*Sometimes it is hard to understand
Why certain things must be.
But there is a reason for it all
Beyond our power to see.
But it brings back long-remembered things
A song, a word, a smile
And our world is a better place
Because we had you for a while.*

Obituary

Very quietly and peacefully early Saturday morning, October 25, 1997 while a patient at Randolph Hospital, Asheboro, North Carolina, Almighty God in His infinite wisdom, having determined that His child and our beloved wife and mother had suffered enough, reached down gently, closed her eyes and carried her home.

Inez Spinks Cheek was born to the late Lillie Mae Spinks in Randolph County (Seagrove - Pleasant Hill) on September 10, 1928.

Inez joined Oakland Missionary Baptist Church, where she was a member of the First Bible Sunday School Class and the Senior Choir. Inez was a member who was ready to help where help was needed. Her mission was to help in all phases of her church.

Inez was a loving wife, mother, sister and grandmother.

*For bringing us happiness from the start
For giving to us both your love and your heart
For being so thoughtful in all that you've done
Never complaining, overlooking faults and loving us too.
And always for all our yesterdays, whatever they were,
For sharing your love and whole life with us.
This brings all our love that you were as happy with us
As we were with you.*
