presents the

27th Annual

JABBERWOCK

"Seniors In Fantasyland"

Saturday, April 8, 1967

8:15 p. m.

Raleigh Memorial Auditorium

Raleigh, North Carolina

Greetings To . . .

The Advertisers, Patrons and Friends

How deep and warm our appreciation is for each of you for your generous support and your presence here tonight. Our hopes are high that the pageant will serve not only as entertainment for you, but that you will have an opportunity to focus upon the budding natural talent of youthful performers. Although we take pride and self-satisfaction in bringing you this production, we are especially proud in knowing that each year we can count on your support and encouragement in the realization of our goal.

Welcome To . . .

All Who Grace This Our 27th Annual Jabberwock

"THE MISS JABBERWOCK PAGEANT"

Congratulations To . . .

The Outstanding Seniors of 1967

May the future find you superbly equipped to clash each challenge in a realm of success, opportunities unlimited yet attainable by those who dare. Delta congratulates you on this momentous occasion.

From . . .

A Delta Founder

In loving memory of one whose life revealed the qualities of finer womanhood, of one who saw beauty in even the simplest forms of nature, of one who lent of her talents in bringing dignity to the status of the Negro woman in America, we, the members of the Raleigh Alumnae Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Incorporated, dedicate this, our twenty-seventh annual Jabberwock to our late Sister and Founder, Jimmie Bugg Middleton.

Mrs. Jimmie Bugg Middleton

The Jabberwock

Since 1925 when the first Jabberwock was presented in Boston, Massachusetts, Sorors of Delta Sigma Theta Chapters all over the country have featured these colorful galaxties as a unique medium of raising scholarship funds and providing entertainment to various locales. The imagination and affection of innumerable audiences have created for "Our Miss Jabberwock" a realm of loveliness, dignity, opportunity, and simplicity so symbolic to all things of great value. Each year the Jabberwocks' symbol grows graciously as a new queen adds her own measure of grace.

The Jabberwock as sponsored by the Raleigh Alumnae Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, is still richly steeped in heritage but enfolds itself into "The Miss Jabberwock Pageant" symbolizing the merging of the old and the new. Instead of various organizations presenting the traditional skits portraying fantastic mythical characters from Lewis Carroll's Alice in Wonderland, the Raleigh Alumnae Chapter will honor and recognize high achievements among girls in the Senior Class of 1967. Recognition is given in the areas of leadership, scholarship, talent, character, and participation in school and community activities. The Jabberwock queen and her court of many lovely and talented girls taken from the traditional Jabberwock and added to the new idea of recognizing senior girls is truly the merging of the old and the new.

As honorees in the Jabberwock, the girls will have an opportunity to compete for the scholarships and awards on a competitive basis. The girls are given a standardized examination and the titles of MISS ACADEMIC, MISS SCHOLASTIC, AND MISS INTELLECTUAL are based on the scores made on this examination. There is also talent competition and the five finalists from the talent contest compete the night of Jabberwock for the talent titles. These activities are open to all senior participants who wish to vie for these coveted honor titles.

HOW IS "MISS JABBERWOCK" CHOSEN? She is a composite — nominated by the senior participants and finally chosen by Delta on a criteria of scholarship, talent, personality, and service. On the night of the Miss Jabberwock Pageant, the outstanding senior having accumulated the highest record of all points comprising the best all-round girl is honored and crowned "Miss Jabberwock of 1967."

Scholarships and awards are presented to the girls on the night of the Jabberwock program.
