Remember Me

*Fill not your heart with pain and sorrow,
 But remember me in every tomorrow,
 Remember the joy, the laughter, the smiles,
 I've only gone to rest a little while,
 Although my leaving causes pain and grief,
 My going has eased my heart and given me relief.*

*So dry your eyes and remember
 Not as I am now, but as I used to be.
 Because I will remember you all,
 And look on you with a smile.
 Understand in your hearts,
 I've only gone to rest a little while.
 As long as I have the love of each of you,
 I can live my life in the hearts of all of you.*

Until we meet again may God hold you in the palm of His hands.

OBITUARY

On October 5, 1925 Lubie Lee Reaves was born to the late Haywood Lee and Lealer Lee. On Sunday June 17, 2007 she took wings and peacefully slipped away.

She was educated in the Chatham County School system. Lubie joined Alston Chapel United Holy Church at an early age, and it was there where she served in many capacities until her health declined. She was instrumental in the building project which erected the church that is now used for Alston Chapel's fellowship hall. One of Lubie's gifts was teaching. No one could explain the Word like she could.

In December 1948 Lubie married Joseph Lee Reaves. To this union three children were born, JoAnne, Judy and Haywood Al.

Lubie was preceded in death by two brothers Colon Lee and Hazel Lee and one sister Pondora Reeves. She leaves to cherish her memory a loving husband of fifty eight years Joseph Lee Reaves; two daughters JoAnne Alston (Rudie) of Pittsboro; Judy Spann (Johnny) of Goldston; a son Haywood Al Reaves of Siler City; and one adopted son William Moffitt of Siler City; two sisters Leomie Alston of Pittsboro; Jettie Lee of New Hill; one brother Benjamin Lee of Pittsboro; four brothers in-law Johnny Peoples (Ada); Nathaniel Reaves (Frinco); Walter Reaves (Mary); George Reaves (Earnestine); all of Pittsboro, four sisters in-law Delois Reaves, Mozelle Brim, Lillie Blue of Pittsboro; Hattie Waddell of New Jersey; four grandchildren; Charlene, Kendrick (Felicia); Rikkena; Jakniica; five great-grandchildren Kyonti; Roddrikk, Destinee, Devin and Kaleb and a host of nieces, nephews and friends.
