OBITUARY

Mrs. Lydia Dorothy Lee Lane Brooks, daughter of Kathryn J. Lane and the late Coble Lane was born on June 4, 1934, in Chatham County. She departed this life on April 16, 1981 at the age of 46 after one year of failing health.

She joined Jordan Grove Church at an early age where she remained a member until her death. During this time, she belonged to several organizations, held office as past secretary, and was a Home Mission worker until her death.

She completed two years Nursing School at Randolph Technical College, graduating as a LPN. She was employed by Chatham Hospital until her death. She was named Nurse of the Year for 1980, and also taught Nurse's Aide classes for Central Carolina Technical College.

She was united in holy matrimony to Mr. Samuel A. Brooks.

Survivors are: Husband, Mr. Samuel Brooks, 5 children: Miss Angela Brooks, Greensboro, N.C.; Sammy and Pam Brooks of Siler City, N.C.; Delane & Lisa Brooks of the home; mother, Mrs. Kathryn Lane; brother, Mr. Otis Lane; 1 foster son, Harold Brooks; 4 grandchildren; 5 aunts and 3 uncles; and a host of relatives and friends.

In Tears, we tried to reach you,
Before you faded away
Our hearts were truly broken,
We wanted you to stay.
But when we saw you sleeping
So peacefully and free from pain
How could we wish you back with us
To suffer that again.
It broke our hearts to loose you,
But you didn't go alone,
For part of us went with you,
The day God took you home.
