OBITUARY

Sarah Dollie Spinks Scotton, daughter of the late William Squire Spinks and Ida Graves Spinks, was born in Randolph County on March 2, 1929 and departed this life on July 1, 2005 in Durham Regional Hospital, Durham, North Carolina. She was preceded in death by her brother, Robert Hayworth Spinks.

Dollie joined Lambert Chapel Missionary Baptist Church at an early age. She was active in the Adult Sunday School Class, Usher Board, Missionary Circle #1, Deaconess Board, and the American Legion Auxiliary.

Memories of her life will remain in the hearts of her family. She is survived by her husband, John C. Scotton, two sons, Robert L. Scotton (Mary), John W. Scotton, (Viviree), two daughters, Dorothy Scotton Cannon and Sarah Scotton Brown, 11 grandchildren, Kisha S. Holmes (Marlon), Delicia Scotton, Marcus Scotton, Keyanna Cannon, Shelly Cannon, Shontae Brown, Lorie Brown, Darrick, Jordan, Brandon Scotton, Quintin Scotton, Kobe Scotton, 6 great-grandchildren, Tylyn Holmes, Marlon Holmes, J'Mari McQueen, Olivia Jordan, Darrick Jordan, Jr. and Jaelyn Jordan, one sister, Estelle Spinks, two nephews, Robert Spinks (Annette) and Tracy Spinks, and a host of other nieces, nephews, other relatives.

Jesus knew all along, that it was time to take you home.
The gates of heaven will open wide, and Jesus will say "Come On Inside."
You're looking from Heaven smiling down thinking to yourself "Why these frowns?"
For the Bible says "Joy Cometh In The Morning" and weeping will not endure."
So your memories will remain
And our love for you will stay unchanged.
