

FSTC Students Named To "Who's Who"

Nine top-ranking students at Fayetteville State Teachers College, two seniors and seven juniors, have been named to the 1952-53 edition of "Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities."

Local selections were limited to upper classmen, and were based upon scholarship, leadership and citizenship records.

This is the third consecutive year that students at Fayetteville State Teachers College have been listed in the nation-wide study.

Representing the Student Council, the "Voice," Y. W. C. A., A. K. A. sorority, Delta Sigma Theta sorority, College Choir, Sunday School and Drama Guild, the students named are: Aileen Watson, Shelby; Helen Mills, Nashville; Cleopatra Griswald, Raleigh; Naomi Pitt, Bethel; Queen Pitt, Pinetops; Dorothy Little, Ruby, S. C.; Wilbert King, Overhills; Joyce Delaney, Wilson; and Doris Pridgen, Whiteville.

CAMPUS LEADERS—Nine students at Fayetteville State Teachers College have been named for the current edition of "Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities." Shown seated, left to right, are: Aileen Watson, Shelby; Helen Mills, Nashville; Cleopatra Griswald, Raleigh; Naomi Pitt, Bethel. Back row, left to right, are: Queen Pitt, Pinetops; Dorothy Little, Ruby, S. C.; Wilbert King, Overhills; Joyce Delaney, Wilson; and Doris Pridgen, Whiteville.

THANKSGIVING SPIRIT—A portion of the Community committee of the student Y. W. C. A. at Fayetteville State Teachers College is ready for the annual visit to the Cumberland county sanatorium. Dorothy Powell (at left in back row) is chairman of the committee, which makes and fills baskets each year for patients at the sanatorium.

NEW DELTAS—Seven high-ranking coeds were initiated as charter members of the new Delta Ki C chapter Delta Sigma Theta sorority at Fayetteville State Teachers College. A banquet followed the initiation ceremonies, which was attended by Pauline Weeden of Lynchburg, Va., director of the eastern region of the sorority. Those initiated, left to right, were Gerdine Stevens of Teachey, sergeant-at-arms; Aileen Warson of Shelby, treasurer; Dorothy Powell of Rich Square, vice president; Naomi Pitt of Bethel, president; Swanola Mooring of Bethel, corresponding secretary; Gladys Lunsford of Rocky Mount, recording secretary; and Cleopatra Griswald of Raleigh, chaplain. Faculty sponsor is Mrs. Lorena C. Carter of the college's education department.

Mme. Begum Shasta Ikramullah, member of the Pakistan Parliament, noted in politics in her country, and expert on Middle East affairs, will lecture at A. and T. College, Greensboro, N. C., on Sunday afternoon, Feb. 1.

She is being presented at the college as a part of its lyceum series.

Pakistan Official Speaks At College

Mme. Begum Shasta Ikramullah, an official of the Pakistan Constituent Assembly and an authority on problems incident to the Middle and Far East, appeared in an assembly lecture at the Fayetteville State Teachers College, Thursday.

She is a holder of the doctor's degree and has acquired a complete command of the English Language. Her first-hand experiences on once and her wide travel account tend to for the challenging view points she presents as to the strength and weakness of Pakistan as a new-born democracy.

She began her political career as a convenor of the all-India Moslem Women's Federation in the about "The Delhi in 1941, and in 1946, she was elected to the Constituent Assembly of the undivided India, and has served in that body ever since.

Her lecture was well received, as indicated by a series of questions and answers.

and a statement of the history of the Delta Sigma Theta Sorority by A. Watson, the guest speaker. Mrs. Neutrice W. Merritt of Clinton, N. C. spoke from the topic "Building Roads." Soloist for the occasion was Miss Ruth Butler of the Rocky Mount School System. Mrs. Ida B. Cooper of the Roseboro School System, Roseboro, N. C. was the pianist.