THE ROAD OF LIFE

"I expect to pass through this World but once, any good therefore that I can do, or any kindness that I can show to any fellowman, let me do it now... for I Shall not pass this way again."

Reflections

Mr. James Emory Spinks, a son of the late Lonnie and Mary McDonald Spinks was born in Randolph County, North Carolina on February 21, 1922 and was called home on Sunday, January 17, 1999 at Chatham Hospital in Siler City, North Carolina.

He was a native of Randolph County and a veteran of World War II serving in the United States Army.

With greatest affection and loving memories, he leaves to keep his memories alive are his wife; Mrs. Marqurite Spinks of the home, one sister, Ms. Clarice Spinks of Siler City, NC; four brothers, Albert Spinks of Ramseur, NC; William P Spinks, Otis Spinks and Floyd Spinks all of Siler City, NC; a very special niece, Mrs. Betty S. Nilen of Ramseur, NC; along with a host of other relatives and family friends.

*Someone cares, and always will.
The world forgets, but God loves you still.
You cannot go beyond His love,
No matter what you're guilty of.
For God forgives until the end,
He is our faithful, loyal friend.
And though you try to hide your face,
There is no shelter any place
That can escape His watchful eye.
For on earth and in the sky,
He's ever-present and always there,
To take you in His tender care,
And bind the wounds and mend the breaks,
When all the world around forsakes.
Someone cares, and loves you still,
And God is the Someone who always will.*

*Like a ship that's left its mooring,
And sails bravely out to sea,
So someone dear has sailed away -
In calm serenity.*

*But there's promise of greater joy
Than earth could have in store,
For God has planned a richer life
Beyond the unseen shore.*
