Dear Daddy,

It happened so soon, those words will never leave, you're leaving me "Why". I asked God and I know I shouldn't question Him because He knows what's best, but it hurt me so bad to see you suffering. I wish I could have taken all the pain away from you just one more time. I wish to see you smile, my ignorance made me think you would be here forever. We had so much left to do, watch me graduate and walk down the aisle at my wedding, but you won't be here. Daddy I just don't know what I am going to do without you by my side. I wish I could turn back the hands of time and tell you how much you mean to me, but it's too late, because your eyes are set on a better place, a place where you won't have to worry about cancer no more, suffering and pain. God please take care of my Daddy, because he is one of your children. So Daddy be strong and always remember that I love you.

Your daughter,
Lindsey

Obituary

On Friday, March 11, 2005, one we loved and cherished stepped across the threshold only to step into our Father's house of the fellowship of life.

Mr. James Arthur McSwain, son of the late Vester and Peggy Lou McSwain was born in Chatham County on August 5, 1952. He departed this life after a brief illness at his home. He graduated from Chatham Central High School and attended Central Carolina College for 2 years. He was employed by Joan Fabrics.

In 1978 he married Patricia Lineberry and to this union two children were born: Janus McSwain and Lindsey McSwain.

James was a devoted husband, father, brother and uncle. He was a member of Gees Grove AME Zion Church and sang in the WMB Choir.

He leaves to cherish his memories his loving wife, Patricia McSwain, his children, Janus and Lindsey McSwain of the home, his sister, Judy (Tommy) Mason, Siler City, NC, one aunt, Cladie McSwain, Seagrove, NC, father-in-law JC Lineberry in-laws, Edward (Marshall) Staley, Faydean (James) Milliken, Vanessa (Ronald) Paige, Greg, Alban, and JC Lineberry. He was preceded in death by a brother, Melvin McSwain.

God saw you getting tired, and a cure was not meant to be,
So He put his arms around you, and whispered "Come to Me".
With tearful eyes we watched you, and saw you pass away.
Although we loved you deeply, we could not make you stay.
Your golden heart stopped beating, hard working hands at rest,
God broke our hearts to prove to us, He only takes the best.

Lovingly Submitted
