

Poem

You have given me another day, Dear Lord,
May I handle it like a jewel,
Not wash it away by vain word I say.
Let me do something constructive today,
Time is slipping away so fast
By praying a word or deed, fill somebody's need
....A Jewel that forever will last.

A Home-Going Service

for

Miss Cleola (Cleo) Goldston

Sunrise

Sunset

June 24, 1927

May 13, 2005

Monday, May 16, 2005

2:00 p.m.

Unity Powerhouse Holiness Church

Siler City, North Carolina

OFFICIATION

Rev. William Moses

PASTOR

Bishop William Goins

Order of Service

Processional

Song Choir

Scripture Old Testament
New Testament

Prayer of Comfort Bishop O. M. Palmer

Song Choir

Condolences & Acknowledgements

Obituary (read silently)

Remarks

Solo

Eulogy Rev. William Moses

Recessional Wesley Chapel Church Cemetery

Russell Funeral Home
Siler city, NC
919-742-2776

Obituary

Miss Ceola Irene Goldston

Miss Ceola Irene Goldston was born in Chatham County on June 24, 1927, to the late Charlie & Near Goldston. She departed her life on Friday, May 13, 2005, at Chatham Hospital.

Miss Cleola attended Chatham Training School in Siler City, North Carolina. She joined Wesley Chapel Christian Fellowship Church at a very early age. She was a very faithful member until her health no longer permitted her to walk.

To cherish her memory, she leaves a very devoted and faithful nephew Bishop William Goins and wife Peggy of Siler City; two sisters who are Elanor Glover of Graham, North Carolina, and Layula Goldston of Siler City, North Carolina. Cleola was preceded in death by her five brothers. She also leaves to honor her memory a host of nieces and nephews and friends.

