

Tribute

Please don't say that I gave up Just say that I gave in Don't say I lost the battle
For it was God's war to lose or win
Please don't say how good I was
But that I did my best
Just say I tried to do what's right
To give the most I could, not less Please don't give me wings or halos, that's for God to do
I want no more than I deserve,
No extras, just my due
Please don't give flowers or talk
In real hushed tones
Don't be concerned about me now,
I'm well with God, I've made it home
Don't talk about illness,
It's over and it's done
Just see to all my family's needs,
Especially the little ones
When you draw a picture of me
Don't draw me as saint
I've done some good, I've done some wrong.
So use all your paint,
Not just bright and light tones,
Use some gray and dark
In fact don't put me down on canvas,
Paint me on your heart
Forgive me for the wrongs I've done
And with the love that's left
Thank God for my soul's resting,
Thank God for I've been blessed
Thank God for all who loved me,
Thank God who loved me best.

God's Garden

*God looked around his garden and saw an empty place
He then looked down upon the earth and saw your tired face
He put his arms around you and lifted you to rest
God's garden must be beautiful he only takes the best
He knew that you were suffering he knew you were in pain
He knew that you would never get well on earth again
He saw the road was getting rough and the hills were hard to climb
So he closed your weary eyelids and whispered peace be thine it broke our hearts to lose you, but you did not go alone a part of us went with you the day God called you home.*

The Obituary

Ossie Marie White Glover, daughter of the late Ernest White, Sr. and Pauline Carter White, departed this life on April 9, 2008 in the home.

Born on December 3, 1936, in Graham, North Carolina, she attended and graduated from Graham High School. At an early age, she joined Burnett's Chapel Church. She was the wife of the late, Clint Glover, Jr. They moved to New York City and had two children, a son, Clint "Tracy" Glover III and a daughter, who preceded her in death, Jacqueline Glover. After moving back to North Carolina she became employed by the Alamance School System, where she dedicated many years of her life. After retiring she continued living life as a Christian woman and spending time with her grandchildren and family.

She was preceded in death by her brothers, Ernest White, Jr., John Robert White, Melvin Vernell White and her sister, Jacqueline White Boylan.

She leaves behind to cherish her memories a son; Clint "Tracy" Glover III of the home; a foster son, Curtis Bernard Russell of Greensboro; three grandchildren, Zomar O'bryan Cheek of Greensboro, Kiara Danielle Brown of Spelman College in Atlanta and Kyle Dreyson Glover of the home; a great-grandchild, Michael Ja'Bryant Cheek of Greensboro; two sisters, Elsie Bell of Graham and Liller White Mathis (Otis) of Haw River; a brother, Jimmy White (Jessie) of Graham; a host of devoted nieces, nephews, cousins, in-laws and many other special friends.

If you could see me now you wouldn't shed a tear.
Though you may not understand why I'm no longer there.
Remember my spirit that is the real me, because I'm still very much alive, I've just been set free, Oh, if you could only see!
I have beheld our Father's face and I've touched my Savior's hand.
All of Heavens angels rejoiced as I entered the promise land.
Beyond the gates of pearl I've walked on the golden streets.
I've touched the walls of jasper and dipped my foot in the crystal sea.
The beauty is beyond words and nothing would compare,
I've even seen your mansion and someday I'll meet you there.
Let Jesus be your guide, because His word will show you the way!
So please don't cry, because we will meet again someday.

Love,

Your Child and Grandchildren & Foster Son,
Tracy, Zomar, Kiara, Kyle, Michael and Bernard
