The Obituary

Mary Louise Taylor Marsh was born in Chatham County to the late Frank and Olivia Taylor on December 5, 1946. She departed this life on June 6, 2002 in Chapel Hill, North Carolina.

Mary joined Russell Chapel Church at an early age and remained a member until her death. She served in a number of offices on her Christian journey. She served as a Christian Education Leader, President of VCE, Sunday School Teacher, member of the Missionary Board, choir member, just to name a few.

Mary was a graduate of Horton High School in 1965 and a graduate of Central Carolina Technical College as a Licensed Practical Nurse in 1967.

She leaves to cherish her memory: her beloved husband, Charles Marsh of Pittsboro, NC; To this union three children were born: two sons, Charles Maurice Marsh (Nicole), Raleigh, NC, and Frank Marsh (Mary), Greensboro, NC; one daughter, Marilyn Robinson (Damion), Knightdale, NC; seven grandchildren, Shalise, Vanessa, Rashod, Nakia, Damion, Tierra, and Alexis. She also leaves three sisters, Julia Marsh and Chloe Cooley, Pittsboro, NC and Margaret Bynum, Chapel Hill, NC; a brother, William Taylor, Pittsboro, NC; one aunt, Mabel Taylor, Durham, NC, several nieces, nephews, and a host of other relatives and friends

To My Wife and Our Mother

A light from our house is gone

A voice we loved is stilled.

A place is vacant in our home

Which can never be filled.

It's hard to part with one so dear

Little we thought the time was so near

Farewell dear Wife and Mother, your life is past

Our love for you will always last

With a cheerful smile and a sweet goodbye

You have gone to a beautiful home in the sky
