

*"God saw the road was getting rough
The hill was hard to climb, He gently closed his loving eyes
And whispered, Peace be mine.
His weary days, his nights of pain
His restless hours have passed,
His very tired and worn out frame
He found sweet rest at last..."*

† POEM †

*God saw you getting tired and a cure was not to be,
So He put His arms around you And whispered, come go with me.*

With tearful eyes we watched you suffer

*and saw you fade away, Although we love you dearly
we would not make you stay;*

*A golden heart stop beating, hard working hands at rest,
God broke our hearts to prove to us
He only takes the best.*

We love you, the Family

Obituary

Mr. Frank S. Foxx, son of Mrs. Annie L. Foxx was born on June 30, 1926 in Siler City, North Carolina. He departed this life on February 8, 1999 in the Birthaven Rest Home, Snow Hill, North Carolina.

Mr. Foxx attended the Public Schools of Chatham County Training School. Before his untimely accident in 1967, he was an avid worker, obedient and a loving son. He was also generous and kindhearted.

At an early age he professed hope in Christ and united with the First Missionary Baptist Church of Siler City, North Carolina. He was active in the Sunshine Band, Sunday School, Baptist Young Peoples Union And the Foxx Brothers Quartet.

Mr. Frank S. Foxx leaves to cherish his memory: a loving mother, Mrs. Annie L. Foxx; three brothers, Clyde, Walter and Charlie; two sisters, Annie K. Siler, Madeline J. Moffitt, all of Siler City, N.C.; several uncles, aunts, nieces nephews, and other relatives and friends.
