

RICHARD B. HARRISON PUBLIC LIBRARY
RALEIGH, NORTH CAROLINA

The Library Department

Presents

SCHOOL FOR GIRLS

A Drama in 3 Acts

by

Robert St. Clair

Ligon Auditorium

January 11, 1963

8:00 P. M.

H. E. Brown, Principal

Synopsis of Scenes

The entire action takes place in the living room of Valley View, an urban school for young girls, run by the Misses Elvira and Anna Bradfield. The time is early fall the beginning of a new semester.

Act One:

Early morning

Act Two:

Scene One: Late afternoon

Scene Two: A few hours later

Act Three:

The following morning

Locality

A large country estate situated near a small, mid-western town.

Cast of Characters

Elvira Bradfield	Bessie White a spinster
Anna Bradfield	Mary Barbour
	Elvira's younger sister
Ruth Croft	Marie Coleman
	the new teacher
Rose Mary O'Toole	Shirley Dendy
	the cook
Janet Merrill	Anita Noble
	the new girl
Diane Claypool	Nancy Norwood
	a Senator's daughter
Maebelle Hill	Carolyn Peterson
	a romantic student
Jacklin Cutter	Frances Wilson
	a tomboy
Alice Ramsey	Anita Miller
	a diplomat's daughter
Teresa Knight	Patricia Palmer
	another student
Claire Spooner	Brenda Farrell
	another student
Beatrice Hayworth	Claudia Goodson still another student

Director..... Mrs. E. H. Brown

Ushers

Iris Allen

Cynthia Goza

Margo King

Berlina Patterson

Annie McKay

Ella Mitchner

Joyce Morgan

Sandra Sanders

Eunice Simpson

Stage Setting

Drama Department

Programs

Industrial Arts Department

Make-Up

Mr. J. E. Williams

Advisors

Mrs. JoAnn Bishop

Mr. D. R. Ingram

Mr. C. C. Lipscomb