is the son of the Rev. and Mrs. G. Haven Caldwell.

Beautiful Dungee-Caldwell Nuptials Write Climax To College Romance

GREENSBORO, N. C. — A college romance reached its climax here Saturday at 4 p.m. when Miss Grace Estell Dungee and Gilbert Haven Caldwell, jr., were married in a double-ring ceremony by Bishop Edgar A. Love, of Baltimore, Md. at Mount Carmel Methodist church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. Edward J. Dungee and the late Mrs. Dungee and the bridegroom is the son of the Rev. Mr. and Mrs. G. Haven Caldwell, all of this city.

Ferns interspersed with white taffeta gown with an inset of pale blue lace. It had a V-cut back with capped sleeves. Her train was of white taffeta with two panels over pale blue lace.

She wore a seed pearl tiara from which extended a waist-length veil of net, and arm-length white net mitts. Her only ornaments were the small white pearls that tipped her ears and a single strand of pearls around her neck.

A single white orchid centered the bouquet of white rosebuds and baby carnations which she carried.

Her maid of honor — Miss Cecile Harrison, of Houston, Texas, wore a blue-green taffeta cocktail-length gown, with a torso waist line, elbow-length sleeves and a breast bow tie, and matching satin slippers.

The bridesmaids — Miss Vera Kernodle, of Elon college and Miss Josephine Boyd, of Greensboro—wore sky-blue gowns of the same style as that of the maid of honor, with matching satin slippers.

All of the attendants wore bandeaux of velveteen, with small

26

Miss Grace Dungee Becomes Bride Of G. H. Caldwell In Candlelight Rites

GREENSBORO, N. C. — Miss Grace Estell Dungee, daughter of Edward J. Dungee and the late Mrs. Dungee and Gilbert Haven Caldwell, Jr., son of the Rev. and Mrs. G. Haven Caldwell, all of Greensboro, were married last Saturday, Nov. 30 at Mount Carmel Methodist Church.

The double-ring ceremony was performed by Bishop Edgar A. Love before a background of ferns, white and blue chrysanthemums and lighted cathedral candles which provided the only light.

• • •

WALTER F. CARLSON, organist and Miss Phoebe Caldwell, soloist of Philadelphia, a sister of the bridegroom, presented a program of wedding music.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a full length white taffeta gown with an inset of pale blue lace, a V-cut back with capped sleeves. The train was of white taffeta with two panels over pale blue lace.

• • •

HER WAIST-length veil of net, was arranged from a seed pearl tiara. Her only ornaments were small white pearl earrings and a single strand of pearls. A single white orchid centered the bouquet of white rosebuds and baby carnations which she carried.

The maid of honor, Miss Cecile Harrison, of Houston, Texas, wore a blue-green taffeta cocktail-length gown, with a torso waist line, elbow-length sleeves and a bow tie, and matching satin slippers.

• • •

THE BRIDESMAIDS were Miss Vera Kernodle, of Elon College, and Miss Josephine Boyd, of Greensboro. They wore sky-blue gowns of the same style as that of the maid of honor, with matching satin slippers. All of the attendants wore bandeaux of velveteen, with small bows at the side, and small pearl earrings. They carried bouquets of white and blue chrysanthemums.

Best man was Donald Mays, of Henderson, Ky., a schoolmate of the bridegroom at the Boston University School of Theology. Ushers were Clyde Dungee, of Greensboro, a brother of the bride; Andrew Johnson, of Red Bank, N. J., and John Snead, of San Antonio, Texas.

• • •

IMMEDIATELY following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of Mrs. M. V. Reynolds, the bride's godmother. Among those assisting were Mrs. Cora D. Boyd of Greensboro, and Miss Mary Head of Winston-Salem. The bride's bouquet was caught by Miss Kernodle.

Mrs. Caldwell is a 1957 graduate of Bennett College, where she was active in many organizations, among them Kappa Phi and Alpha Kappa Mu. She is presently employed at the Boston University School of Nursing.

• • •

MR. CALDWELL, a 1956 graduate of A. and T. College, will be graduated from the Boston University School of Theology in June. He is a member of Alpha Phi Alpha fraternity.

The couple left for an undisclosed honeymoon immediately after the reception and will be at home, after December 7, at 14 Buswell St. in Boston.

• • •

AMONG THE out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Enoch and family and Mrs. Ora Mae Dungee, all of Harrisburg, Pa.; John A. Dungee and Miss Mary Ensley, of New York City; Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Dungee, of East Spencer, N. C.; Mrs. O. R. Simpson, of Leaksville, and Mr. and Mrs. C. H. McClendon, of Raleigh.

MR. AND MRS. GILBERT H. CALDWELL
At Wedding Reception

College Chums Are Married

GREENSBORO

A college romance reached its climax here Saturday Nov. 30 at 4 p.m. when Miss Grace Estelle Dungee and Gilbert Haven Caldwell, Jr., were married in a double-ring ceremony by Bishop Edgar A. Love, of Baltimore, Md. at Mount Carmel Methodist Church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. Edward J. Dungee and the late Mrs. Dungee and the bridegroom is the son of the Rev. and Mrs. G. Haven Caldwell, all of this city.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of Mrs. M. V. Reynolds, the bride's godmother. Among those assisting were Mrs. Cora D. Boyd of Greensboro, and Miss Mary Head of Winston-Salem. The bride's bouquet was maught by Miss Kernodle.

Mrs. Caldwell is a 1957 graduate of Bennett College, where she was active in many organizations, among them Kappa Phi and Alpha Kappa Mu. She is presently employed at the Boston University School of Nursing.

BENNETT SENIORS ELECTED TO WHO'S WHO

Ten Bennett College students, all seniors, representing five states and one foreign country, have been elected to Who's Who In American Colleges and Universities.

The list includes the editor of the student newspaper, president of the student newspaper, president of the student senate, president of the senior choir, and the student representative to the central administrative committee.

The complete list follows:

Misses Carolyn Brown, Johnson City, Tenn., editor of Bennet Banner; Peggy Coefield, Kinston, N. C., superintendent of Church School and secretary of Senior Choir; Jimmie English, Camden, S. C., president of the Student Senate; Patricia Hopkins, Miami, Fla., vice-president of the Student Union; Deloris Tonkins, Greensboro, N. C., student representative to Central Administrative Committee and vice-president of Alpha Kappa Mu;

Misses Onuma Uko, Eastern Nigeria, West-Africa, member of International Relations Club; Fredrica Washington, Beaufort, S. C., corresponding secretary of Alpha Kappa Mu; Mable Waters, Dudley, N. C., chairman of Mid-Week Vespers Committee president of Student NEA, and publicity chairman of the English Club; Rosemary Wright, Camden, S. C., president of Student Union and assistant secretary of the Women's Athletic Association; and Yvonne Wynne, Jamaica, N. Y., co-editor of Bennett Banner and president of the Senior Choir.

Classmates Married in Greensboro

GREENSBORO, N. C.—A college romance reached its climax when Miss Grace Estell Dungee and Gilbert Haven Caldwell Jr., were married in a double-ring ceremony by Bishop Edgar A. Love of Baltimore, Md., at Mt. Carmel Methodist Church.

The bride is the daughter of Edward J. Dungee and the late Mrs. Dungee and the bridegroom is the son of the Rev. and Mrs. G. Haven Caldwell.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a full length white taffeta gown with an inset of pale blue lace.

Her maid of honor, Miss Cecile Harrison of Houston Tex., wore a blue-green taffeta cocktail-length gown.

The bridesmaids, Miss Vera Kernodle, Elon College, and Miss Josephine Boyd of Greensboro, wore sky-blue gowns of the same style.

Best man was Donald Mays of Henderson, Ky. Ushers were Clyde Dungee, Greensboro; Andrew Johnson, Red Bank, N. J.; and John Snead, San Antonio, Tex.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of Mrs. M. V Reynolds, the bride's godmother. Among those assisting were Mrs. Cora D. Boyd of Grennsboro, and Miss Mary Head of Winston-Salem.

Mrs. Caldwell is a 1957 graduate of Bennett College. She is presently employed at the Boston

MRS. G. H. CALDWELL JR.

University School of Nursing, Boston.

Mr. Caldwell, a 1956 graduate of A & T College, will be graduated from the Boston University School of Theology in June.

Living Madonnas Seen By Capacity Audience

A near - capacity audience greeted the traditional presentation of the "Living Madonnas" at Bennett College, Sunday night in Pfeiffer Chapel.

Against a background of appropriate Christmas music provided by the freshman choir, eight scenes, representing "Madonnas of the Italian Renaissance," were recreated by a cast of 27 students. Among them were Raphael's "Madonna of the Chair;" Correggio's "The Virgin in Adoration," and Fra Angelico's "The Flight Into Egypt."

Miss Rudene Abney was this year's reader. Musical interludes were supplied by Clarence E. Whiteman, college organist. The stage crew handling scenery, lights and properties, working in complete darkness contributing much to the smoothness of the production.

active in many organizations, among them Kappa Phi and Alpha Kappa Mu. She is presently employed at the Boston University School of Nursing.

Caldwell, a 1956 graduate of A. & T. college, will be graduated from the Boston University School of Theology in June. He is a member of Alpha Phi Alpha fraternity.

The couple left for an undisclosed honeymoon retreat immediately after the reception and will be at home, after Dec. 7, at 14 Buswell st. in Boston.

Among the out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Enoch and family and Mrs. Ora Mae Dungee, all of Harrisburg, Pa.; John A. Dungee and Miss Mary Ensley, of New York City.

DAILY DEFENDER

MISS KAY WALLACE (center) of Cambridge, Mass., international administrator for the U. S. National Student Association, talks with two seniors at Bennett college, Greensboro, N. C., during her visit to the campus. At left is Miss Yvonne Wynne of Jamaica, N. Y., president of the senior choir. Miss Addie Watson of Charlotte, N. C., student senate vice president, is at right.

Defender 12/10/57

HOSPITAL GIVES CHECK — Dr. T. T. Tildon, manager of the Tuskegee VA Hospital, is shown above presenting the contribution of the hospital to the annual campaign of the United Negro College Fund to Dr. Earl T. Odom, campaign chairman. The VA Hospital includes the UNCF in its combined giving plan. Witnessing the presentation of the check, left to right, are Dr. Kennedy, chairman of the Steering Committee; W. J. Trent, executive director, UNCF, N. City; Dr. Odom, Dr. Tildon and Dr. L. H. Foster, honorary chairman.

Miss Washington Wins $250 From College Faculty

GREENSBORO — Miss Fredrica Washington, a rising senior, of Beaufort, S. C., was revealed as the recipient of the $250 faculty scholarship for 1957-58, during Honors Day exercises at Bennett College Friday.

Miss Washington, a commercial education major, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Washington, and in 1954 was valedictorian at the Robert Smalls High School in Beaufort. She plans a career as a secretary or instructor.

The $75 Belle Tobias scholarship, given annually to the freshman considered to have made the most outstanding improvement during the year, went to Miss Agatha M. Ricks, of Elm City.

Miss Ricks, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wylie Ricks, is a premedical education major and plans a career as a doctor. She was salutatorian of the 1956 class at Douglass High School. Two older sisters were graduated from Bennett in 1948 and 1949, respectively.

Othr prizes and honors announced were:

Miss Jacqueline S. Herbin - the Lula Donnell Prize given each year to the freshman from Greensboro, considered to have made the most outstanding record;

Miss Barbara A. Graves, senior, of Pelham - the Class of 1921 Prize for excellence in science, awarded each year to a junior or senior;

Miss Marlene I. Beavers, rising senior, of Danville, Va. - the Goode prize for Home Economics, given to the sophomore or junior who best exemplifies the characteristics of a model home economics student:

Miss Edith M. Tucker, of Elkin - the Omicron Eta Chi Award, to the freshman member who best exemplifies the characteristics expected of a model home economics student;

Miss Carolyn M. Ingram, senior, of Durham — the David D. Jones Leadership Award, to the junior or senior exhibiting the most outstanding qualities of leadership in the activities of the David D. Jones Student Union during the year; and Miss Linelle F. Walker, rising senior, of Nassau, Bahamas - the Irma Graham Prize, for excellence in science, awarded each year to a junior or senior.

Announcement was also made that four students had won cash prizes in a national essay contest sponsored by the Intercollegiate Association for Alcohol Studies, of Columbus, Ohio. They are: Misses Geneva Baldwin, of Pittsboro, $10, and Precious Aldrich, McBee, S. C., Barbara Hammond, Winston-Salem, and Sonja Weldon, Chicago, all of whom won $5 prizes. Miss Oshia Brown of Asheville, who wrote a winning essay in a contest sponsored by a national silver manufacturing company, received a starter set of silver, china and crystal.

The Endowment Cup, won by the freshman class for contributing the largest sum to the endowment drive in 1956-57, was presented to Miss Mary Boone, of Sanford, class president, by Miss Paula Edmunds, of Cincinnati, president of the Student Senate.

BENNETT GRADS—Six members of the 1957 class of Bennett College who hail from Middle Atlantic and New England states from left to right, first row, Delores Johnson, Baltimore, Md.; Phyliss Henry, Odessa, Del.; Barbara Rice, Baltimore, Md.; Ethel Maddox, Federalsburg, Md. Second row, Doris Striggles, St. Albans, L.I.; and Helen Green, New York City.

106 (largest) candidates get degrees at Bennett College

GREENSBORO, N.C. —Some 106 candidates, the largest class to graduate from Bennett College, received degrees at the institution's comencement exercises Monday.

Bishop J. W. E. Bowen of Atlanta delivered the baccalaureate address Sunday and Dr. Arthur S. Flemming, president of Ohio Wesleyan University, Delaware, Ohio give the commencement address.

The list of candidates, by states, are:

NORTH CAROLINA (B.A.): Deloris Alexander, Winston-Salem; Lula Allison, Troutman; Alice Badgett, Pelham; Mary Branch, Henderson; Lena Brooks, Hillsboro; Betty J. Bryant, Smithfield; Dorothy L. Carr, Charlotte; Barbara J. Carson, Lexington; Grace M. Coleman, Charlotte; Pauline Dixon, Burlington; Grace E. Dungee, Greensboro; Betty J. East, Pilot Mountain;

Mrs. Betty Smith Echols, Greensboro; Phebie L. Ewings, Mt. Gilead; Cloia Delores Ford, Henderson; Ernestine Foster, Mocksville; Jacqueline E. Hamlett, Greensboro; Dorothy A. Harris, Greensboro; Gwendolyn E. Harris, Greensboro; Alice R. Hayes, Whiteville; Bettye Jean Higgins, Greensboro; Shirley J. Hudson, Greensboro; Carolyn M. Ingram, Durham; Lela B. Johnson, Greensboro;

Rutha A. Johnson, Cedar Grove; Edith P. Kernodle, Elon College; Doris A. Lanier, Bath; F. Jean Lewis, Morganton; Margarie B. Mays, Greensboro; Mrs. Juanita Jackson McCain, Charlotte; Janie L. McCorkle, Winston-Salem; Annie C. McGimpsey, Morganton; Mattie Bee McRae, Laurinburg; Mrs. Jeanne Sugg Moore, Rich Square; Mrs. Delores Isley Noble, Greensboro;

Ida B. Parker, Mebane; Sylvia M. Pretlow, Rocky Mount; Blondelle L. Reid, Greensboro; Jean Renwick, Statesville; J. Ann Rhoden, Charlotte; Melvina Sibert, Trinity; Mrs. Annie Ruth P. Simpson, Greensboro; Thelma R. Simpson, Greensboro; Mrs. Barbara Wyite Smith, Raleigh;

Peggie A. Smith, Greensboro; Virginia D. Smith, Roxboro; Cynthia J. Speas, Winston-Salem; Ann M. Stewart, Reidsville; Levine Williams, New Bern; Ann R. Wofford, Charlotte; Minnie F. Yarborough, Kittrell; Doris Y. Young, Morganton.

Gladys J. Bridges, Wilson; Barbara E. Davis, Raeford; Queen Esther Farris, Roxboro; Berneatha Fennell, Burgaw; Helen Frances, Lumberton; Tiny Ann Gaddy, Winston-Salem; Barbara A. Graves, Pelham; Dorothy R. Hall, Pleasant Garden; Marcella A. Ireland, Greensboro; Vera A. Kernodle, Elon College; Margaret Tatum, Greensboro; Mildred M. Taylor, Greensboro; Sadie A. Williams, Fayetteville; Sara C. Williams, Henderson.

SOUTH CAROLINA (B.A.) — Mildred N. Battiste, Kingstree; Maymie J. Ellerbe, Cheraw; Evelyn R. Gary, Columbia; Jacqueline M. McAlister, Kingstree; Odella Washington, Beaufort.

BACHELOR OF SCIENCE — Precious L. Aldrich, McBee; Cecily L. Baxley, Columbia; Novella Hinton, Columbia.

VIRGINIA, WEST VIRGINIA — (B.A.) Margaret Benton, Norfolk; Doris Boisseau, Richmond; Barbara J. Elliott, Portsmouth; Virginia M. Holland, Superior W. Va.; Joyce L. Martin, Hampton; Mary E. Miller, Lynchburg; Flora M. Smith, Clarksburg, W. Va.; Consuelo L. Watkins, Danville.

OTHERS (B.A.) — Carolyn R. Crawford, Morristown, Tenn.; Paula M. Edmunds, Cincinnati, Ohio; Audrey F. Mead, Bristol, Tenn.; Geraldine W. Parrish, Glendale, Ohio; Ann M. Cooper, Glendale, Ohio; Edythe J. Fulton, Morristown, Tenn.; Gloria A. Blatch, Miami, Fla.; Harriette A. Daniels, Moultrie, Ga.; Mary F. Halloway, Meridian, Miss.; Julia M. McClain, Grady, Ala.; Mrs. Margaret S. Williams, Fernandina Beach, Fla.; Thelma S. Culbreth, New York; Helen Green, New York; Phyllis Elizabeth Henry, Odessa, Del.; Dolores P. Johnson, Baltimore; Ethel R. Maddo, Federalsburg, Md.; Shirley A. Moore, Jamaica, N.Y.; Sylvia E. Tyson, New Haven, Conn.; munity; a responsibility to help the church accomplish its mission, and a responsibility to work for peace in the world.

BACHELOR OF SCIENCE — Barbara J. Rice, Baltimore; Doris A. Striggles, St. Albans, L.I., Marion C. Moore, Topeka, Kans.; and bachelor of arts to Marie A. Slaughter, Newport, Ky.; Martinele J. West, Chicago, Ill.

Refering to the issue of war and peace, he said: "There is no issue that will have a greater impact upon the lives of the members of this graduating class, and as we face the future, I believe that we can do so with a feeling of optimism rather than with a feeling of pessimism.

"I believe that the mobilization program that is being followed by the United States and the other nations of the free world may deter the forces of international communism from aggression. I like to think of our mobilization program as one that is 'buying time' for us until spiritual forces provide us with a spiritual breakthrough that will bring us to a pathway that leads to peace."

The immature person, said Dr. Flemming, complains about the darkness, but the Christian sees in the darkness a challenge to do something about it.

"Light the candle of love for your neighbor," he counseled the graduates, "and have the satisfaction of knowing that you have helped to dispel the darkness by setting in motion the only force that can bring peace to a strife-torn world."

Dr. Willa B. Player, president of the college, who conferred the degrees, reminded the graduates that no life is worth anything without some struggle and charged them, through their personal living, to make a lasting impact uponthose whose lives they may touch.

Valedictorian of the class was Miss Marie Slaughter, of Newport, Ky. Miss Grace E. Rungee of Greensboro, was salutatorian.

'Liberty' for Every Student

Bennett Eyes New Vistas

GREENSBORO, N. C. — New vistas in higher education for women have been set by Dr. Willa B. Player, who last October was inaugurated as president of Bennett College.

Bennett's first woman president, who began her career here as a teacher 25 years ago, has dedicated her life to bringing "to fuller fruition the ideals and purposes for which the college stands.

It is her aim to:

1. Help each student to come to a full sense of her identity as a person and create a climate in which each may gain release from the prison of self;

2. Develop new criteria for the choice of careers;

3. Re-examine the moral, social and cultural aspects of campus life, and

4. Provide competence, responsible participation and liberty for every student.

"Ours will be the task," says Dr. Player, "of sending out graduates equipped in every respect to help release from bondage a region enslaved with the chains of hate and segregation, and to lead forth a people into the full understanding and realization of their rights, privileges and responsibilities as citizens in America's envisioned democracy."

Bennett Expands Courses

GREENSBORO, N. C. — Beginning with the Fall semester, Bennett College will offer a major in mathematics, it is announced by Dr. Willa B. Player, president.

The growing demand from students for more courses in the sciences has also led the college to increase its offerings next year in anatomy bacteriology and physiology for students preparing for careers in medicine, dentistry and medical technology.

Announcement was also made of a collaborative program in nursing involving Bennett and the College of Nursing at Wayne State University in Detroit, whereby this year's graduate will be accepted at Wayne for professional training in nursing.

Granted Award

Miss Wilhelmina J. Gilbert, business education instructor at Bennett College, Greensboro, N. C. has been granted

MISS W. J. GILBERT
Cokesbury Award

a Cokesbury award in College Teaching through the Board of Education of the Methodist Church. She has been given a year's leave to continue her doctoral studies.

Bennett Teacher Wins Fellowship

GREENSBORO, N. C.— Award of a National Medical Fellowships Inc. grant to William B. LeFlore, biology instructor at Bennett College, was announced this week.

Mr. LeFlore has been granted a one-year leave of absence in order that he may continue study toward his doctorate at the University of Southern California at Berkeley, California. A graduate of St. Augustine's College at Raleigh, Mr. LeFlore earned his M. S. degree at Atlanta University.

• • •

THE AWARD, which is renewable, will be administered by the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis. Mr. LeFlore will enroll in September.

Announcement was also made that three other members of the Bennett faculty have been granted summer study scholarships by the Board of Education of the Methodist Church.

They are Miss Amaleta Moore, director of residences; James McMillan, art instructor, and James J. Scarlette, business manager and instructor in mathematics.

AT BENNETT COLLEGE—Winning top prizes at Honors Day program last week were, from left, front, Misses Carolyn Ingram, Durham; Linelle Walker, Nassau, Bahamas; Marlene Beavers, Danville, Va.; back row, Agatha Ricks, Elm City; Frederica Washington, Beaufort, S.C., and Edith M. Tucker, Elkin.

HOLD CONCERT

Music from a dozen nations, some of it dating back to the 16th century, was sung by the Bennett College Choir in its annual Christmas candlelight concert in Pfeiffer Chapel last night. The singers, directed by Mrs. Mary Crawford, with Clarence E. Whiteman at the organ, closed their concert with "Goodnight and Christmas Prayer" by Myles Birket Foster. Among the soloists were Eleanor Bell, Wilmington; Mattie McRae, Laurinburg; Helen McEeachern, Rowland; Paula Edmunds, Cincinnati, Ohio; Martha Reid, Greenville, and Grace Atkinson, Four Oaks.

GREENSBORO — Candidates for graduation at Bennett College on [illegible] largest class in the history of the institution, Miss Mary Mayfield, registrar, announced this week.

Bishop J. W. E. Bowen, of Atlanta, delivered the baccalaureate address at 4 p. m. on Sunday, May 26 and at 10:30 a. m. the following day. Dr. Arthur S. Flemming, president of Ohio Wesleyan University, Delaware, Ohio gave the commencement address.

The list of candidates follows:

NORTH CAROLINA

B. A.

Deloris Alexander, Winston-Salem; Lula Allison, Troutman; Alice Badgett, Pelham; Mary Branch, Henderson; Lena Brooks, Hillsboro; Betty J. Bryant, Smithfield; Dorothy L. Carr, Charlotte; Barbara J. Carson, Lexington; Grace M. Coleman, Charlotte; Pauline Dixon, Burlington; Grace E. Dungee, Greensboro; Betty J. East, Pilot Mountain;

Mrs. Betty Smith Echols, Greensboro; Phebie L. Ewings, Mt. Gilead; Cloia Delores Ford, Henderson; Ernestine Foster, Mocksville; Jacqueline E. Hamlett, Greensboro; Dorothy A. Harris, Greensboro; Gwendolyn E. Harris, Greensboro; Alice R. Hayes, Whiteville; Bettye Jean Higgins, Greensboro; Shirley J. Hudson, Greensboro; Carolyn M. Ingram, Durham; Lela B. Johnson, Greensboro;

Rutha A. Johnson, Cedar Grove; Edith P. Kernodle, Elon College; Doris A. Lanier, Bath; F. Jean Lewis, Morganton; Margarie B. Mays, Greensboro; Mrs. Juanita Jackson McCain, Charlotte; Janie L. McCorkle, Winston-Salem; Annie C. McGimpsey, Morganton; Mattie Bee McRae, Laurinburg; Mrs. Jeanne Sugg Moore, Rich Square; Mrs. Delores Isley Noble, Greensboro;

Ida B. Parker, Mebane; Sylvia M. Pretlow, Rocky Mount; Blondelle L. Reid, Greensboro; Jean Renwick, Statesville; J. Ann Rhoden, Charlotte; Melvina Sibert, Trinity; Mrs. Annie Ruth P. Simpson, Greensboro; Thelma R. Simpson, Greensboro; Mrs. Barbara Wyite Smith, Raleigh;

Peggie A. Smith, Greensboro; Virginia D. Smith, Roxboro; Cynthia J. Speas, Winston-Salem; Ann M. Stewart, Reidsville; Levine

MD., DEL., N. Y., AND CONN.

B. A.

Thelma S. Culbreth, New York; Helen Green, New York; Phyllis Elizabeth Henry, Odessa, Del.; Delores P. Johnson, Baltimore; Ethel R. Maddox, Federalsburg, Md.; Shirley A. Moore, Jamaica, N. Y.; Sylvia E. Tyson, New Haven, Conn.

B. S.

Barbara J. Rice, Baltimore; Doris A. Striggles, St. Albans, L. I.

OTHER STATES

B. A.

Marie A. Slaughter, Newport, Ky.; Martinele J. West, Chicago, Ill.

B. S.

Marion C. Moore, Topeka, Kansas.

THESE BENNETT COLLEGE sophomores, Yvonne Brown (left) of Elon college, N. C., and Rudene Abney, Norristown, Pa., admire bridal wreath blossoms that have burst forth in profusion in front of the Fine Arts building of the Greensboro, N. C. school. Unseasonable low temperatures of the past few weeks and previously kept girls and flowers buttoned up.

Blooms—These Bennett College students take time out to admire bridal wreath of blossoms in front of the Fine Arts Building. Left to right: Hazeline Taylor of Charlotte, Wilhelmina Gatewood of Gary, W. Va., and Doris Wyche of New Canaan, Conn.

27

OPERA HIGHLIGHTS — Some of the music students at Bennett College who presented a program of "Opera Highlights" in the Little Theatre last week, are shown in a scene from Tchaikovsky's "Queen of Spades." Singing duet are, left to right, Misses Martha Reid, soprano, of Greenville, N. C. and Grace Atkinson, contralto, of Four Oaks. On left, listening, are Misses DeQuincey Johnson of Lenoir and Helen McEachern, of Rowland. On right are Misses Delories Jackson, of Red Springs, and Ruthello McCoy, of Elizabeth City.

106 earn degrees at Bennett College

GREENSBORO, N.C. — Life's greatest satisfactions come from helping others realize their highest possibilities, Dr. Arthur S. Flemming told 106 seniors as Bennett College held its 84th commencement exercises here Monday.

The class — largest in the history of the college — was made up of representatives of 18 states, and included one member of the 1955 class who returned to receive her degree at this time.

Dr. Flemming, president of Ohio Wesleyan University, Delaware, Ohio, who just a few months ago returned to his post there, after serving as director of the Office of Defense Mobilization, spoke to an audience that jammed all available space in Annie Merner Pfeiffer Chapel and overflowed into the adjoining Little Theatre auditorium where amplifiers had been set up to carry the program.

* * *

TAKING AS his subject, "Our Common Responsibility," Dr. Flemming, a schoolmate of Bennett's president pointed to the Commandment: "Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself," as being at the heart of the Judao-Christian tradition.

"This commandment," he said, "places upon each of us a common responsibility — A responsibility which, if assumed, provides our lives with both a center and direction."

The speaker declared that the commandment places upon all who assume it, a common responsibility in the field of government; a responsibility to help the various welfare agencies in the community; a responsibility to help the church accomplish its mission, and a responsibility to work for peace in the world.

The immature person, said Dr. Flemming, complains about the darkness, but the Christian sees in the darkness a challenge to do something about it.

"Light the candle of love for your neighbor," he counseled the graduates, "and have the satisfaction of knowing that you have helped to dispel the darkness by setting in motion the only force that can bring peace to a strife-torn world."

* * *

DR. WILLA B. PLAYER, president of the college, who conferred the degrees, reminded the graduates that no life is worth anything without some struggle and charged them, through their personal living, to make a lasting impact upon those whose lives they may touch.

Valedictorian of the class was Miss Marie Slaughter, of Newport, Ky. Miss Grace E. Dungee of Greensboro, was salutatorian.

In his baccalaureate sermon on Sunday, the Rt. Rev. J. W. E. Bowen, resident Methodist Bishop of Atlanta, Georgia, and a classmate of the late Dr. David D. Jones at Wesleyan University in Connecticut, told the graduates that they must learn to be able to distinguish between what is fundamental in life and what is only incidental.

"There are many fundamentals for a truly righteous life," he said, "but I shall mention but three of them here. First, there is the absolute necessity to found your life upon a broad faith in God. Second, develop skill of mind and hand — the ability to operate them smoothly and correctly — and develop self control and self direction.

"Self control," he continued, "means not only the ability to hold ones self back, but the ability to move in the direction that one wants to go."

Bishop Bowen warned the graduates not to become a part of an unthinking mass of humanity, led by demagogues skilled in mass psychology.

"For those who want to make a righteous life, with the smile of God upon it," he concluded, "build your lives upon a foundation that cannot be destroyed."

* * *

RECEIVING bachelor of art degrees were:

NORTH CAROLINA — Deloris Alexander, Winston-Salem; Lula Allison, Troutman; Alice Badgett, Pelham; Mary Branch, Henderson; Lena Brooks, Hillsboro; Betty J. Bryant, Smithfield; Dorothy L. Carr, Charlotte; Barbara J. Carson, Lexington; Grace M. Coleman, Charlotte; Pauline Dixon, Burlington;

Grace E. Dungee, Greensboro; Betty J. East, Pilot Mountain; Mrs. Betty Smith Echols, Greensboro; Phebie L. Ewings, Mt. Gilead; Cloia Delores Ford, Henderson; Ernestine Foster, Mocksville; Jacqueline E. Hamlett, Gibsboro; Dorothy A. Harris, Grnsbr;

Gwadlyn E. Harris, Greensboro; Alice R. Hayes, Whiteville; Bettye Jean Higgins, Greensboro; Shirley J. Hudson, Greensboro; Carolyn M. Ingram, Durham; Lela B. Johnson, Greensboro; Ruth A. Johnson, Cedar Grove; Doris A. Lanier, Bath; F. Jean Lewis, Morgantown;

Margarie B. Mays, Greensboro; Mrs. Juanita Jackson M. McCain, Charlotte; Janie L. McCorkle, Winston-Salem; Annie C. McGimpsey, Morganton; Maitie Bee McRae, Laurinburg; Mrs. Jeanne S. Moore, Rich Square;

Mrs. Delores J. Noble, Greensboro; Mrs. Altona L. Payne, Henderson; Ida F. Parker, Mebane; Sylvia M. Pretlow, Rocky Mount; Blondelle L. Reid, Greensboro; Jean Renwick, Statesville; Jo Ann Rhodeh, Charlotte; Melvina Silbert, Trinity;

Mrs. Annie Ruth P. Simpson, Greensboro; Thelma R. Simpson, Greensboro; Mrs. Barbara White Smith, Raleigh; Peggie A. Smith, Greensboro; Virginia D. Smith, Roxboro; Cynthia J. Speas, Winston-Salem; Ann M. Stewart, Reidsville;

Levine Williams, Newbern; Ann B. Wofford, Charlotte; Minnie F. Yarborough, Kittrell; Doris Y. Young, Morganton.

Bachelor of Science—Gladys J. Briggers, Wilson; Barbara E. Davis, Raeford; Queen E. Farrish, Roxboro; Berneatha Fennell, Burgaw; Helen Frances, Lumberton; Tiny A. Gaddy, Winston-Salem;

Barbara A. Graves, Pelham; Dorothy R. Hall, Pleasant Garden; Mildred M. Taylor, Greensboro; Sadie A. Williams, Fayetteville; Sara C. Williams, Henderson.

SOUTH CAROLINA — Bachelor of art: Mildred N. Battiste, Kingstree; Mayme J. Ellerbe, Cheraw; Evelyn R. Gary, Columbia; Jacqueline M. McAllister, Kingstree; Washington, Beaufort;

Bachelor of science: Presious L. Aldrich, McBee; Cecily L. Baxley, Columbia; Novella Hinton, Columbia;

VIRGINIA, WEST VIRGINIA — Bachelor of art: Margaret Benton, Norfolk; Doris Boisseau, Richmond; Barbara J. Elliott, Portsmouth; Virginia M. Holland, Superior, W. Va.; Joyce L. Martin, Hampton; Mary E. Miller, Lynchburg; Flora M. Smith, Clarksburg, W.Va.; Consuelo L. Watkins, Danville;

OHIO — Bachelor of Arts: Paula M. Edmunds, Cincinnati, Geraldine W. Parrish, Glendale; bachelof of science: Anna M. Cooper, Glendale;

TENNESSEE — Bachelor of arts: Carolyn R. Crawford, Morristown; Audrey F. Mead, Bristol; bachelor of science: Edythe J. Fulton, Morristown;

OTHER STATES — Bachelor of Arts: Gloria A. Blatch, Miami, Fla., Harriette A. Daniels, Moultrie, Ga., Mary F. Holloway, Meridian, Miss., Julia M. McClain, Grady, Ala., Mrs. Margaret S. Williams, Fernandina Beach, Fla.

Thelma S. Culbreth, New ork; Helen Greeh, New York; Phillis Elizabeth Henry, Odessa, Del.; Dolores P. Johnson, Baltimore; Ethel R. Maddox, Federalsburg, Md.; Shirley A. Moore, Jamaica, N.Y.; Sylvia E. Tyson, New Haven, Conn., Marie A. Slaughter, Newport, Ky.; Martinele J. West, Chicago, Ill.;

Bachelor of science — Marion C. Monroe, Topeka, Kansas; Barbara J. Rice, Baltimore, Md., Doris A. Striggiefuy, St. Albans, L.I., N.Y.

106 Seniors Graduated At Bennett

By Luix Overbea
Staff Reporter

GREENSBORO, May 27— Life's greatest satisfaction comes from helping others realize their own highest possibilities, Dr. Arthur S. Flemming, president of Ohio Wesleyan University of Delaware, Ohio, declared today as he addressed the 84th commencement exercises of Bennett College.

Four students from Winston-Salem and seven from nearby areas were among the 106 graduates, the largest class in Bennett history.

The Winston-Salem graduates were Miss Joan Speas, Miss Deloris Alexander and Miss Janie L. McCorkle, bachelor of arts degrees in elementary education, and Miss Tiny Gaddy, bachelor of science degree.

Speaking from the topic, "Our Common Responsibility," Dr. Flemming called on the graduates to obey the commandment, "Thou shalt love they neighbor as thyself."

Biggest Obligation

"Our one obligation," he said, "is to do all within our power to help our neighbor realize his highest possibilities."

Dr. Flemming, who has served as director of defense mobilization, praised various federal programs and activities for peace.

Dr. Willa B. Player, president of Bennett and a classmate of Dr. Flemming when both were students at Ohio Wesleyan, presided. She charged the graduates with the task of being willing to struggle to create worthwhile lives.

Clarence E. Whiteman, college organist, played pre-program music and the processional and accompanied the choir. The Rev. R. C. Moore of Topeka, Kan., gave the invocation. The Rev. L. E. Maddox of Federalsburg, Md., pronounced benediction.

Graduates from the Winston-Salem area were:

Lula Allison, Troutman; Barbara J. Carson, Lexington; Betty J. East, Pilot Mountain; Ernestine Foster, Mocksville; Jean Renwick, Statesville; Melvina Sibert, Trinity, and Ann M. Stewart, Reidsville. They received bachelor of arts degrees.

Earned 'Who's Who' honor

A graduate of Atkins High School, Miss Alexander is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Will R. Hayes of 1205 East Fourteenth Street at Winston-Salem. She was president of the college choir, president of Reynolds Hall dormitory, a member of "Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities" and a member of other groups.

Miss McCorkle is the daughter of Mrs. Maggie McCorkle of 1402 East Eleven-and-one-half Street and a graduate of Atkins. She sang in the college choir and was a member of the campus YWCA.

A graduate of Carver, Miss Speas is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Speas of 1304 Thurmond Street. Next fall she will teach in the public school system of High Point. She did practice teaching at Carver during the fall semester, when she earned a perfect "A" record in her studies.

She was president of Pfeiffer Hall dormitory and a member of the Women's Athletic Association, the senior marshal board and Tomu, motion picture machine operators.

Miss Gaddy earned her degree in biology and physical education. A graduate of Immanuel Lutheran College, she is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Davis of 1411 East Fourteenth Street.

She received four-year awards from the college choir and Women's Athletic Association. She was president of the athletic group and vice president of the Student Union.

DR. ARTHUR S. FLEMMING IS SPEAKER AT BENNETT'S 84th COMMENCEMENT

Life's greatest satisfactions from helping others realize their highest possibilities, Dr. Arthur S. Flemming told 106 seniors as Bennett College held its 84th commencement exercises here Monday.

The class — largest in the history of the college — was made up of representatives of 18 states, and included one member of the 1955 class who returned to receive her degree at this time.

Dr. Flemming, president of Ohio Wesleyan University, Delaware, Ohio, who just a few months ago returned to his post there, after serving as director of the Office of Defense Mobilization, spoke to an audience that jammed all available space in Annie Merner Pfeiffer Chapel and overflowed into the adjoining Little Theatre auditorium where amplifiers had been set up to carry the program.

Taking as his subject, "Our Common Responsibility," Dr. Flemming, a schoolmate of Bennett's president, pointed to the Commandment: "Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself" as being at the heart of the Judao-Christian tradition.

"This commandment," he said, "places upon each of us a common responsibility — a responsibility which, if assumed, provides our lives with both a center and direction."

The speaker declared that the commandment places upon all who assume it, a common responsibility in the field of government; a responsibility to help the various welfare agencies in the community; a responsibility to help the church accomplish its mission, and a responsibility to work for peace in the world.

Referring to the issue of war and peace, he said: "There is no issue that will have a greater impact upon the lives of the members of this graduating class, and, as we face the future, I believe that we can do so with a feeling of optimism rather than with a feeling of pessimism.

"I believe that the mobilization program that is being followed by the United States and the other nations of the free world may deter the forces of international communism from agression. I like to think of our mobilization program as one that is 'buying time' for us until spiritual forces provide us with a spiritual break-through that will bring us to a pathway that leads to peace."

The immature person, said Dr. Flemming, complains about the darkness, but the Christian sees in the darkness a challenge to do something about it.

"Light the candle of love for your neighbor," he counseled the graduates, "and have the satisfaction of knowing that you have helped to dispel the darkness by setting in motion the only force that can bring peace to a strife-torn world."

Dr. Willa B. Player, president of the college, who conferred the degrees, reminded the graduates that no life is worth anything without some struggle and charged them, through their personal living, to make a lasting impact upon those whose lives they may touch.

Valedictorian of the class was Miss Marie Slaughter, of Newport, Kentucky. Miss Grace E. Dungee of Greensboro, was salutatorian.

In his baccalaureate sermon on Sunday, the Rt. Rev. J. W. E. Bowen, resident Methodist Bishop of Atlanta, Georgia, and a classmate of the late Dr. David D. Jones at Wesleyan University in Connecticut, told the graduates that they must learn to be able to distinguish between what is fundamental in life and what is only incidental.

"There are many fundamentals for a truly righteous life," he said, "but I shall mention but three of them here. First, there is the absolute necessity to found your life upon a broad faith in God. Second, develop skill of mind and hand — the ability to operate them smoothly and correctly — and develop self control and self direction.

"Self control," he continued, "means not only the ability to hold ones self back, but the ability to move in the direction that one wants to go."

Bishop Bowen warned the graduates not to become a part of an unthinking mass of humanity, led by damagogues skilled in mass psychology.

"For those who want to make righteous life, with the smile of God upon it," he concluded, "build your lives upon a foundation that cannot be destroyed."

MRS. F. B. HINNANT, ELECTED PRESIDENT OF GRADUATE ASSOCIATION

Mrs. Fannie B. Hinnant, a teacher at the Laughlin School in Summerfield, was elected president of the Bennett College Graduate Association, here Saturday.

A member of the class of 1945, she succeeds Mrs. Virginia M. Maynard, of Blackstone, Va., a member of the class of 1948.

Members of the graduating class were inducted into the association in an impressive candlelight ceremony in the David D. Jones Student Union.

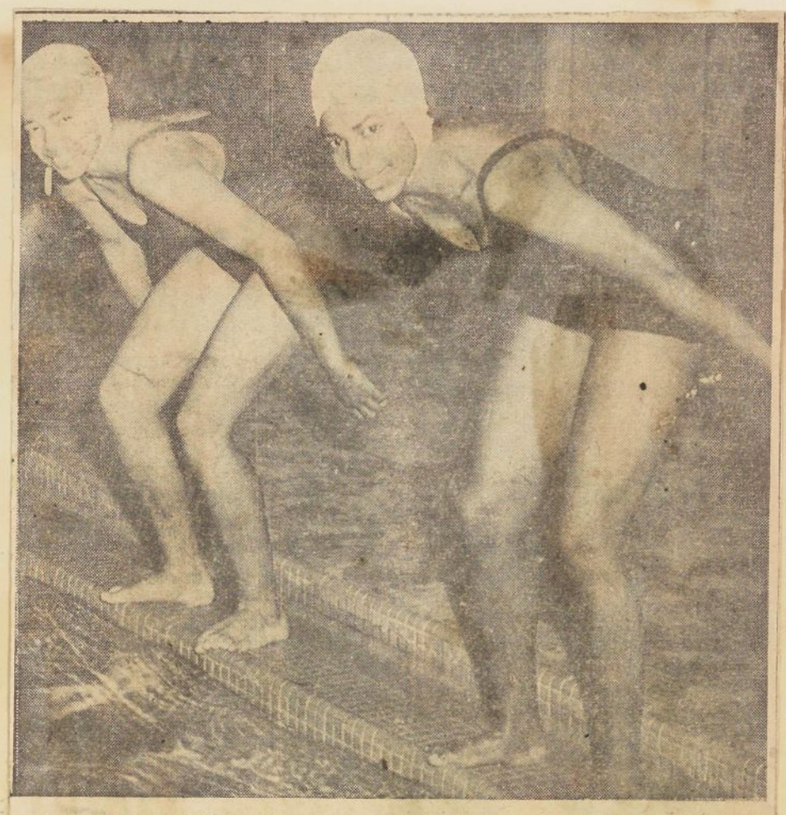

Following a business session the graduates attended the All-Bennett luncheon at which time, members of the 1932 class were honored for their 25th reunion, along with members of the classes of 1937, 1947, and 1952.

Mrs. Susie M. Taylor '32, of Greensboro, presided, and Miss Thomasena Miller, also of Greensboro, brought greetings from that class. Mrs. Geraldine A. Totten, of Greensboro, represented the class of 1937; Dr. Miriam L. McTeer, of Nashville, Tenn., the class of 1947, and Miss Alice Rhodes, of Winston-Salem, represented the class of 1952

Greetings from the seniors were brought by Miss Grace E. Dungee, of Greensboro, and from the faculty by Mrs. Mary Coleman, a member of the 1957 class.

Mrs. Jean Haith, alumnae secretary, reported that $1,495 had been received in the Loyalty Fund and that there were still some reports outstanding. Largest amount reported to date—$850—came from the Greensboro chapter, with the New York chapter second, with $275.

Musical selections were provided by Miss Celeste Fearrington, '39, of Greensboro, and by Miss Jacqueline McAlister, '57, of Kingstree, S. C.

RACE YOU ACROSS!—Two members of the advanced swimming class at Bennett College, Greensboro, N. C., are all set to race each other across the pool at the Hayes-Taylor YMCA. Left to right: Izetta Hicks, Philadelphia, Pa. and Veronica Dean, Miami Fla.

Ohio Wesleyan University students spent two weeks on the Bennett Coll campus as exchange students. Both institutions are Methodist rel

RELIGIOUS DIRECTOR ADDRESS GRADUATES OF PATRICK CENTRAL SCHOOL

STUART, Va. — The main function of education is to teach us how to live, the Rev. John L. Bryan, drector of religious activities at Bennett College, Greensboro, N. C., told the 10 members of the graduating class at Patrick Central School, here Tuesday night.

"There are four things that you can do with your lives," he said. "You can run away from life, you can run with life, you can run your life or you may surrender your life to God for safekeeping."

DR. PLAYER ADDRESSES 145 GRADUATES AT DUDLEY

"By developing a high sensitivity to everything that will help you achieve your purpose in life, you can educate yourselves, "Dr. Wiila B. Payer, president of Bennett College, told the 145 graduates of Dudley High School at their commencement exercises here Thursday night.

Emphasizing their responsibility to educate themselves, Dr. Player urged the members of the class to have a clear purpose in mind and to extend themselves to others not as fortunate as they. Every individual, she declared, must have the opportunity to develop to his or her highest capacity.

BENNETT COLLEGE

A distinctive college for women

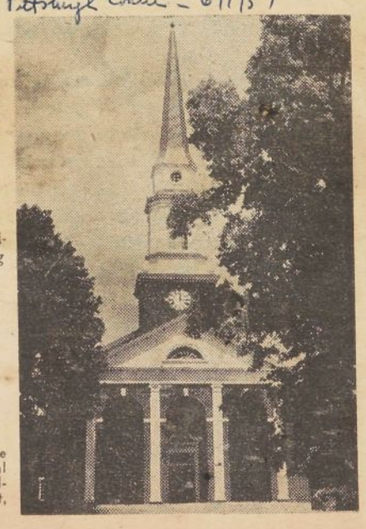

A four-year accredited Class "A" Liberal Arts College

Exceptionally well-qualified to prepare serious-minded students for intelligent living and useful careers.

CURRICULUM

Offers Superior Training in
—The Humanities
—The Sciences, including Home Economics
—The Social Sciences

Outstanding offerings include studies in the theatre arts, library science, secretarial science, medical secretarial and laboratory technology, teacher education, psychology, nursery school education, art, clothing and sociology.

Unique program in pre-medical education

Bennett College stresses high standards of character, morality, scholarship. Individualized instruction enables each student to make maximum use of her abilities and special talents.

FOR ADDITIONAL INFORMATION WRITE:
DIRECTOR OF ADMISSIONS, BENNETT COLLEGE, GREENSBORO, N.C.
Opening Date for Fall Semester, September 11, 1957

NEWS ABOUT PEOPLE

Two members of the senior class at Bennett College have been notified that they have been awarded scholarships for study in the field of religion for the 1957-58 school year.

Miss Julia McClain of Grady, Ala., has been awarded a scholarship to the Hartford (Conn.) Theological Seminary where she will begin studying in September for the Bachelor of Divinity degree.

Miss Phyllis Henry of Odessa, Del., was awarded a scholarship to the Boston University School of Theology where, beginning in September, she will pursue work in the field of religious education.

OWU STUDENTS at Bennett — Enroute to classes at Bennett college, Greensboro, N. C., are Misses Marilou Jones (far left) and Elosia Lee (right) of Ohio Wesleyan university, Delaware, Ohio, and their roommates, Misses Edna Jackson (foreground) and Barbara Hickman (rear). The OWU girls spent two weeks on campus as exchange students. Previously, six Bennett girls spent two weeks at OWU. Both institutions are affiliated with the Methodist church.

Williams, New Bern; Ann R. Wolford, Charlotte; Minnie F. Yarborough, Kittrell; Doris Y. Young, Morganton.

B. S.

Gladys J. Bridgers, Wilson; Barbara E. Davis, Raeford; Queen Esther Farrish, Roxboro; Berneatha Fennell, Burgaw; Helen Frances, Lumberton; Tiny Ann Gaddy, Winston-Salem; Barbara A. Graves, Pelham; Dorothy R. Hall, Pleasant Garden; Marcella A. Ireland, Greensboro; Vera A. Kernodle, Elon College; Margaret Y. Tatum, Greensboro; Mildred M. Taylor, Greensboro; Sadie A. Williams, Fayetteville; Sara C. Williams, Henderson.

SOUTH CAROLINA

B. A.

Mildred N. Battiste, Kingstree; Mayme J. Ellerbe, Cheraw; Evelyn R. Gary, Columbia; Jacqueline M. McAlister, Kingstree; Odella Washington, Beaufort.

B. S.

Precious L. Aldrich, McBee; Cecily L. Baxley, Columbia; Novella Hinton, Columbia.

-VIRGINIA, WEST VIRGINIA -

B. A.

Margaret Benton, Norfolk; Doris Boisseau, Richmond; Barbara J. Elliott, Portsmouth; Virginia M. Holland, Superior W. Va.; Joyce L. Martin, Hampton; Mary E. Miller, Lynchburg; Flora M. Smith, Clarksburg, W. Va.; Consuelo L. Watkins, Danville.

OHIO, TENN.

B. A.

Carolyn R. Crawford, Morristown, Tenn.; Paula M. Edmunds, Cincinnati, Ohio; Audrey F. Mead, Bristol, Tenn.; Geraldine W. Parrish, Glendale, Ohio.

B. S.

Ann M. Cooper, Glendale, Ohio; Edythe J. Fulton, Morristown, Tenn.

FLA., ALA., MISS., AND GA.

B. A.

Gloria A. Blatch, Miami, Fla.; Harriette A. Daniels, Moultrie, Ga.; Mary F. Holloway, Meridian, Miss.; Julia M. McClain, Grady, Ala.; Mrs. Margaret S. Williams, Fernandina Beach, Fla.

Miss Delores Johnson, senior of Baltimore, Md., played the lead in the Greek drama, "Electra" when it was presented at 8 p. m., May 24 on the patio in front of Pfeiffer Chapel at Bennett College.

The Sophocles tragedy, translated by Frances Ferguson and directed by Roger L. Askew, is the final Theatre Guild production of the year.

Miss Ann Stewart, senior of Reidsville, was cast in the role of Chrystothemis; Miss Rudene Abney, sophomore, of Morristown, Pa., as Clytemnestra; Miss Sonia Louden, junior of Cincinnati, Ohio, played the part of the leader.

Eddie Griffin, a county school teacher, played the part of Orestes. Two A. and T. College students, Lloyd Dillard and John Williams played the part of Paidogogos and Aegisthos, respectively. Members of the chorus were Misses Rita Turner of Columbus, Ohio; Shirley Johnson, of McLeansville, and Nannie Poole of Baltimore, Md.

Miss Jean Renwick of Statesville, N. C., was presented in recital Sunday night in Pfeiffer Chapel in the final recital of the year by senior music students at Bennett College.

Opening her program with two numbers from Bustehude, she played compositions by Bach, including his "Toccata" and "Fugue in D Minor"; Handel's "Organ Concerto No. 5 in F Major" and "Behold, A Rose Breaks Into Bloom" by Brahms.

and blue chrysanthemums provided the background against which the brief but impressive ceremony was performed and cathedral tapers, in an arched candelabra, provided the only lighting.

Walter F. Carlson was at the organ in a program of pre - nuptial music and Miss Phoebe Caldwell, contralto, of Philadelphia, a sister of the bridegroom, sang, "Whither Thou Goest" before the ceremony and "The Lord's Prayer" at its conclusion.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a full length white

Joseph T. Harrington of New York City, who graduated from Bennett College in 1926, before it became an exclusive school for women, has been nominated as president of the National Council of Bennett Parents.

TRADITIONAL TEARS FALL —Commencement day at Bennett College, Greensboro, last Monday, has been the tradition for years as a time for tears of joy. Miss Mildred Battste, right, of Kingstree, S. C., consoled by Misses Alice Hayes, left, of Whiteville and Gwendolyn Harris, of Greensboro, members of the advanced swim-

Mrs. Frances B. Hinnant New Bennett Grad Prexy

GREENSBORO — Mrs. Fannie B. Hinnant, a teacher at the Laughlin School in Summerfield was elected president of the Bennett College Graduate Association, here Saturday.

A member of the class of 1935, she succeeds Mrs. Virginia W. Maynard, of Blackstone, Va., a member of the class of 1948.

Members of the graduating class of 1948.

Members of the graduating class were inducted into the association in an impressive candlelight ceremony in the David D. Jones Student Union.

Following a business session the graduates attended the All-Bennett luncheon at which time, members of the 1932 class were honored, for their 25th reunion, along with members of the classes of 1937, 1947 and 1952.

Mrs. Susie M. Taylor, '32, of Greensboro, presided, and Miss Thomasena Miller, also of Greensboro, brought greetings from that class. Mrs. Geraldine A. Totten, of Greensboro, represented the class of 1937; Dr. Miriam L. McTeer, of Nashville, Tenn., the class of 1947, and Miss Alice Rhodes, of Winston-Salem, represented the class of 1952.

Greetings from the seniors were brought by Miss Grace E. Dungee, of Greensboro, and from the faculty by Mrs. Mary Coleman, a member of the 1957 class.

Mrs. Jean Haith, alumnae secretary, reported that $1,495 had been received in the Loyalty Fund and that there were still some reports outstanding. Largest amount reported to date — $850 — came from the Greensboro chapter, with the New York chapter second, with $275.

Musical selections were provided by Miss Celeste Ferrington, '39, of Greensboro and by Miss Jacqueline McAlister.

Bennett Graduate Enters Ministry

GREENSBORO, N. C.—Miss Julia M. McClain, of Grady, Ala., member of the graduating class of Bennett College, was recently notified that she has been granted a license to preach.

Miss McClain, who will attend the Hartford, (Conn.) Theological Seminary on a graduate scholarship in the fall, will study for a Bachelor of Divinity Degree. She was licensed by the Birmingham District of the Central Alabama Annual Conference of the Methodist Church.

Harrington Named President NCBP

Joseph T. Harrington, of New York City, who was graduated from Bennett College before it came a college for women in 1926, was nominated as president of the National Council of Bennett Parents as the annual meeting came to a close here last week.

Mr. Harrington, who served terms as president of the New York chapter, and the entire slate of officers will be voted upon by a mail ballot which was sent to the membership this week.

Other nominees are:

Mrs. Bessie M. Nance, Greensboro, first vice president; Mrs. Alma T. Taylor, Greensboro, second vice president; Mrs. Minnie B. Smith, Greensboro, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Laura F. Sawyer, Salisbury, assistant corresponding secretary; Mrs. David Hammond, Baltimore, Md., recording secretary;

Miss Barbara Campbell, Greensboro, assistant recording secretary; J. R. Smith, Greensboro, financial secretary; Mrs. David D. Jones, Greensboro, treasurer; William I. Gibson, Greensboro, reporter; the Rev. J. E. Brower, Greensboro, parliamentarian, and the Rev. R. C. Moore, Topeka, Kansas, chaplain.

Greetings from the faculty and staff were brought by Dr. J. H. Sayles, chairman of the science division, and Mrs. David Jones, director of admissions spoke on "The Graduate Returns to the Family." President Willa B. Player made a brief statement.

The parents also saw a miniature fashion show featuring student models in original creations, an art demonstration by Misses Sonja Weldon, of Chicago and Gertrude Smith, of Greensboro, and a scene from the commencement play, "Electra," played by Miss Dolores Johnson of Baltimore, and Eddie Griffin, Guilford County school teacher.

Among those attending the meeting were:

Mr. and Mrs. David Hammond, Baltimore, Md.; Mrs. Bennie H. Edmunds, Cincinnati, Ohio; Mrs. James Justice, Cincinnati, Ohio; Mrs. Minnie Biggers, Cincinnati, Ohio; Mrs. Bessie Nance, Greensboro; Mrs. Alma T. Taylor, Greensboro; Mrs. J. E. Hankins, Louisville, Ky.; Mr. and Mrs. William Parrish, Glendale, Ohio;

Mrs. Ophelia Williams, Baltimore, Md.; Mrs. Thomas J. Wright, Cincinnati, Ohio; the Rev. Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Moore, Topeka, Kansas; Mrs. Carrie Green, Annapolis, Md.; Mrs. Lelia Zeigler, Anniston, Ala.; The Rev. J. E. Brower, Greensboro; Mrs. Daniel Lanier, Bath, N. C.; Mrs. Mary Blatch, Miami, Florida; Mrs. Philip A. Henry, Chestertown, Md.;

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Holloway, Meridian, Miss.; Mr. and Mrs. Edward Belo, High Point, N. C.; Mrs. Anna S. Ellerbe, Cheraw, S. C.; Mrs. Nora Ford, Henderson; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Tyson, New Haven, Conn.; Mrs. Pauline Brooks, Ninde, Va.; Mrs. Henry McGimpsey, Morganton, N. C.; Mrs. Lucille Wofford, Charlotte; Mr. and Mrs. N. L. McCorkle, Winston-Salem; Mrs. Zepplyn Averett, Greensboro;

Mrs. Delia Lewis, Morganton, N. C.; Mrs. E. L. Rhoden, Charlotte; Mr. and Mrs. Zollie Striggles, St. Albans, N. Y.; Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Smith, Greensboro; Joseph Harrington, New York; Mrs. Cleola Hudson, Greensboro, and Phillip Davis, Raeford, N. C.

Miss Carolyn Ingram, daughter of Mrs. Bernice Ingram, 1213 Fayetteville Street, is shown here as she gets degree from President Willa B. Player at Bennett College commencement exercises on May 27. Miss Ingram had previously received the David D. Jones leadership award.

March 3 for two weeks on the campus of Ohio Wesleyan University at Delaware. On March 31, four white girls from Wesleyan went to the North Carolina campus, she added.

Under the exchange, worked out by the Bennett and Wesleyan faculties, the students will enter completely into the life of the campus, Dr. Player said.

Bennett Chaplain Speaks In Stuart

STUART, Va. — The main function of education is to teach us how to live, the Rev. John L. Bryan, director of religious activities at Bennett College, Greensboro, N. C., told the 10 members of the graduating clas at Patrick Central School, last week.

"There are four things that you can do with your lives," he said. "You can run away from life, you can run with life, you can run your life, or you may surrender your life to God for safekeeping."

BENNETT COLLEGE GRADUATES — Caught by cameraman shortly after doffing robes on commencement day are, from left, Mrs. Bett. S. Echols, Mrs. Delores I. Noble, Misses Dorothy Harris, Lela B. Johnson, Gwendolyn Harris, Betty Higgins, Grace Dungee, Blondell Reid, Jacqueline Hamlet, Charlie Mays, Peggy Smith and Shirley Hudson.

FUTURE TEACHERS —Officers of the newly formed David D. Jones Chapter of the Future Teachers of America at Bennett College, Greensboro, N.C., go over plans for next year's program. Left to right, are: Bettye McLean, secretary, Greensboro,; Veronica Shipley, vice president, Baltimore, Md.; Loretta Richmond, treasurer, Greensboro; and Shirley Waters, president, Dudley, N.C.

Mother, Daughter Graduated—

M. H. Baxley of Columbia, S. C., congratulates his daughter and wife upon their graduation from college. Miss Cecily L. Baxley received her Bachelor of Science degree from Bennett College just three days before her mother received her Bachelor of Arts degree from Allen University.—Rivera Photo.

RECEIVE BENNETT DEGREES: Greensboro, N. C.—Earning degrees from Bennett college here are Paula Edmunds of Cincinnati and Geraldine Parrish and Ann Cooper, both of Glenville.

Commencement viewers at Bennett College took a second look whenever they bumped into the Harris twins (Dorothy, left, and Gwendolyn, right) of Greensboro, N. C., and Sylvia Tyson (center) of New Haven, Conn. All three look alike.

REPRESENT THREE STATES — Members of the 1957 graduating class at Bennett College from Virginia, West Virginia and South Carolina are, from left, front, Misses Mary E. Miller, Lynchburg, Va.; Cecily L. Baxley, Columbia, S. C.; Virginia Holland, Superior, W. Va.; Mildred Battiste, Kingstree, S.C.; Precious Aldrich, McBee, S.C.; second row, Jacqueline McAlister, Kingstree, S.C.; Barbara Elliott, Porstmouth Va.; Doris Boisseah, Richmond, Va., and Mayme Ellerbe, Cheraw, S. C.

NO TIME FOR TEARS but commencement day at Bennett College in Greensboro, N.C., brought tears of joy to this graduate. Miss Mildred Battiste, center, of Kingstree, S.C. She is being consoled by Misses Alice Hayes, left, of Whiteville, N.C., and Gwendolyn Harris, of Greensboro, N.C. afro 6/8/57

Miss Hinnant New Alumni President

GREENSBORO, N. C.—Mrs. Fannie B. Hinnant, a teacher at the Laughlin School in Summerfield, was elected president of the Bennett College Graduate Association, here Saturday.

A member of the class of 1945, she succeeds Mrs. Virginia W. Maynard, of Blackstone, Va., a member of the class of 1948.

• • •

MEMBERS OF the graduating class were inducted into the association in an impressive candlelight ceremony in the David D. Jones Student Union.

Following a business session the graduates attended the All-Bennett luncheon at which time, members of the 1932 class were honored for their 25th reunion, along with members of the classes of 1937, 1947 and 1952.

• • •

MRS. SUSIE M. Taylor, '32, of Greensboro, presided, and Miss Thomasena Miller, also of Greensboro, brought greetings from that class. Mrs. Geraldine A. Totten, of Greensboro, represented the class of 1937; Dr. Miriam L. McTeer, of Nashville, Tenn., the class of 1947, and Miss Alice Rhodes, of Winston-Salem, represented the class of 1952.

Greetings from the seniors were brought by Miss Grace E. Dungee, of Greensboro, and from the faculty by Mrs. Mary Coleman, a member of the 1957 class.

• • •

MRS. JEAN HAITH, alumnae secretary, reported that $1,495 had been received in the Loyalty Fund and that there were still some reports outstanding. Largest amount reported to date — $850— came from the Greensboro chapter, with the New York chapter second, with $275.

Musical selections were provided by Miss Celeste Ferrington, '39, of Greensboro and by Miss Jacqueline McAlister, '57 of Kingstree, S. C.

TRADITIONAL TEARS FALL—Commencement day at Bennett College last Monday, has been the tradition for years was a time for tears of joy. Miss Mildred Battiste, center, of Kingstree, S. C., consoled by Misses Alice Hayes, left, of Whiteville and Gwendolyn Harris, of Greensboro, N. C. Phila. Tribune 6/8/57

Record Class Graduates At 84th Bennett Finals

GREENSBORO, N. C. — Life's greatest satisfactions come from helping others realize their highest possibilities, Dr. Arthur S. Flemming told 106 seniors as Bennett College held its 84th commencement exercises here Monday.

The class--largest in the history of the college--was made up of representatives of 18 states and included one member of the 1955 class who returned to receive her degree at this time.

DR. FLEMMING, president of Ohio Wesleyan University, Delaware, Ohio, spoke to an audience that jammed all available space in Annie Merner Pfeiffer Chapel and overflowed into the adjoining Little Theatre auditorium where amplifiers had been set up to carry the program.

Taking as his subject, "Our Common Responsibility," Dr. Flemming, a schoolmate of Bennett's president, pointed to the Commandment: "Thou shalt love they neighbor as thyself" as being at the heart of the Judao-Christian tradition.

"THIS commandment," he said, "places upon each of us a common responsibility— a responsibility which, if assumed, provides our lives with both a center and direction."

"Light the candle of love for your neighbor," he counseled the graduates, "and have the satisfaction of knowing that you have helped to dispel the darkness by setting in motion the only force that can bring peace to a strife-torn world."

DR. WILLA B. Player, president of the college, who conferred the degrees, reminded the graduates that no life is worth anything without some struggle and charged them, through their personal living, to make a lasting impact upon those whose lives they may touch.

Valedictorian of the class was Miss Marie Slaughter, of Newport, Kentucky. Miss Grace E. Dungee of Greensboro, was salutatorian.

In his baccalaureate sermon on Sunday, the Rt. Rev. J. W. E. Bowen, resident Methodist Bishop of Atlanta, Georgia and a class mate of the late Dr. David D. Jones at Wesleyan University in Connecticut, told the graduates that they must learn to be able to distinguish between what is fundamental in life and what is only incidental.

BISHOP BOWEN warned the graduates not to become a part of an unthinking mass of humanity, led by demagogues skilled in mass psychology.

"For those who want to make a righteous life, with the smile of God upon it," he concluded "build your lives upon a foundation that cannot be destroyed."

TRADITIONAL GRADUATION TEARS FALL — Commencement day at Bennett College has been the tradition for years was a time for tears of joy. Here Miss Mildred Battiste, center, of Kingstree, S. C., consoled by Misses Alice Hayes, left, of Whiteville and Gwendolyn Harris, of Greensboro, N. C. 6/2/57 Atlanta Daily World

Mrs. Hinnant heads alumni

afro 6/8/57

GREENSBORO, N.C. — Mrs. Fannie B. Hinnant, a teacher at the Laughlin School in Summerfield, was elected president of the Bennett College Graduate Association, here Saturday.

A member of the class of 1945, she succeeds Mrs. Virginia W. Maynard, of Blackstone, Va., a member of the class of 1948.

Members of the graduating class were inducted into the association in an impressive candlelight ceremony in the David D. Jones Student Union.

Following a business session the graduates attended the All-Bennett luncheon at which time, members of the 1932 class were honored for their 25th reunion, along with members of the classes of 1937, 1947 and 1952.

• • •

MRS. SUSIE M. TAYLOR, '32, of Greensboro, presided, and Miss Thomasena Miller, also of Greensboro, brought greetings from that class. Mrs. Geraldine A. Totten, of Greensboro, represented the class of 1937; Dr. Miriam L. McTeer, of Nashville, Tenn., the class of 1947, and Miss Alice Rhodes, of Winston-Salem, represented the class of 1952.

Greetings from the seniors were brought by Miss Grace E. Dungee, of Greensboro, and from the faculty by Mrs. Mary Coleman, a member of the 1957 class.

Mrs. Jean Haith, alumnae secretary, reported that $1,495 had been received in the Loyalty Fund and that there were still some reports outstanding. Largest amount reported to date — $850 — came from the Greensboro chapter, with the New York chapter second, with $275.

Musical selections were provided by Miss Celeste Ferrington, '39, of Greensboro and by Miss Jacqueline McAlister, '57 of Kingstree, S.C.

MR. AND MRS. Woodrow Jones of 2 Champlin Place, Norwich, Conn. announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Beverly

MISS BEVERLY JACKSON Engaged

Jackson to Eugene Truesdale, son of Mr. and Mrs. Napoleon Truesdale of Lancaster, S. C.

Miss Jackson, a graduate of Norwich Free Academy, and a major in the fine arts, continued her study a year at Hartford Art School, Hartford Conn. She is presently a student at Bennett College, Greensboro, N. C."

Mr. Truesdale graduated from A. and T. College last week where he was a music major and history minor and also a member of the Omega Psi Phi Fraternity. He served two years with special services of the 24th Infantry Division and 8th Army in Japan, Okinawa and Korea.

No date has been set for the wedding.

Commencement Tears—Commencement time at Bennett College always produces some tears. It's herd to say whether these tears are shed in happiness or sadness. Here, the cameraman caught Mildred Battiste (center) of Kingstree, S. C., as she was consoled by Alice Hayes (left) of Whiteville, N. C., and Gwendolyn Harris of Greensboro, N. C. Courier 6/8/57

Willa B. Player

"IT IS my feeling that it is highly essential that no wage discrimination against women on the grounds of sex should exist in a democracy. Equal pay appears to me a matter of justice, and it is very important that the principle of justice be preserved in democratic life today.

