

Grandma

You were someone loving and someone who really cared
You were someone thoughtful and someone who always shared

You will always be remembered for one because of your smile
You will never be forgotten for two because of your style

I love you, Grandma,
I love you so very much
Not because you are Grandma, but because you are one
with a special touch

And while you are gone
to be with God,
I'll keep your gracious cheer
ringing in all our hearts
year after year

And when I stop to think of you,
I'll probably start to sing
Then I will remember that its O.K.,
She's walking with the King.

I LOVE YOU GRANDMA!

Jackie

What Then?

(John 3:10; Malachi 4:1)

When the great plants of our cities
Have turned out their last finished work,
When our merchants have sold their last yard of silk
And dismissed the last tired clerk:
When our banks have raked in their last dollar
And paid the last dividend;
When the Judge of the earth says:
"Close for the night,"
And asks for a balance--
What then?
When the choir has sung its last anthem.
And the preacher has made his last prayer;
When the people have heard their last sermon
And the sound has died out on the altar
And the pews are all empty of men
And each one stands facing his record--
And the great Book is opened--
What then?
When the actors have played their last drama
And the mimic has made his last fun,
When the film has flashed its last run;
When the crowds seeking pleasure have vanished,
And gone out in the darkness again--
When the trumpet of ages is sounded,
And we stand up before Him--
What then?
When the bugle's call sinks into silence
And the long marching columns stand still,
When the captain repeats his last orders
And they've captured the last fort and hill
And the flag has been hauled from the master-head,
And the wounded afield checked in,
And a world that rejected its Saviour,
Is asked for a reason--
What then?

Obituary

Flora Marie Farrar, daughter of the later John and Henrietta Emerson, was born January 3, 1898, in Chatham County. She departed this life at her home Wednesday, January 31, 1996, in Siler City, North Carolina.

She joined Evans Chapel Methodist Church at an early age. She later joined Wesley Chapel Christian Fellowship Church after her marriage to the late Major Farrar, where she remained a loyal member while her health permitted. She was a deaconess, a member of the missionary circle, and she was the mother of the church.

She was a true believer that hard work never hurt anyone. She was truly a mother to everyone! If you needed a home or a plate of food she was there. She always had a word to say. Her life was dedicated in helping others.

She was united in holy matrimony to the late Major Lee Farrar of Siler City, North Carolina on February 5, 1922. To this union three children were born.

She is survived by two daughters: Edna P. Pugh and Henrietta Patterson Russell, both of Siler City, North Carolina, three sisters: Maryann Alston of Siler City, North Carolina, Connie Alston of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, and Sarah Alston of Chester, Pennsylvania; 15 grandchildren, 40 great grandchildren and a host of relatives and caring friends.

*When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me.
Keep a smile on your lips and a prayer
in your heart
Why cry for a soul set free?*
