Obituary

Sweet, caring, loving, outgoing — Shennel R. McCrimon McKendall was a blessing to all she came in touch with. The youngest child of Lawrence and Joyce McCrimon was born on September 27, 1967.

Born and raised in the Bronx, New York, Shennel was a very private, yet giving person. She relocated to Pittsboro, NC and made a home for her and her daughter. She was employed by UNC Chapel Hill. A loving and kind person, Shennel has always been supportive of family and friends, but most of all; the love of her life was her daughter, Janay.

In addition to her parents, she leaves to treasure many loving memories, her daughter, Janay White of the home; two stepsons, Rashaad Toomer of Sanford, NC and Nicholas Douglas of the home; two brothers, Charles and Andre McCrimon of the Bronx, NY; two sisters, Delsey McCrimon of Beaufort, SC and Tabitha McCrimon of the Bronx, NY. Her two grandmothers, Mary Helen Dark of Pittsboro, NC and Marie Hampton of Danville, VA who both loved her dearly. She also has one godson, Justin Brower of Pittsboro, NC and one goddaughter, Tamika McKenzie of Baltimore, MD. Shennel was blessed by and a blessing to four life-long dedicated friends, Gina Richards, Cheryllyn Mobley, Susan Stanley and Tracy Sweet all of the Bronx, NY, and one very special cousin, Kimberly Brower of Pittsboro, NC. Lastly, a host of nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles, cousins and friends will always cherish her.

Thank you God for allowing this your precious jewel, Shennel, to be a part of our lives. We will be forever touched by her presence.
