

FLORAL BEARERS

Mrs. Flossie Webster Mrs. Laura Brem
Miss Rosebud Goldston Mrs. Della Reabes

PALL BEARERS

Mr. Wesley Goldston Mr. Jimmy Brooks
Mr. Nathaniel Reaves Mr. J. W. Brooks
Mr. Nathan Alston Mr. Thurman Page

The family acknowledges with grateful appreciation of sympathy and acts of kindness rendered during our hour of bereavement.

IN LOVING MEMORY

OF

Mrs. Flossie Burnett Eubanks

ALSTON CHAPEL CHURCH

Route 3

PITTSBORO, NORTH CAROLINA

Wednesday, January 15, 1969

3:30 P. M.

Rev. David Strickland, Pastor-Officiating

ORDER OF SERVICE

ORGAN MEDITATION

PROCESSIONAL

HYMN..... Choir

PRAYER

SCRIPTURE

HYMN..... Choir

RESOLUTIONS

ACKNOWLEDGMENT OF CONDOLENCES

EULOGY..... Rev. D. Strickland

RECESSIONAL

Interment..... Church Cemetery

OBITUARY

Mrs. Flossie Burnett Eubanks, the daughter of the late Lonnie and Flora Burnett was born in Chatham County, September 6, 1896. She departed this life January 12, 1969. She had been in declining health 18 months; critically ill two weeks. She was a faithful member of Alston Chapel Church. She loved and served her church as long as her health permitted.

Survivors include her husband, Mr. Sam Eubanks, one son, Mr. Ozzie Farrington, Route 3, Pittsboro, three step-daughters; Mrs. Georgia Stone, Route 1, Graham; Mrs. Ola Gattis of Durham and Mrs. Lizzie Watkins of Detroit Michigan. One step-son; Mr. Ben Farrington of Detroit, Michigan. Three sisters; Mrs. Lela Cotton, Pittsboro, Mrs. Maude Alston, Chapel Hill, and Mrs. Dora Burnett of Chapel Hill, one brother, Mr. Carter Burnett. Five grandchildren, four great-grandchildren and a host of other relatives and friends.

Sleep on dear one, we loved you and will miss you, but God loved you best.

The Family

*Carried back
With you 7 1/2
AA*