

A Tribute To Grandpa

*The whole family life has changed
Now that you are gone
And there's a feeling of loneliness
In each and every home.*

*At first, we had the advantage,
And we were on the winning side
By staying strong as a family
And having God on our side.*

*At the end, we lost the battle
And God was taking you Home
And there you will live as a child
Of His very on.*

*Although we still have memories
Things will never be the same
God took a special part of us
And left a lot of pain.*

*So God, hear my prayers
And take care of him up above,
Let him know how much we miss him
And show him lots of love.*

A Promise To Keep

*Ever since you passed on,
My life has changed.
When you passed on,
It took a lot of happiness out
And brought a lot of sadness in.*

*Whenever I was down,
I could always come to you for support.
You might didn't want to hear what I had to say,
But you listened anyway.*

*Grandpa, you are in a safe place now,
And I promise that you will be taken good care of.*

*I miss you grandpa,
Why did you have to leave without a goodbye.*

*You are my hero.
'Cause you are the wind,
Beneath my wings.*

Obituary

PROFUS HEADEN, JR., son of the late Profus Headen, Sr. and Alice Alston Headen was born in Chatham County, N.C. April 9, 1931 and departed this life Monday, December 2, 1996 at Chatham Hospital in Siler City, N.C.

His scholastic achievements include graduation from Chatham County Training School in 1949. He served active duty in the United States Marines for four years and received an honorable discharge. At an early age he joined Evans Chapel A.M.E. Zion Church and remained a member until his passing. He was a loving father and devoted husband and was well loved by family and friends. In recent months during declining health, Profus dedicated his life to Christ.

Survivors include his wife, Annie Mae Johnson Headen of the home; six daughters: Treva McClean of Sanford, N.C.; Harriet Harris, Sherlyn White, Patsy Headen, and Pam Headen of Siler City, N.C.; and Angela Headen of Charlotte, N.C.; three sons: Ricky Headen of Charlotte, N.C.; Greg Headen of Hampton, Va.; and Terry Headen of Sanford, N.C.; fifteen grandchildren, two daughters-in-law: Gloria Headen of Charlotte, N.C. and Candice Headen of Hampton, Va.; three sons-in-law: Edward Harris, Percyl White of Siler City, N.C. and Ernest McClean of Sanford, N.C.; a good friend of the home, James Brooks of Siler City, N.C.; four sisters: Swannie Peoples, Olivia Pugh, Mary Alice Peoples, all of Siler City, N.C.; and Thelma Marsh of Asheboro, N.C.; and a host of nieces, nephews, and other relatives and friends.

Papa, we had fun listening to you making us laugh at your jokes you use to tell us. Whenever we were down, you still made us laugh with your jokes. We also had fun whenever we would start to sing you would say, I use to wish I could sing but now I wish you could. We will miss you making us laugh but we will still carry on with your jokes. I thought that I would never get over your passing but still life goes on. It's hard for us to get over it and we hate to see you go but it's for the best because you don't have to suffer anymore. We will always love and miss you.

Love, Your Granddaughter, Nikki
