*I would rather have one little rose,
From the garden of a friend,
Than to have the choicest flowers
When my stay on earth must end.
I would rather have one pleasant word
In kindness said to me,
Than flattery when my heart is still
And life has ceased to be.*

— Obituary —

MABEL VETIE BROOKS GERST was born in Person County, North Carolina, on April 6, 1910, to the late Professor Ellis W. Brooks and Delvie Mitchell Brooks. She died suddenly on October 20, 1989.

She was educated at Kittrell College, Bennett College, North Carolina Central University, Virginia Union University, and received her B.S. degree from Hampton University in 1959.

She was married to the late Otis Gerst and resided in South Boston, Virginia, for 20 years until his death in 1956. To this union one child, a daughter, Lottie, was born. Mabel had resided in Durham, North Carolina, since 1957.

She taught school for 35 years in Person County, North Carolina, and for six years in the Durham City Schools, retiring from the Durham City School System in 1974. Thereafter, until the time of her death, she volunteered to serve as Official Hostess at St. Joseph's A.M.E. Church, where she was a loyal member who was recently honored for devoted service.

At St. Joseph's, Mabel was a member of Stewardess Board No. II, the Carolina Barnes Missionary Society, the Ladies Aid Society, the Satterfield-Davis Club, the Lay Organization, the Wednesday Bible Study Class, and an Assistant Sunday School Teacher. She was formerly a member of the Senior Choir at St. Joseph's.

In the community, she was a member of the Lawson Street Community Club, and she was also an active participant in the W.D. Hill Recreation Center Senior Citizens' Lunch Group. Professionally, she was a member of the Durham City/County Retired School Personnel.

Surviving are her daughter, Mrs. Lottie Gerst Rountree of Plainfield, N.J.; two sisters, Mrs. Edna Brooks Cuthbertson and Mrs. Alma Brooks Link of Durham; four brothers, Mr. Roscoe Brooks of Durham, Mr. Alexander Brooks, Mr. James Brooks, and Mrs. Wallace Brooks of Roxboro, North Carolina; three grandchildren, Captain Michael Rountree of Fort Sill, Oklahoma, Mr. Vincent Rountree of Toledo, Ohio, and Miss Susan Rountree of Plainfield, N.J.; and a host of nieces, nephews, relatives and friends.

"There is a time for everything, and a season for every activity under heaven."

Surviving are two sons, Antonio J. Gibson and Demario A. White, both of Durham; her mother, Mrs. Flossie S. Gibson; four brothers, Lawrence Sutton, Haywood Gibson, Josea Gibson and Michael Gibson; one grandson, Dorian L. Perry, all of Durham; and a host of nieces and nephews.

*To everything there is a season,
and a "time to every purpose
under the heaven"
A time to be born,
and a time to die;
a time to Plant,
and a time to pluck;
up that which is planted
Ecclesiastes 3:1-2*

The lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name sake. Yea, though I walk in through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever
