

The great vinedresser took a stroll through His bountiful vineyard to behold its splendor, its abundance abundance, its beauty. The vines laden with grapes among themselves, did not question such a visitation, because Uncle Sammy was so burden with pain, and troubled with not being able to get out and about. And then the bleeding Lamb of Calvary bent down, fastened His eyes and reached out His nail scarred hands, and said "Sammy come unto me all ye that labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest."

So the vinedresser proceeded, as the other clusters were grieving, because of the empty place one said we must not grieve for he is not dead, for he has given Uncle Sammy sweet sleep. It is simply Uncle Sammy's time to be served. God said "I will not take this one crush it and make sweet wine". God has reserved the right and has prepared for Uncle Sammy a glorified body. We miss you and love you.

Obituary

There in the heavenly garden, stood a flower that had begin to grow tired and withered. God saw fit to pluck it. He laid the flower in the garden of peace, and now it lay resting with joy that will never cease.

Sammy White, Jr., son of the late Sam and Annie White was born April 15, 1918 in Alamance County. After a lengthy illness, on Sunday, July 27, 2003 Almighty God reached down and closed his eyes and gave him rest. He was united in Holy Matrimony in 1940 to Lessie White who preceded him in death. He was also preceded in death by a brother, Walter White.

He was a member of Gees Grove AME Zion Church and held many positions: Usher Board, Trustee, Class Leader Church Treasurer, Steward Board, Male Chorus, Senior Choir, Wise Savings Club, and Tri Gospel Union. He was faithful and dedicated for many years, until his health failed. He leaves in God's Righteous care: two sisters, Avis Martin (J.C.), Snow Camp, NC, Bonnie Farrar, Staley, NC, three brothers Floyd White and Troy White, both of Siler City, NC, and DeLacy White (Lois), Staten Island, NY. One sister-in-law, Annie Jean White, Siler City, NC, 19 nephews, 23 nieces, and a host of great nieces and great nephews, and a great amount of relatives and friends.
