

Pall Bearers

NEPHEWS

Floral Bearers

NEICES

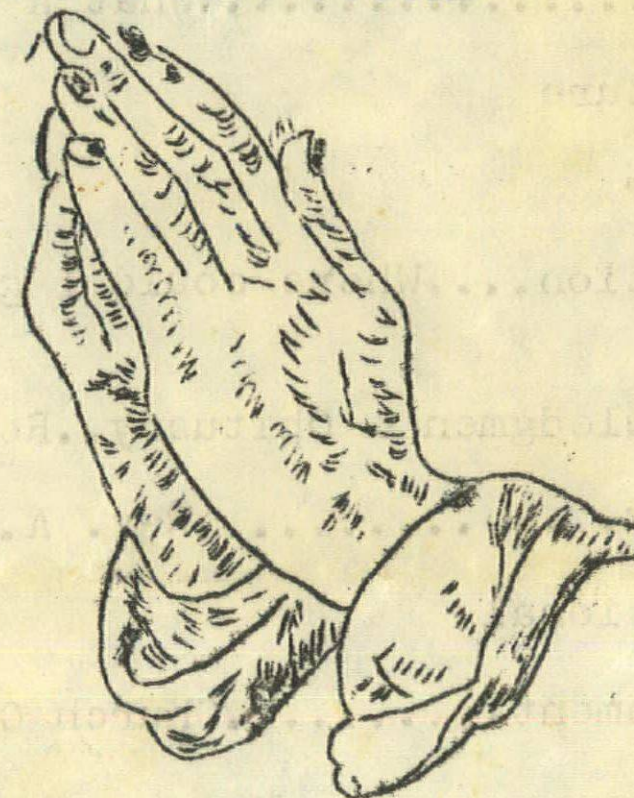

THE FAMILY appreciates every kind deed, and all expressions shown by; condalances, cards, prayers, visits, food, and floral arrangements. All served to console us at this time and in days ahead.

KIMES FUNERAL HOME
LIBERTY, N.C

Final Rites

For

Miss Beatrice Brooks

Sunday, April 4, 1976 3:00 P.M

Lambert Chapel Baptist Church

Rev. D.F Brown, pastor

Order of Service

Processional.....Soft Music
Hymn....."What A Friend"
Scripture
Prayer
Selection....Where could I go but to the Lord"
Acknowledgmen & Obituary..Rev. M.M Walden
Eulogy.....11 Ch Herb Rev. A.T Alston
10 Verse
Recessional
Internment.....Looking for a Home Church Cemetery
Sucking

Not now, but in the coming years
It may be in the better land
We'll read the meaning of our tears
And there sometime we'll understand

God knows the way, he hold the key
He guides us with unerring hands
Sometime with tearless eye we'll see
Yes, there, up there, we'll understand. THE FAMILY

OBITUARY

MISS BEATRICE BROOKS, daughter of the late Will and Lou Foxx Brooks, was born December 25, 1909. Miss Brooks departed this life at her home April 2, 1976, after a brief illness. 66 years old.

Miss Brooks was borned in Chatham County and early in her adult life, she moved to Randolph County, Franklinville, N.C.

She joined Butler Chapel Baptist, where she remained till death. Her early church life was in Lambert Chapel Baptist Church.

Among her favorite songs, "God's going to trouble the water".

Survivors: 2 daughters; Mrs. Dorotyh B. Spinks, Mrs. Thelma Currie, both of Franklinville. One sister, Mrs. Lila Matthews, of Franklinville, one brother, Mr. George Brooks of Siler City, Step-mother, Mrs. Emma Brooks of Lexington, one half-sister Mrs. Alberta Currie of Lexington, 2 ~~step~~ sisters, Mrs. Hazel Alston of Greensboro Mrs. Louise Currie of Indiana. Eleven grandchildren, five great grand-children.

Other relatives and friends.