Crossing The Bar

*Sunset and evening star,
And one clear call for me!
And may there be no moaning of the bar,
When I put out to sea,*

*But such a tide as moving seems asleep,
Too full for sound and foam,
When that which drew from out the boundless deep
Turns again home.*

*Twilight and evening bell,
And after that the dark!
And may there be no sadness of farewell,
When I embark;*

*For tho' from out our bourn of Time and Place
The flood may bear me far,
I hope to see my Pilot face to face
When I have crossed the bar.*

Obituary

Mary A. Moore Williams

Mary A. Moore Williams, daughter of the late Graham Moore and Nancy Burnette Moore, was born July 21, 1911 in the Fearington Village area of Chatham County and made her transition on Sunday, October 17, 2004 in the Durham Regional Hospital. She was married to the late Eddie Williams, and from their union two children, Hazel Williams Rollins and the late Shirley Williams Johnson (formerly of Durham).

At an early age she joined Haw River Baptist Church. Although she and her late husband lived in Siler City since the early 1940's, she maintained her membership at Haw River and attended services as often as she was able.

During her many vibrant years in Siler City, she took part in a wide variety of activities in the community. She was Class Mother for the C.C.T.S. High School class of 1951, a member of the Friendship Garden Club and the neighborhood Civic Association, and enjoyed the many programs at the Senior Citizen Center after retiring from Chatham Novelty Furniture.

Her many hobbies included quilting, crochet, sewing, and gardening (especially her flowers). She shared harvests from her vegetable garden with friends and neighbors.

Mary is survived by her daughter Hazel Williams Rollins of Cambria Heights, (Queens) NY; five grandchildren, Robin Rollins Hicks (Lennart) of Edison, NJ, Peter Britt Rollins of Franklin Park, NJ, Katrina Lynn Johnson Green of Durham, NC, Shari Rollins Reyes (Hector) of Westbury, NC, and Terri Christa Rollins of Cambria Heights, NY. She also leaves five great-grandchildren, James, Courtney, Kiah, and Alexander Green, and Chloe Reyes. Finally, she leaves one sister, Omi Moore McKinney (Ernest) of Durham, NC, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, neighbors, and friends.

Very affectionately known as "Nana" to her children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren, she will be remembered always and dearly missed.