"Since women are called upon to submit for job qualification the educational preparation which is identical to that of men, it appears to me that equal pay would therefore safeguard the salary level of all workers.

"The present trend toward the establishment of fixed state equal pay laws for women is heartening recognition of the fact that the principle of equal pay for equal work is desirable and necessary if we are to recognize the fact that the number of women workers is increasing rapidly and will continue to increase as women enter new fields of employment and where the shortage of manpower is acute." Courier 6/8/57

Bennett Adds Courses

Advocate 6/1/57

An announcement that beginning with the fall semester, Bennett College, Greensboro, N. C., will offer a major in mathematics, was made recently by Dr. Willa B. Player, president.

The growing demand from students for more courses in the sciences has also led the college to increase its offerings next year in anatomy, bacteriology, and physiology for students preparing for careers in medicine, dentistry, and medical technology.

Announcement was also made of a collaborative program in nursing involving Bennett and the college of nursing at Wayne State University in Detroit, whereby this year's graduates will be accepted at Wayne for professional training in nursing.

Bennett graduates, who have pursued the pre-nursing curriculum will be immediately admitted to professional courses in nursing. The program allows for advanced study toward the master's degree with emphasis on clinical and administrative preparation in the field of nursing.

Dr. William A. Banner, professor of philosophy at Howard University, spoke at the Bennett College vesper service on Sunday, May 12.

This occasion, Mother's Day, has been annually designated as the day on which Bennett graduates return to their alma mater to have their children christened by the college minister in a special service.

BENNETT GRAD'S RECEIVE M. S. DEGREE

Five graduates of Bennett College were awarded the M.S. degree in rural education at the recent commencement at A. & T. College.

They are: Mesdames Lovye W. Cochran, 1948; Ruth V. Comer, 1941; Mary L. Foster, 1946; Jaymeszena A. Harris, 1955, and Birdie Lee Vaughn, 1934.

Pitts. Courier 6/1/57

DR. PLAYER TO ATTEND INSTITUTE

6/15/57

Dr. Willa B. Player, president of Bennett College, will be among 36 college presidents attending the Institute for College and University Administrators at Harvard University, June 18-26.

The institute, directed by Dr. Robert W. Merry, of Harvard Graduate School of Business Administration, is specifically planned for newly-appointed presidents (since June 1, 1954) and is the third to be held.

Sponsored by the Carnegie Corporation of New York and the Association of American Colleges, it will provide the administrators an opportunity to study, analyze and discuss problem situations which college presidents may face.

Pittsburgh Courier 6/15/57

Bennett Head To Give Talk

6/6/57

WINSTON-SALEM, June 5 (AP) —Dr. Willa B. Player, president of Bennett College, Greensboro, will be the guest speaker tomorrow at St. Andrews Methodist Church here, as the 99th session of the North Carolina Annual Conference of the Baltimore area of the Methodist Church, Central District, concludes its third day.

She will speak at a program which will emphasize higher education. Bennett College is a Methodist school for women.

Today's activities included organization of the conference, committee meetings and an evening program on temperance. James A. Hamilton spoke on temperance. Delegates also viewed a motion picture, "Far From Alone," on temperance.

Another special activity set for tomorrow will be a meeting on world missions. Bishop Raymond L. Racher of Singapore will speak. He will represent the Methodist Church Division of World Missions.

Bishop Edgar A. Love of Winston-Salem is presiding over the conference.

GETS STUDY GRANT — Miss Wilhelmina J. Gilbert, business education instructor at Bennett College, Greensboro, N. C., who has been granted a Cokesbury Award in College Teaching through the Board of Education of the Methodist Church. She has been given a year's leave to continue her doctoral studies.

Journal Tribune 6/1/57

LICENSED TO PREACH

GREENSBORO, N.C. — Miss Julia M. McClain, of Grady, Ala., member of the graduating class of Bennett College, was recently notified that she has been granted a license to preach.

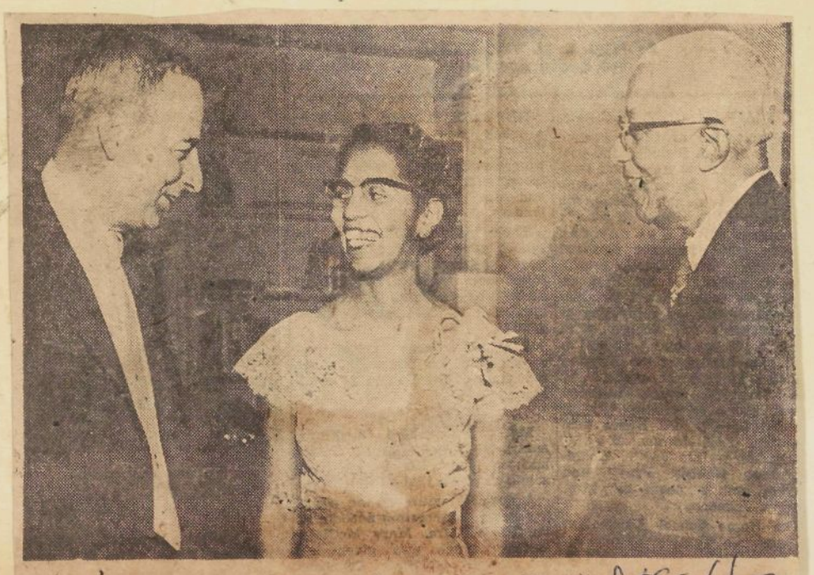

Miss McClain, who will attend the Hartford (Conn.) Theological Seminary on a graduate scholarship in the fall, will study for a bachelor of divinity degree.

Dr. Willa B. Player Heard At Dudley High Commencement

Courier 6/15/57

GREENSBORO— "By developing a high sensitivity to everything that will help you achieve your purpose in life you can educate yourselves," Dr. Willa B. Player, president of Bennett College, told the 145 graduates of Dudley High School at their commencement exercises recently.

Emphasizing that responsibility to educate themselves, Dr. Player urged the members of the class to have a clear purpose in mind and to extend themselves to others not as fortunate as they. Every individual, she declared, must have the opportunity to develop to his or her highest capacity.

Take Part In Bennett Finals Jet 6/8/57

Dr. Arthur S. Flemming, president of Ohio Wesleyan University, who delivered the commencement address and Bishop J. W. E. Bowen of Atlanta, Ga., who preached the baccalaureate sermon, smile with Dr. Willa B. Player, president of Bennett College during President's Reception.

SINGER AT BENNETT — Miss Dorothy Maynor, famous soprano, signs autographs for students at Bennett College during her recent "surprise" visit to the Greensboro campus. The singer who was enroute to an engagement in Kansas City, Mo., was entertained by the college choir. Left to right: Misses Elventa Richardson of Wendell, N. C., Gertrude Smith of Greensboro, and Harriett Butler of Cincinnati, Tennessee visited an old friend, Miss Burdette McIver, dietitian at the college. Left to right: Misses Elventa Richard-

Kansas City Call

BENNETT VALEDICTORIAN —Miss Annette Slaughter, of Newport, Ky., valedictorian of 1957 graduating class of Bennett College, receives warm handshake from President Willa B. Player on Commencement morning at Bennett College. 6/15/57

OHIO GRADS AND FAMILIES: Greensboro, N. C.—Three members of the class of 1957 graduating class of Bennett College shown with their families following commencement exercises in Greensboro, N. C. The graduates left to right are: Miss Paula Edmunds, of Cincinnati, Ohio, whose mother is next to her and whose grandmother is third from left; Miss Ann Cooper, of Glendale, Ohio, whose mother is next to her (holding bag) and Miss Geraldine Parrish, of Glendale, Ohio, whose mother is to her right and whose father stands in rear (with hat.)

6/15/57 THE CAROLINIAN

BENNETT MERMAIDS—Four ming class at Bennett College perch on diving board of the Hayes-Taylor YMCA pool for this shot. Left to right: Misses Ietta Jones, Hallandale, Fla.; Ada Lomax, Tobyhanna, Pa.; Veronica Dean, Miami, Fla., and Izetta Hicks, Philadelphia.

To Attend Institute

Dr. Willa B. Player, president of Bennett College, will be among 3 college presidents attending the Institute for College and University Administrators at Harvard University, June 18-26.

The institute, directed by Dr. Robert W. Merry, of Harvard Graduate School of Business Administration, is specifically planned for newly-appointed president (since June 1, 1954), and is the third to be held. J19 6/22/57

Sponsored by the Carnegie Corporation of New York and the Association of American Colleges, it will provide the administrators an opportunity to study, analyze and discuss problem situations which college presidents may face.

NEW ALPHA KAPPA MU MEMBERS—Inducted into Bennett College chapter recently were, from left, front, Misses Delores Casimere, Galveston, Texas; Carolyn Ingram, Durham; Gloria Blatch, Miami, Fla.; Delores Tonkins, Greensboro; back row, Frederica Washington, Beaufort, S.C.; Veronica Shipley, Baltimore; Margorie Mays, Greensboro, and Paula Edmonds, Cincinnati, Ohio. afro 6/22/57

5 Bennett graduates get A.T. MS degrees

afro Chi 6/15/57

GREENSBORO, N.C.— Five graduates of Bennett College were awarded the M.S. Degree in rural education at the recent commencement at A. and T. College.

They are Mesdames Lovye W. Cochran, 1948; Ruth V. Comer, 1941; Mary L. Foster, 1946; Jaymeszena A. Harris, 1955 and Birdie L. Vaughn, 1934.

WEEK ENDING SATURDAY, JUNE 8, 1957 Carolinian

WON HONORS AND PRIZES AT BENNETT — Some of the Bennett College students who received top honors or prizes when the annual Honors Day program was held last week. Left to right front row: Misses Carolyn M. Ingram, Durham, winner of the David D. Jones Leadership Award; Linelle Walker, Nassau, Bahamas, winner of the Irma Graham Prize, for excellence in science; Marlene Beavers, Danville, Va., winner of the Goode Prize in Home Economics; in back row: Agatha Ricks, Elm City, winner of the Belle Tobias Scholarship; Fredrica Washington, Beaufort, S. C., winner of Faculty Scholarship Award and Edith M. Tucker, Elkin, winner of the Omicron Eta Chi Award in Home Economics.

Free Press

Dr. Player Plans Summer Course

6/12/57

Dr. Willa B. Player, president of Bennett College, will be among 36 college presidents attending the Institute for College and University Administrators at Harvard University, June 18-26.

The institute, directed by Dr. Robert W. Merry, of Harvard Graduate School of Business Administration, is specifically planned for newly-appointed presidents (sonce June 1, 1954) and is the third to be held.

Sponsored by the Carnegie Corporation of New York and the Association of American Colleges, it will provide the administrators an opportunity to study, analyze and discuss problem situations which college presidents may face.

A Distinctive College for Women

Exceptionally well qualified to prepare serious-minded students for intelligent living and useful careers.

A Four-Year Accredited Class "A" Liberal Arts College

CURRICULUM

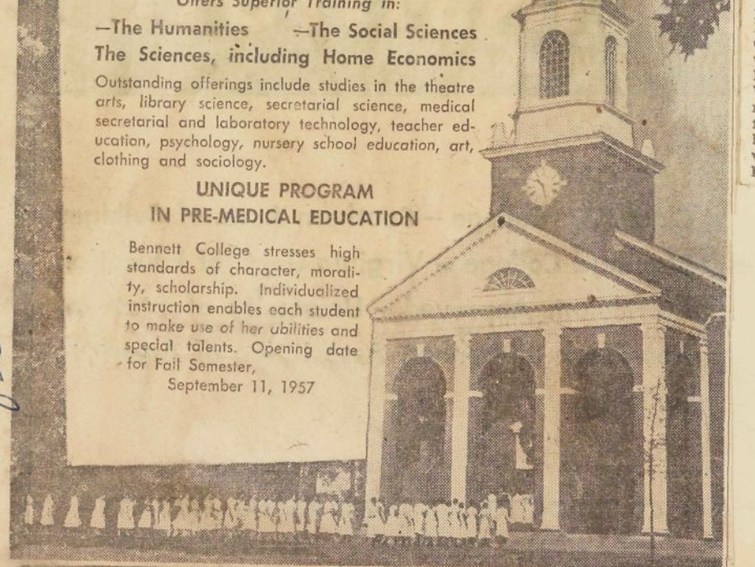

Offers Superior Training in:

—The Humanities —The Social Sciences The Sciences, including Home Economics

Outstanding offerings include studies in the theatre arts, library science, secretarial science, medical secretarial and laboratory technology, teacher education, psychology, nursery school education, art, clothing and sociology.

UNIQUE PROGRAM IN PRE-MEDICAL EDUCATION

Bennett College stresses high standards of character, morality, scholarship. Individualized instruction enables each student to make use of her abilities and special talents. Opening date for Fall Semester, September 11, 1957

For Additional Information, Write: Director of Admissions

Bennett College

GREENSBORO, NORTH CAROLINA

6/20 - 6/15/57

32.

NEW MEMBERS — Here are eight new members of the Alpha Kappa Mu Honor Society at Bennett college, Greensboro, N. C. Left to right front: Delores Casimere, Galveston, Texas; Carolyn Ingram, Durham; Gloria Blatch, Miami, Fla.; Delores Tonkins, Greensboro; Fredrica Washington, Beaufort, S. C.; Veronica Shipley, Baltimore, Md., Margarie Mays, Greensboro, and Paula Edmunds, Cincinnati, Ohio.

BENNETT REUNION — Some of the members of the Bennett College Graduate Association who held their annual meeting at the college during the commencement season are shown here, left to right front row: Mrs. Jean P. Haith, alumnae secretary; unidentified youngster; Dr. Miriam. McTeer, of Nashville, Tenn.; Miss Lucille E. Brown, Boston, Mass.; Mrs. Viola H. Taylor, Portsmouth, Va.; Mrs. Eva B. Dunston, Danville, Va.; Mrs. Anne Moore, Greensboro; Miss Ruth James, New York City; Mrs. Barbara J. Sanford, Portsmouth, Va. Second row: Mrs. Alma T. Taylor, Greensboro; Mrs. Cecilia M. Montague, Greensboro; Mrs. Virginia M. [illegible] staff, Blackstone, Va.; Mrs. Estell W. Tatum, Gre[illegible]oro; Mrs. Sarah W. Foushee, Greensboro; Jose[illegible] Harrington, New York City; Mrs. Pauline A. D[illegible]ell, Greensboro; Mrs. M. B. McLaurin (partially hidden) Greensboro; Mrs. Vina W. Webb, Sedalia. Back row: Mrs. Fannie L. Hinnant, president, Greensboro; Miss Juanita Wells, Greensboro; Mrs. Thomasena Miller, Greensboro; Mrs. Zenobia Headen, Greensboro and Mrs. Margaret R. Logwood, Greensboro. Mpr 6/15/57

Dr. Player Talks To Dudley Class

6/13/57

"By developing a high sensitivity to everything that will help you achieve your purpose in life, you can educate yourselves," Dr. Willa B. Player, president of Bennett College, told the 145 graduates of Dudley High School at their commencement exercises here Thursday night.

Emphasizing their responsibilty to educate themselves, Dr. Player urged the members of the class to have a clear purpose in mind and to extend themselves to others not as fortunate as they. Every individual, she declared, must have the opportunity to develop to his or her highest capacity.

President Of Bennett To Attend Institute

Dr. Willa B. Player, president of Bennett College, will be among 36 college presidents attending the Institute for College and University Administrators at Harvard University, June 18-26.

The institute, directed by Dr. Robert W. Merry, of Harvard Graduate School of Business Administration, is specifically planned for newly appointed presidents (since June 1, 1954) and is the third to be held.

Sponsored by the Carnegie Corporation of New York and the Association of American Colleges, it will provide the administrators an opportunity to study, analyze and discuss problem situations which college presidents may face. Daily 6/17/57

WHEN MISS BARBARA RICE, of Baltimore, graduated from Bennett College on Monday, the family group on hand to congratulate her included, left back, Miss Marlene Norris, front, left to right: Mrs. Carrie Greene of Annapolis, a cousin; Mrs. Ophelia Williams, her mother; Miss Rice, James Rice, her father; Miss Violetta Williams, sister and Donald Rice, brother. Chron 6/15/57

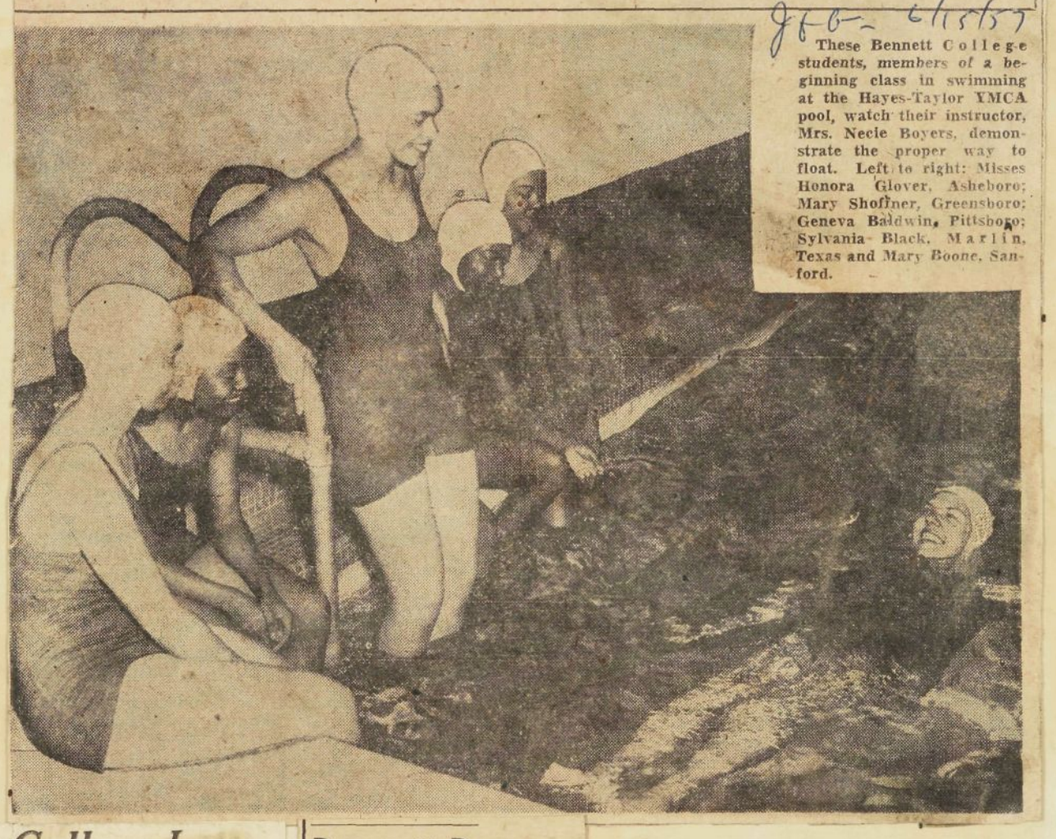

Deans' Daughter Graduates

Miss Joyce Martin, of Hampton, Va., recent graduate of Bennett College, shown with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. William Martin, following commencement exercises. Dr. Martin is dean of the faculty at Hampton Institute and Mrs. Martin is dean of women. J+G-6/15/57

Come On In ... The Water's Fine!

J+G- 6/15/57

These Bennett College students, members of a beginning class in swimming at the Hayes-Taylor YMCA pool, watch their instructor, Mrs. Necie Boyers, demonstrate the proper way to float. Left to right: Misses Honora Glover, Asheboro; Mary Shoffner, Greensboro; Geneva Baldwin, Pittsboro; Sylvania Black, Marlin, Texas and Mary Boone, Sanford.

Daily Defender 6/18/57

Cops The Cup

MISS MARY BOONE (left) of Sanford, N. C., president of the Freshman class at Bennett college, Greensboro, N. C., receives Endowment Cup from Paula Edmonds, president of the Student Senate, during Honors Day program. Freshman raised the largest amount of money in school's Endowment drive.

J+G-6/22/57

Pastors School Opens June 24

GREENSBORO, N. C. —The Annual Baltimore Area Pastors' School for the in-service training of Methodist ministers, will be held at Bennett College, June 24 through July 19, Bishop Edgar A. Love announced this week.

The Rev. Charles L. Carrington, of Jamaica, N. Y., is dean of the school which is primarily designed for approved supply pastors and local preachers not serving in that capacity.

* * *

OTHER members of the faculty will include: Dr. Walter R. Hazzard, Christian doctrine; and the Revs. Levi B. Miller, education, music and worship; Howard A. Bailey, Christian education; Joshua E. Licorish, church history; W. S. McLeod, Old Testament; Edward D. McGowan, New testament, and Ramsey Bridges, pastoral psychology.

Meeting from June 25 through June 30 will be the Baltimore Area Leadership Training School, which will again be headed by the Rev. Levi B. Miller, of Baltimore.

Male Graduate Of Bennett College Is Named President Of School's Parents

Carolinian 6/15/57

GREENSBORO — Joseph T. Harrington, of New York City, who was graduated from Bennett College before it came a college for women in 1926, was nominated as president of the National Council of Bennett Parents as the annual meeting came to a close here last week.

Mr. Harrington, who served several terms as president of the New York chapter, and the entire slate of officers will be voted upon by a mail ballot which was sent to the membership this week.

Other nominees are: Mrs. Bessie M. Nance, Greensboro, first vice president; Mrs. Alma T. Taylor, Greensboro, second vice-president; Mrs. Minnie B. Smith, Greensboro, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Laura F. Sawyer, Salisbury, assistant corresponding secretary; Mrs. David Hammond, Baltimore, Md., Recording secretary.

Miss Barbara Campbell, Greensboro, assistant reacording secretary; J. R. Smith, Greensboro, financial s ecretary; Mrs. David D. Jones, Greensboro, treasurer; William I. Gibson, Greensboro, reporter; the Rev. J. E. Brower, Greensboro, parliamentarian, and the Reav. R. C. Moore, Topeka, Kansas, chaplain.

Greetings from the faculty and staff were brought by Dr. J. H. Sayles, chairman of the science division, and Mrs. David D. Jones, director of admissions, spoke on "The Graduate Returns to the Family." President Willa B. Player made a brief statement

The parents also saw a miniature fashion show featuring student models in original creations, an art demonstration by Miss Sonja Weldon, of Chicago and Gertrude Smith of Greensboro, and a scene from the commencement play, "Electra," played by Miss Dolores Johnson of Baltimore, and Eddie Griffin, Guilford County school teacher.

Among those attending the meeting were Mr. and Mrs. David Hammond, Baltimore, Md.; Mrs. Bennie H. Edmunds, Cincinnati, Ohio; Mrs. James Justice, Cincinnati, Ohio; Mrs. Minnie Biggers, Cincinnati, Ohio; Mrs. Bessie Nance, Greensboro; Mrs. Alma T. Taylor, Greensboro; Mrs. J. E. Hankins, Louisville, Ky.; Mr. and Mrs. William Parrish, Glendale, Ohio; Mrs. Ophelia Williams, Baltimore, Md.; Mrs. Thomas J. Wright, Cincinnati, Ohio; the Rev. Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Moore, Topeka, Kansas; Mrs. Carrie Green, Annapolis, Md.; Mrs. Leila Zeigler, Anniston, Ala.; The Rev. J. E. Brower, Greensboro; Mrs. Daniel Lanier, Bath, N. C.; Mrs. Mary Blatch, Miami, Florida; Mrs. Philip A. Henry, Chestertown, Md.;

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Holloway, Meridian, Miss.; Mr. and Mrs. Edward Belo, High Point, N. C.; Mrs Anna S. Ellerbe, Cheraw, S.C.; Mrs. Nora Ford, Henderson; Mr and Mrs. Charles Tyson, New Haven, Conn.; Mrs. Pauline Brooks, Ninde, Va.; Mrs. Henry McGimpsey, Morganton, N. C. Mrs. Lucille Wofford, Charlotte; Mr. and Mrs. N. L. McCorkle, Winston-Salem; Mrs. Zepplyn Averett, Greensboro;

Mrs. Delia Lewis, Morganton, N. C.; Mrs. E. L. Rhoden, Charlotte, Mr. and Mrs. Zollie Striggles, St. Albans, N. Y.; Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Smith, Greensboro; Joseph T. Harrington, New York; Mrs. Cleola Hudson, Greensboro, and Phillip Davis, Raeford, N. C.

Bennett Prexy To Attend Clinic At Harvard

Carolinian 6/22/57

GREENSBORO

Dr. Willa B. Player, president of Bennett College, will be among 36 college presidests attending the Institute for College and University Administrators at Harvard University, June 18-26.

The institute, directed by Dr. Robert W. Merry of Harvard Graduate School of Business Administration, is specifically planned for newly-appointed presidents (since June 1, 1954) and is the third to be held.

Sponsored by the Carnegie Corporation of New York and the Association of American Colleges, it will provide the administrators an opportunity to study, analyze and discuss problem situations which college presidents may face. 6/22/57

PASTOR'S SCHOOL WILL MEET AT BENNETT

The annual Baltimore Area Pastors' School for the in-service training of Methodist ministers, will be held at Bennett College, June 24 through July 19, Bishop Edgar A. Love announced this week.

The Rev. Charles L. Carrington, of Jamaica, New York, is dean of the school which is primarily designed for approved supply pastors and local preachers not serving in that capacity.

Other members of the faculty will include: Dr. Walter R. Hazzard, Christian Doctrine: and the Revs. Levi B. Miller, education, music and worship; Howard A. Bailey, Christian education; Joshua E. Licorish, church history; W. S. McLeod, Old Testament; Edward D. McGowan, New Testament, and Ramsey Bridges, pastoral psychology.

Meeting from June 25 through June 30 will be the Baltimore Area Leadership Training School, which will again be headed by the Rev. Levi B. Miller, of Baltimore.

Bennett Class Of "47 Holds Reunion

Some of the members of the class of 1947 who returned for their 10th reunion are shown in front of Magnolia Tree which they planted in their senior year. Left to right: Mrs. Barbara Sanford, Portsmouth, Va.; Miss Serena Staggers, Greensboro; Mrs. Ann Hinnant, Greensboro; Mrs. Louise A. Powell, Kinston, N. C.; Dr. Miriam L. McTeer, Nashville, Tenn.; Mrs. Viola H. Taylor, Portsmouth, Va. and Miss Lucille Brown, Boston, Mass. J+G 6/15/57

LITTLE GIRL, BIG TRUNK— Miss Demetric Carstarphen, a rising Bennett College junior, of Oak Hill, Ala., finds that moving a heavy trunk from the basement storeroom requires more strength than she can muster. Fortunately help, in the form of a photographer, appeared and she was able to make her train. Defender 6/15/57

Four Colleges Of Greensboro Area Receive Big Ford Grants

Four Greensboro area colleges this week will receive over a quarter of a million dollars in Ford Foundation grants, final payment in a program for the colleges to raise faculty salaries.

They are among 34 colleges and universities in the Carolinas to receive checks totalling $4,245,000.

High Point College leads local area colleges in the amount of fund grants. It will receive $84,000 to make a total of $169,000 granted to the institution.

Greensboro College will get $69,000 to bring its total to $134,000.

Bennett College will receive $67,000 for a total of $127,000.

Guilford College's share is $66,500 for a total of $126,500.

Twenty colleges in North Carolina will receive $3,342,500 and 14 South Carolina colleges will get $902,500.

The foundation made its initial payment in July, 1936.

The largest check will go to Duke University, $1,537,500. Duke has received a total of $2,942,500 in contributions from the foundation.

A total of 630 privately supported colleges throughout the nation will receive checks from the Foundation, according to an announcement in New York. Funds given on a nationwide scale total $130,172,500, half of the $260,000,000 voted by the foundation in 1955.

The sum for each institution represents a sum approximately equal to its undergraduate instructional costs for the 1954-55 academic year.

Several schools also received accomplishment grants which may also be used to raise teacher pay or for other pressing academic needs.

The other North Carolina grants first figure is the second payment, second figure the school's total grant:

Barber-Scotia College, Concord $39,000, $74,000.

Atlantic Christian College, Wilson, $47,000, $592,000.

Catawba College, Salisbury $66,500, $131,500.

Davidson College, Davidson $152,500, $297,500; plus Accomplishment Grant, $145,500, $298,000.

Duke University, Durham, $916,000, $1,816,000, plus Accomplishment Grant, $621,500, $1,126,500.

Elon College, Elon College, $82,000, $157,000.

Flora Macdonald College, Red Springs, $48,000, $98,000.

Johnson C. Smith University, Charlotte, $78,000, $148,000; plus Accomplishment Grant, $51,500, $91,500.

Lenoir-Rhyne College, Hickory, $79,000, $159,000.

Livingstone College, Salisbury, $57,500, $112,500.

Meredith College, Raleigh, $92,500, $187,500.

Queens College, Charlotte, $84,500, $169,500.

St. Augustine's College, Raleigh, $53,500, $113,500.

Salem College, Winston-Salem, $56,500, $111,500.

Shaw University, Raleigh, $65,500, $125,500.

Wake Forest College, Winston-Salem, $215,000, $420,000; plus Accomplishment Grant, $145,500, $260,500.

EARNS MASTER'S DEGREE

GREENSBORO, S.C. — Miss Mary E. Ensley, of Birmingham, Ala., a 1955 graduate of Bennett College, was awarded the degree of M.S. in social administration when Western Reserve University in Cleveland, Ohio, held its commencement exercises last wek.

A classmate, Miss Gwendolyn Freeman, of Kansas City, Mo., who spent a year in Germany as a Fulbright scholar, is now an assistant to Professor Rolf at the University of Kansas, Lawrence, Kan., doing polio virus research.

Baltimore Area Methodist Leadership School closes

GREENSBORO, NC — With the election of the Rev. Howard A. Bailey of Yeadon, Pa., as its dean for next year, the annual Baltimore Area Leadership School of the Methodist Church came to a close at Bennett College here on Sunday.

The Rev. Mr. Bailey succeeded the Rev. Levi B. Miller Jr, of Baltimore. Dates for the 1958 school will be June 24-29 and Bennett will again be host

This year's school was attended by 94 persons — men and women — representing laymen and the clergy. The Delaware Conference, with 38, led in enrollment, followed closely by the Washington Conference, with 36.

CLOSING SERVICES were held in Pfeiffer Chapel at which time the sermon was delivered by the Rev. Ramsey Bridges, instructor of pastoral psychology in the Baltimore Area Pastor's School which will continue in session here through July 19.

A list of persons registered for the Leadership School follows:

Delaware Conference

Rev. H. E. Anderson, Easton, Md.; Mrs. Avon Arnold, Salisbury, Md.; Rev. C. W. Bagwell, Laurel, Del.; Rev. Howard Bailey, Yeadon, Pa.; Miss Georgia Brown, Philadelphia; Herman Brown, Philadelphia; Mrs. Alberta C. Browne, Centreville, Md.; Sylvanus Brown, Centreville, Md.; Mrs. Eva K. Butler, Chester, Pa.; John Butler, Chester, Pa.;

Thomas Cameron, Chester, Pa.; Mrs. Emma Carroll, Chester, Pa.; James Carroll, Chester, Pa.; Miss Leotia Carroll, Chester, Pa.; Rev. Hooker Davis, Atlantic City, N.J.; Mrs. Merrill Elder, Salisbury, Md.; Miss Clara Friend, Philadelphia, Pa.; Rev. S. G. Fullman, Woodbury, N.J.; Mrs. Madeline Greene, Upper Hill, Md.;

Mrs. Lowell Hazzard, Westminster, Md.; Mrs. Marjorie Hill, Wilmington, Del.; Miss Betty Holland, Wilmington, Del.; Mrs. Mary Homily, Philadelphia, Pa.; Mrs. Cherita Johnson, Chester, Pa.; Garland Johnson, Chester, Pa.; Rev. Trevor Jones, Preston, Md.; Mrs. Clarice Meade, Philadelphia, Pa.; Miss Delores Norwood, Lewes, Del.; Mrs. Kathleen Purnell, Salisbury, Md.;

Miss Lucille Smith, Chester, Pa.; Rev. O. H. Spence, Atlantic City, N.J.; Mrs. Irene Thomas, Philadelphia; Rev. DePriest Whye, Crisfield, Md.; Rev. Joseph Williams, Royal Oak, Md.; Robert Young, Lincoln, Del.; Mrs. Thorris Young, Lincoln, Del.; Mrs. Emma Strother, Philadelphia and James Hardcastle, Dover, Del.

Washington Conference

Bernard Anderson, Annapolis, Md.; Mrs. Katherine Baker, Keyser, W. Va.; Miss Dorothy Barnett, Washington; Mrs. Nora Bennett, Baltimore; Miss Naomi Boston, Grafton, W. Va.; Mrs. Willa Bouldin, Baltimore; Mrs. Virgie Broady, Roanoke, Va.; Mrs. Georgianna Brooks, Fairmont, W. Va.; Mrs. M. Loretta Brooks, Annapolis, Md.; Mrs. Marye Cabell, Lewisburg, W. Va.;

Rev. Ernest Clark, Charleston, W. Va.; Mrs. C. Davis, Baltimore; Mrs. Thelma Ellington, Grafton, W. Va.; Rev. John Evans, Lothian, Md.; Miss Yvonne Fisher, Glen Burnie, Md.; Rev. Kirkland Frazier, Washington; Edward Gaddis, Washington; Miss Anita Jackson, White Sulphur Springs, W. Va.; Mrs. Ruth Lancaster, Washington; Mrs. Sallie Larkins, Baltimore; Mrs. Julia Lewis, Grafton, W. Va.;

Miss Phyllis Meadows, Roanoke, Va.; Rev. Levi Miller, Baltimore; Mrs. Nellie Parker, Baltimore; Mrs. Clytie Perry, Baltimore; Miss Hilda Perry, Washington; Miss Vera Reese, Washington; Mrs. Edna Renick, Lewisburg, W. Va.; Mrs. Annie Thompson, Baltimore;

Calvin Thompson, Baltimore; Miss Florence Wheeler, Baltimore; Mrs. Edna Williams, Baltimore; Rev. Ezra Williams, Baltimore; Mrs. Ruth Williams, Baltimore; and Mrs. Myrtle Wood, Baltimore;

North Carolina Conference

Rev. Glenn Brooks, Lexington; Mrs. Martha Burwick and the Rev. Oscar Burwick, Asheboro; Mrs. Cleo Conner, Salisbury; Miss Pauline Eller, Winston-Salem; Rev. James Gwyn, Oxford; Rev. G. E. Hogue, Laurinburg; Rev. J. T. Jones, Gastonia; Mrs. Belilah Knight, Spindale;

Miss Daisie McCallum, Red Springs; Miss Estelle McCallum, Greensboro; Miss Fannie McCallum, Greensboro; Miss Flossie McNair, Wagram; Rev. Douglas Moore, Greensboro; Rev. R. C. Sharpe, Fayetteville; Mrs. Lubertha Thompson, Maxton; and Mrs. D. A. Wooten, Charlotte.

Korean Co-ed At Bennett Is Married

GREENSBORO

Miss Young Tack Lee, of Seoul, Korea, a junior at Bennett College, became the bridec of Jhin Woo Park, also of Seoul, in a ceremony performed last Sunday at the Korean Methodist Church on Riverside Drive, New York City.

Among Miss Lee's bridesmaids was Miss Ruth Anderson, of Philadelphia, her roommate. The newlyweds, who were childhood sweethearts in Korea, came to the United States at the same time.

Mr. Park, a senior in diplomatic science at Brevard (N. C.) College, plans graduate study and Mrs. Park will return in September to Bennett where she is a general home economics major.

She designed and, in one weekend, made her own Princess-style wedding gown, which contained 11 yards of white floral lace over 11 yards of white taffeta, and also made her wedding veil of white nylon, trimmed in lace. Mrs. Park is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sun Hi Lee, of Seoul.

Awarded M.S.

Miss Mary E. Ensley, of Birmingham, Alabama, a 1955 graduate of Bennett College, was awarded the degree of M. S. in social administration when Western Reserve University in Cleveland, Ohio, held its commencement exercises last week.

A classmate, Miss Gwendolyn Freeman, of Kansas City, Mo., who spent a year in Germany as a Fulbright Scholar, is now an assistant to Prof. Rolf at the University of Kansas, Lawrence, Kansas, doing polio virus research.

Bennett Honor Grads Were Also Tops In Their High Schools

GREENSBORO

Although lightning is said not to strike twice in the same place, three of the last four valedictosians at Bennett College were also valedictorians in high school — and the fourth was a high school salutatorian.

No. 1 senior in the 1954 class was Miss Dorothy Dixon, who was also valedictorian of the Pleasant Grove High School in Burlington. She is now Mrs. Dorothy Morrow, a teacher at Efland, N. C.

Miss Thelma Owens, 1955 valedictorian, was also valedictorian at the Langston High School in her native Johnson City, Tenn. She was also chosen to reign as "Miss Bennett College" for the 1954-55 school year, and is now Mrs. Thelma Fleming, a Detroit housewife.

Valedictorian of the 1956 class was Miss Barbara Brown, who was salutatorian at West High School in Akron, Ohio. Miss Brown, who has spent the past school year as a Fullbright Scholar in Bordeaux, France, is schedued to return to the United States this week.

Miss Marie Slaughter, valedictorian of the 1957 graduating class, was also valedictorian at Grant High School in Covington, Kentucky. A native of Newport, Kentucky, she plans a teaching career.

In the 1957, class, there were also four others who were valedictorians in high school. They include Misses Mayme Ellerbe, of Cheraw, S. C.; Doris Lanier, of Bath; Alice Hayes, of Whiteville, and Marion Moore, of Topeka, Kansas.

Former high school salutatorians in the class include: Misses Pauline Dixon, sister of Mrs. Dorothy Morrow; Phebie Ewings, of Mt. Gilead; Flora Mae Smith, of Clarksburg, W. Va., and Ann Stewart, of Reidsville.

Dan Cupid Hits Bennett College Grads

GREENSBORO, N. C. — Dan Cupid fell a bit short of his usual quota of Bennett College graduates choosing June as the month in which to be married, according to announcements received in the alumnae office this month.

Wedding announcements from five graduates and one from a former student were received.

Miss Margaret Tatum, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Berkeley Tatum, a 1957 garduate, was married to James Warren; Miss Dorothy Harris, '57 graduate, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Harris of Greensboro, was married to Shelton Williams, and another classmate, Miss Geraldine Parrish, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Parrish, of Glendale, Ohio, was married to Lieut. Flemming A. Cheek.

Miss Jacquelyn Lightsey, class of 1955, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert King, of Miami, Fla., was married to Rev. Arthur J. Collier Jr., and Miss Delores Cox of the class of 1956, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Julius Cox of Charlotte, was married to Sammie Pittman.

A former student, Miss Lillian Henry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Henry of Greensboro, was married to John D. Hopkins Jr.

Clergy and Laymen Meet At Bennett College

With the election of the Rev. Howard A. Bailey of Yeadon, Pa., as its dean for next year, the annual Baltimore Area Leadership School of the Methodist Church, came to a close at Bennett College here on Sunday.

The Rev. Mr. Bailey succeeds the Rev. Levi B. Miller, Jr., of Baltimore. Dates for the 1958 school will be June 24-29 and Bennett will again be host. This year's school was attended by 94 persons — men and women — representing laymen and the clergy. The Delaware Conference, with 38, led in enrollment, followed closely by the Washington Conference, with 36.

Closing services were held in Pfeiffer Chapel at which time the sermon was delivered by the Rev. Ramsey Bridges, instructor of pastoral psychology in the Baltimore Area Pastor's School which will continue in session here through July 19.

A list of persons registered for the Leadership School follows:

— Delaware Conference —

Rev. H. E. Anderson, Easton, Md.; Mrs. Avon Arnold, Salisbury, Md.; Rev. C. W. Bagwell, Laurel, Del.; Rev. Howard Bailey, Yeadon, Pa.; Miss Georgia Brown, Philadelphia, Pa.; Herman Brown, Philadelphia, Pa.; Mrs. Alberta C. Browne, Centerville, Md.; Sylvanus Brown, Centreville, Md., Mrs. Eva K. Butler, Chester, Pa.; John Butler, Chester, Pa.;

Thomas Cameron, Chester, Pa.; Mrs. Emma Carroll, Chester, Pa.; James Carroll, Chester, Pa.; Miss Leotia Carroll, Chester, Pa.; Rev. Hooker Davis, Atlantic City, N. J.; Mrs. Merrill Elder, Salisbury, Md.; Miss Clara Friend, Philadelphia, Pa.; Rev. S. G. Fullman, Woodbury, N. J.; Mrs. Madeline Greene, Upper Hill, Md.;

Mrs. Lowell Hazzard, Westminster, Md.; Mrs. Marjorie Hill, Wilmington, Del.; Miss Betty Holland, Wilmington, Del.; Mrs. Mary Homily, Philadelphia, Pa.; Mrs. Cherita Johnson, Chester, Pa.; Garland Johnson, Chester, Pa.; Rev. Trevor Jones, Preston, Md.; Mrs. Clarice Meade, Philadelphia, Pa.; Miss Delores Norwood, Lewes, Del.; Mrs. Kathleen Purnell, Salisbury, Md.;

Miss Lucille Smith, Chester, Pa.; Rev. O. H. Spence, Atlantic City, N. J.; Mrs. Irene Thomas, Philadelphia, Pa.; Rev. DePriest Whye, Crisfield, Md.; Rev. Joseph Williams, Royal Oak, Md.; Robert Young, Lincoln, Del.; Mrs. Thorris Young, Lincoln, Del.; Mrs. Emma Strother, Philadelphia and James Hardcastle, over, Del.

— Washington Conference —

Bernard Anderson, Annapolis, Md.; Mrs. Katherine Baker, Keyser, W. Va.; Miss Dorothy Barnette, Washington, D. C.; Mrs. Nora Bennett, Baltimore, Md.; Miss Naomi Boston, Grafton, W. Va.; Mrs. Willa Bouldin, Baltimore, Md.; Mrs. Virgie Broady, Roanoke, Va.; Mrs. Georgianna Brooks, Fairmont, W. Va.; Mrs. M. Loretta Brooks, Annapolis, Md.; Mrs. Marye Cabell, Lewisburg, W. Va.;

Rev. Ernest Clark, Charleston, W. Va.; Mrs. C. Davis, Baltimore, Md.; Mrs. Thelma Ellington, Grafton, W. Va.; Rev. John Evans, Lothian, Ma.; Miss Yvonne Fisher, Glen Burnie, Md.; Rev. Kirkland Frazier, Washington, D. C.; Edward Gaddis, Washingon, D. C.; Miss Anita Jackson, White Sulphur Springs, W. Va.; Mrs. Ruth Lancaster, Washington, D. C.; Mrs. Sallie Larkins, Baltimore, Md.; Mrs. Julia Lewis, Grafton, W. Va.;

Miss Phyllis Meadows, Roanoke, Va.; Rev. Levi Miller, Baltimore, Md.; Mrs. Nellie Parker, Baltiore, Md.; Mrs. Clytie Perry, Baltimore, Md.; Miss Hilda Perry, Washington, D. C.; Miss Vera Reese, Washington, D. C.; Mrs. Edna Renick, Lewisburg, W. Va.; Mrs. Annie Thompson, Baltimore, Md.;

Calvin Thompson, Baltimore, Md.; Miss Evelyn Tymous, Washington, D. C.; Miss Florence Wheeler, Baltimore, Md.; Mrs. Edna Williams, Baltimore, Md.; Rev. Myrtle Wood, Baltimore, Md.

— North Carolina Conference —

Rev. Glenn Brooks, Lexington; Mrs. Martha Burwick and the Rev. Oscar Burwick, Asheboro; Mrs. Cleo Conner, Salisbury; Miss Pauline Eller, Winston-Salem; Rev. James Gwyn, Oxford; Rev. G. E. Hogue, Laurinburg; Rev. J. T. Jones, Gastonia; Mrs. Delilah Knight, Spindale;

Miss Daisie McCallum, Red Springs; Miss Estelle McCallum, Greensboro; Miss Fannie McCallum, Greensboro; Miss Flossie McNair, Wagram; Rev. Douglas Moore, Greensboro; Rev. R. C. Sharpe, Fayetteville; Mrs. Lubertha Thompson, Maxton; and Mrs. D. A. Wooten, Charlotte.

3 Of The Last 4 Valedictorians At Bennett Were Also Tops In Classes At High Schools

GREENSBORO — Although lightning is said not to strike twice in the same place, three of the last four valedictorians at Bennett College were also valedictorians in high school—and the fourth was a high school salutatorian.

No. 1 senior in the 1954 class was Miss Dorothy Dixon, who was also valedictorian of the Pleasant Grove High School in Burlington. She is now Mrs. Dorothy Morrow, a teacher at Efland, N. C.

Miss Thelma Owens 1955 valedictorian was also valedictorian at the Langston High School in her native Johnson City, Tenn. She was also chosen to reign as "Miss Bennett College" for the 1954-55 school year, and i snow Mrs. Thelma Fleming, a Detroit housewife.

Valedictorian of the 1956 class was Miss Barbara Brown, who was salutatorian at West High School in Akron, Ohio. Miss Brown, who has spent the past school year as a Fulbright Scholar in Bordeaux, France, is scheduled to return to the United States this week.

Miss Marie Slaughter, valedictorian of the 1957 graduating class was also valedictorian at Grant High School in Covington, Kentucky. A native of Newport, Kantucky, she plans a teaching career.

In the 1957 class, there were four others who were valedictorians in high school. They include Misses Mayme Ellerbe, of Cheraw, S. C.; Doris Lanier, of Bath, N. C.; Alice Hayes, of Whiteville, N. C., and Marion Moor, of Topeka, Kansas.

Former high school salutatorians in the class include: Misses Pauline Dixon, of Burlington, sister of Mrs. Dorothy Morrow; Phebie Ewings, of Mt. Gilead; Flora Mae Smith, of Clarksburg, W. Va., and Ann Stewart, of Reidsville.

For Missions Conf.

GREENSBORO, N. C.— Some 106 women, 91 of them registered for audit courses, attended the School of Missions and Christian Service conducted by the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the North Carolina Conference at Bennett College last week.

Miss Fannie McCallum, of Greensboro, dean of this year's school, said that this was the largest number ever to attend. Mrs. Mary N. Morrison of Statesville, was chairman.

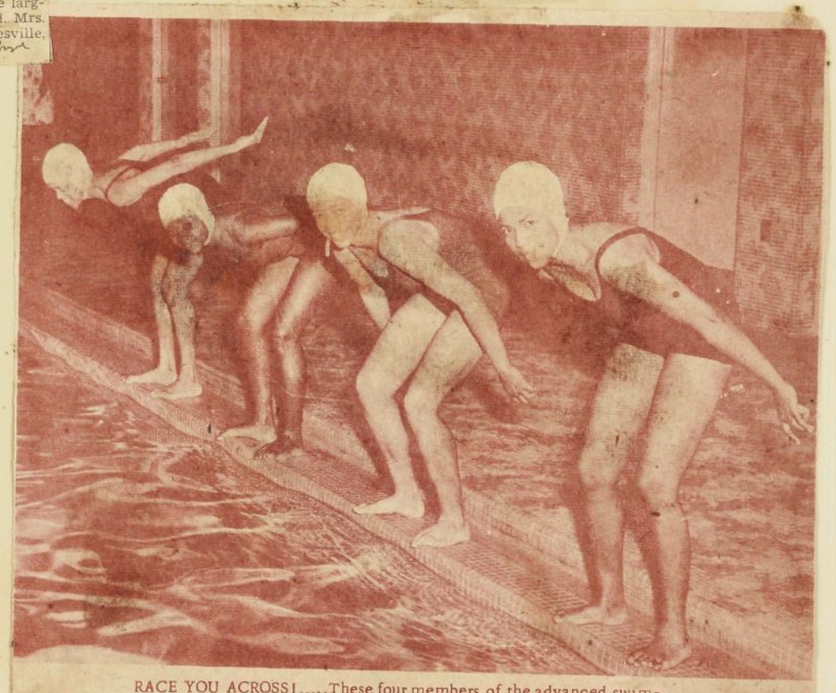

Four courses were offered this year, namely, "The Gospel According to Mark," taught by the Rev. John L. Bryan; "Christ, the Church and Race," taught by Miss Harriet Seibert; "Japan," taught by Mrs. Morrison, and "The Social Witness of the Local Church in the Ecumenical Movement," taught by Mrs. David D. Jones.

In addition, there were workshops in "Drama and Audio-Visuals in the Church," conducted by Mrs. Dorothy Jones of Reidsville and "Parliamentary Procedures and Responsibilities in the Woman's Society of Christian Service," conducted by Mrs. L. M. Mayfield of High Point, and a number of departmental clinies.

For Missions Conf.

ference at Bennett College last week.

Miss Fannie McCallum, of Greensboro, dean of this year's school, said that this was the largest number ever to attend. Mrs. Mary N. Morrison of Statesville, was chairman.

RACE YOU ACROSS!.....These four members of the advanced swimming class at Bennett College, Greensboro, N. C., are all set to race each other across the pool at the Hayes-Taylor YMCA. Left to right: Ada Lomax, Tobyhanna, Pa.; Ietta Jones, Hallandale, Fla.; Izetta Hicks, Philadelphia, Pa., and Veronica Dean, Miami, Fla.

Durham Girl To Enter UNC

GREENSBORO

Miss Carolyn Ingram, of Durham, 1957 graduate of Bennett College, will begin the study of psychiatric social work at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill in the fall, leading to the master's degree.

The daughter of Mrs. B. Ingram Williamson, Miss Ingram is a graduate of Durham's Hillside High School, where she was president of the Student Council. At Bennett, where she consistently made the honor roll, she was secretary of the Student Senate, a member of the Senior Marshal Board and of the Senior Theatre Guild. She was also winner of the David D. Jones Leadership Award for having exhibited the most outstanding qualities of leadership in the activities of the David D. Jones Student Union during the past school year.

It is believed that Miss Ingram will be the first woman of her race to be accepted for graduate work at Chapel Hill in the history of the university.

Pa. Minister New Dean Of Methodist Body

GREENSBORO, N. C.

With the election of the Rev. Howard A. Bailey of Yeadon, Pa., as its dean for next year, Leadership School of the Methodist Church came to a close at Bennett College here on Sunday.

The Rev. Mr. Bailey succeeds the Rev. Levi B. Miller, Jr., of Baltimore. Dates for the 1958 school will be June 24-29 and Bennett will again be host. This year's school was attended by 94 persons — men and women — representing laymen and

A partial list of persons registered for the Leadership School follows:

North Carolina Conference

Rev. Glenn Brooks, Lexington; Mrs. Martha Burwick and the Rev. Oscar Burwick, Asheboro; Mrs. Cleo Conner, Salisbury; Miss Pauline Eller, Winston-Salem; Rev. James Gwyn, Oxford; Rev. G. E. Hogue, Laurinburg; Rev. J. T. Jones, Gastonia; Mrs. Delilah Knight, Spindale;

Miss Daisie McCallum, Red Springs; Miss Estelle McCallum, Greensboro; Miss Fannie McCallum, Greensboro; Miss Flossie McNair, Wagram; Rev. Douglas Moore, Greensboro; Rev. R. C. Sharpe, Fayetteville; Mrs. Lubertha Thompson, Maxton; and Mrs. D. A. Wooten, Charlotte.

DAN CUPID FALLS SHORT AT BENNETT

GREENSBORO, N. C.

Dan Cupid fell a bit short of his usual quota of Bennett College graduates choosing June as the month in which to be married, according to announcements received in the alumnae office this month.

Wedding announcements from five graduates and one from a former student, were received as follows:

Miss Margaret Tatum, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Berkeley Tatum, and a 1957 graduate, was married to James Warren; Miss Dorothy Harris, another 1957 graduate, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Harris of Greensboro, was married to Shelton Williams, and another classmate, Miss Geraldine Parrish, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Parrish, of Glendale, Ohio, was married to Lt. Flemming A. Cheek;

Miss Jacquelyn Lightsey, of the class of 1955, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert King, of Miami, Florida, was married to the Rev. Arthur J. Collier, Jr., and Miss Delores Cox, of the class of 1956, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Cox, of Charlotte, was married to Sammie Pittman.

A former student, Miss Lillian Henry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Henry, of Greensboro, was married to John D. Hopkins, Jr.

W S C S HOLD CONFERENCE AT B. C.

Some 106 women, 91 of them registered for audit courses, attended the School of Missions and Christian Service conducted by the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the North Carolina Conference at Bennett College last week.

Miss Fannie McCallum, of Greensboro, dean of this year's school, said that this was the largest number ever to attend. Mrs. Mary N. Morrison of Statesville, was chairman.

Four courses were offered this year, namely, "The Gospel According to Mark," taught by the Rev. John L. Bryan; "Christ, the Church and Race," taught by Miss Harriet Seibert; "Japan," taught by Mrs. Morrison, and "The Social Witness of the Local Church in the Ecumenical Movement," taught by Mrs. David D. Jones.

In addition, there were workshops in "Drama and Audio-Visuals in the Church," conducted by Mrs. Dorothy Jones of Reidsville and "Parliamentary Procedures and Responsibilities in the Woman's Society of Christian Service," conducted by Mrs. L. M. Mayfield of High Point, and a number of departmental clinies.

Miss Julia M. McClain of Grady, Ala., member of the graduating class of Bennett College, was recently notified that she has been granted a license to preach.

Miss McClain, who will attend the Hartford (Conn.) Theological Seminary on a graduate scholarship in the fall, will study for a bachelor of divinity degree. She was licensed by the Birmingham District of the Central Alabama Conference.

Korean Student Attending Bennett College New Bride

GREENSBORO — Miss Young Tack Lee, of Seoul, Korea, a junior at Bennett College, became the bride of Jhin Woo Park, also of Seoul, in a ceremony performed last Sunday at the Korean Methodist Church on Riverside Drive, New York City.

Among Miss Lee's bridesmaids was Miss Ruth Anderson, of Philadelphia, her roomate. The newlyweds, who were childhood sweethearts in Korea, came to the United States at the same time.

Mr. Park a senior in diplomatic science at Brevard (N. C.) College, plans graduate study and Mrs. Park will return in September to Bennett where she is a general home economics major.

She designed and, in one weekend, made her own Princess-style wedding gown, which contained 11 yards of white floral lace over 11 yards of white taffeta, and also made her wedding veil of white nylon, trimmed in lace. Mrs. Park is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sur Hi Lee, of Seoul.

A&T Student To Head Methodist Council

GREENSBORO, N. C. — Miss Hilda Withers, a member of the Withers Chapel Church at Pine Hall was elected president of the Youth Council of the North Carolina Conference Methodist Youth Institute as that organization closed its one-week sessions at Bennett College, here, Friday.

Miss Withers, a sophomore, majoring in applied sociology at A&T College here, will be assisted by the following officers.

Wilbur Monroe, Laurinburg, vice president; Pauline Wright, High Point, secretary, and Willie Waugh, Fayetteville, treasurer.

The following committee chairmen were also elected: Derry Galbreath, Fayetteville, faith; Clyde Stewart, Laurinburg, witness; Ruth Goolsby, Walnut Cove, outreach; Edith Mayfield, Winston-Salem, citizenship, and Maxine Webb, Greensboro, fellowship.

This year's institute, headed by the Rev. Douglas Moore, attracted 125 persons, largest in the history of the conference. In addition to lectures, discussions and workshops, there was a variety of recreational activities.

94 Take Part In Bennett Meet

GREENSBORO, N. C.—With the election of the Rev. Howard A. Bailey of Yeadon, Pa., as its dean for next year, the annual Baltimore Area Leadership School of the Methodist Church, came to a close at Bennett College here last Sunday.

The Rev. Mr. Bailey succeeds the Rev. Levi B. Miller, Jr., of Baltimore. Dates for the 1958 school will be June 24-29 and Bennett will again be host. This year's school was attended by 94 persons - men and women - representing laymen and the clergy. The Delaware Conference, with 38, led in enrollment, followed closely by the Washington Conf e rence, with 36.

Closing services were held in Pfeiffer Chapel at which time the sermon was delivered by the Rev. Ramsey Bridges, instructor of pastoral psychology in the Baltimore Area Pastor's School which will continue in session here through July 19.

METHODIST YOUTH INSTITUTE HOLDS SESSION AT BENNETT COLLEGE

Miss Hilda Withers, a member of Withers Chapel Church at Pine Hall, was elected president of the Youth Council of the North Carolina Conference Methodist Youth Institute as that organization closed its one-week sessions at Bennett College, Friday.

Miss Withers, a sophomore, majoring in applied sociology at A. & T. College, will be assisted by the following officers:

Wilbur Monroe, Laurinburg, vice president; Pauline Wright, High Point, secretary, and Willie Waugh, Fayetteville, treasurer.

The following committee chairmen were also elected: Derry Galbreath, Fayetteville, faith; Clyde Stewart, Laurinburg, witness; Ruth Goolsby, Walnut Cove, outreach; Edith Mayfield, Winston-Salem, citizenship, and Maxine Webb, Greensboro, fellowship.

This year's institute, headed by the Rev. Douglas Moore, attracted 125 persons, largest in the history of the conference. In addition to lectures, discussions and workshops, there was a variety of recreational activities.

BENNETT GRADUATES LARGEST CLASS IN HISTORY

BENNETT PROCESSION---Members of the 1957 class at Bennett College march through Bearden Gate for the last time on the way to commencement exercises in Pfeiffer Chapel. In foreground is Miss Gwendolyn Harris, of Greensboro, N. C., whose twin sister, Dorothy is hidden.

BENNETT COMMENCEMENT PRINCIPALS---Dr. Arthur S. Flemming, president of Ohio Wesleyan University, who delivered the commencement address and Bishop J. W. E. Bowen, of Atlanta, Ga., who preached the baccalaureate sermon, smile with Dr. Willa B. Player, president of Bennett College during president's Reception.

BENNETT'S LARGEST CLASS--Members of the 1957 class of Bennett College, largest in the history of the institution, are shown here. These students come from eighteen states.

GREENSBORO GRADUATES---Some of the Bennett College graduates are shown shortly after doffing their robes on commencement day. Left to right: Mrs. Betty S. Echols, Mrs. Delores I. Noble, Misses Dorothy Harris, Lela B. Johnson, Gwendolyn Harris, Betty Higgins, Grace Dungee, Blondell Reid, Jacqueline Hamlett, Margarie Mays, Peggie Smith and Shirley Hudson.

BENNETT SALUTATORIAN---Miss Grace E. Dungee, of Greensboro, N. C., of the class of 1957 at Bennett College, is congratulated by President Willa B. Player as she receives her degree.

BENNETT TEARS---Supported by Miss Hazeline Taylor, Charlotte, N. C., member of the choir, Miss Audrey Mead, of Bristol, Tenn., and Barbara Carson, Lexington N. C. gave way to tears of joy following Bennett College commencement, Monday, while classmate, Miss Sylvia Pretlow, of Rocky Mount, gives a comforting smile.

TRADITIONAL TEARS FALL---Commencement day at Bennett College last Monday, has been the tradition for years was a time for tears of joy. Miss Mildred Battiste, center of Kingstree, S. C., consoled by Misses Alice Hayes, left, of Whiteville and Gwendolyn Harris, of Greensboro, N. C.

AT BENNETT'S COMMENCEMENT

BENNETT GRADS-REUNION---Some of the members of the Bennett College Graduate Association who held their annual meeting at the college during the commencement season are shown here, left to right front row: Mrs. Jean P. Haith, Alumnae Secretary; unidentified youngster; Dr. Miriam McTerr, of Nashville, Tenn.; Miss Lucille E. Brown, Boston, Mass; Mrs. Viola H. Taylor, Portsmouth, Va.; Mrs. Eva B. Dunston, Danville, Va.; Mrs. Anna Moore, Greensboro; Miss Ruth James, New York City; Mrs. Barbara J. Sanford, Portsmouth, Va. Second row: Mrs. Alma T. Taylor, Greensboro; Mrs. Cecilia M. Montague, Greensboro; Mrs. Virginia H. Wagstaff, Blackstone, Va.; Mrs. Estell W. Tatum, Greensboro; Mrs. Sarah W. Foushee, Greensboro; Mr. Joseph Harrington, New York City; Mrs. Pauline A. Donnell, Greensboro; Mrs. M. B. McLaurin (partially hidden) Greensboro; Mrs. Vina W. Webb, Sedalia. Back row: Mrs. Fannie L. Hinnant, president, Greensboro; Miss Juanita Wells, Greensboro; Mrs. Thomasena Miller, Greensboro; Mrs. Zenobia Headen, Greensboro and Mrs. Margaret R. Logwood, Greensboro.

BENNETT CHRISTENING--Principals who participated in traditional Mother's Day christening services at Bennett College--at which time graduates of the college return with their babies. Left to right Mr. and Mrs. John E. Reeve, godparents of Michael Reese, (in arms); the parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Reese of Greensboro (the former Miss Mary Pierce of the class of 1951; Mrs. Juanita Jackson, of Charlotte, member of the class of 1957 and mother of Cheryl, being held by Mrs. James E. White, of Charlotte, godmother, and Robert Steele, also of Charlotte, godfather. Cheryl's father, a member of the armed forces, could not be present.

SERIOUS CONVERSATION---Some of the guests who attended the reception held at the home of Dr. Willa B. Player, Bennett College president, at commencement time engage in a discussion of a weighty subject. Listening intently to Dr. Richard Bardolph (second from left) Woman's College professor, are, left to right: Mrs. Edwin Edmonds, Dr. Rose Karfiol, instructor in Economics at Bennett College, Dr. Dorothy Bardolph (his wife) instructor in History at Bennett College, Miss Joyce Martin, graduating senior, (her father) Dr. William F. Martin, dean of the faculty at Hampton Institute and Mrs. Gladys Martin, (her mother) dean of women at Hampton Institute.

TRADITIONS NOTED

FROM VA., W. VA., AND S. C.---These members of the 1957 class at Bennett College represent three states--Virginia, West Virginia and South Carolina. Left to right, front row: Misses Mary E. Miller, Lynchburg, Va.; Cecily L. Baxley, Columbia, S. C.; Virginia Holland, Superior, W. Va.; Mildred Battiste, Kingstree, S. C., Precious Aldrich, McBee, S. C. Second row: Jacqueline McAlister, Kingstree, S. C.; Barbara Elliott, Portsmouth, Va.; Doris Boisseau, Richmond, Va.; and Mayme Ellerbe, Cheraw, S. C.

BENNETT TRUSTEES MEET — Pausing in deliberations at the annual meeting for photograph last week are (clockwise) board members Miss Margaret Forsyth, Mrs. Millard L. Robinson and Mrs. Harry E. James, all of NYC; Mrs. J. G. Meidenbauer, Buffalo, N.Y.; Mrs. H. C. Black, Johnson City, Tenn.; Dr. Frederick D. Patterson, NYC, chairman; President Willa B. Player, Bishop Edgar A. Love, Baltimore, vice chairman; Mrs. J. M. Rodeheaver, Winona Lake, Ind.; Dr. Earl B. Tolley, Binghampton, N.Y.; the Rev. Carl King, Salisbury, N.C., and Mrs. Robert K. Gordon, Dillon, S.C.

Sociologist Will Speak At Bennett

news 11/1/57

Dr. Ira De.A Reid, one of the nation's leading social scientists, will deliver the principal address when Bennett College holds its annual Founder's Day services in Pfeiffer Chapel Sunday at 4 p.m.

Dr. Reid, professor of sociology, at Haverford College, Haverford, Pa., since 1947, has had a distinguished career in education, in social welfare work and in research. Following his graduation from Morehouse College, he earned an M. A. degree from the University of Pittsburgh and a Ph.D. from Columbia University.

He has taught in the public schools in Texas and West Virginia, and on the college level has taught at Atlanta and New York Universities. For a number of years he served as director of research for the National Urban League and at one time was an economist with the Social Security Board.

In addition to serving various other government agencies, Dr. Reid has found time to write a number of books and at one time was editor of Phylon magazine.

Bennett College was founded as a co-educational institution in 1873. It became a college for women in 1926 when the late Dr. David D. Jones became its president serving until 1955 when he was succeeded by Dr. Willa B. Player.

Since 1926, Bennett has graduated over 1,740 young women, the majority of whom are teachers and homemakers. Many, however, have been attracted to the professions and hold graduate degrees from leading universities and professional schools.

HOW IT'S DONE — Francis L. Grandison, psychology instructor at Bennett college, Greensboro, N. C., explains registration procedure to a group of freshmen during registration at the school, Freshman class is one of Bennett's largest — with 160 new students from 18 states and four foreign countries.

CHICAGO DEFENDER
SEP 28 1957

MISS LINDA BROWN of Akron, Ohio, is greeted by President Willa B. Player of Bennett college during the President's reception for freshmen. Two of Linda's sisters, Doloris and Barbara, are graduates of the college.

Bennett Hears Negro College Fund President

10/19/57

GREENSBORO, N. C.—That the incidents which have accompanied the movement for social change in the United States are a part of a world-wide movement toward freedom was the view expressed by Dr. Frederick D. Patterson, of New York City, in his vesper message at Bennett College recently.

Dr. Patterson, who in addition to being chairman of the Bennett board of trustees, is also president of the United Negro College Fund and director of the Phelps-Stokes Fund, referred to the reistance to school desegregation in Little Rock, Nashville, Charlotte, and Greensboro as symbols of prejudiced behavior.

"Such behavior," he declared, "is almost always foolish and shortsighted behavior because it is selfish behavior. But the world today demands new outreaches of understanding and cooperation. If the world is to survive, we must learn to live together in peace and harmony."

The speaker, who at one time was president of Tuskegee Institute in Tuskegee, Ala., said that many persons who ordinarily would have gone along with delay and litigation in the matter of school desegregation, now find themselves unwilling to stand on the side

Bennett College board elects, cites $175,000 gifts, grants

GREENSBORO, N.C.—Total gifts and grants in excess of $175,000 were reported during the annual meeting of the Bennett College board of trustees at the college Saturday.

This sum, representingan increase slightly over $99,000 in these categories over the past year, includes a grant of $67,000 for faculty salaries from the Ford Foundation, the second installment of a grant of $127,000 made for this purpose.

An increase of over $11,000 in race relations offerings for Bennett from supporting conferences of the Methodist Church was also noted.

* * *

PRESIDENT WILLA B. PLAYERS, in her annual report, informed the trustees of the highly successful student exchange programs instituted last year between Bennett and Sarah Lawrence College, Bronxville, N.Y., and Ohio Wesleyan University, Delaware, Ohio.

The trustees were unanimous in their approval of this programs as a means of strengthening interracial understanding on the part of American youth and recommended that it be strengthened for this school year.

Making her report against th background of the summary report made last August by President Eisenhower's Committee on Education Beyond the High School, Dr. Player highlighted what the college is doing and planning in the five major problem areas listed in that document.

Those were the need for teachers, assistance to students, expansion and diversity of education opportunities, the financing of higher education and the role of the Federal Government in education.

* * *

TWO TRUSTEES — Bishop Edgar A. Love of Baltimore and Mrs. Harry E. James of NYC—were reelected to terms ending in 1961.

Dr. Carl King of Salisbury, executive secretary of the board of education of the Western North Carolina Conference of he Methodist Church, attended his first meeting as a trustee. He was electel last year.

In addition to hearing reports from standing committees, the trustees authorized the secretary to send greetings of appreciation to:

Dr. W. C. Jackson of Greensboro, Mrs. W. Raymond Brown of Kerkimer, N.Y., and Bishop Robert E. Jones of Waveland, Miss., all of whom were unable to attend because of illness.

