THE BILL BARNWELL JAZZ COMBO

On the campus of Hampton Institute originated THE BILL BARNWELL COMBO which has risen to national recognition as tops in collegiate jazz. This honor was won by competitive participation in the Fourth Annual Villanova University Jazz Festival in October of 1963 and February of 1964.

Not only did the combo rate as number one in the nation, but Bill Barnwell and Preston Williams rated number one as reed and brass instrumentalists, respectively.

The combo is a unique group. The members compose and arrange jazz as well as play jazz superbly.

In June the combo played at the World's Fair and in July at the Newport Jazz Festival.

An appearance on the Ed Sullivan Television Show and the making of recordings are next on their agenda of outstanding feats.

RALEIGH WELCOMES THE BILL BARNWELL COMBO.
