Obituary

MR. HARVEY JACKSON WALDEN, son of the late Noah and Berline Walden was born March 12, 1885. Departed this life in Chatham Hospital December, 8, 1976, after several years of declining health.

A native of Wake County, where he spent several years of his adult life. In early life he recieved Christ in his life and joined, Mt. Zion Baptist Church, Apex, where he remained. He was married to the late Mrs. Clattie Smith Walden and to this union one son was born.

After her death he moved to the Chatham County Area, Bennett. He then married Mrs. Mary Ellen Maners Walden. He became a member of Glover's Crossroad United Church of Christ. He served on the Deacon Board till death, he was not able to attend church as he desired because of ill health. His request that the persons names appearing on the order of service sing at his funeral.

Survivors: widow, Mrs. Mary E. Walden, son, Mr. Vassie Walden of Raleigh, N.C and a granddaughter, Mrs. Dianne McMaster, of New Hill. Several Neices and Nephws and other relatives and friends.

Somewhere beyond the rainbow's end
The stars are bright and fair
No shadows-no darkness falls
The land is peaceful there.