Following the meeting of the trustees, there was a meeting of the Continuing Corporation of the Woman's Home Missionary Society of the Methodist Church. Both groups were honored Saturday at a dinner in the David D. Jones Student Union.

Bennett plans Founder's Day

Ohio 11/2/57

GREENSBORO, N.C. — Dr. Ira D. Reid, social scientist, will deliver the principal address holds its annual Founder's Day dress when Bennett College services in Pfeiffer Chapel, Sunday, November 3, at 4 p.m.

Dr. Reid, professor of sociology, at Haverford College, Haverford, Pa., since 1947, has had a distinguished career in education, in social welfare work, and in research.

* * *

BENNETT COLLEGE was founded as a co-educational in 1873. It became a college for women in 1926, at which time, the late Dr. David D. Jones, became its president, serving until 1955, when he was succeeded by Dr. Willa B. Player.

Since 1926, Bennett has graduated over 1,740 young women, the majority of whom are teachers and homemakers. Many, however, have been attracted to the professions and hold graduate degrees from leading universities and professional schools.

Miss Geneva Baldwin of Pittsboro, N. C., a senior at Bennett College, was notified recently that she won sixth honors in the Robert series of awards for editorial writing by college students conducted by the Intercollegiate Association for the Study of the Alcohol Problem, of Columbus, Ohio. 11/15/57

Brown Talks At Bennett Vespers

news 10/28/57

Some people seek to ascribe their failures to God, when their own inefficiency is really to blame, the Rev. Leander A. Brown told the Bennett College vesper audience in Pfeiffer Chapel.

The minister, who resides in Greensboro but is superintendent of the Winston District of the North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Church, spoke on "Christians at Their Best."

"We must always be at our very best in Christian living," he declared, "but we can only be at our best as we work with God. Nothing can be more hopeless than the wisdom of man without the spirit of God."

He urged the students not to be discouraged when success seems to slip from their grasp, but to make another try. "Remember that when the Galilean fisherman told Christ of their unsuccessful efforts, He commanded them to launch out into the deep," the minister stated. "Many of us fail because we do our fishing around the shore."

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 26, 1957 JOURNAL AND GUIDE

$175,000 Last Year

Bennett Trustees Note Increase In Donations

GREENSBORO, N. C. — Total gifts and grants in excess of $175,000 were reported during the annual meeting of the Bennett College board of trustees at the college Saturday.

This sum, representing an increase slightly over $99,000 in these categories over the past year, includes a grant of $67,000 for faculty salaries from the Ford Foundation, the second installment of a grant of $127,000 made for this purpose.

AN INCREASE of over 11,000 in Race Relations offerings for Bennett from supporting conferences of the Methodist Church was also noted.

President Willa B. Player, in her annual report, informed the trustees of the highly successful student exchange programs instituted last year between Bennett and Sarah Lawrence College, Bronxville, N. Y., and Ohio Wesleyan University, Delaware, Ohio. The trustees were unanimous in their approval of this program as a means of strengthening interracial understanding on the part of American youth and recommended that it be strengthened for this school year.

* * *

MAKING HER report against the background of the summary report made last August to President Eisenhower by the President's Committee on Education Beyond the High School, Dr. Player highlighted what the college is doing and planning in the five major problem areas in the former document, namely, need for teachers, need for assistance to students, need for expansion and diversity of educational opportunities, the financing of higher education and the role of the federal government in education.

* * *

Two trustees — Bishop Edgar A. Love, of Baltimore, Md., and Mrs. Harry E. James, of New York City — were re-elected to terms ending in 1961, Dr. Carl King, of Salisbury, executive secretary of the Board of Education of the Western North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Church, attended his first meeting as a trustee. He was elected last year.

Bennett Trustees In Annual Meeting Dg 10/19/57

Members of the Bennett College Board of Trustees pause for a photograph at the board's annual meeting last week at the college in Greensboro, N. C. Left to right (clockwise) from the far side of table in foreground are: Miss Margaret Forsyth, Mrs. Millard L. Robinson and Mrs. Harry E. James, all of New York City; Mrs. J. G. Meidenbauer, treasurer, Buffalo, N. Y.; Mrs. H. C. Black, secretary, Johnson City, Tenn; Dr. Frederick D. Patterson, chairman, New York City; President Willa B. Player; Bishop Edgar A. Love, vice-chairman, Baltimore, Md.; Mrs. J. M. Rodeheaver, Winona Lake, Ind.; Dr. Earl V. Tolley, Binghamton, N. Y.; the Rev. Carl King, Salisbury, N. C., and Mrs. Robert K. Gordon, Dillon, S. C. Not shown are: Dr. John A. Tarpley and Mrs. Julius W. Cone, both of Greensboro, and Miss Muriel Day, New York City.

Dr. Ira Reid To Address Bennett Event

Carolina Times 11/2/57

Dr. Ira D. Reid, one of the nation's leading social scientists, will deliver the principal address when Bennett College holds its annual Founder's Day services in Pfeiffer Chapel, Sunday, November 3, at 4 p. m.

Dr. Reid, professor of sociology at Haverford College, Haverford, Pa., since 1947, has had a distinguished career in education, in social welfare work and in research. Following his graduation from Morehouse College, he earned the M. A. degree from the University of Pittsburgh and the Ph.D. from Columbia University.

Bennett College was founded as a co-educational institution in 1873. It became a college for women in 1926, at which time, the late Dr. David D. Jones, became its president, serving until 1955, when he was succeeded by Dr. Willa B. Player.

Since 1926, Bennett has graduated over 1,740 young women, the majority of whom are teachers and homemakers. Many however, have been attracted to the professions and hold graduate degrees from leading universities and professional schools.

BENNETT JUNIOR, TO ATTEND CONFERENCE

Miss Veronica Dean, a junior, of Miami, Florida, will be the Bennett College representative at a YWCA Conference, to be held at the University of North Carolina, at Chapel Hill on November 16.

$175,000 in Gifts, Grants to Bennett

GREENSBORO, N. C.—Total gifts and grants in excess of $175,000 were reported during the annual meeting of the Bennett College board of trustees at the college Saturday.

This sum, representing an increase slightly over $99,000 in these categories over the past year, includes a grant of $67,000 for faculty salaries from the Ford Foundation, the second installment of a grant of $127,000 made for this purpose.

An increase of over $11,000 in race relations offerings for Bennett from supporting conferences of the Methodist Church was also noted.

President Willa B. Player, in her annual report, informed the trustees of the highly successful student exchange programs instituted last year between Bennett and Sarah Lawrence College, Bronxville, N. Y., and Ohio Wesleyan University, Delaware, Ohio.

Two trustees—Bishop Edgar A. Love of Baltimore, Md., and Mrs. Harry E. James of New York City—were re-elected to terms ending in 1961. Dr. Carl King, of Salisburg, executive secretary of the Board of Education of the Western North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Church, attended his first meeting as a trustee. He was elected last year.

Bennett gifts up to $175,000

Dec 11/2/57

GREENSBORO, N.C. (ANP) —Total gifts and grants in excess of $175,000 were reported during the annual meeting of the Bennett College board of Trustees at the college Saturday.

This sum, representing an increase slightly over $99,000 in these categories over the past year, includes a grant of $67,000 for faculty salaries from the Ford Foundation, the second installment of a grant of $127,000 made for this purpose.

An increase of over $11,000 in Race Relations offerings for Bennett from supporting conferences of the Methodist Church was also noted.

PRESIDENT WILLA B. PLAYER, in her annual report, informed the trustees of the highly successful student exchange programs instituted last year between Bennett and Sarah Lawrence College, Bronxville, N.Y., and Ohio Wesleyan University, Delaware, Ohio.

The trustees were unanimous in their approval of this program as a means of strengthening interracial understanding on the part of American youth and recommended that it be strengthened for this school year.

Dr. Player highlighted what the college is doing and planning in the five major problem areas in the former document, namely, need for teachers, need for assistance to students, need for expansion and diversity of educational opportunities, the financing of higher education and the role of the federal government in education.

Miss Julia McClain is a 1957 graduate of Bennett College. She is a member of Alpha Kappa Mu honor society and was listed among "Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities." She has been awarded a full scholarship for study at the Hartford Theological Seminary.

VESPER SPEAKER

Dr. Harry V. Richardson, president of Gammon Theological Seminary, Atlanta, Ga., will deliver the vesper address at Bennett College on Sunday, November 17 at 4 p. m.

Dr. Richardson, a graduate of Western Reserve and Harvard Universities, received his Ph.D. degree from Drew University. He served as chaplain at Tuskegee Institue in Alabama from 1932-48, and has been the president of Gammon since then.

THE CHARLOTTE POST

OFF TO A GOOD START — Miss Elishma Madison of Miami, Florida (standing), newly elected president of the Freshman Theater Guild of Bennett College, outlines to members of her cabinet some of her plans for the year. Listening (left to right) around the table are Misses: Doris Neely, vice president, of Charlotte; Gwendolyn Mackel, treasurer, of Chicago, Illinois; Barbara Philson, parliamentarian, of Charlotte; and Shirley Dismuke, secretary, of Vandergrift, Pennsylvania.

Bennett College To Observe Founders' Day November 3rd

Dr. Ira D. Reid, one of the nation's leading social scientists, will deliver the principal address when Bennett College holds its annual Founder's Day services in Pfeiffer Chapel, Sunday No, vember 3rd, at 4 p. m.

Dr. Reid, professor of sociology, at Haverford College, Haverford, Pa., since 1947, has had a distinguish career in education, in social welfare work, and in research. Following his graduation from Morehouse College, he earned the M. A. degree from the University of Pittsburgh and the Ph. D. from Columbia University.

He has taught in the public schools in Texas and West Virginia, and, on the college level has taught at Atlanta and New York universities. For a number of years, he served as director of research for the National Urban League, and at one time was a social economist with the Social Security Board.

In addition to serving various other government agencies, Dr. Reid has found time to write a number of books and at one time was editor of Phylon magazine.

Bennett College was founded as a co-educational institution in 1873. It became a college for women in 1926, at which time, the late Dr. David D. Jones, became its president, serving until 1955, when he was succeeded by Dr. Willa B. Player.

Since 1926, Bennett has graduated over 1,740 young women, the majority of whom are teachers and homemakers. Many however, have been attracted to the professions and hold graduate degrees from leading universities and professional schools.

Bennett To Hear Noted Social Scientist

Greensboro, N. C. —Dr. Ira D. Reid, one of the nation's leading social scientists, will deliver the principal address when Bennett College holds its annual Founder's Day services in Pfeiffer Chapel, Sunday, November 3, at 4 p. m.

Dr. Reid, professor of sociology, at Haverford College, Haverford, Pa., since 1947, has had a distinguished career in education, in social welfare work, and in research. Following his graduation from Morehouse College, he earned the M. A. degree from the University of Pittsburgh and the Ph. D. from Columbia University.

He has taught in the public schools in Texas and West Va., and, on the college level, has taught at Atlanta and New York universities. For a number of years, he served as director of research for the National Urban League, and at one time was a social economist with the Social Security Board.

In addition to serving various other government agencies, Dr. Reid has found time to write a number of books and at one time was editor of Phylon magazine.

Bennett College was founded as a co-educational institution in 1873. It became a college for women in 1926, at which time, the late Dr. David D. Jones, became its president, serving until 1955, when he was succeeded by Dr. Willa B. Player.

Since 1926, Bennett has graduated over 1,740 young women, the majority of whom are teachers and homemakers. Many, however, have been attracted to the professions and hold graduate degrees from leading universities and professional schools.

Dancer—Robbie Walton of Clarksville, Tenn., in one of the movements of her creative dance numbers which were roundly applauded during the freshman talent show at Bennett College.

Trustees Told Of Donations To Bennett

Gifts and grants to Bennett College in excess of $175,000 were reported to the college board of trustees at their annual meeting here yesterday.

The total was almost $100,000 above the amount announced last year, a college spokesman said. Included in the sum was a grant of $67,000 for faculty salaries from the Ford Foundation, the second installment of a grant of $127,000 made for this purpose.

Race relations offerings for Bennett from supporting conferences of the Methodist Church were reported to have shown an increase of more than $11,000.

Dr. Player Reports

Dr. Willa B. Player, president of the college, in her annual report, told members of the board of the student exchange programs instituted last year with Sarah Lawrence College, Bronxville, N.Y., and Ohio Wesleyan University, Delaware, Ohio. The trustees gave approval of the program and recommended that it be continued next year. The program, Dr. Player said, is a means of strengthening interracial understanding on the part of American youth.

She also outlined the college program in meeting the need for teachers, need for assistance to students, need for expansion and diversity of educational opportunities and explained the financing of higher education and the government's role in education.

Following the meeting of the board, the Continuing Corp. of the Woman's Home Missionary Society of the Methodist Church convened for a session.

A dinner to honor the board was held last night.

NEW YORKER SPEAKS AT BENNETT

School Incidents Seen Part Of Social Change

The incidents which have accompanied the movement for social change in the United States are a part of a world-wide movement toward freedom, said Dr. Frederick D. Paterson, of New York City, in his vesper message at Bennett College yesterday.

Dr. Patterson, who in addition to being chairman of the Bennett board of trustees, is also president of the United Negro College Fund and director of the Phelps-Stokes Fund, referred to the resistance to school desegregation in Little Rock, Nashville, Charlotte and Greensboro as symbols of prejudiced behavior.

"Such behavior," he declared, "is almost always foolish and short-sighted behavior because it is selfish behavior. But the world today demands new outreaches of understanding and cooperation. If the world is to survive, we must learn to live together in peace and harmony."

The speaker, who at one time was president of Tuskegee Institute in Tuskegee, Ala., said that many persons who ordinarily would have gone along with delay and litigation in the matter of school desegregation, now find themselves unwilling to stand on the side of lawlessness.

Inasmuch as it is now possible to get within 36 hours from any given point on the globe to any other point, he stated, it is no longer possible for a nation to preach one thing and to practice another. "For this reason," he said, "the world is getting rid of its duplicity—perforce—as it becomes more neighborly. There is not only room for but need for inter-racial goodwill."

Referring to the students as tomorrow's leaders, Dr. Patterson urged them to work toward eliminating barriers to full citizenship and to measure up to the obligations and responsibilities which such citizenship entails. He reminded them that those who would enjoy democracy must also work to preserve it.

"As this program becomes a reality," he concluded, "we will not only liberate the South, but help this nation to achieve the strength and stature which are a part of our basic democratic ideology."

To Speak Sun. At Bennett

GREENSBORO

Dr. E. Clayton Calhoun, president of Paine College, Augusta, Georgia, will speak at the Bennett College vesper service on Sunday, October 20, at 4 p.m. in Pfeiffer Chapel.

Calhoun Gives Vesper Talk

The importance of bearing witness for Christ in troubled times was stressed by Dr. E. Clayton Calhoun, of Augusta, Ga., in his vesper message at Bennett College yesterday.

Dr. Calhoun, president of Paine College, said that there is a cry in our age similar to the call which came to Paul to go to Macedonia.

"Jesus can make holy every common act and every common venture of life," he said, "a sacrament by the witness of His presence, just as He made a sacrament of the bread and wine in the Upper Room."

The speaker referred to the rubber core which is at the center of every baseball to make it alive and pointed out that humans need such a force at the center of their lives. "Such a force," he stated, "is Jesus, who touches every common thing and makes it more significant than it would have been otherwise."

EXPRESSIVE DANCER---Miss Robbie Walton of Clarksville, Tennessee, shown in one of the movements of her creative dance number which was roundly applauded during the Freshman Talent Show at Bennett College Saturday night. Miss Walton displayed further talent as a soprano soloist.

College Roundup

BENNETT COLLEGE

GREENSBORO, N.C. — "If all preceding generations had done successfully everything that there was to be done, life for us would be exceedingly dull," Dr. Emory Ross, New York City, told the Bennett College vesper service audience Sunday morning. Dr. E. Clayton Calhoun, president of Paine College, Augusta, Ga., will speak at next Sunday's service.

Miss Elishma Madison of Miami, Fla., has been elected president of the Freshman Theater Guild at Bennett.

PATTERSON SPEAKER

GREENSBORO, N.C. —The annual meeting of the board of trustees of Bennet College was held here on Saturday, Oct. 12.

Highlight of the meeting was the annual report of President Willa B. Player and reports from the several standing committees.

Speaker for the vesper service on Sunday, Oct. 13, was Dr. Frederick D. Patterson, of New York City, chairman of the college trustee board. Dr. Patterson, former president of Tuskegee Institute, is director of the Phelps - Stokes Fund and president of the United College Fund.

BENNETT COLLEGE TRUSTEE'S MEET

Total gifts and grants in excess of $175,000 were reported during the annual meeting of the Bennett College board of trustees at the college Saturday.

This sum, representing an increase slightly over $99,000 in these categories over the past year, includes a grant of $67,000 for faculty salaries from the Ford Foundation, the second installment of a grant of $127,000 made for this purpose.

An increase of over $11,000 in Race Relations offerings for Bennett from supporting conferences of the Methodist Church was also noted.

President Willa B. Player, in her annual report, informed the trustees of the highly successful student exchange programs instituted last year between Bennett and Sarah Lawrence College, Bronxville, N. Y., and Ohio Wesleyan University, Delaware, Ohio. The trustees were unanimous in their approval of this program as a means of strengthening interracial understanding on the part of American youth and recommended that it be strengthened for this school year.

Making her report against the background of the summary report made last August to President Eisenhower by the President's Committee on Education Beyond the High School, Dr. Player highlighted what the college is doing and planning in the five major problem areas in the former document, namely, need for teachers, need for assistance to students, need for expansion and diversity of educational opportunities, the financing of higher education and the role of the federal government in education.

Two trustees — Bishop Edgar A. Love, of Baltimore, Md., and Mrs. Harry E. James, of New York City — were re-elected to terms ending in 1961. Dr. Carl King, of Salisbury, executive secretary of the Board of Education of the Western North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Church, attended his first meeting as a trustee. He was elected last year.

In addition to hearing reports from standing committees, the trustees authorized the secretary to send greetings of appreciation to Dr. W. C. Jackson, of Greensboro; Mrs. W. Raymond Brown, of Herkimer, N. Y., and Bishop Robert E. Jones, of Waveland, Miss., all of whom were unable to attend because of illness.

Dr. Patterson Speaks At Bennett College

That the incidents which have accompanied the movement for social change in the United States are a part of a world-wide movement toward freedom was the view expressed by Dr. Frederick Dr Patterson, of New York City, in his vesper message at Bennett College Sunday.

Dr. Patterson, who in addition to being chairman of the Bennett board of trustees, is also president of the United Negro College Fund and director of the Phelps-Stokes Fund, referred to the resistance to school desegregation in Little Rock, Nashville, Charlotte and Greensboro as symbols of prejudiced behavior.

"Such behavior," he declared, "is almost always foolish and shortsighted behavior because it world today demands new outreaches of understanding and cooperation. If the world is to survive, we must learn to live together in peace and harmony."

The speaker, who at one time was president of Tuskegee Institute in Tuskegee, Alabama, said that many persons who ordinarily would have gone along with delay and litigation in the matter of school desegregation, now find themselves unwilling to stand on the side of lawlessness.

Inasmuch as it is now possible to get within 36 hours from any given point on the globe to any other point, he stated, it is no longer possible for a nation to preach one thing and to practice another. "For this reason," he said, "the world is getting rid of its duplicity — perforce — as it becomes more neighborly. There is not only room for but need for interracial goodwill."

Referring to the students as tomorrow's leaders, Dr. Patterson urged them to work toward eliminating barriers to full citizenship and to measure up to the obligations and responsibilities which such citizenship entails. He reminded them that those who would enjoy democracy must also work to preserve it.

"As this program becomes a reality," he concluded, "we will not only liberate the South, but help this nation to achieve the strength and stature which are a part of our basic democratic ideology."

LITHOGRAPHS SHOWN

An exhibition of original lithographs by outstanding American artists went on display at Bennett College this week in Steele Hall, the college's fine arts building. The exhibit, which may be viewed until October 25, includes the works of Reginald Marsh, Max Weber, Henry V. Poor, and others which were created for advertising purposes. There are 35 lithographs in the collection which resulted from a project sponsored by the Artists' Equity Assn. of New York City.

BENNETT VESPERS

Speaker for the vesper service at Bennett College today will be Dr. Frederick D. Patterson of New York City, chairman of the college trustee board. Dr. Patterson, former president of Tuskegee Institute, is director of the Phelps-Stokes Fund and president of the United Negro College Fund.

DR. PLAYER AWAY

Dr. Willa B. Player, president of Bennett College, will speak in Cleveland and Akron, Ohio, next week in connection with fund raising efforts of the United Negro College Fund. Yesterday, she was in Philadelphia, where she spoke to the Wesleyan Service Guild of that city.

Elected

Miss Elishma Madison of Miami, Fla., has been elected president of the Freshman Theater Guild of Bennett College.

Other officers elected are Misses Doris Neely, vice-president, Charlotte; Shirley Dismuke, secretary; Vandergrift Pennsylvania; Gwendolyn Maekel, treasurer, Chicago Ill.; and Barbara Philson, parliamentarian, Charlotte.

Cast For Play

Casting for "Our Town," the three-act Thornton Wilder comedy-drama to be presented in November by the Theatre Guilds of Bennett College, has been completed, Miss Anne Jenkins, director, announced last week.

Miss Agatha Rickets, sophomore, of Elm City, N. C., who, as a freshman scored a smashing success [illegible] in "Sorry, Wrong Number," has been cast in the feminine lead and Miss Rudene Abney, a junior, of Norristown, Pa., will play the part of the stage manager, a character who handles most of the narration.

Frank Graham, an A. and T. College student, has been given the male lead. In addition to the cast of 25, there will be a choir of freshman voices.

VESPER SPEAKER

Speaker for the Sunday vesper service at Bennett College on October 27 will be the Rev. Leander A. Brown of Winston-Salem.

The Reverend Mr. Brown, a former resident of Asheville, is superintendent of the Winston District of the North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Church.

ART INSTRUCTOR PARTICIPATES OUTDOOR SHOWING

History was made here last week when James C. McMillan, art instructor at Bennet College, was invited by the Greensboro Artists' League to exhibit some of his works at an outdoor showing.

Mr. McMillian, a graduate of Howard and Catholic universities, who has also studied and exhibited in Paris, France, showed his "Christ," an oil painting, two pastel portraits, a pencil portrait, a Parisian landscape, and several still life pieces.

Following the exhibit which attracted many art lovers, Mr. McMillan was invited to membership in the league.

LITHOGRAPH EXHIBITION AT BENNETT

An exhibition of original lithograps by outstanding American artists went on display at Bennett College last week in Steele Hall, the college's fine arts building.

The exhibit which may be viewed until October 25th includes the works of Reginald Marsh, Max Weber, Henry V. Poor, and others which were created for advertising purposes.

There are thirty-five lithograps in the collection which resulted from a project sponsored by the Artists' Equity Association of New York City. They have been shown at the National Gallery of Art in Washington and at a number of colleges and universities.

Bennett Seniors Begin Practice Teaching Work

A total of 22 elementary education majors at Bennett College began their nine-week period of practice teaching in the Greensboro public schools this week.

In addition to these students who have been assigned to five local schools, another member—Edith Kernodle of Elon College will teach in Caswell County.

Mrs. Mary Coleman, elementary education instructor, made local assignments as follows:

Washington Street School: Eva Evans, Trinity; Martel Smith, Summerfield; Muriel Darrell, Flatts, Bermuda; Helen Becket, Bowling Green, Ky.; Charlotte Jackson, Lima, Ohio; Lola McAdoo, Greensboro; Juanita Philson, Charlotte; Ann Saunders, Gastonia; and Shirley Moore, Camden, N. J.

Bluford School: Beulah Demons, Loretta Richmond, Ruby Harris, and Betty McLean, all of Greensboro.

Jonesboro School: Betty Bragg, Greensboro; Patricia Hopkins, Miami, Fla.; Emma Blackstock, Leaksville; Gertrude Smith, Greensboro; Barbara Hammond, Winston-Salem; Sonja Weldon, Chicago, Ill.; and Sonia Louden, Cincinnati, Ohio.

Charles Moore: Shirley Woods, Graham; and Bertha Smith, Cincinnati, Ohio.

VESPER SPEAKER NAMED

Speaker for the vesper service at Bennett College today will be the Rev. Leander A. Brown of Winston-Salem. The Rev. Mr. Brown, a former resident of Asheville, is superintendent of the Winston District of the North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Church.

TRUSTEES MEET

Trustees of Bennett College, in session at the college today, heard the annual report of President Willa B. Player and reports from chairmen of standing committees. The session, opening at 10 a.m. continued into the afternoon.

College Roundup

BENNETT COLLEGE

GREENSBORO, N.C. — Dr. F. D. Patterson, chairman of the Bennett board of trustees and former president of Tuskegee Institute, told a Bennett vesper audience Sunday that incidents which have accompanied social change in the United States are a part of a world-wide movement toward freedom.

Speaker for next Sunday's vespers will be Dr. Leander A. Brown, superintendent of the Winston-Salem district of the North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Church.

Korean matron is enrolled at Bennett

GREENSBORO, N.C. — Mrs. Hattie McSwain of Chicago, home economist with the National Livestock and Meat Board, recently demonstrated to Bennett College students the proper methods of preparing cuts of various meats.

Among those in the foods and nutrition class are Mrs. Young Tack Park, Seoul, Korea; Misses Millie Adams, Princeton, W. Va.; Nannie Hughes, Cheraw, S.C.; Winifred Lee, Akron, Ohio; LaVerne Hubbard, Chatham, Va.; and Arnetta Fagan of Plymouth, N.C.

Dancers Will Perform On Bennett Program

The first of the 1957-58 lyceum series program at Bennett College will be held Friday when the Munt-Brooks Dance Company of New York City will give two performances in the Little Theater at Bennett College.

First of the performances will be given at 3 p.m. and the second at 8 p.m. The group, which consists of five performers, will present a varied program of modern and classic dances.

MISS CAROLYN R. BROWN, of Johnson City, Tenn. (seated), editor of Bennett College paper, Bennett Banner, discusses plans with Misses Barbara Hammond, circulation manager, of Winston-Salem, left; and Miss Emma Jean Blackstock of Leaksville, N.C., art editor. The student paper is published monthly.

A Purpose Is Essential, Says Dr. Willa Player

CLEVELAND—"You must have a purpose in life," Dr. Willa B. Player of Greensboro, N. C., president of Bennett college said Sunday when she spoke in St. Mark's Presbyterian church.

Dr. Player was presented by the Glenville Center YWCA, St. Clair at 105th street. She was introduced by Mrs. Robert M. Hornung chairman of the women's committee, United Negro College fund.

Dr. Jones (the late Dr. David D. Jones of Bennett) frequently stopped students on the campus as he passed them and asked "Young lady, what is your purpose in life?" Dr. Player recalled, directing her words to the Bennett graduates in the audience.

Although it was humorous to the coeds who were so abruptly stopped by the college president, Dr. Player noted that the human purpose in life has been as high, if not higher, than the person attempting it.

"Your lives will become more meaningful to yourself and others through self-examination," Dr. Player noted among four points in defining life's purposes.

The other points, Dr. Player listed as self-examination, seeing and recognizing changing values, and making sure the purpose fits the stature of the person.

Mrs. L. L. Rodgers, chairman of the Glenville YWCA advisory committee, presided. Mrs. Burdett Wylie, president of the Cleveland YWCA brought greetings. Others on the program were Mrs. Everlena Graves, Rev. Rudolph E. Tabor, Mrs. Gerard Anderson and Rev. Isaiah P. Pogue, Jr.

Miss Sylvia Davis was chairman and working with her were Mesdames Louie Evans, Allen Garrett, Roy M. Kaufman, William Livingston, Melvin Roberts, E. C. Wesley, and Eugene Wright.

Thursday, October 31 at 12 noon will be Women's Day. Mrs. Marie Robbins, State Mother, will preside. Topic for the observance will be 'Characteristics of True Christianity." The Athens Fire Baptized Church choir will be guest.

The host pastor is Dr. J. W. Robbins, Overseer is Bishop H. J. Spencer.

22 From Bennett Begin Training For Teachers

GREENSBORO, N. C. — A total of 22 elementary education majors at Bennett College began their nine-week period of practice teaching in the Greensboro public schools last week.

In addition to these students who have been assigned to five local schools, another member—Miss Edith Kernodle—of Elon College, will teach in Caswell County.

Mrs. Mary Coleman, elementary education instructor, made local assignments as follows:

WASHINGTON STREET school: Misses Eva Evans, Trinity; Martel Smith, Summerfield; Muriel Darrell, Flatts, Bermuda; Helen Becket, Bowling Green, Ky.; Charlotte Jackson, Lima, Ohio; Lola McAdoo, Greensboro; Juanita Philson, Charlotte; Ann Saunders, Gastonia; and Shirley Moore, Camden, N. J.

Bluford school: Misses Beulah Demons, Loretta Richmond, Ruby Harris, and Betty McLean, all of Greensboro.

JONESBORO SCHOOL: Misses Betty Bragg, Greensboro; Patrica Hopkins, Miami, Fla.

J. C. Price school: Misses Emma Blackstock, Leaksville; Gertrude Smith, Greensboro; Barbara Hammond, Winston-Salem; Sonja Weldon, Chicago, Ill.; and Sonia Loudn, Cincinnati, Ohio.

Charles Moore: Misses Shirley Woods, Graham; and Bertha Smith, Cincinnati, Ohio.

DANCE COMPANY ENJOYED BY BENNETT STUDENT BODY

Members of the Munt-Brooks Dance Company of New York City, scored in two performances of modern dances at Bennett College, Friday, in the Little Theatre.

The group, headed by Miss Miss Maxine Munt and Alfred Brooks, and composed of five performers, presented a program which ran the gamut from rustic simplicity, satire and comedy to stark tragedy. Most applauded numbers were their "Satiric Comments," performed by Miss Munt alone and "No Blade of Grass," in which the entire company took part.

Next in the lyceum series at Bennett will be a concert by the Morehouse College Glee Club on the night of November 29.

A MEATY SUBJECT — Students in foods and nutrition class at Bennett College, Greensboro, N.C., learn from Mrs. Hattie McSwain, of Chicago, Ill., proper methods of preparing cuts of various meats for appetizing meals. Mrs. McSwain, who had mouths watering during the demonstration, is a home economist with the National Livestock and Meat Board. The students left to right are: Misses Millie Adams, Princeton, West Va.; Nannie Hughes, Cheraw, S. C.; Winifred Lee, Akron, Ohio; LaVerne Hubbard, Chatham, Va.; Arnetta Fagan, Plymouth, N. C.; and Mrs. Young Tack Park, Seoul, Korea.

Bishop Edgar A. Love formally installs Dr. Willa B. Player as president of Bennett College at inauguration ceremonies on October 14th, in the college chapel.

REV LEANDER BROWN SPEAKS AT BENNETT

Some people seek to ascr their failures to God, wh their own inefficiency is real to blame, the Rev. Leander A Brown told the Bennett Colleg vesper audience Sunday in Pfeiffer Chapel.

The minister, who resides in Greensboro but is superintendent of the Winston District of the North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Church, spoke on "Christians at Their Best."

"We must always be at our very best in Christian living," he declared, "but we can only be at our best as we work with God. Nothing can be more hopeless than the wisdom of man without the spirit of God."

He urged the students not to be discouraged when success seems to slip from their grasp, but to make another try. "Remember that when the Galilean fisherman told Christ of their unsuccessful efforts, He commanded them to launch out into the deep," the minister stated. "Many of us fail because we do our fishing around the shore."

W. S. C. S. WILL HOLD CONFERENCE AT BENNETT

A conference-wide "Promotion Day" by members of the Woman's Society of Christian Service and the Wesleyan Service Guild of the North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Church will be held at Bennett College on Friday, November 9, beginning at 10 a. m.

Sessions will be held in the Science Building and there will be a luncheon in the dining hall of the David D. Jones Student Union. Pat. Outlook 11/2/57

DR. PLAYER WILL ADDRESS CLUB

Dr. Willa B. Player, president of Bennett College will address a luncheon meeting of the Smith College Club of New York at the Belmont-Plaza Hotel in that city on February 20.

Founders' Day Observed At Bennett College

"Institutions such as Bennett ege will be needed until there mplete integration in all as- s of American life and in the ld," Dr. Ira De. A Reid told Founders' Day audience in ifier Chapel here Sunday.

Dr. Reid, head of the depart- nt of sociology at Harverford lege, Haverford, Pa., spoke "Adventures in Faith, or the losophy of a Fool."

aying tribute to the founders he 84-year-old institution, Dr. l referred to them as "radic- rebels and dreamers who willing to take a calculated because they realized that themselves, were expende speaker called attention e many new nations that been born in the past three

Ramsey Bridges, Pittsburgh, Pa., Pastoral Psychology; Joshua E. Licorish, Philadelphia, Pa., Church History; Walter R. Hazzard, Philadelphia, Pa., Christian Doctrine; Howard A. Bailey, Philadelphia, Pa., Christian Education; and Levi B. Miller, Baltimore, Md., Education, Music and Worship

The Rev. J. E. Brower of Greensboro, N. C., was treasurer and business manager. Leading in enrollment was the Washington Conference with 19, followed by the Delaware Conference with 13. There were six from the North Carolina Conference.

Sister Tradition Still Prevailing At Greensboro School

GREENSBORO — The 'sister" tradition at Bennett College was perpetuated last week with the arrival of five freshmen who are sisters of Bennett graduates or students.

The group includes Barbara Ingram of Greensboro, whose sisters Miriam, new librarian at the Shepard High School, Zebulon, was graduated in 1948, and Maggie, a service assistant with the New York Telephone Co., was graduated in 1949.

Miss Rubbie Littlejhon of Cincinnati, Ohio, had a sister, Willie, who attended Bennett.

AT PERSONNEL PARLEY

GREENSBORO, N.C. — Mrs. Minnie B. Smith of Bennett College attended the annual fall conference of the Southern College Personnel Association at the University of Kentucky, at Lexington, recently.

A teacher of history and social sciences, Mrs. Smith is also director of co-curricular activities at Bennett.

Theater For Children Planned At Bennett

A Summer Community Theater for children seven to 13 will be held in the Bennett College Little Theater May 31 to June 22.

Roger L. Askew, who will direct the project from 8 a.m. to noon, Monday through Friday, said that registration will be held today during those same hours.

Miss Geneya Averett, a rising senior of Buffalo, N.Y., will assist Askew. News 5/31/57

Prelude To The Dance

SIX MEMBERS of the modern dance group at Bennett college, Greensboro, N. C., execute a movement in one of their numbers as they rehearse for their first public appearance. From left, front: Geraldine Williams, Winifred Peacock and Juanita Spear. Rear: Winifred Lee, Elizabeth Payne, and Robbie Walton.

Students Here Are Challenged To Be Leaders

An exhortation to be leaders, dreamers and rebels was given to Bennett College students yesterday during the annual Founders Day observance at the college.

The speaker was Dr. Ira DeA. Reid, head of the Department of Sociology at Haverford College in Haverford, Pa., who made the principal address in Pfeiffer Hall as the college observed its 84th anniversary. Dr. Willa B. Player, Bennett president, presided at the ceremony and introduced Reid.

Titling his address "Adventures in Faith of the Philosophy of a Fool," Reid urged the students not to "sit and watch" while others do things. The leaders, dreamers and rebels of the world are those who found institutions and accomplish things, he said.

"We know so little about so many things—what actually is in the hearts and minds of people concerning segregation, the Soviet Union and other world problems, the sociology professor asserted. He told the students that many things had changed since they were born, citing India, Japan and China as examples of massive changes.

Reid urged his listeners to be prepared for their part in future changes. "Don't sit in sepulchers of gloom and don't sacrifice ideals for something that's useless, but retain your spirit and uphold the dignity of man," Reid said.

Prior to Reid's address, representatives of alumnae, students and the faculty spoke briefly and the 40-piece college choir presented two selections.

WEEK ENDING SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 2, 1957

PLANNING NEXT ISSUE — Miss Carolyn R. Brown, of Johnson City, Tennessee, editor of the Bennett Banner, student newspaper discusses plans for the next issue with Miss Barbara Hammond, circulation manager, of Winston-Salem. The Banner is published monthly.

Francis L. Grandison, psychology instructor, explains registration procedures to a group of his freshman advisees at Bennett College. The freshman class this year is one of the largest (160) in the school's history.

PLAN NEXT ISSUE — Miss Carolyn R. Brown of Johnson City, Tenn., editor of the Bennett college "Banner," student newspaper, discusses plans for the next issue of the paper with (from left) Misses Barbara Hammond, circulation manager, of Winston-Salem, N. C., and Emma Jean Blackstock of Leaksville, art editor.

Methodist Group To Convene At Bennett Friday

GREENSBORO

A conference-wide "Promotion Day" by members of the Woman's Society of Christian Service and the Wesleyan Service Guild of the North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Church will be held at Bennett College on Friday, November 9, beginning at 10 a.m.

Sessions will be held in the Science Building and there will be a luncheon in the dining hall of the David D. Jones Student Union.

Blaming God Fruitless, Cleric Tells Audience

GREENSBORO

Some people seek to ascribe their failures to God, when their own inefficiency is really to blame, the Rev. Leander A. Brown told the Bennett College vesper audience Sunday in Pfeiffer Chapel.

The minister, who resides in Greensboro but is superintendent of the Winston District of the North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Church, spoke on "Christians at Their Best."

"We must always be at our very best in Christian living," he declared, "but we can only be at our best as we work with God. Nothing can be more hopeless than the wisdom of man without the spirit of God."

He urged the students not to be discouraged when success seems to slip from their grasp, but to make another try. "Remember that when the Galilean fishermen told Christ of their unsuccessful efforts, He commanded them to launch out into the deep," the minister stated. "Many of us fail because we do our fishing around the shore."

Rev. L. A. Brown Scores Failures At Bennett Affair

GREENSBORO — Some people seek to ascribe their failures to God, when their own inefficiency is really to blame, the Rev. Leander A. Brown told the Bennett College vesper audience Sunday in Pfeiffer Chapel.

The minister, who resides in Greensboro but is superintendent of the Winston District of the North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Church, spoke on "Christians at Their Best."

"We must always be at our very best in Christian living," he declared, "but we can only be at our best as we work with God. Nothing can be more hopeless than the wisdom of man without the spirit of God."

He urged the students not to be discouraged when success seems to slip from their grasp, but to make another try. "Remember that when the Galilean fishermen told Christ of their unsuccessful efforts, He commanded them to launch out into the deep," the minister stated. "Many of us fail because we do our fishing around the shore."

'Don't blame God for our failures . . .'

GREENSBORO, N.C.—Some people seek to ascribe their failures to God, when their own inefficiency is really to blame, the Rev. Leander A. Brown told the Bennett College vesper audience Sunday in Pfeiffer Chapel.

The minister, who resides in Greensboro but is superintendent of the Winston District of the North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Church, spoke on "Christians at Their Best."

* * *

"WE MUST always be at our very best in Christian living," he declared, "but we can only be at our best as we work with God. Nothing can be more hopeless than the wisdom of man without the spirit of God."

He urged the students not to be discouraged when success seems to slip from their grasp, but to make another try. "Remember that when the Galilean fishermen told Christ of their unsuccessful efforts, He commanded them to launch out into the deep," the minister stated. "Many of us fail because we do our fishing around the shore."

DR. IRA DeA. REID, head of the department of sociology, Haverford (Pa.) college, chats over coffee with Miss Juanita Wells, president of the local graduate chapter, (center) and Mrs. Fannie Lea Hinnant, president of the National Graduate Association, at reception following Founder's Day exercises at Bennett college, Sunday, in Greensboro, N. C.

decades, referring to developments in Africa, India and Japan. All of these changes, he said, have come about because of the burning desire of these peoples to be free. He referred to recent developments in Russia and to the U. S. Supreme Court decisions on segregation.

"The Supreme Court decision on school segregation" he declared, "came after a fight of over 30 years, but even then, it found parts of the nation unready to receive it. We live in a world that is full of collisions - a world that is torn asunder because of fear, and for the first time in world history, color has moved to the fore as a threat to the status quo."

Dr. Reid stated that the saddest words of Biblical literature are: "And they sat and watched Him there," a description of the public attitude at the time that Christ was crucified.

"With all that is going on in Little Rock, in Greensboro and in Charlotte," he said, "many of us are just sitting and watching, when there is so much to be said and done."

Urging the Bennett students not to sit idly, but to be the rebels and dreamers of the future, Dr. Reid cited seven qualities of a leader as follows:

1. He recognizes the danger of obedience.
2. He possesses a certain insolence of spirit.
3. He abhors the ruthless use of powers - no matter what the weapon.
4. He recognizes that he is expendable, yet
5. He learns and builds by doing.
6. He lives dangerously and without fear.
7. He ever takes the calculated risk.

"Until we can remove the quarantine signs of inequality from our social worlds," he concluded, "institutions like Bennett will be needed. They will be needed to provide meaning for the disinherited, certainty, for the insecure and participation for the ignored."

President Willa B. Player, who presided and introduced Dr. Reid, received from James McMillan, faculty representative of the Central Administrative Committee, the sum of $1,200 raised by the faculty and staff for the scholarship fund. Expressing appreciation from the graduates was Miss Evelyn Jones, of Greensboro, a member of the class of 1958, and from the student body, Miss Jimmie English, ..., of Camden, S. C., president of the Student Senate.

N.Y. dance company scores at Bennett

GREENSBORO, N.C.—Members of the Munt-Brooks Dance Company of New York scored in two performances of modern dances at Bennett College, Friday, in the Little Theatre.

The group, headed by Miss Maxine Munt and Alfred Brooks, and composed of five performers, presented a program of simplicity, satire, comedy and tragedy.

Next in the lyceum series at Bennett will be a concert by the Morehouse College Glee Club on the night of Nov. 29.

PLAY TO BE GIVEN

"Our Town, a three-act play by Thornton Wilder, will be presented at 8 o'clock tonight at Bennett College and at the same hour Saturday night. Members of the theater guilds at Bennett will make up the cast. Miss Ann Jenkins, dramatics instructor, will direct the production.

POETRY PLANNED

Mrs. Blanche Raiford, Spanish instructor at Bennett College, will read from the works of Antonio Machado at the monthly poetry reading, sponsored by the campus English Club, at 8 o'clock tonight in Reynolds Hall. The public is invited.

DRIVE HEAD NAMED

C. M. Vanstory Jr., president of Security National Bank, has been named chairman, and Dr. George C. Simpkins Sr., dentist, has been named co-chairman of the Greensboro campaign of the United Negro College Fund. The fund is to help meet the operating costs of 31 member institutions, of which Bennett College is one of five in the state. The drive, which opened today and continues through Dec. 9, has a goal of $5,000 in the Greensboro area and a national objective of $2,000,000 for this year.

McNUTT TO SPEAK

Dr. Franklin H. McNutt, dean of the graduate school at Woman's College, will speak at the Bennett College vesper service tomorrow. The meeting, usually held at 4 p.m., will be held at 11 a.m. in Pfeiffer Chapel.

VESPER SPEAKER

Greensboro, N. C.—Dr. W. F. Quillian, speaker of Randolph-Macon College at Lynchburg, Va., wil speak at the Sunday Vesper service at Bennett College on November 24, at 4 p. m. in Pfeiffer Chapel.

Students Told Adjustments Necessary

"Those who think that majorities necessarily determine what is right and what is wrong are sadly mistaken," Dr. Franklin H. McNutt, dean of the graduate school at Woman's College, told the Bennett College vesper audience yesterday morning.

Dr. McNutt, who spoke on "Adjustment," pointed out that it is impossible to face the problems of life without making some adjustments, and he listed persons making adjustments as realists, pragmatists or idealists.

No Progress Made

"There are those who adjust themselves to things as they are," he declared, "but there is no progress to be made this way. Then, there are those who adjust to the crowd, believing that when in Rome, one should do as Romans do."

"But then, there are those to whom what the crowd says doesn't matter. They have learned to adjust to the unseen order. Our troubles would cease if we could make that adjustment more frequently," he said.

EAST MEETS WEST — Mrs. John M. Pearson (center), chairman of the department of Work in Foreign Fields, women's division, Methodist church, meets two Korean students of Bennett college, Greensboro, N. C. Mrs. Pearson spoke at Annie Merner Pfeiffer memorial services at Bennett. Students are Misses Hie Sook Hong and Nancy Seunghi Choi, of Seoul, Korea.

DR. QUILLIAN TO SPEAK

Dr. W. P. Quillian, president of Randolph-Macon College, Lynchburg, Va., will speak at the vesper service at Bennett College at 4 p.m. Sunday, Nov. 24. The service will take place in Pfeiffer Chapel.

NOT FAR FROM HOME — Enjoying the fall sunshine and reliving some of their common experiences are these Bennett College freshmen, all of Greensboro. They are, left to right: Misses Kay Frances Henry, Mary Tonkins, Jo Marie Crump, Lola Campbell, Jo Ann Goins, Joanne Simmons, LyVonne McAdoo, Carolyn Purvis, Anna Harris, Juliette McKoy, Peggy Haith, and Barbara Mebane.

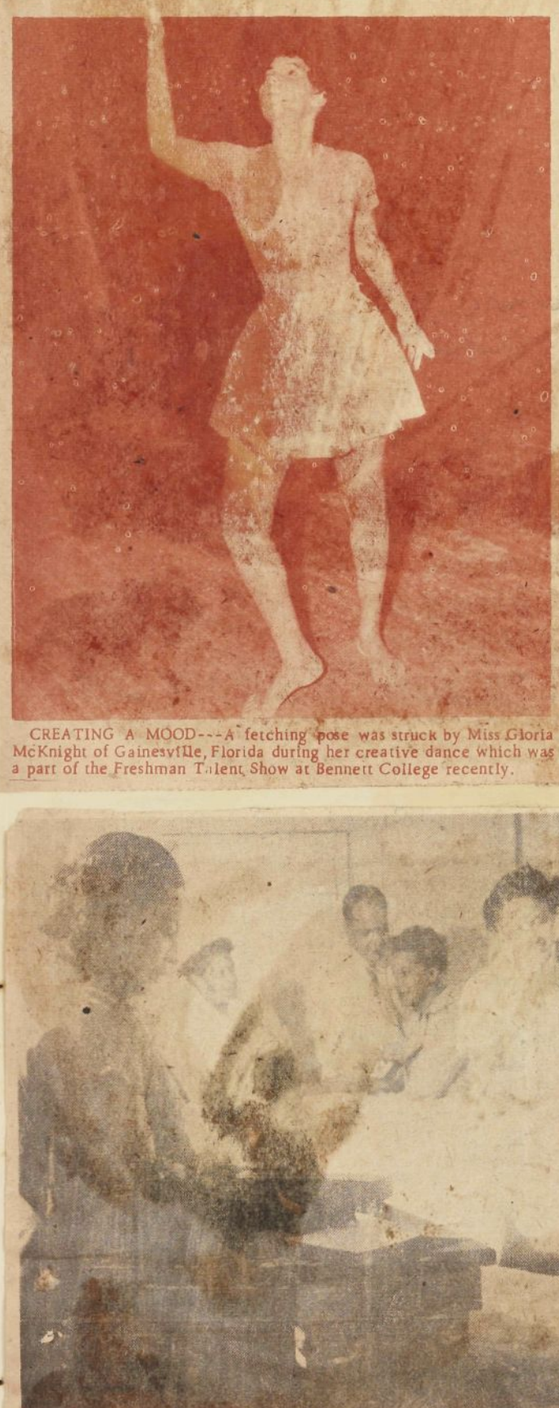

Freshmen Show Talents & Learn Procedure At Bennett

"OUCH, MY FOOT"!---Miss Elishma Madison of Miami, Florida tries to smile through the discomfiture of having her foot stepped upon by a clums dancing partner during monologue which she delivered as a part of the Freshman Talent Show at Bennett College recently.

"DEE CEE TRIO" SCORES---These three young women, two of them from Washington, D. C., and one "adopted" from Upper Marlboro, Maryland, scored a big hit with their rendition of two popular numbers during the Freshman Talent Show at Bennett College recently. Left to right: Misses Judith Gordan, graduate of Springarn High School, Washington, D. C.; Sandra Boozer, graduate of Douglass High School, Upper Marlboro, Maryland, and Eunice Hawkins, another Springarn graduate.

CREATING A MOOD---A fetching pose was struck by Miss Gloria McKnight of Gainesville, Florida during her creative dance which was a part of the Freshman Talent Show at Bennett College recently.

ONE OF BENNETT'S LARGEST---One of the largest freshman classes in the history of Bennett College--160--shown in front of Annie Merner Pfeiffer Chapel, following Sunday morning worship service. They come from 18 states and four foreign countries.

INTRODUCTION TO LIBRARY---Miss Shirley Waters, senior, explains to a group of Bennett College freshmen proper procedures for use of the library's facilities. This was a part of the Orientation Week Program at the college.

INTRODUCTION TO LIBRARY---Miss Fannie Fisher, library assistant (center) explains to group of Bennett College freshmen proper procedures for use of the library's facilities. This was a part of the Orientation Week program at the college.

HEALTH EXAMS AT BENNETT---Nurse Alsie Trammell, (in doorway), college nurse, watches team of four physicians as they give annual health examinations to Bennett College students in Greensboro, N. C. Dr. Dorothy L. Brown (left) and Nurse Alsie Trammell advise her that she passed her health examination with flying colors. Dr. Brown, professor of surgery at Meharry Medical College faculty, was in charge of the team. In foreground, recording results of examinations, is Mrs. Dixie B. Gillies, assistant to Nurse Trammell. 11/2/57

BENNETT SENIORS BEGAN PRACTISE TEACHING

A total of 22 elementary education majors at Bennett College began their nine-week period of practice teaching in the Greensboro public schools last week.

In addition to these students who have been assigned to five local schools, another member—Miss Edith Kernodle—of Elon College, will teach in Caswell County.

Mrs. Mary Coleman, elementary education instructor, made local assignments as follows:

WASHINGTON STREET SCHOOL: Misses Eva Evans, Trinity; Martel Smith, Summerfield; Muriel Darrell, Flatts, Bermuda; Helen Becket, Bowling Green, Ky.; Charlotte Jackson, Lima, Ohio; Lola McAdoo, Greensboro; Juanita Philon, Charlotte; Ann Saunders, Gastonia; and Shirley Moore, Camden, N. J.

BLUFORD SCHOOL: Misses Beulah Demons, Loretta Richmond, Ruby Harris, and Betty McLean, all of Greensboro.

JONESBORO SCHOOL: Misses Betty Bragg, Greensboro; Patricia Hopkins, Miami, Fla.

J. C. PRICE SCHOOL: Misses Emma Blackstock, Leaksville; Gertrude Smith, Greensboro; Barbara Hammond, Winston-Salem; Sonja Weldon, Chicago, Ill.; and Sonia Louden, Cincinnati, Ohio.

CHARLES MOORE: Misses Shirley Woods, Graham; and Bertha Smith, Cincinnati, Ohio.

15

DAILY DEFENDER PAGE

GETS HEALTH O. K. — Miss Barbara Ann Mebane, of Greensboro, freshman at Bennett college, breathes more easily after Dr. Dorothy L. Brown (left) and Nurse Alsie Trammell advise her that she passed her health examination with flying colors. Dr. Brown, professor of surgery at Meharry Medical college in Nashville, Tenn., assisted by four Meharry internes, gave health exams to all Bennett students. She is a Bennett graduate.

Reid Speaks At Bennett Exercises

"You are living in a world of collisions," Bennett College students were told yesterday during the annual Founders' Day observance, and "you must retain your spirit and uphold the dignity of man."

The speaker was Dr. Ira DeA. Reid, head of the Department of Sociology at Haverford College in Haverford, Pa., making the principal address in Pfeiffer chapel as the college observed its 84th anniversary. Dr. Willa B. Player, Bennett president, presided and introduced Dr. Reid.

Titling his address "Adventures in Faith or the Philosophy of A Fool," he told the students not to "sit and watch" as others do things. The leaders, dreamers and rebels of the world are those who are the founders of institutions and those who accomplish things, he said. And there really are few dreamers in he world.

"We know so little about so many things," he said. "What actually is in the hearts and minds of people" on segregation, on Russia and other world problems? Many things have changed since you were born," he told the students, citing India, Japan and China as examples of massive changes.

Then he pressed his listeners to be equipped and ready for their part in more changes to come. "Don't sit in sepulchers of gloom," he said, and "don't sacrifice ideals for something that's useless," but "retain your spirit" and be leaders, dreamers and rebels.

Earlier in the anniversary observance, representatives of graduates, the student body and the faculty had spoken briefly, and the 40-voice college choir had presented two selections.

Vanstory Heads Negro College Fund Campaign

C. M. Vanstory Jr., president of the Security National Bank, has been named to head the Greensboro Campaign of the United Negro College Fund which begins on Monday and continues through Dec. 9.

Dr. George C. Simpkins Sr., local dentist, was named co-chairman of the fund drive, which has a goal of $5,000 in the Greensboro area.

The fund is established to meet the operating costs of 31 member institutions, of which Bennett College is one of five in the state.

The national goal of the drive this year is $2,000,000.

Enjoying The Autumn Air 11/9/57

These two Bennett College freshmen, Misses Lola Campbell and Kay Frances Henry, of Greensboro, model what the well-dressed college girl is wearing this fall as they enjoy the warm fall air while strolling to class.

22 Bennett Students In Teaching Bennett

GREENSBORO — A total of 22 elementary education majors at Bennett College began their nine-week period of practice teaching in the Greensboro public schools last week.

In addition to these students who have been assigned to five local schools, another member — Miss Edith Kernodle — of Elon College, will teach in Caswell County.

Mrs. Mary Coleman, elementary education instructor, made local assignments as follows:

WASHINGTON ST. SCHOOL: Misses Eva Evans, Trinity; Martel Smith, Summerfield; Muriel Darrell, Flatts, Bermuda; Helen Becket, Bowling Green, Ky.; Charlotte Jackson, Lima, Ohio; Lola McAdoo, Greensboro; Juanita Philson, Charlotte; Ann Saunders, Gastonia; and Shirley Moore, Camden, N. J.

BLUFORD SCHOOL: Misses Beulah Demins, Loretta Richmond, Ruby Harris, and Betty McLean, all of Greensboro.

JONESBORO SCHOOL: Misses Betty Bragg, Greensboro; Patricia Hopkins, Miami, Fla.

J. C. PRICE SCHOOL: Misses Emma Blackstock, Leaksville; Gertrude Smith, Greensboro; Barbara Hammond, Winston-Salem; Sonja Weldon, Chicago, Ill.; and Sonia Louden, Cincinnati, Ohio.

CHARLES MOORE: Misses Shirley Woods, Graham; and Bertha Smith, Cincinnati, Ohio.

GETS O.K.—Miss Barbara Ann Mebane of Greensboro, N.C., freshman at Bennett College, breathes more easily after Dr. Dorothy L. Brown, left, and Nurse Alsie Trammell advise her that she had passed her health examination with flying colors. Dr. Brown, a Bennett graduate, and professor of surgery at Meharry Medical College, Nashville, assisted by four Meharry internes, gave health exams to all Bennett students last week end. 11/2/57

City News

VESPER SERVICE TODAY

The Rev. John L. Bryan, director of religious activities at Bennett College, will speak today at the 4 p.m. vesper services in Pfeiffer Chapel at the college.

tinued at two 2:30 p.m. each of which will hav the Overstreets as lea

That night, at the vesper service, Mrs. will read from her c poetry. The afterno sions on Thursday around the topic Myself to Others."

* * *

FRIDAY, AT chapel assembly, Overstreet will self in Relation At 8 p.m., th same topic special Greensbor which dual pect

ATTEND N.C. SEMINAR

GREENSBORO, N.C. — Two Bennett College students — Misses Lola McAdoo, of Greensboro, and Helen Becket, of Bowling Green, Ky. — were in Raleigh from Feb. 28 to March 2 attending a seminar on state government, sponsored by the American Friends Service Committee.

the course of events when He appeared upon the scene.

"Christ," he concluded, "is more than a fact in human history. He is a companion and a friend."

DR. GANDY TO SPEAK AT BENNETT COLLEGE

Greensboro, N.C. — Dr. Samuel L. Gandy, dean of Lawless Chapel at Dillard University in New Orleans, will be the principal speaker at Bennett College vesper services on Sunday.

. . . J. Henry Sayles, chairman of the science division at Bennett College, has been awarded his Ph.D. by Ohio State U. . . .

AFRICANS AT BENNETT---These three young African women are among 12 foreign students studying at Bennett College, Greensboro, N. C., this year. Left to right: Misses Oyeyemi Salako, Nigeria, West Africa; Onuma Uko, Nigeria, and Blanche Tuboku-Metzger, Sierra Leone. All are social science majors and plan to return to their native land as social workers or teachers. Misses Salako and Uko are juniors and Miss Tuboku-Metzger is a freshman.

"The Giants Of God" Discussed By Dr. C. C. Armstrong At Bennett

GREENSBORO—"The Giants of God" was the subject of the sermon delivered by Dr. Clinton C. Armstrong Sunday afternoon at the Bennett College vesper service marking the close of the first semester.

Dr. Armstrong, pastor of Browning Chapel Methodist Church here and an instructor in religion and philosophy at the college, reminded his listeners that they, like the children of Israel, en route to the Promised Land, face the choice of being either courageous or cowardly.

"Those persons," he declared, "who show courage in the face of crisis, who demonstrate a faith that moves forward, and who have grounded their strength in the Almighty — they are the giants of God."

Luncheon Speaker

Dr. Willa B. Player, president of Bennett College, Greensboro, N. C., was scheduled to address a luncheon meeting of the Smith College Club of New York at the Belmont-Plaza Hotel in that city on Feb. 20

BENNETT VESPERS TO HEAR CHURCHWOMAN

GREENSBORO, N.C. — Mrs. W. B. Landrum of NYC, field worker for the Woman's Division of Christian Service of the Methodist Church, will speak at the March 10 vesper service at Bennett College.

GRIFFIN PRINCIPAL SPEAKS AT BENNETT

GREENSBORO, N.C.—C. E. Yokely, principal of Alfred J. Griffin School in High Point, addressed the Bennett College student body at the morning chapel assembly on March 4.

Eight Bennett Students At Workshop

GREENSBORO, N. C. — Eight Bennett College students last week attended a workshop on "Public School Integration" held at the Highlander Folk School, Monteagle, Tennessee.

They were Misses Grace Coleman, senior, Charlotte; Addie Watson, junior, Charlotte; Deloris Tonkins, junior, Greensboro; Sonja Weldon, junior, Chicago; Phyllis Henry, senior, Odessa, Del.; Inez Jones, sophomore, Lenoir, N. C.; Gwendolyn Harris, senior, Greensboro, and Wilhelmina Bundy, sophomore, Johnson City, Tenn.

• • •

THE WORKSHOP, one of 12 directed by Mrs. Septima Clark, seeks to provide community leadership for an orderly transition from a segregated to an unsegregated public school system in the South, and was attended by students from northern and southern institutions as well as by community leaders. A 9 a. m. to 5:30 p. m. daily schedule included a study of local segregation laws, voting apathy, the passive resistance method and voluntary citizens actions.

• • •

AMONG the consultants were Dr. Frederick D. Patterson of the Phelps-Stokes Fund, New York City; Dr. Herman Long, Fisk University, Nashville, Tenn.; Mrs. Rosa Parks, of the Montgomery (Ala.) Improvement Association, and Mrs. Vivian Carter Mason, president of the National Council of Negro Women.

Bennett Senior Honored By 'Mademoiselle'

Greensboro, N. C.—Miss Grace Dungee of Greensboro, a senior at Bennett College, was notified this week of her appointment to the national college board of Mademoiselle magazine.

She is the second Bennett student to be so honored, Miss Ruth Reese, a 1956 grauate, having been named in her junior year. Miss Dungee is one of 650 students who compete to win a place on the board.

As a college board member, she will represent her campus and report to Mademoiselle on college life and the college scene. She will now compete for one of the 20 guest editorships to be awarded by the magazine at the end of May. If successful, she will spend the month of June in New York on salary, helping to prepare the college issue of the publication.

Dr. Thomas Speaks On 'Goodness'

GREENSBORO — "If our lives were stripped of all adornment, what would be left that would be worth saving?" Dr. James S. Thomas, of Nashville, Tenn., asked the Bennett College vesper audience Sunday afternoon in Pfeiffer Chapel.

Dr. Thomas, associate secretary of the Division of Educational Institutions, Board of Education of the Methodist Church, spoke on "Goodness."

"But I don't mean a weak, negative goodness," he quickly explained, "but a strong, vital way of living that is revolutionary in its effect."

Pointing out that man's essential story on earth is one of good or evil, the speaker asked his listeners to evaluate their own lives to determine whether they are full of integrity or shame.

He stressed the importance of will power as a vital aspect of goodness. Too many persons, he said, make resolutions to do good but somewhere along the line, their will power fails. He decried the "nice people" who make no real contribution to the lives of those around them.

"These people are good," he said, "but usually good-for-nothing."

Nine Bennett Girls Complete College Training

GREENSBORO

Nine Bennett College seniors completed their requirements for graduation at the close of the first semester on Saturday.

They were: Misses Carolyn Crawford, Morristown, Tenn.; Thelma Culbreth, New York, N. Y.; Sylvia Pretlow, Rocky Mount; Catherine Willis, Palatka, Florida; and Mesdames Jeanne S. Moore, Rich Square, and Margaret Williams, Fernandina Beach Florida.

Degrees will be conferred upon them on May 27 along with other members of the class of 1957.

Eight Bennett Girls Attend School Integration Workshop

3/2/57

GREENSBORO

Eight Bennett College students last week attended a workshop on "Public School Integration" held at the Highlander Folk School, Monteagle, Tennessee.

They are: Misses Gract Coleman, senior, Charlotte; Addie Watson, junior, Charlotte; Deloris Tonkins, junior, Greensboro; Sonja Weldon, junior, Chicago; Phyllis Henry, senior, Odessa, Del.; Inez Jones, sophomore, Lenoir, N. C.; Gwendolyn Harris, senior, Greensboro, and Wilhelmina Bundy, sophomore, Johnson City, Tenn.

The workshop, one of 12 directed by Mrs. Septima Clark, seeks to provide community leadership for an orderly transition from a segregated to an unsegregated public school system in the South, and was attended by students from northern and southern institutions as well as by community leaders.

STUDENTS ATTEND WORKSHOP ON "PUBLIC SCHOOL INTERGRATION

Eight Bennett College students last week attended a workshop on "Public School Integration" held at the Highlander Folk School, Monteagle, Tennessee.

They are: Misses Grace Coleman, senior, Charlotte; Addie Watson, junior, Charlotte; Deloris Tonkins, junior, Greensboro; Sonja Weldon, junior, Chicago; Phyllis Henry, senior, Odessa, Del.; Inez Jones, sophomore, Lenoir, N. C.; Gwendolyn Harris senior, Greensboro, and Wilhelmina Bundy, sophomore Johnson City, Tenn.

The workshop, one of 12 directed by Mrs. Septima Clark, seeks to provide community leadership for an orderly transition from a segregated to an unsegregated public school system in the South, and was attended by students from northern and southern institutions as well as by community leaders.

A 9 a. m. to 5:30 p. m. daily schedule included a study of local segregation laws, voting apathy, the passive resistance method and voluntary citizens' actions.

Among the consultants were Dr. Frederick D. Patterson of the Phelps-Stokes Fund, New York City; Dr. Herman Long, Fisk University, Nashville, Tenn.; Mrs. Rosa Parks, of the Montgomery (Ala.) Improvement Association, and Mrs. Vivian Carter Mason, president of the National Council of Negro Women.

IN GEORGIA

Dr. Willa B. Player, president of Bennett College, is in Atlanta, Ga., today where she will represent her institution at the 90th anniversary convocation at Morehouse College.

VESPER SPEAKER

Speaker at the 4 p.m. vesper service at Bennett College today will be Miss Thelma Stevens of New York City, secretary of the Department of Christian Social Relations of the Woman's Division of Christian Service of the Methodist Church.

New Faculty Members Named

GREENSBORO

Addition of one new faculty member was announced at Bennett College as the second semester began on Monday.

Roger L. Askew, of Kansas City, Kansas, has been added as an instructor in drama and speech. Mr. Askew, an A. B. from Fisk University, earned his M. A. in dramatic arts at Western Reserve University in Cleveland, Ohio.

NEW FACULTY MEMBER ANNOUNCED AT BENNETT

Addition of one new faculty member was announced at Bennett College as the second semester began on Monday.

Roger L. Askew, of Kansas has been added as an instructor in drama and speech. Mr. Askew, an A. B. from Fisk University, earned his M. A. in dramatic arts at Western Reserve University in Cleveland, Ohio.

Thre freshmen were accepted for the second semester. They are: Misses Alice Ingram, Guilford, N. C.; Barbara Smith, Atlantic City, N. J.; and Sylvia Byrd, Clarksville, Delaware. Miss Ingram is a sister of Miss Barbara Ingram who enrolled in September and of Miss Barbara Ingram who enrolled in September and of Miss Lois Ingram who was graduated last year.

Seven former students have returned to the campus. They are: Misses Bettye Alexander, senior of New York, N. Y.; Anece Faison, sophomore, of Dudley, N. C.; Mildred Plowden, junior, of Greensboro; Louise Pope, sophomore, of South Pittsburg, Tenn.; Laura Rowe, junior, of Goldsboro; Julie Rivers, sophomore, of Hilton Head, S. C.; and Mrs. Juanita J. McCain, senior, of Charlotte.

Nine Women Graduated At Bennett College

GREENSBORO — Nine Bennett College seniors completed their requirements for graduation at the close of the first semester on Saturday.

They are: Misses Carolyn Crawford, Morristown, Tenn.; Thelma Culbreth, New York, N. Y.; Queen Farrish, Roxboro; Helen Frances, Lumberton; Shirley Moore, Jamaica, N. Y.; Sylvia Pretlow, Rocky Mount; Catherine Willis, Palatka, Florida; and Mesdames Jeanne S. Moore, Rich Square, and Margaret Williams, Fernandina Beach, Fla.

Degrees will be conferred upon them on May 27 along with other members of the class of 1957.

Shown here are the ten Bennett college seniors that have been named "Who's Who Among Students" in American universities and colleges. Dr. Willa B. Player is the president of Bennett college. Left to right seated are: Misses Paula Edmunds, Cincinnati, O.; Barbara Hickman, Freeport, Ill.; Grace Dungee, Greensboro, N. C.; and Jacqueline McAllister, Kingstree, S. C.; standing: Misses Grace Coleman, Charlotte, N. C.; Gwendolyn Harris, Greensboro; Ann Cooper, Glendale, O.; Julia McClain, Grady, Ala.; Betty East, Pilot Mountain, N. C.; and Deloris Alexander, Winston-Salem

REV. SAMUEL H. SWEENEY, VESPER SPEAKER

"We often lose heart when we fail, but we should remember that the things that are against us today will not last forever," the Rev. Samuel H. Sweeney told the Bennett College vesper audience Sunday afternoon in Pfeiffer Chapel.

The speaker, who is pastor o St. Mark's Methodist Church New York City, explained this by pointing out that history is continuous — it is always in the making. He also reminded his listeners of the experiences o inventors and of prospector drilling for oil.

"It may take 99 failures before we reach success on the one-hundredth try," he declared, at the same time cautioning that an individual should not attempt to evaluate his own success or failure.

Addressing himself to the subject, "Enter, Christ," the Rev

ING QUARTET IN RECITAL AT BENNETT

GREENSBORO, N.C. — The Curtis String Quartet of Philadelphia, hailed as America's oremost chamber music group, was heard in recital at Bennett College Friday in Pfeiffer Chapel.

