

"Life Does Not End Here"

Life does not end here,
 you passed from this life
 on angel wings that unfold, You've moved to the kingdom,
 of years past untold.
 The day that you left us,
 you felt, no great pain,
 endless tears that were shed
 were of love, not in vain.
 In hearts deeply you're missed
 Indeed a great deal
 Ever thought of so much.
 Time alone now can heal.
 Some where up in Heaven,
 For certain you'll be You've gone to meet Jesus
 Yet to pray now for me.

Recessional

Jesus knew all along, that it was time to take you home.

The gates of Heaven will open wide, and Jesus will say: "Come on Inside".

You're looking from Heaven smiling down thinking to yourself Why these Frowns"
For the Bible says, "Joy Cometh in the Morning"

and weeping will not endure."

So your memories will remain
And our love for you will stay unchanged.

Obituary

Alice Faye Horton Walden was born November 7, 1942 to the late George Horton, Sr. and Leah Miller Horton in Alamance County, NC. Faye had one brother and one sister Thomas Lewis Horton and Joy Horton who preceded her in death. Faye was united in marriage to Robert L. Walden on July 7, 1962 and to this union 2 sons were born, one who preceded Faye in death and Dennis Walden of Greensboro, NC, one sister Ann Baldwin (Curtis) of Greensboro, NC, and a sister-in-law, Carolyn Horton of Siler City, NC.

Faye was an active member of the community and the church. She was an employee of UNC-Chapel Hill, NC and was a faithful member of Glovers United Church of Christ, Bennett, NC. There she served as a Deaconess and Sunday School teacher. Faye would also help in any way she could at Wesley Chapel Christian Fellowship Church as well as at Farrar Funeral Service. Faye was also an active member of J & M Bowling team.

Faye will be missed by many and leaves behind to cherish her memory many nieces, nephews, and an abundance of family, friends, and loved ones.
