The Clock of Life

The clock of life is wound but once
And no one has the power,
To tell just where the hands will stop
At late, or early hour.

To lose one's wealth is sad indeed,
To lose one's health is more -
To lose one's soul is such a loss
As no one can restore.

The present only is our own
To seek to do God's will,
Tomorrow hold no promise, for
The clock may then be still.

God saw him getting tired and the cure was not to be,

So he put His arms around him and whispered,
"Come with me".

A golden heart stopped beating,
hard working hands laid at rest,
He only takes the best.

It broke our hearts to lose him,
but he didn't go alone,
For part of us went the day God took him home.