Bennette Receives Scholarship Aid With 28 Colleges

Greensboro, N. C. — Bennett College is one of 23 cooperating privately - endowed colleges through which scholarship aid valued at $200,000 will be awarded to high school seniors this year.

Awards will be allocated on the basis of scores made on the Cooperative Intercollegiate Examination to be given in 182 high schools throughout the country between February 23 and March 8.

Following is the schedule of dates and places of the examination in the Bennett College area:

February 25—Hillside High School, Durham.

February 26—William Penn High School, High Point.

February 27—Atkins High School, Winston-Salem.

February 28—Carver High School, Winston-Salem.

March 1—Dudley High School, Greensboro, Va.

March 4—Langston High School, Danville.

March 5—Dunbar High School, Lynchburg, Va.

March 6—Addison High School, Roanoke.

Speaker Foresees Teacher Analysis

"Teaching in Transition" was the subject of an address delivered at Bennett College this morning by C. E. Yokely, principal of the Alfred J. Griffin Elementary School in High Point.

"After the present critical period and issues of integration," he declared, "I believe the next era will be one of evaluating teaching and teachers, in order to warrant the mounting public interest and expense . . . In the final analysis, teacher competency and the ability to apply productive methods will greatly level off the situation."

Yokely, in addressing himself directly to Bennett seniors who will be seeking teaching jobs soon, told them that salaries can be made retroactive but that the education of youth and professional efficiency cannot.

Recvd 3/4/57

"English Emphasis Day" Observed At Fayetteville

FAYETTEVILLE — With Dr. Hobart Jarrett, Chairman of the Division of Humanities at Bennett College in Greensboro as the guest speaker, the Fayetteville State Teachers College observed its annual "English Emphasis Day" Monday, February 18. Appearing at the assembly period, Dr. Jarrett's address centered around the thought that our times increasingly demand excellence in communications.

He was introduced by John W. Parker, Chairman of the Area of English at the College. English Emphasis Day has been set aside as a means of focusing added attention upon inadequate English expression as one of the persistent problems in the Amercan College today.

The members of the Area of English have busied themselves throughout the year with the meeting of the language problems incident to their day-to-day contact with their students, and the monthly group sessions have been concerned with aspects of these difficulties.

Attacking mainly the shortcomings in oral and written expression, Elaine Newsome talked on "Bridging the Gap between High School and College", Nannie T. Smith discussed "Poor Reading Our Chief Concern", and Mildred P. Jones went into the topic,"Persistent Handicaps to Success in English Expression".

The group is currently exploring the use that is being made of TV as a device for teaching English.

The personnel of the Area of English includes Minnetta Scott Lois P. Turner, John W. Parker Mildred P. Jones, Nannie T. Smith, and Elaine M. Newsome, sec

K SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 23, 1957

IN BENNETT RECITAL

Members of the Curtis String Quartet who will be heard in a recital at Bennett College, Friday, March 1st. at 8 p. m. in Pfeiffer Chapel.

Members of this, the most famous contemporary chamber music group are — Jascha Brodsky, first violinist; Enrique Serratos, second violinist; Mas Aronoff violist, and Orlando Cole, celli

129

WEEK ENDING SATURDAY, JANUARY 19, 1957

Dr. Priestly Tells Bennett Audience Why Many People Embrace Communism

GREENSBORO — The reason why so many countries have embraced communism is that democracy has so often defaulted, Dr. S. E. Gerard Priestly told Bennett College students during the course of three addresses here Sunday and Monday.

A native of England who was educated there and in the United States, Dr. Priestly is an author, historian, lecturer and world traveler, who, for the past 26 years, has observed first-hand the changing events in Europe and the Middle East.

Speaking in Pfeiffer Chapel Sunday on "The Struggle for Power in the Near East," the speaker reminded his audience that this area of the world is the gateway to Europe, Asia and Africa. What happens there, he said, is of great importance to the future of the free world.

"The freedom of America and of the freet world will be in danger," he declared, "as long as a hostile power commands a dominant position in the Near East."

Dr. Priestly told the students that they are living in the "most thrilling" period of world history, an age of change and transition, which finds humanity on the march everywhere. "There is a revolution of rising expectations around the world," he stated. "The status quo of almost everything has been upset, and science and technology have broken the barriers dividing people, nations and continents."

Memorial services held for Dr. Jones

1/19/57

GREENSBORO, N.C. — "A gentleman, an educator and a friend who lives in the lives of every Bennett woman" is the way speakers described Dr. David D. Jones at the first service of remembrance held for him Sunday afternoon in Pfeiffer Chapel.

Dr. Henry Hitt Crane, pastor of Central Methodist Church of Detroit, a long-time Bennett trustee, a schoolmate and friend of the late educator, in his address said:

"I think of Dr. Jones, first and foremost, as the finest example of a gentleman that I have ever known. He possessed all of the essential characteristics of a gentleman — patience, humaneness, absence of envy, humility, courtesy, unselfishness, self-control and high-mindedness."

* * *

DR. CRANE further characterized Dr. Jones as a man who trusted in God and who had a quality of faith that he transmitted to others.

"He had a stubborn loyalty to his ideals and to his friends. He loved his fellow man, not with gushy sentimentality, but with a disciplined concern for his welfare. He built his monument in the lives of others."

Mrs. Lydia Jetton Rogers of Washington, D.C., a 1936 Bennet graduate, in her tribute to Dr. Jones, referred to him as a man who believed in giving freely of himself, who believed in the dignity of man and in the therapy of work well done.

"We see his creed living on these grounds and in the lives of every Bennett woman," she said.

* * *

THE COLLEGE choir, directed by Mrs. Mary Crawford, sang several selections, with organ accompaniment by Clarence E. Whiteman. Among them were three of the educator's favorite hymns.

Miss Joan Speas, Winston-Salem senior, read the 23rd Psalm and the Rev. John L. Bryan, director of religious activities, gave the prayer of remembrance and pronounced the benediction.

Remembrance Day Held For Dr. David D. Jones At Bennett

1/19/57

A gentleman, and educator and a friend who lives in the lives of every Bennett woman — that is the way Dr. David D. Jones was described by speakers at the first service of remembrance held for him Sunday afternoon in Pfeiffer Chapel.

Dr. Henry Hitt Crane, pastor of the Central Methodist Church, Detroit, Michigan, a long-time Bennett trustee, and a schoolmate and friend of the late educator, in his address said:

"I think of Dr. Jones, first and foremost, as the finest example of a gentleman that I have ever known. He possessed all of the essntial characteristics of a gentleman — patience, humaneness, absence of envy, humility, courtesy, unselfishness, self - control and high - mindedness.

"He was as ideal an educator as I have ever known, a combination administrator - teacher who somehow incarnated the things he wanted to teach. He lived what he talked and had a rational clarity that enabled him to detach himself from the superficial and to get to the heart of matter. He acted with a sponaneity that gave validity to his motives."

Dr. Crane further characterized Dr. Jones as a man who trusted in God and who had a quality of faith that he transmitted to others.

"He had a stubborn loyalty to his ideals and to his friends. He loved his fellow man, not with gushy sentimentality, but with a disciplined concern for his welfare. He was a great friend—your friend and my friend. He built his monument in the lives of others."

Mrs. Lyida Jetton Rogers, of Washington, D. C., a 1936 Bennett graduate, in her tribute to Dr. Jones, referred to him as a man who believed in giving freely of himself, who believed in the dignity of man and in the therapy of work well done.

"We see his creed living on these grounds and in the lives of every Bennett woman," she said.

The college choir, directed by Mrs. Mary Crawford, sang an anthem, "Out of the Dpths," by Robert Elmore, with organ accompaniment by Clarence E. Whiteman. Three of the late educator's favorite hymns — among them, "For All Tthe Saints, Who from Their Labors Rest," — were sung by the choir and congregation.

Miss Joan Speas, Winston-Salem senior, read the 23rd Psalm and the Rev. John L. Bryan, director of religious activities, gave the prayer of remembrance and pronounced the benediction.

Bennett Adds New Instructor

Addition of one new faculty member was announced at Bennett College as the second semester began.

Roger L. Askew, of Kansas City, Kansas, has been added as an instructor in dram and speech. Mr. Askew, an A. B. from Fisk University, earned his M. A. in dramatic arts at Western Reserve University in Cleveland, Ohio.

Three freshmen were accepted for the second semester. They are Misses Alice Ingram, Guilford; Barbara Smith, Atlantic City, N. J.; and Sylvia Byrd, Clarksville, Delaware.

Seven former students have returned to the campus. They are: Misses Bettye Alexander, senior, of New York, N. Y.; Anece Faison, sophomore, of Dudley; Mildred Plowden, junior, of Greensboro; Louise Pope, sophomore, of South Pittsburg, Tenn.; Laura Rowe, junior, of Goldsboro; Julie Rivers, sophomore, of Hilton Head, S. C.; and Mrs. Juanita J. McCain, senior, of Charlotte.

BENNETT COLLEGE

Recent Activities

Instead of the usual Sunday afternoon vesper service at Bennett college, Greensboro, N. C., on Jan. 20, Clarence E. Whitman, college organist, presented a morning vesper musicale in Pfeiffer Chapel. Music took the place of the spoken word throughout the entire service.

Making its first appearance of the New Year, the Bennett college quartette sang for the secretaries of the Board of Education of the Methodist Church in session at Atlantic City, N. J., on the night of Jan. 16.

Members of the group are: Miss Ethel Maddox, Federalsburg, Md.; Miss Mattie Horton, Albany, Ga.; Miss Grace Atkinson, Four Oaks, N. C.; Miss Martha Reid, Greenville, N. C., and Miss Anita Duckett, Roanoke, Va., accompanist.

GRADUATE AT BENNETT

Nine Bennett College seniors completed requirements for graduation at the close of the first semester Saturd They are Carolyn Crawford of Morristown, Tenn.; Thelma Culbreth of New York City; Queen Farrish of Roxboro; Helen Frances of Lumberton; Shirley Moore of Jamaica, N. Y.; Sylvia Pretlow of Rocky Mount; Catherine Willis of Palatka, Fla.; Mrs. Jeanne S. Moore of Rich Square and Mrs. Margaret Williams of Fernandina Beach, Fla. They will receive their degrees May 27 at the regular graduation exercises. Classes for the second semester began at Bennett College today at 8 a.m.

Bennett Vesper Schedule Fixed

1/5/57

Students at Bennett College will hear four outstanding Sunday vesper speakers during the month of February.

Dr. James S. Thomas of the Board of Education of the Methodist Church, Nashville, Tenn., will speak on February 3. Associate secretary of the Division of Education Institutions, Dr. Thomas annually visits the campuses of the denomination's colleges and universities.

Speaker on February 10 will be the Rev. Samuel H. Sweeney, pastor of St. Mark's Methodist Church in New York City, and on February 17, Miss Thelma Stevens of the Woman's Division of Christian Service, New York City, is scheduled to be heard.

Dr. Luther H. Foster, president of Tuskegee Institute, Alabama, will speak on February 24.

Staff Member Is Vespers Speaker At Bennett Coll.

2/2/57

GREENSBORO, N. C. — Dr. Clinton C. Armstrong, pastor of the Browning Chapel Methodist Church here, spoke at the Bennett College vesper service Sunday afternoon in Pfeiffer Chapel.

Dr. Armstrong is also instructor of religion and philosophy at Bennett.

BENNETT TO AWARD SCHOLARSHIP

Bennett College is one of 23 cooperating privately - endowed colleges through which scholarship aid valued at $200,000 will be awarded to high school seniors this year.

Awards will be allocated on the basis of scores made on the Cooperative Intercollegiate Examination to be given in 182 high schools throughout the country between February 23 and March 8.

Following is the schedule of dates and places of the examinations in the Bennett College area:

February 25 — Hillside High School, Durham

February 26 — William Penn High School, High Point

February 27 — Atkins High School, Winston-Salem

February 28 — Carver High School, Winston-Salem

March 1 — Dudley High School, Greensboro

March 4 — Langston High School, Danville, Va.

March 5 — Dunbar High School, Lynchburg, Va.

March 6 — Addison High School, Roanoke, Va.

The reason why so many countries have embraced communism is that democracy has so often defaulted, Dr. S. E. Gerald Priestly told Bennett college students during the course of three addresses, recently.

A native of England who was educated there and in the United States, Dr. Priestly is an author, historian, lecturer and world traveler, who, for the past twenty-six years, has observed first-hand the changing events in Europe and the Middle East.

Speaking in Pfeiffer Chapel on "The Struggle for Power in the Near East," the speaker reminded his audience that this area of the world is the gateway to Europe, Asia and Africa. What happens there, he said, is of great importance to the future of the free world.

"The freedom of America and of the free world will be in danger," he declared, "as long as a hostile power commands a dominant position in the Near East."

Dr. Priestly told the students that they are living in the "most thrilling" period of world history, an age of change and transition, which finds humanity on the march everywhere. "There is a revolution of rising expectations around the world," he states. "The status quo of almost everything has been upset, and science and technology have broken the barriers dividing people, nations and continents."

Dr. Willa B. Player, president of Bennett college, has just returned from Philadelphia where she attended a series of important educational meetings.

4 speakers to talk at Bennett vespers

GREENSBORO, N.C. — Students at Bennett College will hear four outstanding Sunday vesper speakers during the month of February.

Dr. James S. Thomas of the board of education of the Methodist Church, Nashville, Tenn. will speak on Feb. 3. Associate secretary of the division of educational institutions, Dr. Thomas annually visits the campuses of the denomination's colleges and universities.

The Rev. Samuel H. Sweeney, pastor of St. Mark Methodist Church, N.Y.C.; will speak Feb 10, Miss Thelma Stevens of the Woman's Division of Christian Service, N.Y.C., Feb. 17, and Dr. Luther H. Foster, president of Tuskegee Institute, Feb. 24.

DR. ARMSTRONG SPEAKS

GREENSBORO, N.C. — Dr. Clinton C. Armstrong, pastor of Browning Chapel Methodist Church here, spoke at the Bennett College vesper service Sunday. He is also instructor of religion and philosophy at Bennett.

Bennett ends term with vesper service

GREENSBORO, N.C. — Dr. Clinton C. Armstrong addressed the Bennett College faculty and student body last Sunday afternoon on "Giants of God" at vesper services marking the close of the first semester activities.

Pastor of Browning Chapel Methodist Church here and instructor of religion and philosophy, Dr. Armstrong said that "those persons who show courage, demonstrate a faith to move forward, ground a strength in almighty — they are the giants of God."

Bennett Service:

Outstanding Speakers To Spark Vespers

2/2/57

GREENSBORO, N. C. — Students at Bennett College will hear four outstanding Sunday vesper speakers during the month of February.

Dr. James. S. Thomas of the Board of Education of the Methodist Church, Nashville, Tenn., will speak on February 3. Associate secretary of the Division of Educational Institutions, Dr. Thomas annually visits the campuses of the denomination's colleges and universities.

Speaker on February 10 will be the Rev. Samuel H. Sweeney, pastor of St. Mark's Methodist Church in New York City, and on February 17, Miss Thelma Stevens of the Women's Division of Christian Service, New York City, is scheduled to be heard.

Dr. Luther H. Foster, president of Tuskegee Institute, Tuskegee, Alabama, will speak on February 24.

College Party Is Postponed

GREENSBORO, N. C. — The annual All-College Party at Bennett College, originally scheduled for January 25, has been postponed until February 8, it was announced last week.

One of the highlights of the social program here, the party traditionally has marked the break between the first and second semesters.

Final examinations for the first semester were held last week and second semester classes began on Monday.

Use Goodness For Purpose, Thomas Says

news 2/4/57

"If our lives were stripped of all adornment, what would be left that would be worth saving?" Dr. James S. Thomas of Nashville, Tenn., asked the Bennett College vesper audience yesterday afternoon in Pfeiffer Chapel.

Dr. Thomas, associate secretary of the Division of Educational Institutions, Board of Education of the Methodist Church, spoke on "Goodness."

"But I don't mean a weak, negative goodness," he explained, "but a strong, vital way of living that is revolutionary in its effect."

Pointing out that man's essential story on earth is a story of good or evil, the speaker asked his listeners to evaluate their own lives to determine whether they are full of integrity or sham.

He stressed the importance of will power as a vital aspect of goodness. Too many persons, he said, make resolutions to do good but somewhere along the line, their will power fails. He descried the "nice people" who make no real contribution to the lives of those around them.

"These people are good," he said, "but usually good-for-nothing."

DR. THOMAS SPEAKS ON "GOODNESS" AT BENNETT COLLEGE

"If our lives were stripped of all adornment, what would be left that would be worth saving?" Dr. James S. Thomas, of Nashville, Tenn., asked the Bennett College vesper audience Sunday afternoon in Pfeiffer Chapel.

Dr. Thomas, associate secretary of the division of Educational Institutions Board of Education of the Methodist Church, spoke on "Goodness."

"But I don't mean a weak, negative goodness," he quickly explained, "but a strong, vital way of living that is revolutionary in its effect."

Pointing out that man's essential story on earth is a story of good or evil, the speaker asked his listeners to evaluate their own lives to determine whether they are full of integrity or sham.

He stressed the importance of will power as a vital aspect of goodness. Too many persons, he said, make resolutions to do good but somewhere along the line, their will power fails. He decried the "nice people" who make no real contribution to the lives of those around them.

"These people are good," he said. "But usually good-for-nothing."

SCHOLARSHIP CUP AWARDED AT BENNETT COLLEGE

GREENSBORO, N. C.—Award of the Jane Miller Jones Scholarship Cup to the senior class at Bennett College was made by Dr. Willa B. Player at the Monday morning chapel period.

Miss Margarie Mays, of Greensboro, vice president of the class, accepted the award.

The winners averaged 4.76 out of a possible 6.0 for the first semester. In the second place were the sophomores with 4.59, followed by the juniors with 4.30 and the freshmen with 4.23.

In making the presentation, Dr. Player congratulated the winners, but reminded the students that other areas of campus living were also important in the development of the total personality of each student.

She urged the students to greater individual achievement, pointing out that the collective efforts of any group can be impeded by poor performance of individual students.

MISS GRACE DUNGEE
Bennett Senior Appointed to National College Board of Mademoiselle

Miss Grace Dungee of Greensboro, a senior at Bennett College, was notified this week of her appointment to the national college board of Mademoiselle magazine.

She is the second Bennett student to be so honored, Miss Ruth Reese, a 1956 graduate, having been named in her junior year. Miss Dungee is one of 650 students who competed to win a place on the board.

As a college board member, she will represent her campus and report to Mademoiselle on college life and the college scene. She will now compete for one of the 20 guest editorships to be awarded by the magazine at the end of May. If successful, she will spend the month of June in New York on salary, helping to prepare the college issue of the publication.

Pastor Speaks On Tenacity Of Purpose

news 2/11/57

"We often lose heart when we fail, but we should remember that the things that are against us today will not last forever," the Rev. Samuel H. Sweeney told the Bennett College vesper audience yesterday.

The speaker, who is pastor of St. Mark's Methodist Church, New York City, explained this by pointing out that history is continuous—it is always in the making. He also reminded his listeners of the experiences of inventors and of prospectors drilling for oil.

"It may take 99 failures before we reach success on the 100th try," he said, at the same time cautioning that an individual should not attempt to evaluate his own success or failure.

The Rev. Mr. Sweeney stated that man, in his quest for power and speed, may sometimes fail to understand God's plan. Man may also seek to prove to himself that he really is seeking to develop a better life and a better world.

"You may probably remember having seen a certain play," he went on, "in which the entire mood and purpose of the production has been changed by the appearance of a certain character on the stage. Christ changed the course of events when He appeared upon the scene.

"Christ," he concluded, "is more than a fact in human history. He is a companion and a friend."

COLLEGE CHORAL GROUP TO SING AT AME CONFERENCE

GREENSBORO — The Bennett College Quartette will sing for the Western District Conference of the Methodist Church on February 20 at the Wells Spring Methodist Church in Forest City.

On February 1, the Freshman Choir sang for the Greensboro District Conference at the Celia Phelps Methodist Church at Red Hill.

Bennettt College adds new faculty member

GREENSBORO, N.C. — Addition of one new faculty member was announced at Bennett College as the second semester began on Monday.

Roger L. Askew, of Kansas City, Kansas, has been added as an instructor in drama and speech. Mr. Askew, an T. B. from Fisk University earn HIS M. A. in dramatic arts at Western Reserve University in Cleveland.

THREE FRESHMEN were accepted for the second semester. They are Misses Alice Ingram, Guilford, N.C.; Barbara Smith, Atlantic City, N.J.; and Sylvia Byrd, Clarksville, Del. Miss Ingram is a sister of Miss Barbara Ingram who enrolled in September and of Miss Lois Ingram who was graduated last year.

Seven former students have returned to the campus. They are:

Misses Bettye Alexander, senior, NYC; Anece Faison, sophomore, Dudley; Mildred Plowden, Junior, Greensboro; Louise Pope, Sophomore, South Pittsburgh, Tenn.; Laura Rowe, junior, Goldsboro; Julie Rivers, sovpomore, Hilton Head, S.C., and Mrs. Juanita J. McCain, senior, Charlotte.

9 Bennett seniors complete courses

GREENSBORO, N.C. — Bennett College seniors completed their requirements for graduation at the close of the first semester on Saturday.

They are:

Misses Carolyn Crawford, Morristown, Tenn; Thelma Culbreth, NYC; Queen Farrish, Roxboro; Helen Frances, Lumberton; Shirley Moore, Jamaica, N.Y.; Sylvia Pretlow, Rocky Mount; Catherine Willis, Palatka, Fla.; and Mesdames Jeanne S. Moore, Rich Square, and Margaret Williams, Fernandina Beach Fla.

Degrees will be conferred upon them on May 27 along with other members of the class of 1957.

Bennett lists 8 scholarship exam centers

GREENSBORO, N.C. — Bennett College is one of 23 cooperating privately - endowed colleges through which scholarship aid valued at $200,000 will be awarded to high school seniors this year.

Awards will be allocated on the basis of scores made on the Cooperative Inter - collegiate Examination to be given in 182 high schools throughout the country between Feb. 23 and March 8.

* * *

FOLLOWING IS the schedule of dates and places of the examinations in the Bennett College area:

Feb. 25—Hillside High School, Penn High, High Point; Feb. 27—Atkins High, and Feb. 28 — Carver High, Winston Salem:;

March 1—Dudley High School, Greensboro; March 4—Langston High, Danville, Va.; March 5—Dunbar High, Lynchburg, Va., and March 6—Addison High School, Roanoke, Va.

MISS STAGGERS, CHAIRMAN OF BENNETT COLLEGE HEART FUND

Miss Serena Staggers has been named chairman of the Bennett College Heart Fund.

Miss Staggers will announce her committee within the next few days she said.

"Bennett College students are anxious to help wherever they can to combat heart diseases, for there are few of us who have not been touched in some degree by heart attacks among our own families, yes, even our own faculty", Said Miss Staggers. "Valentine Day and the influences it has on all our hearts will reflect in our contributions I'm sure," she concluded.

Bennett College students are another school, club or organization which has volunteered their cooperation said Gomer Lesch today as he made this announcement.

GREENSBORO, N. C.---Miss Grace Dungee, of Greensboro, a senior at Bennett College, was notified this week of her appointment to the national college board of Mademoiselle magazine.

She is the second Bennett student to be so honored, Miss Ruth Reese, a 1956 graduate, having been named in her junior year. Miss Dungee is one of 650 students who competed to win a place on the board.

As a college board member, she will represent her campus and report to Mademoiselle on college life and the college scene. She will now compete for one of the 20 guest editorships to be awarded by the magazine at the end of May. If successful, she will spend the month of June in New York on salary, helping to prepare the college issue of the publication.

130

New Yorker is vesper speaker

GREENSBORO, N.C. —"We often lose heart when we fail, but we should remember that the things that are against us today will not last forever," the Rev. Samuel H. Sweeney told the Bennett College vesper audience Sunday afternoon in Pfeiffer Chapel.

The speaker, who is pastor of St. Marks Methodist Church, NYC, explained this by pointing out that history is continuous — it is always in the making. He also reminded his listeners of the experiences of inventors and of prospectors drilling for oil.

* * *

"IT MAY TAKE 99 failures before we reach success on the one - hundredth try," he declared, at the same time cautioning that an individual should not attempt to evaluate at his own success or failure.

Addressing himself to the subject, "Enter, Christ," the Rev. Mrs. Sweeney stated that man, in his quest for power and speed, may sometimes fail to understand God's plan. Man also seeks to prove to himself that he really is seeking to develop a better world.

"Understand The Cry Of The Human Heart," Miss Thelma Stevens Tells Bennett Group

Greensboro 3/2/57

GREENSBORO, N. C. — The of the human heart for food and greatest need in the world today freedom, Miss Thelma Stevens of is for people to understand the cry New York City told the Bennett College vesper audience Sunday afternoon in Pfeiffer Chapel.

Miss Stevens, who is secretary of the Departmetnt of Christian Social Relations of the Woman's Division of Christian Service of the Methodist Church, declared that a bold declaration of the Gospel of Jesus Christ — a gospel of reconciliation and good will — is also greatly needed today.

"We profess to be a democrary," she said, "But many times our behavior does not qualify us for that title. Our very immaturity as a nation sometimes makes us act abroad in ways that are often misunderstood."

Reminding her audience that people in other parts of the world know a great deal more about us than we do about them, she suggested that the United States might well demonstrate its leadership by thinking in terms of human welfare insteaad of merely fighting communism.

Miss Stevens called attention to a "great silence abroad in the world today", with many persons not speaking out their convictions because of fear. Mutual dependence and cooperation have replaced interdependence and isolation in the world, she said, adding that science has made the world so small so fast that man's mind and man's mode of living have not kept pace with it.

"The fact that people are talking about civil rights and civil rights legislation — whether on one side or the other," she continued, "is an important sign.

Pastor Cites Obligations Of Christian

Thurs 2/28/57

"A Christian and His Debts" was the subject of the sermon given at the Bennett College vesper service yesterday by the Rev. William R. Crawford of Winston-Salem.

The speaker, who in addition to his duties as pastor of the Mount Pleasant Methodist Church is also a city alderman, said that many persons think that just because they are Christians they don't have any debts.

"But they are wrong," he added, "because when they became Christians, by that very act they took on certain obligations to God and to their fellow men."

Making it clear that he was not referring to material debts alone, the Rev. Mr. Crawford cautioned his audience to keep their credit good with God just as with their earthly creditors.

"People are expecting many things of you," he said, "and you have an obligation not to disappoint them. If world peace comes, it will come largely through the efforts and sacrifices of people who are Christians."

Bennett College Among 23 Schools Giving Awards

GREENSBORO — Bennett College is one of 23 cooperating privately - endowed colleges through which scholarship aid valued at $200,000 will be awarded to high school seniors this year.

Awards will be allocated on the basis of scores made on the Cooperative Intercollegiate Examinations to be given in 182 high schools throughout the country between February 23 and March 8.

Following is the schedule of dates and places of the examinations in the Bennett College area:

February 25 — Hillside High School, Durham.

February 26 — William Penn High School, High Point.

February 27 — Atkins High School, Winston-Salem.

February 28 — Carver High School, Winston-Salem.

March 1 — Dudley High School, Greensboro.

March 4 — Langston High School, Danville, Va.

March 5—Dunbar High School, ynchburg, Va.

March 6—Addison High School, Roanoke, Va.

C. E. YOKELY ADDRESSES BENNETT STUDENT BODY

"Teaching in Transition was the subject of an address delivered at Bennett College Monday morning by C. E. Yokely, principal of the Alfred J. Griffin elementary school in High Point.

"After the present critical period and issues of integration," he declared "I believe the next era will be one of valuating teaching and teachers, in order to warrant the mounting public interest and expense . . . In the final analysis, teacher competency and the ability to apply productive methods will greatly level off the situation."

Mr. Yokely, in addressing himself directly to Bennett seniors who will be seeking teaching jobs soon, told them that salaries can be made retroactive, but that the education of youth and professional efficiency cannot.

ANNUAL ALL-COLLEGE PARY POSTPONED

The annual All-College Party at Bennett College, originally scheduled for January 25, has been postponed until February 8, it was announced last week.

One of the highlights of the social program here, the party traditionally has marked the break between the first and second semesters.

Final examinations for the first semester were held last week and second semester classes began on Monday.

LEGISLATIVE ASSISTANT, SPEAKS AT BENNETT

"All of us are born with a capacity for love, but we must cultivate and develope it, just as we do our physical bodies," Miss Frances Williams told Bennett College students here Friday morning.

Miss Williams, a legislative assistant in Washington, stated that love is not just one thing but many things combined. She listed generosity, sincerity, humility and patience as some of its components.

"Real love," she declared, "is tough, surviving either disaster or death. It is founded on faith and it has a shiny quality. Just as the song says, love is a many splendored thing."

DILLARD UNIVERSITY DEAN, VESPER SPEAKER MARCH 17TH

Speaker at the Sunday March 17, vesper service at Bennett College will be Dr. Samuel L. Gandy, dean of Lawless Chapel at Dillard University, New Orleans.

OUTSTANDING VESPER SPEAKERS TO BE AT BENNETT

Students at Bennett College will hear four outstanding Sunday vesper speakers during the month of February.

Dr. James S. Thomas of the board of Education of the Methodist Church, Nashville, Tenn., wil speak on February 3. Associate secretary of the Division of Educational Institutions, Dr. Thomas annually visits the campuses of the denomination's colleges and universities.

Speaker on February 10 will be the Rev. Samuel H. Sweeney, pastor of St. Mark's Methodist Church in New York City, and on February 17, Miss Thelma Stevens of the Woman's Division of Christian Service, New York City, is scheduled to be heard.

Dr. Luther H. Foster, president of Tuskegee Institute, Tuskegee, Alabama, will speak on February 24.

'Giants Of God' Topic Of Bennett Sermon

"The Giants of God" was the subject of the sermon delivered by Dr. Clinton C. Armstrong yesterday at Bennett College vesper service marking the close of the first semester. News 1/28/57

Dr. Armstrong, pastor of Browning Chapel Methodist Church here and an instructor in religion and philosophy at the college, reminded his listeners that they, like the children of Israel, en route to the Promised Land, face the choice of being either courageous or cowardly.

"Those persons," he said, "who show courage in the face of crisis, who demonstrate a faith that moves forward, and who have grounded their strength in the Almingty—they are the giants of God."

BENNETT SPEAKER

Mrs. W. B. Landrum of New York City, field worker for the Woman's Division of Christian Service of the Methodist Church, will be the speaker at the 11 a.m. service today at Pfeiffer Chapel on the Bennett College campus. News 2/3/57

Jesus hailed as 'greatest teacher'

GREENSBORO, N.C. — Jesus is the greatest teacher that the world has ever known and the truths that He taught to the people of His day are just as applicable to the present generation.

The Rev. John L. Bryan, director of religious activities at Bennett College, ushering in the Lenten season at the college, gave this appraisal at Sunday s vesper service in Pfeiffer Chapel.

"Jesus has left us a climate of moral judgment for this age and all to come," the minister declared. He gave up His whole life defending the principle that all men are brothers."

"All of us are born with a capacity for love, but we must cultivate and develop it, just as we do our physical bodies," Miss Frances Williams told Bennett College students here Friday morning. Miss Williams a legislative assistant in Washington, stated that love is not just one thing, but many things combined. She listed generosity sincerity, humility and patience as among its components.

"Real love," she declared, "is tough, surviving either disaster or death. It is founded on faith and it has a shiny quality. Just as the song says, love is a many splendored thing."

All-College Party Date Is Changed

The annual All - College Party at Bennett College, originally scheduled for January 25, has been postponed until February 8, it was announced last week.

One of the highlights of the social program here, the party traditionally has marked the break between the first and second semesters.

Final examinations for the first semester were held last week and second semester classes began on Monday. Jan Mon 4/31/57

Bennett Students Get High Marks

Of the 147 students earning places on the first semester honor roll at Bennett College, 14 had a straight "A" average.

This announcement of scholastic achievement was made Friday during the Student Recognition Day program sponsored by Alpha Kappa Mu honor society.

OFF TO TENNESSEE--These Bennett College students are shown just before leaving for Monteagle, Tennessee where they attended a workshop on integration at the Highlander Folk School. Left to right: Grace Coleman, Charlotte; Gwendolyn Harris (partially hidden) Greensboro; Sonja Weldon, Chicago; Wilhelmina Bundy, Johnson City, Tennessee; Addie Watson, Charlotte; and Phyllis Henry, Odessa, Delaware.

BENNETT COLLEGE PARTY--View from balcony of dancers at the annual Bennett College party held Friday night in the David D. Jones Student Union--the first big all-campus affair of the school year.

Colleges Plan Interracial Exchange

BUCK HILL FALLS, Pa., March 5 (AP)—A short term student exchange program involving coeds from a white university in Ohio and a college for Negro girls in North Carolina was outlined today at a national meeting of Methodist women.

Dr. Willa Player, president of Bennett College, Greensboro, N.C., discussed the project at the Conference on Missions of the Women's Division of Christian Service, which is technically the women's organization of the Methodist Church in the U.S.

She said that last Sunday six girls from Bennett, an all-Negro School, left to spend two weeks on the campus of Ohio Wesleyan University. On March 31, she added, four white girls from Wesleyan will go to Bennett for two weeks.

Under the exchange worked out by the faculties of the two schools, the girls will enter completely into the life of the campus.

Dr. Player said she believed the exchange plan would be "an effective means of breaking down racial barriers on the college campus and of preparing college students for the coming of integration."

Bennett Students at Workshop

GREENSBORO, N. C. — Eight Bennett College students last week attended a workshop on "Public School Integration" held at the Highlander Folk School, Monteagle, Tennessee.

They are: Misses Grace Coleman, senior, Charlotte; Addie Watson, junior, Charlotte; Delores Tonkins, junior, Greensboro; Sonja Weldon, junior, Chicago; Phyllis Henry, senior, Odessa, Del.; Inez Jones, sophomore, Lenoir; Gwendolyn Harris, senior, Greensboro, and Wilhelmina Bundy, sophomore, Johnson City, Tenn.

The workshop, one of 12 directed by Mrs. Septima Clark, seeks to provide community leadership for an orderly transition from a segregated to an unsegregated public school system in the South, and was attended by students from northern and southern institutions as well as by community leaders.

A 9 a. m. to 5:30 p. m. daily schedule include a study of local segregation laws, voting apathy, the passive resistance method and voluntary citizens' actions.

Among the consultants were Dr. Frederick D. Patterson of the Phelps-Stokes Fund, New York City; Dr. Hermah Long, Fisk University, Nashville, Tenn.; Mrs. Rosa Parks, of the Montgomery (Ala.) Improvement Association, and Mrs. Vivian Carter Mason, president of the National Council of Negro Women.

Bennett Student Leaders On Tour, Exchange Program

Three Bennet College students left here Sunday for Sarah Lawrence College, Bronxville, N. Y., where they will spend two weeks as a part of an exchange program between the two colleges.

At the same time, three Sarah Lawrence students left their institution to spend a similar period at Bennett.

The Bennett students, all junionrs, are: Misses Veronica Shipley, Baltimore; Carolyn Brown, Johnson City, Tenn., and Shirley Mae Moore, Camden, N. J. They will attend classes and engage in all other campus activities while there.

CONCERT SLATED

The Curtis Siring Quartet of Philadelphia will give a concert at Bennett College at 8 p.m. Friday. The group, organized in 1927, has appeared in many parts of the United States and Europe.

MR. AND MRS. WALTER WIMBERLY JR. were married in Spartanburg, S.C., recently. The bride is the former Miss Effie J. Henderson.

Miss Effie Henderson wed to Walter Wimberley of Oklahoma

SPARTANBURG, S.C.— Miss Effie Jeanette Henderson, niece of Dr. and Mrs. J. B. Walker of 550 South Liberty St. was married to Walter Wimberly Jr. here, recently.

The marriage took place at the home of the bride. The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. B. J. Cooper, pastor of the Silver Hill Methodist Church.

Miss Gwendolyn Jenkins of Charlotte, N.C. was organist.

The bride was given in marriage by her uncle. Miss Wilhelmenia Mosby of Columbia, was the maid of honor.

* * *

THE BRIDE wore a ballerina length dress of light blue lace over satin with matching headpiece. She carried an orchid and baby breath on her white Bible.

The maid of honor wore a pink dress with matching headpiece and carried a bouquet of white roses.

Robert Simmons of Columbia, was best man.

The bride is a graduate of Bennett College in Greensboro, N.C. She is now employed as home demonstration agent in Chester county, Chester.

Mr. Wimberly is a graduate of Howard University in Washington, D.C. and has just completed two years of service in the United States Army. He is planning to enter medical school in the fall. A native of El Peno, Oklahoma, he is a member of the Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity.

A reception was held immediately after the marriage at the home of the bride.

* * *

OUT-OF-TOWN guests included Mr. and Mrs. Robert Simmons, Miss Wilhelmenia Mosby and Mesdames Dorothy Cook, Sallie Woods and Mamie Austin of Columbia;

Ira L. Hall, Miss Rosa A. Brown and Mrs. Mattie Heath Daniels of Chester; Miss Elizabeth Wylie of Rock Hill;

Miss Margaret E. Brown of Roanoke Rapids, N.C., Miss Gwendolyn Jenkins of Charlotte, N.C., and Mr. and Mrs. Otha Brown Jr. of South Norwalk, Conn.

Local guests were:

Misses Hattie B. Peland, Edith Duffie; Mesdames Eugenia Wheeler, Willie Duffie, Corrie Stewart, Daisy Campbell, Cora B. Cheeks, Grace Phillips, Florence Anderson, Gennelle Phillips,

Mesdames Rosetta Kersha, Eunice Thompson, Ora Lee Foster, Sallie Mae Tanner; Messrs. and Mesdames C. C. Woodson, Alphonza Savage, James Hunter, O. B. Gray, G. T. Jefferies

Dr. and Mrs. S. D. Brown; Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Meadows, J. Stinson Woodward, the Rev. J. Leon Pridgeon, the Rev. C. M. Johnson, and the Rev. B. J. Cooper.

Alderman speaker at Bennett vespers

GREENSBORO, N.C. — "A Christian and His Debts" was the subject of the sermon delivered at the Bennett College vesper service Sunday by the Rev. Wiliam R. Crawford of Winston-Salem.

The speaker, who in addition to his duties as pastor of Mount Pleasant Methodist Church is also a city alderman, said that many persons think that just becuase they are christians, they don't have any debts.

"But they are wrong," he quickly added, "because when they became Christians, by that very act they took on certain obligations to God and to their fellowmen." Making it clear that he was not referring to material debts alone, the Rev. Mr. Crawford cautioned his audience to keep their credit good with God just as with their earthly creditors.

Bennett seniors awarded trophy

GREENSBORO, N.C.—Award of the Jane Miller Jones Scholarship Cup to the senior class at Bennett College was made by Dr. Willa B. Player at the Monday morning chapel period.

Miss Margarie Mays of Greensboro, vice president of the class, accepted the award. The winners averaged 4.76 out of a possible 6.0 for the first semester.

In making the presentation, Dr. Player congratulated the winners, but reminded the students that other areas of campus living were also important in the development of the total personality of each student.

Bennett students attend workshop on integration

GREENSBORO, N.C.— Eight Bennett College students last week attended a workshop on "Public School Integration" held at the Highlander Folk School, Monteagle, Tennessee.

They are:

Misses Grace Coleman, senior, and Addie Watson, junior, Charlotte; Deloris Tonkins, junior, Greensboro; Sonia Weldon junior, Chicago; Phyllis Henry, senior, Odessa, Del.; Inez Jones, sophomore, Lenoir; Gwendolyn Harris, senior, Greensboro, and Wilhelmina Bundy, sophomore, Johnson City, Tenn.

THE WORKSHOP, one of 12 directed by Mrs. Septima Clark, seeks to provide community leadership for an orderly transition from a segregated to an unsegregated public school system in the South and was attended by students from northern and southern institutions as well as by community leaders.

A 9 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. daily schedule included a study of local segregation laws, voting apathy, the passive resistance method and voluntary citizens' actions.

Among the consultants were Dr. Frederick D. Patterson of the Phelps-Stokes Fund, Dr. Herman Long, Fisk University; Mrs. Rosa Parks, of the Montgomery (Ala.) Improvement Association, and Mrs. Vivian Carter Mason, president of the National Council of Negro Women.

DR. PLAYER TO SPEAK

Dr. Willa B. Player, president of Bennett College, will speak today at a forum conducted by the Urban League in Warren, Ohio, and on Thursday will appear before the Woman's Society of Christian Service in Detroit, Mich. News 3/10/57

14 'A' students on Bennett honor roll

GREENSBORO, N.C. — Of the 147 students earning places on the first semester honor roll at Bennett College, 14 had a straight "A" average, it was announced Friday during the Student Recognition Day program sponsored by Alpha Kappa Mu honor society.

Students with perfect averages are:

• • •

SENIORS — Jacqueline Hamlett, Dorothy A. Harris, Gwendolyn Harris, Shirley J. Hudson and Margarie B. Mays, all of Greensboro; Jacqueline McAlister, Kingstree, S.C.; Marion Moore, Marshall, Mo.; Geraldine W. Parrish, Glendale, Ohio; Sylvia Pretlow, Rocky Mount; Cynthia J. Speas, Winston-Salem and Sara C. Williams, Henderson, N.C.

• • •

JUNIORS — Jimmie English, Camden, S.C.; Fredrica Washington, Beaufort, S.C. and Sonja Weldon, Chicago.

Speaker for the occasion was Dr. J. Henry Sayles, chairman of the science division, who spoke on "Streamlining the Mind for Scholarship."

Calling upon the students to set high goals for themselves, the speaker said: "The WISH to learn and the WILL to learn are different. The wish is general and diffused, but the will is special and concentrated. The wish means that we hope for something to happen, the will that we are willing to make it happen."

• • •

MISS GERALDINE PARRISH, president of the Bennett chapter, gave the history and purpose of the society. Miss Jacqueline McAlister, secretary - treasurer, gave the call to worship and sang the Alpha Kappa Mu hymn, while Miss Grace Dungee, vice president, introduced the speaker and made the citations.

Announcement was made of the eligibility of the following students for membership in Alpha Kappa Mu:

SENIORS — Gloria Blatch, Miami, Fla.; Paula Edmunds, Cincinnati, Ohio; Dorothy Harris, Greensboro; Shirley Hudson, Greensboro; Carolyn Ingram, Durham; Margarie Mays, Greensboro; Julia McClain, Grady, Ala.; Marion Moore, Marshall, Mo., and Jean Renwick, Statesville, N.C.;

JUNIORS — Delores Casimere, Galveston, Texas; Peggy Coefield, Kinston; Jimmie English, Camden, S.C.; Oyeyemi Salako, Nigeria, West Africa; Veronica Shipley, Baltimore, Md.; Deloris Tonkins, Greensboro; Onuma Uko, Nigeria, West Africa; Fredrica Washington, Beaufort, S.C., and Sonja Weldon, Chicago, Ill.

The complete honor roll listing follows:

SENIORS — Precious L. Aldrich, McBee, S.C.; Deloris L. Alexander, Winston-Salem; Alice M. Badgett, Pelham; Gloria A. Blatch, Miami, Fla.; Mary E. Branch, Henderson; Gladys Bridgers, Wilson; Lena P. Brooks, Hillsboro; Grace M. Coleman, Charlotte; Ann M. Cooper, Glendale, Ohio; Carolyn Crawford, Morristown, Tenn.; Thelma Culbreth New York; Harrietta A. Daniels, Moultrie, Ga.;

Agnes P. Dixon, Burlington; Grace E. Dungee, Greensboro; Bettie J. Echols, Greensboro; Paula M. Edmunds, Cincinnati; Mayme Ellerbe, Cheraw, S.C.; Queen Farrish, Roxboro; Cloia D. Ford, Henderson; Helen Frances, Lumberton; Tiny A. Gaddy, Winston-Salem; Barbara A. Graves, Pelham; Helen Green, New York; Phyllis E. Henry, Odessa, Del.

Barbara J. Hickman, Freeport, Ill. Bettye J. Higgins, Greensboro; Virginia M. Holland, Superior, W. Va.; Mary F. Holloway, Meridian, Miss.; Carolyn M. Ingram, Durham; Ruth A. Johnson, Mebane; Doris A. Lanier, Bath, N.C.; Fannie J. Lewis, Morganton; Julia M. McClain, Grady Ala.; Annie C. McGimpsey, Morganton; Mattie B. McRae, Laurinburg; Mary E. Miller, Lynchburg, Va.

Jeanne Moore, Rich Square; Shirley Ann Moore, Jamaica, N.Y.; Delores Noble, Greensboro; Ida F. Parker, Mebane; Blondelle Reid, Greensboro; Jean Renwick, Statesville; Betty S. Robinson, Greensboro Annie R. Simpson, Greensboro; Marie A. Slaughter, Newport, Ky.; Peggie Smith, Greensboro; Ann M. Stewart Reidsville; Margaret Tatum, Greensboro;

Sylvia E. Tyson, New Haven, Conn.; Consuelo L. Watkins, Danville, Va.; Martinele West, Chicago, Ill.; Doris Y. Young, Morganton;

JUNIORS — Carole J. Anderson, Greenville, S.C.; Grace E. Atkinson Four Oaks; Bernice Brooks, Columbus, Miss.; Carolyn R. Brown, Johnson City, Tenn.; Peggy A. Coefield, Kinston; Honora L. Glover, Ashboro, Patrica A. Hopkins, Miami, Fla.; Willie D. Jackson, Red Springs; Sonia Louden, Cincinnati; Lola McAdoo, Greensboro; Ann R. McCoy, Elizabeth City;

Fannie L. Miles, Drakes Branch, Va.; Shirley Mae Moore, Camden, N.J.; Ann L. Richmond, Greensboro; Oyeyemi Salako, Nigeria, West Africa; Veronica A. Shipley, Baltimore; Vinia Spivey, New York; Frances P. Thurston, Miami, Fla.; Deloris Tonkins, Greensboro; Onuma A Uko, Nigeria, West Africa; Carole S. Wade, Graham; Mable S. Woters, Dudley; Rosemary Wright, Camden, S.C.; Yvonne A. Wynne, Jamaica, N.Y.;

SOPHOMORES — Millie A. Adams, Princeton, W. Va.; Ida R. Bullock, Manson; Wilhelmina R. Bundy, Johnson City, Tenn.; Barbara E. Campbell, Greensboro; Jamesena Chalmers, Fayetteville; Veronico L. Dean, Miami, Fla.; Eleanor B. Fields, Richmond, Va.; Wilhelma G. Gatewood, Gary, W. Va.; Rosalind H. Goodson, Clayton, N.C.; Marion G. Grant, Macon, Ga.; Janie M. Graves, Greensboro; Mildred L. Hamlett, Semora;

Cecile E. Harrison, Houston, Texas; Ruth F Hawkins, Louisburg; Vivias L. Hopkins, Miami, Fla.; Theoria B. Houston, Miami, Fla.; Edna D. Jackson, Ridgeway, S.C.; Inez C. Jones, Lenoir; Sarah R. Lawrence, Evanston, Ill.; Carolyn V. Lowry, Greensboro; Corolyn P. Martin, Durham; Emma L. Martin, Mt. Olive; Geraldine McDade, Efland; Rivers E. Millner, Draper;

Barbara J. Moyer, White Plains, N.Y.; Nannie G. Poole, Baltimore; Josephine A. Raiford, Greensboro; Martha L. Reid, Greenville, N.C.; Viola Royster, Plainfield, N.J.; Mae Helen Shaw, Laurinburg; Mary E. Shoffner, Greensboro; Essie F. Smith, Timberlake; Ruby N. Starks, Troutman; Mary Jane Williams, Winston-Salem;

FRESHMEN — Johnsie M. Adams, Leaksville; Jacqueline A. Ball Philadelphia; Duella L. Bass,

OFF TO SARAH LAWRENCE—These three Bennett juniors are shown as they left last week for Sarah Lawrence College. Bronxville, N.Y., where they will spend two weeks as exchange students. Left to right are Misses Carolyn Brown of Johnson City, Tenn., Shirley Mae Moore, of Camden, N.J. and Veronica Shipley of Baltimore.

From Bennett:

3 Students Take Part In Exchange

3/2/57

GREENSBORO, N. C. — Three Bennett College students left here Sunday for Sarah Lawrence College, Bronxville, N. Y., where they will spend two weeks as a part of an exchange program between the two colleges.

At the same time, three Sarah Lawrence students letft their institution to spend a similar period at Bennett.

The Bennett students, all juniors, are: Misses Veronica Shipley, Baltimore; Carolyn Brown, Johnson City, Tenn., and Shirley Mae Moore, Camden, N. J. They will attend classes and engage in all other campus activities while there.

Leaving the campus at the same time were seven other student leaders who are making a tour of six Eastern colleges, from February 24 to March 5, to observe campus life and to confer with other student leaders.

They will visit Goucher College and Morgan State College in Baltimore; Hunter College, New York City; Brooklyn College, Vassar College, Poughkeepsie, N. Y., and Mt. Holyoke College, South Hadley, Mass.

In this group are: Misses Mary Jane Williams, Winston-Salem; Barbara Campbell, Greensboro, and Edna Jackson, Ridgeway, S. C., all sophomores; Fredrica Washington, Beaufort, S. C. and Yvonne Wynne, Jamaica, N. Y., juniors, and Betty East, Pilot Mountain, and Barbara Hickman, Freeport, Ill., seniors.

Bennett College has also entered into a student-exchange agreement with Ohio Wesleyan University, Delaware, Ohio, in which six students of each institution are involved, from March 2 to 16.

Participating in this program will be; Misses Peggy Coefield, Kinston, N. C.; Fannie Miles, Drakes Branch, Va.; Jimmie English, Camden, S. C., and Shirley Waters, Dudley, N. C., all juniors, and Theoria Houston and Veronica Dean, sophomores, both of Miami, Florida.

Off To Tennessee

These Bennett College students are shown just before leaving for Monteagle, Tenn. where they attended a workshop on integration at the Highlander Folk School. Left to right; Grace Coleman, Charlotte; Gwendolyn Harris (partially hidden) Greensboro; Sonja Weldon, Chicago; Wilhelmina Bundy, Johnson City, Tenn.; Addie Watson, Charlotte, and Phyllis Henry, Odessa, Del.

ATTEND SEMINAR ON STATE GOVERMENT

Two Bennett College students Misses Lola McAdoo, of Greensboro, and Helen Becket, of Bowling Green. Ky. — were in Raleigh from February 28 to March 2 attending a seminar on state government.

Sponsored by the American Friends Service Committee,, the seminar provided an opportunity for 30 college students to visit and observe the legislature in session and to discuss with key figures in the state government problems of education, welfare and other subjects.

While in Raleigh, the students lived and ate at the Carolina Hotel.

Rev. Sweeney Speaker At Girls College

GREENSBORO, N. C.—"We often lose heart when we fail, but we should remember that the things that are against us today will not last forever," the Rev. Samuel H. Sweeney told the Bennett College vesper audience Sunday afternoon in Pfeiffer Chapel.

The speaker, who is pastor of St. Mark's Methodist Church, New York City, explained this by pointing out that history is continuous—it is always in the making. He also reminded his listeners of the experiences of inventors and of prospectors drilling for oil.

• • •

"IT MAY TAKE 99 failures before we reach success on the one-hundredth try," he declared, at the same time cautioning that an individual should not attempt to evaluate his own success or failure.

Addressing himself to the subject, "Enter, Christ," the Rev. Mr. Sweeney stated that man, in his quest for power and speed, may sometimes fail to understand God's plan. Man also seeks to prove to himself that he really is seeking to develop a better world.

• • •

"YOU MAY probably remember having seen a certain play," he went on, "in which the entire mood and purpose of the production has been changed by the appearance of a certain character on the stage. Christ changed the course of events when He appeared upon the scene.

"Christ," he concluded, "is more than a fact in human history. He is a companion and a friend."

MRS. W. B. LANDRUM, VESPER SPEAKER

Mrs. W. B. Landrum, of New York City, field worker for the Woman's Division of Christian Service of the Methodist Church, will speak at the March 10 vesper service at Bennett College.

PRINCIPAL ADDRESS B. C. STUDENT BODY

C. E. Yokley, principal of the Alfred J. Griffin School in High Point, addressed the Bennett College student body at the morning chapel assembly on March 4.

Gr. Tribune 2/23/57

GREENSBORO, N. C. — Miss Grace Dungee, senior at Bennett college here, has been appointed to the national college board of Mademoiselle magazine.

She is the second Bennett student to be so honored, and is one of 650 students who competed to win a place on the board.

As a college board member, she will represent her campus and report to Mademoiselle on college life and the college scene. She will also compete for one of the 20 guest editorships to be awarded by the magazine at the end of May. If successful, she will spend the month of June in New York on salary, helping to prepare the college issue of the publication.

"Things That Are Now Against Us Won't Last Forever," Dr. S. H. Sweeney Declares

GREENSBORO — "We often lose heart when we fail, but we should remember that the things that are against us today will not last forever," the Rev. Samuel H. Sweeney told the Bennett College vesper audience Sunday afternoon in Pfeiffer Chapel.

The speaker, who is pastor of St. Mark's Methodist Church, New York City, explained this by pointing out that history is continuous—it is always in the making. He also reminded his listeners of the experiences of inventors and of prospectors drilling for oil.

"It may take 99 failures before we reach success on the one-hundredth try," he declared, at the same time cautioning that an individual should not attempt to evaluate his own success or failure.

Addressing himself to the subject, "Enter, Christ," the Rev. Mr. Sweeney stated that man, in his quest for power and speed, may sometimes fail to understand God's plan. Man also seeks to prove to himself that he really is seeking to develop a better world.

"You may probably remember having seen a certain play," he went on, "in which the entire mood and purpose of the production has been changed by the appearance of a certain character on the stage. Christ changed the course of events when He appeared upon the scene.

"Christ," he concluded, is "more than a fact in human history. He is a companion and a friend."

Bennett students on exchange from Sarah Lawrence College

Gro 3/2/57

GREENSBORO, N.C. — Three Bennett College students left here Sunday for Sarah Lawrence College, Bronxville, N.Y., where they will spend two weeks as a part of an exchange program between the two colleges.

At the same time, three Sarah Lawrence students left their institution to spend a similar period at Bennett.

The Bennett students, all juniors, are:

Misses Veronica Shipley, Baltimore; Carolyn Brown, Johnson City, Tenn., and Shirley Mae Moore, Camden, N.J. They will attend classes and engage in all other campus activities while there.

• • •

LEAVING THE campus at the same time were seven other student leaders who are making a tour of six Eastern colleges, from February 24 to March 5, to observe campus life and to confer with other student leaders.

They will visit Goucher College and Morgan State College in Baltimore; Hunter College, New York City; Brooklyn College, Vassar College, Poughkeepsie, N.Y., and Mt. Holyoke College, South Hadley, Mass.

In this group are:

Misses Mary Jane Williams, Winston-Salem; Barbara Campbell, Greensboro, and Edna Jackson, Ridgeway, S.C., all sophomores; Fredrica Washington, Beaufort, S.C. and Yvonne Wynne, Jamaica, N.Y., juniors, and Betty East, Pilot Mountain, and Barbara Hickman, Freeport Ill., seniors.

• • •

BENNETT COLLEGE has also entered into a student-exchange agreement with Ohio Wesleyan University, Delaware, Ohio, in which six students of each institution are involved, from March 2 to 16.

Participating in this program will be Misses Peggy Coefield, Kinston, N.C.; Fannie Miles, Drakes Branch, Va.; Jimmie English, Camden, S.C., and

AFRICANS AT BENNETT — These three young African women are among 12 foreign students studying at Bennett College, Greensboro, N.C., this year. Left to right are Misses Oyeyemi Salako, Nigeria, West Africa; Onuma Uko, Nigeria, and Blanche Tuboku-Metzger, Sierra Leone. All are social science majors and plan to return to their native land as social workers or teachers.

132

BENNETT MODELS SCORE — These six home economics majors at Bennett College, Greensboro, modeled the garments they are wearing in a fashion show that was the highlight of the Valentine's Day birthday dinner, Thursday night in the David D. Jones Student Union. They made the garments as a part of their study of clothing under Mrs. Louise G. Street. Left to right: Misses Marlene Beavers senior, of Danville, Va.; Pauline Jessup, junior, of Greensboro; Harriett Butler, junior, Cincinnati, Ohio; Rose Mary Wright, junior, Camden, S. C.; Joan Cooley, junior, Hendersonville; and Ann Cooper, senior, or Glendale, Ohio. Carolinian 3/2/57

Noted Lecturer To Speak To Bennett Group

GREENSBORO, N. C—Two addresses by Dr. Lowell R. Ditzen, minister, author and lecturer, will highlight the program of the 31st annual Homemaking Institute at Bennett College, Friday.

Dr. Ditzen, minister of the Reformed Church in Bronxville, N. Y., returned only last week from India. His services as consultant for the institute were obtained after the sudden serious illness of Dr. Harry A. Overstreet made it impossible for him and his wife, Mrs. Bonaro Overstreet, to serve as originally scheduled.

* * *

AUTHOR OF "Personal Security Through Faith," and winner of sixteen competitive oratorical contests, Dr. Ditzen has been granted national awards for his sermons each year since 1950 by the Freedoms Foundation.

Widely active in social work, spiritual and mental hygiene, he has been guest minister on such radio and television programs as the "WOR Sunday Radio Chapel" and the "Dumont Television Chapel."

Dr. Ditzen will speak at 10 a. m. Friday and again at 8 p.m. in Pfeiffer Chapel, following the institute theme: "Achieving Self-Fulfillment through Understanding."

* * *

THE INSTITUTE opened on Monday with a panel discussion of the topic, "Achieving Satisfactions" and continued through Thursday with discussion groups, films and exhibits.

It will close on Sunday at which time Dr. Benjamin E. Mays, president of Morehouse College, Atlanta, Ga., will speak at 4 p.m. in Pfeiffer Chapel. A summary of the week-long events will also be given at this time.

Bennett hears Miss Stevens, churchwoman

WHPS 3/2/57

GREENSBORO, N.C. — The greatest need in the world today is for people to understand the cry of the human heart for food and freedom, Miss Thelma Stevens of NYC told the Bennett College vesper audience Sunday in Pfeiffer Chapel.

Miss Stevens, who is secretary of the department of Christian social relations of the Women's Division of Christian Service of the Methodist Church, declared that a bold declaration of the Gospel of Jesus Christ—a gospel of reconciliation and good will—is also greatly needed today.

* * *

"WE PROFESS TO be a democracy," she said, "but many times our behavior does not qualify us for that title. Our very immaturity as a nation sometimes makes us act abroad in ways that are often misunderstood."

Reminding her audience that people in other parts of the world know a great deal more about us than we do about them, she suggested that the United States might well demonstrate its leadership by thinking in terms of human welfare instead of merely fighting communism.

Miss Stevens called attention to a "great silence abroad in the world today," with many persons not speaking out their convictions because of fear.

* * *

"MUTUAL dependence and cooperation have replaced interdependence and isolation in the world," she said, adding that science has made the world so small so fast that man's mind and man's mode of living have not kept pace with it.

"The fact that people are talking about civil rights and civil rights legislation —whether on one side or the other," she continued, "is an important sign. It has been said that salvation comes by disturbance. Surely, the world today is a great cauldron of disturbance, out of which salvation might well come."

Homemaking Institute Closes

WHPS 4/1/57

"There can be complete self-fulfillment only when we live up to our maximum capacities," Dr. Benjamin E. Mays of Atlanta, Ga., said in an address that marked the close of the 31st Homemaking Institute yesterday at Bennett College.

Dr. Mays, president of Morehouse College, in keeping with the institute theme, spoke on "Guides to Achieving Self-Fulfillment through Understanding."

"People are born under different circumstances," he said, "some to great wealth, some to poverty. Some have parents with education and culture, some have parents who can neither read nor write. Some are born white, some brown, some black.

God-Given Status

"But we don't get our status in the world from family, race or college. We get that from God, and the founding fathers of this nation were speaking wiser than they knew when they said that God gives man certain inalienable rights.

"That is why it is so tragic to see certain forces in the deep South who try to act as if they were God," he noted.

Dr. Mays pointed out that man needs to understand that, although created in God's image, he is nothing "special," adding that man should treat his fellow man as an end, not as a means.

In achieving self-fulfillment, the speaker explained that it is necessary to accept life as it is, for there is no easy road. Much frustration and despair could be eliminated if more people learned this lesson, he said.

Mrs. Louise G. Streat, chairman of the Homemaking Institute committee, gave a brief summary of the week-long sessions.

High Point principal speaks at Bennett

GREENSBORO, N.C. — "Teaching in Transition" was the subject of an address delivered at Bennett College Monday morning by C. E. Yokely, principal of the Alfred J. Griffin Elementary School in High Point.

Speaking directly to Bennett seniors who will be seeking teaching jobs soon, Mr. Yokely told them that salaries can be made retroactive, but that the education of youth and professional efficiency cannot.

UN TALK AT BENNETT

GREENSBORO, N.C.—Members of the International Relations Club at Bennett College on Monday afternoon heard Al Lowenstein of NYC tell about the United Nations and how the club might cooperate in that organization's program.

Bennett, Sarah Lawrence Share Exchange Program

3/2/57

GREENSBORO, N. C. — Three Bennett College students left here Sunday for Sarah Lawrence College, Bronxville, N. Y., where they will spend two weeks as a part of an exchange program between the two colleges.

At the same time, three Sarah Lawrence students left their institution to spend a similar period at Bennett.

THE BENNETT students, all juniors, are: Misses Veronica Shipley, Baltimore; Carolyn Brown, Johnson City, Tenn., and Shirley Mae Moore, Camden, N. J. They will attend classes and engage in all other campus activities while there.

Leaving the campus at the same time were seven other student leaders who are making a tour of six Eastern colleges, from February 24 to March 5, to observe campus life and to confer with other student leaders.

College and Morgan State College in Baltimore; Hunter College, New York City; Brooklyn College, Vassar College, Poughkeepsie, N. Y., and Mt. Holyoke College, South Hadley, Mass.

IN THIS group are: Misses Mary Jane Williams, Winston-Salem; Barbara Campbell, Greensboro, and Edna Jackson, Ridgeway, S. C., all sophomores; Fredrica Washington, Beaufort, S. C. and Yvonne Wynne, Jamaica, N. Y., juniors, and Betty East, Pilot Mountain, and Barbara Hickman, Freeport, Ill., seniors.

Bennett College has also entered into a student-exchange agreement with Ohio Wesleyan University, Delawware, Ohio, in which six students of each institution are involved, from March 2 to 16.

Participating in this program will be: Mises Peggy Coefield, Kinston, N. C.; Fannie Miles, Drakes Branch, Va.; Jimmie English, Camden, S. C., and Shirley Waters, Dudley, N. C., all juniors, and Theoria Houton and Veronica Dean, sophomores, both of Miami, Florida.

(Daily News staff photo.)

ISRAELI STUDENTS ON TOUR

These four Israeli students on a brief tour of the South last night ended their two-day stay in Greensboro and today go to Raleigh for a continuation of their cultural series at colleges. Left to right, posed at their station wagon, are Eliezer Plotnik, Hava Kohav, Rafael Even and Hanoch Greenfeld.

PLEASED BY RECEPTION News 3/8/57

Israeli Students Make Hit With City Groups

Four Israeli students and students of two Greensboro colleges gave each other the once-over during the last two days and the dual inspection seemed mutually pleasant.

The four, sponsored by the U.S. National Students Association on a brief tour of the South, appeared at Greensboro College Friday night and at Bennett College yesterday afternoon and last night. At each school their presentation of music, songs, folk dances and a brief talk on Israel brought enthusiastic response from the audiences.

The touring foursome, in return, left no doubt as to their pleasure with their reception.

Studying In U.S.

Traveling in a station wagon, the Israeli students, all now studying in New York, gave audiences a glimpse of the cultural and historical aspects of the nation which gained its independence in 1948 under United Nations auspices.

In an informal talk before their Bennett appearance yesterday, they followed that same theme of carrying to their listeners the story of their nation, native to three of them and adopted land of the fourth.

Rafael Even, the speaker of the group, was born in Poland but moved to Israel with his family in 1933; Hava Kohav, the dancer, Hanoch Greenfeld, the pianist, and Eliezer Plotnik, the accordionist and singer, all were born on Israeli soil and received their education and training there.

Miss Kohav is a graduate of the Music Teachers College in Tel Avi and she, like the others, served i the Israeli Army. She has studie under Martha Grahame and Anthon Tudor and is now studying musi theory at the Juilliard School o Music.

Greenfeld, the pianist, also is studying at Juilliard and is in demand for concerts throughout the northeast section of the country, as well as in the Midwest. Plotnik, the accordionist and singer, also is a student of the theater and has acted in both Israeli and American theatrical companies. He is studying at the Mannes School of Music and Drama under a scholarship, which also is the mainstay of his three companions. All have received scholarships for their study.

Even has received his master's degree at New York University and is studying there for his Ph.D.

History Cited

In their appearances at colleges, Even briefly recites the basic history of Israel and the sources from which its culture has sprung, then Miss Kohav, Greenfeld and Plotnik present musically a thumbnail sketch of the young nation.

The lissome Miss Kohav's interpretive dances of the groups which have formed Israel, Plotnik's songs and stirring accordion music and Greenfeld's piano presentations follow Even's short address, and after the program they talk informally with members of their audience.

Their tour continues today when they are due in Raleigh, then they are to visit Chapel Hill, Columb S.C., and Atlanta, Ga., among oth cities. At each they will appe only at colleges and universitis

Asked about Israel's difficulties with neighboring nations, they skirt cautiously around the subject, but leave no doubt as to where their sympathies lie, even though all have been in this country three or more years. They are not actively seeking financial aid for their nation, but seek rather to give audiences a picture of Israel as it has been, is and they hope it to be.

Israel Music, Folk Dancing Well Received

News 3/15

A program showing Israel's culture in music and folk dancing was well received last night at Greensboro College.

Presented by the U.S. National Students Association and sponsored here by the Women's Student Government Association at the college, the program featured four Israeli students.

The group will perform today at Bennett College.

In explaining that Israel's culture is a fusion of Eastern and Western cultures, the moderator, Rafael Even told which was East and which was West as the program progressed.

Performers included Hanoch Greenfeld, now studying piano at the Juilliard School of Music in New York; Eliever Plotnik, singer and accordionist, and Hava Kohav, dancer now studying music at Julliard.

Greenfeld played Franck's "Preludes," Liszt's "Hungarian Rhapsody No. 13" and nocturnes by Israeli composers. Plotnik sang several Israeli folks songs in styles of various Jewish groups in Israel now. Miss Kohav did three interpretative numbers, wearing costumes of the groups represented by the folk dances.

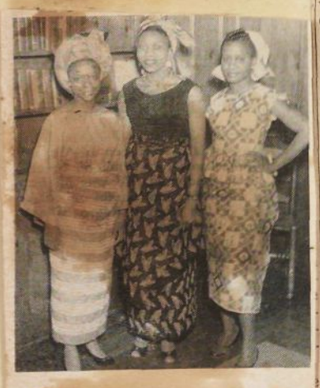

Girls And Advisers From Four States To Visit Bennett

An estimated 145 girls and 30 advisors from 43 high schools in North Carolina, South Carolina, Virginia and Georgia are expected to register at Bennett College today for the annual Youth Days event arranged to give them a glimpse of college life.

In addition to atending classes and laboratory periods of their choice, the visitors will take part in a talent show and be taken on a tour of points of interest in Greensboro.

Sunday at 1:30 p.m., they will be guests at a dinner at David D. Jones Student Union. Dr. Chauncey G. Winston, chairman of the Division of Social Science, will preside.

