THE OBITUARY

Dr. Lowry Wilson Reid, son of the late Amzie and Fannie Reid, was born June 18, 1913 in Rock Hill, South Carolina. He departed this life on September 22, 1995 at Duke University Medical Center.

Dr. Reid's ministry covers a span of more than five decades. He was a graduate of the Union Christian College, Goldsboro, N.C. where he received his Bachelor of Theology, Master of Divinity, and Doctorate of Divinity degrees. Dr. Reid did extensive studies at Duke and Shaw University's Schools of Divinity.

Dr. Reid pastored New Bethel Missionary Baptist Church, Durham, N.C. for forty-four years, Piney Grove Baptist Church, Hillsborough, N.C. for seventeen years and Red Mountain Baptist Church, Rougemont, N.C.

In order to train and prepare ministers of the gospel, Dr. Reid founded the Union Christian Bible Institute, Durham, N.C. in 1964 and served as its president. This institute, a vision of his dream, continues today at 201 Barnhill Street, Durham, N.C.

The city of Durham was greatly blessed by the vision, the contributions, and the work of Dr. Lowry Wilson Reid. One of the most significant community contributions was his role in the redevelopment of the Crest Street Community. As a result of his witness to God, his commitment to justice for all people, and his tireless service to the Crest Street Community, he was awarded in 1989 the Nancy Susan Reynolds Award for Community Change. In 1992 the Crest Street Community Council recognized him by opening the "L. W. Reid Home for the Elderly" and named a street in the community in his honor "Reid Drive."

His numerous positions of leadership are a testimony to his boundless energy and dedication. His contributions also extended into numerous positions held in the New Hope Missionary Baptist Association, Durham Ministerial Alliance, and the New Hope Union.

He leaves to cherish his precious memories are his loving and devoted wife of sixty years, Julia Worsley Reid; his son, Edward Lewis Reid; two brothers, Spencer Reid, Durham, N.C., and David Reid, New York; three sisters, Fannie Threet, Chesapeake, Va., Margaret Hill, Lynchburg, Va., and Elizabeth Reid, Durham, N.C.; two sisters-in-law, Bertha High, Rocky Mount, N.C., and Lilly Mae Reid, Durham, N.C.; three brothers-in-law, Bob Threet, Chesapeake, Va., George Hill, Lynchburg, Va., and John L. Worsley, Sr., Rocky Mount, N.C.; six grandchildren, Debra Daniels, Lisa Reid, and Edward Reid, all of Durham, Judy Carter, Charlotte, N.C., Michael F. Davis, Tennessee, and Terrance B. Davis, Beltsville, Maryland; eleven great-grandchildren; five godchildren; several nieces and nephews; and a host of other loving relatives and friends.

*There was a man sent from God
God's Ambassador - God's Trombone
Reverend Lowry Wilson Reid*

*He gave of himself in service
a holy calling to fulfill
He was empowered by God's mercy to do his Master's will.*

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free,
I'm following the path that God laid for me;
I took his hand when I heard him call,
I turned my back, and left it all.

I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work or play;
Tasks left undone, must stay that way,
I've found that peace at the close of the day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy;
My life's been full, I savored much,
For I've been blessed by the Master's touch.

Lift up your heart that was shared with me,
God called and He has set me free;
I go to my home in heaven above,
And leave with you my cherished love.

I Do Not Go Alone

*If Death should beckon me
With outstretched hand
And Whisper softly
Of "an unknown land"...
I shall not be afraid to go,
For though the path
I do not know...
I take Death's hand without fear
For He who safely
Brought me here...
Will also take me safely back,
And though in many Things I lack...
He will not let me go alone
Into the "Valley that's unknown...
So I reach out and take Death's hand
And journey to the "Promise Land!"

The Obituary

"The Lord is my shepherd I shall not want..."

Gretchen Marshall Reid, the daughter of the late John and Annie P. Marshall was born September 5, 1928 in Wilson, North Carolina. She was called to her heavenly, eternal rest Friday, December 25, 1992 in Rex Hospital, Raleigh, North Carolina.

Her formative years were spent in Wilson, NC and Washington, DC, where she attended the public schools. Upon graduation from Charles H. Darden High School, Gretchen attended Johnson C. Smith University in Charlotte where she received a Bachelor's of Science Degree. Later she attended A & T State University, and Howard University, Washington, DC.

Gretchen began her teaching career in Zebulon, NC; continuing on to Speight, Booker T. Washington, Darden, Coon, and Hunt High Schools. In addition to teaching mathematics and science, she coached girls basketball, taught modern and ballroom dance, and was a senior advisor. Besides teaching in the public school system, she taught math in the Wilson County Adult Literacy Program and in the Wake AHEC's Health Careers Program.

In addition to her work in education, she was a member of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, North Carolina Association for Educators, St. Mark's Episcopal Church Women, Johnson C. Smith Alumni Association, Friends of Lincoln Center and a host of civic and social organizations.

She is survived by a daughter, M. LaVerne Reid of Raleigh; a sister, Louise M. Perry of Wilson; a brother, Herman Oliver Marshall, Sr. and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Obituary

*Oh! think to step ashore,
And find it Heaven
To clasp a hand outstretched
And find it's God's hand!
To breathe new air,
And that celestial air;
To feel refreshed
And find it immortality;
Oh think to step from storm and stress
To one unbroken calm;
To awake and find it home.*

— Robert E. Selle

William Milas Reinhardt, Sr. was born in Lincoln County to the late James and Mamie Finger Reinhardt. He entered into eternal rest Tuesday morning, February 7, 1989, at his home in Goldsboro, North Carolina.

