

Floral Bearers

Nieces and Cousins

Dear Grandpa

By: Terry Tabor

We will miss you, dear grandpa.

It must have felt like miles away from home,

When you wondered into hands of angels and Jesus, dear grandpa.

As we searched for you, we called out your name,

With hope that you would answer.

But no reply came, dear grandpa.

Life seemed to fly by us, because you were missing.

Now we know you weren't missing, but on a mission home,

To see our Heavenly Father, dear grandpa.

We will miss your love;

But in honor we will live a legacy of
Respect, dedication, hard work, dear grandpa.

One day we will see you again, dear grandpa.

We know you are in the heavens smiling, rejoicing,

And overcome with great peace, dear grandpa.

Pallbearers

Nephews and Cousins

Acknowledgements

The family acknowledges the many kind expressions of sympathy and condolences. May God richly bless you for comforting words, your selfless acts of love, concern, and your prayers of hope and compassion during our bereavement.

The Family

In Loving Memory Of Mr. Willie H. Headen

Monday, January 24, 2005
Three O'clock p.m.

Knotts Funeral Home
Pittsboro, North Carolina

Rev. William Moses, Officiating

Order of Service

Prelude

Processional.....Minster and Family

Solo.....Evangelist Sylvia Branch

Holy Scripture Readings

Old Testament ~ Rev. J.W. Brooks

New Testament ~ Evangelist Sylvia Branch

Prayer of Comfort

Solo.....Amanda Williams

Obituary Reading/Acknowledgements.....Terry Tabon

Solo.....Tawanna Harrell and Franklin McNair

Special Tribute.....Terry Tabon

Solo.....Amanda Williams

Eulogy.....Rev. William Moses

Recessional

Interment

Chatham Memorial Park
Siler City, North Carolina

Mr. Willie H. Headen

No man knows my destiny.
My fate, man cannot plan.
My heart, my soul,
My everything...
Is placed in the Master's hand.

He allowed me here
To walk the Earth
If only for awhile,
Now He has called me
Home again,
After all...
I am His child.

So, do not be sad for me,
For I'm sure we'll meet again.
I'll be standing at the pearly gates
Waiting to let you in.

I'll be standing with the Master
Smile upon my face
Waiting just to welcome you
To God's most glorious place.

Written by:
Tonia Alston
Granddaughter

There is a time for everything and a season for every purpose under heaven; a time to be born, Willie Harold (Bill) Headen, on January 1, 1933 in Chatham County, NC to the late Coy Headen, Sr. and Arriel Mitchell Headen. A time to die, October 16, 2004. He was preceded in death by two sons, Reginald Headen and Rickey Headen; one brother, Clarence Brooks.

He attended Horton High School in Pittsboro, North Carolina.

He was joined in holy matrimony with Ester Battle Headen on October 1, 1983.

He was employed with Golden Poultry in Cumnock, NC for 20 years until his health no longer permitted.

He attended Wesley Chapel UCC, where he was a member of the Male Chorus. He also attended Heaven's Manna Christian Center in Siler City, NC. He was a good father and provider, a loving and giving man. His motto was "Your word means something" and that's what he lived by.

He leaves to cherish his memory: his loving wife, Ester Battle Headen of the home; seven daughters, Texanna (Mike) Marecheau, Juliette Nelson, Marie Shaw all of Durham, NC, Venus (Paul) Allen, Jacqueline (Ronald) West, Terry Tabon all of Sanford, NC, and Stella Jean Tabon Matthews of the home; eleven sons, Wallace (Debra) Alston of Hillsborough, NC, Willie Headen, Jr. of Durham, NC, Christopher (Michelle) Headen of Siler City, NC, Dwayne (Lisa) Headen of Durham, NC, Tommy (Gabriel) Headen of Germany, Willie Jr. (Glenda) Tabon, Ricky (Regina) Tabon, Ray (Anita) Tabon all of Sanford, NC; three sisters, Cladia (Johnny) Green, Betty (Coley) Headen, Carrie (Issace) Alston all of Pittsboro, NC; four brothers, Leroy (Ester) Headen of Raleigh, NC, Caesar (Mary) Headen, Coy Jr. (Brenda) Headen, Jimmy Brooks all of Pittsboro, NC; six sisters-in-law; four brothers-in-law; 44 grandchildren, 24 great-grandchildren; a host of nieces, nephews, relatives and friends.