The visitors also will attend a vesper service at 4:15 p.m. Sunday when the speaker will be Dr. Samuel L. Gandy, dean of Lawless Memorial Chapel, Dillard University, New Orleans.

MARCH 15, 1957

Gandy Heard At Bennett

News 3/18/57

"Fear of Failure" was the subject for the sermon of Dr. Samuel L. Gandy, of New Orleans, at the Bennett College vesper service yesterday.

The minister, who is dean of the Lawless Memorial Chapel at Dillard University, said that many persons fail to take a stand on important issues because they fear failure.

"They are so anxious to conform with the majority," he said, "that they drain themselves of the substance of self because their stand would be interpreted by the majority as failure.

"Jesus was a failure—as far as the zealots of His time were concerned—because He did not conform to their ideas and to the standards which they had set up for Him. Yet, He went on to become the hope of mankind."

CLASS VISITS NEWSPAPER

The Journalism Class of Bennett College visited the plant of the Greensboro Daily News and The Greensboro Record yesterday. In the group were Carolyn Rhea Brown, Bettye Alexander, Grace M. Coleman, Mary E. Branch, Paula M. Edmunds, Barbara Elliott, Phebie L. Ewings and Julia McClain. They were accompanied by William I. Gibson, director of public relations at the college.

Bennett Head Challenges Seniors

A challenge to make their education purposeful was given to members of the senior class at Bennett College by President Willa B. Player, yesterday afternoon.

The occasion was the annual Senior Day program in Pfeiffer Chapel during which members of the class received their caps and gowns from their sister class—the sophomores.

Congratulating the seniors upon having reached this "milestone" in their careers, President Player said: "Between now and commencement, get all of the additional knowledge that you can; make the most of every resource, that you may later meet successfully the challenges of life."

Dr. Chauncey G. Winston read the names of 11 seniors who, at this point, are leading their class in scholarship.

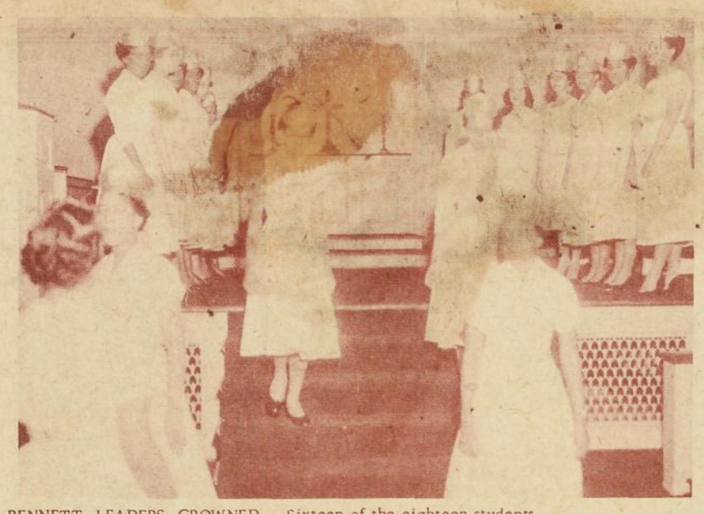

VESPER SPEAKER NAMED

Speaker at the 4 p.m. vesper service at Bennett College today will be Dr. J. Carter Swaim of New York City. Dr. Swaim is executive director of the Department of English Bible of the National Council of Churches of Christ in the U.S.A.

BENNETT MODELS SCORE---These six home economics majors at Bennett College, Greensboro, N. C., modeled the garments they are wearing in a fashion show that was the highlight of the Valentine's Day birthday dinner in the David D. Jones Student Union. They made the garments as a part of their study of clothing under Mrs. Louise G. Streat. Left to right: Misses Harlene Beavers, senior, of Danville, Va.; Pauline Jessup, junior, of Greensboro; Harriett Butler, junior, Cincinnati, Ohio; Rose Mary Wright, junior, Camden, S. C.; Joan Cooley, junior, Hendersonville, N. C., and Ann Cooper, senior, of Glendale, Ohio.

Awards & Birthday Dinner Highlight Bennett College Program

BENNETT LEADERS CROWNED---Sixteen of the eighteen students at Bennett College who by virtue of high scholarship are eligible to become members of Alpha Kappa Mu Honor Society are shown leaving rostrum following coronation ceremonies in Pfeiffer Chapel last week. In foreground left to right are: Misses Sonja Weldon, Chicago; Deloris Tonkins, Greensboro; Delores Casimere, Galveston, Texas; Onuma Uko, Nigeria, West Africa; In row at left on rostrum are left to right: Peggy Coefield, Kinston; Jean Renwick, Statesville; Margarie Mays, Greensboro; Gloria Blatch, Miami, Fla.; Shirley Hudson, Greensboro; Oyeyemi Salako, Nigeria, West Africa; In row at right, left to right are: Misses Jimmie English, Camden, S. C. (partially hidden); Dorothy Harris, Greensboro; Carolyn Ingram, Durham; Marion Moore, Marshall, Mo.; Julia McClain, Grady, Ala.; Veronica Shipley, Baltimore. Not shown are: Misses Paula Edmunds, Cinn.and Frederica Washington, Beaufort, S. C.

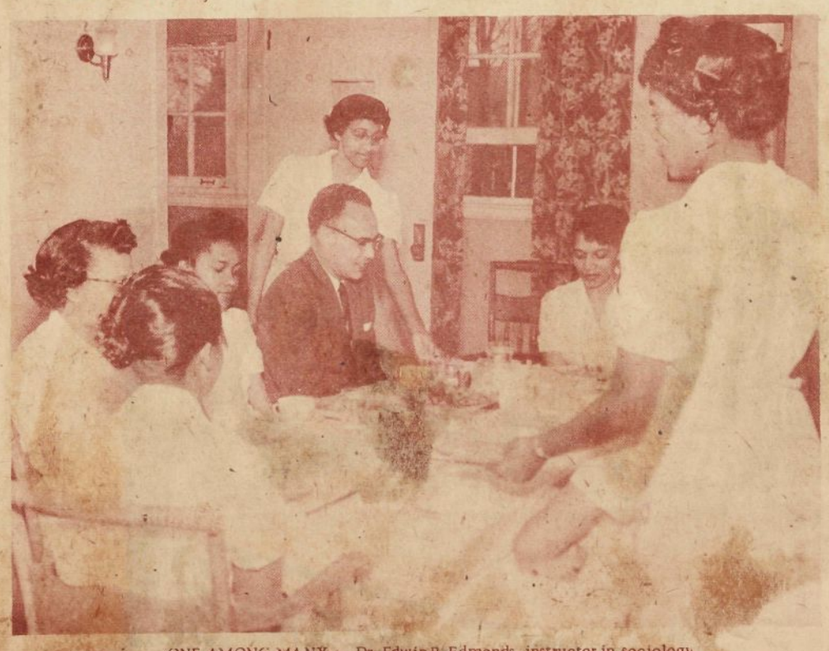

GET SCHOLARSHIP AWARDS---Dr. Willa B. Player, president of Bennett College, presents certificate to Deloris Tonkins, junior, of Greensboro, awarded by the Board of Education of the Methodist Church, while Miss Wilhelmina Bundy, sophomore, of Johnson City, Tenn., looks on. They are two of five Bennett students receiving national scholarships from the board for the 1956-57 academic year.

BENNETT BIRTHDAY DINNER---View of one section of dining hall in the David D. Jones Student Union at Bennett College during Valentine's Day huge Birthday Dinner. The Dinner honored students, faculty and staff members with birthdays in December, January and February.

BIRTHDAY DINNER HIGHLIGHT--Dr. Willa B. Player, president of Bennett College, reads names of guests who were honored at Valentine's Day Birthday Dinner at Bennett College. Others in photo, left to right, are Miss Millie Adams, Princeton, W. Va.; Mrs. Louise G. Streat, clothing insturctor, whose students staged a fashion show, and Miss Barbara Graves, Pelham, N. C.

ONE AMONG MANY---Dr. Edwin R. Edmonds, instructor in sociology at Bennett College Greensboro, N. C., was the lone male present when members of the advanced class in food planning, preparation and service sat down to sample their culinary efforts at a luncheon last week. Reading counter-clockwise from head of table are: Ruby Starks, hostess, Troutman, N. C.; Dr. Edmunds, Minnie Strone, Spring Hope, N. C.; Edith Tucker, Elkin, N. C. and Marjorie Wilson, Clinton, N. C. Serving Dr. Edmonds is Louise Pittman. Charlotte, other waitress, Lillie Cooper, Johnsonville, S. C., hides Arneese Woods, Darlington, S. C., Dolores Snellings, Raleigh, and Patricia Woodfork, Reidsville.

OFF TO SARAH LAWRENCE---These three Bennett juniors are shown as they left last week for Sarah Lawrence College, Bronxville, New York where they will spend two weeks as exchange students. Reading from left to right: Misses Carolyn Brown, Johnson City, Tenn.; Shirley Mae Moore, Camden, N. J. and Veronica Shipley, Baltimore, Md.

133

147 Bennett Students Make Honor Roll

Of the 147 students earning places on the first semester honor roll at Bennett College, 14 had a straight "A" average.

This announcement of scholastic achievement was made Friday during the Student Recognition Day program sponsored by Alpha Kapa Mu honor society.

Students with perfect averages are:

SENIORS — Jacqueline Hamlett, Dorothy A. Harris, Gwendolyn Harris, Shirley J. Hudson and Margarie B. Mays, all of Greensboro; Jacqueline McAlister Kingstree, S. C.; Marion Moore, Marshall, Mo.; Geraldine W. Parrish, Glendale, Ohio; Sylvia Pretlow, Rocky Mount; Cynthia J. Speas, Winston-Salem and Sara C. Williams, Henderson, N. Carolina.

JUNIORS — Jimmie English, Camden, S. C.; Fredrica Washington, Beaufort, S. C. and Sonja Weldon, Chicago.

Speaker for the occasion was Dr. J. Henry Sayles, chairman of the science division, who spoke on "Streamlining the Mind for Scholarship."

Dr. Sayles urged that the students first get the facts, examine them thoroughly through reasoning, and suspend judgment until all inferences have been tested by an examination of the evidence.

Calling upon the students to set high goals for themselves, the speaker said: "The wish to learn and the will to learn are different. The wish is general and diffused, but the will is specific and concentrated. The wish means that we hope for something to happen, the will that we are willing to make it happen."

Miss Geraldine Parrish, president of the Bennett chapter, gave the history and purpose of the society. Miss Jacqueline McAlister, secretary-treasurer, gave the call to worship and sang the Alpha Kapa Mu hymn, while Miss Grace Dungee, vice-president, introduced the speaker and made the citations.

Annoucement was made of the eligibility of the following students for membership in Alpha Kappa Mu:

SENIORS — Gloria Blatch, Miami, Fla.; Paula Edmunds, Cincinnati, Ohio; Dorothy Harris, Greensboro; Shirley Hudson, Greensboro; Carolyn Ingram, Durham; Margarie Mays, Greensboro; Julia McClain, Grady, Ala.; Marion Moore, Marshall, Mo., and Jean Renwick, Statesville, N. C.;

JUNIOR — Delores Casimere, Galveston, Texas; Peggy Coefield, Kinston; Jimmie English, Camden, S. C.; Oyeyemi Salako, Nigeria, West Africa; Veronica Shipley, Baltimore, Md.; Deloris Tonkins, Greensboro; Onuma Uko, Nigeria, West Africa; Fredrica Washington, Beaufort, S. C., and Sonja Weldon, Chicago, Ill.

The complete honor roll listing follows:

SENIORS — Precious L. Aldrich, McBee, S. C.; Deloris L. Alexander, Winston-Salem, Alice M. Badgett, Pelham; Gloria A. Blatch, Miami, Fla.; Mary E. Branch, Henderson; Gladys Bridgers, Wilson; Lena P. Brooks, Hillsboro; Grace M. Coleman, Charlotte; Ann M. Cooper, Glendale, Ohio; Carolyn Crawford, Morristown, Tenn.; Thelma Culbreth, New York; Harriette A. Daniels, Moultrie, Ga.

Agnes P. Dixon, Burlington; Grace E. Dungee, Greensboro; Bettie J. Echols, Greensboro; Paula M. Edmunds, Cincinnati; Mayme Ellerbe, Cheraw, S. C.; Queen Farrish, Roxboro; Cloia D. Ford, Henderson; Helen Frances, Lumberton; Tiny A. Gaddy, Winston-Salem; Barbara A. Graves, Pelham; Helen Green, New York; Phyllis E. Henry, Odessa, Del.

Barbara J. Hickman, Freeport, Ill.; Bettye J. Higgins, Greensboro; Virginia M. Holland, Superior, W. Va.; Mary F. Holloway, Meridian, Miss.; Carolyn M. Ingram, Durham; Rutha A. Johnson, Mebane; Doris A. Lanier, Bath, N. C.; Fannie J. Lewis, Grady, Ala.; Annie C. McGimpsey, Morganton; Mattie B. McRae, Laurinburg; Mary E. Miller, Lynchburg, Va.

Jeanne Moore, Rich Square; Shirley Ann Moore, Jamaica, N. Y.; Delores Noble, Greensboro; Ida F. Parker, Mebane; Blondelle Reid, Greensboro; Jean Renwick, Statesville; Betty S. Robinson, Greensboro; Annie R. Simpson, Greensboro; Marie A. Slaughter, Newport, Ky.; Peggie Smith, Greensboro; Ann M. Stewart, Reidsville; Margaret Tatum,, Greensboro;

Sylvia E. Tyson, New Haven, Conn.; Consuelo L. Watkins, Danville, Va.; Martinele West, Chicago, Ill.; Doris Y. Young, Morganton.

JUNIORS — Carole J. Anderson, Greenville, S. C.; Grace E. Atkinson, Four Oaks; Bernice Brooks, Columbus, Miss.; Carolyn R. Brown, Johnson City, Tenn.; Peggy A. Coefield, Kinston; Honora L. Glover, Asheboro; Ruby B. Harris; Greensboro; Patricia A. Hopkins, Miami, Fla.; Willie D. Jackson, Red Springs; Sonia Louden, Cincinnati; Lola McAdoo, Greensboro; Ann R. McCoy, Elizabeth City;

Fannie L. Miles, Drakes Branch, Va.; Shirley Mae Moore, Camden, N. J.; Ann L. Richmond, Greensboro; Oyeyemi Salako, Nigeria, West Africa; Veronica A. Shipley, Baltimore; Vinia Spivey, New York; Frances P. Thurston, Miami, Fla.; Deloris Tonkins, Greensboro; Onuma A. Uko, Nigeria, West Africa; Carole S. Wade, Graham; Mable S. Waters, Dudley; Rosemary Wright, Camden, S. C.; Yvonne A. Wynne, Jamaica, N. Y.

SOPHOMORES — Millie A. Adams, Princeton, W. Va.; Ida R. Bullock, Manson; Wilhelmina R. Bundy, Johnson City, Tenn.; Barbara E. Campbell, Greensboro; Jamesena Chalmers, Fayetteville; Veronica L. Dean, Miami, Fla; Eleanor B. Fields, Richmond, Va.; Wilhelma G. Gatewood, Gary, W. Va.; Rosalind H. Goodson, Clayton, N. C.; Marion G. Grant, Macon, Ga.; Janie M. Graves, Greensboro; Mildred L. Hamlett, Semora.

Cecile E. Harrison, Houston, Texas; Ruth F. Hawkins, Louisburg; Vivian L. Hopkins, Miami, Fla.; Theoria B. Houston, Miami, Fla.; Edna D. Jackson, Ridgeway, S. C.; Inez C. Jones, Lenoir; Sarah R. Lawrence, Evanston, Ill.; Carolyn V. Lowry, Greensboro; Carolyn P. Martin, Durham; Emma L. Martin. Mt. Olive; Geraldine McDade, Efland; Rivers E. Millner, Draper;

Barbara J. Moyer, White Plains, N. Y.; Nannie G. Poole, Baltimore; Josephine A. Raiford, Greensboro; Martha L. Reid, Greenville, N. C.; Viola Royster, Plainfield, N. J.; Helen Shaw, Laurinburg; Mary E. Shoffner, Greensboro; Essie F. Smith, Timberlake; Ruby N. Starks, Troutman; Mary Jane Williams, Winston-Salem.

FRESHMEN — Johnsi e M. Adams, Leaksville; Jacqueline A. Ball, Philadelphia; Duella Bass, Greensboro; Gwendolyn V. Bell, Cincinnati; Sylvania D. Black, Marlin, Texas; Lila M. Blanding, Sumter, S. C.; Mary E. Boone, Sanford; Rosemary R. Favors, Detroit; Edna O. Jones, Lenoir; Dorothy Jordan, Goldsboro; Nancy J. Kirby, Haddonfield, N, J.; Hilda G. Lewis, St. Thomas, Virgin Islands; Lucy R. Martin, Reidsville; Agatha M. Ricks, Elm City.

Laura F. Sawyer, Salisbury; Mary C. Smith, Greensboro; Edna P. Thomas, Willow Run, Mich.; Edith M. Tucker, Elkin; Geraldine Williams, Fayetteville; Lillie Belle Wright, Greensboro; Edna M. Zachary, Hertford.

REV. HAROLD HIPPS, SPEAKS AT BENNETT

If we are not prepared for upsetting experiences, we are not conditioned for life, the Rev. R. Harold Hipps, said in his vesper sermon at Bennett College Sunday.

The Rev. Mr. Hipps, who is minister of education at the West Market Street Methodist Church, declared that life is full of annoying and costly interruptions and reminded his audience that people were always interrupting Jesus.

MISS THELMA STEVENS VESPER SPEAKER

The greatest need in the world today is for people to understand the cry of the human heart for food and freedom, Miss Thelma Stevens of New York City told the Bennett College vesper audience Sunday afternoon in Pfeiffer Chapel.

Miss Stevens, who is secretary of the Department of Christian Social Relations of the Woman's Division of Christian Service of the Methodist Church, declared that a bold declaration of the Gospel of Jesus Christ — a gospel of reconciliation and good will — is also greatly needed today.

"We profess to be a democracy," she said, "but many times our behavior does not qualify us for that title. Our very immaturity as a nation sometimes makes us act abroad in ways that are often misunderstood."

Reminding her audience that people in other parts of the world know a great deal more about us than we do about them, she suggested that the United States might well demonstrate its leadership by thinking in terms of human welfare instead of merely fighting communism.

Miss Stevens called attention to a "great silence abroad in the world today." with many persons not speaking out their convictions because of fear. Mutual dependence and cooperation have replaced interpendence and isolation in the world, she said, adding that science nas made the world so small so fast that man's mind and man's mode of living have not kept pace with it.

"The fact that people are talking about civil rights and civil rights legislation — whether on one side or the other," she continued, "is an important sign. It has been said that salvation comes by disturbance. Surely the world today is a great caulderon of disturbance, out of which salvation might well come."

BENNETT STUDENT LEADERS ON TOUR AND EXCHANGE PROGRAM

(Continued from Page 1)

same time were seven other student leaders who are making a tour of six Eastern colleges, from February 24 to March 5, to observe campus life and to confer with other student leaders.

They will visit Goucher College and Morgan State College in Baltimore; Hunter College, New York City; Brooklyn College, Vassar College, Poughkeepsie, N. Y., and Mt. Holyoke College, South Hadley, Mass.

In this group are: Misses Mary Jane Williams, Winston-Salem; Barbara Campbell, Greensboro, and Edna Jackson, Ridgeway S. C., all sophomores; Fredrica Washington, Beaufort, S. C. and Yvonne Wynne, Jamaica, N. Y., juniors, and Betty East, Pilot Mountain, and Barbara Hickman, Freeport, Ill., seniors.

Bennett College has also entered into a student-exchange agreement with Ohio Wesleyan University, Delaware, Ohio, in which six students of each institution are involved, from March 2 to 16.

Participating in this program will be: Misses Peggy Coefield, Kinston, N. C.; Fannie Miles, Drakes Branch, Va.; Jimmie English, Camden, S. C., and Shirley Waters, Dudley, N. C. all juniors and Theoria Houston and Veronica Dean, sophomores, both of Miami, Florida.

RELIGIOUS DIRECTOR, VESPER SPEAKER

Jesus is the greatest teacher that the world has ever known and the truths that He taught to the people of His day are just as applicable to the present generation.

The Rev. John L. Bryan, director of religious activities at Bennett College, ushering in the Lenten season at the college, gave this appraisal at Sunday afternoon's vesper service in Pfeiffer Chapel.

"Jesus has left us a climate of moral judgment for this age and all to come," the minister declared. "True, he had nothing to say about slavery or about labor unions as such, but He gave up His whole life defending the principal that all men are brothers.

"He declined the challenge to transform stones into bread because He came instead to transform men. It is not necessary, therefore, for us to seek the laws of Jesus if we have the spirit of Jesus."

Overstreets At Bennett College

GREENSBORO

Two of the nation's most outstanding psychologist, authors and lecturers have been named as consultants for the 31st annual Homemaking Institute at Bennett College, March 25-31, it was announced this week.

Dr. Harry A. Overstreet and his wife, Mrs. Bonaro W. Overstreet, whose psychological books and syndicated newspaper column, "Making Life Make Sense," have established them as leaders in the field of self-understanding and human relations, will lecture and lead discussions centered around the institute's theme of: "Achieving Self-Fulfillment Through Understanding."

Minister Speaks On Life Upsets

If we are not prepared for upsetting experiences, we are not conditioned for life, the Rev. R. Harold Hipps said in his vesper sermon at Bennett College yesterday morning.

The Rev. Mr. Hipps, who is minister of education at the West Market Street Methodist Church, said that life is full of annoying and costly interruptions and reminded his audience that people were always interrupting Jesus.

"One of life's major problems," he stated, "is how to handle these interruptions. There are three ways to handle them. First, we may take them resentfully, or secondly, we may accept them stoically.

"But the third, and best, way to take them, is the Christian way — that is, by taking life's interruptions creatively, using them to add new height to our stature."

OFF TO SARAH LAWRENCE — These three Bennett juniors are shown as they left last week for Sarah Lawrence College, Bronxville, New York, where they will spend two weeks as exhcange students. Reading from left to right: Misses Carolyn Brown, Johnson City, Tenn.; Shirley Mae Moore, Camden, N. J.; and Veronica Shipley, Baltimore, Md.

Warren Urban League Forum Session, Sun.

MRS. W. B. PLAYER

WARREN—The Health and Welfare Committee of the Warren Urban League will hold the second session of the Warren Urban League Forum 1956-57. Series on Sunday, March 10, 1957. The meeting will be held in Fellowship Hall, First Methodist Church, at 4:00 p. m.

The speaker will be Willa Beatrice Player, Ed. D., LL.D., President of Bennett College, Greensboro, N. C., whose subject will be "New Occasions Teach New Duties." Dr. Player is a native Ohioan, whose home is in Akron. She did her undergraduate work at Ohio Wesleyan University, and earned her M.A. Degree at Oberlin College. She also received her Certificate d'Etudes at theUniversity of Grenoble, Grenoble France; later she did graduate work at the University of Chicago and the University of Wisconsin; receiving her Doctor of Education at Columbia University and her Doctor of Laws at her Alma Mater, Ohio Wesleyan.

Bennett Leaders

Eighteen students at Bennett College who by virtue of high scholarship are eligible to become members of Alpha Kappa Mu Honor Society were crowned during coronation ceremonies in Pfeiffer chapel last week. They are: Misses Sonja Weldon, Chicago; Deloris Tonkins, Greensboro; Delores Casimere, Galveston, Tex.; Onuma Uko, Nigeria, West Afrisca; Peggy Coefield, Kinston; Jean Renwick, Statesville; Margarie Mays, Greensboro; Gloria Blatch, Miami, Fla.; Shirley Hudson, Greensboro; Oyemi Salako, Nigeria, West Africa.

Also Misses Jimmie English, Camden, S. C.; Dorothy Harris, Greensboro; Carolyn Ingram, Durham; Marion Moore, Marshall, Mo.; Julia McClain, Grady, Ala.; Veronica Shipley, Baltimore; Paula Edmunds, Cincinnati, and Fredrica Washington, Beaufort, S. C.

Outstanding Authors Consultants For Home-Making Institute

Two of the nation's most outstanding psychologists, authors and lecturers have been named as consultants for the 31st annual Homemaking Institute at Bennett College, March 25-31, it was announced this week.

Dr. Harry A. Overstreet and his wife, Mrs. Bonaro W. Overstreet, whose psychological book and syndicated newspaper column, "Making Life Make Sense," have established them as leaders in the field of self-understanding and human relations, will lecture and lead discussions centered around the institute's theme of: "Achieving Self-Fulfillment Through Understanding."

The institute will open formally in Pfeiffer Chapel at 10 a. m. on Monday, March 25, with a panel discussion, "Achieving Satisfaction," Tuesday will be given over to films and exhibits.

On Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock, Dr. and Mrs. Overstreet will discuss the topic: "Understanding Myself." Discussion of this topic will be continued at two 2:30 p.m. sessions, each of which will have one of the Overstreets as leader.

That night, at the mid-week vesper service, Mrs. Overstreet will discuss: "Myself in Relation to All of Life." At 8 p.m., they will discuss the same topic at a meeting with special emphasis for the Greensboro community and in which a number of local individuals and organizations are expected to take part.

Probably the best known of the many books that Dr. Overstreet has individually authored is "The Mature Mind," which was a Book-of-the-Month selection and which stayed on the best seller lists for over two years. "The Great Enterprise," which followed, also proved to be a best seller.

More recently, in collaboration with his wife, he has published "The Mind Alive," and more recently still, "The Mind Goes Forth," which bears all of the earmarks of another best seller.

Mrs. Overstreet, who has written "How to Think About Ourselves" and "Understanding Fear," also has several books in the field of poetry.

Final session of the institute will be held on Sunday, March 31, at 4 p.m., at which time, Dr. Benjamin E. Mays, president of Morehouse College, Atlanta, Ga., will deliver the principal address.

Off To Sarah Lawrence

These three Bennett College juniors, are shown as they left last week for Sarah Lawrence College, Bronxville, New York, where they will spend two weeks as exchange students. Reading from left to right: Misses Carolyn Brown, Johnson City, Tenn.; Shirley Mae Moore, Camden, N. Y., and Veronica Shipley, Baltimore, Md.

14 Students Get All A's At Bennett

4 "A" STUDENTS AT Bennett

GREENSBORO—Of the 147 students earning places on the first semester honor roll at Bennett College, 14 had a straight "A" average.

This announcement of scholastic achievement was made Friday during the Student Recognition Day program sponsored by Alpha Kappa Mu honor society.

Students with perfect averages are:

Seniors: Jacqueline Hamlett, Dorothy A. Harris, Shirley J. Hudson and MargarieB.asMy -dMw9-oydR-fTFzu-VE rie B. Mays, all of Greensboro; Jacqueline McAlister, Kingstree, S. C.; Marion Moore, Marshall, Mo.; Geraldine W. Parrish, Glendale, Ohio; Sylvia Pretlow, Rocky Mount; Cynthia J. Speas, Winston-Salem and Sara C. Williams, Henderson.

Juniors: Jimmie English, Camden, S. C.; Fredrica Washington, Beaufort, S. C. and Sonja Weldon, Chicago.

Speaker for the occasion was Dr. J. Henry Sayles, chairman of the science division, who spoke on "Streamlining the Mind for Scholarship."

Dr. Sayles urged that the students first get the facts, examine them thoroughly through reasoning, and suspend judgment until all inferences have been tested by an examination of the evidence.

Calling upon the students to set high goals for themselves, the speaker said: "The wish to learn and the will to learn are different. The wish is general and diffused, but the will is specific and concentrated. The wish means that we hope for something to happen, the will that we are willing to make it happen."

Miss Geraldine Parrish, president of the Bennett chapter, gave the history and purpose of the society. Miss Jacqueline McAlister, secretary-treasurer, gave the call to worship and sang the Alpha Kappa Mu hymn, while Miss Grace Dungee, vice president, introduced the speaker and made the citations.

Announcement was made of the eligibility of the following students for membership in Alpha Kappa Mu:

Seniors: Gloria Blatch, Miami, Fla.; Paula Edmunds, Cincinnati, Ohio; Dorothy Harris, Greensboro; Shirley Hudson, Greensboro; Carolyn Ingram, Durham; Margarie Mays, Greensboro; Julia McClain, Grady, Ala.; Marion Moore, Marshall, Mo., and Jean Renwick, of Statesville.

Juniors: Delores Casimere, Galveston, Texas; Peggy Coefield, Kinston; Jimmie English, Camden, S. C.; Oyeyemi Salako, Nigeria, West Africa; Veronica Shipley, Baltimore, Md.; Deloris Tonkins, Greensboro; Onuma Uko, Nigeria, West Africa; Fredrica Washington, Beaufort, S. C., and Sonja Weldon, Chicago, Ill.

The complete honor roll listing follows:

Seniors: Precious L. Aldrich, McBee, S. C.; Deloris L. Alexander, Winston-Salem; Alice M. Badgett, Pelham; Gloria A. Blatch, Miami, Fla.; Mary E. Branch, Henderson; Gladys Bridgers, Wilson; Lena P. Brooks, Hillsboro; Grace M. Coleman, Charlotte; Ann M. Cooper, Glendale, Ohio; Carolyn Crawford, Morristown, Tenn.; Thelma Culbreth, New York; Harriette A. Daniels, Moultrie, Ga.

Agnes P. Dixon, Burlington; Grace E. Dungee, Greensboro; Bettie J. Echols, Greensboro; Paula M. Edmunds, Cincinnati; Mayme Ellerbe, Cheraw, S. C.; Queen Farrish, Roxboro; Cloia D. Ford, Henderson; Helen Frances, Lumberton; Tiny A. Gaddy, Winston-Salem; Barbara A. Graves, Pelham; Helen Green, New York; Phyllis E. Henry, Odessa, Del.

Barbara J. Hickman, Freeport, Ill.; Bettye J. Higgins, Greensboro; Virginia M. Holland, Superior, W. Va.; Mary F. Holloway, Meridian, Miss.; Carolyn M. Ingram, Durham; Rutha A. Johnson, Mebane; Doris A. Lanier, Bath, N. C.; Fannie J. Lewis, Grady, Ala.; Annie C. McGimpsey, Morganton; Mattie B. McRae, Laurinburg; Mary E. Miller, Lynchburg, Va.

Jeanne Moore, Rich Square; Shirley Ann Moore, Jamaica, N. Y.; Delores Noble, Greensboro; Ida F. Parker, Mebane; Blondelle Reid, Greensboro; Jean Renwick, Statesville; Betty S. Robinson, Greensboro; Annie R. Simpson, Greensboro; Marie A. Slaughter, Newport, Ky.; Peggie Smith, Greensboro; Ann M. Stewart, Reidsville; Margaret Tatum, Greensboro.

Sylvia E. Tyson, New Haven, Conn.; Consuelo L. Watkins, Danville, Va.; Martinele West, Chicago, Ill.; Doris Y. Young, Morganton;

Juniors: Carole J. Anderson, Greenville, S. C.; Grace E. Atkinson, Four Oaks; Bernice Brooks, Columbus, Miss.; Carolyn R. Brown, Johnson City, Tenn.; Peggy A. Coefield, Kinston; Horace Glover, Asheboro; Ruby B. Harris, Greensboro; Patricia A. Hopkins, Miami, Fla.; Willie D. Jackson, Red Springs; Sonia Louden, Cincinnati; Lola McAdoo, Greensboro; Ann R. McCoy, Elizabeth City;

Fannie L. Miles, Drakes Branch, Va.; Shirley Mae Moore, Camden, N. J.; Ann L. Richmond, Greensboro; Oyeyemi Salako, Nigeria W. Africa; Veronica A. Shipley, Baltimore; Vinia Spivey, New York; Frances P. Thurston, Miami, Fla.; Deloris Tonkins, Greensboro; Onuma A. Uko, Nigeria, West Africa; Carole S. Wade, Graham; Mable S. Waters, Dudley; Rosemary Wright, Camden, S. C.; Yvonne A. Wynne, Jamaica, N. Y.;

Sophomores: Mille A. Adams, Princeton, W. Va.; Ida R. Bullock, Manson; Wilhelmina R. Bundy, Johnson City, Tenn.; Barbara E. Campbell, Greensboro; Jamesena Chalmers, Fayetteville; Veronica L. Dean, Miami, Fla.; Eleanor B. Fields, Richmond, Va.; Wilhelma G. Gatewood, Gary, W. Va.; Rosalind H. Goodson, Clayton, N. C.; Marion G Grant, Macon, Ga.; Janie M Graves, Greensboro; Mildred L. Hamlett, Semora;

Cecile E. Harrison, Houston, Texas; Ruth F. Hawkins, Louisburg; Vivian L. Hopkins, Miami, Fla.; Theoria B. Houston, Miami, Fla.; Edna D. Jackson, Ridgeway, S. C.; Inez C Jones, Lenoir; Sarah R. Lawrence, Evanston, Ill.; Carolyn V. Lowry, Greensboro; Carolyn P. Martin, Durham; Emma L. Martin, Mt. Olive; Geraldine McDade, Efland; Rivers E. Millner, Draper;

Barbara J. Moyer, White Plains, N. Y.; Nannie G. Poole, Baltimore; Josephine A. Raiford, Greensboro; Martha L. Reid, Greenville; Viola Royster, Plainfield, N. J.; Mae Helen Shaw, Laurinburg; Mary E. Shoffner, Greensboro; Essie F. Smith, Timberlake; Ruby N. Starks, Troutman; Mary Jane Williams, Winston-Salem;

Freshmen: Johnsie M. Adams, Leaksville; Jacqueline A. Ball, Philadelphia; Duella L. Bass, Greensboro; Gwendolyn V. Bell, Cincinnati; Sylvania D. Black, Marlin, Texas; Lila M. Blanding, Sumter, S. C.; Mary E. Boone, Sanford; Rosemary R. Favors, Detroit; Edna O. Jones, Lenoir; Dorothy Jordan, Goldsboro; Nancy J. Kirby, Haddonfield, N. J.; Hilda D. Lewis, St. Thomas, Virgin Islands; Lucy R. Martin, Reidsville; Agatha M. Ricks, Elm City.

Laura F. Sawyer, Salisbury; Mary C. Smith, Greensboro; Edna P Thomas, Willow Run, Mich.; Edith M. Tucker, Elkin; Geraldine Williams, Fayetteville; Lillie Belle Wright, Greensboro; Edna M. Zachary, Hertford.

Overstreets on home institute

GREENSBORO, N.C. — Two of the nation's most outstanding psychologists, authors and lecturers have been named as consultants for the 31st annual Homemaking Institute at Bennett College, March 25-31, it was announced this week.

Dr. Harry A. Overstreet and his wife, Mrs. Bonaro W. Overstreet, whose psychological books and syndicated newspaper column, "Making Life Make Sense," have established them as leaders in the field of self-understanding and human relations, will lecture and lead discussions centered around the institute's theme of: "Achieving Self-Fulfillment Through Understanding."

* * *

THE INSTITUTE will open formally in Pfeiffer Chapel at 10 a.m. on Monday, March 25, with a panel discussion, "Achieving Satisfactions." Tuesday will be given over to films and exhibits.

On Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock, Dr. and Mrs. Overstreet will discuss the topic: "Understanding Myself." Discussion of this topic will be con-

Miss Dorothy Harris, Shelton Williams To Wed

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde J. Harris of Greensboro, North Carolina announce the engagement of their daughter, Dorothy Ann to Shelton D. Williams, son of Mrs. Mary G. Williams and the late Mr. Booker T. Williams of Greensboro.

A June 1st Wedding is planned at Our Lady of the Miraculous Medal Catholic Church.

The bride-elect is a senior at Bennett College and will receive her degree in May.

The Groom is a 1955 graduate of the Agricultural and Technical College of Greensboro. He is now serving with the 356th Army Band, Fort Belvoir, Virginia.

Methodist in student exchange

GREENSBORO, N.C. — A student exchange program between a white university in Ohio and a college for colored girls in North Carolina, both schools of the Methodist Church, is now under way.

Dr. Willa Player, president of Bennett College, Greensboro, N.C., announces that six girls from Bennett, are spending two weeks on the campus of Ohio Wesleyan University at Delaware.

On March 31, four white girls from Wesleyan will go to the North Carolina campus, she added. Under the exchange, worked out by the Bennett and Wesleyan faculties, the students will enter completely into the life of the campus, Dr. Player said.

"In effect, our Bennett girls will be Wesleyan students for two weeks and the Wesleyan girls will be Bennett students," she said. "At each school, the girls will sit in the classes in which they are enrolled at their own school. They will live in dormitories, participate in chapel and assembly programs and take part in those extracurricular activities in which they are enrolled in their own school."

Dr. Player sees the exchange plan as an effective means of beginning to break down racial barriers on the college campus and of preparing college students for the coming of integration.

Bennett Will Mark Annual Senior Day

News 3/22/55

The annual Senior Day at Bennett College will be observed today, with a formal program in Pfeiffer Chapel inaugurating activities.

Dr. Willa B. Player, president of the school, will make the principal address during the program, then Dr. Chauncey G. Winston, chairman of the Social Science Division, will announce honors and present class members for their caps and gowns. Seniors will be robed by members of the sophomore class.

After the chapel program a magnolia will be planted in front of the Pfeiffer Science Hall in memory of Mrs. J. W. Masland of Philadelphia, Pa., benefactress of the school, and at 6:30 p.m. seniors will be guests of the sophomores at a banquet in the Student Union.

mercy of those upon whom she depends. She may often have to react in a way completely contrary to her real desires, and in the end, may turn others against her."

Dr. Edwin R. Edmonds, Bennett sociology instructor, referred to the human individual as a "corporation," representing the investments of many who preceded him. Such a person, he stated, if mature, soon realizes this debt to others and seeks to repay it by making a contribution to their welfare.

"If we concentrate on the problems of others," he said, "we do not have the time to brood over our own problems or inadequacies. This is one of life's great satisfactions."

Mrs. Barbara Wells, a Bennett graduate, now teaching at the Dudley High School here, told of how women can successfully combine marriage and a career, and get satisfaction out of both.

"Marriage is not considered today as a state, but as an adjustment," she declared. "Where husband and wife both work, it is necessary that both make

Cleric says life is full of problems

GREENSBORO, N.C. — If we are not prepared for upsetting experiences, we are not conditioned for life, the Rev. R. Harold Hipps said in his vesper sermon at Bennett College last Sunday.

The Rev. Mr. Hipps, who is minister of education at the West Market Street Methodist Church, declared that life is full of annoying and costly interruptions and reminded his audience that people were always interrupting Jesus.

"One of life's major problems," he stated, "is how to handle these interruptions. First, we may take them resentfully, or secondly, we may accept them stoically. But the third, and best, way to take them is the Christian Way."

J. HENRY SAYLES AWARDED THE PH. D. DEGREE

J. Henry Sayles, chairman of the science division at Bennett College, was awarded the Ph. D. degree in chemistry at the fall convocation of Ohio State University last Thursday. December 20.

Dr. Sayles, a native of San Antonio, Texas, has been a member of Bennett faculty since 1947. He did his undergraduate work at Arkansas State College and received his M. S. from Michigan State University.

His research was concerned with polyamine polyacetate metal chelating agents.

Miss Dungee Member Of Mag Board

GREENSBORO — Miss Grace Dungee, of Greensboro, a senior at Bennett College, was notified this week of her appointment to the national college board of Mademoiselle magazine.

She is the second Bennett student to be so honored, Miss Ruth Reese, a 1956 graduate, having been named in her junior year. Miss Dungee was one of 650 students who competed to win a place on the board.

Shirley Waters, all juniors, and Veronica D... both of Miami

Israelites present Bennett program

GREENSBORO, N.C. — Four Israeli students, now studying at American colleges and universities, presented a program at Bennett College Saturday.

Rafael Even, who moderated the program, explained that Israel's culture is a fusion of Eastern and Western cultures. Other participants were Hanoch Greenfeld, pianist; Eliever Plotnik, singer and accordionist, and Hava Kohav, dancer.

Greenfeld and Miss Kohav are studying at the Julliard School of Music in New York.

TWO BENNETT SENIORS AWARDED SCHOLARSHIPS

Two members of the senior class at Bennett College have been notified that they have been awarded scholarships for study in the field of religion for the 1957-58 school year.

Miss Julia McClain, of Grady, Alabama, has been awarded a scholarship to the Hartford (Conn.) Theological Seminary, where she will begin studying in September for the Bachelor of Divinity degree. The one-year award which is renewable, was made by the scholarship committee of the Womans' Board of the Seminary.

Miss Phyllis Henry of Odessa, Delaware, was awarded a scholarship to the Boston University School of Theology where, beginning in September, she will pursue work in the field of religious education.

PRINCIPAL AND PROSPECTS C. E. Yokely, principal of the Alfred J. Griffin School High Point, enjoys a laugh with some teacher prospects at Bennett College following his address there last week. Left to right: Misses Barbara Hammond, Winston-Salem; Audrey Mead, Bristol, Tenn.; Ann Cooper, Glendale, Ohio; Martinele West, Chicago, Il Jean Lewis and Christine M Gimpsey of Morganton, and Ja queline Jeffries, Greensboro.

Be Prepared For Upsetting Experiences, Rev. R. Harold Hipps Tells Vesper Group

GREENSBORO — If we are not prepared for upsetting experiences, we are not conditioned for life, the Rev. R. Harold Hipps, said in his vesper sermon at Bennett College Sunday.

The Rev. Mr. Hipps, who is minister of education at the West Market Street Methodist Church, declared that life is full of annoying and costly interruptions and reminded his audience that people were always interrupting Jesus.

"One of life's major problems," he stated, "is how to handle these interruptions. There are three ways to handle them. First, we may take them resentfully, or secondly, we may accept them stoically.

"But the third, and best. way to take them is the Christian way — even the cross — into a thing of beauty. He said further that there is no use in resenting the inevitable but rather that life's shocks should be taken with resilience, much as an automobile tire takes the shocks of the highway.

"Accept the fact," he continued, "that life was not intended to run smoothly. A vast uneasiness has come over the world and will probably remain. We are perhaps the most interrupted generation in history. Just as we think that we are set for peace, along comes another threat of war.

"In the days ahead, we will need all of the Christian integrity that we can get, remembering that wherever God closes one door, He opens another."

Discernment Is Stressed By Speakers

The ability to see similarities as well as dissimilarities in others and to see what is "right" in the world as well as what is wrong, were emphasized by two speakers during the fifth-day sessions of the 31st Homemaking Institute at Bennett College yesterday.

Dr. Hamako Hirose, president of Hiroshima Woman's College in Japan, who expressed the first viewpoint, said that too many people fail to take the time to take a good look at the other fellow, and even if they do, their eyes seem closed to certain things.

Dr. Lowell R. Ditzen, of Bronxville, New York, expressed the second viewpoint—right vs wrong—in his morning address. It is very easy, he said, to obtain many answers to the question: "What is wrong in the world?" but not enough of us are asking what is right."

Among "rights" which the speaker listed were: great lives that have been and are still being lived; great ideas, which have been sinking deeper and spreading more widely with the passage of time: the warmth and love of the human heart and the illimitable hope of a youthful heart.

Speaking last night, Dr. Ditzen declared that even if worst came to worst and there were only a hundred people left in the world, the indestructible will to continue to live would be present.

In the afternoon, Mrs. Raymond Smith, past president of the Greensboro League of Women Voters explained the workings of the organization and exhibited some of its literature.

Tomorrow, at 4 p. m. in Pfeiffer Chapel, Dr. Benjamin E. Mays, president of Morehouse College, Atlanta, Ga., will deliver an address marking the close of the institute, and Mrs. Louise G. Sreat, chairman, will give a summary of the week-long sessions.

Four White Girls Visiting Bennett In 2-Week Study

Four white girls from Ohio Wesleyan University at Delaware, Ohio, have arrived on the Bennett College campus here for a two-week study program in which they and the girls of the Negro student body will study various academic approaches to learning in an attempt to exchange ideas.

Dr. Willa B. Player, president of Bennett, said yesterday that the move is a coordinated program between the two Methodist-affiliated colleges to stimulate thinking and offer students opportunities for further study.

Earlier this year, six of the Bennett girls studied at Ohio Wesleyan under the agreement. In previous years, Bennett has always sent students to other schools in efforts to gain exchanges of opinion but this is the first time the idea has been reciprocated, Dr. Player said.

Bennett Seniors Get Scholarships

Two members of the senior class at Bennett College have been notified that they have been awarded scholarships for study in the field of religion for the 1957-58 school year.

Miss Julia McClain, of Grady, Alabama, has been awarded a scholarship to the Hartford (Conn.) Theological Seminary, where she will begin studying in September for the Bachelor of Divinity degree. The one-year award which is renewable was made by the scholarship committee ofthe Woman's Board of the Seminary.

MISS CECILE ERNESTINE HARRISON, daughter of the Rev and Mrs Edwin S Harrison of 3340 Reeves Street, is on the current honor roll of Bennett College in Greensboro, North Carolina. Announcement of the scholastic achievement was made during the Student Recognition Day program. Miss Harrison was a Smart Set debutante of 1955

Concern

Southern Negro Coed Goes North, pp. 2, 4

MYF Easter Sunrise Service p. 8

29 March 1957, Vol. 12, No. 16

News . . . for concerned young people

YOUTH SWITCH CAMPUSES:

Colleges Have Interracial Exchange

FOUR Ohio Wesleyan University coeds will shift their studies to Bennett College for Women March 31 as they traverse to Greensboro, N.C., to become students on the Negro campus for two weeks.

The girls are returning an interracial student exchange visit that was made by six Bennett College coeds to the Ohio Wesleyan campus, Delaware, Ohio, March 2-16.

The exchange program between the two Methodist schools was worked out by the Bennett and Wesleyan faculties in an effort to begin to break down racial barriers on college campuses and to prepare students for the coming of integration.

"In effect, our Bennett girls were Wesleyan students for two weeks," explained Dr. Willa Player, president of the Negro college and a graduate of Ohio Wesleyan. She added:

"The six Bennett students at Ohio Wesleyan attended the classes in which they were enrolled at Bennett. They lived in the Wesleyan dorms, participated in the chapel and assembly programs, and took part in extracurricular activities . . . The Wesleyan students who attend our school next week will do likewise."

The six Negro students who have just completed their stay on the Wesleyan campus are Theora Houston, Veronica Dean, Shirley Waters, Jimmie English, Queen Murphy, and Joanne Raiford. Commenting on the study habits of Wesleyan girls, Shirley said:

"They always seem to get their studying done, but it's a last-minute 3 a.m. task."

All members of the group felt that the exchange program was quite valuable, but "that two weeks on a campus is not long enough. The time should be lengthened."

Ohio Wesleyan students who will attend Bennett College are Janice Fast of Chandler, Ariz.; Ruth Garn, Indianapolis, Ind.; Marilon Jones, Washington, Pa.; and Eloisa Lee of Coshocton, Ohio. They were selected by a faculty committee from a list of students who had expressed interest in the program.

Cost to students in the two-way exchange involves transportation and incidentals. Room and board are arranged by the schools.

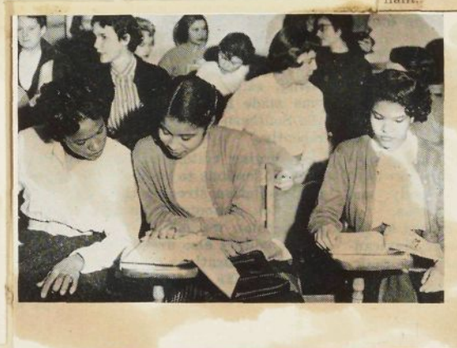

EXPLAINING the program, Dr. Player said:

"Because both of the schools are church-sponsored, there were no legal barriers to stand in the way, as there might be in the case of state colleges and universities."

She added that "this type of exchange could become a pattern in church-related colleges and could well chart the course for eventually breaking down racial barriers in education.

"The Wesleyan and Bennett faculties believe the exchange will enable both groups of students to gain new insights in racial understanding and will prepare them, as future leaders of their races, to deal constructively and in a Christian manner with problems of education."

Page 4 CONCERN

Participating in an interracial campus exchange program, three Bennett college students attend an art appreciation class at O.W.U. From l. to r. are Queen Murphy, Shirley Waters, and Joanne Raiford. See story on page 4.

Israeli Students Stage Program At Greensboro

GREENSBORO — Four Israeli students, now studying at American colleges and universities, presented a program at Bennett College Saturday.

Rafael Even, who moderated the program, explained that Iisrael's culture is a fusion of Eastern and Western cultures. Hanoch Greenfeld, pianist; Eliever Plotnik, singer and accordionist, and Hava Kohav, dancer, performed.

Greenfeld and Miss Kohav are studying at the Julliard School of Music in New York.

Bennett Youth Day draw 129 HS pupils

GREENSBORO, N.C. — Some 129 high school seniors and 27 advisors from North Carolina, South Carolina and Virginia left here Sunday after attending the annual "Youth Days" at Bennett College over the week-end.

In addition to attending classes and laboratory periods, the visitors participated in a talent show, were guests at a party and dinner in their honor and made a tour of points of interest in the city.

Miss Mary Mayfield, registrar, chairman of the Youth Days committee, also arranged workshops and conferences for the advisors. Members of the freshmen class and Miss Mary Boone, president, of Sanford, served as hostesses to the visitors.

A complete list of students and their advisors follows:

NORTH CAROLINA

ABERDEEN—Berkeley High, Rachel Patterson, Carol Frye; Advisor—H. H. Bethea.

Songa Leach, Carol Lowdermilk, Doris Luck, Helen Strickland; Advisor—Mrs. L. P. Harris.

Rebecca Hemphill, Peggy Alexander; Advisor—Miss W. M. Wrisley; Stephen-Lee High: Shirley Johnson, Mary Moore; Advisor—Mrs. Wilma V. Epps. High: Marjorie Greene, Grace Monk; Advisor—Mrs. G. S. Hudson.

BURGAW—C. F. Pope High, Doris Bordeaux, Hazel Corbett, Mary Ann Smith.

GOLDSBORO—Dillard High: Jacqueline Boseman, Ruth whitted; Advisor—Mrs. L. N. Harris.

GREENSBORO — Dudley High:: Ruby Bailey, Jo Marie Crump, Jo Ann Goins, Peggie Haith, Elizabeth Harris, Phyllis Jeffers, Emma McAdoo, Lyvonne McAdoo, Juliette McKoy, Barbara Mebane, Jeanette Napper, Mary F. Reese, Barbara Robinson, Blanche Taylor, Wilhelmma Thomas.

HIGH POINT—William Penn: Ester Cole, Shirley Foster, Shirley Lewis.

KENLY—R. B. Harrison: Ella Hagans, Madie Pearce; Advisor—Mrs. V. R. Barfield.

KINSTON—Adkin High: Roeneil Bryant, Jacqueline Dove, Louise Greene, Veronia Lofton, Edith Sutton, Jessie Sutton; Advisor—Miss E. L. Powe.

LEAKSVILLE — Douglas High: Barbara Brown, Lillie Mae Manns, Jo Ann Martin, Wanda Price, Johnsie Williams.

LEXINGTON—Dunbar High: Dora Lanier, Thelma Michael.

LUMBERTON—J. H. Hayswood High: Annie Wright.

BISCOE—Peabody High: Chales Bruton; Advisor—Mrs. Mamie Anderson.

Summit High: Mattie Byrd, Ethelean Curtis, Barbara Sellars, Mildred Wright; Advisor—Mrs. Elsie H. Jordan.

lars: Mary Boldin, Iris Grant; Advisor—Miss Frances L. Chesnutt; Pleasant Grove Union: Alfredia Burdnette, Iris Jeffries.

lotte: Joyce Alexander, Constance Colston, Dorothy Mansel, Doris Neely, Ella Riley; advisor—Mrs. Elizabeth S. Randolph.

CLEVELAND—R. A. Clement: Thelma Cowan, Mary Culbertson; Advisor—Miss F. H. Houston.

CONCORD—Logan High: Lucy Howell, Mazella Stowe, Advisor—Mrs. E. M. Polk.

Vivian Fennell, Polly Peterson; Advisor—Mrs. W. J. Williams.

Gwendolyn Hull, Betty Williams.

Nettie Baldwin, Carolyn Graves Advisor—Mrs. Madeline B Best.

High: Jean Campt, Kattie Foye. Sylvia Conyard.

High: Emma Brooks, Shelly Shipp.

MT. AIRY—J. J. Jones High: Joyce East, Avis McCarther.

Training High: Patricia Thompson, Carole Watson.

RALEIGH—J. W. Ligon High: Beverly Avery, Ann Mack; AdvisorM—rs. Thelma T. Daley.

REIDSVILLE—Booker T. Washington High: Elnora Anderson, Virginia Curry, Ellawease Maynard; Advisor—C. C. Crawford.

ROWLAND—Southside High: Hazel Brown, Shirley Hamilton.

SALISBURY—J. C. Price High: Juanita Alexander, Raemi Lancaster.

ial Institute: Josephine Ellis, Celena Williams; Advisor—Miss Juanita Looney.

Southern Pines High: Carrie Chalmers, Ellen Moore.

SUMMERFIELD—Jewel Jessup, Daisy Lowe, Alice McNeill; Advisor—Mrs. Fannie L. Hinnant.

Jane Hill Barbara Miller; visor—Mrs M. H. Belton.

WINSTON - SALEM—At High: Jeans Hayes; Carl Fannie Dalton, Edith Melto

WISE—Warren County T ing: Theotice Henderson, L Plummer; Advisor—Mrs. S Love.

SOUTH CAROLINA

CAMDEN—Jackson H Mabel Allen, Emily Drake Advisor—Mrs. E. M. D Maather Academy: Ruby U er, Barbara Sanders; Advis Miss. Virginia Carson.

High: Edwina Fields, Verg Portee; Advisor—Mrs. Fra Vance.

High: Queen E. Moore, S Whitfield; Advisor—Mrs. Moore.

ROC KHILL—Emmett Sc Annie Hardin, Rogerline din, Margaret Washington; visor—Mrs. Ruth F. Boulw

BIRGINIA

Miriam Ellison, Nann Hampton, Delores Page, Maria Walton; Advisor—M Mary Redmon;

ington Carver; Loretta Boyd

NEWPORT NEWS—Hunt ton High: Karen Leach, Sh ley Griffin.

STUART—Patrick Cent high: Mary Dixon, Cleo gram, Katherine Johnson, B ty Penn; Advisor—Miss Eli beth Nicholson.

SIMPLER THINGS OF LIFE IMPORTANT, DR. SWAIN TELLS B. C. STUDENTS BODY

That the simper things of life are far more important than great material wealth, was the view expressed by Dr. J. Carter Swaim, of New York City, at Bennett College Sunday afternoon.

Speaking in Pfeiffer Chapel, Dr. Swaim, who is executive director of the Department of English Bible of the National Council of Churches, drew a parallel between the writer of Second Timothy and modern man, as he raised the question, "What is it that we want out of life?"

"This writer," he declared, "wanted only a coat, some books and some writing materials that he might keep in touch with his friends. These are the things worth striving for instead of radios, television sets and high-powered automobiles, which so many of us seek."

The speaker referred to John Wesley, the great churchman, who, when he died, left some old silver spoons and the Methodist Church.

"What more has life thar that?" Dr. Swaim asked.

135

PRINCIPAL AND PROSPECTS C. E. Yokely, principal of the Alfred J. Griffin School High Point, enjoys a laugh with some teacher prospects at Bennett College following his address there last week. Left to right: Misses Barbara Hammond, Winston-Salem; Audrey Mead, Bristol, Tenn.; Ann Cooper, Glendale, Ohio; Martinele West, Chicago, Ill.; Jean Lewis and Christine McGimpsey of Morganton, and Jacqueline Jeffries, Greensboro.

Be Prepared For Upsetting Experiences, Rev. R. Harold Hipps Tells Vesper Group

GREENSBORO — If we are not prepared for upsetting experiences, we are not conditioned for life, the Rev. R. Harold Hipps, said in his vesper sermon at Bennett College Sunday.

The Rev. Mr. Hipps, who is minister of education at the West Market Street Methodist Church, declared that life is full of annoying and costly interruptions and reminded his audience that people were always interrupting Jesus.

"One of life's major problems," he stated, "is how to handle these interruptions. There are three ways to handle them. First, we may take them resentfully, or secondly, we may accept them stoically.

"But the third, and best, way to take them is the Christian way — even the cross — into a thing of beauty. He said further that there is no use in resenting the inevitable but rather that life's shocks should be taken with resilience, much as an automobile tire takes the shocks of the highway.

"Accept the fact," he continued, "that life was not intended to run smoothly. A vast uneasiness has come over the world and will probably remain. We are perhaps the most interrupted generation in history. Just as we think that we are set for peace, along comes another threat of war.

"In the days ahead, we will need all of the Christian integrity that we can get, remembering that wherever God closes one door, He opens another."

Discernment Is Stressed By Speakers

The ability to see similarities as well as dissimilarities in others and to see what is "right" in the world as well as what is wrong, were emphasized by two speakers during the fifth-day sessions of the 31st Homemaking Institute at Bennett College yesterday.

Dr. Hamako Hirose, president of Hiroshima Woman's College in Japan, who expressed the first viewpoint, said that too many people fail to take the time to take a good look at the other fellow, and even if they do, their eyes seem closed to certain things.

Dr. Lowell R. Ditzen, of Bronxville, New York, expressed the second viewpoint—right vs wrong—in his morning address. It is very easy, he said, to obtain many answers to the question: "What is wrong in the world?" but not enough of us are asking what is right."

Among "rights" which the speaker listed were: great lives that have been and are still being lived; great ideas, which have been sinking deeper and spreading wider with the passage of time: the warmth and love of the human heart and the illimitable hope of a youthful heart.

Speaking last night, Dr. Ditzen declared that even if worst came to worst and there were only a hundred people left in the world, the indestructible will to continue to live would be present.

In the afternoon, Mrs. Raymond Smith, past president of the Greensboro League of Women Voters explained the workings of the organization and exhibited some of its literature.

Tomorrow, at 4 p. m. in Pfeiffer Chapel, Dr. Benjamin E. Mays, president of Morehouse College, Atlanta, Ga., will deliver an address marking the close of the institute, and Mrs. Louise G. Sweat, chairman, will give a summary of the week-long sessions.

Four White Girls Visiting Bennett In 2-Week Study

Four white girls from Ohio Wesleyan University at Delaware, Ohio, have arrived on the Bennett College campus here for a two-week study program in which they and the girls of the Negro student body will study various academic approaches to learning in an attempt to exchange ideas.

Dr. Willa B. Player, president of Bennett, said yesterday that the move is a coordinated program between the two Methodist-affiliated colleges to stimulate thinking and offer students opportunities for further study.

Earlier this year, six of the Bennett girls studied at Ohio Wesleyan under the agreement. In previous years, Bennett has always sent students to other schools in efforts to gain exchanges of opinion but this is the first time the idea has been reciprocated, Dr. Player said.

Bennett Seniors Get Scholarships

Two members of the senior class at Bennett College have been notified that they have been awarded scholarships for study in the field of religion for the 1957-58 school year.

Miss Julia McClain, of Grady, Alabama, has been awarded a scholarship to the Hartford (Conn.) Theological Seminary, where she will begin studying in September for the Bachelor of Divinity degree. The one-year award which is renewable was made by the scholarship committee ofthe Woman's Board of the Seminary.

MISS CECILE ERNESTINE HARRISON, daughter of the Rev and Mrs Edwin S Harrison of 3340 Reeves Street, is on the current honor roll of Bennett College in Greensboro, North Carolina. Announcement of the scholastic achievement was made during the Student Recognition Day program. Miss Harrison was a Smart Set debutante of 1955

Concern

THE VOICE OF METHODIST YOUTH

contents

Cover Photo

Theoria Houston, a student at Bennett College, N.C., switched campuses this month to become a student at Ohio Wesleyan for two weeks.

In the picture, she is chatting with a new friend, Jan Root, in the O.W.U. dining hall.

For the story about this new Methodist campus exchange program, turn to page 4.

The Staff

Editor
H. DONALD WINKLER
Promotion Mgr.
HELEN POST
NCMY Consultant
MOLLY O'STEEN
Circulation Mgr.
LORETTA STEVENS
Business Mgr.
BEATRICE CULWELL

Member Associated Church Press

Concern is published every other week by the National Conference of Methodist Youth, P. O. Box 871, Nashville 2, Tenn. Paul Bosley, president; Molly O'Steen, vice president; Evelyn Moll, recording secretary; Edward Stack, financial secretary.

Designed for officers and leaders in all Methodist Youth Fellowships and Methodist Student Movements in the United States. CONCERN endeavors to speak with clarity of conscience on contemporary issues, matters of church policy, and the great concerns of the Christian faith.

The editorial policy as set by the National Conference of Methodist Youth is based upon the Social Creed of The Methodist Church.

SPECIAL FEATURE:

MYF Easter Sunrise Service 8

NEWS:

Colleges Have Interracial Exchange 4
To Beam Church Voice to Near East 4
I.C.U. Graduates First Class 5
Newsboys Go To Church Before Sunrise 5
Youth Gets Bravery Medal 5
Teen-Agers Help Jobless Migrants 6
Need Christian Youth in Press 6
Army Bans Liquor for Some Youth 7
DePauw Student Wins Art Contest 10
Campuses Capsuled 10
MYF Roundup 11
Says Christians Should Be Politicians 11
A Crash That Made Friends 16

VIEWS:

Congress May Kill School Bill 7
Crisis Demands Reason and Firmness 12

CUES:

Need Youth for Summer Caravans 14
Film Promotes College Aid 14
Publish Pocket Religious Books 14
Things to write for 15

Entered as second class matter Sepember 12, 1945, at the post office at Nashville, Tennessee, under the Act of March 2, 1879. Subscription price: one year, $1; renewal, $1; foreign, $1.50.

News . . . for concerned young people

YOUTH SWITCH CAMPUSES:

Colleges Have Interracial Exchange

FOUR Ohio Wesleyan University coeds will shift their studies to Bennett College for Women March 31 as they traverse to Greensboro, N.C., to become students on the Negro campus for two weeks.

The girls are returning an interracial student exchange visit that was made by six Bennett College coeds to the Ohio Wesleyan campus, Delaware, Ohio, March 2-16.

The exchange program between the two Methodist schools was worked out by the Bennett and Wesleyan faculties in an effort to begin to break down racial barriers on college campuses and to prepare students for the coming of integration.

"In effect, our Bennett girls were Wesleyan students for two weeks," explained Dr. Willa Player, president of the Negro college and a graduate of Ohio Wesleyan. She added:

"The six Bennett students at Ohio Wesleyan attended the classes in which they were enrolled at Bennett. They lived in the Wesleyan dorms, participated in the chapel and assembly programs, and took part in extracurricular activities . . . The Wesleyan students who attend our school next week will do likewise."

The six Negro students who have just completed their stay on the Wesleyan campus are Theora Houston, Veronica Dean, Shirley Waters, Jimmie English, Queen Murphy, and Joanne Raiford. Commenting on the study habits of Wesleyan girls, Shirley said:

"They always seem to get their studying done, but it's a last-minute 3 a.m. task."

All members of the group felt that the exchange program was quite valuable, but "that two weeks on a campus is not long enough. The time should be lengthened."

Ohio Wesleyan students who will attend Bennett College are Janice Fast of Chandler, Ariz.; Ruth Garn, Indianapolis, Ind.; Marilon Jones, Washington, Pa.; and Eloisa Lee of Coshocton, Ohio. They were selected by a faculty committee from a list of students who had expressed interest in the program.

Cost to students in the two-way exchange involves transportation and incidentals. Room and board are arranged by the schools.

EXPLAINING the program, Dr. Player said:

"Because both of the schools are church-sponsored, there were no legal barriers to stand in the way, as there might be in the case of state colleges and universities."

She added that "this type of exchange could become a pattern in church-related colleges and could well chart the course for eventually breaking down racial barriers in education.

"The Wesleyan and Bennett faculties believe the exchange will enable both groups of students to gain new insights in racial understanding and will prepare them, as future leaders of their races, to deal constructively and in a Christian manner with problems of education."

Participating in an interracial campus exchange program, three Bennett college students attend an art appreciation class at O.W.U. From l. to r. are Queen Murphy, Shirley Waters, and Joanne Raiford. See story on page 4.

Israeli Students Stage Program At Greensboro

GREENSBORO — Four Israeli students, now studying at American colleges and universities, presented a program at Bennett College Saturday.

Rafael Even, who moderated the program, explained that Iisrael's culture is a fusion of Eastern and Western cultures. Hanoch Greenfeld, pianist; Eliever Plotnik, singer and accordionist, and Hava Kohav, dancer, performed.

Greenfeld and Miss Kohav are studying at the Julliard School of Music in New York.

Bennett Youth Day draw 129 HS pupils

GREENSBORO, N.C. — Some 129 high school seniors and 27 advisors from North Carolina, South Carolina and Virginia left here Sunday after attending the annual "Youth Days" at Bennett College over the week-end.

In addition to attending classes and laboratory periods, the visitors participated in a talent show, were guests at a party and dinner in their honor and made a tour of points of interest in the city.

Miss Mary Mayfield, registrar, chairman of the Youth Days committee, also arranged workshops and conferences for the advisors. Members of the freshmen class and Miss Mary Boone, president, of Sanford, served as hostesses to the visitors.

A complete list of students and their advisors follows:

NORTH CAROLINA

ABERDEEN—Berkeley High: Rachel Patterson, Carol Frye; Advisor—H. H. Bethea.
Songa Leach, Carol Lowdermilk, Doris Luck, Helen Strickland; Advisor—Mrs. L. P. Harris.
Rebecca Hemphill, Peggy Alexander; Advisor—Miss W. M. Wrisley; Stephen-Lee High: Shirley Johnson, Mary Moore; Advisor—Mrs. Wilma V. Epps.
high: Marjorie Greene, Grace Monk; Advisor—Mrs. G. S. Hudson.
BURGAW—C. F. Pope High. Doris Bordeaux, Hazel Corbett, Mary Ann Smith.
GOLDSBORO—Dillard High: Jacqueline Boseman, Ruth Whitted; Advisor—Mrs. L. N. Harris.
GREENSBORO — Dudley High:: Ruby Bailey, Jo Marie Crump, Jo Ann Goins, Peggie Haith, Elizabeth Harris, Phyllis Jeffers, Emma McAdoo, Lyvonne McAdoo, Juliette McKoy, Barbara Mebane, Jeanette Napper, Mary F. Reese, Barbara Robinson, Blanche Taylor, Wilhelmina Thomas.
HIGH POINT—William Penn: Esther Cole, Shirley Foster, Shirley Lewis.
KENLY—R. B. Harrison: Elsa Hagans, Madie Pearce; Advisor—Mrs. V. R. Barfield.
KINSTON—Adkin High: Roeell Bryant, Jacqueline Dove, Louise Greene, Veronia Lofton, Edith Sutton, Jessie Sutton; Advisor—Miss E. L. Powe.
LEAKSVILLE — Douglas High: Barbara Brown, Lillie Mae Manns, Jo Ann Martin, Wanda Price, Johnsie Williams.
LEXINGTON—Dunbar High: Dora Lanier, Thelma Michael.
LUMBERTON—J. H. Hayswood High: Annie Wright.
BISCOE—Peabody High: Chales Bruton; Advisor—Mrs. Mamie Anderson.
Summit High: Mattie Byrd, Ethelean Curtis, Barbara Sellars, Mildred Wright; Advisor—Mrs. Elsie H. Jordan.
lars: Mary Boldin, Iris Grant; Advisor—Miss Frances L. Chesnutt; Pleasant Grove Union: Alfredia Burdnette, Iris Jeffries.
lotte: Joyce Alexander, Constance Colston, Dorothy Mansel, Doris Neely, Ella Riley; advisor—Mrs. Elizabeth S. Randolph.
CLEVELAND—R. A. Clement: Thelma Cowan, Mary Culbertson; Advisor—Miss F. H. Houston.
CONCORD—Logan High: Lucy Howell, Mazella Stowe, Advisor—Mrs. E. M. Polk.
Vivian Fennell, Polly Peterson; Advisor—Mrs. W. J. Williams.
Gwendolyn Hull, Betty Williams.
Nettie Baldwin, Carolyn Graves Advisor—Mrs. Madeline B Best.
High: Jean Campt, Kattie Foye, Sylvia Conyard.
High: Emma Brooks, Shelly Shipp.
MT. AIRY—J. J. Jones High: Joyce East, Avis McCarther.
Training High: Patricia Thompson, Carole Watson.
RALEIGH—J. W. Ligon High: Beverly Avery, Ann Mack; AdvisorM—rs. Thelma T. Daley.
REIDSVILLE—Booker T. Washington High: Elnora Anderson, Virginia Curry, Ellawease Maynard; Advisor—C. C. Crawford.
ROWLAND—Southside High: Hazel Brown, Shirley Hamilton.
SALISBURY—J. C. Price High: Juanita Alexander, Raemi Lancaster.
ial Institute: Josephine Ellis, Celena Williams; Advisor—Miss Juanita Looney.
Southern Pines High: Carrie Chalmers, Ellen Moore.
SUMMERFIELD—Jewel Jessup, Daisy Lowe, Alice McNeill; Advisor—Mrs. Fannie L. Hinnant.
Jane Hill Barbara Miller; visor—Mrs M. H. Belton.
WINSTON - SALEM—At High: Jeans Hayes; Carl Fannie Dalton, Edith Melto
WISE—Warren County T ing: Theotice Henderson, L Plummer; Advisor—Mrs. S Love.

