*God saw the road was getting rough,
the hills were hard to climb,
He gently closed her loving eyes,
and whispered "Peace Be Thine".
The weary hours, the days of pain,
the sleepless nights have passed,
The ever patient worn out frame,
has found sweet peace at last.*

Lugene Frances Siler Price, daughter of the late Africa and Harriette Siler, was born February 28, 1900 and departed this earthly life on Wednesday afternoon, December 28, 1994, at Country Forest Manor, Siler City, NC.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Jabe W. Price, two daughters, and three sons.

At an early age Lugene accepted Jesus Christ as her personal Savior and Lord. She joined Jordan Grove A.M.E. Zion Church, where she was an active member. Later, after marriage, she joined Gees Grove A.M.E. Zion Church along with her husband and worked faithfully for many years until declining health.

She was a Sunday School Teacher, a member of The Missionary Department, Senior Choir and The Gees Grove Community Circle.

Lugene was educated in The Puplic Schools of Chatham County and attended Livingstone and Bennett College. She taught for several years in the Puplic Schools in Chatham County, where she was dearly loved by all of her students and their parents.

To remember Lugene will be remembering a kind word, a loving and devoted Mother.

She leaves to cherish her memory, three daughters and two sons, Mazelle P. Roberts, Eden, NC, Barbara J. Pinckney, Washington, DC, Cozette P. Miller, Pittsford, NY, Joseph L. Price, Granada Hills, CA, Lawrence W. Price, Los Angeles, CA; two son-in-laws, four daughter-in-laws; one brother, Clyde Siler, Siler City, NC, 17-grandchildren, 15 great grandchildren and 1 great great grand-child.
