Still Kicking

Love Life
Live Life

No matter what comes your way
Step High, Live Large
Take life serious but remember to play.
Always care, always give,
Always love and always believe
No matter what, keep kicking,
Live will present circumstances
That seem too hard to overcome
But as long as you're still kicking
You can get the job done;
Your step may be high or low,
But as long as you kick
You're always on the go.
When life is over and you've kicked all you can
God calls you higher and you
Kick for The Man.
You look down on us from heaven
And encourage our souls
We won't be to our trials easy picking
Jesus and Jackie are calling to us
Sweet and Strong
Don't give up, Still Keep Kicking!
We're going to keep kicking for you Jackie
We love you.

God Knows What's Best

*God knows what's best for you in life
He knows how much you can bear
God designs your body with His loving Hands
So only you will be able to wear.
God put in our minds the will to survive
That carries us day by day
God gave us a heart and soul like Him
To travel the rough road along the way
God gave us the will to think things out
And make the best choice of life
God also gave us the power to turn
All wrong and bad into right
God knows what you go thru as days pass by
And He know that someone will say...
What have I done to suffer all this pain
Oh God, Oh God tell me why?
God is the Greatest, His Grace you will receive
By doing this one small thing
Lift your hands toward heaven and say
In you my God I do believe
God knows what's best for you and me
He opens our eyes to see
The Sun, the Moon and the Stars so bright
And the rivers that run so free
God is always there for you to help along the way
He will be there and will be back
To take us home to stay.*

Reflections

Mr. Jackie Ray Cheek was born on February 20, 1955 to the late Mr. Theordore R. Cheek and Mrs. Rosa M. (Burnett) Cheek at Chatham Hospital in Siler City, North Carolina. He departed this life on Sunday, May 30, 1999 at UNC Hospital in Chapel Hill, North Carolina.

Jackie attended Chatham High School and graduated from Jordan Matthews High School, both located in Siler City, North Carolina.

He was employed by Collins and Aikman Corporation as a Shift Supervisor. Jackie was also manager and lead singer for the Gospel Southernairs.

To cherish his memory, he leaves a very loving and devoted wife, Mrs. Frances Lorraine Cheek of the home; his parents, Mr. Homer and Rosa Mae Marsh of Siler City, NC; four brothers, Roosevelt D. Glover (Mary) of Greensboro, NC, Ronnie T. Glover (Kay) and Roy R. Burnett (Phyllis) both of Rochester, NY and Homer D. Marsh of Siler City, NC; five sisters, Betty Cheek Spinks (James) of Asheboro, NC, Margaret M. Cheek, of Chapel Hill, NC, Beverly G. Farris (Isaac), Patsy E. Marsh and Sherry L. Marsh all of Siler City, NC; three close brothers-in-law, Edward "Buck" Wiley (Gloria), Gary Wiley and Randy Wiley, all of Siler City, NC; two goddaughters, Keisha Degraffenreidt and Chantal N. Moseley (Jackie called me his Baby doll says Chantal). He also leaves to honor his memory many loving aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins, great nieces and nephews and many friends. Many who love singing, especially the Gospel.