SOUTH CAROLINA

CAMDEN—Jackson H Mabel Allen, Emily Drake Advisor—Mrs. E. M. D Maather Academy: Ruby er, Barbara Sanders; Advis Miss. Virginia Carson.
High: Edwina Fields, Ver Portee; Advisor—Mrs. Fra Vance.
High: Queen E. Moore, S Whitfield; Advisor—Mrs. Moore.
ROC KHILL—Emmett Sc Annie Hardin, Rogerline din, Margaret Washington; visor—Mrs. Ruth F. Boul

BIRGINIA

Miriam Ellison, Nann Hampton, Delores Page, Maria Walton; Advisor—M Mary Redmon.
ington Carver; Loretta Boyd
NEWPORT NEWS—Hunt ton High: Karen Leach, Sh ley Griffin.
STUART—Patrick Cent high: Mary Dixon, Cleo gram, Katherine Johnson, B ty Penn; Advisor—Miss Eli beth Nicholson.

Four Freedoms Are Theme Of Bennett Day

GREENSBORO — Four Freedoms Day will be observed at Bennett College Wednesday, April 3, with Dr. Mordecai W. Johnson, president of Howard University, Washington, D.C., as the principal speaker.

Dr. Johnson will speak at 11 a.m. in Pfeiffer Chapel on the theme, "Four Freedoms."

Dr. Willa B. Player, president of Bennett, said that the observance is in keeping with the college's tradition of bringing to the campus each year a person of outstanding ability to speak on a subject of current interest.

Dr. Johnson is a graduate of Howard University and Harvard University. He has been president of Howard since 1926.

SIMPLER THINGS OF LIFE IMPORTANT, DR. SWAIN TELLS B. C. STUDENTS BODY

That the simper things of life are far more important than great material wealth, was the view expressed by Dr. J. Carter Swaim, of New York City, at Bennett College Sunday afternoon.

Speaking in Pfeiffer Chapel, Dr. Swaim, who is executive director of the Department of English Bible of the National Council of Churches, drew a parallel between the writer of Second Timothy and modern man, as he raised the question, "What is it that we want out of life?"

"This writer," he declared, "wanted only a coat, some books and some writing materials that he might keep in touch with his friends. These are the things worth striving for instead of radios, television sets and high-powered automobiles, which so many of us seek."

The speaker referred to John Wesley, the great churchman, who, when he died, left some old silver spoons and the Methodist Church.

"What more has life thar that?" Dr. Swaim asked.

New Kappa Phi Members At Greensboro College

Recently inducted members of the Bennett College Chapter of Kappa Phi, Methodist Girls Club, are shown on steps of chapel in Greensboro, N. C. Left to right, first row: Misses Loretta Richmond, Greensboro; Bettye McLean, Greensboro; Harriett Butler, Cincinnati, Ohio; Fannie Miles, Drakes Branch, Va.

Second row: Lila Blanding, Sumter, S. C.; Diamia Croslin, Charlotte; Marjorie Smith, Sylva, N. C.; Geneva Averett, Buffalo, N. Y.; Mae Helen Shaw, Laurinburg, N. C.

Third row: Albertine Houwen, Alexandria, Va.; Barbara Ingram, Greensboro; Betty Middleton, Burton, S. C., and Edna Jones, Lenoir, N. C.

Principal And Prospects At Bennett College

Students at Bennett College, Greensboro, N. C. talk shop with C. E. Yokely, (center) principal of Alfred J. Griffin School, High Point, following his address there recently. The prospective teachers are, from left to right: Misses Barbara Hammond, Winston-Salem; Audrey Mead, Bristol, Tenn.; Ann Cooper, Glendale, Ohio; Martinele West, Chicago, Ill.; Jean Lewis and Christine McGimpsey of Morganton, N. C., and Jacqueline Jeffries, Greensboro.

Bennett College Homemaking Talks Start

A psychologist, a sociologist, a teacher and a student agreed yesterday that the ability to make human adjustments is the key to understanding in a troubled world, as the 31st annual Homemaking Institute at Bennett College opened.

They were members of a panel which discussed "Achieving Satisfactions" as an introduction to the institute theme of "Achieving Self-Fulfillment Through Understanding."

Dr. Adrian Solomon, psychology instructor at the college, described the emotionally mature person as one involved in interdependence with his fellows in contrast to the emotionally immature person who is dependent at all times upon others and upon whom others cannot depend.

At Mercy Of Others

"The student who expects others to do her work and to make allowances for her shortcomings, is completely at the mercy of those upon whom she depends. She may often have to react in a way completely contrary to her real desires, and in the end, may turn others against her," he said.

Dr. Edwin R. Edmonds, Bennett sociology instructor, referred to the human individual as a "corporation," representing the investments of many who preceeded him. "Such a person," he stated, "if mature, soon realizes this debt to others and seeks to repay it by making a contribution to the welfare of others."

"If we concentrate on the problems of others," he said, "we do not have the time to brood over our own problems or inadequacies. This is one of life's great satisfactions."

Mrs. Barbara Wells, a Bennett graduate, now teaching at the Dudley High School here, told of how women can successfully combine marriage and a career, and get great satisfaction out of both.

Marriage Means Adjustment

"Marriage is not considered today as a state, but as an adjustment," she declared. "Where husband and wife both work, it is necessary that both make sacrifices so that each might enjoy the satisfaction of achieving certain goals." Miss Grace Dungee, Bennett senior from Greensboro, pointed out that the college student is a member of a privileged minority and thereby gains a certain satisfaction, Miss Dungee said.

The institute continues today with an exhibit, "The American Red Cross and Its Services," at 10 a.m. in the David D. Jones Student Union and with a "Flower Arrangements" exhibit at 4:15. At 7 p.m. three films, related to the institute theme will be shown in the Science Assembly.

Dr. Hamako Hirose, president of Hiroshima Woman's College, Japan, will speak at a 2:30 p.m. session Thursday in another phase of the Institute.

DR. HAMAKO HIROSE
From Hiroshima

Tuesday, March 26, 1957. The Greensboro Record

Homemaker's Role Outlined For Service To Community

"Sharing Unselfishly" begins with the individual—giving a portion of time and talent and effort to the promotion of common good, students and representatives at the 31st annual Homemaking Institute at Bennett College, were told today by Miss Ruth Clinard, executive director of Greensboro chapter of American Red Cross.

Miss Clinard and Miss Wilmot S. Doan, director of the Red Cross chapter's home service department, outlined the homemaker's role in community service, in volunteer work, in Red Cross activity, at the morning session of the program which continues through Friday.

The program continued at 4:15 p.m. today with lecture and demonstration on color and design, featuring flower arrangements. At 7 o'clock tonight in the science assembly hall, three films will be shown.

The morning program was presided over by Wilhelmena Gilbert of the Bennett faculty.

Miss Clinard traced briefly the history of Red Cross and cited its aims in war and in peace, in everyday living and in disaster. She noted that the Red Cross program depends on hundreds of volunteers for every staff worker. People volunteer for service, she noted, because of a genuine interest in other people and a desire to help them. She urged the homemaking group to develop or express that interest as a part of a well-rounded life in the community.

Miss Doan noted that the home service program of Red Cross depends in large measure on an attitude of helping one's neighbor through service without prejudice. She cited qualifications of a good home service worker.

Both speakers emphasized the importance of first aid work and instruction, and cited ways home economists may use their talents in teaching other people for a useful role in first aid, home nursing, volunteer nurses aid, mass feeding, and other services needed in civil defense and in peacetime.

The program opened yesterday with a panel discussion on "Achieving Satisfactions" as introduction to the institute theme of "Achieving self-fulfillment through understanding."

Wednesday's program at 10 a.m. will feature an address by Dr. Joseph S. Himes, of North Carolina College. The 2:30 p.m. program will have discussion groups on "Understanding Myself" with Dr. Franklin McNutt, Rev. John L. Bryan, Dr. Himes and Mrs. Minnie Smith as discussion leaders. The midweek vespers at 7 p.m. will be a part of the institute.

Full programs are set Thursday and Friday, with Friday morning and Friday evening addresses to be made by Dr. Lowell Russell Ditzen of Bronxville, N. Y. The vesper service at 4 p.m. Sunday will be a part of the institute, with speaker being Dr. Benjamin E. Mays, president of Morehouse College, Atlanta, Ga. Mrs. Louise G. Streat of the Bennett faculty, will summarize the institute.

Joseph Himes To Give Talk At Bennett

Dr. Joseph S. Himes of North Carolina College at Durham will speak today at Bennett College as the school's 31st annual Homemaking Institute continues.

"Understanding Myself" is the educator's topic. He will speak at 10 a.m. at Pfeiffer Chapel.

The theme of this year's institute is: "Achieving Self-Fulfillment through Understanding."

Discussion groups based on "Understanding Myself" will be held beginning at 2:30 p.m. with the Rev. John L. Bryan and Mrs. Minnie Smith of Bennett; Dr. Franklin McNutt of Woman's College; and Dr. Himes participating as leaders.

Other Plans

A vespers service and poetry readings are scheduled for 7 o'clock tonight in the chapel.

Students and visitors yesterday visited exhibits on the services of the American Red Cross and the processing of flower arranging.

Miss Ruth M. Clinard, executive director of the Greensboro Chapter, American Red Cross, and Miss Wilmot S. Dean, director of the Red Cross home service department, were at the college in connection with the Red Cross exhibit.

Representing several of the Greensboro garden clubs were Mrs. Carl B. Keck, Mrs. David Belton and Mrs. Harold Young.

The Institute will continue through Sunday when Dr. Benjamin E. Mays, president of Morehouse College, Atlanta, will speak at 4 p.m. vespers.

At Homemaking Institute — Segregated School Problem Discussed In Bennett Talk

"One of the problems of the Negro student in segregated schools is that he cannot relate much of the world's activities to himself. It is difficult for him to imagine himself taking part in many phases of community and world affairs," Dr. Joseph S. Himes of North Carolina College, Durham, told Bennett College students today.

Speaking at the 31st annual Homemaking Institute, Dr. Himes discussed the problem of knowing oneself. He urged the students to be objective in looking at themselves and to try to see themselves as others see them.

"We must be willing to admit frankly what we see when we look at ourselves—the bad as well as the good—and we must determine to do something about it. We should look into the nature of our goals. Are they consistent with the objectives of our families, community, college and organizations? How do we react to the customs or social norms of our world? Do we feel repressed, fenced in, indifferent, frightened? Although one goal may be achieved others are constantly developing," he said.

Dr. Himes is a graduate of Oberlin College and received his doctorate at Ohio State University. He is Phi Beta Kappa and author of a number of books and articles. He has been professor of sociology at North Carolina College since 1946.

Dr. Chauncey G. Winston of Bennett presided and Rev. John L. Bryan gave the invocation. The Dudley High School Chorus, directed by Julia Ruth Morrison, sang two selections.

At 2:30 p.m., there was a discussion on the same topic led by Dr. Franklin McNutt, Rev. Mr. Bryan, Dr. Himes and Mrs. Minnie Smith. The institute opened yesterday and will close Sunday with a sermon by Dr. Benjamin E. Mays, president of Morehouse College, Atlanta, Ga.

Dr. Lowell Ditzen scheduled on Bennett's Homemaking Inst.

GREENSBORO, N.C. — Two addresses by Dr. Lowell R. Ditzen, minister, author and lecturer, will feature the program of the 31st annual Homemaking Institute at Bennett College, Friday.

Dr. Ditzen, minister of the Reformed Church in Bronxville, N.Y., returned only last week from India. His services as consultant for the institute were obtained after the sudden serious illness of Dr. Harry A. Overstreet made it impossible for him and his wife, Mrs. Bonaro Overstreet, to serve as originally scheduled.

Author of "Personal Security Through Faith," and winner of sixteen competitive oratorial contests, Dr. Ditzen has been granted national awards for his sermons each year since 1950 by the Freedoms Foundation.

* * *

WIDELY ACTIVE IN social work, spiritual and mental hygiene, he has been guest minister on such radio and television programs as the "WOR

Institute Set At Bennett College

Homemakers To Be Heard

Three outstanding authorities in the field of human relations will speak during the 31st annual Homemaking Institute at Bennett College, which opens tomorrow and extends through Sunday, March 31.

They are Dr. Lowell R. Ditzen, minister of the Reformed Church, Bronxville, N.Y.; Dr. Joseph S. Himes, professor of sociology at North Carolina College, Durham, and Dr. Benjamin E. Mays, president of Morehouse College, Atlanta, Ga., and their addresses will center around the institute theme: "Achieving Self-Fulfillment through Understanding."

Author of "Personal Security through Faith," Dr. Ditzen, who has just returned from India, has been granted national awards for his sermons each year since 1950 by the Freedoms Foundation. He will speak at 10 a.m. on Friday and again at 8 p.m. in Pfeiffer Chapel.

Dr. Himes, author of "Social Planning in America" and scores of articles and reviews in professional journals, is a member of Phi Beta Kappa and has had a distinguished career in research. He will speak on "Understanding Myself" at 10 a.m. on Wednesday.

Closing address of the institute will be given by Dr. Mays on Sunday, March 31, at 4 p.m. He is a former vice president of the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America and a former dean of the School of Religion at Howard University, Washington.

The institute will open on Monday at 10 a.m. in Pfeiffer Chapel with a panel discussion of the topic: "Achieving Satisfactions."

Another feature of the institute will be a series of exhibits and film showings. An exhibit, "The American Red Cross and Its Services," will be on display at 10 a.m. Tuesday in David D. Jones Student Union. Miss Ruth M. Clinard, executive director of the Greensboro chapter, and Miss Wilmot S. Doan, director of the chapter's home service department, will lecture and lead a discussion.

At 4:15 p.m. on Tuesday, there will be an exhibit of "Flower Arrangements" which will be accompanied by a lecture and demonstration by Mesdames Carl B. Keck, David Belton and Harold Young, representing local garden clubs.

Three films, related to the institute theme will be shown at 7 p.m. in the Science Assembly on Tuesday.

An exhibit of "Creative Art with Dried Materials" will be on display at 10 a.m. Thursday, accompanied by a lecture and demonstration by Mrs. Raye Miller Underwood.

Friday at 3:15 p.m. the League of Women Voters will have an exhibit in the Student Union, with Mrs. A. W. Post, president, lecturing and leading a discussion.

Wednesday and Thursday afternoons beginning at 2:30 will be given over to discussion groups. The Wednesday group will be led by Dr. Himes, while on Thursday, Miss Mereb Mossman, dean of instruction at Woman's College and Dr. Warren Ashby, professor of philosophy at the same institution, will be leaders.

Consultant for this session will be Dr. Hamako Hirose, principal of Hiroshima Jogakuin, girls' school in Japan, which has some 1,800 students and 100 faculty members. Dr. Hirose holds an A.B. degree from Central College, Fayette, Mo.; an M.A. from George Peabody College, and her doctorate in education from Columbia University.

Youthful Heart 'Rarest' Gift, Institute Speaker Declares

Only in man is there knowledge, conviction and trust that a better tomorrow will be manifest, declared Dr. Lowell Russell Ditzen of Bronxville, N. Y., speaking today at the 31st annual Homemaking Institute of Bennett College.

Discussing "Myself In Relation To All Of Life," the New York minister stated that one of the rarest gifts today is the youthful heart which knows that tomorrow will come, better.

The morning program also was addressed by Dr. Hamko Hirose, president of Hiroshima Woman's College, Japan, who outlined three factors for a better self relation to all of life. The individual must, she said, have eyes open to see the difference in others and in other worlds and learn lessons from these differences; must nurture insight to see similarity in all phases of human nature and nurture love of beauty in nature and in person's heart, and must get a feeling of "we" instead of an "I" center.

Homemaking Institute at Bennett continued with a program this afternoon by Greensboro League of Women Voters. At 8 o'clock tonight Dr. Ditzen will speak, and Greensboro College Glee Club will sign. The final program is set for 4 p.m. Sunday at the vesper service. Dr. Benjamin E. Mays, president of Morehouse College, Atlanta, will speak, and Mrs. Louise G. Streat of the Bennett faculty will summarize the institute.

Today's program was opened by Dr. Willa B. Player, Bennett president, and heard choral numbers by Palmer Memorial Singers under direction of R. O. Brent.

Dr. Ditzen declared that the road to personal self fulfillment is paved with an understanding of and positiveness about what's right with the world.

"Don't stay too long at that cracker barrel where we discuss only what's wrong with the world," he admonished. He urged the young women students to draw on their inner treasure chest of enriching experiences to see the good in the world and in people.

Dr. Ditzen pointed to the world as having much more right than wrong, and listed as rights the fact that great lives have been led and are being led, great acts are being done, great response to idealism is being felt, great ideas for good are spreading more widely, and there is today a great deal of good in the human heart. The greatest right with the world, he said, is the fact that God is—He's got the whole wide world in His hands."

"There is more that is right with the world," the speaker concluded, "if you but have the eyes and heart to see."

Bennett College's 31st Homemaking Institute

Bennett College's 31st Annual Home-Making Institute is now in progress, using as its theme: "Achieving Self-Fulfillment Through Understanding."

The Institute opened Monday, March 25th, with a panel discussion on the topic, "Achieving Satisfaction." During the discussion Monday, a psychologist, sociologist, teacher, and student agreed that the key to understanding in a troubled world is the ability to make human adjustments.

The Future Outlook staff shall take advantage of the opportunity to implement the general education of Bennett students in the important area of our community, homes, and for family living.

I am sure the Bennett College family, functional character of its curriculum, enables them to do this by exploring learning, each pointing up the relational aspects of their educational program.

This year the Future Outlook hopes that the citizens, as well as the students, will achieve the purpose of the general theme of the Home-Making Institute, which has a creative combination of formal and informal instruction.

The late Dr. David D. Jones often made this statement concerning the Home-Making Institute: "Of greatest importance is the classroom activity, for faculty and students will depart from a discussion of the regular classroom assignments to engage in a series of discussions, critical analyses, and investigations of specific topics drawn from a carefully-planned reading list of contemporary books, materials, and bulletins of information recently published in the area of family living." While each instructor will approach the study and discussion from an orientation which is most appropriate to his own subject field, these need not be related to, or an outgrowth of previous classroom assignments. In other words, the Institute Week represents a "stop day" from regular classroom procedure. The point to be remembered is that the students will be approaching the study of the theme from a number of

Bennett Home-Making Institute Opens With Panel Discussion

A psychologist, a sociologist, a teacher and a student agreed that the ability to make human adjustments is the key to understanding in a troubled world, as the 31st annual Homemaking Institute at Bennett College opened Monday.

They were members of a panel which discussed, "Achieving Satisfactions" as an introduction to the institute theme of "Achieving Self - Fulfillment Through Understanding."

Dr. Adrian Solomon, psychology instructor at the college, described the emotionally mature person as one involved in interdependence with his fellows in contrast to the emotionally immature person who is dependent at all times upon others and upon whom others cannot depend.

"The student who expects others to do her work and to make allowances for her shortcomings, is completely at the sacrifices that each might enjoy the satisfaction of achieving certain goals."

"In such unions, husband and wife strengthen each other and fortify each other's egos. By such simple things as the division of labor in the home, they may increase their tolerance and understanding."

Miss Grace Dungee, Bennett senior, of Greensboro, addressed herself to the satisfactions of college living. Pointing out that the college student is a member of an advantaged group which has an obligation to society, Miss Dungee said:

"Possessed of the knowledge that the fullest possible development of the individual is enhanced by a college education, the college student gains further satisfaction when, as a senior, she can look back upon herself as a sophomore and see how she has grown mentally and socially as well as physically."

President Of College In Hiroshima Assists At Bennett Institute

A discussion on "Relating Myself to Others" was held at the 31st Annual Homemaking Institute at Bennett College today with Dr. Hamko Hirose, president of Hiroshima Woman's College in Japan as consultant.

Discussion leaders were Miss Mereb E. Mossman and Dr. Warren Ashby of Woman's College, Dr. George Breathett and Mrs. Blanche Raiford.

During the morning session Mrs. Raye Miller Underwood gave a lecture and demonstration on creative art with dried arrangements.

The institute opened Monday and will close Sunday after an address at 4 p.m. by Dr. Benjamin E. Mays, president of Morehouse College, Atlanta Ga.

At 10 a.m. tomorrow Dr. Lowell Russell Ditzen of Bronxville, N. Y., will speak on "Myself in Relation to All of Life." At 3:15 p.m. there will be an exhibit on the League of Women Voters and good government. Mrs. A. W. Post, president of the Greensboro league, will speak.

136

Understanding Of Person's Self Cited

News 3/28/57

Objective self-evaluation as a means of understanding oneself breaks down if the individual, looking at himself, is unwilling to admit frankly what he sees — whether it is bad or good, Dr. Joseph S. Himes of Durham, told the Bennet College Homemaking Institute audience yesterday.

Dr. Himes, professor of sociology at North Carolina College, spoke on "Understanding Myself" as the week-long institute entered its third day.

Addressing himself to the methodology of self-understanding, Dr. Himes suggested certain questions that one should ask as he seeks to assess himself.

One Question

What are my goals and are they consistent with those of the groups to which I belong? was listed as one of these.

"We may discover," he said, "that we are in conflict with society or that the levels of our aspirations are a bit higher than those of the groups to which we belong."

The institute continues at 10 a.m. today with an exhibit, "Creative Art with Dried Materials" — a lecture-demonstration by Mrs. Raye Miller Underwood in the David D. Jones Student Union.

At 2:30 p.m. the topic, "Relating Myself to Others" will be discussed by two groups, one led by Miss Mereb E. Mossman, dean of instruction at Woman's College and Dr. George Breathett of the Bennett faculty. Leading the other group will be Dr. Warren Ashby of Woman's College and Mrs. Blanche Raiford, of the Bennett faculty. Dr. Hamako Hirose, president of Hiroshima Woman's College, Japan, will be the consultant.

Ohio, was elected representative to the union board of managers.

Chosen to fill other campus offices were:

Peggy Coefield, Kinston, superintendent of the Sunday School; Anita Duckett, pianist and Millie Adams, secretary; Shirley Waters, Dudley, mid-week vesper chairman and Inez Jones, Lenoir, secretary.

Simpler Things Of Life Called Most Important

That the simpler things of life are far more important than great material wealth, was the view expressed by Dr. J. Carter Swaim of New York City in his sermon at Bennett College yesterday afternoon.

Speaking in Pfeiffer Chapel, Dr. Swaim, who is executive director of the Department of English Bible of the National Council of Churches, drew a parallel between the writer of Second Timothy and modern man, as he raised the question, "What is it that we want out of life?"

"This writer," he said, "wanted only a coat, some books and some writing materials that he might keep in touch with his friends. These are the things worth striving for instead of radios, television sets and high-powered automobiles, which so many of us seek."

The speaker referred to John Wesley, the great churchman, who, when he died, left some old silver spoons and the Methodist Church. "What more has life than that?" Dr. Swaim asked. News 3/23/57

STRING QUARTET HEARD IN RECITAL

The Curtis String Quartet, of Philadelphia, hailed as America's foremost chamber music group, was heard in recital at Bennett College Friday night in Pfeiffer Chapel.

NIGERIAN TO BENNETT

GREENSBORO, N.C. — Miss Onuma Uko of Nigeria, West Africa, junior social science major at Bennett College, was advised this week that she has been granted a scholarship for summer study at the University of Oxford.

Miss Uko, who will be in residence from July 8 to Aug. 16, will study history and political science and will spend some time visiting in Europe.

LYCEUM COMMITTEE PRESENTS ORGANIST

Virgil Fox, organist of the Riverside Church in New York City, will be presented in a recital at Bennett College on Tuesday, January 8, at 8 p.m. in Pfeiffer Chapel.

Acclaimed by critics as " a complete master of his instrument," the artist will include in his program some of the works of Bach, Groulez, Vierne and Vaughan Williams.

This program is the third in the 1956-57 lyceum series. The fourth and final program will be on Friday, March 1, when the Curtis String Quartet will be heard.

AWARDED SCHOLARSHIP

Deloris Priscilla Tonkins, junior at Bennett College, has been awarded a National Methodist Scholarship by the Board of Education of the Methodist Church for superior academic standing, leadership ability, active churchmanship, character and personality. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James William Tonkins, Route 3, Greensboro, and member of Celia Phelps Methodist Church.

Sunday Radio Chapel" and the "Dumont Television Chapel."

Dr. Ditzen will speak at 10 a.m. Friday and again at 8 p.m. in Pfeiffer Chapel, following the institute theme: "Achieving Self - Fulfillment Through Understanding."

The institute opened on Monday with a panel discussion of the topic, "Achieving Satisfactions" and continued through Thursday with discussion groups, films and exhibits.

It will close on Sunday at which time Dr. Benjamin E. Mays, president of Morehouse College, Atlanta, Ga., will speak at 4 p.m. in Pfeiffer Chapel. A summary of the week-long events will also be given at this time.

MUSICIAN AT BENNETT — Miss Gudrun Shultz, a violin major at Sarah Lawrence College, Bronxville, N. Y., is accompanied on the piano by Miss Yvonne Wynne of Jamaica, N. Y., junior music major at Bennett. Photo was made when Miss Shultz and two other Sarah Lawrence students spent a week at Bennett.

129 High School Seniors From Three States Attend Bennett's 'Youth Days'

GREENSBORO, N. C. — Some 129 high school seniors and 27 advisors from North Carolina, South Carolina and Virginia left here Sunday after attending the annual "Youth Days" at Bennett College over the week-end.

In addition to attending classes and laboratory periods, the visitors participated in a talent show, were guests at a party and dinner in their honor and made a tour of points of interest in the city.

Miss Mary Mayfield, registrar, chairman of the Youth Days committee, also arranged workshops and conferences for the advisors. Members of the freshman class, Miss Mary Boone, president, of Sanford, served as hostesses to the visitors.

A complete list of students and their advisors follows:

NORTH CAROLINA

ABERDEEN — Berkeley High; Rachel Patterson, Carol Frye; Advisor — H. H. Bethea.

ASHEBORO — Central High; Sonja Leach, Carol Lowdermilk, Doris Luck, Helen Strickland; Advisor — Mrs. L. P. Harris.

ASHEVILLE — Allen High: Rebecca Hemphill, Peggy Alexander; Advisor — Miss W. M. Wrisley; Stephen-Lee High: Shirley Johnson, Mary Moore: Advisor — Mrs. Wilma V. Epps.

BAYBORO — PAMLICO County High: Marjorie Greene, Grace Monk: Advisor — Mrs. G. S. Hudson.

BURGAW — C. F. Pope High: Doris Bordeaux, Hazel Corbett, Mary Ann Smith.

GOLDSBORO — Dillard High: Jacqueline Boseman, Ruth Whitted: Advisor — Mrs. L. N. Harris.

GREENSBORO — Dudley High: Ruby Bailey, Jo Marie Crump, Jo Ann Goins, Peggie Haith, Elizabeth Harris, Phyllis Jeffers, Emma McAdoo, LyVonne McAdoo, Juliet McKoy, Barbara Mebane, Jeanette Napper, Mary F. Reese, Barbara Robinson, Blanche Taylor, Wilhelmina Thomas.

HIGH POINT — William Penn: Ester Cole, Shirley Foster, Shirley KENLY — R. B. Harrison: Ella Hagans, Madie Pearce; Advisor — Mrs. V. R. Barfield.

KINSTON — Adkin High: Roenell Bryant, Jacqueline Dove, Louise Greene, Veronica Lofton, Edith Sutton, Jessie Sutton; Advisor — Miss E. L. Powe.

LEAKSVILLE — Douglass High: Barbara Brown, Lillie Mae Manns, Jo Ann Martin, Wanda Price, Johnsie Williams

LEXINGTON — Dunbar High: Cora Lanier, Thelma Michael.

LUMBERTON — J. H. Hayswood High: Annie Wright.

BISCOE — Peabody High: Charles Bruton; Advisor — Mrs. Mamie Anderson.

BROWN SUMMIT — Brown Summit High: Mattie Byrd, Ethelean Curtis, Barbara Sellars, Mildred Wright; Advisor — Mrs. Elsie H. Jordan.

BURLINGTON — Jordan Sellars: Mary Boldin, Iris Gant; Advisor — Miss Frances L. Chesnutt; Pleasant Grove Union: Alfredia Burdnette, Iris Jeffries.

CHARLOTTE — West Charlotte: Joyce Alexander, Constance Colston, Dorothy Mansel, Doris Neely, Ella Riley; Advisor — Mrs. Elizabeth S. Randolph.

CLEVELAND — R. A. Clement: Thelma Cowan, Mary Culbertson: Advisor — Miss F. H. Houston.

CONCORD — Logan High: Lucy Howell, Mazella Stowe, Advisor — Mrs. E. M. Polk.

GARLAND — Garland High: Vivian Fennell, Polly Peterson; Advisor — Mrs. W. J. Williams.

GASTONIA — Highland High: Gwendolyn Hull, Betty Williams.

GRAHAM — Graham High: Nettie Baldwin, Carolyn Graves; Advisor — Mrs. Madeline B. Best.

MADISON — Charles Drew high: Jean Camp, Kattie Foye.

MEBANE — Graham High: Sylvia Conyard.

MOORESVILLE — Dunbar High: Emma Brooks, Shelly Shipp.

MT. AIRY — J. J. Jones High: Joyce East, Avis McCarther.

NASHVILLE — Nash County Training High: Patricia Thompson, Carole Watson.

RALEIGH — J. W. Ligon High: Beverly Avery, Ann Mack: Advisor — Mrs. Thelma T. Daley.

REIDSVILLE — Booker T. Washington High: Elnora Anderson, Virginia Curry, Ellawease Maynard; Advisor — C. C. Crawford.

ROWLAND — Southside High: Hazel Brown, Shirley Hamilton.

SALISBURY — J. C. Price High: Juanita Alexander, Raemi Lancaster.

SEDALIA — Palmer Memorial Institute: Josephine Ellis, Celena Williams, Advisor — Miss Juanita Looney.

SOUTHERN PINES — West Southern Pines High: Carrie Chalmers, Ellen Moore.

SUMMERFIELD — Jewell Jessup, Daisy Lowe, Alice McNeil Advisor — Mrs. Fannie L. Hinnant.

WARSAW — Douglass High: Jane Hill, Barbara Miller: Advisor Mrs. M. H. Belton.

WINSTON-SALEM — Atkins High: Jean Hayes; Carver: Fannie Dalton, Edith Melton.

WISE — Warren County Training: Theotice Henderson, Laura Plummer; Advisor — Mrs. S. A. Love.

SOUTH CAROLINA

CAMDEN — Jackson High: Mabel Allen, Emily Drakeford; Advisor — Mrs. E. M. Duren; Mather Academy: Ruby Cooper, Barbara Sanders; Advisor — Miss Virginia Carson.

CATAWBA — Emmett Scott High: Margie Roddey.

COLUMBIA — C. A. Johnson High: Edwina Fields, Verdelle Portee; Advisor — Mrs. Francis Vance.

ORANGEBURG — Wilkinson High: Queen E. Moore, Sarah Whitfield; Advisor, — Mrs. L. S. Moore.

ROCK HILL — Emmett Scott: Annie Hardin, Rogerline Hardin, Margaret Washington; Advisor — Mrs. Ruth F. Boulware.

VIRGINIA

BRISTOL — Douglass High: Mir-Delores Page, Rose Maria Walton; Advisor — Mrs. Mary Redmon.

FIELDALE — George Washington Carver: Loretta Boyd.

NEWPORT NEWS — Huntington High: Karen Leach, Shirley Griffin.

STUART — Patrick Central High: Mary Dixon, Cleo Ingram, Advisor — Miss Elizabeth Nicholson.

Feminine Front

MISS GUDRUN SHULTZ, a violin major at Sarah Lawrence College, Bronxville, N.Y., one of three exchange students from that college who are now at Bennett College, Greensboro, N.C., is shown here with Miss Yvonne Wynne of Jamaica, N.Y., junior and music major at Bennett.

Bennett plans Palm Sunday music service

GREENSBORO, N.C. — A service of special music by the college choir will highlight the observance of Palm Sunday at Bennett College at 4 p.m. in Pfeiffer Chapel.

The forty-voice group, directed by Mrs. Mary Crawford, will sing two choruses from Brahms "Requiem"—"Ye Now with Sorrow Are Filled" and "How Lovely Are Thy Dwellings" — with Miss Jacqueline McAlister senior, of Kingstree, S.C. as soprano soloist.

Another soprano, Miss Dolores Wiggins, junior, of Petersburg, Va., will be soloist for Gounod's "Gallia."

* * *

COMPOSITIONS by Handel, "Palestrina" and the late Dr. R. Nathaniel Dett's "When I Survey the Wondrous Cross," written when he was a member of the Bennett faculty, will be included.

The college quartette will sing three numbers, one a spiritual, "Let Us Break Bread Together."

NC Business Teachers To Hear Miss Gilbert

DURHAM, N. C. — A member of the business faculty at Bennett College will address a special group of teachers at the North Carolina Teachers Association annual one-day meeting in Charlotte Friday.

She is Miss Wilhelmenia Gilbert, teacher of business education at the Greensboro college for women. Miss Gilbert will speak before a special session of high school teachers of business at 11 Friday morning at West Charlotte high school.

MISS W. GILBERT
Guest Speaker

* * *

THOUSANDS of teachers from all over North Carolina will be in attendance at the one day NCTA meeting in Charlottee.

Announcement of Miss Gilbert's appearance at the teachers' meeting was revealed in Durham this week by Miss L. Mae Jones, chairman of the program committee of the business teachers unit of the NCTA. Miss Jones is a member of the Mary Potter school faculty of Oxford.

"Meeting the Challenge of Today's Youth Through Better Business Training" will be the subject of Miss Gilbert's address.

THE BENNETT COLLEGE teacher has had wide experience as a teacher and administrator. She has taught business education for five years on the college level; two years in the secondary school, and has served for five years as secretary and administrative assistant to college presidents.

Miss Gilbert was trained at Clark College in Atlanta and Boston University.

Bennett Observes Annual Youth Days

GREENSBORO, N. C. — Some 129 high school seniors and 27 advisors from North Carolina, South Carolina and Virginia left here Sunday after attending the annual "Youth Days" at Bennett College over the week-end.

In addition to attending classes and laboratory periods, the visitors participated in a talent show, were guests at a party and dinner in their honor and made a tour of points of interest in the city.

MISS MARY MAYFIELD, registrar, was chairman of the Youth Days committee. She arranged workshops and conferences for the advisors. Members of the freshman, class, and Miss Mary Boone, president of Sanford, served as hostesses to the visstors.

Robing—Geraldine Parrish of Glendale, Ohio, slips into an academic robe held by Pauline Ferguson, sophomore, during Senior Day ceremonies at Bennett College.

MISSIONARY SECRETARY INTERVIEWS STUDENTS

GREENSBORO, N.C. — Mrs. Marguerite Twinem of NYC, secretary of missionary personnel, Woman's Division of Christian Service, Methodist Church, was on the Bennett College campus last week interviewing students interested in entering the field of missions.

SENIOR DAY HELD AT BENNETT COLLEGE

A challenge to make their education purposeful was given to members of the senior class at Bennett College by President Willa B. Player, Friday afternoon.

The occasion was the annual Senior Day program in Pfeiffer Chapel during which members of the class received their caps and gowns from their sister class — the sophomors.

Congratulating the seniors upon having reached this "milestone" in their careers, President Player said: "Between now and commencement, get all of the additional knowledge that you can; make the most of every resource, that you may later meet sulcessfully the challenges of life."

President Player pointed to Kwame Nkrumah, premier of the new nation of Ghana and to Dr. Martin Luther King, leader of the successful peaceful bus boycott in Montgomery, Ala., as products of small liberal arts colleges, such as Bennett, who have met life's challenges.

"The same challenges that faced them," she declared, "also faces you. It will require dedication on your part to make your knowledge real so that you, too, may achieve."

Dr. Chauncey G. Winston read the names of 11 seniors who at this point are leading their class in scholarship. Miss Marie Annette Slaughter, of Newport, Ky., is presently No. 1, followed in order by the following:

Grace E. Dungee, Greensboro; Mayme J. Ellerbe, Cheraw, S. C.; Geraldine Parrish, Glendale, Ohio; Consuelo Watkins, Danville, Va.; Ann M. Stewart, Reidsville; Carolyn M. Ingram, Durham: Doris A. Lanier, Bath, N.C.; Dorothy A. Harris, Greensboro; Jean Renwick, Stateville, and Nancy Hudson, Roseland, Va.

At 6:30 p. m. the seniors were guests of the sophomores at a banquet in the David D. Jones Student Union which was followed by a dance.

Local Girl Bennett's Queen

Miss Jimmie English, a junior of Camden, S.C., was chosen to head the Student Senate for 1957-58 and Mildred Taylor, senior of Greensboro, was chosen May Queen in campus-wide elections at Bennett College yesterday.

Miss Taylor, a science major, will reign with her court over the May Day festivities on Saturday, May 4, following her coronation by President Willa B. Player.

Chosen to serve with Miss English in the senate were: Addie Watson, Charlotte, vice president; Mary Jane Williams, Winston-Salem, secretary; DeQuincy Johnson, Lenoir, treasurer, and Wilhelmina Bundy, Johnson City, Tenn., parliamentarian.

Carolyn Brown of Johnson City, Tenn., was elected editor of the Bennett Banner, student newspaper and Yvonne Wynne, of Jamaica, N.Y., co-editor.

Elected as representative to the central committee, key administrative body on the campus, was Deloris Tonkins, junior of Greensboro. Rosemary Wright of Camden, S.C., was elected president of the David D. Jones Student Union. Elected secretary of the union board was Nannie Poole of Baltimore, Md., while Kay Turner of Columbus.

Bus Boycott Leader Draws Praise Of Bennett Speaker

A statement that he believes Rev. Martin Luther King of Montgomery, Ala., leader of the successful peaceful bus boycott in that city is "the greatest thing that we have in America today," was made by Dr. Henry Hitt Crane in an address at Bennett College today.

Dr. Crane, pastor of the Central Methodist Church in Detroit, a longtime trustee of Bennett and close friend of the late Dr. David D. Jones, said that Rev. Mr. King is "giving to the world the key idea of how to handle the desegregation problem."

The reference to the bus boycott leader was made as an illustration of how the power of Christianity works in the world, as Dr. Crane outlined what the coming Easter season should mean to Christians.

"A recent poll," he pointed out, "shows that 94 per cent of Americans believe in God, but how many of them are really aware of God?"

A person is assured that he really knows God, the minister said, when he begins to feel a sense of adequacy, when he gets a feeling of infectious joy, when he feels an inner serenity and an outpouring of good will, which, in reality, is love.

"The essence of love," he concluded, "is a willingness to serve."

SPECIAL MUSIC TO HIGHLIGHT PALM SUNDAY

A service of special music by the college choir will highlight the observance of Palm Sunday at Bennett College at 4 p. m. in Pfeiffer Chapel.

The forth-voice group, directed by Mrs. Mary Crawford, will sing two choruses from Brahms "Requiem" — "Ye Now with Sorrow Are Filled" and "How Lovely Are Thy Dwellings" — with Miss Jacqueline McAlister senior, of Kingstree, S. C. as soprano soloist. Another soprano, Miss Dolores Wiggins, junior, of Peterburg, Va., will be soloist for Gounod's "Gallia."

Compositions by Handel, Palestrina and the late Dr. R. Nathaniel Dett's "When I Survey the Wondrous Cross," written when he was a member of the Bennet faculty, will be included.

The college quartette will sing three numbers, one a spiritual, "Let Us Break Bread Together."

Singer Visits At Bennett

Miss Dorothy Maynor, famous soprano, signs autographs for students at Bennett College during her recent "surprise" visit to the Greensboro campus. The singer, who was enroute to an engagement in Tennessee, visited an old friend, Miss Burdette McIver, dietitian at the college. Left to right, are: Misses Elventa Richardson of Wendell, N. C.; Gertrude Smith, Greensboro; Harriett Butler of Cincinnati, Ohio, and Miss Maynor.

AT BENNET COLLEGE — Recently inducted members of college chapter of Kappa Phi, Methodist Girls Club are, from left, first row: Misses Loretta Richmond and Bettye McLean, Greensboro; Harriett Butler, Cincinnati, Ohio; Fannie Miles, Drakes Branch, Va..; second row, Lila Glanding, Sumter, S.C.; Diamia Croslin, Charlotte; Marjorie Smith, Sylva (N.C.); Geneva Averett, Buffalo, N.Y.; Mae H. Shaw, Laurinburg; third row, Albertine Houwen, Alexandria, Va.; Barbara Ingram, Greensboro; Betty Middleton, Burton, S.C., and Edna Jones, Lenoir.

"CLAUDIA" TO BE PRESENTED IN TWO PERFORMANCES

Two performances of "Claudia," the Rose Franken play about a girl who took a long time to grow up, will be presented on April 4 and 5 by the Theatre Guilds of Bennett College.

Roger L. Askew, director, also announced that the Greek play, "Electra," has been chosen for performance during commencement week.

137

Exchange Students Enjoy Full Campus At Bennett College

Three exchange students from Sarah Lawrence College, Bronxville, N. Y., recently spent two weeks at Bennett College under a student exchange program in which the two schools participated. At the same time three Bennett students spent a similar period at the New York school.

The students who visited Bennett, really enjoyed a full campus life while at the college. In meeting Bennett's president, Dr. Willa B. Player, (right photo), the girls were quickly made to feel "at home." From left to right are: Misses Helen Hersey, Gudrum Shultz and Merrill Wagner and Dr. Player.

In center photo, Miss Shultz, a violin major at Sarah Lawrence, finds an able accompanist in Miss Yvonne Wynne, Jamaica, N. Y., junior music major at Bennett. The girls really got a chance to talk things over while eating lunch with three Bennett students. This was only one of a number of student exchange programs in which Bennett was participating.

PRINCIPAL AND PROSPECTS---C. E. Yokely, principal of the Alfred J. Griffin School in High Point, N. C., enjoys a laugh with some teacher prospects at Bennett College following his address there last week. Left to right: Misses Barbara Hammond, Winston-Salem, N. C.; Audrey Mead, Bristol, Tenn.; Ann Cooper, Glendale, Ohio; Martinele West, Chicago, Ill.; Jean Lewis and Christine McGimpsey of Morganton, N. C. and Jacqueline Jeffries, Greensboro.

The Sarah Lawrence visitors have lunch with three Bennett College students.

Bennett hears Dr. S. Gandy

GREENSBORO, N.C.—"Fear of Failure" was the text of the sermon delivered Sunday by Dr. Samuel L. Gandy, dean of chapel at Dillard University, at Bennett College vesper services.

Many persons, he said, fail to take a stand on important issues because they fear failure.

* * *

"THEY ARE so anxious to conform with the majority that they drain themselves of substance of self because their stand would be interpreted by the majority as failure," he declared.

"Jesus was a failure—as far as the zealots of his time were concerned—because He did not conform to their ideas and to the standards which they had set up for Him. Yet He went on to become the hope of mankind," he asserted.

BENNETT COLLEGE JUNIOR, RECIPIENT OF SCHOLARSHIP

Miss Onuma Uko of Nigeria, West Africa, junior social science major at Bennett College, was advised this week that she has been granted a scholarship for summer study at the University of Oxford.

Miss Uko, who will be in residence from July 8 to August 16, will study history and political science and will spend some time visiting in Europe.

MISSIONARY SECRETARY, VISITS BENNETT CAMPUS

Mrs. Marguerite Twinem, of New York City, secretary of missionary personnel, Woman's Division of Christian Service of the Methodist Church, was on the Bennett College campus last week interviewing students interested in entering the field of missions.

June Bride

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde J. Harris of Greensboro, N. C., announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Dorothy Ann Harris, to Shelton D. Williams, son of Mrs. Mary G. Williams and the late Booker T. Williams of Greensboro.

A June 1st wedding is planned at Our Lady of the Miraculous Medal Catholic Church.

The bride-elect, a senior at Bennett College will receive her degree in May.

Mr. Williams, a 1955 graduate of the A. and T. College is now serving with the 356th Army Band, Fort Belvoir, Va.

Miss Gudrun Shultz, a violin major at Sarah Lawrence is accompanied on the piano by Miss Yvonne Wynne of Jamaica, N. Y., junior, music major at Bennett.

Three exchange students from Sarah Lawrence College, Bronxville, N. Y., are greeted by President Willa B. Player of Bennett College shortly after their arrival there. Left to right: Misses Helen Hersey, Gudrun Shultz, and Merrill Wagner.

"Fear Of Failure" Cited By Dean As Important Issue In Our Lives

GREENSBORO, N. C. — "Fear of Failure" was the subject for the sermon of Dr. Samuel L. Gandy, of New Orleans, at the Bennett College vesper service Sunday.

The minister, who is dean of the Lawless Memorial Chapel at Dillard University, declared that on important issues because they many persons fail to take a stand fear failure.

"They are so anxious to con- the majority," he said. in themselves of the self because their interpreated by the ure.

failure — as far as the zealots of His time were concerned — because He did not conform to their ideas and to the standards which they had set up for Him. Yet, He went on to become the hope of mankind."

Dr. Gandy decried the fact that when issues become "hot"," many people "go where it is cool." He said that some degree of success is necessary for man's survival, but that much of what is termed success today is hollow.

"There is a sense in which to begin to fail is to begin to succeed," he concluded, explaining that many individuals to not discover their real selves and capacities until faced with the possibility of failure.

H. S. COOPER

GREENSBORO, N. C. — Present day students must make more adjustments to scientific advancement than have any other generations, H. D. Cooper, principal of the Robert L. Vann High School at Ahoskie, told Bennett College students here Monday.

"The student of today," he said, "needs more than the seven cardinal principles of education. He needs to develop salable skills, to understand science and to learn how to purchase and use goods intelligently."

Get Scholarship Awards

Dr. Willa B. Player, president of Bennett College, presents certificate to Deloris Tonkins, junior, of Greensboro, awarded by the Board of Education of the Methodist Church, while Miss Wilhelmina Bundy, sophmore, of Johnson City, Tenn., looks on. They are two of five Bennett students receiving national scholarships from the board for the 1956-57 academic year.

NEW KAPPA PHI MEMBERS.....Recently inducted members of the Bennett College Chapter of Kappa Phi, Methodist Girls Club, are shown on steps of Chapel. Left to right, first row: Misses Loretta Richmond, Greensboro; Bettye McLean, Greensboro; Harriett Butler, Cinn., Ohio; Fannie Miles, Drakes Branch, Va.; second row: Lila Blanding, Sumter, S. C.; Diamia Croslin, Charlotte; Marjorie Smith, Sylva, N. C.; Geneva Averett, Buffalo, N. Y.; Mae Helen Shaw, Laurinburg, N. C.; third row: Albertine Houwen, Alexandria, Va.; Barbara Ingram, Greensboro; Betty Middleton, Burton, S. C. and Edna Jones, Lenior, N. C.

138

Exchange Students Enjoy Full Campus At Bennett College

Three exchange students from Sarah Lawrence College, Bronxville, N. Y., recently spent two weeks at Bennett College under a student exchange program in which the two schools participated. At the same time three Bennett students spent a similar period at the New York school.

The students who visited Bennett, really enjoyed a full campus life while at the college. In meeting Bennett's president, Dr. Willa B. Player, (right while eating lunch with three Bennett students. This was only one of a number of student exchange programs in which Bennett was participating.

ATTACKED . . . THEN FINED — Lamar Weaver (left, facing camera) is shown talking to the Rev. and Mrs. F. L. Shuttleworth (seated) in the "white" waiting room of the Birmingham, Ala. railroad terminal. Weaver, who was asked to leave the station by police, nearly lost his life when angry bigots stoned his car outside the station. In addition, he was fined $25 for the "reckless driving" he did in making his getaway, and reprimanded by a City Court judge for disregarding local "customs and traditions." (Newspress Photo).

SIGNIFICANT MEETING — UN undersecretary general, Dr. Ralph Bunche (left), is greeted by Egyptian premier Damal Nasser, during their recent meeting in Cairo to discuss the United Nation's role in the Mid-east. A quote, credited to Dr. Bunche, that the UN "has pledged full cooperation with the new (Egyptian) administration of the Gaza Strip" had immediate reaction all over the world. UN officials in New York immediately repudiated the statement. (Newspress Photo).

NIXONS WELCOMED IN SUDAN — Vice president and Mrs. Richard Nixon are shown at the palace in Khartoum, Sudan with Sudanese premier Abdullah Khalil (second from right) and Sudanese foreign minister Mahgoud, shortly after the Nixons arrived on their good-will tour. (Newspress Photo).

HOPE FOR THE FUTURE — Netta Fields, 9, (left) and Marie Gianisella, 8, eat lunch in the cafeteria of the St. Anne Parochial School in Rock Hill, S. C., unmindful that they have become sociological "guinea pigs." The staunch friends daily attend the only integrated school in the state. (Newspress Photo).

Four experts at the beauty business, Frazer, Paten, Gem and of course Ruby (third lady from the left) known for her faithful church duties and her well established Shop, Ruby's Salon at 2219-8th Ave., the midway of Harlem, New York City. JERRY LEE WORLD WIDE PHOTO

Like a showpiece, Pizza Pies have taken the place of the Flapjack or Pancake of the old Child's Restaurant days. Here is Juan, one of the "Flappers" putting on a show with the high flying pizza at The King's Place in Times Square, New York. JERRY LEE WORLD WIDE PHOTO

Bennett hears Dr. S. Gandy

GREENSBORO, N.C.—"Fear of Failure" was the text of the sermon delivered Sunday by Dr. Samuel L. Gandy, dean of chapel at Dillard University, at Bennett College vesper services.

Many persons, he said, fail to take a stand on important issues because they fear failure.

* * *

"THEY ARE so anxious to conform with the majority that they drain themselves of substance of self because their stand would be interpreted by the majority as failure," he declared.

"Jesus was a failure—as far as the zealots of his time were concerned—because He did not conform to their ideas and to the standards which they had set up for Him. Yet He went on to become the hope of mankind," he asserted.

BENNETT COLLEGE JUNIOR, RECIPIENT OF SCHOLARSHIP

Miss Onuma Uko of Nigeria, West Africa, junior social science major at Bennett College, was advised this week that she has been granted a scholarship for summer study at the University of Oxford.

Miss Uko, who will be in residence from July 8 to August 16, will study history and political science and will spend some time visiting in Europe.

MISSIONARY SECRETARY, VISITS BENNETT CAMPUS

Mrs. Marguerite Twinem, of New York City, secretary of missionary personnel, Woman's Division of Christian Service of the Methodist Church, was on the Bennett College campus last week interviewing students interested in entering the field of missions.

June Bride

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde J. Harris of Greensboro, N. C., announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Dorothy Ann Harris, to Shelton D. Williams, son of Mrs. Mary G. Williams and the late Booker T. Williams of Greensboro.

A June 1st wedding is planned at Our Lady of the Miraculous Medal Catholic Church.

The bride-elect, a senior at Bennett College will receive her degree in May.

Mr. Williams, a 1955 graduate of the A. and T. College is now serving with the 356th Army Band, Fort Belvoir, Va.

"Fear Of Failure" Cited By Dean As Important Issue In Our Lives

GREENSBORO, N. C. — "Fear of Failure" was the subject for the sermon of Dr. Samuel L. Gandy, of New Orleans, at the Bennett College vesper service Sunday.

The minister, who is dean of the Lawless Memorial Chapel at Dillard University, declared that on important issues because they many persons fail to take a stand fear failure.

"They are so anxious to con- the majority," he said, in themselves of the self because their interpreated by the ure.

failure — as far as the zealots of His time were concerned — because He did not conform to their ideas and to the standards which they had set up for Him. Yet, He went on to become the hope of mankind."

Dr. Gandy decried the fact that when issues become "hot"," many people "go where it is cool." He said that some degree of success is necessary for man's survival, but that much of what is termed success today is hollow.

"There is a sense in which to begin to fail is to begin to succeed," he concluded, explaining that many individuals to not discover their real selves and capacities until faced with the possibility of failure.

H. S. COOPER

GREENSBORO, N. C. — Present day students must make more adjustments to scientific advancement than have any other generations, H. D. Cooper, principal of the Robert L. Vann High School at Ahoskie, told Bennett College students here Monday.

"The student of today," he said, "needs more than the seven cardinal principles of education. He needs to develop salable skills, to understand science and to learn how to purchase and use goods intelligently."

Get Scholarship Awards

Dr. Willa B. Player, president of Bennett College, presents certificate to Deloris Tonkins, junior, of Greensboro, awarded by the Board of Education of the Methodist Church, while Miss Wilhelmina Bundy, sophmore, of Johnson City, Tenn., looks on. They are two of five Bennett students receiving national scholarships from the board for the 1956-57 academic year.

(Daily News staff photo.)

FORMER CLASSMATES TURNED PRESIDENTS
Dr. Arthur S. Flemming, president of Ohio Wesleyan University, and Dr. Willa B. Player, president of Bennett College, talk over their student days at the Ohio institution where they were members of the class of 1927. The reunion came yesterday when Dr. Flemming gave the commencement address at graduating exercises for Bennett's largest class.

Flemming Gives Talk At Bennett

News 5/28/57

Graduates Hear Noted Educator

Dr. Arthur S. Flemming, former head of the Office of Defense Mobilization and president of Ohio Wesleyan University, told a Bennett College commencement audience yesterday that mutual assistance by this country to foreign nations will in one form or another, "be with us as long as you and I shall live."

The educator, who has served under three presidents, said the "Marshall Plan started us down a pathway from which we will never retreat."

Flemming said he feels this country's policy of defense through deterrents "is buying time for us until a spiritual breakthrough can be effected."

He pointed to the administration's Atoms for Peace and mutual assistance programs as examples of aiding other nations to recognize their highest possibilities.

Common Responsibility

"We have a common responsibility in the field of government," he said, and "a person who refuses to vote, or to take an active part in the political party of his choice is violating the commandment that " 'Thou shall love they neighbor as thyself.' "

Dr. Flemming, who left government service earlier this year to resume the presidency of the Ohio school, was a classmate of Bennett's president, Dr. Willa Player, who introduced him to the commencement audience. They were members of Ohio Wesleyan's class of 1927.

Marie Annette Slaughter of Newport, Ky., was class valedictorian and Grace E. Dungee of Greensboro was salutatorian.

He spoke to Bennett's largest graduating class—105 women—and one member of the class of 1955.

Winners of awards and honors were as follows:

Phyllis Elizabeth Henry of Chestertown, Md., the Boston University School of Theology Scholarship; Julia M. McClain of Grady, Ala., the Hartford Theological Foundation Scholarship; Agatha M. Ricks of Elm City, the Belle Tobias Scholarship; Jacqueline S. Herbin of Greensboro, the Lula Donnell Prize;

Others Listed

Barbara A. Graves of Pelham, the Class of 1921 Prize; Linelle F. Walker of Nassau, Bahamas, B.W.I., Irma Graham Prize; Marlene Iris Beavers of Danville, Va., the Goode Prize for Home Economics; Edith M. Tucker of Elkin, the Omicron Eta Chi Award; Carolyn M. Ingram of Durham, the David D. Jones Leadership Award; and Fredrica M. Washington of Beaufort, S.C., the Faculty Scholarship Award.

At the commencement exercises, Clarence E. Whitman gave an organ recital and the invocation was by the Rev. R. C. Moore of Topeka, Kan. The benediction by the Rev. L. E. Maddox of Federalsburg, Md., closed the program.

Bennett College conferred degrees on 106 seniors yesterday. The list follows:

B.A.—Deloris Alexander, Winston-Salem; Lula Allison, Troutman; Alice Badgett, Pelham; Mary Branch, Henderson; Lena Brooks, Hillsboro; Betty J. Bryant, Smithfield; Dorothy L. Carr, Charlotte; Barbara J. Carson, Lexington; Grace M. Coleman, Charlotte; Pauline Dixon, Burlington; Grace E. Dungee; Betty J. East, Pilot Mountain; Mrs. Betty Smith Echols, Greensboro; Phebie L. Ewings, Mt. Gilead; Cloia Delores Ford, Henderson; Ernestine Foster, Mocksville; Jacqueline E. Hamlett, Greensboro; Dorothy A. Harris, Greensboro; Gwendolyn E. Harris, Greensboro; Alice R. Hayes, Whiteville; Bettye Jean Higgins, Greensboro; Shirley J. Hudson, Greensboro; Carolyn M. Ingram, Durham; Lela B. Johnson, Greensboro;

Ruth A. Johnson, Cedar Grove; Doris A. Lanier, Bath; F. Jean Lewis, Morganton, Margarite B. Mays, Greensboro; Mrs. Juanita Jackson McCain, Charlotte; Janie L. McCorkle, Winston-Salem; Annie G. McGimpsey, Morganton; Mattie Bee McKee, Laurinburg; Mrs. Jeanne Sugg Moore, Rich Square; Mrs. Delores Isley Noble, Greensboro; Ida F. Parker, Mebane; Mrs. Allonia L. Payne, Henderson; Sylvia M. Pretlow, Rocky Mount; Blondelle L. Reid, Greensboro; Jean Renwick, Statesville; J. Ann Rhoden, Charlotte; Melvina Sibert, Trinity; Mrs. Annie Ruth P. Simpson, Greensboro; Thelma R. Simpson, Greensboro; Mrs. Barbara Wylie Smith, Raleigh;

Peggie A Smith, Greensboro; Virginia D. Smith, Roxboro; Cynthia J. Speas, Winston-Salem; Ann M. Stewart, Reidsville; Levine Williams, New Bern; Ann R. Wofford Charlotte; Minnie F. Yarborough, Kittrell; Doris Y. Young, Morganton.

B.S.—Gladys J. Bridgers, Wilson; Barbara E. Davis Raeford; Queen Esther Farrish, Roxboro; Berneatha Fennell, Burgaw; Helen Frances, Lumberton; Tiny Ann Gaddy, Winston-Salem; Barbara A. Graves, Pelham; Dorothy R. Hall, Pleasant Garden; Marcella A. Ireland, Greensboro; Vera A. Kernodle, Elon College; Margaret Y. Tatum, Greensboro; Mildred M. Taylor, Greensboro; Sadie A. Williams, Fayetteville; Sara C. Williams, Henderson.

SOUTH CAROLINA

B.A.—Mildred N. Battiste, Kingstree; Maxine J. Ellerbe, Cheraw; Evelyn R. Gary, Columbia; Jacqueline M. McAlister, Kingstree; Odella Washington, Beaufort.

B.S.—Precious L. Aldrich, McBee; Cecily L. Baxley, Columbia; Novella Hinton, Columbia.

VIRGINIA, WEST VIRGINIA

B.A.—Margaret Benton, Norfolk; Doris Boisseau, Richmond; Barbara J. Elliott, Portsmouth; Virginia M. Holland, Superior, W.Va.; Joyce L. Martin, Hampton; Mary E. Miller, Lynchburg; Flora M. Smith, Clarksburg, W.Va.; Consuelo L. Watkins, Danville.

B.A.—Carolyn R. Crawford, Morristown, Tenn.; Paula M. Edmunds, Cincinnati, Ohio; Audrey F. Mead, Bristol, Tenn.; Geraldine W. Parrish, Glendale, Ohio.

B.S.—Ann M. Cooper, Glendale, Ohio; Edythe J. Fulton, Morristown, Tenn.

B.A.—Gloria A. Blatch, Miami, Fla.; Harriette A. Daniels, Moultrie, Ga.; Mary F. Holloway, Meridian, Miss.; Julia M. McClain, Grady, Ala.; Mrs. Margaret S. Williams, Fernandina Beach, Fla.

B.A.—Thelma S. Culbreth, New York; Helen Green, New York; Phyllis Elizabeth Henry, Odessa, Del.; Dolores P. Johnson, Baltimore; Ethel R. Maddox, Federalsburg, Md.; Shirley A. Moore, Jamaica, N.Y.; Sylvia E. Tyson, New Haven, Conn.

B.S.—Barbara J. Rice, Baltimore; Doris A. Striggles, St. Albans, L.I.

B.A.—Marie A. Slaughter, Newport, Ky.; Martinele J. West, Chicago, Ill.

B.S.—Marion C. Moore, Topeka, Kan.

Beaufort student wins $250 award

GREENSBORO, N.C. — Miss Frederica Washington, a rising senior, of Beaufort, S.C., has been named recipient of the $250 Bennett College faculty scholarship for 1957-58. She received the award at an Honors Day program last Friday.

A commercial education major, she is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Washington and in 1954 was valedictorian at Robert Smalls High School in Beaufort. She plans a career as a secretary or instructor.

The $75 Belle Tobias scholarship, given annually to the freshman considered to have made the most outstanding improvement during the year, went to Miss Agatha M. Ricks of Elm City.

Miss Ricks, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wylie Ricks, is a premedical education major. She was salutatorian of the 1956 class at Douglass High School. Two older sisters graduated from Bennett in 1948 and 1949, respectively.

Other prizes and honors announced were:

Miss Jacqueline S. Herbin: The annual Lula Donnell Prize, to the freshman from Greensboro with the most outstanding record;

Miss Barbara A. Graves, senior, of Pelham: The Class of 1921 Prize for excellence in science, awarded each year to a junior or senior;

Miss Marlene I. Beavers, rising senior, of Danville, Va.: The Goode Prize for home economics, given to the sophomore or junior who best exemplifies the characteristics of a model home economics student;

Miss Edith M. Tucker of Elkin, Omicron Eta Chi Award, to the freshman member who best exemplifies the characteristics expected of a model home economics student;

Miss Carolyn M. Ingram, senior, of Durham, David D. Jones Leadership Award, to the junior or senior exhibiting the most outstanding qualities of leadership in the activities of the David D. Jones Student Union during the year; and Miss Linelle F. Walker, rising senior, of Nassau, Bahamas, Irma Graham Prize for excellence in science, awarded each year to a junior or senior.

Four students won cash prizes in a national essay contest, sponsored by the Intercollegiate Association for Alcohol Studies of Columbus, Ohio. They are Misses Geneva Baldwin of Pittsboro, $10, and Precious Aldrich, McBee, S.C.; Barbara Hammond, Winston-Salem, and Sonja Weldon, Chicago, $5 prizes.

Miss Oshia Brown of Asheville, who wrote a winning essay in a contest sponsored by a national silver manufacturing company, received a starter set of silver, china and crystal.

The Endowment Cup, won by the freshman class for contributing the largest sum to the endowment drive in 1956-57, was presented to Miss Mary Boone, of Sanford, class president, by Miss Paula Edmunds of Cincinnati, president of the Student Senate.

STOPPING TRAFFIC — Officer J. R. Massey halts traffic as these two Bennett College students — Misses Jean Renwick, of Statesville and Margaret Hayes, of Burlington, cross campus street to enter the David D. Jones Student Union. Motorists don't seem to mind delay. Bennett is in Greensboro.

Drama Highlights Spring Activities At Bennett College

STOPPING TRAFFIC---Officer J. R. Massey halts traffic as these two Bennett College students--Misses Jean Renwick, of Statesville and Margaret Hayes, of Burlington, cross campus street to enter David D. Student Union. Motorists don't seem to mind delay.

BENNETT PRESENTS "CLAUDIA"---Lloyd Dillard who played the part of Jerry Seymoure, a playboy Englishman, seems to be having a little difficulty in convincing Julia (seated), as played by Shirley Johnson and Mme. Daruschka as played by Ann Stewart. Action took place in the Bennett College Theater Guild's production of "Claudia" the Ross Franken comedy-drama. Dillard is a student at A & T College.

OPERA HIGHLIGHTS---Some of the music students at Bennett College who presented a program of "Opera Highlights" in the Little Theatre last week, are shown in a scene from Tchaikovsky's "Queen of Spades." Singing duet are, left to right Misses Martha Reid, soprano, of Greensville, N. C. and Grace Atkinson, contralto, of Four Oaks. On left, listening, are Misses DeQuincey Johnson of Lenoir and Helen McEachern, of Rowland. On right are Misses Delories Jackson of Red Springs, and Ruthello McCoy of Elizabeth City.

TALENTED ARTIST---Miss Joan Didier, of Jamaica, BWI, a rising sophomore at Bennett College, puts finishing touches on her painting of the familiar bell tower as three admirers take in the beauty of the scene. Beside her on bench is Miss Margirie Wilson of Clinton, while standing, left to right, are Misses Agatha Ricks of Elm City and Bettie Jo McCauley, of Thomasville.

A HELPING HAND---Miss Jacqueline Jeffers, Bennett College sophomore of Greensboro, N. C., reads a story to a young patient in the L. Richardson Memorial Hospital in Greensboro. Miss Jeffers, an Elementary Education major, is one of one-hundred students currently participating in the field studies program of the college. The students are required to work a minimum of forty hours in some community agency of their choice.

SMILIN' THRU---These two Bennett College seniors lend their smile to the beauty of the dogwood blossoms on the campus of the Greensboro, N. C. institution. And they have good reason to smile. Both Miss Christine McGimpsey (left) of Morganton, and Miss Joan Speas, of Winston-Salem, have been notified of their appointment to the faculty of the Alfred J. Griffin elementary school in High Point, beginning September.

PHYLLIS HENRY JULIA McCLAIN

WIN GRADUATE SCHOLARSHIPS---Awarded scholarships for study in the field of religion for the 1957-1958 school year are the two Bennett College seniors shown above. Miss Henry, of Odessa, Delaware, has been granted a scholarship to the Boston University School of Theology, where, beginning in September, she will pursue work in the field of religious education. Miss McClain, of Grady, Alabama, received a scholarship to the Hartford (Conn.) Theological Seminary, where she will begin studying in September for the Bachelor of Divinity degree.

