Her Journey's Just Begun

Don't think of her as gone away...her journey's just begun, life holds so many facets...this earth is only one...Just think of her as resting from the sorrows and the tears in a place of warmth and comfort where there are no days and years. Think how she must be wishing that we could know today how nothing but our sadness can really pass away and think of her as living in the hearts of those she touched...for nothing loved is ever lost and she was loved so much.

Obituary

Mrs. Annie Jean Brown was born in Mt. Vernon Springs, North Carolina, on October 30th, 1936, to the loving parents of Robert E. Burnette and Bernice Hanner Burnette.

She was educated in the Chatham County School System and graduated from Chatham High School in 1955.

In 1961 she was united in Holy Matrimony with Guy J. Brown. To this union two loving and devoted children were born. They are Rodney C. Brown and Susan W. Brown. She was a devoted wife, mother and friend. Her children were the joy of her life; she was very active in supporting activities, whether they were in school, church or community. She could often be seen participating in school car pool, football booster club, church and community involvement. She held offices in the PTA and community clubs. She was known to all who loved her by her warm smile, loving and kind spirit and unselfish love.

Jean moved from this earthly plane on Friday, April 2, 1999. Cherishing her memory are her husband of 38 years, Guy J. Brown and the two children, Rodney and Susan. Also, there are three sisters who are: Mary Frances (Lucy) Burnette Fox, Nellie B. Burnette Al-Mosawi and Norma Frances Brooks (Danny); also, there is a sister/friend Mary Frances Wardlaw. Two aunts are Kathryn Currie and Frances Beck. Inlaws are Mrs. and Mrs. Fred Brown and Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Brown, and a host of other relatives.

To My Big Sister

Sis, God saw the road was getting rough, the hills were hard to climb. He gently closed those loving eyes and whispered, "Peace be thine". The weary hours, the days of pain, the sleepless nights are passed. The ever patient worn-out frame has found Sweet rest at last. He knew what was best. I love you.
