THE OBITUARY

Clyde Thomas Siler was born to the union of Landrus and Allie Siler, on April 3, 1927, in Siler City, North Carolina.

Clyde attended Siler City Public Schools, and graduated from Chatham High School, Class of 1944. Clyde joined the United States Navy at the age of eighteen, and received an honorary discharge, August 13, 1946.

His Christian experience began at Corinth A.M.E. Zion Church in Siler City, N.C.

On January 27, 1950, he was united in holy matrimony to Eleanor Frazier. Born to this union were four daughters, Brenda, Beverly, Carol, and Michelle, and one son, Stephen.

He joined Corinthian Missionary Baptist Church October 1983. He served on the Deacon Board, and was also a member of the Dorcas Circle. He was always willing to do whatever he was asked.

He leaves to rejoice in his memory a loving and devoted wife, Eleanor; four daughters, Brenda, Beverly, Carol, and Michelle; one son, Stephen; three grandchildren, Camille, Carmen and Damien; stepmother Maxine Bowden; sisters, Mildred Stokes, Vernell Wright and Gwenette Johnson, and brothers-in-law, Leslie Stokes, Thomas Wright and Johnny Johnson, and a host of nieces, nephews and many friends.

*I like the memory of me to be a happy one.
I like to leave an afterglow of smiles when life is done.
I like to leave an echo whispering softly down the ways of happy times and laughing times and bright and sunny days.
I like the tears of those who grieve to dry before the sun.
Of happy memories that I leave
When my life is done.*

C is for all the caring
L is for all the love you gave
Y is for just being you
D is for the Dedication
E is for everlasting memories

S is for strength you showed us
I the inspiration you gave us
L is for Being the light of our lives
E is for the eagerness
to come to the aid of others
R is for the richness of your life.