Students Cited At Bennett

Some of the Bennett College students who received top honors or prizes when the annual Honors Day program was held last week. Left to right, front row: Misses Carolyn M. Ingram, Durham, N. C., winner of the David D. Jones Leadership Award; Linelle Walker, Nassau, Bahamas, winner of the Irma Graham Prize, for excellence in science; Marlene Beavers, Danville, Va., winner of the Goode Prize in Home Economics; in back row: Agatha Ricks, Elm City, N. C., winner of the Belle Tobias Scholarship; Fredrica Washington, Beaufort, S. C., winner of Faculty Scholarship Award, and Edith M. Tucker, Elkin, N. C., winner of the Omicron Eta Chi Award in home economics.

FATHERS OF 1957 GRADUATES PARTICIPATE IN EXERCISES

Four ministers — parents of members of the 1957 graduating class — took part in the baccalaureate and commencement exercises at Bennett College on Sunday and Monday.

The Rev. Benjamin W. Stewart of Reidsville, father of Miss Ann Stewart, read the lesson from the New Testament and the Rev. Morris L. Johnson of Greensboro, father of Miss Lela B. Johnson, gave the benediction at the baccalaureate services.

Invocation for the commencement exercises was delivered by the Rev. R. C. Moore of Topeka Kansas, father of Miss Marion Moore, and the benediction was pronounced by the Rev. L. E. Maddox of Federalsburg, Maryland, father of Miss Ethel Maddox.

NEWS ABOUT PEOPLE

Dr. Willa B. Player, president of Bennett College, addressed a luncheon meeting of the Smith College club of New York at the Belmont-Plaza Hotel in that city Feb. 20.

139

World Peace Hopes Soar, College Told

BY DOROTHY ANN BENJAMIN
Record Staff Writer

The former head of the Office of Defense Mobilization said here today that he is convinced that the United States Senate will ratify the treaty that will create an international organization to put President Eisenhower's "atoms for peace" plan into effect.

Dr. Arthur S. Flemming, president of Ohio Wesleyan University, told the Bennett College 84th commencement audience that he feels that the issue of war or peace can be faced with optimism.

"I believe that the mobilization program that is being followed by the United States and the other nations of the free world may deter the forces of international communism from aggression. . . I like to think of our mobilization program as a program that is 'buying time' for us until spiritual forces provide us with a spiritual break-through that will bring us to a pathway that leads to peace. And I believe that those spiritual forces are at work—to an ever-increasing degree, we and our fellow citizens are obeying the commandment to love our neighbors as ourselves," he said.

Dr. Flemming pointed out that this commandment places "upon each one of us a common responsibility . . . which, if assumed, provides our lives with both a center and direction."

However, he said this commandment does not require us to like our neighbor nor to approve everything that he says or does but it does require us to do everything within our power to help our neighbors realize their highest responsibilities.

He stated that the commandment places upon all a common responsibility in government, political parties, welfare agencies in the community and churches and religious faiths.

Dr. Flemming feels that there is no institution which can do more to make it possible for people to realize their highest possibilities than the church. He also urged support of the government's mutual assistance programs which help, in an intelligent manner, other nations to realize their highest possibilities.

Bennett had 105 seniors, the largest graduating class, participating in the 10:30 a.m. program. Marie Annette Slaughter of Newport, Ky., was the valedictorian and Grace E. Dungee of Greensboro, salutatorian.

Phyllis Elizabeth Henry of Chestertown, Md., received the Boston University School of Theology Scholarship; Julia M. McClain of Grady, Ala., Hartford Theological Foundation Scholarship; Agatha M. Ricks of Elm City, Belle Tobias Scholarship; Jacqueline S. Herbin of Greensboro, Lula Donnell Prize; Barbara A. Graves of Pelham, Class of 1921 Prize; Linelle F. Walker of Nassau, Bahamas, Irma Graham Prize; Marlene Iris Beavers of Danville, Va., Goode Prize for Home Economics; Edith M. Tucker of Elkin, Omicron Eta Chi Award; Carolyn M. Ingram of Durham, David D. Jones Leadership Award and Fredrica M. Washington of Beaufort, Faculty Scholarship Award.

Bishop Heard By Seniors At Bennett

Bishop J. W. E. Bowen of the Methodist Church in Atlanta, Ga., cautioned the senior class of Bennett College yesterday to find themselves a standard of values if they hoped "to get the real good in any area of life."

In the baccalaureate sermon at the college chapel, the bishop set out three fundamentals necessary "for a truly righteous life."

He told the overflow crowd that a life must be founded on faith in God—not on some particular thing in religion but "a broad faith in God as we know Him in the Scripture."

"Then you must develop a skill of mind and of hand. It is not enough to merely remember how many books you have read. The important thing is whether you can think.

Self Control

"Finally, one of the foundations of life is what we might call self control, or self direction. This is not merely the ability to hold oneself back but to be able to propel oneself ahead in the desired direction."

The minister told the graduates that "we belong to a people who desperately need the power of self control—the power of self direction.

"We must be careful that we are not taken in by demagogues trained in mass psychology," he said.

The college's commencement program will come to a close today with graduation exercises beginning at 10:30 a.m. for 105 seniors at the institution, its largest graduating class.

Speaker for the commencement program will be Dr. Arthur S. Flemming, president of Ohio Wesleyan University of Delaware, Ohio, and former director of the Office of Defense Mobilization.

PROSPECTIVE BENNETT GRADS FROM N. C.---Shown above are North Carolina seniors at Bennett College who are candidates for graduation on May 27.

First row left to right: Misses Levine Williams, New Bern; Peggy Smith, Greensboro; Lela Johnson, Greensboro; Betty Higgins, Greensboro; Dorothy Carr, Charlotte; Barbara Carson, Lexington; Blondell Reid, Greensboro; Pauline Dixon, Burlington; Bettye East, Pilot Mountain; Annie Wofford, Charlotte; Betty Bryant, Smithfield; Mrs. Betty S. Echols, Greensboro; Mrs. Delores Noble, Greensboro; Mattie McRae, Laurinburg; Janie McCorkel, Winston-Salem; Cozetta Berger, Reidsville; Ernestine Foster, Mocksville; Berneatha Fennell, Burgaw, Rutha Johnson, Cedar Grove; second row left to right: Minnie Yarborough, Kittrell; Edith Kenodle, Elon College; Melvina Sibert, Trinity; Betty Bragg, Greensboro; Vera Kernodle, Elon College; Jacqueline Hamlet, Greensboro; Grace Dungee, Greensboro; Delores Alexander, Winston-Salem; Phlendia Brooks, Hillsboro; Barbara Davis, Raeford; Ann Rhoden, Charlotte; Phebie Ewings, Mt. Gilead; Shirley Hudson, Greensboro; Ida Parker, Mebane; Jean Lewis, Morganton; Carolyn Ingram, Durham; Mrs. Annie Simpson, Greensboro; third row left to right: Barbara Graves, Pelham; Ann Stewart, Reidsville; Mildred Taylor, Greensboro; Alice Hayes, Whiteville; Virginia Smith, Roxboro; Joan Speas, Winston-Salem; Dorothy Hall, Pleasant Garden; Doris Young, Morganton; Margarie Mays, Greensboro; Gwendolyn Harris, Greensboro; Dorothy Harris, Greensboro; Mary Branch, Henderson; fourth row left to right; Margaret Tatum, Greensboro; Cloia Ford, Henderson; Lula Allison, Troutman; Christine McGimpsey, Morganton; Tiny Gaddy, Winston-Salem; Jean Renwick, Statesville; Sara Williams, Henderson; Barbara Smith, Raleigh; Alice Badgett, Pelham, Sadie Williams, Fayetteville.

Record Class Finishes At Bennett Exercises

GREENSBORO, N. C.—Candidates for graduation at Bennett College on Monday, May 27, numbered 106—largest class in the history of the institution, Miss Mary Mayfield, regsitrar, announced this week.

Bishop J. W. E. Bowen, of Atlanta, delivered the baccalaureate address at 4 p. m. on Sunday, May 26 and t 10:30 a. m. the following day, Dr. Arthur S. Flemming, president of Ohio Wesleyan University, Delaware, Ohio, gave the commencement address.

• • •

THE LIST OF CANDIDATES follows:

NORTH CAROLINA: Deloris Alexander, Winston-Salem; Lula Allison, Troutman; Alice Badgett, Pelham; Mary Branch, Henderson; Lena Brooks, Hillsboro; Betty J. Bryant, Smithfield; Dorothy L. Carr, Charlotte; Barbara J. Carson, Lexington; Grace M. Coleman, Charlotte; Pauline Dixon, Burlington; Grace E. Dungee, Greensboro; Betty J. East, Pilot Mountain.

Mrs. Betty Smith Echols, Greensboro; Phebie L. Ewings, Mt. Gilead; Cloia Delores Ford, Henderson; Ernestine Foster, Mocksville; Jacqueline E. Hamlett, Greensboro; Dorothy A. Harris, Greensboro; Gwendolyn E. Harris, Greensboro; Alice R. Hayes, Whiteville; Betty Jean Higgins, Greensboro; Shirley J. Hudson, Greensboro; Carolyn M. Ingram, Durham; Lela B. Johnson, Greensboro.

• • •

RUTHA A. JOHNSON, District F... for ... Judge ... Grove; Edith P. Kernodle, Elon College; Doris A. Lanier, Bath; F. Jean Lewis, Morganton; Margarie B. Mays, Greensboro; Mrs. Juanita Jackson McCain, Charlotte; Janie L. McCorkle, Winston-Salem; Annie C. McGimpsey, Morganton; Mattie Bee McRae, Laurinburg; Mrs. Jeanne Sugg Moore, Rich Square; Mrs. Delores Isley Noble, Greensboro.

Ida F. Parker, Mebane; Sylvia M. Pretlow, Rocky Mount; Blondelle L. Reid, Greensboro; Jean Renwick, Statesville; J. Ann Rhoden, Charlotte; Melvina Sibert, Trinity; Mrs. Annie Ruth P. Simpson, Greensboro; Thelma R. Simpson, Greensboro; Mrs. Barbara Wyite Smith, Raleigh.

Peggie A. Smith, Greensboro; Virginia D. Smith, Roxboro; Cynthia J. Speas, Winston-Salem; Ann M. Stewart, Reidsville; Levine Williams, New Bern; Ann R. Wofford, Charlotte; Minnie A. Yarborough, Kittrell; Doris Y. Young, Morganton.

• • •

GLADYS J. BRIDGERS, Wilson; Barbara E. Davis, Raeford; Queen Esther Farrish, Roxboro; Berneatha Fennell, Burgaw; Helen Frances, Lumberton, Tiny Ann Gaddy, Winston-Salem; Barbara A. Graves, Pelham; Dorothy R. Hall, Pleasant Garden; Marcella A. Ireland, Greensboro; Vera A. Kernodle, Elon College; Margaret Y. Tatum, Greensboro; Mildred M. Taylor, Greensboro; Sadie A. Williams, Fayetteville; Sara C. Williams, Henderson.

SOUTH CAROLINA

Mildred N. Battiste, Kingstree; Mayme J. Ellerbe, Cheraw; Evelyn R. Gary, Columbia; Jacqueline M. McAlister, Kingstree; Odella Washington, Beaufort.

Precious L. Aldrich, McBee; Cecily L. Baxley, Columbia; Novella Hinton, Columbia.

• • •

VIRGINIA, WEST VIRGINIA

MARGARET BENTON, Norfolk; Doris Boisseau, Richmond; Barbara J. Elliott, Portsmouth; Virginia M. Holland, Superior, W. Va.; Joyce L. Martin, Hampton; Mary E. Miller, Lynchburg; Flora M. Smith, Clarksburg, W. Va.; Consuelo L. Watkins, Danville.

• • •

OHIO, TENNESSEE

Carolyn R. Crawford, Morristown, Tenn.; Paul M. Edmunds, Cincinnati, Ohio; Audrey F. Mead, Bristol, Tenn.; Geraldine W. Parrish, Glendale, Ohio.

Ann M. Cooper, Glendale, Ohio; Edythe J. Fulton, Morristown, Tenn.

Gloria A. Blatch, Miami, Fla.; Harriette A. Daniels, Moultrie, Ga.; Mary F. Holloway, Meridian, Miss.; Julia M. McClain, Grady, Ala.; Mrs. Margaret S. Williams, Germantina Beach, Fla.

Thelma S. Culbreth, New York; Helen Green, New York; Phyllis Elizabeth Henry, Odessa, Del.; Dolores P. Johnson, Baltimore; Ethel R. Maddox, Federalsburg, Md.; Shirley A. Moore, Jamaica, N. Y.; Sylvia E. Tyson, New Haven, Conn.

Barbara J. Rice, Baltimore; Doris A. Striggles, St. Albans, L. I.

Marie A. Slaughter, Newport, Ky.; Martinele E. West, Chicago, Ill.; Marion C. Moore, Topeka, Kansas.

Tour Brings 15 Editors To Guilford

BY JULIAN MORRISON
Greensboro Daily News Staff Writer

Fifteen out-of-state editors breezed through the Greensboro-High Point area yesterday as part of their six-day aerial and ground inspection of North Carolina's attractions—industrial, recreational and educational.

The newsmen and magazine writers are on the fourth leg of Gov. Luther Hodges' "Editor's Air Cruise" which has already taken them from the Raleigh-Durham-Chapel Hill "Research Triangle" to deep sea fishing off Wrightsville Beach and an overnight stop at Pinehurst.

In between, the visiting journalists have been liberally wined and dined on North Carolina's finest—all in an effort to promote the Old North State's attractions to business and industry and those who would live graciously.

Parker's Idea

Conceived by Charles J. Parker, director of the State Advertising Bureau, the whirlwind tour attracted 15 editors of metropolitan newspapers and national magazines.

Beginning yesterday morning with a visit to the Tomlinson Furniture Co. in High Point, the editors were given a motorized look at Greensboro's residential areas and three of its institutions of higher learning in the afternoon.

Haywood Duke served as host for the group at his Sedgefield Inn for lunch before the tour continued through Greensboro.

First stop on the editors' list here was the campus of Woman's College where the group was shown through the library.

Dr. Willa Player conducted the journalists through Pfeiffer Chapel and the Student Union building at Bennett College, and Warmouth T. Gibbs, A&T president, interrupted an administrative conference at his school to greet the visitors.

The editorial motorcade took the group past Greensboro's industrial district, the P. Lorillard cigarette plant and through ORD before winding up at the Georgian home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Price for refreshments.

A transplanted Bostonian, Charlotte News publisher Thomas L. Robinson, is serving as co-host for the tour with Parker and Governor Hodges.

Guests On Tour

Their guests included Jack Bell of The Miami Herald and the Knight Newspapers; Robert L. Conly of the National Geographic Magazine; William Emerson, southern bureau chief of Newsweek; Ray Erwin of Editor & Publisher; William J. Foote of the Hartford (Conn.) Courant; John Forrest of the New York Times;

Bernard L. Glaser of Coronet; Aubrey Graves of the Washington Post-Times Herald; Louis Hiner of the Indianapolis News; William Hines of the Washington Star; Harry Johnson, southern bureau chief of Time and Life; Herbert Kaufman of See America; Eugene Miller of Business Week (formerly of the Greensboro Daily News); Michael Ogden of the Providence Journal; and A. M. Sullivan of Dun's Review and Modern Industry Magazine.

The tour continues today in Winston-Salem, moves to Asheville in its chartered Piedmont Airlines plane this afternoon and ends Wednesday when the editors fly back to Washington where the tour began last Friday.

At Bennett:

Miss Mayme J. Ellerbe Senior Vespers Speaker

GREENSBORO — "The Steps from Hibernation to Liberation" was the subject of the address delivered by Miss Mayme J. Ellerbe, of Cheraw, S. C., Sunday as Bennett College seniors held their annual vesper service in Pfeiffer Chapel.

Pointing to self-knowledge as the first requisite of mature behavior, Miss Ellerbe, a sociology major, declared:

"The future of our nation and of the world depends on the seriousness with which each of us pursues the tasks for which she is best fitted."

She warned the seniors that their behavior must be such that they can at all times defend their actions, without shifting theblame for their failure to others. "No woman," she said, "can afford to become a 'learner'."

As a second requisite, the speaker listed the need for service. "No knowledge is valuable unless it is shared," "and no experience is meaningful unless it is profitable to someone other than the person who originated it."

Miss Ellerbe further warned against self-satisfaction and complacency and told the seniors that as a final requisite, they must incorporate God in their lives.

"Your best self," she concluded, "added to unlimited service to your fellowmen and multiplied by an unrelenting faith in God can be equated to the formula which leads from hibernation to liberation. Where do you begin?"

Miss Ann Stewart of Reidsville, presided. Miss Geraldine Parrish of Glendale, Ohio, read from the Old Testament and Miss Phyllis Henry, of Odessa, Delaware, read from the New Testament, offered prayer and gave the benediction.

The choir, directed by Miss Jacqueline McAllister, of Kingstree, S. C., sang two anthems, one of them, "Isaiah's Vison of God's Glory," composed by Clarence E. Whiteman, college organist, especially for the service.

106 To Graduate at Bennett College Monday, May 27; Bishop Bowen Is Baccalaureate Speaker

Candidates for graduation at Bennett College on Monday, May 27, numbered 106 — largest class in history of the institution, Miss Mary Mayfield, registrar, announced this week.

Bishop J. W. E. Bowen, of Atlanta, delivered the baccalaureate address at 4 p. m. on Sunday, May 26, and at 10:30 a.m. the following day, Dr. Arthur S. Flemming, president of Ohio Wesleyan University, Delaware, Ohio gave the commencement address.

The list of candidates from North Carolina are as follows:

B. A.

Deloris Alexander, Winston-Salem; Lula Allison, Troutman; Alice Badgett, Pelham; Mary Branch, Henderson; Lena Brooks, Hillsboro; Betty J. Bryant, Smithfield; Dorothy L. Carr, Charlotte; Barbara J. Carson, Lexington; Grace M. Coleman, Charlotte; Pauline Dixon, Burlington; Grace E. Dungee, Greensboro; Betty J. East, Pilot Mountain.

Mrs. Betty Smith Echols, Grensboro; Phebie L. Ewings, Mt. Gilead; Cloia Delores Ford, Henderson; Ernestine Foster, Mocksville; Jacqueline E. Hamlett, Greensboro; Dorothy A. Harris, Greensboro; Gwendolyn E. Harris, Greensboro; Alice R Hayes, Whiteville; Bettye Jean Higgins, Greensboro; Shirley J. Hudson, Greensboro; Carolyn M. Ingram, Durham; Lela B. Johnson, Greensboro;

GreekTragedy, 'Electra,' Presented At College

Sophocles' tragedy, "Electra," was presented last night at Bennett College on the Pfeiffer Chapel terrace by the Bennett College Senior Theater Guild with assistance from a Guilford County school teacher and two A&T College students.

Delores Johnson of Baltimore played the title role and Eddie Griffin played her brother, Orestes. In supporting roles were Lloyd Dillard and John Williams of A&T and Ann Stewart, Rudene Abney, Sonia Louden, Shirley Johnson, Kay Turner and Nannie Poole.

GETS STUDY GRANT — Miss Wilhelmina J. Gilbert, business education instructor at Bennett College, Greensboro, N. C., has been granted a Cockesbury Award in College Teaching through the Board of Education of the Methodist Church. She has been given a year's leave to continue her doctoral studies.

ACTIVITIES DURING MAY AT BENNETT COLLEGE

BENNETT COMMENCEMENT- Scene of and principals in the 84th commencement exercises at Bennett College, Greensboro, N. C., May 26 and 27. Bishop Bowen will preach the baccalaureate sermon at 4 p. m. on May 26 and on May 27, at 10:30 a. m., Dr. Flemming will deliver the commencement address. Dr. Player will preside at both exercises in Pfeiffer Chapel and confer degrees.

BENNETT MAY QUEEN---Miss Mildred Taylor, of Greensboro, N.C., who reigned over May Day festivities at Bennett College on Saturday.

DEATH OF A SCIENTIST---Miss Beverly Jackson of Norwich, Conn. (prostrate in center) who played part of Mme. Marie Curie is mourned by friends in death scene, one of six dances depicting her life during annual May Day Festival at Bennett College Saturday.

BENNETT QUEEN CROWNED---Dr. Willa B. Player, president of Bennett College, places crown on head of Miss Mildred Taylor during May Day Festival at the Greensboro institution on Saturday. At left are two members of Miss Taylor's court: Misses Geraldine Parrish of Glendale, Ohio and Betty East of Pilot Mountain.

END OF A MARTYR---Miss Peggy Coefield of Kinston, N. C. who portrayed the role of Joan of Arc is shown after hearing judges sentence her to death--one of the scenes highlighting her life, performed by dancers during annual May Day Festival at Bennett College on Saturday.

SERIOUS BUSINESS---Despite their worried expression, these Bennett College students are not protesting to the registrar, Miss Mary Mayfield, about their grades. In fact, they are not protesting anything. They are following the annual custom of "signing-up" for roommates for next fall and just want to be sure that their preferences are properly recorded.

SERIOUS BUSINESS—Despite their worried expressions, these Bennett college students are not protesting to the registrar, Miss Mary Mayfield, about their grades. In fact, they are not protesting anything. They are following the annual custom of "signing-up" for roommates for next fall and just want to be sure that their preferences are properly recorded.

Are mothers 'putting cart before horse?

GREENSBORO, N.C. — A belief that the "cart has been put before the horse" when a mother feels that her greatest contribution is to bring additional income into the home, was expressed by Dr. William A. Banner of Washington, during the Mother's Day vesper service at Bennett College Sunday.

Dr. Banner, professor of Philosophy at Howard University, spoke on "The Place of the Modern Mother in the Modern Home."

"Quite apart from the compensations and attractions of professional life, the mother of children performs her greatest service in the home, where she is terribly needed. in providing direction for the development of children.

* * *

"HER CONTRIBUTION is in two main areas—developing the minds of children and developing their sense of basic values."

Recognizing that the circumstances of death or special privation may make it necessary for the mother of children to essay the role of breadwinner, the speaker said tht such exceptions did not change fundamentally the point of greatest service for the mother.

Presented for baptism were the children of two Bennett graduates—Michael, son of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Reese of Greensboro, and Cheryl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. McCain of Charlotte.

Mrs. Reese is the former Miss Mary E. Pierce, of the class of 1951, and Mrs. McCain, the former Miss Juanita Jackson, is a member of class of 1957.

EASY IF YOU KNOW HOW—These students at Bennett college, Greensboro, N. C., members of a beginning class in swimming at the Hayes-Taylor YMCA pool, watch their instructor, Mrs. Necie Boyers, demonstrate the proper way to float. Left to right: Misses Honora Glover, Asheboro; Mary Shoffner, Greensboro; Gene Baldwin, Pittsboro; Sylvania Black, Marlin, Texas, and Mary Boone, Sanford.

TO GIVE PLAY

Miss Dolores Johnson, senior, of Baltimore, Md., will play the lead in the Greek drama, "Electra," when it is presented at 8 o'clock tonight on the patio in front of the Annie Merner Pfeiffer Chapel. The Sophocles drama, translated by Francis Ferguson, and directed by Roger L. Askew is the final Theater Guild production of the year.

WITH THE PRESIDENTS OF BENNET AND A&T

In picture at left, Dr. Willa Player, third from left, Bennett College president, conducts three of her guests around the college campus as the members of the Editor's Air Cruise visited the school. With Dr. Player are Mrs. Miriam G. Rabb, travel editor of the North Carolina State Advertising Division in Raleigh; Ray Erwin, feature editor of Editor & Publisher and (right) Robert L. Conly, assistant editor of the National Geographic Magazine. In the other picture, Warmouth T. Gibbs, president of A&T College, is shown with A. M. Sullivan, editor of Dun's Review and Modern Industry, and Conly as they and the other visiting editors toured the A&T campus.

GETS COKESBURY AWARD — Miss Wilhelmina J. Gilbert, business education instructor at Bennett College, who has been granted a Cokesbury Award in college teaching through the board of education of the Methodist Church. Granted year's leave, Miss Gilbert will pursue work in business administration leading to the doctorate.

Recital

Miss Jean Renwick, organist, of Statesville, was presented Sunday night in Pfeiffer Chapel in the final recital of the year by senior music students at Bennett College.

Opening her program with two numbers from Buxtehude, she played compositions by Bach, including his "Toccata and Fugue in D Minor"; Handel's "Organ Concerto No. 5 in F Major" and "Behold A Rose Breaks Into Bloom" by Brahms.

* * *

Fashion Show

Students in the clothing department at Bennett College presented their annual outdoor fashion show Thursday morning in front of Merner Hall.

The show, directed by Mrs. Louise G. Streat, clothing instructor, featured a number of original creatons and, for the first time in its history, employed male models.

Baltimorean to play 'Electra'

GREENSBORO, N.C. — Miss Dolores Johnson, senior, of Baltimore, will play the lead in the Greek drama, "Electra," when it is presented at 8 p.m. on May 24 on the patio in front of Pfeiffer Chapel.

The Sophocles tragedy, translated by Francis Ferguson and directed by Roger L. Askew, is the final Theatre Guild production of the year.

* * *

MISS ANN STEWART, senior, of Reidsville, is cast in the role of Chrysothemis; Miss Rudene Abney, sophomore, of Norristown, Pa., as Clytemnestra, while Miss Sonia Louden, junior, of Cincinnati, Ohio, will play the part of the leader.

Eddie Griffin, a county school teacher, will play the part of Orestes. Two A. and T. College students — Lloyd Dillard and John Williams — will play the parts of Paidogogos and Aegisthos, respectively. Members of the chorus will be Misses Kay Rita Turner, of Columbus, Ohio; Shirley Johnson, of McLeansville and Nannie Poole, of Baltimore.

PHYLLIS HENRY JULIA McCLAIN

WIN GRADUATE SCHOLARSHIPS: Awarded scholarships for study in the field of religion for the 1957-58 school year are the two Bennett College seniors shown above. Miss Henry, of Odessa, Dela., has been granted a scholarship to the Boston University School of Theology, where, beginning in September, she will pursue work in the field of religious education. Miss McClain, of Grady, Ala., received a scholarship to the Hartford (Conn.) Theological Seminary, where she will begin studying in September for the Bachelor of Divinity degree.

Two members of Bennett College for Women, Greensboro, N.C., have garnered scholarships for doctoral study. They are Wilhelmina J. Gilbert, business education instructor; and Roy Lee, instructor in physics and mathematics.

To Miss Gilbert will go a Cokesbury award in College Teaching through the board of education of the Methodist Church. She's a Clark College and Boston University graduate.

Mr. Lee, who holds A.B. and M.S. degrees from Kansas State Teachers College, is recipient of a Du Pont summer scholarship and will study at Columbia University where he has also done advance study.

HEAD STUDENT GOVERNMENT—Newly elected officers of the Student Senate at Bennett College, above, are shown as they go over plans for next year. They are, left to right, Ruth Anderson, Philadelphia, Pa., assistant secretary, Jimmie English, Camden, S. C., president, Dequincy Johnson, Lenoir, treasurer, Mary Jane William, Winston-Salem, secretary, and Wilhelmina Bundy, Johnson City, Tenn., parliamentarian.

Parts Of 3 Operas Given At Bennett

GREENSBORO, N. C. — A program of "Opera Highlights," featuring excerpts from three operas, was presented by the music department of Bennett College recently in the Little Theatre.

In "Down in the Valley" by Weill, leading roles were taken by Dwight Hargrove, reader and Elworth Smith, Jr., tenor, both A. and T. College students, and Miss Diamia Croslin, lyric soprano.

* * *

GRACE ATKINSON, contralto of Four Oaks, and Martha Reid, soprano, of Greenville, N. C. had the leads in Tchaikovsky's "Queen of Spades." Others in the cast were Ruthello McCoy, of Elizabeth City; Helen McEachern, of Rowland, N. C.; DeQuincey Johnson, of Lenoir, N. C., and Delories Jackson, of Red Springs, N. C.

Leads in "Hansel and Gretel" were sung by Lady Ann Shivers, contralto, of Aberdeen, Miss.; Bernice Green, soprano, of Anderson, S. C.; Duella Bass, soprano of Greensboro; and Doris Wyche, mezzo soprano, of New Canaan, Conn. The chorus was composed of members of the freshman choir.

Director was Mrs. Mary Crawford, who with Mrs. Nina Kudrik served as accompanist. Narrator was Miss Grace Dungee of Greensboro.

Bennett College Begins Activities For Finals Week

Commencement week activities at Bennett College got under way at 3 p.m. today with class day exercises on the portico of the Little Theater.

Tonight at 8 o'clock, the Theater Guilds will present "Electra" by Sophocles in front of Pfeiffer Chapel, with Miss Dolores Johnson, of Baltimore, in the leading role.

The annual meeting of the Graduate Assn. will be held at 10 a.m. tomorrow, to be followed at 1 p.m. by the All-Bennett Luncheon which will highlight the reunions of the classes of 1932, 1937, 1947 and 1952. The annual senior choir concert will be heard at 8 p.m. in the Little Theater, to be followed at 9:30 by the traditional campus illumination.

Members of the National Council of Bennett Parents will meet at 9:30 a.m. on Sunday in Holgate Library and Alpha Kappa Mu honor society will meet at 10 a.m. Bishop J. W. E. Bowen, of Atlanta, Ga., will deliver the baccalaureate address at 4 p.m. in Pfeiffer Chapel.

On Monday, at 10:30, the commencement exercises will be held in the chapel, with Dr. Arthur S. Flemming, president of Ohio Wesleyan University, Delaware, Ohio, as the speaker. President Willa B. Player will confer degrees on the largest class in the history of the college.

Doctoral Awards To Bennett Pair

GREENSBORO — Two members of the Bennett College faculty have been awarded scholarships for doctoral study, it was announced this week.

Miss Wilhelmina J. Gilbert, business education instructor, has been granted a Cokesbury Award in College Teaching through the Board of Education of the Methodist Church. The award is for one year and Miss Gilbert will pursue work in business administration.

Roy Lee, instructor in physics and mathematics, is the recipient of a Du Pont summer scholarship and will study at Columbia University, where he was also enrolled last summer.

Miss Gilbert, a graduate of Clark College in Atlanta, holds a master's degree in business education from Boston University where she studied economics last summer. Mr. Lee holds the A. B. and M. S. degrees from Kansas State Teachers College and has done further study at Columbia.

Rutha A. Johnson, Cedar Grove; Edith P. Kernodle, Elon College; Doris A. Lanier, Bath; F. Jean Lewis, Morganton; Margarie B. Mays, Greensboro; Mrs. Juanita Jackson McCain, Charlotte; Janie L. McCorkle, Winston-Salem; Annie C. McGimpsey, Morganton; Mattie Bee McRae, Laurinburg; Mrs. Jeanne Sugg Moore, Rich Square; Mrs. Delores Isley Noble, Greensboro;

Ida F. Parker, Mebane; Sylvia M. Pretlow, Rocky Mount; Blondelle L. Reid, Greensboro; Jean Renwick, Statesville; J. Ann Rhoden, Charlotte; Melvina Sibert, Trinity; Mrs. Annie Ruth P. Simpson, Greensboro; Thelma R. Simpson, Greensboro; Mrs. Barbara Wyatt Smith, Raleigh;

Peggie A. Smith, Greensboro; Virginia D. Smith, Roxboro; Cynthia J. Speas, Winston-Salem; Ann M. Stewart, Reidsville; Levine Williams, New Bern; Ann L. Wofford, Charlotte; Minnie F. Yarborough, Kittrell; Doris Y. Young, Morganton.

B. S.

Gladys J. Bridgers, Wilson; Barbara E. Davis, Raeford; Queen Esther Farrish, Roxboro;

bishop of the Second Episcopal District of the A.M.E. Church. Bishop Reid is one of the South Carolina leaders who has fought so valliantly to prevent the closing of the public schools in that state, and is currently active in the efforts of Nego citizens of South Caolina to achieve full citizenship.

Music will be funished by the

BENNETT COMMENCEMENT—Scene of and principals in the 84th commencement exercises at Bennett College, Greensboro, N. C., May 26 and 27. Bishop Bowen will preach the baccalaureate sermon at 4 p. m. on May 26 and on May 27 at 10:30 a. m., Dr. Flemming will deliver the commencement address. Dr. Player will preside at both exercises in Pfeiffer Chapel and confer degrees.

Miss Ellerbe addresses Bennett College seniors

GREENSBORO, N.C. —"The Steps from Hibernation to Liberation" was the subject of the address delivered by Miss Mayme J. Ellerbe of Cheraw, S.C., Sunday as Bennett College seniors held their annual vesper service in Pfeiffer Chapel.

Pointing to self-knowledgement as the first requisite of mature behavior, Miss Ellerbe, a sociology major, declared:

"The future of our nation and the world depends on the seriousness with which each of us pursues the tasks for which he is best fitted."

She warned the seniors that their behavior must be such that they can at all times defend their actions without shifting the blame for their failure to others. "No womon," she said, "can afford to become a 'learner'."

As a second requisite, the speaker listed the need for service. "No knowledge is valuable unless it is shared," she stated, "and no experience is meaningful unless it is profitable to someone other than the person who originated it."

Miss Ellerbe further warned against self-complacency and told the seniors that as a final requisite, they must incorporate God in their lives.

* * *

"YOUR BEST self," she concluded, "added to unlimited service to your fellowmen and multiplied by an unrelenting faith in God can be equated the formula which leads from hibernation to liberation. Where do you begin?"

Miss Ann Stewart of Reidsville, presided. Miss Geraldine Parrish of Glendale, Ohio, read from the Old Testament and Miss Phyllis Henry of Odessa, Del., read from the Nw Testament, offered prayer and gave the benediction.

The choir, directed by Miss Jacqueline McAllister Kingstree, S.C., sang two anthems one of them "Isaiah's Vision of God's Glory" by Clarence E. Whiteman, College organist.

Bennett cites opera scenes

GREENSBORO, N.C.—A program of "Opera Highlights," featuring excerpts from three operas, was presented by the music department of Bennett College Friday night in the Little Theatre.

In "Down in the Valley," by Weill, cast in the leading roles were Dwight Hargrove, reader, and Elworth Smith Jr., tenor, both A. and T. College students, and Miss Diamia Croslin, lyric soprano.

Grace Atkinson, contralto of Four Oaks, and Martha Reid, soprano, of Greenville, had the leads in Tchaikovsky's "Queen of Spades." Others in the cast were Ruthello McCoy of Elizabeth City, Helen McEachern of Rowland, DeQuincy Johnson of Lenoir and Delories Jackson of Red Springs, N.C.

* * *

LEADS IN "Hansel and Gretel" were sung by Lady Ann Shivers, contralto, of Aberdeen, Miss.; Bernice Green, soprano, Anderson, S.C.; Duella Bass, soprano of Greensboro; and Doris Wyche, mezzo soprano of New Canaan, Conn.

The chorus was composed of members of the freshman choir.

Director was Mrs. Mary Crawford, with Mrs. Nina Kudrik as accompanist. Narrator was Miss Grace Dungee of Greensboro.

BENNETT FACULTY MEMBERS AWARDED SCHOLARSHIPS

Two members of the Bennett College faculty have been awarded scholarships for doctoral study, it was announced this week.

Miss Wilhelmina J. Gilbert, business education instructor, has been granted a Cokesbury Award in College Training through the Board of Education of the Methodist Church. The award is for one year and Miss Gilbert will pursue work in business administration.

Roy Lee, instructor in physics and mathematics, is the recipient of a DuPont summer scholarship and will study at Columbia University, where he was also enrolled last year.

Miss Gilbert, a graduate of Clark College in Atlanta, holds a master's degree in business education from Boston University, where she studied economics last summer. Mr. Lee holds the A. B. and M. S. degrees from Kansas State Teachers College and has done further study at Columbia.

DR. BANNER, BENNETT VESPER SPEAKER

A belief that the "cart has been put before the horse" when a mother feels that her greatest contribution is to bring additional income into the home, was expressed by Dr. William A. Banner of Washington, during the Mother's Day vesper service at Bennett College Sunday.

Dr. Banner, professor of philosophy at Howard University, spoke on "The Place of the Modern Mother in the Modern Home."

"Quite apart from the compensations and attractions of professional life, the mother of children performs her greatest service in the home, where she is terribly needed," he declared.

"She contributes her greatest service in providing direction for the development of childen in the home. Her contribution is in two main areas — developing the minds of childrn and developing their sense of basic values."

Recognizing that the circumstances of death or special privation may make it necessary for the mother of children to essay the role of breadwinner, the speaker said that such exceptions did not change fundamentally the point of greatest service for the mother. He referred to motherhood as calling for "the finest achievements of the human spirit."

Presented for baptism were the children of two Bennett graduates—Michael, son of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Reese of Greensboro, and Cheryl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. McCain, of Charlotte. Mrs. Reese is the former Miss Mary E. Pierce, of the class of 1951, and Mrs. McCain, the former Miss Juanita Jackson, is a member of the class of 1957.

CLOTHING STUDENTS PRESENT FASHION SHOW

Students in the clothing department at Bennett College presented their annual outdoor fashion show Thursday morning in front of Merner Hall.

The show, directed by Mrs. Louise G. Streat, clothing instructor, featured a number of original creations and, for the first time in its history, employed male models.

Network Salutes Bennett Student On N.Y. Program

NEW YORK — A salute to the United Negro College Fund will be telecast and broadcast over the ABC-TV and ABC Radio Networks Sunday afternoon, May 19, when a student from Bennett College will participate as a panel member of the "College News Conference" program.

The Conference produced and moderated by Mrs. Ruth Hagy, in Washington, will be televised from 4:00 to 4:30 P. M. Eastern Daylight Time, and broadcast over the ABC Radio Network from 5:30 to 6:00 P. M. the same evening. Check newspapers for exact time of local radio re-broadcast.

Miss Gwendolyn Elaine Harris, a senior at Bennett,one of the Fund's 31 member colleges, joins four outstanding students from other American colleges and universities on the Conference panel. The students will interview the Hon. Walter Williams, Under Secretary of the Department of Commerce. With the President's Budget and the proposed "Right to Work" rider on the Civil Rights Bill high in the news, a lively discussion is anticipated.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs Clyde Harris of Greensboro, N. C., Miss Harris majors in the social sciences and looks forward to a career in social work. She has been elected to Sigma Rho Sigma, honor society for the social sciences, and serves as secretary of the organization.

Miss Harris also serves as vice president of Bennett's International Relations Club and is active in the campus student center program.

Salute To UNCF Set For ABC-TV Network May 19

NEW YORK

A salute to the United Negro College Fund will be telecast and broadcast over the ABC-TV and ABC Radio Networks Sunday afternoon, May 19, when a student from Bennett College will participate as a panel member of the "College News Conference" program.

The Conference, produced and moderated by Mrs. Ruth Hagy, in Washington, will be televised from 4:00 to 4:30 P.M. Eastern Daylight Time, and broadcast over the ABC Radio Network from 5:30 to 6:00 P.M. the same evening.

Miss Gwendolyn Elaine Harris, a Greensboro senior at Bennett, one of the Fund's 31 member colleges, joins four outstanding students from other American colleges and universities on the Conference panel. The students will interview the Hon. Walter Williams, Under Secretary of the Department of Commerce.

DR. WILLA B. PLAYER

Dr. Willa B. Player To Address 145 Seniors At Dudley Commencement

One hundred-forty-five seniors will receive high school diplomas from Dudley High School, May 30 at 8:15 p. m., at the final commencement exercise at which time Dr. Willa B. Player, president of Bennett College, will be the speaker of the evening.

ORGANIST PRESENTED IN RECITAL A BENNETT

Miss Jean Renwick, of Statesville, was presented Sunday night in Pfeiffer Chapel in the final recital of the year by senior music students at Bennett College.

Opening her program with two numbers from Buxtehude, she played compositions by Bach, including his "Toccata and Fugue in D Minor," Handel's "Organ Concerta No. 5 in F Major," and "Behold a Rose Breaks Into Bloom," by Brahms.

Scene of and principals in the 84th commencement exercises at Bennett College, Greensboro, May 26 and 27. Bishop Bowen will preach the baccalaureate sermon at 4 p.m. on May 26 and on May 27, at 10:30 a.m., Dr. Fleming will deliver the commencement address. Dr. Player will preside at both exercises in Pfeiffer Chapel and confer degrees.

EASY IF YOU KNOW HOW---These Bennett College students, members of a beginning class in swimming at the Hayes-Taylor YMCA pool, watch their instructor, Mrs. Necie Boyers, demonstrate the proper way to float. Left to right: Misses Honora Glover, Asheboro; Mary Shoffner, Greensboro; Geneva Baldwin, Pittsboro; Sylvania Black, Marlin, Texas, and Mary Boone, Sanford.

Dr. Wicke Talks At Local College

The assumption of leadership on a college campus is two things—danger and opportunity, Dr. Myron F. Wicke of Nashville, Tenn., told student leaders at the closing vesper service at Bennett College yesterday afternoon in Pfeiffer Chapel.

Taking as his subject, "Choose Something Like a Star," the title of a Robert Frost poem, Dr. Wicke, a representative of the Board of Education of the Methodist Church, pointed to the rapid advances in science, the great increase in world populations and the rise of nationalism in the world and said:

"A human being is never complete until he is part of a group." He further counseled the students that "love is more than a feeling. At its best, it means a tendency to act, to become involved in the lives of others."

Vesper Service Set At Bennett

Dr. Myron F. Wicke of the Methodist Board of Education at Nashville, Tenn., will speak at the 4 p.m. vesper service at Bennett College today.

This final vesper service of the school year is also a recognition service for the officers of all student organizations which observe their anniversaries at this time.

The charge to officers and students will be given by Miss Paula M. Edmunds, senior, of Cincinnati, Ohio, president of the Student Senate, and the response will be made by Miss Jimmie English, rising senior, of Camden, S.C., who will serve as president for the 1957-58 year.

The senior choir, directed by Mrs. Mary J. Crawford, will sing two anthems—Mendelssohn's "He Watching Over Israel" and "I'll Never Turn Back No More" by the late R. Nathaniel Dett, former music instructor at the college.

Student Award Is Announced At Bennett

Miss Fredrica Washington, a rising senior of Beaufort, S. C., was revealed as the recipient of the $250 faculty scholarship for 1957-58, during Honors Day exercises at Bennett College Friday.

A high academic average, satisfactory personal-social growth and financial need were the criteria for the selection.

Miss Agatha M. Ricks of Elm City, was awarded the $75 Belle Tobias Scholarship, given annually to the freshman who is considered to have made the most outstanding improvement during the year.

Other Honors

Other prizes and honors announced were:

Jacqueline S. Herbin — the Lula Donnell Prize given each year to the freshman from Greensboro considered to have made the most outstanding record;

Barbara A. Graves, senior, of Pelham — the Class of 1921 prize for excellence in science awarded each year to a junior or senior;

Marlene I. Beavers, rising senior, of Danville, Va.—the Goode Prize for home economics, given to the sophomore or junior who best exemplifies the characteristics of a model home economics student;

Edith M. Tucker, of Elkin—the Omicron Eta Chi award to the freshman member who best exemplifies the characteristics expected of a model home economics student;

Carolyn M. Ingram, senior, of Durham—the David D. Jones leadership award to the junior or senior exhibiting the most outstanding qualities of leadership in the activities of the David D. Jones Student Union during the year.

BENNETT MAY QUEEN AND COURT---Miss Mildred Taylor of Greensboro, May Queen at Bennett College, shown with members of her court at annual May Day Festival held Saturday. Left to right: Misses Barbara Banks of New York City; Mamie McLurkin of Chester, S. C.; Loretta Richmond of Greensboro; Ann Cooper of Glendale, Ohio; Miss Taylor; Betty East, maid of honor, Pilot Mountain; Geraldine Parrish of Glendale, Ohio; Mary Jean Horton of Lenoir and Johnsie Adams of Leaksville.

Dr. Player keynotes opening of Women's Week at A and T

afro 5/11/57

GREENSBORO, N.C. — A code for young women to follow was described yesterday at A. and T. College.

The speaker was Dr. Willa B. Player, president of Bennett College who delivered the keynote address opening the observance of Women's Week at A. and T. last Sunday morning in the Harrison Auditorium.

Taking as her subject, "The College Woman Looks Ahead," Dr. Player offered four suggestions which should contribute to productive, wholesome and exciting living for women today.

She urged an early setting of a goal or purpose which will equip one to earn a living. "This involves a search for knowledge and in your ability to transmit it into a purposeful way of life requires effort, seriousness of purpose and a sort of dedication which differs from a simple decision," she said.

* * *

DR. PLAYER suggested a high sensitivity to the beauty around us, stating that one's knowledge must be capped by a sense of the beautiful, the worthy and the just, both from without and within.

Wider social responsibility was suggested as a third course to follow. She told the audience that "in finding ways of working together gets one involved in the common good."

She said the reason the world-wide struggle to achieve human dignity is so exciting is that it links us all with all humanity. "Lift up your sights," she said, "that you might catch the vision of the unknown and in doing so may lift the sights of others."

* * *

THE BENNETT president suggested, finally, for one to identify his dreams with a high code of moral values with a keen appreciation for discipline, knowledge and a sense of the appropriate.

The speaker was introduced by Dr. Warmoth T. Gibbs, president of A. and T. who paid high tribute to her achievements in education as well as being a "good neighbor."

Other persons appearing on the program included:

Mrs. Ouida D. Benton, dean of women, who gave a preview of the observance for the week; Catherine Allen, scripture; Gladys S. Grant, prayer; Clara Flowers, recognition of guests, and Rev. Cleo M. McCoy, director of religious activities, benediction.

Two Bennett seniors presented in recital

GREENSBORO, N.C. —The second in the annual series of recitals by senior music students at Bennett College took place Sunday in Pfeiffer Chapel featuring Miss Grace Coleman, organist, of Charlotte, and Miss Betty East, pianist, of Pilot Mountain.

CLASSMATES VISIT—Dr. Willa B. Player, president of Bennett College, and Dr. Arthur S. Flemming, president of Ohio Wesleyan University, are shown above chatting together before the Bennett commencement exercises at which Dr. Flemming was the speaker. Dr. Player and Dr. Flemming were classmates at the Ohio school which he now heads. Rev. R. C. Moore of Topeka, Kan., gave the invocation and Rev. L. E. Maddox of Federalsburg, Md., the invocation. The college choir, accompanied by Clarence E. Whiteman, organist, provided the music. There were 105 seniors graduated during the 84th commencement exercises at the colleges. (Record staff photo.)

Dr. Player

VESPERS PLANNED

Miss Mayme J. Ellerbe, a sociology major of Cheraw, S.C., will deliver the address when seniors at Bennett College hold their annual vesper service at 4 p.m. today in Pfeiffer Chapel.

Dr. W. Player To Institute At Harvard U.

Courier-Am 6/22/57

GREENSBORO — Dr. Willa B. Player, president of Bennett College will be among 36 college presidents atending the Institute for College and University Administrators at Harvard University, June 18-26.

The institute, directed by Dr. Robert W. Merry, of Harvard Graduate School of Business Administration, is specifically planned for newly-appointed presidents (since June 1, 1954) and is the third to be held.

Sponsored by the Carnegie Corporation of New York and the Association of American Colleges, it will provide the administrators an opportunity to study, analyze and discuss problem situations which college presidents may face.

BENNETT COMMENCEMENT-Scene of and principals in the 84th commencement exercises at Bennett College, Greensboro, N. C., May 26 and 27. Bishop Bowen will preach the baccalaureate sermon at 4 p. m. on May 26 and on May 27, at 10:30 a. m., Dr. Flemming will deliver the commencement address. Dr. Player will preside at both exercises in Pfeiffer Chapel and confer degrees.

Bennett Senior Is Vesper Speaker

"The Steps from Hibernation to Liberation" was the subject of the address delivered by Miss Mayme J. Ellerbe, of Cheraw, S. C., Sunday, as Bennett College seniors held their annual vesper service in Pfeiffer Chapel.

Pointing to self-knowledge as the first requisite of mature behavior, Miss Ellerbe, a sociology major, declared:

"The future of our nation and of the world depends on the seriousness with which each of us pursues the tasks for which he is best fitted."

She warned the seniors that their behavior must be such that they can at all times defend their actions; without shifting the blame for their failure to others. "No woman," she said, "can afford to become a 'learner'."

As a second requisite, the speaker listed the need for service. "No knowlede is valuable unless it is shared," she stated, "and no experience is meaningful unless it is profitable to someone other than the person who originated it."

Miss Ellerbe further warned against self-satisfaction and complacency and told the seniors that as a final requisite, they must incorporate God in their lives.

"Your best self," she concluded, "added to unlimited service to your fellowmen and multiplied by an unrelenting faith in God can be equated to the formula which leads from hibernation to liberation. Where do you begin?"

Miss Ann Stewart of Reidsville, presided. Miss Geraldine Parrish of Glendale, Ohio, read from the Old Testament and Miss Phyllis Henry, of Odessa, Delaware, read from the New Testament, offered prayer and gave the benediction.

The choir, directed by Miss Jacqueline McAllister, of Kingstree, S. C., sang two anthems, one of them, "Isaiah's Vison of God's Glory," composed by Clarence E. Whiteman, college organist, especially for the service.

RECITAL PLANNED

Third in the series of annual senior recitals by music students at Bennett College will be held at 8 o'clock tonight when Miss Jacqueline McAllister, soprano, will be heard in Pfeiffer Chapel. Accompanist will be Miss Novella Hinton of Columbia, S. C.

BAPTISM PLANNED

Five children of Bennett College graduates will be christened today during the Mother's Day vesper service in Pfeiffer Chapel at 4 p.m. They will be presented to the Rev. John L. Bryan, director of religious activities. Speaker will be Dr. William A. Banner, professor of philosophy at Howard University, Washington, D. C.

IN THE SPRING, ETC. — These Bennett College sophomores, Yvonne Brown, left of Elon College, N. C. and Rudene Abney, of Norristown, Pa., admire bridal wreath blossoms that have burst forth in profusion in front of the Fine Arts Building in the past few days. Unseasonably low temperatures of the past few weeks had previously kept girls and flowers buttoned up.

JUNE 2nd DATE SET BY MARGARET AND JAMES WARREN

Mr. and Mrs. Willie Berkley Tatum of Greensboro, North Carolina, announce the engagement of their daughter, Margaret Yvonne, to James C. D. Warren, son of Sergeant and Mrs. James L. Warren of 809 Douglas Street, Greensboro, North Carolina.

Miss Tatum graduated from the Dudley High School, and is now a senior at Bennett College, where she will receive her Bachelor of Science degree May 27th.

Mr. Warren graduated from Dudley High School in 1953, and is presently serving as an instructor at the XVIII Airborne Corps Artillery Academy, Fort Bragg, North Carolina.

The wedding will take place June 2, 1957.

NEW COURSES ADDED TO BENNET IN FALL

An announcement that beginning with the fall semester, Bennett College will offer a major in mathematics, was made here this week by Dr. Willa B. Player, president.

The growing demand from students for more courses in the sciences has also led the college to increase its offerings next year in anatomy bacteriology and physiology for students preparing for carers in medicine, dentistry and medical technology.

Announcement was also made of a collaborative program in nursing involving Bennett and the college of nursing at Wayne State University in Detroit, whereby this year's graduate will be accepted at Wayne for professional training in nursing.

Bennett graduates, who have pursued the pre-nursing curriculum here will be immediately admitted to professional courses in nursing. The program allows for advanced study toward the master's degree with emphasis on clinical and administrative preparation in the field of nursing.

Letters were sent out to parents this week announcing a slight increase in student fees for the 1957-58 school year. Because of rising costs of operation, the college trustees voted to increase annual student fees for resident students from $725 to $810, an increase of $85.

Approval was also given to increase the fees of non-resident students from the present $348 to $423, an increase of $75 for the year.

Rites Slated For Bennett Graduation

Speakers Listed For May 26 Event

A Methodist bishop and the president of a Methodist-related university will deliver the major addresses during the 84th commencement exercises at Bennett College here May 26 and 27.

The baccalaureate sermon will be delivered Sunday, May 26, by Bishop J. W. E. Bowen at 4 p.m. The commencement address will be delivered by Dr. Arthur S. Flemming, president of Ohio Wesleyan University, Delaware, Ohio, May 27 at 10:30 a.m. Both programs will be held in Pfeiffer Chapel.

Largest Class

The senior class has 108 members and is the largest in the college's history.

Bishop Bowen is a graduate of Wesleyan (Conn.) and Harvard Universities and of Gammon Theological Seminary in Atlanta. He has been a clergyman since 1907 and was a chaplain during World War I. He has served in the Atlanta, Washington, South Carolina, Mississippi and Louisiana conferences.

He is chairman of the boards of trustees of three colleges — Clark, Clafin and Bethune-Cookman — and is a member of the Atlanta University board and four colleges and universities have bestowed honorary degrees on him.

Fleming Background

Dr. Flemming is a graduate of three universities — Ohio Wesleyan, American and George Washington— and has received 17 honorary degrees. Before he became president of Ohio Wesleyan in 1948 he taught at American University, served on the editorial staff of the U. S. Daily (now U. S. News and World Report) and held several government positions.

He was a member of the (federal) Civil Service Commission from 1930 until 1934. He served as chairman of the labor-management policy committee of the War Manpower Commission, as chairman of the advisory committee on personnel management for the Atomic Energy Commission and director of the Office of Defense Mobilization.

SPEAKERS FOR COLLEGE FINALS HERE

Shown here are speakers for the finals at A&T and Bennett College. Top left is Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam, Methodist bishop of Washington, who will deliver the baccalaureate sermon at A&T June 2; top right is Dr. Arthur S. Flemming, president of Ohio Wesleyan University, Delaware, Ohio, who will make the commencement address at Bennett College on May 27; lower left is Bishop J. W. E. Bowen, Methodist bishop of Atlanta, who will deliver the Bennett baccalaureate on May 26; and lower right is Mrs. M. Elizabeth Carnegie of New York City, associate editor of "Nursing Outlook," who will deliver the commencement address at A&T on June 3.

Last Feb. 28 he was decorated with the Medal of Freedom for his work with the Office of Defense Mobilization.

Commencement week activities at Bennett will start Friday, May 24, with class day exercises at 3 p.m. At 8 that evening the Theatre Guild will present Sophocles' "Electra" as translated by Francis Ferguson.

Saturday, May 25, the Graduate Association will meet at 10 a.m. The All-Bennett Luncheon is set for 1 p.m. and will feature reunions of the classes of 1932, 1937, 1947 and 1952. The annual concert by the senior choir will be given that evening at 8 in Pfeiffer Chapel, followed by the traditional campus illumination.

The National Council of Bennett Parents will meet Sunday, May 26, at 9:30 a.m. and the Alpha Kappa Mu honor society will meet at 10 a.m. Following the baccalaureate sermon the president's reception will be held.

FUTURE TEACHERS—Pictured above are members of the new David D. Jones Chapter of Future Teachers of America at Bennett College. Left to right are: Bettye McLean, Greensboro, secretary; Veronica Shipley, Baltimore, vice president; Loretta Richmond, city, treasurer; Shirley Waters, Dudley, president.

BENNETT COMMENCEMENT—Scene of and principals in the 84th commencement exercises at Bennett College, May 26 and 27. Bishop Bowen will preach the baccalaureate sermon at 4 p. m. on May 26 and on May 27, at 10:30 a. m., Dr. Fleming will deliver the commencement address. Dr. Player will preside at both exercises in Pfeiffer Chapel and confer degrees.

OWU STUDENTS AT BENNETT--Misses Marilou Jones extreme left and Elosia Lee right, of Ohio Wesleyan University, Delaware, Ohio, are shown with their roommates, Misses Edna Jackson (foreground) and Barbara Hickman, rear, on way to classes at Bennett College. The OWU girls spent two weeks on campus as exchange students. Previously, six Bennett girls spent two weeks at OWU. Both institutions are related to the Methodist Church.

Dudley Seniors To Hear Dr. Player

One hundred and forty-five seniors will receive diplomas from Dudley High School, May 30 at 8:15 p.m., during the final commencement exercise at which time Dr. Willa B. Player, president of Bennett College, will be the speaker of the evening.

Mother's Day Service Held At Bennett

A belief that the "cart has been put before the horse" when a mother feels that her greatest contribution is to bring additional income into the home, was expressed by Dr. William A. Banner of Washington, during the Mother's Day vesper service at Bennett College yesterday.

Dr. Banner, professor of philosophy at Howard Univeristy, spoke on "The Place of the Modern Mother in the Modern Home."

"She contributes her greatest service in providing direction for the development of children in the home. Her contribution is in two main areas—developing the minds of children and developing their sense of basic values."

Recognizing that the circumstances of death or special privation may make it necessary for the mother of children to essay the role of breadwinner, the speaker said that such exceptions did not change fundamentally the point of greatest service for the mother. He referred to motherhood as calling for "the finest achievements of the human spirit."

Bennett To Offer Major In Math.; To Up Student Fees

Greensboro, N. C. — An announcement that beginning with the fall semester, Bennett College will offer a major in mathematics, was made here this week by Dr. Willa B. Player, president.

The growing demand from students for more courses in the sciences has also led the college to increase its offerings next year in anatomy bacteriology and physiology for students preparing for careers in medi-

Approval was also given to technology.

Announcement was also made of a collaborative program in nursing involving Bennett and the college of nursing at Wayne State University in Detroit, whereby this year's graduate will be accepted at Wayne for professional training in nursing.

Bennett graduates, who have pursued the pre-nursing curriculum here will be immediately admitted to professional courses in nursing. The program allows for advanced study toward the master's degree with emphasis on clinical and administrative preparation in the field of nursing.

Letters were sent out to parents this week announcing a slight increase in student fees for the 1957-58 school year. Because of rising costs of operation, the college trustees voted to increase annual student fees for resident students from $725 to $810, an increase of $85.

Approyela was also given to increase the fees of non-resident students from the present $348 to $423, an increase of $75

GREEK DRAMA TO BE PRESENTED AT BENNETT

Miss Dolores Johnson, senior, of Baltimore, Md., will play the lead in the Greek drama, "Electra," when it is presented at 8 p. m. on May 24th on the patio in front of Pfeiffer Chapel.

The Sophocles tragedy, translated by Francis Ferguson and directed by Roger L. Askew, is the final Theatre Guild production of the year.

Miss Ann Stewart, senior, of Reidsville, is cast in the role of Chrysothemis; Miss Rudene Abney, sophomore, of Norristown, Pa., as Clytemnestra, while Miss Sonia Louden, junior, of Cincinnati, Ohio, will play the part of the leader.

Eddie Griffin, a county school teacher, will play the part of Orestes. Two A. and T. College students—Lloyd Dillard and John Williams—will play the parts of Paidogogos and Aegisthos, respectively. Members of the chorus will be Misses Rita Turner, of Columbus, Ohio; Shirley Johnson of McLeansville, and Nannie Poole, of Baltimore, Md.

143

BENNETT COMMENCEMENT

Scene of and principals in the 84th commencement exercises at Bennett College, Greensboro, NC, May 26 and 27. Bishop Bowen will preach the baccalaureate sermon at 4 p. m. on May 26 and on May 27, at 10:30 a. m., Dr. Fleming will deliver the commencement address. Dr. Player will preside at both exercises in Pfeiffer Chapel and confer degrees. Future outlook 5/4/57

Bennett Offers Added Courses

An announcement that beginning with the fall semester, Bennett College will offer a major in mathematics, was made here this week by Dr. Willa B. Player, president.

The growing demand from students for more courses in the sciences has also led the college to increase its offerings next year in anatomy bacteriology and physiology for students preparing for careers in medicine, dentistry and medical technology.

Announcement was also made of a collaborative program in nursing involving Bennett and the college of nursing at Wayne State University in Detroit, whereby this year's graduate will be accepted at Wayne for professional training in nursing.

Bennett graduates, who have pursued the pre-nursing curriculum here will be immediately admitted to professional courses in nursing. The program allows for advanced study toward the master's degree with emphasis on clinical and administrative preparation in the field of nursing.

Letters were sent out to parents this week announcing a slight increase in student fees for the 1957-58 school year. Because of rising costs of operation, the college trustees voted to increase annual student fees for resident students from $725 to $810, an increase of $85.

Approval was also given to increase the fees of non-resident students from the present $348 to $423, an increase of $75 for the year. The Press 5/9/57

BENNETT COMMENCEMENT—Scene of and principals in the 84th commencement exercises at Bennett College, Greensboro, N. C., May 26 and 27. Bishop Bowen will preach the baccalaureate sermon at 4 p. m. on May 26 and on May 27, at 10:30 a. m., Dr. Fleming will deliver the commencement address. Dr. Player will preside at both exercises in Pfeiffer Chapel and confer degrees.

Bennett's Guests—Marilou Jones, extreme left, and Elosia Lee, right, of Ohio Wesleyan University, Delaware, Ohio, are shown with their roommates, Edna Jackson, foreground, and Barbara Hickman, rear, on way to classes at Bennett College. The OWU girls spent two weeks on campus as exchange students. Previously six Bennett girls spent two weeks at OWU. Both institutions are related to the Methodist Church. Courier 5/11/57

144

Fees To Be Increased:

Bennett To Offer Major In Math For First Time

GREENSBORO — An announcement that beginning with the fall semester, Bennett College will offer a major in mathematics, was made here this week by Dr. Willa B. Player, president.

The growing demand from students for more courses in the sciences has also led the college to increase its offerings next year in anatomy bacteriology and physiology for students preparing for careers in medicine, dentistry and medical technology.

Announcement was also made of a collaborative program in nursing involving Bennett and the college of nursing at Wayne State University in Detroit, whereby this year's graduate will be accepted at Wayne for professional training in nursing.

Bennett graduates, who have pursued the pre-nursing curriculum here will be immediately admitted to professional courses in nursing. The program allows for advanced study toward the master's degree with emphasis on clinical and administrative preparation in the field of nursing.

Letters were sent out to parents this week announcing a slight increase in student fees for the 1957-58 school year. Because of rising costs of operation, the college trustees voted to increase annual student fees for resident students from $725 to $810, an increase of $85.

Approval was also given to increase the fees of non-resident students from the present $348 to $423 an increase of $75 for the year.

OPERA EXCERPTS PRESENTED BY BENNETT MUSIC DEPARTMENT

A program of "Opera Highlights," featuring excerpts from three operas, was presented by the music department of Bennett College Friday night in the Little Theatre.

In "Down in the Valley" by Weill, leading roles were taken by Dwight Hargrove, reader and Elworth Smith, Jr., tenor, both A & T College students, and Miss Diamia Croslin, lyric soprano.

Grace Atkinson, contralto of Four Oaks, and Martha Reid, soprano, of Greenville, N. C. had the leads in Tchaikovsky's "Queen of Spades." Others in the cast were Ruthello McCoy, of Elizabeth City; Helen McEachern, of Rowland, N. C.; DeQuincey Johnson, of Lenoir, N. C., and Delories Jackson, of Red Springs, N. C.

Leads in "Hansel and Gretel" were sung by Lady Ann Shivers, contralto, of Aberdeen, Miss.; Bernice Green, soprano, of Anderson, S. C.; Duella Bass, soprano of Greensboro; and Doris Wyche, mezzo soprano, of New Canaan, Conn. The chorus was composed of members of the freshman choir.

Director was Mrs. Mary Crawford, who, with Mrs. Nina Kudrik served as accompanist. Narrator was Miss Grace Dungee of Greensboro.

AT BENNETT COLLEGE — Scene of and principals in 84th commencement at Bennett. Bishop Bowen will preach baccalaureate 4 p.m. May 27, and President Player will preside and confer degrees. Mrs 5/11/57

84th Commencement At Bennett College

Scene of and principals in the 84th commencement exercises at Bennett College, Greensboro, N. C., May 26 and 27. Bishop Bowen will preach the baccalaurette sermon at 4 p. m. on May 26 and on May 27, at 10:30 a. m., Dr. Flemming will deliver the commencement address. Dr. Player will preside at both exercises in Pfeiffer Chapel and confer degrees. F F G 5/11/57

Bennett Will Hold May Day Program

Miss Mildred Taylor, a senior science major of Greensboro, will reign over the annual May Day Festival at Bennett College, at 2:30 p.m. today.

Theme for this year's festival is "Women in a Transitional Period," and it will highlight the lives of 15 outstanding women, including Queen Elizabeth, Joan of Arc, Harriett Tubman, Pearl Primus, Eleanor Roosevelt and Dr. Willa B. Player, president of the college.

Creative dances and readings will be employed in depicting the contributions which these leaders have made to world progress and understanding. The dancers are students of Mrs. Cynthia Chivers.

Miss Betty East of Pilot Mountain, will be Miss Taylor's maid of honor, and the queen's court will consist of two representatives from each of the classes.

GIVEN SCHOLARSHIPS

GREENSBORO, N.C.—Awarded scholarships for study in the field of religion for the 1957-58 school year are the two Bennett College seniors:

Miss Phyllis Henry, of Odessa, Del., has been granted a scholarship to the Boston University School of Theology, where, beginning in September, she will pursue work in the field of religious education. Miss Julia McClain, of Grady, Ala., received a scholarship to the Seminary, where she will begin studying in September for the bachelor of divinity degree.

..OWU STUDENTS AT BENNETT—Misses Marilou Jones, extreme left, and Elosia Lee, right, of Ohio Wesleyan University, Delaware, Ohio, are shown with their roommates, Misses Edha Jackson (foreground) and Barbara Hickman, rear, on way to classes at Bennett College. The OWU girls spent two weeks on campus as exchange students. Previously, six Bennett girls spent two weeks at OWU.

Bennett Students Hear Dr. Ashby

GREENSBORO, N. C. — "One of man's greatest temptations is to try to make others over into his own image, when what he should cherish is individuality," Dr. Warren Ashby told the Bennett College vesper audience Sunday.

Dr. Ashby, professor philosophy at Woman's College, said further that man is often tempted to replace God with other things and to act so as to come between God and another person.

"Living as we do in the midst of so many pressures," he continued, "we are in special need of sensing what the basic realities are and should find satisfaction in a person who knows the fundamental realities -- himself and his relationship to God.

Dr. Warren Ashby Applauded After Bennett Address

GREENSBORO — "One of man's greatest temptations is to try to make others over into his own image, when what he should cherish is individuality," Dr. Warren Ashby told the Bennett College vesper audience Sunday.

Dr. Ashby, professor of philosophy at Woman's College, said further that man is often tempted to replace God with other things, and to act so as to come between God and another person.

"Living as we do in the midst of so many pressures," he continued, "we are in special need of sensing what the basic realities are and should find satisfaction in a person who knows the fundamental realities — himself and his relationship to God.

Addressing himself specifically to the students, Dr. Ashby said that self-discovery is what each of them should want out of college. To the others in the audience he said that what all mankind wants is a meaning that "becomes a motivating force in our lives."

Bishop, College Prexy Feature Bennett Finals

GREENSBORO, N. C.—Bishop J. W. E. Bowen, Atlanta, one of the nation's outstanding Methodist bishops and Dr. Arthur S. Femming, the president of one of the nation's leading Methodist-related institutions of higher learning will deliver the major addresses during the 84th commencement exercises at Bennett College, May 26 and 27.

Bishop Bowen will speak at the baccalurate exercises May 26 and the commencement address will be delivered by Dr. Arthur S. Flemming, president of Ohio Wesleyan University, Delaware, Ohio. Both programs will be held in Annie Merner Pfeiffer Chapel. This year's class, with a present potential of 108 candidates, will be the largest in the history of the college.

• • •

COMMENCEMENT Week activities will begin on Friday, May 25, with class day exercises at 3 p. m. At 8 p. m. there will be the Theatre Guild production of Sopocles' "Electra," from the translation by Francis Ferguson.

On Saturday, May 25, the Graduate Association will meet at 10 a. m., followed at 1 p. m. by the All-Bennett Luncheon which will highlight the reunions of the classes of 1932, 1937, 1947 and 1952. The annual concert by the senior choir will be heard at 8 p. m. in Pfeiffer Chapel. This will be followed at 9:30 by the traditional campus illumination.

