ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Thank You

*Perhaps you sang a lovely song,
Or sat quietly in a chair;
Perhaps you sent beautiful flowers,
If so, we saw them there.
Perhaps you sent or spoke kind words
As any friend could say;
Perhaps you were not there at all
Just thought of us that day.
Perhaps you prepared some tasty food,
Or maybe furnished a car;
Perhaps you rendered a service unseen,
Near at hand or from afar,
Whatever you did to console our hearts,
We thank you so much-whatever the part.*

OBITUARY

To remember Jabe, will be remembering a kind word, a pleasant smile and a helping hand to those who knew him.

Two of his favorite scriptures that he loved and believed in were: "Love ye one another as I have loved you and I am the way, the truth, and the life. No man comes unto the father but by me."

Jabe W. Price, the youngest son of the late Anderson and Nancy Price was born in Chatham County, NC on April 23, 1898. His life was spent in North Carolina where he married Lugene Frances Siler in 1927.

Jabe accepted Christ as his Savior at an early age. He was a member of the Gees Grove Male Chorus and the Senior Choir for several years. He was also a member of the Gees Grove Community Circle and a devoted Sunday School attendant.

He retired from Southern Railroad Co. in 1952 because of failing health. He had many sick days, yet he was trusting in the Lord.

He was a proud father of five daughters and five sons, four of whom preceded him in death. Surviving relatives to cherish his memories are: a loving and devoted wife, Lugene Price; four daughters: Mazelle Roberts of Eden, N.C., Ruby Price of the home, Barbara Pinckney of Washington, D.C., Cozette Miller of Pittsford, N.Y.; two sons: Joseph L. Price of Granada Hills, Calif. and Lawrence Price of Los Angeles Calif.; 17 grandchildren, 4 great-grand-children, 2 sister-in-laws, a number of nieces, nephews, many relatives and friends.

*He fought a good fight,
The battle won;
The weary hours, the day
of pain;
The waking nights are past,
The ever-patient worn out frame, has found sweet rest at last.*