He was united in marriage to the former Miss Lillian Foster of Iron Station, N. C. This union spanned more than 65 years. To this union was born one daughter Helen, and one son, William, Jr.

During his early years, he attended Lincoln Academy, Lincolnton, N.C. He began his college career at Howard University and received his Bachelor of Science Degree at North Carolina A&T State University, Greensboro, N.C. and a Master of Arts Degree from North Carolina Central University, Durham, North Carolina.

Many years ago he was inspired to join the greatest group of all — the group of organized believers in Jesus Christ — the church. This inspiration led him to join Moore's Chapel A.M.E. Zion Church in Lincolnton, N.C. After moving to Goldsboro in the early 30's he united with St. James A.M.E. Zion Church where he served faithfully throughout his lifetime. He expressed his love for the church through his deep sense of loyalty and dedication.

His professional career began as a teacher in Iron Station, N.C. Later he served as principal of Columbus County Training School and Central High School, both in Whiteville, N.C., and Dudley Elementary School, Dudley, N.C. In 1933, he was a pioneer in establishing Central High School which closed with his retirement in 1969.

He leaves to cherish his memory: his wife, Mrs. Lillian Reinhardt of the home; one daughter, Mrs. Helen R. Tillman of Washington, D.C.; one son, William Reinhardt, Jr. of West Palm Beach, Florida; four grandchildren — Miss Beverly Battle of Washington, D.C., Mr. William Reinhardt, III and Mr. Reginald Reinhardt of West Palm Beach, Florida, and Mr. Ronald Reinhardt of Goldsboro, N.C.; three sisters: Mrs. Marie Caldwell of Gastonia, N.C., Mrs. Kathryn Minter, Detroit, Michigan and Mrs. Thera Garvin of Charlotte, N.C. One brother, Conklin Reinhardt, Syracuse, N.Y., one sister-in-law, Mrs. Minnie Reinhardt, Winston-Salem, N.C.; three brothers-in-law, David Minter, Detroit, Michigan and Elvert Gavin of Charlotte, N.C., Rev. Onslow Foster, Iron Station, N.C., several nieces and nephews and other relatives and friends.

Mr. Reinhardt has left an indelible mark upon the lives of many people, especially the thousands of children to which he was dedicated. He leaves a legacy of love to his family and friends — a record of service to his church and a history of involvement in civic affairs on the local and state level.

*You have traveled the journey before us;
You have known all the cost of the way;
You have paid out the price to its fullness,
That only you could pay.
You loved when the world was against you
You hoped when our hopes sank and died
You clung to our hands when the clinging
Left the scars on your heart, deep and wide
You labored and loved and was happy,
For deep in your heart, you had trust
Our kindness and love would repay you
For all that you did for us.*

RESOLUTION

BROTHER WILLIAM M. REINHARDT

Worshipful Grand Junior Steward

At this point, we and all the world pause to celebrate the passing of our beloved brother, friend and fellow citizen, BROTHER WILLIAM M. REINHARDT, Worshipful Grand Junior Steward of The Most Worshipful Prince Hall Grand Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons, Jurisdiction of North Carolina, expiration having decended upon him Tuesday, February 7, 1989.

"And behold I heard a voice from Heaven saying, blessed are those who die in the Lord, they rest from their labors." Today, Brother Reinhardt is resting before us and in the Heavens from earthly labors and cares.

WHEREAS, Brother Reinhardt served the Masonic Jurisdiction as a Master Mason for more than four decades, he was a member of J. W. Hood Lodge No. 8 in Goldsboro, North Carolina where he served as Worshipful Master approximately fifteen years. He was appointed Worshipful Grand Junior Steward by Most Worshipful Past Grand Master Clark S. Brown in 1972 and continued to serve this Jurisdiction well even until his expiration Reinhardt, William M.

WHEREAS, He was a giant of a man and mason, quiet in demeanor, patient as a listener and kind as a gentleman, he demonstrated what it means to be a Mason. He sought more light through academic inquiry including North Carolina A and T State University, North Carolina Central University, and Howard University. He was gainfully employed to secure self sufficiency for himself, his family and contributed to the relief of widows and orphans. He participated in the governing process of our culture by serving as Precinct Chairman for Precinct No. 1. Finally, and most importantly, he served the Supreme Architect of the Universe as an officer and member of St. James A. M. E. Zion Church in Goldsboro, North Carolina.

BE IT RESOLVED, That We pause in humble submission to the will of the Grand Master of the Universe as we celebrate the home-going of Brother WILLIAM M. REINHARDT. To Sister Lillian F. Reinhardt, his devoted and loving wife, to Mrs Helen R. Tillman, his devoted and loving daughter, to Mr. William M. Reinhardt, Jr., his devoted and loving son and other relatives and friends, we too, shall miss Brother Reinhardt.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That we, the officers and members of the Prince Hall Grand Lodge of North Carolina, The United Supreme Council, Ancient Accepted Scottish Rite of Free Masons and The Ancient Egyptian Arabic Order, Nobles of the Mystic Shrine and all other appendant bodies extend our deepest sympathy to this the home and community of BROTHER WILLIAM M. PRELUDE

POSTLUDE.....The Musician

Just think of a world without tears
Where a man can live for a million years
With never a grief, an ache or pain and never a thought of dying again
Think of a World where each man is a brother
Not esteeming himself above that of another
Where man unto man will be friend to friend
In a world without tears, that will never end.