Members of the National Council of Bennett Parents will meet at 9:30 a. m. on Sunday May 26 and Alpha Kappa Mu honor society will meet at 10 a. m. Following the baccalaureate sermon at 4 p. m., there will be the President's Reception.

The commencement program on Monday, May 27, will begin at 10:30 a. m. in Pfeiffer Chapel.

FELLOWSHIPS NAMED

Two Bennett College students have been awarded scholarships, it was announced yesterday. Phyllis Henry of Odessa, Del., will go to Boston University School of Theology to study while Julia McClain of Grady, Ala., will study at Hartford Theological Seminary.

May Day Fest Sat. At Bennett

GREENSBORO — "Women in a Transitional Period" will be the theme of this year's annual May Day festival at Bennett College on Saturday, May 4 at 2:30 p. m., on the lawn in front of Pfeiffer Chapel.

The theme, in keeping with the overall inaugural year theme: "New Vistas in Higher Education for Women," will highlight the lives of 15 outstanding women, including Queen Elizabeth, Joan of Arc, Harriett Tubman, Pearl Primus, Eleanor Roosevelt and Dr. Villa B. Player.

Creative dances and readings will be employed in depicting the contributions which these leaders have made to world progress and understanding. The dancers are all students of Mrs. Cynthia Chivers.

Miss Mildred Taylor, of Greensboro, this year's May Queen will be crowned by Dr. Player at the conclusion, rather than at the beginning, of the program, as has been the custom.

Members of her court will be the following: SENIORS — Misses Geraldine Parrish and Ann Cooper, both of Glendale, Ohio; JUNIORS — Misses Mamie McLurkin, Chester, S. C., and Loretta Rrichmond, Greensboro.

Saturday, May 4, 1957

IN THE SPRING, ETC.--These Bennett College sophomores, Yvonne Brown, left, of Elon College, N. C., and Rudene Abney, of Norristown, Pa., admire bridal wreath blossoms that have burst forth in profusion in front of the Fine Arts Building in the past few days. Unseasonable low temperatures of the past few weeks had previously kept girls and flowers buttoned up.

Three exchange students from Sarah Lawrence College, Bronxville, N. Y.—Misses Helen Hersey, Gudrun Schultz, and Merrill Wagner—have lunch with three Bennet College students during the recent Greensboro, N. C., institute.

RECITALS PLANNED

Second in the annual series of recitals by senior music students at Bennett College will be heard tonight at 8 o'clock in Pfeiffer Chapel, featuring Miss Betty East, pianist, of Pilot Mountain and Miss Grace Coleman, organist, of Charlotte.

BISHOP J. W. E. BOWEN FINALS SPEAKER FOR BENNETT COLLEGE

GREENSBORO

One of the nation's outstanding Methodist bishops and the president of the nation's leading Methodist-related institutions of higher learning will deliver the major addresses during the 84th commencement exercises at Bennett College, May 26 and 27.

Speaker at the baccalaureate exercises at 4 p.m. on Sunday, May 26, will be Bishop J. W. E. Bowen of Atlanta, Georgia. The commencement address will be delivered by Dr. Arthur S. Fleming, president of Ohio Wesleyan University, Delaware, Ohio. Both programs will be held in Annie Merner Pfeiffer Chapel.

This year's class, with a present potential of 108 candidates, will be the largest in the history of the college.

Commencement Week activities will begin on Friday, May 25, with class day exercises at 3 p.m. At 8 p.m., there will be the Theatre Guild production of Sophocles' "Electra," from the translation by Francis Ferguson.

On Saturday, May 25, the Graduate Association will meet at 10 a.m., followed at 1 p.m. by the All-Bennett Luncheon which will highlight the reunions of the classes of 1932, 1937, 1947, and 1952. The annual concert by the senior choir will be heard at 8 p.m. in Pfeiffer Chapel. This will be followed at 9:30 by the traditional campus illumination.

Members of the National Council of Bennett Parents will meet at 9:30 a.m. on Sunday, May 26 and Alpha Kappa Mu honor society will meet at 10 a.m. Following the baccalaureate sermon at 4 p.m., there will be the President's Reception.

The commencement program on Monday, May 27, will begin at 10:30 a.m. in Pfeiffer Chapel

Math Major To Be Given By Bennett

An announcement that beginning with the fall semester Bennett College will offer a major in mathematics was made here yesterday by Dr. Willa B. Player, president.

The growing demand from students for more courses in the sciences has also led the college to increase its offerings in anatomy, bacteriology and physiology for students preparing for careers in medicine, dentistry and medical technology.

Announcement was also made of a collaborative program in nursing involving Bennett and the College of Nursing at Wayne State University in Detroit, whereby this year's graduates will be accepted for professional training in nursing.

Bennett graduates who have pursued the pre-nursing curriculum here will be immediately admitted to professional courses in nursing. The program allows for advanced study toward the master's degree, with emphasis on clinical and administrative preparation in the field of nursing.

Letters were sent out to parents this week announcing a slight increase in student fees for the 1957-58 school year. Because of rising costs of operation, the college trustees voted to increase annual fees for resident students from $725 to $810, an increase of $85.

Approval was also given to increase the fees of non-resident students from the present $348 to $423, an increase of $75 for the year.

Bishop Bowen, Dr. Fleming Will Speak To Seniors At Bennett's 84th 'Finals'

GREENSBORO — One of the nation's outstanding Methodist bishops and the president of one of the nation's leading Methodist-related institutions of higher learning will deliver the major addresses during the 84th commencement exercises at Bennett College, May 26 and 27.

Speaker at the baccalaureate exercises at 4 p. m. on Sunday, May 26 will be Bishop J. W. E. Bowen of Atlanta, Georgia. The commencement address will be delivered by Dr. Arthur S. Fleming, President of Ohio Wesleyan University, Delaware, Ohio. Both programs will be held in Annie Merner Pfeiffer Chapel.

This year's class, with a present potential of 108 candidates, will be the largest in the history of the college.

Bishop Bowen, a graduate of Wesleyan (Conn.) and Harvard universities and of Gammon Theological Seminary in Atlanta, has been a minister since 1907 when he was licensed at Exeter, New Hampshire. A chaplain in World War I, he has served in Atlanta, Washington, South Carolina, Mississippi, and Louisiana conferences.

He is chairman of the board of trustees of Clark College, Bethune-Cookman College, Claflin College, Gammon and a member of the Atlanta University board and has traveled extensively in Africa, India and Pakistan. Four of the nation's colleges and universities have conferred honorary degrees upon him.

Dr. Fleming, a graduate of Ohio Wesleyan, American University and George Washington University, has received honorary degrees from 17 American colleges and universities since 1941. Before assuming the presidency of Ohio Wesleyan in 1948, Dr. Fleming taught at American University, served on the editorial staff of the U. S. Daily (now United States News and World Report) and held a number of key positions in government.

From 1930-34, he was a member of the U. S. Civil Service Commission. He has served as chairman of the management-labor policy committee of the War Manpower Commission; chairman of the advisory comittee on personel management of the Atomic Energy Commission, and director of the Office Defense Mobilization — a post which required his taking leaving from the presidency of Ohio Wesleyan from 1953 to February of this year.

Although back at Ohio Wesleyan, he continues to serve as a member of the President's Advisory Commitee on Government Organization. On Feb. 28, he was decorated by President Eisenhower with the Medal of Freedom for his work as director of the Office of Defense Mobilization.

Commencement Week activities will begin on Friday, May 25, with class day exercises at 3 p. m. At 8 p. m., there will be the Theatre Guild production of Ssphocles' "Electra," from the translation by Francis Ferguson.

On Saturday, May 25, the Graduate Association will meet at 10 a. m., followed at 1 p. m. by the All-Bennett Luncheon which will highlight the reunions of the classes of 1932, 1937, 1947 and 1952. The annual concert by the senior choir will be heard at 8 p. m. in Pfeiffer Chapel. This will be followed at 9:30 by the traditional campus illumination.

Members of the National Council of Bennett Parents will meet at 9:30 a. m. on Sunday, May 26 and Alpha Kappa Mu honor society will meet at 10 a. m. Following the baccalaureate sermon at 4 p. m., there will be the President's Reception.

The commencement program on Monday, May 27, will begin at 10:30 a. m. in Pfeiffer Chapel.

Miss Taylor

ces Chatman of Atlanta, president of the Spelman Students Association . . . Delores Richard, January graduate at Southern University, has been awarded a fellowship by the University of Illinois to do graduate study . . . Isadora Jones, a Southern University senior from Minden, La., has never made less than an "A" grade in any science course she has taken in either high school or college . . . Four Southern University professors in the field of biology represented the school at the annual National Institute of Science held at Howard University in Washington, D. C. . . . Mildred Taylor Greensboro, N. C., will be crowned during May Day festivities at Bennett College this Saturday.

Bennett Seniors To Hold Service

Miss Mayme J. Ellerbe, a sociology major of Cheraw, S. C., will deliver the address when seniors at Bennett College hold their annual vesper service today at 4 p.m. in Pfeiffer Chapel.

Presiding will be Miss Ann Stewart of Reidsville. The college choir, directed by Miss Jacqueline McAllister, a music education major of Kingstree, S. C., will sing two anthems, one of them, "Isaiah's Vision of God's Glory," composed for the occasion by Clarence E. Whiteman, college organist.

DR. BANNER TO SPEAK AT BENNETT COLLEGE

GREENSBORO, N.C. — Dr. William A. Banner, professor of philosophy, will speak at Bennett College Mother's Day vesper service Sunday at 4 p.m.

May Day Festival At Bennett Honors Women Of Greatness

"Women in a Transitional Period" will be the theme of this year's annual May Day festival at Bennett College tomorrow at 2:30 p.m. in front of Pfeiffer Chapel.

The theme, in keeping with the overall inaugural year theme: "New Vistas in Higher Education for Women," will highlight the lives of 15 outstanding women, including Queen Elizabeth, Joan of Arc, Harriett Tubman, Pearl Primus, Eleanor Roosevelt and Dr. Willa B. Player, president of the college.

Creative dances and readings will be employed in depicting the contributions which these leaders have made to world progress and understanding. The dancers are students of Mrs. Cynthia Chivers.

Mildred Taylor, of Greensboro, this year's May Queen, will be crowned by Dr. Player at the conclusion, rather than at the beginning of the program, as has been the custom.

Maid of honor will be Betty East of Pilot Mountain. Other members of the court will be: Geraldine Parrish and Ann Cooper, both of Glendale, Ohio; Juniors—Mamie McLurkin, Chester, S. C., and Loretta Richmond, Greensboro; Sophomores — Nancy Williams, Morganton, and Mary Jean Horton, Lenoir; Freshmen—Barbara Banks, New York City, and Johnsie Adams, Leaksville.

ON TELECAST

Gwendolyn Elaine Harris, Bennett College senior, will join four other students as a panel member of the College News Conference to be telecast from Washington over ABC-TV Sunday at 5:30 p.m.

VESPER SPEAKER

"One of man's greatest temptations is to try to make others over into his own image, when what he should cherish is individuality," Dr. Warren Ashby told the Bennett College vesper audience Sunday.

Dr. Ashby, professor of philosophy at Woman's College, said further that man is often tempted to replace God with other things and to act so as to come between God and another person.

"Living as we do in the midst of so many pressures," he continued, "we are in special need of sensing what the basic realities are and should find satisfaction in a person who knows the fundamental realities — himself and his relationship to God.

Addressing himself specifically to the students, Dr. Ashby said that selfdiscovery is what each of them should want out of college. To the others in the audience he said that what all mankind wants is a meaning that "becomes a motivating force in our lives."

Attend Intercollegiate Drama Meet

These young thespians who attended the annual Spring Festival of the Intercollegiate Drama Association held in Greensboro, N. C. recently, appear to be "brushing up" on their "lines." They are from left to right: Evelyn Greenlea, West Virginia State College; Nancy McNeil, Livingstone College; Carolyn Brown, Bennett College and Cluey Hargrove, A. and T. College, all members of the drama groups of their respective colleges.

Your Laymen Are for It

Advocate Sunday

APRIL 28

J. R. PATTERSON, lay leader of Louisiana Conference, New Orleans, La.

As laymen of The Methodist Church, we need the assistance of the CENTRAL CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE in seeking those Christian values that will deepen and enrich our lives. If read in every Methodist home, the result would be laymen more loyal in their support of the program of the Church.

CLAUDE W. WILLIAMS, layman of St. Paul Church, Meridian, Miss.

Reading is one of the most important means of learning. The CENTRAL CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE brings to laymen information of The Methodist Church, world news, devotional material, and other stimulating articles—all essential in the development of a well-rounded personality.

MRS. CHANIE BROWN, Good Literature secretary, First Street Church, New Orleans, La.

Our Church and our homes are faced by a need for greater moral and Christian leadership. The CENTRAL CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE is dedicated to that great task, and therefore should be shared by every member of the Central Jurisdiction. It is our aim to place the ADVOCATE in every home.

JOHN T. KING, professor of Huston Tillotson College, Austin, Tex.

Let us work hard for the realization of total integration; but while we have the Central Jurisdiction, let us support the CENTRAL CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE and use it as one effective instrument for keeping abreast of the news—and as a stepping stone into a more effective Methodism.

DR. W. EARLE WILSON, lay leader of Georgia Conference, Atlanta, Ga.

The CENTRAL CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE is a potent voice through which we proclaim, "We are yet alive!" It is a medium through which our desires, our needs, and our achievements are made known. Let's put the ADVOCATE in every home of the Jurisdiction.

ROBERT W. LOWE, lay leader of Central Church, Atlanta, Ga.

The CENTRAL CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE is an ardent link in Methodism and a vital part of our church life. As we read it, we are made to feel that we are a part of a great united Christian brotherhood.

WADSWORTH A. DAVIS, lay leader of Mount Zion Church, New Orleans, La.

The CENTRAL CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE continues to address itself to the needs of our times, keeping us informed of the work of The Methodist Church at the local, national, and international levels. In addition, it addresses itself to the needs of the family. The ADVOCATE needs our support; but more important, we need the ADVOCATE.

Take Their Advice

SUBSCRIBE NOW

For only $1.50 a year, you will receive 24 issues of the CENTRAL CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE, two each month. Where else can you get so much inspiration, information, and guidance for the cost of only a postage stamp per week? Place your order with your pastor TODAY.

DR. WILLA B. PLAYER
Keynote Speaker

A. & T. College To Celebrate Womens Week

GREENSBORO, N. C. — "Women's Week" will be celebrated at A. and T. College beginning Sunday, April 28 and extending through May 4.

Conducted along the theme, "The Broadening Role of Negro Women In the World Today', the celebration will emphasize the achievement and contribution of women of color to the world's development and progress.

* * *

DR. WILLA B. Player, president of Bennett College, will keynote the weeklong celebration at the opening program on Sunday morning, 11:00 o'clock in the Harrison Auditorium. Daily program, sponsored by the women's residence halls, have been scheduled.

The entire program is being handled under the supervision of a committee headed by Mrs. Ouida Benton, dean of women at the College.

Bennett Girls Admire Flowers

These Bennett College sophomores, Yvonne Brown, left, of Elon College, N. C., and Rudene Abney, of Norristown, Pa., admire bridal wreath blossoms that have burst forth in profusion in front of the Fine Arts Building in the past few days. Unseasonably low temperatures of the past few weeks had previously kept girls and flowers buttoned up.

Freshman Choir To Give Concert

GREENSBORO, N. C. —The annual spring concert by the 50-voice freshman choir at Bennett College will be held on April 26 at 7:30 p. m. in Pfeiffer Chapel.

Edward Lowe, music instructor and director of the group, this week announced a 17-number program which will include works of Mozart, Handel, Kubik, Brahms and a group of traditional spirituals. The six-group program will feature "Gloria In Excelsis" from Mozart's "Twelfth Mass," "Hallelujah" from "Judas Maccabaeus," and group four love songs by Brahms. Miss Bernice Green, soprano, will be the soloist for "This Day is Mine" by Ware, and Miss Jeanette Ward, pianist, will play "The Dream of Olwen" by Williams.

Featured spirituals will be "I Couldn't Hear Nobody Pray" and "Set Down Servant." There will also be a special arrangement of jerome Kern's "Smoke Getts In Your Eyes." Miss Ward and Miss Beaulah Brodie will be piano accompanists and organ accompanist will be Clarence E. Whiteman.

PRESIDENTIAL LAUGH—Dr. Benjamin E. Mays, president of Morehouse College, Atlanta, Ga., enjoys a laugh with Minnie Davis of Durham, following his address at Bennett College, while Hilda Lewis, right, Bennett College freshman, awaits her turn to talk with him.

Scholarships

Two members of the senior class at Bennett College have been notified that they have been awarded scholarships for study in the field of religion for the 1957-58 school year.

Miss Julia McClain, of Grady, Ark., has been awarded a scholarship to the Hartford (Conn.) Theological Seminary, where she will begin studying in September for the bachelor of Divinity degree. The one-year award which is renewable was made by the scholarship committee of the Woman's Board of the Seminary.

Miss Phyllis Henry of Odessa, Deleware, was awarded a scholarship to the Boston University School of Theology, where, beginning in September, she will pursue work in the field of religious education.

SINGER AT BENNETT---Miss Dorothy Maynor, famous soprano, signs autographs for students at Bennett College during her recent "surprise" visit to the Greensboro campus. The singer who was en route to an engagement in Tennessee visited an old friend, Miss Burdette McIver, dietitian at the college.

Left to right: Misses Elventa Richardson of Wendell, N. C., Gertrude Smith of Greensboro, Harriett Butler of Cincinnati, Ohio, and Yvonne Thomas of Greensboro.

$615,500 Budget For Bennett College Approved By The Board Of Trustees

GREENSBORO

Abudget of $615,500 for the 1957-58 academic year was approved by the executive committee of the Bennett College board of trustees at a meeting held in New York City on Monday.

The figure represents an increase of $49,300 over the $566,200 budget set for 1956-57. In past years, the meeting has been held in Greensboro.

This year's meeting was held in the offices of Dr. Frederick D, Patterson, board chairman, in the offices of the Phelps-Stokes Fund of which he is executive director. He is also president of the United Negro College Fund.

A highlight of the meeting was the interim report made by Dr. Willa B. Player, president. Mrs. Julius W. Cone and Dr. J. A. Tarpley of this city attended the sessions.

Other members of the committee in attendance were: Mrs. Harry James, of New York City; Mrs. G. Meidenbauer, of Buffalo, N. Y.; and Bishop Edgar A. Love of Baltimore. Absent was Mrs. H. C. Black of Johnson City, Tenn.

Other board members in attendance were: C. Everett Bacon, of New York City, chairman of the college's investment committee; Miss Margaret Forsyth, Miss Muriel Day and Mrs. Millard Robinson, all of New York City; Mrs. J. Ernest Wilkins of Washington and Mrs. C. P. Hardin of Chattanooga, Tenn.

On Tuesday, Dr. Player attended the meeting of the executive committee of the Woman's Division of Christian Service of the Methodist Church.

Code Outlined For Women At A&T

A code for young women to follow was outlined yesterday at A&T College.

The speaker was Dr. Willia B. Player, president of Bennett College, who delivered the keynote address opening the observance of Women's Week at A&T, yesterday morning in Harrison Auditorium.

Taking as her subject, "The College Woman Looks Ahead," Dr. Player offered four suggestions which should contribute to productive, wholesome and exciting living for women today.

She urged an early setting of a goal or purpose which will equip one to earn a living. "This involves a search for knowledge and in your ability to transmit it into a purposeful way of life. This requires effort, seriousness of purpose and a sort of dedication which differs from a simple decision," she said.

Social Responsibility

Wider social responsibility was suggested as a third course to follow. She told the audience that "in finding ways of working together one becomes involved in the common good." She said the reason the worldwide struggle to achieve human dignity is so exciting is that it links us all with all humanity. "Lift up your sights," she asked, "that you might catch the vision of the unknown and in doing so may lift the sights of others."

The speaker was introduced by Dr. Warmoth T. Gibbs, president of A&T who paid high tribute to her achievements in education as well as being a "good neighbor."

Bennett Budget Total Is Higher

A budget of $615,500 for the 1957-58 academic year was approved by the executive committee of the Bennett College board of trustees at a meeting held in New York City on Monday.

The figure represents an increase of $49,300 over the $566,200 budget set for 1956-57. In past years the meeting has been held in Greensboro.

This year's meeting was held in the offices of Dr. Frederick D. Patterson, board chairman, in the offices of the Phelps-Stokes Fund of which he is executive director. He is also president of the United Negro College Fund.

A highlight of the meeting was the interim report made by Dr. Willa B. Player, president. Mrs. Julius W. Cone and Dr. J. A. Tarpley of this city attended the sessions.

Bennett College Commencement Exercises To Be Held May 26-27

One of the nation's outstanding Methodist bishops and the president of one of the nation's leading Methodist-related institutions of higher learning, will deliver the major addresses during the 84th commencement exercises at Bennett College, May 26 and 27.

Speaker at the baccalaureate exercises at 4 p. m. on Sunday, May 26, will be Bishop J. W. E. Bowen, of Atlanta, Georgia. The commencement address will be delivered by Dr. Arthur S. Flemming, president of Ohio Wesleyan University, Delaware, Ohio. Both programs will be held in Annie Merner Pfeiffer Chapel.

This year's class, with a present potential of 108 candidates, will be the largest in the history of the college.

Bishop Bowen, a graduate of Wesleyan (Conn.) and Harvard Universities, and of Grammon Theological Seminary in Atlanta, has been a minister since 1907, when he was licensed at Exeter, New Hampshire. A chaplain in World War I, he has served in the Atlanta, Washington, South Carolina, Mississippi, and Louisiana Conferences.

He is chairman of the Board of Trustees of Clark College, Bethune-Cookman College, Claflin College, and Gammon, and a member of the Atlanta University board and has traveled extensively in Africa, India, and Pakistan. Four of the nation's colleges and universities have conferred honorary degrees upon him.

Dr. Flemming, a graduate of Ohio Wesleyan, American University and George Washington University, has received honorary degrees from 17 American colleges and universities since 1941. Before assuming the presidency of Ohio Wesleyan in 1948, Dr. Flemming taught at American University, served on the editorial staff of the U. S. Daily (now United States News and World Report) ,and held a number of key positions in government.

From 1930-34, he was a member of the U. S. Civil Service Commission. He has served as chairman of the management-labor policy committee of the War Manpower Commission; chairman of the advisory committee no personnel management of the Atomic Energy Commission, and director of the Office Defense Mobilization—a post which required his taking leave from the presidency of Ohio Wesleyan from 1953 to February of this year.

Although back at Ohio Wesleyan, he continues to serve as a member of the President's Advisory Committee on Governmen Organization. On February 28 he was decorated by Presiden Eisenhower with the Medal of Freedom for his work as director of the Office of Defense Mobilization.

Commencement Week activities will begin in Friday, May 25, with class day exercises at 3 p. m. At 8 p. m., there will be the Theatre Guild production of Sophocles' "Electra," from the translation by Francis Ferguson.

On Saturday, May 25, the Graduate Association will meet at 10 a. m., followed at 1 p. m. by the All-Bennett Luncheon which will highlight the reunions of the classes of 1932, 1937, 1947 and 1952. The annual concert by the senior choir will be heard at 8 p. m. in Pfeiffer Chapel. This will be followed at 9:30 by the traditional campus illumination.

Members of the National Council of Bennett Parents will meet at 9:30 a. m. on Sunday, May and Alpha Kappa Mu honor society will meet at 10 a. m. Following the baccalaureate sermon at 4 p. m., there will be the President's Reception.

The commencement program on Monday, May 27, will begin at 10:30 a. m. in Pfeiffer Chapel.

Bennett's Froch Choir Sets Sing

GREENSBORO — The annual spring concert by the 50-voice freshman choir at Bennett College will be held on April 26 at 7:30 p.m. in Pfeiffer Chapel.

Edward Lowe, music instructor and director of the group, this week announced a 17-number program which will include works of Mozart, Handel, Kubik, Brahamn and a group of traditional spirituals. The six-group program will feature "Gloria In Excelsis" from Mozart's "Twelfth Mass," "Hallelujah" from "Judas Maccabaeus," and group four love songs by Brahams. Miss Bernice Green, soprano, will be the soloist for "This Day is Mine" by Ware, and Miss Jeanette Ward, pianist, will play "The Dream of Olwen" by Williams.

Featured spirituals will be "I Couldn't Hear Nobody Pray" and "Set Down Servant." There will also be a special arrangement of Jerome Kern's "Smoke Gets In Your Eyes."

ENNETT COLLEGE & OHIO WESLEYAN EXCHANGE STUDENTS

Greensboro, N. C.---A student exchange program between a white university in Ohio and a college for Negro girls here was outlined at the "Conference on Missions" held at the Woman's Division of Christian Service, Methodist Church, at Buck Hill Falls, Pa.

Dr. Willa M. Player, president of Bennett College here said that six girls from Bennett, an all-Negro school, left March 3 for two weeks on the campus of Ohio Wesleyan at Delaware. On March 31, four white girls from Wesleyan went to the North Carolina campus, she said.

Under the exchange worked out by the Bennett and Wesleyan faculties, the students entered completely into the life of the campus, Dr. Player said.

"In effect, our Bennett girls were Wesleyan students for two weeks and the Wesleyan girls were Bennett students," she said. "At each school, the girls sat in the classes in which they are enrolled at their own schools. They lived in dormitories, participated in chapel and assembly programs and took part in those extra-curricular activities in which they are enrolled in their own school."

Dr. Player saw the exchange plan as an effective means of beginning to break down racial barriers on the college campus and of preparing college students for the coming of integration.

Dr. Willa Player To Speak At A&T

The address to be delivered this morning at A&T College by Dr. Willa B. Player, president of Bennett College, will keynote the week-long celebration of Women's Week at the college.

Dr. Player will speak in Harrison Auditorium at the regular 11 a.m. worship service, the first of daily programs to be held in the observance to extend through next Saturday.

The observance is to be conducted along the theme, "The Broadening Role of Negro Women in the World Today."

The celebration closes Saturday with the annual May Day program, All-Women's Dinner at 5 p.m., a campus sing at 6 p.m. and an out- p.m.

Cross." written when he was a member of the Bennett faculty, will be included.

The college quartette will sing three numbers, one a spiritual, "Let Us Break Bread Together."

Lady's Fair

VOL. 1, NO. 1

XII

III

Winter Issue, 1957

THREE EXCHANGE STUDENTS from Sarah Lawrence college, Bronxville, N. Y., are having lunch with three students of Bennett college, Greensboro, N. C. The visitors to Bennett are Helen Hersey, Gudrun Shultz and Merrill Wagner. Miss Shultz is a vi major at Sara Lawrence.

14 Bennett Coeds Get All 'A's;' 147 On Honor List

GREENSBORO, N. C. — Of the 147 students earning places on the first semester honor roll at Bennett college, 14 had a straight "A" average, it was revealed during the Student Recognition Day program sponsored by Alpha Kappa Mu honor society.

Students with perfect averages are:

Jacqueline Hamlett, Dorothy A. Harris, Gwendolyn Harris, Shirley J. Hudson and Margarie B. Mays, all of Greensboro; Jacqueline McAlister, Kinstree, S. C.; Marion Moore, Marshall, Mo.; Geraldine W. Parrish, Glendale, Ohio; Sylvia Prellow, Rocky Mount; Cynthia J. Speas, Winston-Salem, Sara C. Williams, Henderson, N. C.; Jimmie English, Camden, S. C.; Fredrica Washington, Beaufort, S. C. and Sonja Weldon, Chicago.

SCIENTIST TALK

Speaker for the occasion was Dr. J. Henry Sayles, chairman of the science division, who spoke on "Streamlining the Mind for Scholarship".

Dr. Sayles urged that the students first get the facts, examine them thoroughly through reasoning, and suspend judgment until all inferences have been tested.

Miss Geraldine Parrish, president of the Bennett chapter, gave the history and purpose of the society. Miss Jacqueline McAlister, secretary - treasurer, gave the call to worship while Miss Grace Dungee, vice president, introduced the speaker and made the citations.

The complete honor roll included:

Precious L. Aldrich, McBee, S. C.; Deloris L. Alexander, Winston-Salem; Alice M. Badgett, Pelham; Gloria A. Blatch, Miami, Fla.; Mary E. Branch, Henderson; Gladys Bridgers, Wilson; Lena P. Brooks, Hillsboro; Grace M. Coleman, Charlotte; Ann M. Cooper, Glendale, Ohio; Carolyn Crawford, Morristown, Tenn.; Thelma Culbreth, New York; Harriette A. Daniels, Moultrie, Ga.;

Agnes P. Dixon, Burlington; Grace E. Dungee, Greensboro; Bettie J. Echols, Greensboro; Paula M. Edmunds, Cincinnati; Mayme Ellerbe, Cheraw, S. C.; Queen Farrish, Roxboro; Cloia D. Ford, Henderson; Helen Frances, Lumberton; Tiny A. Gaddy, Winston-Salem; Barbara A. Graves, Pelham; Helen Green, New York; Phyllis E. Henry, Odessa, Del.;

ILLINOIS COED

Barbara J. Hickman, Freeport, Bettye J. Higgins, Greensboro; Virginia M. Holland, Superior, West Va.; Mary F. Holloway, Meridian, Miss.; Carolyn M. Ingram, Durham; Rutha A. Johnson, Mebane; Doris A. Lanier, Bath, N. C.; Fannie J. Lewis, Grady, Ala.; Annie C. McGimpsey, Morganton; Mattie B. McRae, Laurinburg; Mary E. Miller, Lynchburg, Va.

Jeanne Moore, Rich Square; Shirley A. Moore, Jamaica, N. Y.; Delores Noble, Greensboro; Ida F. Parker, Mebane; Blondelle Reid, Greensboro; Jean Renwick, Statesville; Betty S. Robinson, Greensboro; Annie R. Simpson, Greensboro; Marie A. Slaughter, Newport, Ky.; Peggie Smith, Greensboro; Ann M. Stewart, Reidsville; Margaret Tatum, Greensboro.

Sylvia E. Tyson, New Haven, Conn.; Consuelo L. Watkins, Danville, Va.; Martinele West, Chicago, Ill.; Doris Y. Young, Morganton.

Carole J. Anderson, Greenville, S. C.; Grace E. Atkinson, Four Oaks; Bernice Brooks, Columbus, Mis.; Carolyn R. Brown, Johnson City, Tenn.; Peggy A. Coefield, Kinston; Honora L. Glover, Asheboro; Ruby B. Harris, Greensboro; Patricia A. Hopkins, Miami, Fla.; Willie D. Jackson, Red Springs; Sonia Louden, Cincinnati; Lola McAdoo, Greensboro; Ann R. McCoy, Elizabeth City;

Fannie L. Miles, Drakes Branch, Va.; Shirley Mae Moore, Camden, N. J.; Ann L. Richmond, Greensboro; Oyeyemi Salako, Nigeria, West Africa; Veronia A. Shipley, Baltimore; Vinia Spivey, New York; Frances P. Thurston, Miami, Fla; Deloris Tonkins, Greenboro; Onuma A. Uko, Nigeria, West Africa; Carole S Wade, Graham; Mable S. Waters, Dudley; Rosemary Wright, Camden, S. C.; Yvonne A. Wynne, Jamaica, N. Y.

IDA BULLOCK

Millie A. Adams, Princeton, W. Va.; Ida R. Bullock, Manson; Wilhelmina R. Bundy, Johnson City, Tenn.; Barbara E. Campbell, Greensboro; Jamesena Chalmers, Fayetteville; Veronica L. Dean, Miami, Fla.; Eleanor B. Field, Richmond, Va.; Wilhelma G. Gatewood, Gary, W. Va.; Rosalind H. Goodson, Clayton, N. C.; Marion G. Grant, Macon, Ga.; Janie M. Graves, Greensboro; Mildred L. Hamlett, Semora;

Cecile E. Harrion, Houston, Texas; Ruth F. Hawkins, Louisburg; Vivian L. Hopkin, Miami, Fla.; Edna D. Jackson, Ridgeway, S. C.; Inez C. Jones, Lenoir; Sarah R. Lawrence, Evanston, Ill.; Carolyn V. Lowry, Greensboro; Carolyn P. Martin, Durham; Emma L. Martin, Mt. Olive; Geraldine McDade, Efland; Rivers E. Millner, Draper.

Barbara J. Moyer, White Plains, N. Y.; Nannie G. Poole, Baltimore; Josephine A. Raiford, Greensboro; Martha L. Reid, Greenville, N. C.; Viola Royster, Plainfield, N. J.; Mae Helen Shaw, Laurinburg; Mary E. Shoffner, Greensboro; Essie F. Smith, Timberlake; Ruby N. Stark, Troutman; Mary Jane William, Winton-Salem.

Jo M. Adams, Leaksville; Jacqueline A. Ball, Philadelphia; Duella L Bass, Greensboro; Gwendolyn V. Bell, Cincinnati; Sylvania D. Black, Marlin, Texas; Lila M. Blanding, Sumter, S. C.; Mary E. Boone, Sanford; Rosemary R. Favors, Detroit; Edna O. Jones, Lenoir; Dorothy Jordan, Goldboro; Nancy J. Kirby, Haddonfield, N. J.; Hilda G. Lewis, St. Thomas, Virgin Island; Lucy R. Ricks, Elm City.

Laura F. Sawyer, Salibury; Mary C. Smith, Greensboro; Edna P. Thomas, Willow Run, Mich.; Edith M. Tucker, Elkin; Geraldine Williams, Fayetteville; Lillie Belle Wright, Greensboro; Edna M. Zachary, Hertford.

ROBING CEREMONY: Greensboro, N. C.—Miss Geraldine Parrish of Glendale, Ohio, slips into an academic robe held by Miss Pauline Ferguson, Lenoir, N. C. sophomore, during senior day ceremonies last week at Bennett college.

Bennett College 1957-58 Budget Gets Approval

A budget of $615,500 for the 1957-58 academic year was approved by the executive committee of the Bennett College board of trustees at a meeting held in New York City Monday.

The figure represents an increase of $49,300 over the $566,200 budget set for 1956-57. In past years, the meeting has been held in Greensboro.

This year's meeting was held in the offices of Dr. Frederick D. Patterson, board chairman in the offices of the Phelps-Stokes Fund of which he is executive director. He is also president of the Unitd Negro College Fund.

A highlight of the meeting was the interim report made by Dr. Willa B. Player, president. Mrs. Julius W. Cone and Dr. J. A. Tarpley of this city attended the session.

DAVID D. JONES FTA CHAPTER FORMED

The David D. Jones chapter of the Future Teachers of America named in honor of the late president of Bennett College — was established here, Tuesday night.

Mrs. Loreno M. Marrow, acting coordinator of FTA in North Carolina, presented the charter to Miss Jimmie English, junior, of Camden S. C. chapter president. Members were led in the FTA pledge by D. Chauncey G. Winston chairman of the social science division. Mrs. Mary T. Coleman is chapter sponsor.

AFRICANS AT BENNETT—These three young African women are among 12 foreign students studying at Bennett College, Greensboro, N. C. this year. Left to right: Misses Oyeyemi Salako, Nigeria, West Africa; Onuma Uko, Nigeria, and Blanche Tuboku-Metzger, Sierra Leone. All are social science majors and plan to return to their native land as social workers or teachers. Misses Salako and Uko are juniors and Miss Tuboku-Metzger is a freshman.

Ability to make adjustments key to success, students told

GREENSBORO, N.C.—A psychologist, a sociologist, a teacher and a student agreed that the ability to make human adjustments is the key to understanding in a troubled world, as the 31st annual Homemaking Institute at Bennett College opened Monday.

They were members of a panel which discussed, "Achieving Satisfactions" as an introduction to the institute theme of "Achieving Self - Fulfillment Through Understanding."

Dr. Adrian Solomon, psychology instructor at the college, described the emotionally mature person as one involved in interdependence with his fellows in contrast to the motionally immature person who is dependent at all times upon others and upon whom others cannot depend.

"The student who expects others to do her work and to make allowances for her shortcomings, is completely at the mercy of those upon whom she depends. She may often have to react in a way completely contrary to her real desires, and in the end, may turn others against her."

DR. EDWIN R. EDMONDS, Bennett sociology instructor, referred to the human individual as a "corporation," representing the investments of many who preceded him. Such a person, he stated, if mature, soon realizes this debt to others and seeks to replay it by making a contribution to their welfare.

"If we concentrate on the problems of others," he said, we do not have the time to bro over our own problems or inadequacies. This is one of life's great satisfactions."

Mrs. Barbara Wells, a Bennett graduate, now teaching at the Dudley High School here, told of how women can successfully combine marriage and a career, and get satisfaction out of both.

"Marriage is not considered today as a state, but as an adjustment," she declared. "Where husband and wife both work, it is necessary that both make sacrifices that each might enjoy the satisfaction of achieving certain goals."

"In such unions, husband and wife strengthen each other and fortify each other's egos. By such a simple thing as the division of labor in the home, they may increase their tolerance and understanding."

MISS GRACE DUNGEE, Bennett senior, of Greensboro, addressed herself to the satisfactions of college living. Pointing out that the college student is a member of an advantaged group which has an obligation to society, Miss Dungee said:

"Possessed of the knowledge that the fullest possible development of the individual is enhanced by a college education, the college student gains further satisfaction, when, as a senior, she can look back upon herself as a sophomore and see how she has grown mentally and socially as well as physically."

Miss Jimmie English Heads Student Senate

GREENSBORO — Miss Jimmie English, a junior, of Camden, S. C., was chosen to head the Student Senate for 1957-58 and Miss Mildred Taylor, senior, of Greensboro, was chosen May Queen in campus-wide elections at Bennett College this week.

Miss Taylor, a science major, will reign with her court, over the May Day festivities on Saturday, May 4, following her coronation by President Willa B. Player.

Chosen to serve with Miss English in the senate were: Misses Addie Watson, Charlotte, vice president; Mary Jane Williams, Winston-Salem, secretary; DeQuincy Johnson, Lenoir, treasurer, and Wilhelmina Bundy, Johnson City, Tenn., parliamentarian.

Miss Carolyn Brown of Johnson City, Tenn., was elected editor of the Bennett Banner, student newspaper and Miss Yvonne Wynne, of Jamaica, N. Y., co-editor.

Elected as representative to the Central Committee, key administrative body on the campus, was Miss Deloris Tonkins, junior of Greensboro. Miss Rosemary Wright of Camden, S. C., was elected president of the David D. Jones Student Union. Elected secretary of the Union board was Miss Nannie Poole of Baltimore, Md., while Miss Kay Turner of Columbus, Ohio, was elected reprecentative to the Union board of managers.

Chosen to fill other campus offices were:

Misses Coefield, Kinston, N. C. superintendent of the Sunday School; Anita Duckett, pianist and Millie Adams, secretary;

Shirley Waters, Dudley, N. C., mdi-week vesper chairman and Inez Jones, Lenoir, secretary.

Special Music To Feature Palm Sunday At Bennett

GREENSBORO — A service of special music by the college choir will highlight the observance of Palm Sunday at Bennett College at 4 p. m. in Pfeiffer Chapel.

The forty-voice group, directed by Mrs. Mary Crawford, will sing two choruses from Brahms "Requiem" — "Ye Now with Sorrow Ars Filled" and "How Lovely Are Thy Dwellings" — with Miss Jacqueline McAlister, senior of Kingstree, S. C., as soprano soloist.

Another soprano, Miss Dolores Wiggins, junior, of Petersburg, Va., will be soloist for Gounod's "Gallia".

Compositions by Handel, Palestrina and the late Dr. R. Nathaniel Dett's "When I Survey the Wondrous Cross", written when he was a member of the Bennett faculty, will be included.

The college quartette will sing three numbers, one a spiritual, "Let Us Break Bread Together"

BENNETT SENIOR CHOIR TO MAKE OFFCAMPUS APPEARANCES

The Bennett College Senior Choir is scheduled to make two off - campus appearances this month, Mrs. Mary Crawford, director, announced this week.

On April 24, the choir will be heard in concert at Morehouse College in Atlanta, Georgia, and on April 30, the group will sing for the local chapter of Hadassah at Starmount Country Club.

For the Morehouse concert, Miss Yvonne Wynne, pianist, of Jamaica, N. Y., will play, and the college quartette will be heard in several numbers.

Last week the singers journeyed to Sedalia where they presented a program at Palmer Memorial Institute.

147

Dr. Mays keynotes homemaking talk

GREENSBORO, N.C. — "There can be complete self-fulfillment only when we live up to our maximum capacities," Dr. Benjamin E. Mays decared in an address before the close of 31st Homemaking Institute at Bennett College Sunday.

To an audience, some of whom were compelled to stand, the president of Morehouse College in Atlanta, spoke on the theme "Guides to Achieving Self-Fulfillment through Understanding."

* * *

"PEOPLE ARE born under different circumstances," he said, "some to great wealth, some to poverty. Some have parents with education and culture, some have parents who can neither read nor write. Some are born white, some brown, some dark.

"But we don't get our status in the world from family, race or college. We get that from God, and the founding fathers of ths nation were speaking wiser than they knew when they said that God gives man certain inalienable rights.

"That is why it s so tragic to see certain forces in the Deep South who try to act as if they were God."

* * *

THE WEEK-LONG institute included an address by Dr. Joseph S. Himes, professor of sociology at North Carolina College in Durham; two addresses by Dr. Sowell R. Ditzen, Bronxville, N.Y. minister-lecturer; a panel discussion, discussion groups, exhibits and demonstrations.

Dr. Himes, speaking on "Understanding Myself," pointed out that it is always good to understand one's limitations as well as one's capacities. Failure to do this, he stated, can lead to a "king-size" frustration.

Dr. Ditzen, author of "Personal Security Through Faith," declared that there was too much emphasis today on what is wrong in the world, when, in reality, there are so many things right with it.

* * *

DISCUSSION group leaders included Dr. Hamako Hirose, president of Hiroshima Woman's college, Japan; Dr. Warren Ashby, Dean Mereb Mossman and Dr. Franklin McNutt, all of Womans College;

And Bennett faculty members Dr. George Breathett, the Rev. John L. Bryan, Mrs. Blanche Raiford and Mrs. Minnie Smith.

Dr. Mays Closes Home-Making Inst. At Bennett College

"There can be complete self-ulfillment only when we live p to our maximum capacities," Dr. Benjamin E. Mays of At-anta, Ga., declared in an address hat marked the close of the 31st Homemaking Institute at Bennett College, Sunday.

To an audience, some of whom vere compelled to stand, the resident of Morehouse College, n keeping with the institute heme, spoke on "Guides to Achieving Self - Fulfillment hrough Understanding."

"People are born under dif-erent circumstances," he said, some to great wealth, some to overty. Some have parents with ducation and culture, some ave parents who can neither ead nor write. Some are born hite, some brown, some dark.

"But we don't get our status n the world from family, race or ollege. We get that from God, nd the founding fathers of this ation were speaking wiser than hey knew when they said that God gives man certain inalien-able rights.

"That is why it is so tragic to see certain forces in the deep South who try to act as if they were God."

The week-long institute, which had as its theme: "Achieving Self - Fulfillment through Understanding," included an address by Dr. Joseph S. Himes, professor of sociology at North Carolina College in Durham; two addresses by Dr. Lowell R. Ditzen, Bronxville, N. Y. minister - lecturer: a panel discussion, discussion groups, exhibits and demonstration.

Dr. Himes, who spoke on "Understanding Myself," pointed out that it is always good to understand one's limitations as well as one's capacities. Failure to do this, he stated, can lead to a "king-size" frustration.

He said that objective self-evaluation breaks down unless the individual, looking at himself, is willing to admit frankly what he sees, whether it is good or bad.

Dr. Ditzen, author of "Personal Security Through Faith", declared that there was too much emphasis today on what is wrong in the world, when, in reality, there are so many things right with it.

"The capacity for laughter, the loyalty of friends, the knowledge that each of us has infinite possibilities for building some rich experiences — all of these are things that are right in the world."

The speaker also pointed to great lives that have been and are being lived, to great ideas and the "illimitable hope of a youthful heart" as an answer to the pessimists who see only gloom in the universe.

Discussion group leader include Dr. Hamako Hirose, president of Hiroshima Woman's college, Japan; Dr. Warren Ashby, Dean Mereb Mossman and Dr. Franklin McNutt, all of Woman's College; Dr. Himes, and from the Bennett faculty: Dr. George Breathett, the Rev. John L. Bryan, Mrs. Blanche Raiford and Mrs. Minnie Smith.

DOROTHY MAYNOR, famous soprano, signs autographs for students at Bennett College during her recent surprise visit to the Greensboro campus. Miss Maynor, who was en route to an engagement in Tennessee, visited an old friend, Miss Burdette McIver, dietitian at the college. Left to right are Misses Elventa Richardson of Wendell, N.C., Gertrude Smith of Greensboro, Harriett Butler of Cincinnati, Ohio and Yvonne Thomas of Greensboro.

Ohio Students Praise Experiment

'Course In Understanding' Called Success At Bennett

The exchange student program between Greensboro's Bennett College and Ohio Wesleyan University could well be called "a course in understanding."

As Marilou Rees of Washington, Pa., a Ohio Wesleyan senior now visiting at Bennett, puts it, "we have grown an awful lot in understanding during our two weeks here. Now when we talk about the South; the Negro in the South and the Negro in general we'll know a lot better what we are talking about."

Marilou and three fellow students, Elosia Leal of Coshocton, Ohio, and Janice Fast of Chandler, Ariz., both juniors, and Ruth Garn of Indianapolis, Ind., a senior, came to Bennett for part of their spring vacation with the full approval of their families and most of their friends.

The exchange program at Ohio Wesleyan is set up through the sociology department. Letters are sent to all girls on the dean's list explaining the program and then the department contacts those girls it thinks would benefit from the program and who could afford to take two weeks from their studies. This year it worked out so that nine days of the two weeks were spring vacation time.

"Of course, the main purpose of the program is to further interracial relations but also it gives us an opportunity to see what other colleges are doing in all fields. Bennett and Ohio Wesleyan are both Methodist schools," Elosia said.

Dr. Willa B. Player, Bennett president, is an Ohio Wesleyan graduate and six Bennett girls visited the Ohio school four weeks ago.

"Bennett is really wonderful. I wish I weren't a senior so I could come back next year on a semester basis. On second thought, I believe it would be better for different people to come each time," Ruth said.

The girls had high praise for Bennett's outstanding faculty — "we'd like to take some of them back with us" — Bennett's tree-shaded campus—"it is ideal"—and the friendly spirit of the students toward their visitors—"real southern hospitality."

"The girls just wouldn't let us feel strange here. They have done everything to make us feel at home. When we arrived we were assigned a faculty member as an advisor and she clued us in on lots of things we might have been afraid to ask. She explained that we could go anywhere the Bennett girls went but that they could not always go places that we could go—restaurants, theaters," Janice said.

That has been the only problem the girls have encountered. While they have been made welcome in churches, restaurants and shops in the Negro community they could not always take their new friends to other establishments with them.

"Last Sunday we attended services at St. Stephen's Congregational Christian Church. I think every member stopped to speak to us and even on the way home they stopped our car to say hello. I have never seen such friendly people," Marilou said.

During their visit the girls have had an opportunity for frank discussions of race relations with the Negro girls "and it has greatly increased our understanding of their problems and ours. I have kept a written account of my experiences, impressions and conversations and know it will be of great value to me for years to come."

One thing that has most impressed the girls is "the spiritual intensity of these people. You feel it everywhere—in the chapel programs, in the worship services and even in the classrooms. It is a very real and deep part of their lives," Elosia said.

During their visit they have also attended sessions of the Inter-Racial Commission, the Guilford County Domestic Relations Court, United States Middle District Court and other local groups.

Early Friday morning they will head back to Ohio Wesleyan. Marilou, Ruth and Janice plan to go into social work after college while Elosia looks to a career as a medical missionary. They believe that their two weeks at Bennett will play a vital part in their future work.

Methodists Foster Race Student Exchange Plan

NEW YORK—A student exchange program between a white university in Ohio and a college for Negro girls in North Carolina—both schools of the Methodist Church—is now under way.

Dr. Willa Player, president of Bennett College, Greensboro, N. C., has announced that six girls from Bennett, an all-Negro school, are spending two weeks on the campus of Ohio Wesleyan University at Delaware. On March 31, four white girls from Wesleyan went to the North Carolina campus, she added. Under the exchange, worked out by the Bennett and Wesleyan faculties, the students will enter completely into the life of the campus, Dr. Player said.

* * *

"IN EFFECT, our Bennett girls will be Wesleyan students for two weeks and the Wesleyan girls will be Bennett students," she said. "At each school, the girls will sit in the classes in which they are enrolled at their own school. They will live in dormitories, participate in chapel and assembly programs and take part in those extra-curricular activities in which they are enrolled in their own school."

Dr. Player sees the exchange plan as an effective means of beginning to break down racial barriers on the college campus and of preparing college students for the coming of integration.

Bennett Budget Is Increased $49,300

GREENSBORO, N. C.—A budget of $815,500 for the 1957-58 academic year was approved by the executive committee of the Bennett College board of trustees at a meeting held in New York City on Monday.

The figure represents an increase of $49,300 over the $566,-200 budget set for 1956-57.

A highlight of the meeting was the interim report made by Dr. Willa B. Player, president.

On Tuesday, Dr. Player attended the meeting of the executive committee of the Woman's Division of Christian Service of the Methodist Church.

GREENSBORO, N. C.—The Curtis String Quartet, of Philadelphia, hailed as America's foremost chamber music group, was heard in recital at Bennett College Friday night in Pfeiffer Chapel.

Career Whirl:

Bennett Grad Is YWCA Teen-Age Program Aide

Mrs. Carolyn McDonald, 1012 Parkwood drive, is the new Assistant Teen-age Program Director at the Central Branch YWCA, succeeding Mrs. Geraldine Swormstedt. Mrs. McDonald will assist with the program activities for teen-agers in both the Glenville Center YWCA at 10518 St. Clair Avenue and the Downtown YWCA at 1710 Prospect Avenue.

Born in Baltimore, Md., she received her A.B. Degree from Bennett College, Greensboro, N. C. where she majored in French and music. Before joining the staff of the Cleveland YWCA, Mrs. McDonald served as a Teen-Age Program Director in YWCA's in Dayton, Nashville, Tenn. and Harrisburg, Penn.

MRS. McDONALD

Among the groups with which Mrs. McDonald is working at the Glenville Center are: The Hobby House program of games, sewing, foods, trips and fun for girls in the 5th and 8th grades on Tuesdays from 3:30 to 5:30 p.m. and the Teen-Age Co-Ed Canteen on alternate Saturdays from 8 to 11:30 p.m. at the Glenville Center.

One of the most stimulating groups at the Glenville Center, stated Mrs. McDonald, is the YWCA Service Guild. Here volunteers who are interested in the YWCA in the community join together to "lend a hand" in promoting and developing program and activities.

At the Central YWCA, a new program called Friday Frolics, full of fun, swimming, skating, games and music is getting under way this month. Special events are planned for 7th and 8th graders every Friday from 4 to 5:30 p.m. and for Senior High girls from 5:30 to 7 p.m. A special "Play Day" has been set for Thursday, April 18 from 12 to 5 p.m. to give a peek at the new program designed primarily to serve teen-agers on the near east side, to East 55th Street.

In addition to her work with the Friday Frolics, Mrs. McDonald is busily planning an interesting program for the summer and teaches one of the courses in the Central Y's course entitled "Baby Sitting —What Is It?"

She is the daughter of Dr. S. S. Booker of Youngstown, pastor of Third Baptist church.

Students at Bennett get challenge on Senior Day

GREENSBORO, N.C.—A challenge to make their education purposeful was given to members of the senior class at Bennett College by President Willa B. Player on Friday during the annual senior Day program.

Congratulating the seniors upon having reached this "milestone" in their careers, President Player said:

"Between now and commencement, get all of the additional knowledge that you can make the most of every resource, that you may later meet successfully the challenges of life."

* * *

PRESIDENT PLAYER pointed to Kwame Nkruma, premier of the new nation of Ghana, and to Dr. Martin L. King, leader of the successful peaceful bus boycott in Montgomery, Ala., as products of small liberal arts colleges such as Bennett who have met life's challenges.

"The same challenges that faced them," she declared, "also faces you. It will require dedication on your part to make your knowledge real so that you, too, may achieve."

* * *

DR. CHAUNCEY G. WINSTON read the names of 11 seniors who at this point are leading their class in scholarship. Miss Marie Annette Slaughter of Newport, Ky., is presently No. 1, followed in order by the following:

Misses Grace E. Dungee, Greensboro; Mayme J. Ellerbe, Cheraw, S. C.; Geraldine Parrish, Glendale, Ohio; Counsuelo Watkins, Danville, Va.; Ann M. Stewart, Reidsville; Carolyn M. Ingram, Durham; Doris A. Lanier, Bath; Dorothy T. Harris, Greensboro; Jean Renwick, Stateville, and Nancy Hudson, Roseland, Va.

148

ROBING CEREMONY--Miss Geraldine Parrish of Glendale, Ohio slips into an academic robe held by Miss Pauline Ferguson, sophomore of Lenoir during senior day ceremonies at Bennett College last week.

Miss English heads Senate at Bennett

GREENSBORO, N.C. — Miss Jimmie English a junior, of Camden, S.C., was chosen to head the Student Senate for 1957-58 and Miss Mildred Taylor, senior, of Greensboro, was chosen May Queen in campus-wide elections at Bennett College this week.

Miss Taylor, a science major will reign with her court, over the May Day festivities on Saturday, May 4, following her coronation by President Willa B. Player.

Chosen to serve with Miss English in the senate were: Misses Addie Watson, Charlotte, vice president; Mary Jane Williams, Winston-Salem, secretary; DeQuincy Johnson, Lenoir, treasurer, and Wilhelmina Bundy, Johnson City, Tenn., parliamentarian.

• • •

MISS CAROLYN BROWN of Johnson City, Tenn., was elected editor of the Bennett Banner, student newspaper and Miss Yvonne Wynne, of Jamaica, N.Y., co-editor.

Elected as representative to the Central Committee, key administrative body on the campus, was Miss Deloris Tonkins, junior, of Greensboro. Miss Rosemary Wright of Camden, S.C., was elected president of the David D. Jones Student Union. Elected secretary of the Union board was Miss Nannie Poole of Baltimore, Md., while Miss Kay Turner of Columbia, Ohio, was elected representative to the Union board of managers.

Chosen to fill other campus offices were:

Misses Coefield, Kinston, N.C. superintendent of the Sunday School; Anita Duckett, pianist and Millie Adams, secretary;

Shirley Waters, Dudley N.C., mid-week vesper chairman and Inez Jones, Lenior, secretary.

Cheraw Girl Class Leader At College

GREENSBORO, N. C.—Mayme J. Ellerbe of Cheraw, S. C. is one of 11 seniors who at this point is leading their class at Bennett College in scholarship.

A challenge to make their education purposeful was given to members of the senior class at Bennett by President Willa B. Player last Friday afternoon.

The occasion was the annual Senior Day program in Pfeiffer chapel during which members of the class received their caps and gowns from their sister class—the ...e.

Congratulating the seniors upon having reached this 'milestone" in their careers, President Player said:

Between now and commencement, get all of the additional knowledge that you can; make the most of every resource, that you may later meet successfully the challenges of life."

President Player pointed to Kwame Nkrumah, premier of the new nation of Ghana and to Dr. Martin Luther King, leader of the successful peaceful bus boycott in Montgomery, Ala., as products of small liberal arts colleges, such as Bennett, who have met life's challenges.

The same challenges that faced them," she declared, "also face you. It will require dedication on your part to make your knowledge real so that you, too, may achieve."

TO GIVE PLAY

"Claudia," a three-act comedy drama by Rose Franken, will be presented by the Bennett College Senior Theater Guild, tonight and tomorrow night in the Little Theater at 8 o'clock.

ASHEVILLE SCHOOLMAN SPEAKS AT BENNETT

GREENSBORO, N.C. — F. A. Tolliver, principal of the Stephens-Lee High School of Asheville, N.C. addressed the Bennett College student body and faculty at the April 5 chapel period.

Bennett Choir Will Sing Palm Sunday

GREENSBORO, N. C. — A service of special music by the college choir will highlight the observance of Palm Sunday at Bennett College at 4 p. m. in Pfeiffer chapel.

The forty-voice group, directed by Mrs. Crawford, will sing two choruses from Brahms "Requiem"—"Ye now with sorrow are filled" and "How Lovely Are Thy Dwellings" — with Miss Jacqueline McAllister senior, of Kingstree, S. C. as soprano soloist. Another soprano, Miss Dolores Wiggins, junior, of Petersburg, Va., will be soloist for Gounod's 'Gallia."

• • •

COMPOSITIONS by Handel, Palestrina and the late Dr. R. Nathaniel Dett's "When I Survey the Wondrous

Bennett's foreign students' Yule gala

Dr. Henry Hitt Crane Bennett College Speaker

Although there are many persons who profess Christianity, far too many do not know God, Dr. Henry Hitt Crane of Detroit, declared in an address at Bennett College, Thursday.

Dr. Crane, pastor of the Central Methodist Church, and a long-time trustee of Bennett said that a recent poll showed that 94 per c... of Americans believe in God. "But how many of them are really aware of God?" he asked.

The minister stated that a person is assured that he really knows God when he begins to feel a sense of adequacy, when he gets a feeling of infectious joy, whn he feels an inner serenity and an outpouring of good which, in reality, he explained, is love.

As an example of how the power of Christianity works in the world, Dr. Crane referred to the Rev. Martin Luther King, of Montgomery, Ala., leader of the successful peaceful bus boycott in that city.

"He is the greatest thing that we have in America today," he said, "and he is giving to the world the idea of how to handle the desegregation problem."

Bennett To Hear Brooklyn Woman

Miss Marion Beldon Cook of Brooklyn, N.Y., author, editor, lecturer and an advocate of the use of regional literature for young people, will speak at the Sunday vesper service at Bennett College.

Author and compiler of several juvenile books which have been used in schools and libraries, Miss Cook also has lectured at many of the nation's colleges and universities explaining how regional fiction personalizes the work of the social studies program.

Miss Cook Addresses Vespers At Bennett

"What Is Past Is Prologue" was the subject of the address delivered by Miss Marion Beldon Cook of Brooklyn, N.Y., at the Bennett College vesper service yesterday afternoon.

Tracing the historical development of man from the cave man era to the present atomic age, Miss Cook said that just as the knowledge of making tools, weapons and other material things spread, so did the cumulative ethical products of the human mind also spread.

She urged the audience to be more outspoken in their belief in the democratic ideal in order that it might spread, following the same historic pattern of the past.

HIGH SCHOOL SENIORS AT BENNETT--Some of the 130 high school seniors and their advisors from North Carolina, South Carolina and Virginia who attended the annual Youth Days at Bennett College, Greensboro, last week.

Bennett Woman To Address N. C. Teachers' Meet

DURHAM

A member of the business faculty at Bennett College will address a special group of teachers at the North Carolina Teachers Association annual one day meeting in Charlotte Friday.

She is Miss Wilhelmenia Gilbert, teacher of business education at the Greensboro college for women. Miss Gilbert will speak before a special session of high school teachers of business at 11:00 Friday morning at West Charlotte high school.

Thousands of teachers from all over North Carolina will be in attendance at the one-day NCTA meeting in Charlotte Friday.

Announcement of Miss Gilbert's appearance at the teachers' meeting was revealed in Durham this week by Miss L. Mae Jones, chairman of the business teachers unit of the NCTA. Miss Jones is a member of the Mary Potter school of Oxford faculty.

"Meeting the Challenge of Today's Youth Through Better Business Training" will be the subject of Miss Gilbert's address.

The Bennett College teacher has had wide experience as a teacher and administrator. She has taught business education for five years on the college level, two years in the secondary school, and has served for five years as secretary and administrative assistant to college presidents.

BENNETT COLLEGE Advocate 4/15/57

Understand the Cry

The greatest need in the world today is for people to understand the cry of the human heart for food and freedom, Miss Thelma Stevens of New York City told the Bennett College vesper audience recently in Pfeiffer Chapel, Greensboro, N. C.

Miss Stevens, who is secertary of the department of Christian social relations of the Woman's Division of Christian Service of The Methodist Church, declared that a bold declaration of the Gospel of Jesus Christ—a gospel of reconciliation and good will—is also greatly needed today.

"We profess to be a democracy," she said, "but many times our behavior does not qualify us for that title. Our very immaturity as a nation sometimes makes us act abroad in ways that are often misunderstood."

Reminding her audience that people in other parts of the world know a great deal more about us than we do about them, she suggested that the United States might well demonstrate its leadership by thinking in terms of human welfare instead of merely fighting communism.

Miss Stevens called attention to a "great silence abroad in the world today," with many persons not speaking out their convictions because of fear. Mutual dependence and co-operation have replaced interdependence and isolation in the world, she said, adding that science has made the world so small so fast that man's mind and man's mode of living have not kept pace with it.

"The fact that people are talking about civil rights and civil-rights legislation—whether on one side or the other," she continued, "is an important sign . . . It has been said that salvation comes by disturbance. Surely, the world today is a great cauldron of disturbance, out of which salvation might well come."

"Self-Fulfillment" Discussed By Dr. B. E. Mays At 31st Institute

GREENSBORO—"There can be complete self-fulfillment only when we live up to our maximum capacities," Dr. Benjamin E. Mays of Atlanta, Ga., declared in an address that marked the close of the 31st Homemaking Institute at Bennett College, Sunday.

To an audience, some of whom were compelled to stand, the president of Morehouse College, in keeping with the institute theme, spoke on "Guides to Achieving Self-Fulfillment through Understanding."

"People are born under different circumstances," he said, "some to great wealth, some to poverty. Some have parents with education and culture, some have parents who can neither read nor write. Some are born white, some brown, some dark.

"But we don't get our status in the world from family, race or college. We get that from God, and the founding fathers of this nation were speaking wiser than they knew when they said that God gives man certain inalienable rights.

"That is why it is so tragic to see certain forces in the deep South who try to act as if they were God."

The week-long institute, which had as its theme: "Achieving Self - Fulfillment through Understanding", included an address by Dr. Joseph S. Himes, professor of sociology at North Carolina College in Durham; two addresses by Dr. Lowell R. Ditzen, Bronxville, N. Y., minister-lecturer; a panel exhibits and demonstrations.

Dr. Himes, who spoke on "Understanding Myself", pointed out that it is always good to understand one's limitations as well as one's capacities. Failure to do this, he stated, can lead to a "king-size" frustration.

He said that objective self-evaluation breaks down unless the individual, looking at himself, is willing to admit frankly what he sees, whether it is good or bad.

Dr. Ditzen, author of "Personal Security Through Faith", declared that there was too much emphasis today on what is wrong in the world, when, in reality, there are so many things right with it.

"The capacity for laughter, the loyalty of friends, the knowledge that each of us has infinite possibilities for building some rich experiences — all of these are things that are right in the world".

The speaker also pointed to great ideas and the 'illimitable hope of a youthful heart" as an answer to the pessimists who see only gloom in the universe.

Discussion group leaders included Dr. Hamako Hirose, president of Hiroshima Woman's college, Japan; Dr. Warren Ashby, Dean Mereb Mossman and Dr. Franklin McNutt, all of Woman's College; Dr. Himes, and from the Bennett faculty: Dr. George Breathett, the Rev. John L. Bryan, Mrs. Blanche Raiford and Mrs. Minnie Smith.

NEW KAPPA PHI MEMBERS—Recently inducted members of the Bennett College Chapter of Kappa Phi, Methodist Girls club, are shown on steps of chapel. Left to right, first row: Misses Loretta Richmong, Greensboro; Bettye McLean, Greensboro; Harriett Butler, Cincinnati, Ohio; Fannie Miles, Drakes Branch, Va.; second row: Lila Blanding, Sumter, S.C.; Diamia Croslin, Charlotte; Marjorie Smith, Sylva, N. C.; Geneva Averett, Buffalo, N.Y.; Mae Helen Shaw, Laurinburg, N. C.; third row: Albertine Houwen, Alexandria, Va.; Barbara Ingram, Greensboro; Betty Middleton, Burton, S. C. and Edna Jones, Lepoir, N. C.

MISS TAYLOR

ARTICLE BY BENNETT INSTRUCTOR PUBLISHED

An article, "The Health of Your Heart Is Your Responsibility First: Take Care of It"—by Van S. Allen, hygiene instructor at Bennett College, appears in the April issue of The Health Bulletin, official publication of the North Carolina State Laboratory of Hygiene at Raleigh.

BENNETT'S MAY QUEEN

GREENSBORO, N.C. — Miss Mildred Taylor of this city, a senior science major, will be crowned "Queen" during May Day festivities at Bennett College on Saturday, May 4.

ASHBY TO SPEAK

Dr. Warren Ashby of the department of philosophy at Woman's College will speak at the 4 p.m. vesper service at Bennett College today.

RECITAL SET

First in the annual series of senior recitals by music students at Bennett College will take place tonight at 8 o'clock when Miss Marion C. Moore, organist, of Marshall, Mo., will be heard.

CONCERT TONIGHT

The annual spring concert by the 50-voice freshman choir at Bennett College will be held tonight at 7:30 o'clock in Pfeiffer Chapel. Edward Lowe, music instructor and director of the group, announced a 17-number program, which will include works of Mozart, Handel, Kubik, Brahms and a group of traditional spirituals. Jeannette Ward and Beulah Brodie will be piano accompanists and organ accompanist will be Clarence E. Whiteman.

Six Ministers Plan To Conduct Service

Six local Methodist ministers will assist in the Good Friday communion service in Pfeiffer Chapel at Bennett College tomorrow at 6 a.m.

Participating clergymen, who will assist the Rev. John L. Bryan, college minister, are: the Revs. J. E. Brower, who will preside; G. M. Phelps, Clinton C. Armstrong, F. D. Caldwell, G. H. Caldwell and R. W. Winchester.

Music for this service, which marks the end of Holy Week morning devotions at the college, will be provided by the senior choir, directed by Mrs. Mary Crawford, with Clarence E. Whiteman at the organ.

The Easter recess begins at noon tomorrow and will end at 8 a.m. on Tuesday, April 23.

FF TO TENNESSEE—These nnett College students are shown just before leaving for Monteagle, Tenn., where they attended a workshop on integration at the Highlander Folk School. Left to right. Grace Coleman, Charlotte; Gwendolyn Harris (partially hidden) Greensboro; Sonja Weldon, Chicago; Wilhelmina Bundy, Johnson City, Tenn.; Addie Watson, Charlotte; and Phyllis Henry, Odessa, Del.

BENNETT LEADERS CROWNED—Sixteen of the 18 students at Bennett College who by virtue of high scholarship are eligible to become members of Alpha Kappa Mu Honor Society are shown leaving rostrum following coronation ceremonies in Pfeiffer Chapel last week. In foreground left to right are: Misses Sonja Weldon, Chicago; Deloris Tonkins, Greensboro; Delores Casimere, Galveston, Texas; Onuma Oko, Nigeria, West Africa; In row at left on rostrum are left to right: Peggy Coefield, Kinston; Jean Renwick, Statesville; Margarie Mays, Greensboro; Gloria Blatch, Miami, Fla.; Shirley Hudson, Greensboro; Oyeyemi Salako, Nigeria, West Africa; In row at right, left to right are: Misses Jimmie English, Camden, S. C.; (partially hidden); Dorothy Harris, Greensboro; Carolyn Ingram, Durham; Marion Moore, Marshall, Mo.; Julia McClain, Grady, Ala.; Veronica Shipley, Baltimore. Not shown are: Misses Paula Edmunds, Cl[illegible] and Fredrica Washington, Beaufort, S. C.

149