~ Words Of Appreciation ~

The family of Hazy G. Alston, deeply appreciate all acts of kindness, concerns, and loved shown during the time of his sickness and our bereavement. Thanks to all of you. It is through your strength we found comfort. We pray that God will bless you richly and keep you this day and in the years to come. May God bless each of you....

Safely Home

*I am home in Heaven dear ones
Oh, so happy and so bright
There is perfect joy and beauty,
In this everlasting light.*

*And Jesus came Himself to met me,
In that way so hard to tread
And with His arms to lean on,
Could I have any doubt or dread.*

*All the pain and grief is over,
Every restless tossing passed,
I am now at peace for ever
Safely home in Heaven at last.*

*When your work is all completed;
He will gently call you home,
Oh, the rapture of that meeting
Oh, the joy to see you come.*

Thank You For Caring

When someone takes the time to listen,
When someone reaches out,
When someone does a thoughtful thing
That makes you warm through out.
When someone lends a helping hand
Find ways in which to share,
When someone makes you feel secure
By always being there.
When someone senses there are
Times when you have special needs
When someone gives you inner strength
Through words as well as deed,
When someone seems to take an interest
In just how you're faring
It's time to tell that special someone
Thanks so much for caring.

Your son,
James L. Alston

My God! My God!
You sent me on this earth on a mission
My God! My God!
The task was not easy,
I traveled thousands and thousand and thousands
Of miles on my journey.
Now the task is over.
My job is done
Precious Lord,
My body is tired. Take me home
To your beautiful mansion.
My son, My son,
Your job is done I am very pleased
With your journey on earth.
I will send my angel to bring you home
To my mansion in heaven
Sleep my child, Your job is well done
I am pleased.
Your Father in heaven.

~ Obituary ~

I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith; henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day: and not to me only, but unto all them also that love His appearing. - II Timothy 4:7,8.

Our father, brother, grandfather and friend, Hazy Granville Alston was born July 8, 1937 in Chatham County, North Carolina. He was the son of the late George Felton Alston and Mrs. Ola Bynum Alston.

He grew up in Goldston, North Carolina and graduated from J.S. Waters High School. Mr. Alston received a diploma from Howell University of Dayton, Ohio in TV Repair.

He was married to Symetra Bethea Alston and to this union four children were born.

He was a member of Roberts Chapel Baptist Church of Goldston, NC and Mt. Moriah Baptist Church of Dayton, Ohio. While at Mt. Moriah he served on the Usher Board and also drove the bus for the church. He retired from General Motors after 30.7 years of service. He was also a member of Masonic Unity Lodge #115. He served in the US Army and received an honorable discharge.

He leaves to mourn and cherish his memory: his daughters, Patricia Alston of the home, Sarah Alston Raeford, Delorise Alston, Patricia Rollins Quick (Nelson), all of Sanford, NC and Margrette Wright, Dayton, OH; one son, James Lewis Alston, Sanford, NC; his mother, Mr. Ola B. Alston, Goldston, NC; five brothers, Frank Alston (Nannie), New York, a faithful brother, Lewis C Alston (Tina), James Nicholas Alston, Fredrick M. Alston, all of Dayton, Oh and David Alston (Brenda), Gulf, NC; five sisters, a faithful sister, Debra Paige (Carl), Siler City, NC, Bernice Lyons (George), New York, Dorthia Alston, New York, Emily Morgan, Goldston, NC and Paulette Daye (George), Durham, NC; eighteen grandchildren, twenty-one great grandchildren; five aunts, two uncles and a host of nieces, nephews and other relatives and friends. Including a very special friend, Ms. Norvelle Wilkerson of Dayton, OH.

"In the Master's Joy"

*I have entered His joy
I shall dwell in His house all the days of my life,
I have rendered my soul to His care!*
