Miss Dyretha Dushá "Reesa" Brooks of 116-B Fidelity Street, Carrboro, NC was born on October 31, 1971, to Veronica "Vicki" Brooks and the late Eddie L. Currie. She departed her young adult life on Friday, March 30, 1990, after a long battle with cancer.

Reesa was a "1990" graduating senior of Chapel Hill High School until her health failed. She was a part-time employee with Harris Teeter of Carrboro, NC.

Reesa was an outstanding and very special human being, who was loved by many people with her cheerful smile and outstanding characteristics. To know her was to love her. She enjoyed sports and being with her family and friends. She looked at life as her biggest challenge and with her positive mind, she knew she could conquer all of life's peaks and valleys and encourage others to feel the same. Her patience, kindness and concerns will always be remembered.

She leaves to mourn her Mother, Vicki Brooks of the home; one brother, Timothy Goins of Chapel Hill, NC; maternal grandparents, Russell & Flossie Brooks; Paternal grandparents, Samuel & Mary Dell Currie; three great grandmothers, Cora Brooks, Lubie McCrimmon and Dora Currie all of Siler City, NC; one great grandfather, Rassie Cassidy of Coleridge, NC; a God Mother, Barbara McClam, a play mother,

Patricia Edwards. Four aunts, Aldenia Brooks of Ramsuer, NC; Janice Brooks of Siler City, NC; Susan Williams and Ketha Brooks of Durham, NC. Four uncles, Jerry Brooks of Ramsuer, NC, Roy Brooks of Siler City, NC, Randy McCrimmon of Maryland and Calvin Currie of New York. Some very special supporting and encouraging friends Sherry Bell, Felicia Atwater of Chapel Hill, NC and James M. Edwards of Durham, NC

A host of family and friends that will always remember her special smile and loving ways.

"Gone but not forgotten!"

You are not forgotten Loved One
Nor will you ever be
As long as life and memory last
We will remember Thee
We miss you now, our hearts are sore
As time goes by, we will miss you more
Your loving smile, your gentle face
No one can fill your vacant place.
