

Who holds our hand when nights are dark and gray?
Who heals our hurts when the pain won't go away?
Who understands our needs and never ask
why?
Who's always waiting though the day and
years roll by?
She never got tired though time seems like eternity
Always there to open life doors when we've lost
our key.
Who keeps on praying when words seem to fail?
Who waits for the answer when the heart
seems to smother?
Don't you know who?

*The family wishes to express to their many friends their heartfelt appreciation for every act of kindness
and every expression of sympathy shown during the sad hour of bereavement. Their expression will be a solace and a pillar of strength to lean on in the lonely days ahead. May God bless each and everyone of you.*

Lambert Chapel Church Cemetery

Mossie Jane Cassady Craven, 81 was born on September 13, 1921 to the late John and Nancy Cassady in Coleridge, NC (Randolph County). She departed this life on June 4, 2002 at Randolph Hospital.

She knew faith and Christianity were going to be her source of strength in life so she joined Cox's Chapel Methodist Church at a early age and remained a serving member there until joining Lambert Chapel Baptist Church where she served until her failing health.

She was a member of the Senior Choir, Usher Board, and Missionary Circle #1.

She was preceded in death by her husband, June N. Craven and a son Lewis N. Craven.

She leaves to cherish in her memory, one son, Richard R. Craven, Baton Rouge, LA, one daughter Shirley F. Shoffner, Union City, CA, brother Ray Cassady, of Liberty, NC, ten grandchildren, Pamela Brown, Phillip Shoffner, Kenneth Shoffner, Sharon Craven, Veronica Green, Richard Craven, Phyllis Harris, Christopher Craven, David Craven, Karsten Craven, nine great grandchildren and a host of nieces, nephews, relatives and friends. A very special friend, Maria Blakely.

She will be remembered by all whom she came in contact, as a friend, ready to lend a helping hand, a person with a smile that made a lasting impression and always had words of encouragement to those that sought her advice.

Mossie's Motto:

*Let Me Give Back To You
A Portion Of What God Has Given To Me"*
