He is survived by wife; Bernice Cooper Rogers of High Point, NC, one sister Bernice Brandley of New Jersey, one step sister, Maggie York, Pinehurst, NC, four step-daughters Carrie Nixon, Edith Cooper, Dorothy Cantzy, Barbara Cooper all of High Point, NC, four stepsons Willie J. Cooper, Tommy Cooper, Jerry Cooper, Paul D. Cooper all of High Point, NC, special cousin Shirley and James Tyson with whom he lived, and a host of other relatives and friends.

If You Could See Where I Have Gone

*If you could see where I have gone, the beauty of this place
And how it feels to know you're home, to see your Savior's face
To wake in peace and know no fear, just joy beyond compare While still on earth, you miss me yet, you wouldn't want me there,*

If you could see where I have gone,

If you could see where I have gone, could stay a while with me, could share the things that God has made to grace Eternity, you'd know I didn't go alone, the Savior went with me.
