The family would like to express our thanks for your expressions of sympathy during our bereavement.

Your thoughtfulness will always be remembered.

He found the road was getting rough
The hill was hard to climb
He gently closed his loving eyes
And whispered, "Peace Be Mine."
His weary days, his nights of pain
His restless hours have past
His ever patient worn out frame
Has found sweet rest at last.

OBITUARY

William T. Graves, son of Alex Graves and the late Nettie Cheek Graves, was born July 23, 1910 in Randolph County. He departed this life September 11, 1984.

He joined Lambert Chapel Baptist Church at an early age. He was united in holy matrimony to the late Etter Louise Siler on March 5, 1938. To this union six children were born.

He leaves to mourn three daughters: Mrs. Yvonne Siler of Siler City, North Carolina; Mrs. Helen Johnson of Washington, D.C.; and Mrs. Bernistine Hackett of Temple Hill, Maryland. Also three sons: Mr. Walter Graves of Siler City, North Carolina; Shelley Monroe and Edward Lee Graves of Washington, D.C. Four Sisters: Mrs. Jessie Roy and Mrs. Vivian Siler of Washington, D.C.; Mrs. Maxine Bowden of Siler City; and Miss Ruth Graves of Coleridge, North Carolina. Four Brothers: Mr. Alfred Graves of Coleridge, North Carolina; Harvey and Garland Graves of Washington, D.C. and Mr. Enos Graves of Millerton, New York. Seventeen grandchildren and five great-grandchildren, and a multitude of other Relatives and Loved Ones.

Your smile has gone forever, your hands we cannot touch. Thank God for Tender memories of the one we loved so much.

It broke our hearts to lose you, but you did not go alone. For part of us went with you the day God called you home.

Time alone can't heal the wound your passing left with us. But thanks to God who giveth strength to live on as we must.

In memory we go back along each road that we have trod. And bless the years we had with you, and leave the rest with God.
