

BOY SCOUTS OF AMERICA

RICHARD B. HARRISON PUBLIC LIBRARY
RALEIGH NORTH CAROLINA

IN MEMORY
MR. ZACK ELLIS
DEVOTED TO SCOUTING

There are twelve parts of the Scout Law,
the last one is:

R E V E R E N T

Reverent is that respect, regard, consideration, courtesy, devotion, and affection you have for some person, place, or thing because it is HOLY. A Scout will find help in living this twelfth part of the Scout Law in earning the Scout Religious Award. A Scout must work with a minister, priest, Rabbi, or Religious Advisor to earn this Award.

Studying for this award we have the following boys:

Roy L. Durham

Leotha Debnam, Jr.

Walter Davenport, Jr. Malcom Debnam

Instructor: The Reverend C. W. Ward, pastor

The Fiftieth Anniversary Award Patch was won last year by Scouts all over the nation. It was awarded when four requirements were met, and the boy has the honor of wearing it on his uniform. If 50% of the boys in the troop and/or post won the award their troop and/or post is awarded the President Eisenhower Streamer, and their Scoutmaster and/or Advisor may then wear the Fiftieth Anniversary Award Patch.
