Away

*I cannot say and you must not say
That he is dead, he is just away!
With a cheery smile and a wave of the hand
He has wandered into an unknown land.
And left us dreaming how very fair.
Its needs must be, since he lingers there
And you - oh you when the widest yearn
For the old times step and the glad return.
Think of him having on, as dear
In the love of there as the love of here.
Mild and gentle, as he was brave,
When the sweetest love of his life he gave,
In simple things: Where the violets grew
Pure as the eyes they were likened to.
The touches of his hands have strayed
As reverently as his lips have prayed
Think of him still as the same, I say;
He is not dead - he is just away!*

Our Hope

*Let not your heart be troubled:
Ye believe in God,
Believe also in me.
In my father's house
Are many mansions:
If it were not so,
I would have told you;
And if I go and prepare
A place for you,
I will come again and
Receive you unto myself.*

—By Your Loving Father
