Thank You Mama

Thanks for never giving up or never letting go.

For taking time out of your life to help and watch us grow.

Thanks for being more than just a Mom, but also a friend, someone to tell our feelings to and also understand.

*Hearing your voice each day, brought a smile
to a sometimes hard day,*

You told us we could do it when others said no way.

We'll miss all those happy times when we'd laugh and play

Those warm hugs we will really miss, for they meant so very much.

Holding your hands and kissing your face, looking into those eyes knowing that we've been taught by a woman so wise.

Seeing you laying in that hospital bed, brought tears to our eyes

Not knowing really what to do for someone who has changed our lives.

We didn't want to let you go so we prayed each and every day

Mama now you go home and be with the Lord, my Sweetie, its okay.

We will truly miss you but you are in the Father's hands,

It's okay because we know its part of His perfect plan.

It's okay, Mama we'll never stop loving you.

Love,

Sandret, Diana, Juliett

Obituary

Mrs. Sandra K. Foxx Alston, was the daughter of Frances Arlis of New Jersey, and the late Charlie Foxx. She was born September 11, 1946 in Chatham County, North Carolina. She departed this life on Friday, August 19, 2005 at UNC Hospital, Chapel Hill, NC.

She was a member of Pine Hill United Church of Christ, Siler City, NC. Sandra was a member of the Senior Choir, Missionary Board, and the Usher Board. She was a faithful and dedicated member even through her illness. She loved to praise the Lord.

She leaves to cherish her memory: her husband, Jimmy Alston of the home, three daughters, Sandret Foxx, Diana Foxx Bason, and Juliett Foxx, one stepdaughter, Terry Theresa Person, one stepson, Jimmy Person, goddaughter, Grace Harris, eight grandchildren, Justin Bailey of the home, Maketta Foxx, Raketta Foxx, Dedrick Foxx, Sequinta Foxx, Takeyra Burnette, Greg Keyon Burnette and Charleston Staley, one step grandson, Lamar Goldston, one sister, Katie Farrar (Johnny) one brother Ellis Brooks (Lucille) and a host of nieces, nephews, other family and friends.

Safely Home

*I am Home in Heaven - Oh so happy and so bright
There is perfect joy and beauty - In the everlasting light.
All the pain and grief is over - Every restless tossing passed
I am at peace forever - Safely home in Heaven at last.*
