The Day God Called You Home

*God looked around His garden,
And He found an empty place.
He then looked down upon this Earth,
And saw your tired face.*

*He put His arms around you,
And lifted you to rest.
God's garden must be beautiful,
He always takes the best.*

*He knew you were suffering.
He knew you were in pain.
He knew that you would never,
Get well on Earth again.*

*He saw that the road was getting rough,
And the hills were hard to climb,
So He closed your weary eyelids
And whispered "Peace be Thine".*

*It broke our hearts to lose you,
But you didn't go alone.
For part of us went with you,
The day God called you home..*

Interment

Holy Trinity UHC Cemetery

Ms. Margaret Lucille Newby, was born August 30, 1929 in Chatham County. She peacefully went home to be with the Lord, December 6, 2005. Ms. Newby was born to the late Coy and Dora Currie.

Ms. Newby joined Holy Trinity United Holiness Church at a very early age. She accepted Jesus Christ as her personal savior. Her love for God, her family and the faith she had, gave her strength to make it through the storm. She was a faithful and loving mother and grandmother.

She was a beloved homemaker for many years. She was a devoted member of her church and led many songs of praise. She enjoyed attending to children before her declining health.

Margaret was preceded in death by her late husband, Rev. Alex Newby, Jr. and son, James L. Brooks, Jr.

She leaves behind her cherished loved ones: one daughter, Rosezetta Manuel (Oscar) of Pittsboro, NC; three sons, Steve Newby (Flossie), Arnold Newby (Magaret), Alex Newby, Jr. (Lisa) all of Siler City, NC; one brother, John Currie; three sisters, Beulah Lee, Martha Lutterloh and Elmer Person. Ms. Margaret L. Newby also leaves behind eighteen grandchildren and twenty great-grandchildren; sister-in-law, Philmore Brooks; and a host of nieces, nephews, relatives and friends; a loving and loyal granddaughter, Peggy Newby.
