

*God saw the road was getting rough,
the hills were hard to climb
He gently closed those loving eyes, and whispered, "peace be thine".
The weary hours, the days of pain
the sleepless nights are passed,
The ever patient wornout frame has found rest at last.*

KEEP WALKING FAITHFULLY FATHER

*Keep walking faithfully Father
Your testimony only you can tell,
I'm trying to follow in your footsteps
Because I don't want to fail.
Sometimes your steps are very plain
Sometimes they are hard to see,
But keep walking faithfully Father
For you are leading me.*

*I know that once you walked this way
Many years ago,
And what you did along the way
I'd really like to know,
For sometimes when I'm tempted
I don't know what to do,
But keep walking faithfully Father
For I must follow you.*

*Even tho I'm all grown up
You're still like I want to be,
I have a little Boy
Who I want to follow me.
I want to lead him right
And help him to be true,
So, I must walk faithfully Father
For we must follow you.*

*I am writing this to you on Father's Day because you have been such an inspiration to me in my life.
I only know of one Father who is more Gracious than you and that is our LORD and SAVIOR
JESUS CHRIST.*

OBITUARY

Jesse Julian Farrar, son of the late George Farrar and Fannie Horton was born March 3, 1920 in Chatham County. He departed this life on July 2, 1998.

Jesse was united in marriage to Marie Miller Farrar who preceded him in death. From this union, two children were born.

He was a member of Wesley's Christian Fellowship Church. He retired after 30 years from Siler City Mills and was co-owner of Farrar and Farrar Funeral Home, in Siler City, North Carolina. Jesse was also a member of American Legion Post 297 and a World War II Army Veteran.

He is survived by: one daughter, Vicki Brooks(Harvey), one son, J. Morris Farrar(Crissy) all of Siler City, N.C.; three grandchildren, Camiller and Marcus Brooks, and Jason Quinn Farrar; one sister, Catherine Price of Siler City, N.C.; one brother, Thomas Farrar, Sr. of Staley, N.C.; a special friend, Sadie Witherspoon of Bennett, N.C.; a special "Boss", Louise Siler.
